Certain Pasta From Italy: Notice of Initiation and Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a changed circumstances review (CCR) of the antidumping duty (AD) order on certain pasta (pasta) from Italy. Further, Commerce preliminarily determines that Gruppo Milo SpA (Gruppo Milo) is the successor-in-interest to Gruppo Alimentare Mediterraneo Milo Srl (GRAMM) and should be assigned the same AD cash deposit rate as GRAMM for purposes of the AD order on pasta from Italy. Interested parties are invited to comment on these preliminary results.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Peter Zukowski, AD/CVD Operations, Office III, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–0189.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 24, 1996, Commerce published the AD order on pasta from Italy in the Federal Register.¹ On June ¹ See Notice of Antidumping Duty Order and Amended Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Certain Pasta from Italy, 61 FR 38547 (July 24, 1996) (Order).

6, 2024, Commerce received a request on behalf of Gruppo Milo for a CCR, pursuant to section 751(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) and 19 CFR 351.216(b), to establish Gruppo Milo as the successor-in-interest to GRAMM, an Italian producer and exporter of pasta and, thus, entitle it to GRAMM's AD cash deposit rate.² We received no comments from other interested parties concerning this request. On July 22, 2024, Commerce tolled certain deadlines in this administrative proceeding by seven days.³ The deadline for the initiation is now July 29, 2024.

Scope of the Order⁴

The scope of this Order covers shipments of certain non-egg dry pasta in packages of five pounds four ounces or less, whether or not enriched or fortified or containing milk or other optional ingredients such as chopped vegetables, vegetable purees, milk, gluten, diastasis, vitamins, coloring and flavorings, and two percent egg white. The pasta covered by the scope of the Order is typically sold in the retail market, in fiberboard or cardboard cartons, or polyethylene or polypropylene bags of varying dimensions.

Excluded from the scope of this Order are refrigerated, frozen, or canned pastas, as well as all forms of egg pasta, with the exception of non-egg dry pasta containing up to two percent egg white. Multicolored pasta, imported in kitchen display bottles of decorative glass that are sealed with cork or paraffin and bound with raffia, is excluded from the scope of the Order.⁵ Pursuant to Commerce's August 14, 2009, changed circumstances review, effective July 1, 2008, gluten free pasta is also excluded from the scope of the Order.⁶ Effective January 1, 2012, ravioli and tortellini filled with cheese and/or vegetables are also excluded from the scope of the Order.⁷

Also excluded are imports of organic pasta from Italy that are certified by an EU authorized body in accordance with the United States's Department of Agriculture's National Organic Program for organic products. The organic pasta certification must be retained by exporters and importers and made available to U.S. Customs and Border Protection or the Department of Commerce upon request.

The merchandise subject to this Order is currently classifiable under items 1901.90.9095 and 1902.19.20 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and Customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to the Order is dispositive.

Initiation of CCR

Pursuant to section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), Commerce will conduct a CCR upon receipt of information concerning, or a request from, an interested party for a review of an AD order which shows changed circumstances sufficient to warrant a review of the order. In the past, Commerce has used CCRs to address the applicability of cash deposit rates after there have been changes in the name or structure of a respondent, such as a merger or spinoff ("successor-in-interest" or "successorship" determinations).⁸ Based on a review of Gruppo Milo's request, and in accordance with section 751(b)(1)(A) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d), we find that the information submitted in the CCR Request supporting Gruppo Milo's request that it should be treated as the successor-in-interest to GRAMM is sufficient to warrant a review to determine whether Gruppo Milo is entitled to GRAMM's AD cash deposit rate.

Preliminary Results

Section 351.221(c)(3)(ii) of Commerce's regulations authorizes Commerce to combine the notice of initiation of a CCR and the notice of preliminary results if Commerce concludes that expedited action is warranted. In this instance, because the record contains information necessary to make a preliminary finding and no interested parties have submitted comments on Gruppo Milo's request, we find that expedited action is warranted and have combined the notice of initiation and the notice of preliminary results.

Pursuant to section 751(b) of the Act, we have conducted a CCR using a successor-in-interest analysis in response to Gruppo Milo's request. In making a successor-in-interest determination, Commerce examines several factors, including, but not limited to, changes in the following: (1) management and ownership; (2) production facilities; (3) supplier relationships; and (4) customer base.⁹ While no single factor or combination of factors will necessarily provide a dispositive indication of a successor-in-interest relationship, generally, Commerce will consider the new company to be the successor to the previous company if the new company's resulting operation is not materially dissimilar to that of its predecessor.¹⁰ Thus, if the evidence demonstrates that, with respect to the production and sales of the subject merchandise, the new company operates essentially the same business entity as the former company, Commerce will accord the new company the same antidumping treatment as its predecessor.¹¹ In accordance with 19 CFR 351.216, we preliminarily determine that Gruppo Milo is the successor-in-interest to GRAMM for purposes of the Order and is entitled to GRAMM's AD cash deposit rate.

1. Management

Gruppo Milo submitted evidence of its management before and after its name change. Gruppo Milo's evidence indicates that the board of directors, organizational chart, and ownership structure all remain the same before and after the change to its name and corporate form.¹²

2. Production Facilities

Gruppo Milo submitted evidence of its production facilities, including names of the facilities, addresses, what is produced at the facilities, and contact information. Gruppo Milo's evidence indicates that there were no changes to its production facilities as a result of the changes to its name and corporate form, as Gruppo Milo operates the same three production facilities that were operated by GRAMM.¹³

3. Supplier Relationships and Customer Base

Gruppo Milo provided lists of both its suppliers¹⁴ and U.S. customers¹⁵ before and after the name change to support its assertion that there have been no material changes to GRAMM's suppliers or its customer base. This documentation shows that the top suppliers and customers are the same both before and after the changes to its name and corporate form.

In addition to the evidence above, Gruppo Milo provided documentation demonstrating approval of GRAMM's name change by GRAMM's shareholders on March 8, 2024 (the shareholders remained unchanged from prior to the name change).¹⁶ Further, as support, Gruppo Milo provided the "Visura," or company registration report for Gruppo Milo SpA from the Milan Chamber of Commerce as it appears in the Italian Business Register—Company Registration Office.¹⁷ Gruppo Milo also provided the Visura for GRAMM for comparative reference, which shows that the basic purpose and structure of the company remains unchanged.¹⁸ The continuity between Gruppo Milo's Visura and GRAMM's Visura supports the claim that Gruppo Milo's operations with respect to sales of subject merchandise have not materially changed as a result of its name change.

⁸ See, e.g., Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof from the People's Republic of China: Initiation and Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review, 82 FR 51605, 51606 (November 7, 2017) (Diamond Sawblades from China Preliminary), unchanged in Diamond Sawblades and Parts Thereof from the People's Republic of China: Final Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review, 82 FR 60177 (December 19, 2017) (Diamond Sawblades from China Final).

Therefore, based on the record evidence discussed above, we preliminarily determine that Gruppo Milo is the successor-in-interest to GRAMM, as the change in the business' name and corporate form was not accompanied by changes to its management and ownership, production facilities, supplier relationships, or customer base. Thus, we preliminarily determine that Gruppo Milo is entitled to the same AD cash deposit rate with respect to subject merchandise as its predecessor.

Should our final results remain unchanged from these preliminary results, we will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection to assign entries of subject merchandise exported by Gruppo Milo the AD cash deposit rate applicable to GRAMM. Commerce will issue its final results of the review in accordance with the time limits set forth in 19 CFR 351.216(e).
