

information collection. The increase in total estimated annual burden from 88 hours in 2022 to 144 hours in this renewal is due to an increase in estimated number of respondents. We are renewing on the PRA-required 3-year renewal schedule despite the current Federal hiring freeze to ensure the FDIC can resume collecting this information from job applicants when the freeze is lifted.

Request for Comment

Comments are invited on (a) whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the FDIC's functions, including whether the information has practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the estimates of the burden of the information collection, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology. All comments will become a matter of public record.
