NATIONAL CREDIT UNION ADMINISTRATION

Chartering and Field of Membership—Public Hearing; Community Charter Application for Area With a Population of 2.5 Million or More

AGENCY: National Credit Union Administration (NCUA).

ACTION: Notice of public hearing.

SUMMARY: The NCUA will hold a public hearing on a request from Dade County Federal Credit Union, submitted on September 19, 2024, seeking to expand its existing community charter. The Census Bureau estimates the proposed community's population is 6,263,813 people. This public hearing is being held pursuant to the NCUA's Chartering and Field of Membership Manual, and the agency is requesting comments from interested stakeholders regarding whether the area qualifies as a well-defined local community.

DATES: The public hearing will be held on September 23, 2025, at 1 p.m. Eastern. Interested parties seeking to make presentations during the hearing must register by August 26, 2025, to be placed on a list of presenters. The applicant along with no more than seven other interested parties may request to make presentations. The first six interested parties that contact the NCUA in writing will be permitted to make such presentations. Members of the public seeking to watch or listen to the virtual meeting must register to view the public hearing. The agency will not reimburse any travel expenses for interested parties making presentations, or members of the public attending the meeting. Written comments must be submitted by August 26, 2025.

ADDRESSES: The meeting will be held virtually via WebEx.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For public hearing process issues: Marcia Sigal, Acting Director; Rita Woods, Division Director of Consumer Access; or Christine Chase, Consumer Access Analyst, Office of Credit Union Resources and Expansion (CURE), at 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, VA 22314, or telephone (703) 518–1150. For legal issues: Ian Marenna, Associate General Counsel for Regulations and Legislation, Office of General Counsel at the above address or telephone (703) 518–6554.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: The NCUA's Chartering and Field of Membership Manual provides that for an applicant seeking a community charter for an area with multiple political jurisdictions with a population of 2.5 million people or more, the Office of Credit Union Resources and Expansion (CURE) shall do the following: (1) publish a notice in the Federal Register seeking comment from interested parties about the proposed community and (2) conduct a public hearing about this application.¹ The preamble to the June 28, 2018, final rule, that established the public hearing process, sets forth the procedures that will govern such hearings.² The procedures are described in the following section of this notice.

Public Hearing Procedures: The NCUA will appoint a presiding officer to oversee and conduct the public hearing. The presiding officer will have the authority and discretion to ensure that the meeting proceeds in a fair and orderly manner. The NCUA will transcribe the meeting, which will provide an administrative record to allow the agency to consider comments presented at the hearing along with those submitted in writing.

The public hearing will last no more than four hours with interested parties making presentations of no more than 30 minutes each. Only eight parties may make a presentation, which includes the applicant and seven other interested parties. The first six parties in addition to the applicant that contact the NCUA in writing will be permitted to make such presentations. CURE will reserve the remaining slot, which it has the discretion to designate as eligible for a presentation by an interested party. In addition to the presentations, interested
