Brothers Site (8SO31) is a shell midden first discovered in 1973 when it was partially destroyed by dredging the canal adjacent to the Myakka River. A surface collection was conducted in 1975 by W.A. Cockrell. The two Ancestors found were turned over to Col. William Royal, who subsequently deposited them with the State Division of Archives. The collection is associated with various accessions (2003-10, 12, 13, 14) that went to Arizona State University (ASU) from other institutions across the state of Florida. This collection had ties to the Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research, but all parties concerned agreed to transfer all these collections to the Florida Museum of Natural History in 2003. There are no associated funerary objects.
