Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Mejia’s conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554. As provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations

(“EAR” or the “Regulations”), BIS provided notice and opportunity for Mejia to make a written submission to BIS. 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Mejia.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Mejia’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Mejia’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Mejia had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until June 11, 2034, Jose Guadalupe Mejia, with a last known address of Inmate Number: 37825–510, FCI Beaumont Low, Federal Correctional Institution, P.O. C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of ECRA and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Mejia by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.
