Abstract of Information Available

Human Remains representing, at least, one individual have been identified. No associated funerary objects are present. In 1982, the NPS funded an archeological investigation of the Moore Farm property (Tract 51-136) in Oldtown, Allegany County, Maryland. A human sacrum representing a single individual was recovered. The investigations resulted in the formal designation of an archeological site (18AG43; Moore Village Site), which included a palisaded village. Organic materials from the Moore Village Site were radiocarbon-dated between 1419-1587 (modelled Median Start and End Date). Dr. Douglas W. Owsley of the Department of Anthropology, National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC identified the sacrum and determined it was from a human female, approximately 30-40 years of age.

Cultural Affiliation

Based on the information available and the results of consultation, cultural affiliation is reasonably identified by the geographic location or acquisition history of the human remains described in this notice.

Determinations

CHOH has determined that:

Abstract of Information Available

A total of 24 cultural items have been requested for repatriation. The 24 unassociated funerary objects include ceramic vessels and sherds; mineral/mica; chipped and ground stone tools; shell cups, tools and ornaments; and modified animal bone. In 1901, Clarence B. Moore removed the cultural items from the following sites on what is now Tyndall Air Force Base, Bay County, Florida: Mound near Davis Point (8BY7); Mound near Pearl Bayou, St. Andrew's Bay (8BY25); Mound near Strange's Landing, St. Andrew's Bay (8BY26); Larger Mound in Hare Hammock (8BY30); Smaller Mound in Hare Hammock (8BY31); locality in Calhoun County, Florida, which may be Baker's Landing (8BY29). Moore transferred the cultural items to the Robert S. Peabody Institute of Archaeology (then called the Department of Archaeology) in the early twentieth century, where they were cataloged with the following numbers: 38969; 38983; 39033; 39055; 39066; 39068; 39070; 39071; 39074; 39077; 39112; 39122; 39134; 39153; 39171; 39185; 39193; 39258; 39286; 39287; 39295; 39337; 39371; and 40376.
