SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of July 17, 2025 (90 FR 33268), FDA issued a direct final rule revoking 11 standards of identity for canned fruits and vegetable products that are no longer sold in the United States. FDA took this action as these standards are no longer necessary to promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, and this action will remove obsolete rules to reduce unnecessary regulatory requirements. The direct final rule provided a 30-day comment period ending August 18, 2025. We stated that the effective date of the direct final rule would be September 22, 2025, unless we received a significant adverse comment during the comment period. We did not receive any significant adverse comments. Therefore, the effective date of the direct final rule is September 22, 2025.

AGENCY: Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.

ACTION: Correcting amendments.

SUMMARY: On August 15, 2025, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) revised its regulation on termination of single-employer plans. That document inadvertently failed to correctly format a list of requirements. This document corrects the final regulation.

DATES: Effective September 26, 2025.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 15, 2025, PBGC published a final rule (90 FR 39320) that made improvements to its regulation on termination of single-employer plans (29 CFR part 4041). PBGC explained in the preamble of the final rule that it was amending the criteria majority owners must meet to waive their benefits by modifying its application of the constructive ownership rules.¹ The alternative treatment of a majority owner’s plan benefit is valid only if the election is in writing; requisite spousal consent criteria is met, if applicable; and the majority owner’s election and the spouse’s consent does not violate a qualified domestic relations order.² PBGC is making a technical correction to clarify that individuals who are majority owners through constructive ownership must meet all of the requirements under § 4041.21(b)(2).
