Abstract: Through the Survey of Jails in Indian Country (SJIC), the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) collects annual aggregated administrative data from all Indian country jails, which consists of approximately 77 confinement facilities, detention centers, and other correctional facilities operated by tribal authorities or the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA). Facility administrators provide data on SJIC form CJ-5B that meet the definitions provided by BJS for items including: the number of inmates confined by demographic information, number of new admissions and final discharges, the average daily population (ADP) and peak population, the number of attempted suicides and deaths, the rated capacity to hold inmates, and the number of staff employed in Indian country jails. The Bureau of Justice Statistics uses this information in published reports and for the U.S.

Congress, Executive Office of the President, practitioners, researchers, students, the media, and others interested in criminal justice statistics.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: Reinstatement, with changes, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.

2. The Title of the Form/Collection: Annual Survey of Jails in Indian Country (SJIC).

3. The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: The form number is CJ-5B: Annual Survey of Jails in Indian Country (SJIC). The applicable component within the Department of Justice is the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), in the Office of Justice Programs. The Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) requests clearance to conduct the Annual Survey of Jails in Indian Country (SJIC) for a three-year period.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as the obligation to respond: Affected Public Respondents will include tribal and federal governments which will include approximately 77 confinement facilities, detention centers, and other correctional facilities operated by tribal authorities or the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The obligation to respond is voluntary.

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: BJS estimates approximately 77 Indian country correctional facilities will complete SJIC form CJ-5B. The estimated time for each respondent is 55 minutes total including contact verification, survey completion, and data quality follow-up. The burden estimate is based on the paradata BJS collected from the 2024 administration of the SJIC.

6. An estimate of the total annual burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The burden hours will be approximately 70.5 hours total for all facilities per year and 211.5 hours total for all facilities over the course of three years.

7. An estimate of the total annual cost burden associated with the collection, if applicable: $205,537.
