DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Water Act

On November 18, 2025, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania in the lawsuit entitled Lower Susquehanna Riverkeeper Association et al. v. Hanover Foods Corporation, Civil Action No. 1:21-cv-01600-JPW.

This is a civil action initiated by the Lower Susquehanna Riverkeeper Association against Hanover Foods Corporation (“Hanover”), involving claims under the Clean Water Act (“CWA”) and The Pennsylvania Clean Streams Law (“PCSL”). The United States, on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Environmental Protection (“PADEP”), were granted intervention in this case on October 1, 2025. The United States’ and PADEP’s complaint-in-intervention also brings claims under the CWA and the PCSL based on similar and overlapping alleged violations. These include violations of effluent limits, other discharge limitations, and operation and maintenance requirements in Hanover’s National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit at its food-processing and canning facility in Hanover, York County, Pennsylvania. The complaint-in-intervention seeks civil penalties and injunctive relief for Hanover’s alleged violations.

The consent decree, which would resolve all plaintiffs’ claims, requires the Defendant to pay a $1,150,000 civil penalty, which will be split evenly between the United States and PADEP. The Defendant has also agreed to implement measures to bring Hanover’s facility into compliance, improve its operational practices, and prevent future violations.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Acting Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to Lower Susquehanna Riverkeeper Association et al. v. Hanover Foods Corporation, D.J. Ref. No. 90-5-1-12557. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:

DATES: Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for 60 days until January 20, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have additional comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Tiffany Watson, Office on Violence Against Women, at 202-307-6026 or Tiffany.Watson@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Office on Violence Against Women, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Evaluate whether and if so, how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Abstract: The Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) administers the Financial Assistance Grants for Victims of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking Program (FAV Program). The FAV Program supports victim service providers, Tribal governments, and Tribal organizations to provide flexible financial assistance to survivors of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, alongside other victim services. Flexible financial assistance is intended to support survivors in achieving safety, stability, and healing by paying for necessities that are not easily met by traditional service providers and with the flexibility to meet self-identified needs quickly. For Fiscal Year (FY) 2025, OVW sent a Letter of Interest to entities that had the highest scoring applications not selected for FY 2024 FAV Program funding and that are located in a state where no FAV Program awards were issued last year. Based on responses and available funding, OVW invited 13 applicants to apply for FY 2025 FAV Program funding.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection: New collection.
2. Title of the Form/Collection: Semi-annual Performance Reporting Form for Financial Assistance Grants for Victims of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking Program (FAV Program).
3. Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: Form Number: 1122–XXXX. U.S. Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.
