In the Matter of: Kevin Uriel Garza, Inmate Number: 80673–510, FCI Talladega, Federal Correctional Institution, P.M.B. 1000, Talladega, AL 35160; Order Denying Export Privileges

On September 12, 2024, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Kevin Uriel Garza (“Garza”) was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554 (Smuggling Goods from the United States). Specifically, Garza was convicted of fraudulently and knowingly receiving, concealing, buying, selling, or facilitating the transportation, concealment, or sale of ammunition prior to exportation from the United States, knowing that such items were intended for exportation from the United States without the required authorization. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Garza to 37 months in prison and three years of supervised release.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),<sup>1</sup> the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Garza's conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554. As provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or the “Regulations”), BIS provided notice and opportunity for Garza to make a written submission to BIS. 15 CFR 766.25.<sup>2</sup> BIS has not received a written submission from Garza.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Garza's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Garza's conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Garza had an interest at the time of his conviction.<sup>3</sup>

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered: First, from the date of this Order until September 12, 2034, Kevin Uriel Garza, with a last known address of Inmate Number: 80673–510, FCI Talladega, Federal Correctional Institution, P.M.B. 1000, Talladega, AL 35160, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives (“the Denied Person”), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

<sup>3</sup> The Director, Office of Export Enforcement, is the authorizing official for issuance of denial orders pursuant to amendments to the Regulations (85 Fed. Reg. 73411, November 18, 2020).

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of ECRA and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Garza by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with Part 756 of the Regulations, Garza may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of Part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Garza and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect September 12, 2034.

Steven Fisher,

Acting Director, Office of Export Enforcement.

In the Matter of: Antonio Jose Melean Reyes, Inmate Number: 75982–510, USP Coleman I, U.S. Penitentiary, P.O. Box 1033, Coleman, FL 33521; Order Denying Export Privileges

On or about May 3, 2024, in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida, Antonio Jose Melean Reyes (“Reyes”) was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554(a) (Smuggling Goods from the United States). Specifically, Reyes was convicted of smuggling firearms from the United States to Venezuela. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Reyes to 72 months of imprisonment and three years of supervised release.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),<sup>1</sup> the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Reyes’s conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554. As provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or the “Regulations”), BIS provided notice and opportunity for Reyes to make a written submission to BIS. 15 CFR 766.25.<sup>2</sup> BIS has not received a written submission from Reyes.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Reyes’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Reyes’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Reyes had an interest at the time of his conviction.<sup>3</sup>

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until May 3, 2034, Antonio Jose Melean Reyes, with a last known address of Inmate Number: 75982–510, USP Coleman I, U.S. Penitentiary, P.O. Box 1033, Coleman, FL 33521, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives (“the Denied Person”), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported

<sup>3</sup> The Director, Office of Export Enforcement, is the authorizing official for issuance of denial orders pursuant to amendments to the Regulations (85 FR 73411, November 18, 2020).
