

reimbursement of the QIA by the Plan or any other party for any failure to adhere to its contractual obligations or to state or Federal laws applicable to the QIA's work; and the QIA may not seek or obtain any waiver of any rights, claims or remedies of the Plan or its participants and beneficiaries under ERISA, the Code, or other Federal and state laws against the QIA with respect to the subject matter of the exemption;

(g) Straub must pay back to the Plan the remaining Property Expenses the Plan erroneously paid from 2006 through 2014, including lost interest, in violation of the Lease and PTE 81–71. Straub must pay the IRS the legally required excise tax for all prohibited transactions conducted by the Plan from 2006 until 2022.

(h) Straub and Hawai'i Pacific Health maintains for a period of six (6) years from the date of Sale, in a manner that is convenient and accessible for audit and examination, the records necessary to enable the persons described in paragraph (i)(1) below to determine whether conditions of this exemption have been met, except that (i) a prohibited transaction will not be considered to have occurred merely because, due to circumstances beyond the control of Straub, Hawai'i Pacific Health, and/or the QIF, the records are lost or destroyed prior to the end of the six-year period, and (ii) no party in interest other than Straub, Hawai'i Pacific Health or the QIF shall be subject to the civil penalty that may be assessed under ERISA section 502(i) if the records are not maintained, or are not available for examination as required by paragraph (i) below;

(i)(1) Except as provided in Section (2) of this paragraph and notwithstanding any provisions of subsections (a)(2) and (b) of ERISA section 504, the records referred to in paragraph (h) above shall be unconditionally available at their customary location during normal business hours to:

(i) any duly authorized employee or representative of the Department or the Internal Revenue Service;

(ii) Straub, Hawai'i Pacific Health or any duly authorized representative of Straub or Hawai'i Pacific Health;

(iii) the QIF or any duly authorized representative of the QIF;

(iv) any participant or beneficiary of the Plan, or any duly authorized representative of such participant or beneficiary;

(j) Straub, Hawai'i Pacific Health and/or QIF must provide to the Department the records necessary to demonstrate that the conditions of the exemption have been met, within 30 days from the date the Department requests such records; and

(k) All the material facts and representations made by the Applicant that are set forth in the Summary of Facts and Representations must be true and accurate at all times.

Exemption date: If granted, the exemption will be in effect as of the date the grant notice is published in the Federal Register.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 19th day of November 2025.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request; Welding, Cutting, and Brazing Standard (29 CFR Part 1910, Subpart Q)

ACTION: Notice of availability; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor (DOL) is submitting this Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA)-sponsored information collection request (ICR) to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA). Public comments on the ICR are invited.

DATES: The OMB will consider all written comments that the agency receives on or before December 26, 2025.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting “Currently under 30-day Review—Open for Public Comments” or by using the search function.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Nicole Bouchet by telephone at 202–693–0213, or by email at DOL_PRA_PUBLIC@dol.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The information collected is used by employers and workers whenever welding, cutting, and brazing are performed. The purpose of the information is to ensure that employers evaluate hazards associated with welding and ensure that adequate measures are taken to make the process safe. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on March 20, 2025 (90 FR 13216).

Comments are invited on: (1) whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Department, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of the agency's estimates of the burden and cost of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information collection; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
