

equal to 50 percent of the GSIB's most recent method 1 surcharge.

On December 1, 2025, the agencies published a final rule amending their regulatory capital rule that, among other things, modifies the eSLR standard applicable to depository institution subsidiaries of GSIBs to an eSLR buffer standard equal to 50 percent of a covered depository institution's parent GSIB's method 1 surcharge, capped at one percent (capital final rule).³ The changes in the capital final rule are effective as of April 1, 2026, with the option to early adopt starting on January 1, 2026.

B. Proposed Revisions to Call Report Schedule RC-R

In the July 2025 Call Report proposal,⁴ the agencies proposed revisions to the FFIEC 031 report form and instructions, consistent with the capital proposal. The agencies proposed adding two new line items to Schedule RC-R, Regulatory Capital, Part I, Regulatory Capital Components and Ratios (Schedule RC-R, Part I), to reflect leverage buffer requirements, as applicable, under the capital proposal. Specifically, the agencies proposed to add new line items 56.a, "Leverage buffer standard," and 56.b, "Leverage buffer." These line items would be reported only by respondents that are depository institution subsidiaries of GSIBs. Additionally, the agencies proposed revisions to the Call Report instructions consistent with the capital proposal.

C. Comments Received and Final eSLR Rule Reporting Revisions

No comments were received on the July 2025 Call Report proposal that were specifically related to the proposed revisions to the FFIEC 031 report form and instructions. Therefore, the agencies will proceed with adding two new line items to Schedule RC-R, Part I, to reflect leverage buffer requirements. The Call Report instructions for Schedule RC-R, Part I, will also be revised to be consistent with the capital final rule including incorporation of the eSLR buffer standard applicable to depository institution subsidiaries of GSIBs equal to 50 percent of a covered depository institution's parent GSIB's method 1 surcharge, capped at one percent.

III. Timing

As stated in the July 2025 notice, the agencies plan to make these revisions to the Call Report forms and instructions effective with the first report date following the effective date of the capital final rule. Thus, the reporting revisions to the Call Report would take effect as of the June 30, 2026, report date. For institutions that early adopt the final rule prior to April 1, 2026, the agencies plan to provide supplemental instructions to facilitate reporting in the March 31, 2026, Call Report.

IV. Request for Comment

Public comment is requested on all aspects of this joint notice. Comment is specifically invited on:

(a) Whether the proposed revisions to the collections of information that are the subject of this notice are necessary for the proper performance of the agencies' functions, including whether the information has practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of the agencies' estimates of the burden of the information collections as they are proposed to be revised, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;

(d) Ways to minimize the burden of information collections on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and

(e) Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

Comments submitted in response to this joint notice will be shared among the agencies.
