

current. It, therefore—(1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. For the same reason, the FAA certifies that this amendment will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

Strengthening the Section 184 Indian Housing Loan Guarantee Program; Extension of Compliance Date

AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule; extension of compliance date.

SUMMARY: This document indefinitely delays the compliance date for HUD’s final rule entitled “Strengthening the Section 184 Indian Housing Loan Guarantee Program” published on March 20, 2024 until HUD completes necessary updates to the handbook, which will provide necessary guidance for implementing the final rule.

DATES: The compliance date announced on January 17, 2025, at 90 FR 5604, is indefinitely delayed. HUD will publish a document in the Federal Register announcing a new compliance date.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On March 20, 2024, HUD published the final rule (89 FR 20032), which amended the regulations to the Section 184 Indian Housing Loan Guarantee Program (Section 184 Program). Since its inception, the Section 184 Program has experienced an increase in demand. As a result, the final rule updated program regulations to minimize potential risk and increase program participation by financial institutions, and added eligibility and participation requirements for Lender Applicants, Direct Guarantee Lenders, Non-Direct Guarantee Lenders, Holders and Servicers and other Section 184 Program participants. The final rule also clarified the rules governing Tribal participation in the program, established underwriting requirements, specifies rules on the closing and endorsement process, established stronger and clearer servicing requirements, established program rules governing claims submitted by servicers and paid by HUD, and added standards governing monitoring, reporting, sanctions, and appeals. Lastly, the final rule added new definitions and makes statutory conforming amendments, including the categorical exclusion of the Section 184 Program in HUD's environmental review regulations.

On June 14, 2024, HUD published a document in the Federal Register (89 FR 50523) announcing that the final rule's effective date would be delayed from June 18, 2024, to December 31, 2024, with a compliance date of March 1, 2025. Subsequently, HUD published an additional document in Federal Register (90 FR 5604) extending the compliance date for the final rule from March 1, 2025, to December 31, 2025.

II. Delay of Compliance Date

HUD is currently drafting a handbook to implement the final rule. The handbook will provide comprehensive guidance and clarification for all stakeholders to fully understand and implement the final rule. Given the size of the handbook, its accompanying forms, level of additional consultation with stakeholders needed to complete the handbook, and intensive training on key components of the new handbook that must be given to stakeholders, HUD has determined that it needs additional time before enforcing the final rule. Further, HUD has heard from Tribes, lenders, servicers, and other participants that additional time is needed after the publication of the handbook for these stakeholders to conform their policies, procedures, and systems to comply with the handbook and the final rule.

As a result of these factors, HUD is therefore indefinitely delaying the compliance date of the final rule. When HUD completes updates to the handbook, HUD will publish an additional Federal Register notice announcing a new compliance date for the final rule. This future notice will provide a reasonable time for implementation before requiring compliance, of at least 30 and up to 90 days after the publication of the notice.

Benjamin Hobbs,

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of the Attorney General

28 CFR Part 0

[Docket No. JMD165; AG Order No. 6570–2025]

Consolidation of the Office of the Executive Secretariat Into the Justice Management Division

AGENCY: Department of Justice.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule amends the Department's organizational regulations by eliminating the Office of the Executive Secretariat as a separate office and consolidating its functions within the Justice Management Division.

DATES: Effective December 29, 2025.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John E. Thompson, Deputy General Counsel, Justice Management Division; email: John.E.Thompson@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Summary

On January 17, 2025, the Department of Justice published a final rule amending its organizational regulations to establish the functions of the Office of the Executive Secretariat ("OES") which had been created as a separate component of the Department on August 17, 2023. Office of the Executive Secretariat, 90 FR 5608 (Jan. 17, 2025).

Upon further consideration of the best way to organize the Department and consistent with the Administration's deregulatory and streamlining initiatives, this rule rescinds the prior establishment of OES as a separate component. This rule restores its functions to a staff within the Justice Management Division, which had formerly performed those functions prior to the August 17, 2023, establishment of OES.

This rule also revises 28 CFR 0.1 to delete OES from the list of Department components.

II. Administrative Procedure Act

This rule is a rule of agency organization, procedure, and practice and is limited to matters of agency management and personnel. Therefore, it is not a substantive rule, and, as such, it is exempt from the requirements of prior notice and comment and a 30-day delay in the effective date. See 5 U.S.C. 553(a)(2), (b)(A), (d).

III. Regulatory Analyses

In developing this final rule, the Department considered numerous statutes and executive orders applicable to the rulemaking process. The Department's analysis of the applicability of those statutes and executive orders to this rule is summarized below.

A. Executive Order 12866 (Regulatory Planning and Review), Executive Order 13563 (Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review), and Executive Order 14192 (Unleashing Prosperity Through Deregulation)

This final rule is not a significant regulatory action under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, and as supplemented by Executive Order 13563. This rule is limited to agency organization, management, and personnel as described by Executive Order 12866, section 3(d)(3), and therefore is not a "regulation" or "rule" as defined by that Executive Order. Accordingly, this action has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget.

Further, as this rule relates to agency organization, management, or personnel, it is fully exempt from the numerical 10-for-1 and cost offset requirements of Executive Order 14192.

B. Executive Order 14294 (Overcriminalization of Federal Regulations)

Executive Order 14294 requires agencies promulgating regulations with criminal regulatory offenses potentially subject to criminal enforcement to explicitly describe the conduct subject to criminal enforcement, the authorizing statutes, and the mens rea standard applicable to each element of those offenses. This final rule does not impose a criminal regulatory penalty and is thus exempt from E.O. 14294 requirements.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act of 1980, 5 U.S.C. 601–612, as amended, requires Federal agencies to consider the potential impact of regulations on small entities during rulemaking. The term "small entities" comprises small businesses, not-for-profit organizations that are independently owned and operated and are not dominant in their fields, and governmental jurisdictions with populations of less than 50,000. 5 U.S.C. 601.
