SUMMARY: On December 11, 2025, the U.S. Court of International Trade (CIT) issued its final judgment in *Coalition of American Manufacturers of Mobile Access Equipment v. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On February 22, 2022, Commerce published its Final Determination in the LTFV investigation of MAE from China.¹ On April 14, 2022, Commerce subsequently published the AD order on MAE from China.² The Coalition of American Manufacturers of Mobile Access Equipment appealed Commerce's Final Determination with respect to its surrogate values for ocean freight and certain minor fabricated steel parts.³

On May 31, 2024, the CIT remanded the Final Determination to Commerce, ordering Commerce to reconsider or further explain: (1) its determination as to ocean freight costs; and (2) its valuation of 'minor fabricated steel components' (as that term was used in the Final Determination).⁴ In the Final Remand,⁵ Commerce reconsidered its determination and relied on Maersk data for ocean freight and Brazilian per-unit import average unit value for Harmonized System subheading 8431.20.90 for certain minor fabricated steel components.⁶

On December 11, 2025, the CIT sustained Commerce's final remand redetermination.⁷

Thus, this notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.¹⁰

Oil Country Tubular Goods From the People's Republic of China: Notice of Covered Merchandise Referral and Initiation of Covered Merchandise Inquiry

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) has received a covered merchandise referral from U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) in connection with a CBP investigation concerning alleged evasion of the antidumping and countervailing duty (AD/CVD) orders on oil country tubular goods (OCTG) from the People's Republic of China (China). Commerce is initiating a covered merchandise inquiry to determine whether the merchandise described in the referral is subject to the AD/CVD orders on OCTG from China. Interested parties are invited to comment and submit factual information addressing this initiation.

DATES: Applicable December 31, 2025.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Harrison Tanchuck, AD/CVD Operations, Office VI, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230, telephone: (202) 482–7421.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 517(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), provides a procedure whereby if, during the course of an Enforce and Protect Act (EAPA) investigation, CBP is unable to determine whether the merchandise at issue is covered merchandise within the meaning of section 517(a)(3) of the Act, it shall refer the matter to Commerce to make such a determination. Section 517(a)(3) of the Act defines covered merchandise as merchandise that is subject to an AD order issued under section 736 of the Act or a CVD order issued under section 706 of the Act. Section 517(b)(4)(B) of the Act states that Commerce, after receiving a covered merchandise referral from CBP, shall determine whether the merchandise is covered merchandise and promptly transmit its determination to CBP. Commerce's regulations at 19 CFR 351.227 establish procedures for covered merchandise referrals that Commerce receives from CBP in connection with an EAPA investigation.¹

On December 1, 2025, Commerce received a sufficient covered merchandise referral from CBP regarding CBP EAPA Investigation No. 8143² which concerns the AD/CVD orders on OCTG from China.³ Specifically, CBP explained that an allegation was filed by the U.S. OCTG

² See CBP's Letter, "Covered Merchandise Referral Request for EAPA Investigation 8143 Involving the Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Orders on Certain Oil Country Tubular Goods from the People's Republic of China," dated December 1, 2025 (Covered Merchandise Referral Letter). The covered merchandise referral and any supporting documents will be made available on Enforcement and Compliance's Antidumping Duty and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS). Manufacturers Association alleging that U.S. importers Commercial Steel Products LLC (CSP) and JOL Tubular, Inc. (JOL Tubular) evaded the AD/CVD Orders on OCTG from China by entering covered merchandise into the United States without declaring it as subject to the AD/CVD Orders on OCTG from China and paying the applicable AD/CVD duties. CBP informed Commerce that CBP is unable to determine whether certain merchandise is covered merchandise subject to the AD/CVD Orders on OCTG from China. Thus, CBP has requested that Commerce issue a determination as to whether the OCTG produced by Boly Pipe Co., Ltd. (Boly Pipe) in Thailand out of steel billets⁴ from China is subject to the AD/CVD Orders on OCTG from China.

Initiation of Covered Merchandise Inquiry

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.227(b)(1), Commerce is hereby notifying interested parties that it is initiating a covered merchandise inquiry to determine whether the merchandise subject to the referral is covered merchandise within the meaning of section 517(a)(3) of the Act. Additionally, Commerce intends to provide interested parties with the opportunity to participate in this segment of the proceeding, including through the submission of comments and factual information, and, if appropriate, verification. In accordance with 19 CFR 351.227(m)(2), Commerce is initiating a single inquiry regarding the merchandise described in the covered merchandise referral on the record of the AD proceeding. Upon issuance of a final covered merchandise determination, Commerce will include a copy of the determination on the record of the CVD proceeding.

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.227(d)(1), within 30 days of the date of publication of this notice, interested parties are permitted one opportunity to submit comments and factual information addressing the initiation. Within 14 days of the filing of such comments, any interested party is permitted one opportunity to submit comments and factual information to rebut, clarify, or correct factual information submitted by the other interested parties.

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.227(d)(2), following initiation of a covered merchandise inquiry, Commerce may also issue questionnaires and verify submissions
