

FSIS also requires official slaughter establishments that transport carcasses or parts of cattle 30 months of age and older and containing vertebral columns to other federally inspected establishments to ensure that the carcasses and parts are accompanied by documentation stating that they contain vertebral columns from such cattle, to maintain records identifying the establishments that receive the carcasses and parts, and to maintain records verifying that the receiving establishments removed and properly disposed of the portions of the vertebral column designated as SRMs (9 CFR 310.22(g)).

This monitoring and recordkeeping is necessary for establishments to ensure, in a manner that can be verified by FSIS, that meat and meat products distributed in commerce for use as human food do not contain SRMs.

FSIS has made the following estimates for the renewal information collection:

Respondents: Official establishments that slaughter cattle or process parts of cattle.

Estimated No. of Respondents: 3,512.

Estimated No. of Annual Responses per Respondent: 303.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 123,916 hours.

All responses to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will also become a matter of public record. Copies of this information collection assessment can be obtained from Gina Kouba, Office of Policy and Program Development, Food Safety and Inspection Service, USDA, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Mailstop 3758, South Building, Washington, DC 20250-3700; 202-720-5046.

Comments are invited on: (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FSIS' functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of FSIS' estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the method and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques, or other forms of information technology. Comments may be sent to both FSIS, at the addresses provided above, and the Desk Officer for Agriculture, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of

Management and Budget (OMB), Washington, DC 20253.

Additional Public Notification

Public awareness of all segments of rulemaking and policy development is important. Consequently, FSIS will announce this Federal Register publication on-line through the FSIS web page located at: <https://www.fsis.usda.gov/federal-register>.

FSIS will also announce and provide a link to this Federal Register publication through the FSIS Constituent Update, which is used to provide information regarding FSIS policies, procedures, regulations, Federal Register notices, FSIS public meetings, and other types of information that could affect or would be of interest to our constituents and stakeholders. The Constituent Update is available on the FSIS web page. Through the web page, FSIS can provide information to a much broader, more diverse audience. In addition, FSIS offers an email subscription service that provides automatic and customized access to selected food safety news and information. This service is available at: <https://www.fsis.usda.gov/subscribe>. The available information ranges from recalls to export information, regulations, directives, and notices. Customers can add or delete subscriptions themselves and have the option to password protect their accounts.

USDA Non-Discrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and USDA civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the State or local Agency that administers the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Mail Stop 9410, Washington, DC 20250-9410; (2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or (3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Food Safety and Inspection Service

[Docket No. FSIS-2025-0247]

Notice of Request To Renew an Approved Information Collection: Advanced Meat Recovery

AGENCY: Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS), U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

ACTION: Notice and request for comments.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) regulations, FSIS is announcing its intention to renew an approved information collection regarding the regulatory requirements associated with the production of meat from advanced meat recovery (AMR) systems. The approval for this information collection will expire on June 30, 2026. FSIS is making no changes to the information collection.

DATES: Submit comments on or before March 16, 2026.

ADDRESSES: FSIS invites interested persons to submit comments on this Federal Register notice. Comments may be submitted by one of the following methods:

- Federal eRulemaking Portal: This website provides commenters the ability to type short comments directly into the comment field on the web page or to attach a file for lengthier comments. Go to <https://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the on-line instructions at that site for submitting comments.

- Mail: Send to Docket Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Food Safety and Inspection Service, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Mailstop 3758, Washington, DC 20250–3700.

- Hand- or courier-delivered submittals: Deliver to 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Jamie L. Whitten Building, Room 350–E, Washington, DC 20250–3700.

Instructions: All items submitted by mail or electronic mail must include the Agency name and docket number FSIS–2025–0247. Comments received in response to this docket will be made available for public inspection and posted without change, including any personal information, to <https://www.regulations.gov>.

Docket: For access to background documents or comments received, call (202) 286–2255 to schedule a time to visit the FSIS Docket Room at 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Washington, DC 20250–3700.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gina Kouba, Office of Policy and Program Development, Food Safety and Inspection Service, USDA, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Mailstop 3758, South Building, Washington, DC 20250–3700; 202–720–5046.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: Advanced Meat Recovery.

OMB Number: 0583–0130.

Type of Request: Renewal of an approved information collection.

Abstract: FSIS has been delegated the authority to exercise the functions of the Secretary (7 CFR 2.18 and 2.53), as specified in the Federal Meat Inspection Act (FMIA) (21 U.S.C. 601, et seq.). This statute mandates that FSIS protect the public by verifying that meat products are safe, wholesome, and properly labeled.

FSIS is announcing its intention to request a renewal of the approved information collection regarding the regulatory requirements associated with the production of meat from AMR systems. There are no changes to the existing information collection. The approval for this information collection will expire on June 30, 2026.

The regulations at 9 CFR 318.24 state that meat, as defined in 9 CFR 301.2, may be derived by mechanically separating skeletal muscle tissue from the bones of livestock, other than skulls or vertebral column bones of cattle 30 months of age and older as provided in 9 CFR 310.22, using advances in mechanical meat/bone separation machinery (i.e., AMR systems) that, recover meat (1) without significant incorporation of bone solids or bone marrow as measured by the presence of calcium and iron in excess of the requirements in this section, and (2) without the presence of any brain, trigeminal ganglia, spinal cord, or dorsal root ganglia. As a prerequisite to labeling or using AMR product, establishments are required to develop, implement, and maintain written procedures that ensure that the establishment's production process is in control, which includes testing for calcium, iron, spinal cord, and dorsal root ganglia, documenting testing protocols, handling product in a manner that does not cause product to be misbranded or adulterated, and maintaining records on a daily basis sufficient to document the implementation and verification of its production process.

FSIS has made the following estimates based upon an information collection assessment related to the written procedures described above:

Respondents: Official establishments that produce meat from AMR systems.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 47.

Estimated Number of Annual Responses per Respondent: 900.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 21,159 hours. All responses to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for OMB approval. All comments will also become a matter of public record. Copies of this information collection assessment can be obtained from Gina Kouba, Office of Policy and Program Development, Food Safety and Inspection Service, USDA, 1400 Independence Avenue SW, Mailstop 3758, South Building, Washington, DC 20250–3700; 202–720–5046.

Comments are invited on: (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FSIS' functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of FSIS' estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the method and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques, or other forms of information technology. Comments may be sent to both FSIS, at the addresses provided above, and the Desk Officer for Agriculture, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of

Management and Budget (OMB), Washington, DC 20253.

BILLING CODE 3410-DM-P

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records and Routine Uses

AGENCY: Central Intelligence Agency.
ACTION: Notice of Modified Systems of Records; General Routine Uses of the Central Intelligence Agency.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-108, notice is hereby given that the Central Intelligence Agency (“CIA” or “the Agency”) proposes to modify the CIA System of Records Notices for the CIA systems of records, listed below. Specifically, CIA is adding one (1) General Routine Use to its “Statement of General Routine Uses,” and modifying two (2) General Routine Uses in its “Statement of General Routine Uses.”

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this notice is subject to a 30-day period to comment on the modified routine uses, described below. Please submit any comments by February 17, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be submitted by the following methods: By mail to Mark Mouser, Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, DC 20505, by telephone at (571) 280-2700, or by email to FedRegLiaison@uce.cia.gov.

Please include “NOTICE OF CIA ROUTINE USES” in the subject line of the message.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mark Mouser, Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, DC 20505, (571) 280-2700.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: CIA last published its “Statement of General Routine Uses for the Central Intelligence Agency” in 87 FR 73198 (November 28, 2022), in order to clarify and increase the public’s knowledge of the circumstances in which the Agency may disclose, as a routine use, records from Privacy Act systems of records and to enhance the Agency’s ability to share information essential to the conduct of its national security mission. CIA is now updating its “Statement of General Routine Uses for the Central Intelligence Agency,” applicable to all of the CIA systems of records listed below, by adding one (1) General Routine Use and modifying two (2) General Routine Uses.

Modification to General Routine Use 7

The Agency proposes a minor edit to correct an error in the second sentence in General Routine Use 7, by adding the word “use” after the word “routine,” to read: “This routine use is not intended to supplant the other routine uses published by the Central Intelligence Agency.”

Modification to General Routine Use 19 and New General Routine Use 20

Executive Order 14249, Protecting America’s Bank Account Against Fraud, Waste, and Abuse, 90 FR 14011 (March 25, 2025) requires agencies to review and modify, as applicable, the agency’s relevant System of Records Notices to include a “routine use” that would allow for the disclosure of records to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for the purposes of identifying, preventing, or recouping fraud and improper payments, to the extent permissible by law. Following this Executive Order, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) issued M-25-32, Preventing Improper Payments and Protecting Privacy Through Do Not Pay (August 20, 2025). OMB M-25-32 provided specific instructions to agencies on how to assess which agency systems of records may maintain information that would be relevant and necessary for the U.S. Department of the Treasury to identify, prevent, or recoup improper payments through the Do Not Pay Working System, and provided agencies with the specific routine use to publish for its applicable System of Records Notice.

Following the Agency’s review of Executive Order 14249 and OMB M-25-32, the Agency determined that it would add the routine use provided by OMB as a General Routine Use, to ensure that the U.S. Department of the Treasury will have access to any records relevant to identifying, preventing, or recouping improper payments, in accordance with federal law and OMB policy. The Agency proposes to insert this as a new General Routine Use 19, and modify the existing General Routine Use 19 by renumbering it as General Routine Use 20. The substance of the now renumbered General Routine Use 20 has not changed.

For ease of reference, the full Statement of General Routine Uses for the Central Intelligence Agency is republished, below. This notice modifies the previously published Statement of General Routine Uses for the Central Intelligence Agency, as detailed above, and does not affect any other routine uses that may apply to CIA systems of records.

Nothing in the new or modified General Routine Uses change the Central Intelligence Agency’s authorities regarding the collection and maintenance of information about citizens and lawful permanent residents of the United States, nor do the changes impact any individual’s rights to access or to amend their records pursuant to the Privacy Act.

The Agency is providing an opportunity for interested persons to submit comments on the Agency’s new and modified General Routine Uses. Unless CIA determines that, based on the submitted comments, substantial modifications are required, the routine uses will take effect 30 days after publication. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Agency has provided a report to OMB and Congress on the new and modified General Routine Use.

Mark J. Mouser,
Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, Central Intelligence Agency.
