SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

The Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) administers the Defense Priorities and Allocations System (DPAS) regulation which implements the priorities and allocations authority under Title I of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (DPA) (50 U.S.C. 4501, et seq.), with respect to all materials, services, and facilities, including construction materials, not delegated to other Secretaries under Executive Order (E.O.) 13603, and the priorities authority of the Military Selective Service Act of 1948 (SSA) (50 U.S.C. 3816), delegated to the Secretary under E.O. 12742 with respect to all materials and facilities, including construction materials, not delegated to other Secretaries. These materials, services, and facilities are referred to as "industrial resources."

The DPAS regulation has two principal authorities: (1) priorities authority, which implements the DPA Title I and SSA priorities authorities; and (2) allocations authority, which implements the DPA Title I allocations authority. Under the priorities authorities, the DPAS regulation establishes procedures for the placement and preferential acceptance and performance of priority rated contracts and orders, other than contracts of employment, supporting approved programs (referred to as "rated orders").

Under the allocations authorities, certain materials, services, and facilities may be allocated to promote the national defense, as defined in the DPA. Section 704 of the DPA authorizes the President to make such regulations and issue such orders as the President determines to be appropriate to carry out the provisions of the DPA. Section 705 of the DPA authorizes the President to obtain information by regulation, subpoena, or otherwise as may be necessary or appropriate to the enforcement or the administration of the Act and implementing regulations. Both the DPA and SSA provide for criminal and civil penalties for willful violation of the DPA or SSA, and any regulations, rule, or order issued under the authority of the DPA or SSA. Consistent with section 705 of the DPA, under section 700.91 of the DPAS regulation, persons are required to make, and preserve for at least three years, accurate and complete records of any transaction covered by the DPAS regulation or an official action.

In accordance with the DPAS regulation, BIS may take action under the DPAS regulation as necessary or appropriate to promote the national defense. Such actions are referred to as "official actions." Official actions issued under the priorities authorities of the DPAS regulation include the following: (1) rating authorizations, which grant specific priority rating authority (i.e., authorizes placement of rated orders); (2) directives, which require a person from taking or refraining from taking certain actions under the DPAS Regulation relating to rated orders; and (3) letters of understanding, which may be used to resolve SPA requests to reflect an agreement reached by all parties related to rated orders. Official actions under the allocations authorities of the DPAS regulation are referred to as allocation orders, and include the following actions: (1) set-asides, which require a person to reserve materials, services, or facilities capacity in anticipation of the receipt of rated orders; (2) directives, which require a person from take or refrain from taking certain actions in accordance with its provisions; and (3) allotments, which specify the maximum quantity of a material, service, or facility authorized for a specific use to promote the national defense. Lastly, as outlined in the DPAS regulation, BIS may conduct audits and investigations to ensure compliance with the DPAS regulation, DPA, the SSA, and related statutes, and may result in the following official actions: (1) an administrative subpoena, (2) a demand for information, or (3) an inspection authorization. BIS has not issued an allocation order in over a decade, nor has BIS issued an administrative subpoena, demand for information, or inspection authorization during the same time period. As a result, BIS does not have an Information Collection in place for these types of official actions.

Under Presidential Proclamation 10962 (“Adjusting Imports of Copper Into the United States”), dated July 30, 2025, the President found that copper input materials and high-quality copper scrap are a scarce and critical material essential to the national defense, meeting the criteria specified in section 101(b) of the DPA (90 FR 37727). With these findings, the President authorized the Secretary to use the Secretary’s delegated authority under E.O. 13603 to implement the domestic sales requirements as recommended in the “Effect of the Import of Copper Products on the U.S. National Security” report, dated June 30, 2025. This proposed Information Collection Request covers the information necessary to support the execution of official actions taken by BIS in response to the Presidential findings under section 101(b) of the DPA, as well as any future official actions issued under the DPAS regulation required to promote the national defense.

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is conducting an administrative review of the antidumping (AD) order on silicon metal from Malaysia for the period of review (POR) August 1, 2023, through July 31, 2024. Commerce preliminarily finds that PMB Silicon Sdn. Bhd. (PMB Silicon) did not make sales of subject merchandise at prices below normal value (NV) during the POR. We invite interested parties to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Applicable February 10, 2026.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Braeden Lowe, AD/CVD Operations, Office V, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–9124.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 20, 2024, Commerce initiated an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on silicon metal from Malaysia, in accordance with section 751(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).¹ This review covers one producer/exporter of subject merchandise (i.e., PMB Silicon).²

On December 9, 2024, Commerce tolled certain deadlines in this administrative proceeding by 90 days,³ and on July 1, 2025, Commerce extended the time limit for completing the preliminary results of this review until November 20, 2025.⁴ Due to the lapse in appropriations and Federal Government shutdown, on November 14, 2025, Commerce tolled all deadlines in administrative proceedings by 47 days.⁵ Additionally, due to a backlog of documents that were electronically filed via Enforcement and Compliance’s Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS) during the Federal Government shutdown, on November 24, 2025, Commerce tolled all deadlines in administrative proceedings by an additional 21 days.⁶ On January 27, 2026, Commerce extended the time limit for completing the preliminary results of this review by an additional
