I. Background

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) is a federal law that, among other things, prescribes the procedural framework for formal agency adjudications and hearings required by statute to be made on the record.<sup>1</sup> Commission requirements for proceedings with an opportunity for a hearing on the record are described in 39 CFR part 3010, subpart F. Section 3010.302(e)(12), which governs prehearing conferences, requires the presiding officer and parties to consider and resolve several matters, including “[a]ll other matters which would aid in an expeditious disposition of the proceeding . . . .”

The proposed amendments would revise § 3010.302(e)(12) to clarify that, by consent, parties may use informal off-the-record procedures consistent with the APA to expedite resolution of proceedings without compromising on-the-record adjudications. The proposed amendments would also revise the Commission's rules to clarify that informal off-the-record procedures are consistent with the Commission's ex parte rules as long as certain requirements are met.

II. Basis of Proposed Rules

Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 503, the Commission proposes two amendments to its rules. First, it proposes revisions to the Commission's rules of practice and procedure in 39 CFR part 3010, subpart F governing proceedings conducted with an opportunity for a hearing on-the-record. The Commission proposes to amend existing § 3010.302(e)(12) to add a non-exhaustive list of permissible informal off-the-record procedures, including prehearing conferences, technical conferences, settlement conferences, or alternative dispute resolution.

Second, the Commission proposes revisions to the Commission's rules on ex parte communications in 39 CFR part 3012. The Commission proposes to amend existing section 3012.2(b)(3) to exclude from the definition of ex parte communications informal off-the-record procedures associated with on-the-record proceedings as long as participants receive advanced notice and an opportunity to participate.

The Commission finds that each of these revisions would align the regulations with APA provisions and current law, ensure consistency across the Commission's rules, and avoid any ambiguity regarding on-the-record proceedings.
