SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title; Associated Form; and OMB Number: Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) Programs Forms; OMB Control Number 0703-0026.

Needs and Uses: DON collects information to select the highest-quality candidates for the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps (NROTC) program and its associated programs. This collection is necessary to assess an applicant's eligibility and qualifications for a commission in the U.S. Naval Reserve. The collection is authorized by various sections of Title 10, United States Code, and other federal regulations that govern the appointment of officers.

The information is used by selection boards to holistically evaluate an applicant's background, including their academic performance, leadership experience, physical fitness, and moral character. The application process is primarily conducted online, where applicants provide information and request evaluations from school officials and teachers. The collection includes specialized forms for different program paths, such as tattoo screenings for Marine Corps applicants and specific agreements for SSMP participants. Data is also collected to manage participants in prerequisite programs like the NROTC, New Student Indoctrination and the NROTC Preparatory Program.

The respondents are prospective and current students applying to these programs, as well as the school officials and other adults providing evaluations on their behalf. Without this information, the ability of selection boards to effectively assess an applicant's potential for success as a future Naval officer would be severely limited, hindering the selection of the best-qualified candidates.

Needs and Uses: The USMC is collecting this information to identify and notify individuals who may have been exposed to contaminated drinking water at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune between 1953 and 1987. This collection is necessary to comply with Section 315 of the 2008 Defense Authorization Act (Pub.
