Abstract: The Immigrant and Employee Rights Section (IER) enforces the anti-discrimination provision (Sec. 274B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. 1324b. The statute prohibits: (1) citizenship or immigration status discrimination in hiring, firing, or recruitment or referral for a fee, (2) national origin discrimination in hiring, firing, or recruitment or referral for a fee, (3) unfair documentary practices during the employment eligibility verification process (Form I-9 and E-Verify), and (4) retaliation or intimidation for asserting rights or privileges covered by the statute. IER, within the Department's Civil Rights Division, investigates and, where reasonable cause is found, litigates charges alleging discrimination. The public may submit charges of discrimination through IER's charge form. If the Department lacks jurisdiction over a particular charge but believes another agency has jurisdiction over the claim, IER may forward the charge to the applicable Federal, state or local agency for any action deemed appropriate. IER is updating the interface of its charge form so it is easier for the public to complete and is also more functional on mobile devices. There are no major substantive changes to the IER Charge Form as part of this process.
