

inadvertent discovery of an injured or dead individual.

5. Obtaining Landowner/Land Management Entity Authorization—Individuals requesting the written authorizations mentioned above must also obtain or confirm authorization from the landowner or land management entity, where appropriate.

The Service would use the information described above to document the locations of reintroduced animals, determine causes of mortality and conflict with human activities so that Service managers could minimize conflicts with people, and improve management techniques for reintroduction. The information would help the Service assess the effectiveness of management activities and develop means to reduce problems with livestock for those species where depredation is a problem. Service recovery specialists would use the information to determine the success of reintroductions in relation to established recovery plan goals for the species.

The authority for this action is the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[A2407-014-004-065516; #O2509-014-004-125222]

Application for a Recordable Disclaimer of Interest in Lands, Lake County, SD

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of application.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) received an application for a Recordable Disclaimer of Interest (RDI) from Prairie Shores, LLC/Redstone Law Firm, LLP pursuant to the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (FLPMA), as amended, and BLM regulations for the surface and subsurface estates. Prairie Shores, LLC is purchasing land and requests the United States disclaim the unplatted peninsula as federally owned. This notice is intended to inform the public of the pending application and give notice of the BLM's intent to grant the requested RDI and provide a public comment period for the RDI.

DATES: The BLM must receive comments on this action by June 10, 2026.

ADDRESSES: Send written comments to Adam Carr, Chief, Branch of Realty, Lands, and Renewable Energy, BLM Montana State Office, 5001 Southgate Drive, Billings, MT 59101-4669.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Katarina Schumacher, Land Law Examiner, at the above address, by phone at 406-896-5322 or email at kschumacher@blm.gov. Additional information pertaining to this application can be reviewed in case file SDM 112629/SDMT 106239193 located in the Montana/Dakotas State Office, 5001 Southgate Drive, Billings, MT 59101-4669. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States. You will receive a reply during normal business hours.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The United States of America, through the BLM, Department of the Interior, pursuant to section 315 of FLPMA, hereby disclaims an interest in the surface and subsurface estates for the following parcel of land: lot 4, sec. 15, T. 106 N., R. 53 W., Fifth Principal Meridian, South Dakota. The parcel located within the above-described land contains 31.82 acres in Lake County, South Dakota. The parcel includes a 1.8-acre peninsula located between the original meander lines and the original high-water mark on Lake Herman that was unplatted at the time of conveyance; therefore, the total acreage for the entirety of Lot 4 would become 33.62 acres. By this action, the United States of America hereby releases and relinquishes any claim of interest to the surface and subsurface estates of the above-described land. The public is hereby notified that comments may be submitted to the Branch Chief at the address shown above within the comment period identified in the notice. Any adverse comments will be evaluated by the Branch Chief who may modify or vacate this action and issue a final determination. In the absence of any action by the Branch Chief, the Notice will become the final determination of the Department of the Interior, and disclaimer may be issued 90 days from publication of this notice. Comments, including names and street addresses of commenters, will be available for public review at the BLM Montana State office (see address above), during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personally identifiable information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personally identifiable information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personally identifiable information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-783-784 and 731-TA-1771-1772 (Preliminary)]

Citric Acid and Certain Citrate Salts From Canada and India; Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of citric acid and certain citrate salts from Canada and India, provided for in subheadings 2918.14.00, 2918.15.10, 2918.15.50, and 3824.99.93 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (“LTFV”) and imports of the subject merchandise from Canada and India that are alleged to be subsidized by the governments of Canada and India.²

Commencement of Final Phase Investigations

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission's rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in § 207.21 of the Commission's rules, upon notice from the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under §§ 703(b) or 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under §§ 705(a) or 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Any other party may file an entry of appearance for the final phase of the investigations after publication of the final phase notice of scheduling. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations. As provided in section 207.20 of the Commission's rules, the Director of the Office of Investigations will circulate draft questionnaires for the final phase of the investigations to parties to the investigations, placing copies on the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>), for comment.

¹ The record is defined in § 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 207.2(f)).

² 91 FR 7252 and 7257 (February 17, 2026).

Background

On January 21, 2026, Archer-Daniels-Midland Company, Decatur, Illinois; Cargill, Incorporated, Wayzata, Minnesota; and Primary Products Ingredients Americas LLC, Schaumburg, Illinois, filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of citric acid and certain citrate salts from Canada and India and LTFV imports of citric acid and certain citrate salts from Canada and India. Accordingly, effective January 21, 2026, the Commission instituted countervailing duty investigation Nos. 701-TA-783-784 and antidumping duty investigation Nos. 731-TA-1771-1772 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of January 26, 2026 (91 FR 3221). The Commission conducted its conference on February 11, 2026. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to §§ 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on March 9, 2026. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5716 (March 2026), entitled Citric Acid and Certain Citrate Salts from Canada and India: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-783-784 and 731-TA-1771-1772 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: March 9, 2026.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
