

Trade Representative should consider the applicant for membership. If the applicant is a consultant representing the sponsoring organization, specifically note that within the sponsor letter along with any relevant details regarding the nature of the consultancy.

- Recent annual report or profile of the sponsoring organization. If the sponsoring organization is an association or otherwise maintains a relevant membership or client list, include the membership or client list of the sponsoring organization to determine if the sponsoring organization represents foreign entities.

- Any additional documentation as helpful or necessary for the Secretary of Commerce and the Trade Representative to consider the application. Such additional information will not be necessary for all applicants, but rather on a case-by-case basis for applicants who may have special considerations.

The Secretary of Commerce and the Trade Representative will consider applicants based on the following selection factors:

- Ability to represent the sponsoring U.S. entity's or U.S. organization's and its subsector's interests on trade matters;
- Ability to carry out the objectives of the ITAC, including knowledge of the represented industry and of trade matters relevant to the work of the ITAC;
- Ability to contribute to the development, implementation, and administration of the America First Trade Policy in advancing U.S. trade interests; and
- Balancing of represented industry subsectors, points of view, geography, and entity or organization size to ensure the ITACs represent the breadth of U.S. trade policy interests.

Any questions regarding the application process or eligibility may be sent to ITAC@trade.gov.

Jennifer Bang,

Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Engagement, Office of the United States Trade Representative.
