Abstract: The Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA or Act), 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., imposes certain requirements for child custody proceedings that occur in State court when a child is an “Indian child.” The regulations, primarily located in 25 CFR part 23 subpart I, provide procedural guidance for implementing ICWA, which necessarily involves information collections to determine whether the child is Indian, to provide notice to the Tribe and parents or Indian custodians, and to maintain records. The information collections are conducted during a civil action (i.e., a child custody proceeding). These civil actions occur in State court, and the United States is not a party to the civil action. However, the State civil action is subject to the Federal statutory requirements of ICWA, which the Secretary of the Interior oversees. The Secretary also has general authority to manage Indian affairs under 25 U.S.C. 2 and 9.
