The CCAC advises the Secretary of the Treasury on any theme or design proposals relating to circulating coinage, bullion coinage, Congressional Gold Medals, and national and other medals; advises the Secretary of the Treasury with regard to the events, persons, or places to be commemorated by the issuance of commemorative coins in each of the five calendar years succeeding the year in which a commemorative coin designation is made; and makes recommendations with respect to the mintage level for any commemorative coin recommended.

Members of the public interested in attending the meeting in person will be admitted into the meeting room on a first-come, first-served basis, as space is limited. In addition, all persons entering a United States Mint facility must adhere to building security protocols. This means they must consent to the search of their persons and objects in their possession while on government grounds and when they enter and leave the facility. Visitors are prohibited from bringing into the facility weapons of any type, illegal drugs, drug paraphernalia, or contraband. The United States Mint Police Officer conducting the search will evaluate whether an item may enter into or exit from a facility based upon Federal law, Treasury policy, United States Mint policy, and local operating procedures. All prohibited and unauthorized items will be subject to confiscation and disposal. Members of the public will need to complete and submit a background clearance form in advance of their visit and will need to present a Real ID-compliant form of identification to enter the building on the day of the meeting.

For those viewing or attending the meeting, this is a reminder that the meeting is for observation purposes only. Members of the public may submit matters for the CCAC's consideration by email to info@ccac.gov.
