Abstract of Information Available

A total of 2,064 cultural items have been requested for repatriation from Apache, Coconino, Navajo, Gila, and Yavapai Counties, Arizona for repatriation. These 2,064 objects of cultural patrimony are from one accession that has been approved for repatriation. They mostly consist of ceramic vessels such as food bowls, cooking pots, jars, vases, mugs, and ladles. Also present are bone, shell, and stone tools, such as awls, arrow points, axes, projectiles, and other implements; stone items such as mortars, beads; and jewelry.

Additional Information: The requested items are part of Accession 745, (now known as the Frank J. Watron Collection) and was acquired in 1901 by the Field Columbian Museum, (now known as the Field Museum). Frank J. Watron removed or purchased the requested items between July 1898 and April 1899 from various sites affiliated with the Hopi Tribe in northeastern Arizona, including Chevelon, Homolovi I, Homolovi II, Holbrook, Hopi Buttes, Mesa Redondo, Round Valley, San Cosmos, Tanner Springs, and Taylor. All items in this request are archaeological and identified in Field Museum records as Hopi. Based on consultation, and academic research, however, these sites are jointly affiliated with the Hopi Tribe of Arizona and Zuni Tribe of New Mexico. There is no known presence of any potentially hazardous substances used to treat any of the cultural items.
