

Arizona; Caesarstone Ltd. of Kibbutz Sdot-Yam, Israel; Caesarstone USA, Inc. of Charlotte, North Carolina; Dal-Tile, LLC of Dallas, Texas; LX Hausys, Ltd. of Seoul, Republic of Korea; LX Hausys America, Inc. of Alpharetta, Georgia; Mohawk Industries, Inc. of Calhoun, Georgia; M S International Inc. d/b/a MSI of Orange, California; OHM International Inc. of Monroe Township, New Jersey; and Surface Warehouse, L.P. d/b/a US Surfaces and d/b/a Vadara Quartz Surfaces of Austin, Texas (collectively, “Respondents”). Id. The Office of Unfair Import Investigations (“OUII”) is also participating in the investigation. Id.

On March 6, 2026, Cosentino filed a motion to intervene as a respondent, arguing that certain processed slab products sold by Cosentino could be subject to a general exclusion order requested by Cambria, and that disposition without Cosentino may impair or impede its ability to protect its interests in its products. Cosentino also represented that Respondents do not oppose the motion.

On March 18, 2026, OUII filed a response supporting Cosentino’s motion to intervene. On the same day, Cambria also filed a response stating that it does not oppose Cosentino’s motion, provided that such intervention will not delay the target date or the procedural schedule of the investigation.

On March 19, 2026, the ALJ issued the subject ID (Order No. 9) pursuant to Commission Rule 210.19, 19 CFR 210.19, granting Cosentino’s motion to intervene as a respondent. The ID finds that the Commission looks to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24 when considering a motion to intervene, and every factor in Rule 24 favors granting the motion. That is, (1) Cosentino filed its motion early in discovery; (2) Cosentino has an interest in the subject of the investigation because its products could be subject to a general exclusion order; (3) disposition without Cosentino may impair or impede its ability to protect its interests regarding its products; (4) Cosentino is not adequately represented by any other party because it is the sole U.S. distributor for its products and thus no other party will present noninfringement defenses for its products; and (5) there is no evidence that intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the original parties’ rights. ID at 2–3.

No petitions for review of the ID were filed.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID. Cosentino is granted respondent status in this investigation.

The Commission vote for this determination took place on April 8, 2026.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: April 8, 2026.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

This collection allows non-registrants to register for access to the CSA Database System, which gives the names and registration statuses of all DEA-registrants. Applicants are required to re-apply annually by completing this form and submitting to DEA.
