Abstract: Federal law—specifically Section 4 of the Archaeological Resources Protection Act of 1979 (ARPA) (16 U.S.C. 470cc) and Section 3 of the Antiquities Act of 1906 (54 U.S.C. 320302)—allow people or organizations to apply for permission to scientifically study, excavate, or remove archaeological resources from public or Indian lands. Any archaeological work on National Park Service (NPS) lands conducted by non-NPS personnel requires a permit, regardless of whether the project is tied to regulatory compliance. This requirement covers activities such as excavations, shovel tests, coring, pedestrian surveys (with or without collecting artifacts), underwater archaeology, photogrammetry, and rock-art documentation.

Individuals from universities, museums, scientific institutions, businesses, or other organizations must obtain a permit before beginning any fieldwork. To do this, applicants submit Form DI-1926, the Application for Permit for Archeological Investigations. Along with the form, applicants provide a statement of work, statements describing their capabilities and past performance, curriculum vitae for the principal investigator and field director, written consent from State or Tribal authorities when required, authorization identifying a curation facility, and a detailed schedule of all project activities.

Permit holders must then submit preliminary reports, annual reports, and final reports throughout the life of the project.

Title of Collection: Archeology Permit Applications and Reports.

OMB Control Number: 1024-0037.

Form Number: Form DI-1926.

Type of Review: Renewal of a currently approved collection.

Respondents/Affected Public: Individuals or organizations wishing to excavate or remove archeological resources from public or Indian lands.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 172.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 172.

Estimated Completion Time per Response: Varies; up to 8 hours, depending on activity.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 1,032.

Respondent's Obligation: Required to obtain or retain a benefit.

Frequency of Collection: On occasion.

Total Estimated Annual Nonhour Burden Cost: None.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

The authority for this action is the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.).
