CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

[Docket No. CPSC–2009–0092]

SUMMARY: As required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA), the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC or Commission) requests comments on a proposed extension of approval of information collection requirements associated with the Standard for the Flammability of Clothing Textiles and the Standard for the Flammability of Vinyl Plastic Film. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: CPSC seeks to renew the following currently approved collection of information:

Title: Standard for the Flammability of Clothing Textiles, 16 CFR part 1610; Standard for the Flammability of Vinyl Plastic Film, 16 CFR part 1611.

OMB Number: 3041-0024.

Type of Review: Renewal of collection.

Frequency of Response: On occasion.

Affected Public: Manufacturers and importers of clothing and fabrics intended for use in clothing, as well as manufacturers and importers of clothing made from vinyl plastic film and vinyl plastic film intended for use in clothing. This also includes downstream distributors and retailers who handle, sell, or further distribute these products, as they may be impacted by recordkeeping requirements and guaranty provisions under the applicable standards.

General Description of Collection: The Safety Standard for Flammability of Clothing Textiles (16 CFR part 1610) addresses the danger of injury and loss of life by prohibiting dangerously flammable textiles and textile products for clothing use from being distributed in United States commerce. The standard includes methods of testing the flammability of clothing and textiles intended to be used for clothing, establishes three classes of flammability, sets forth the requirements which textiles shall meet to be classified, and warns against the use of those textiles which have burning characteristics unsuitable for clothing.

The Standard for the Flammability of Vinyl Plastic Film (16 CFR part 1611) provides a minimum standard for the flammability of vinyl plastic film for use in wearing apparel. The material covered by the standard is nonrigid, unsupported, vinyl plastic film, including transparent, translucent, and opaque material that is plain, embossed, molded, or otherwise surface treated. This standard prescribes a test to ensure that articles of wearing apparel, and fabrics and film intended for use in wearing apparel, are not dangerously flammable because of rapid and intense burning.

Section 8 of the Flammable Fabrics Act (FFA), 15 U.S.C. 1197, provides that a person who receives a guaranty in good faith that a product complies with an applicable flammability standard is not subject to criminal prosecution for a violation of the FFA resulting from the sale of any product covered by the guaranty. Section 8 of the FFA requires that a guaranty must be based on "reasonable and representative tests." For both standards, recordkeeping requirements for firms that issue original and continuing guaranties include maintaining records of tests to support the issuance of guaranties and records of any received guaranties for three years, as set forth in 16 CFR 1610.38 and 16 CFR 1611.38. To file a continuing guaranty with the Commission, firms may submit a CPSC form with the Office of the Secretary.¹

In addition, CPSC requires manufacturers and importers of general-use products for which consumer product safety rules apply, such as adult wearing apparel, to certify, in a written General Certificate of Conformity (GCC), also based on testing or a reasonable testing program and supported by the test records, that the products comply with 16 CFR parts 1610 and 1611. The majority of GCC burden is captured in OMB control number 3041-0203, Revisions to 16 CFR part 1110, and the remainder is assumed to be negligible (approaching zero) because it is essentially similar to issuing a guarantee.

Manufacturers and importers of children's wearing apparel, subject to 16 CFR parts 1610 and 1611, must certify in a children's product certificate (CPC) that the product complies with the applicable standards based on testing by a CPSC-accredited third party conformity assessment body. CPC burden is accounted for under OMB control number 3041-0159, Third Party Testing of Children's Products.

Both standards also include a documentation requirement for shipment of wearing apparel or textile fabrics to be treated to reduce their flammability in accordance with the applicable standards. In addition, importers of such shipments must maintain proof of treatment, provide affidavits to U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and, if required, furnish a performance bond to ensure compliance. CPSC assumes that fewer than 10 shipments for the purpose of finishing or processing are received to the United States annually because finishing treatments are typically conducted abroad. Therefore, there is no burden estimate for such shipments.

Estimated Number of Respondents: CPSC estimates 10,000 firms will conduct the required recordkeeping and 160 firms will voluntarily file a continuing guaranty with the Commission, annually. Therefore, the total number of respondents is 10,160 firms.

Estimated Time per Response: For recordkeeping, CPSC assumes that each record will take one hour to create and maintain. To file a continuing guaranty, CPSC assumes that each form will take one hour to create and submit. Therefore, the estimated time per response for this collection is two hours.

Total Estimated Annual Burden: For recordkeeping, CPSC assumes that there will be 100,000 responses annually (10,000 firms × 10 fabrics per firm = 100,000 records). CPSC assumes that each record will take one hour to create and maintain, therefore the total burden is approximately 100,000 hours, annually. To file a continuing guaranty, CPSC assumes that there will be 1,600 form submissions annually (160 firms × 10 forms per firm = 1,600 forms). CPSC assumes that each form will take one hour to create and submit, therefore the total burden is approximately 1,600 hours, annually. Accordingly, the total estimated annual burden for the collection is 101,600 hours.

Total Estimated Annual Cost to Respondents: At an average hourly wage rate of $80.04 (U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, "Employer Costs for Employee Compensation," December 2025, Table 4, Total compensation of all management, professional, and related occupations in goods-producing industries: https://www.bls.gov/news.release/archives/ecec_03202026.htm), the total cost for the collection of information is approximately $8.1 million, annually (101,600 hours × $80.04 per hour = $8,132,064).

Request for Comments: The Commission solicits written comments from all interested persons about the proposed collection of information. The Commission specifically solicits information relevant to the following topics:

- whether the collection of information described above is necessary for the proper performance of the Commission's functions, including whether the information would have practical utility;
- whether the estimated burden of the proposed collection of information is accurate;
- whether the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected could be enhanced; and
- whether the burden imposed by the collection of information could be minimized by use of automated, electronic or other technological collection techniques, or other forms of information technology.

Alberta E. Mills,

Secretary, Consumer Product Safety Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: AmeriCorps Seniors Application Instructions and Progress Reporting.

OMB Control Number: 3045-0035.

Type of Review: Revision.

Respondents/Affected Public:

Businesses and organizations, and State, local, or Tribal governments.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Responses: 1,250.

Total Estimated Number of Annual Burden Hours: 6,250.

Abstract: The AmeriCorps Seniors Grant Application is for use by prospective and existing sponsors of AmeriCorps Seniors projects under the AmeriCorps Seniors RSVP (RSVP), AmeriCorps Seniors Foster Grandparent Program (FGP), AmeriCorps Seniors Senior Companion Program (SCP), and AmeriCorps Seniors Senior Demonstration Program (SDP). The Project Progress Report (PPR) and Progress Report Supplement are currently used to report progress toward accomplishing work plan goals and objectives, reporting volunteer and service outputs, reporting actual outcomes related to self-nominated performance measures, meeting challenges encountered, describing significant activities, and requesting technical assistance. This revision would eliminate the Progress Report Supplement and incorporate some of the Supplement questions into the PPR instead. The Application Instructions and PPR forms in this package conform to AmeriCorps' web-based electronic grants management system. The SCP Independent Living Survey and SCP Respite Survey are instruments that collect information from Senior Companion clients and caregivers. The purpose of the surveys is to allow SCP projects to measure the impact of independent living and respite services on clients' and caregivers' social ties and perceived social support. These surveys may also be used by RSVP projects that provide independent living and respite services. AmeriCorps also seeks to continue using the currently approved information collection until the revised information collection is approved by OMB. The currently approved information collection is due to expire on September 30, 2026.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized and/or included in the request for OMB approval. Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and (e) estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; to develop, acquire, install and utilize technology and systems for the purpose of collecting, validating and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; to train personnel and to be able to respond to a collection of information, to search
