

attendees to listen either in-person or virtually. Software presenters and attendees may participate either in-person or virtually on the second day of the conference. Further details on both in-person and virtual participation are available on the conference web page.¹

The technical conference will be open to the public. (Due to security screening, foreign nationals who had planned to attend in person were required to register through the Commission's website on or before June 12, 2026.) All attendees, including those who plan to participate virtually in Q&A on the second day of the conference, are encouraged to register through the Commission's website as soon as practical. Registration will help ensure that Commission staff can provide sufficient physical and virtual facilities, and communicate with attendees in the case of unanticipated emergencies or other changes to the conference schedule or location.

Slides for the second day of the conference were due from selected presenters by 5:00 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, June 30, 2026. Before 1:00 p.m. EDT on Monday, July 6, 2026, Commission staff will work with presenters to provide quality assurance that their presentation materials are prepared, formatted correctly, and ready for delivery during the conference. All updates to slides submitted before 5:00 p.m. on June 30, 2026 will be posted to the Commission website in advance of the conference. Late submissions will be posted to the Commission website after the conference; however, the live conference may use the slide versions submitted before the deadline.

To stay apprised of issuances in this docket, there is an "eSubscription" link on the Commission's website that enables subscribers to receive email notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). Information on this technical conference will also be posted on the Calendar of Events on the Commission's website, www.ferc.gov, prior to the event. The Commission provides technical support for the free webcasts.
