The Commodity Exchange Act (CEA) authorizes the Commission to require CPOs and CTAs to maintain books and records and to file reports as required by the Commission.² The Commission also has authority to promulgate such regulations as it deems necessary to implement the purposes of the CEA.³ It is pursuant to this authority that the Commission has promulgated the various compliance requirements for CPOs and CTAs in 17 CFR part 4. The reporting, filing, and recordkeeping requirements within part 4 of the Commission's regulations were adopted to assist and inform customers, to establish customer protection initiatives for investors, to facilitate monitoring intermediary compliance with part 4 regulations by the Commission and its delegatee, the National Futures Association (NFA), and to enable the Commission to better monitor the market risks posed by its registrants. The information collections are necessary to enable the Commission and NFA to accomplish the purposes of both the CEA and the compliance regime set forth in part 4 of the Commission's regulations.
