On July 16, 1926, the Traders' Live Stock Exchange, a voluntary association, et al., proceeding under the provisions of the packers and stockyards act, 1921, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture a complaint seeking reparation in the sum of $300,000, on behalf of 257 individual traders who had reweighed livestock in the so-called commission division of the Kansas City Stock Yards, charging that the reweight charges were unjust, unreasonable, and discriminatory. On July 24, 1926, the Acting Secretary of Agriculture issued an order entitled, "Service of Complaint Seeking Reparation," which was duly served on the defendant, calling upon the said defendant to satisfy the complaint or to answer it in writing. On May 29, 1930, the Secretary of Agriculture received a request for the dismissal of the complaint of the Traders' Live Stock Exchange, which request was confirmed by action of the Board of the Traders' Live Stock Exchange on November 6, 1930, notice of which was duly given to the Secretary of Agriculture. On November 26, 1930, the Secretary of Agriculture dismissed this case without prejudicing the right of the complainant to institute such future proceedings as he sees fit.

C., a fully executed duplicate of such bond. It was further ordered that respondent cease and desist from doing business as a dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of his obligations incurred as such dealer and without having on file with the Bureau of Animal Industry at Washington, D.
