SECTION 1105. THE PUBLIC PRINTER SHALL DETERMINE THE FORM AND STYLE IN WHICH THE PRINTING OR BINDING ORDERED BY A DEPARTMENT IS EXECUTED, AND THE MATERIAL AND THE SIZE OF TYPE USED, HAVING PROPER REGARD TO ECONOMY, WORKMANSHIP, AND THE PURPOSES FOR WHICH THE WORK IS NEEDED. (PUBLIC LAW 90-620, OCT. 22, 1968, 82 STAT. 1261.)

ABOUT THIS MANUAL

Due to the discontinuance of hot metal printing at the Government Printing Office, the instructions in this edition of the GPO Style Manual have been couched in the language of the electronic photocomposition processes. Where possible, printing terminology has been retained to help bridge the gap between the old and the new methods of printing.

Editors and writers whose disciplines have taught them aspects of style different from rules followed in this Manual will appreciate the difficulty of establishing a single standard. The Style Manual has served Federal printers since 1894, and with this 28th edition, the traditions of printing and graphic arts are carried forward into new technologies.

Comments and suggestions from users of the Style Manual are invited. All such correspondence should be addressed as follows:

> Chairman, GPO Style Board Room A722, Mail Stop PDE U.S. Government Printing Office North Capitol and H Sts. NW. Washington, DC 20402

Telephone inquiries may be made by calling 202-275-2348.
For the purposes of this Mandal, printed examples throughout are to be considered the same as the printed rules.

PREFACE

By act of Congress the Public Printer is authorized to determine the form and style of Government printing. The Style Manual is the product of many years of public printing experience, and its rules are based on principles of good usage and custom in the printing trade. In addition, the Manual attempts to keep abreast of and sometimes anticipate changes in orthography, grammar, and type production. It has grown with Government and the ever-expanding body of language with new terms and expressions.
Essentially, it is a standardization device designed to achieve uniform word and type treatment, and aiming for economy of word use. Such rules as are laid down for the submission of copy to the GPO point to the most economical manner for the preparation and typesetting of manuscript. Following such rules eliminates the need of additional chargeable processing by the GPO.

It should be remembered that the Manual is primarily a GPO printer's stylebook. Easy rules of grammar cannot be prescribed, for it is assumed that editors are versed in correct expression. As a printer's book, it necessarily uses terms that are obvious to those skilled in the graphic arts. A glossary of such printing terms to be complete would unnecessarily burden the Manual. (See bibliography on pp. 2-4.)
Its rules cannot be regarded as rigid, for the printed word assumes many shapes and variations in type presentation. An effort has been made to provide complete coverage of those elements that enter into the translation of manuscript into type.

1. SUGGESTIONS TO AUTHORS AND EDITORS

1.1. This Style Manual is intended to facilitate Government printing. Careful observance of the following suggestions will aid in expediting publication and in reducing printing expenditures.
1.2. Changes on proofs add greatly to the expense and delay the work, therefore copy must be carefully edited before being submitted to the Government Printing Office.
1.3. Legible copy, not faint carbon copies, must be furnished. This is essential in foreign-language copy and in copy containing figures.
1.4. Copy should be sent flat, with the sheets numbered consecutively, and typewritten on one side of the paper only. If both sides of reprint copy are to be used, a duplicate must be furnished.
1.5. To avoid unnecessary expense, mutilation of copy, and to expedite GPO production, each page should begin with a paragraph.
1.6. Tabular matter and illustrations should be on separate sheets, as each is handled separately during typesetting.
1.7. Proper names, signatures, figures, foreign words, and technical terms should be written plainly.
1.8. The chemical symbols $\mathrm{Al}, \mathrm{Cl}, \mathrm{Tl}$ are sometimes mistaken for A1, C1, T1 in typewritten matter. Editors must indicate whether the second character is a letter or a figure. (See rule 2.37.)
1.9. Copy in a foreign language should be marked accurately as to capitalization, punctuation, accents, etc.
1.10. Footnote reference marks in text and tables should be arranged consecutively from left to right across each page of copy.
1.11. A requisition for work containing illustrations must be accompanied by a letter certifying that the illustrations are necessary and relate entirely to the transaction of public business (44 U.S.C. 118). The total number of illustrations and the processes of reproduction desired should also be indicated. Instructions should be given on the margin of each illustration if enlargement or reduction is necessary.
1.12. Photographs, drawings, legends, etc., for illustrations should appear in the manuscript in proper sequence.
1.13. If a publication is composed of several parts, a scheme of the desired arrangement must accompany the first installment of copy.
1.14. To reduce the possibility of costly blank pages, avoid use of new odd pages and halftitles whenever possible. Generally these refinements should be limited to quality bookwork. (See rule 2.3.)
1.15. Samples should be furnished if possible. They should be plainly marked, showing the desired type, size of type page, illustrations if any, paper, trim, lettering, or binding; but they will not be considered as style for typesetting if they conflict with the rules in this Style Manual.
1.16. In looseleaf or perforated-on-fold work, indicate folio sequence, including blank pages, by circling in blue. Begin with first text page (title). Do not folio separate covers or dividers.
1.17. Indicate on copy if separate or self cover. When reverse printing in whole or in part is required, indicate if solid or in tone.
1.18. Avoid use of oversize fold-ins wherever possible. This can be done by splitting a would-be fold-in and arranging the material to appear as facing pages in the text. Where fold-ins are numerous and cannot be split, consideration should be given to folding and inserting these into an envelope pasted to inside back cover.
1.19. Every effort should be made to keep complete jobs of over 4 pages to signatures (folded units) of $8,12,16,24$, or 32 pages. Over two blank pages at end should be avoided where possible.
1.20. Indicate alternative choice of paper on requisition. Wherever possible, confine choice of paper to general use items carried in inventory as shown in GPO Paper Catalog.
1.21. When nonstandard trim sizes and/or type areas are used, indicate head and back margins desired. Otherwise, GPO will determine margins.
1.22. On return of galley proofs for page makeup, departments should submit copy for running heads and numbering sequence of folios, including preliminary pages.
1.23. All corrections should be made on first proofs submitted, as later proofs are intended for verification only. All corrections must be indicated on the " $R$ " set of proofs, and only that set should be returned to the Government Printing Office.
1.24. Corrections should be marked on the margins of a proof opposite the indicated errors, not by writing over the print or between the lines. All queries on proofs must be answered.
1.25. The following Government Printing Office and departmental publications relate to material included in the Style Manual. Most may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402. ## 2. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

(FOR EDITORS, COPY PREPARERS, TYPESETTERS, AND COMPOSITORS)

JOB PLANNING

2.1. Before actual production begins, a job scheduled for printing is reviewed by a planner who designs a program by which the needs of the publication are met. The format selected by the planner establishes such things as the typefaces to be used in the job, the breakdown of headings, running heads and folios, page length, and spacing. The format determines the codes used by the preparer, who readies the manuscript for the keyboard stage of production. Following instructions of the submitting agency, the planner, in effect, lays out the job in advance. Thus, completely unlike procedures followed in the past, today's computer-oriented product is literally made up before it is put into type. Consequently, it is necessary for the customer agencies to communicate precise details of their needs before production begins.
2.2. Changes in recent years in the needs of the library community have led to a move toward uniform treatment of the component parts of publications. In developing standards to guide publishers of Government books, consideration has been given to the changing needs of those who seek to produce, reference, index, abstract, store, and retrieve data. Certain identifying elements shall be printed on all publications in accordance with this Manual and with standards developed by the American National Standards Institute, Inc. (ANSI).

Publications such as books and pamphlets should contain:
(a) Title and other title information;
(b) Name of department issuing or creating publication;
(c) Name of author(s) and editor(s) (department or individual);
(d) Date of issuance;
(e) Availability (publisher or printer and address);
(f) Superintendent of Documents classification and stock numbers; and
(g) The International Standard Book number (if assigned).
(See ANSI Standard Z39.15, Title Leaves of a Book.)
Reports of a scientific or technical nature should contain:
(a) Title and other title information;
(b) Report number;
(c) Author(s);
(d) Performing organization;
(e) Sponsoring department;
(f) Date of issuance;
(g) Type of report and period covered;
(h) Availability (publisher or printer and address); and
(i) Superintendent of Documents classification and stock numbers.

(d) Publishing or sponsoring department;
(e) Availability (publisher or printer and address);
(f) International Standard Serial Number; and
(g) Superintendent of Documents classification and stock numbers.
(See ANSI Standard Z39.1, Periodicals: Format and Arrangement.)
2.3. Government publications will be made up in the following order. The "new odd page" designations refer, generally, to bookwork and are not required in most pamphlet- and magazine-type publications. (See rules 1.14 and 2.5.)
a. Frontispiece, faces title page.
b. False title (frontispiece, if any, on back).
c. Title page.
d. Back of title, blank, but frequently carries such useful bibliographic information as list of board members, congressional resolution authorizing publication, note of editions and printings, GPO imprint if departmental imprint appears on title page, price notice, etc.
e. Letter of transmittal (new odd page).
f. Foreword, differs from preface in that it is an introductory note written as an endorsement by a person other than the author (new odd page). An introduction differs from a foreword or a preface in that it is the initial part of the text; if the book is divided into chapters, it should be the first chapter.
g. Preface, by author (new odd page).
h. Acknowledgments (if not part of preface) (new odd page).
i. Contents (new odd page), immediately followed by list of illustrations and list of tables, as parts of contents.
j. Text, begins with page 1 (if halftitle is used, begins with p. 3).
k. Glossary.

1. Bibliography (new odd page).
m. Appendix (new odd page).
n. Index (new odd page).
2.4. To number preliminary pages, use small-cap numerals.
2.5. Booklets of 32 pages or less can be printed more economically with a self-cover. A table of contents, title page, foreword, preface, etc., is not usually necessary with so few pages. If some of this preliminary matter is necessary, it is more practical to combine this material; i.e., contents on cover; combine contents, title, foreword on cover 2, etc.
2.6. Before makeup can be started the length of type page and style of folios to be used must be ascertained.
2.7. Widow lines at top of pages are to be avoided, if possible, but are permitted if necessary to maintain uniform makeup and page length. Paragraphs may start on the last line of a page, whenever necessary. If it is found necessary to make a short page, the facing page should be of approximately equal length, if the text permits.
2.8. A blank or sink of 6 picas should be placed at the head of each new odd or even page of 46 -pica or greater depth; pages with a depth of from 36 to 45 picas, inclusive, will carry a 5 -pica sink; pages less than 36 picas, 4 picas.
2.9. If top center folio is used, the folio on a new page must be placed at the bottom, centered, and enclosed in parentheses.
2.10. Where running heads with folios are used, heads are included in overall page depth. However, first pages of chapters and pages with bottom folios are made up with folios in margin. Bottom folios on short preliminary pages will be made up with page numbers 4 points from last line.
2.11. Jobs made up with bottom folios will have all page numbers, including preliminary pages, aligning on the bottom in the margin.
2.12. Avoid use of running heads in conjunction with bottom folios.
2.13. Contents, list of illustrations, preface, or any other matter that makes a page in itself should be placed 12 points or more nearer top than bottom, the difference depending upon the length of page.
2.14. Footnote references are repeated in boxheads or in continued lines over tables, unless special orders are given not to do so.
2.15. Six-point headnotes above tables are enclosed in brackets and are repeated with continued heads.
2.17. A broadside table of less than page width will center on the page.
2.18. Centerheads, whether in boldface, caps, caps and small caps, small caps, or italic, should have more space above than below. Uniform spacing should be maintained throughout the page.
2.19. In making up a page of two or more columns, text will be doubled up over illustrations.
2.20. Two or more short footnotes coming together may be combined into one line, with 2 ems of space between footnotes.
${ }^{1}$ Preliminary. $\quad{ }^{2}$ Including imported cases. ${ }^{3}$ Imported.
2.21. Backstrips should run down (from top to bottom) on all publications.

COPY PREPARATION

2.22. The first duty of copy preparers is to mark those things that are not readily understood and to indicate headings, indentions, dashes, new pages, and other matters of style necessary to give the completed book a good typographic appearance.
2.23. If a preparer considers a customer's request for new odd pages and/or half titles unwarranted or excessive, he or she must bring this to the attention of the supervisor who will question these pages to the ordering agency.
2.24. Preparers must indicate point size and type series on copy, and whether matter is to be leaded or double leaded, etc.; verify folio numbers; and plainly indicate references, footnotes, cut-ins, etc. Unless otherwise marked, text matter will be set in 10-point solid and tables in 7 point. Where down rules are requested in tables, hairline rules will be used. (See rule 13.3.)
2.25. Quoted, or extract matter, and lists should be set 2 points smaller than text, and quotation marks at beginning and end of paragraphs should be omitted. If the same type size is used, quoted matter should be cut in 1 to 3 ems, depending on measure, and initial and closing quotes should be omitted.

Capitalization

2.26. Unusual capital and lowercase letters must be indicated.

Datelines, addresses, and signatures

2.27. Copy preparers must mark caps, small caps, italic, abbreviations, and indentions; also indicate line breaks where necessary.

Decimals and common fractions

2.28. In figure columns containing decimals or common fractions, such decimals and/or fractions will not be aligned.

"Et cetera," "etc.," and "and so forth"

2.29. In printing a speaker's language, the words and so forth or et cetera are used-not the abbreviation etc. If a quoted extract is set in type smaller than that of the preceding text and the speaker has summed up the remainder of the quotation with the words and so forth or et cetera, these words should be placed at the beginning of the next line, flush and lowercase, and an em dash should be used at the end of the extract.

Folioing and stamping copy

2.30. Folio numbers should be placed in the upper right-hand corner, preferably half an inch from the top.
2.31. All other stamping-type size, measure, etc.-should be placed in the upper left-hand corner. On cards, any available space may be used.
2.32. If it is necessary to cut copy for parallel tables, portions will be folioed down the left-hand side first, then down the right-hand side.

Footnotes and reference marks

(For text, see rules 15.1-15.20; for tables, see rules 13.75-13.96.)

Headings

2.33. The locators to be used for all headings must be marked. Caps, caps and small caps, small caps, caps and lowercase, lowercase first up (first words and proper nouns capitalized), or italic must be prepared. (See rule 3.51.)

Pickup

2.34. The jacket number of a job from which matter is to be picked up must be indicated. New matter should conform in style to that of the pickup.

Sidenotes and cut-in notes

2.35. Sidenotes and cut-in notes should be avoided.

Signs, symbols, etc.
2.36. All signs, symbols, dashes, superiors, etc., must be plainly marked. Names of Greek letters must be indicated, as they are frequently mistaken for italic or symbols.
2.37. In the event typewriters use the same characters for figure 1 and lowercase 1 and cipher and capital 0 , all such characters will be printed as figures unless otherwise marked.

Letters illustrating shape and form

2.38. Capital letters of the text face will be used to illustrate shape and form, as U-shape(d), A-frame, T-bone, and T-rail.
2.39. Plurals are formed by adding the apostrophe and $s$, as T's, Y's, etc. Golf tee(s) should be spelled, as it does not indicate shape.
2.40. A capital is used in $U$-boat, $V-8$, and other expressions which have no reference to shape or form.

"Follow literally" and "FIC and punc."

2.41. After submittal to the GPO, manuscript copy is rubberstamped "Fol. lit." or "FIC and punc." The difference between these two typesetting instructions is explained thus:

In "Fol. lit." (follow literally) copy we do not make any changes. Copy authorized to be marked "Fol. lit." must be thoroughly prepared by the requisitioning agency as to capitalization, punctuation (including compounding), abbreviations, signs, symbols, figures, and italic, and such copy, including even manifest errors, will be followed. The lack of preparation on copy so designated shall, in itself, constitute preparation. "Fol. lit." does not include size and style of type or spacing.

In "FIC & punc." (follow, including capitalization and punctuation) copy, we correct obvious errors.
2.42. Excerpts for congressional hearings ( 8 point) and the Congressional Record ( 7 point) will be stamped and set "FIC & punc." unless otherwise instructed. Datelines, address lines, signature lines, tables, and leaderwork are to be prepared according to Style Manual rules.

In all quoted amendments and excerpts of bills and in reprinting bills, bill style is to be followed at all times.
2.43. In congressional hearings, the name of interrogator or witness who continues speaking is repeated following a head set in Century bold, a paragraph enclosed in parentheses, and a paragraph enclosed in brackets.

In a head set in Century bold, the title "Mr." is not used, and "the Honorable" preceding name is shortened to "Hon." Street addresses are also deleted. Example: "Statement of Hon. John P. Blank, Member of American Bar Assocjation, Washington, DC."
2.44. To prevent confusion and delay and to ensure economy in printing, all copy will be set in accordance with the rules laid down in this Style Manual, with which editors and compilers are expected to become familiar, except that in some classes of printing of a legal, technical, or historical nature it may be necessary to adhere strictly to the original text, and the requisitioning office may then properly mark such copy "Fol. lit."
2.45. Follow the position of quotation marks in relation to other punctuation marks in matter marked "Fol. lit." and "FIC & punc." Abbreviations with points (as in U.S.C., U.S.) close up. Abbreviations also close up in "Fol. lit." matter, unless prepared with spaces. (See rule 9.7.)
2.46. Paragraph or section numbers (or letters) followed by figures or letters in parentheses will close up, as "section $7(B)(1)(a)$," "paragraph 23(a)," "paragraph b(7)," "paragraph (a)(2)"; but section $9(1)(a)$ and (b); section $7 a$ and $b$. In case of an unavoidable break, division will be made after elements in parentheses, and no hyphen is used. However, if spaces are prepared in "Fol. lit." matter, copy will be followed.
2.47. "Bill style" copy will follow the style of the Government Printing Office Bill Style Manual, which conforms to this Style Manual in many particulars, such as the use of figures in dates; sums of money; percentages; the numbers of articles, chapters, lines, pages, paragraphs, parts, sections, and volumes; the classification of vessels (A 1); and all other instances where numbered is used or implied. Punctuation, as prepared, must be followed.
2.48. Copy preparer's instructions, which accompany each job, are written to cover the general style and certain peculiarities or deviations from style. These instructions must be followed. The copy preparer must not deviate from the style laid down in this Style Manual unless authorized to do so by the supervisor in the markup section.

Abbreviations

2.49. In marking abbreviations to be spelled, preparers must show what the spelled form should be, unless the abbreviations are common and not susceptible of more than one construction. An unfamiliar abbreviation, with spelled-out form unavailable, is not changed.

TYPE COMPOSITION

2.50. Compositors and operators must study carefully the rules governing composition. Failure to do this will show plainly on proofs.
2.51. In correcting pickup matter, the operator must indicate plainly on the proof what portion was actually reset.
2.52. Every precaution must be taken to prevent the soiling of proofs, as it is necessary for the reviser to see clearly every mark on the margin of a proof after it has been corrected.
2.53. Corrections of queries intended for the author should not be made. Such queries, however, are not to be carried on jobs going directly to press.

Leading and spacing

2.54. Spacing of text is governed by the leading, narrow spacing being more desirable in solid than in leaded matter.
2.55. A single justification space (close spacing) will be used between sentences. This applies to all types of composition.
2.56. Center or flush heads set in caps, caps and small caps, small caps, or boldface are spaced with regular justification spaces between words.
2.57. Centerheads are separated from the text by slugs, the space below the head being at least 2 points less than the space above: 10 points above and 8 points below in 10 -point text; 8 points above and 6 points below in 8 - and 6 -point text.
2.58. Heads set in caps are leaded, even in solid matter.
2.59. In solid matter, " 2 leads," " 3 leads," and similar space designations marked on copy mean " 2 leads" ( 4 points), " 3 leads" ( 6 points), etc.

In leaded matter (machine-leaded linotype, or monotype with shoulder), " 2 leads," " 3 leads," etc., will include space on type; e.g., " 2 leads" means a 2 -point lead plus space on type.
2.60. Unless otherwise marked, flush heads are separated from text by 2 leads above and 1 lead below in solid matter, and by 3 leads above and 2 leads below in leaded matter.
2.61. Full-measure numbered or lettered paragraphs and quoted extracts are not separated by space from adjoining matter.
2.62. Extracts which are set off from the text by smaller type or are indented on both sides or indented 3 ems on the left side (courtwork only) are separated by 6 points in leaded matter and by 4 points in solid matter.
2.63. Extracts set solid in leaded matter are separated from the text by 6 points.
2.64. Flush lines following extracts are separated by 6 points of space in leaded matter and by 4 points in solid matter.
2.65. Footnotes are leaded if the text is leaded, and are set solid if the text is solid.
2.66. Legends are leaded if text is leaded, and solid if text is solid. Leaderwork is separated from text by 4 points above and 4 points below.

Indentions

2.67. In measures less than 30 picas, the paragraph indention is 1 em. Paragraph indentions in cut-in matter are 3 ems, overs 2 ems. Overruns, datelines, and signatures are indented in multiples of 2 ems. Addresses are set flush left. (See examples, beginning p. 206.)
2.68. In matter set 30 picas or wider, the paragraph indention is 2 ems. Paragraph indentions in cut-in matter are 6 ems, overs 4 ems. Overruns, datelines, and signatures are indented in multiples of 2 ems. Addresses are set flush left. (See examples, beginning p. 206.)
2.69. In measures less than 30 picas, overruns in hanging indentions are 1 em more than the first line, except that to avoid conflict with a following indention (for example, of a subentry or paragraph), the overrun indention is made 1 em more than the following line.
2.70. In matter set 30 picas or wider, overruns in hanging indentions are 2 ems more than the first line, except that to avoid conflict with a following indention (for example, of a subentry or paragraph), the overrun indention is made 2 ems more than the following line.
2.71. Indention of matter set in smaller type should be the same, in points, as that of adjoining main-text indented matter.
2.72. Two-line centerheads are centered, but heads of three or more lines are set with hanging indention.
2.73. Overs in flush heads are indented 2 ems in measures less than 30 picas, and 3 ems in wider measures.

Legends for illustrations

2.74. Legends and explanatory matter of one or two lines are centered; if more than two lines, they are set with hanging indention. If an illustration is narrower than full measure and text is run at the side of it, the legend is set the width of the illustration; if text is not to be run at the side of the illustration, the legend is set full measure regardless of the width of the illustration, unless copy is otherwise marked.
2.75. Legend lines of illustrations which run the broad way should be printed to read up; that is, an even-page legend should be on the inside margin and an odd-page legend on the outside margin.
2.76. Unless other type is indicated, legends for illustrations are set in 8-point roman, lowercase.
2.77. Periods are used after legends and explanatory matter beneath illustrations. However, legends without descriptive language do not use a period. (See rule 8.115.)
2.78. At beginning of legend or standing alone, Figure preceding the identifying number or letter is set in caps and small caps and is not abbreviated.

2.79. If a chart carries both a legend and footnotes, the legend is placed above the chart.
2.80. Letter symbols used in legends for illustrations are set in lowercase italic without periods.

PROOFREADING AND COPYHOLDING

2.81. All special instructions, layouts, and style sheets must be sent to the Proof Section with the first installment of each job.
2.82 . The proofreader should see that the rules governing spacing, division of words, and good printing generally have been observed.
2.83. If the proofreader detects inconsistent and erroneous statements, it is his or her duty to query them.
2.84. If the grammatical construction of a sentence or clause is questioned by a reader and it seems desirable to change the form, he must indicate the proposed correction, add a query mark, and enclose all in a ring.
2.85. A query appearing on copy must be carried to the author.
2.86. Proofs that are illegible or are in any manner defective must be called to the attention of the deskperson.
2.87. The manner in which correction marks are made on a proof is of considerable importance. Straggling, unsymmetrical characters, disconnected marks placed in the margin above or below the lines to which they relate, irregular lines leading from an incorrect letter or word to a correction, large marks, marks made with a blunt pencil, indistinct marks, and frequent use of the eraser to obliterate marks hastily or incorrectly made are all faults to be avoided.
2.88. In reading proof of wide tables, the reader should place the correction in white space as near as possible to the error, thus aiding all who handle the proof afterward. The reader should obliterate entirely a defective figure and rewrite it in a ring and should not use the transposition mark in little-known words or in figures. It is better to cancel the letters or figures and write them in the margin in the order in which they are to appear.
2.89. Proofreaders and revisers must draw a ring around footnote references on proofs.
2.90. Readers must not make important changes in indentions or tables without consulting the Referee.
2.91. The marks of the copy preparer will be followed, as he or she is in a position to know more about the peculiarities of a job than one who reads but a small portion of it.
2.92. Any mark which will change the proof from the copy as prepared must be enclosed in a ring.
2.93. All instructions on copy must be carried on proof by readers.
2.94. Folios of copy must be run by the copyholder and checked against those marked on the proof.
2.95. In reading copy an unnecessarily loud tone of voice must be avoided. Short words are as important as long ones, and should be pronounced distinctly. Plurals should be sounded clearly, and names of persons or places pronounced distinctly or read by letters.

IMPOSITION

2.96. Imposition is the general term applied to the task of laying out pages of plates or negatives for press. Imposing refers specifically to laying or arranging pages so that a press sheet, when printed and folded, will produce a signature with pages in proper sequence. A page is considered the unit of a signature; the two companion pages, the unit in imposition. Whether the imposition is from the outside or inside, a long or a broad form, work and turn, or sheetwise, these companion pages are never separated; their position in the printed pamphlet is determined by the fold.
2.97. In the layout of pages, each page must be in its proper sequence, determined by the type of fold desired. Margins are governed by the trim size of finished book or pamphlet. After trim size has been established, the sheet size of stock is selected. For example, GPO standard octavo is type width, $26^{1 / 2}$ picas; type depth, 45 picas; trim size of finished book or pamphlet, $57 / 8$ by $91 / 8$ inches. The number of pages to be printed is broken down into signatures of 16 pages each and the most practical layout is chosen. In this case, four rows of four pages each. Thus stock size is four times $57 / 8$ inches for width and four times $91 / 8$ inches for depth. As it is necessary to allow a minimum of $1 / 8$-inch trim after signatures are folded, the sheet size will be 24 by 38 inches, standard stock size. The margins, which are the back, or binding edge, head or top, outside, and foot or bottom, are then determined by allowing enough white space from the type area to give a proper balance to the finished book. It is generally agreed that a 4 -pica back and a 3 -pica head, after trim, are standard margins for this particular trim size on saddle stitch or sewed jobs. Other standards have been incorporated in the GPO Layout Book. These margins are followed unless requisition specified nonstandard margins.
2.98. To illustrate further that these companion pages are the unit of imposition, it will be found when determining margins that these two pages are always printed in the center of the untrimmed sheet. The other two companion pages that make up the quarter of the 16 are likewise printed in the center of the quarter sheet, which is 19 inches, one-half of the 38 -inch way. It will thus be observed that two pages were used to get the outside margins, and another multiple of two (four) to get the bottom margins.
2.99. Margins should be governed by the trimmed book and not by the untrimmed sheet. The back margin or gutter should be such that it will bring the pages nearly in the center of the open printed book, putting any excess space in the outer margins, except in books that are to be side stitched, in which additional space must be allowed for the stitching. The margins should be so planned that when the book is delivered from the binder the back margin is less than the outside. The top margin of the trimmed book should be at least 3 picas and the bottom margin at least 4 picas. The outside margin should be at least 1 pica greater than the back but not as wide as the bottom margin.
2.100. If a running head is used, the head margin should be the same as the back margin; but if a bottom folio is used, that line and the slug above it should be counted as part of the margin. (See also rules 2.10-2.11.)

REVISING

Galley revising

2.101. The importance of revising proofs cannot be overemphasized. Although a reviser is not expected to read proof, it is not enough to follow the marks found on the proof. He or she should be alert to detect errors and inconsistencies and must see that all corrections have been properly made and that words or lines have not been transposed or eliminated in making the corrections.
2.102. A reviser must not remodel the punctuation of the readers or make any important changes. If an important change should be made, the reviser must submit the proposed change to the supervisor for decision.
2.103. In the body of the work, new pages must be properly indicated on the proof. (For new page information, see under "Makeup".)
2.104. All instructions and queries on proofs must be transferred to the revises.
2.105. Extension numbers must be carried on revise proofs.

Page revising

2.106. Page revising requires great diligence and care. The reviser must see that the rules governing the instructions of previous workers have been followed.
2.107. The reviser is responsible for marking off all bleed and offcenter pages.
2.108. A blank page must be indicated at the bottom of the preceding page.
2.109. Special care must be exercised in revising corrected matter. If it appears that a correction has not been made, the reviser should carefully examine each line on the page to see if the correction was inserted in the wrong place.
2.110. The following rules must be carefully observed:
a. See that proof is clean and clear; send for another if necessary.
b. Before beginning page revising, see that galley proofs run consecutively and that in continuous makeup the matter on the galleys connects.
c. Make sure that different sets of proofs of the same job are correctly marked in series (" $R$," " $2 R$," " $3 R$," etc.); where a sheet is stamped "Another proof," carry the same designating " $R$ " on the corresponding clean proof. Advance the " $R$," " $2 R$," " $3 R$," etc., on each set of page proofs returned from the originating office.
d. See that page folios are consecutive. Make sure running heads are correct. Observe connection pages. Verify proper sequence of footnote references and footnotes, and check that footnotes appear or begin on the same page as the corresponding reference.
e. Watch for dropouts, doublets, and transpositions.
f. Legend lines of full-page illustrations that run broad should be printed to read up-that is, the even-page legend on the binding or inside margin and the odd-page legend on the outside margin.
g. If a footnote is eliminated, do not renumber the footnotes; just change footnote to read "Footnote eliminated."
2.111. If a footnote is added in proof, use the preceding number with a superior letter added, as ${ }^{15}$ a

Press revising

2.113. Press revising calls for the exercise of utmost care. The press reviser must be thoroughly familiar with the style and makeup of Government publications. He or she is required to OK all forms that go to press-bookwork, covers, jobwork, etc., and must see that all queries are answered. A knowledge of the bindery operations required to complete a book or job and familiarity with all types of imposition, folds, etc., is helpful. The reviser must be capable of ascertaining the proper head, back, and side margins for all work, to ensure proper trimming of the completed job.
2.114. Although speed is essential when forms reach the pressroom, accuracy must not be sacrificed.

SIGNATURE MARKS, ETC.

2.115. Unless otherwise indicated, signature marks are set 6 point lowercase and indented 3 ems.
2.116. Figures indicating the year should follow the jacket number in signature marks:

| $125-327-72--4$ | $116-529-72-$ pt. $5--3$ | $116-529-72-$ vol. $1--3$ |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| $92-694 \mathrm{O}-72--2$ | $92-694 \mathrm{OF}-72-72--2$ |  |
| $92-694^{\mathrm{v}}-72-\frac{92-694 \mathrm{~F}-72--2}{}$ | $92-694^{\mathrm{m}-72--2}$ |  |

2.117. When allmark $(\mathrm{O})$ and signature or imprint and signature appear on same page, the signature line is placed below the allmark but above the imprint.
2.118. The allmark is placed below the page, bulletin, or circular number but above the signature line, if both appear on the same page.
2.119. Imprints and signature lines appearing on short pages of text are placed at the bottom of the page.
2.120. All plated jobs take a degree mark ( ${ }^{\circ}$ ) immediately after the jacket number in the signature line.
2.121. All offset jobs take a capital O immediately after the jacket number in the signature line. Offset-Fotosetter jobs are indicated by OF; Fotosetter by F.
2.122. When matrix is to be made of job, a superior $m\left(^{(m)}\right.$ is placed immediately after jacket number in the signature line.
2.123. On a job reprinted on account of change, a black star ( $\star$ ) precedes the jacket number in the signature line and precedes the date on the title page:

\star 17-234-72-2 \quad \star 12-15-72

2.124. The following forms are used for signature marks in House and Senate documents and reports printed on session jackets:
H. Doc. 73, 92-1--2
S. Doc. 57, 92-1--2
S. Doc. $57,92-2$, pt. $1--2$
H. Rept. 120, $92-2-8$
S. Doc. 57, 92-2, vol. 1--2
S. Rept. 100, 92-2--9
2.125. In a document or report printed on other than a session jacket, use the jacket number, year, and signature number only, omitting the document or report number.
2.126. For pasters, the jacket number, the year, and the page to be faced by the paster are used as follows (note punctuation):
2.128. If more than one paster faces the same page, each is numbered as follows:

\begin{aligned}
& 12-344--72 \text { (Face p. 19) No. } 1 \\
& 12-344--72 \text { (Face p. 19) No. } 2
\end{aligned}

2.129. When a paster follows the text, the allmark is placed on the last page of the text and never on the paster.

REPRINTS, IMPRINTS, AND PRICE NOTICES

Reprints

2.130. To aid bibliographic identification of reprints or revisions, the dates of the original edition and of reprint or revision should be supplied by the author on the title page or in some other suitable place. Thus:
2.131. The year in the imprint on cover, title page, or elsewhere is not changed from that in the original print, nor are the signatures changed, unless other mends are necessary.

Imprints

2.132. Unless otherwise stipulated, the Government Printing Office imprint must appear on all printed matter, except certain classified work.
2.133. Use full imprint on the title page of a congressional speech.
2.134. The imprint and allmark are not used together on any page; if one is used, the other is omitted.
2.135. The imprint is not used on a halftitle or (except on congressional hearings) on any page of a cover.
2.137. The Government Printing Office crest is used only on Government Printing Office publications. If it is printed on page II, the full imprint is used on the title page; if it is printed on the title page, use the half imprint only, thus-Washington : 1984.

Price notices

2.138. The use of price notices is discouraged. Where such notice is needed, see rule 2.139 .

FRANKING

2.146. The franking (mailing) privilege on covers for Government publications should be at least $11 / 8$ inches from the trim.

Bibliographies or references

2.147. There are many styles available to bibliographers, for there are many classes of documents. A Government bulletin citation, according to one authority, would be treated as follows:

Author's name (if the article is signed); title of article (in quotation marks); the publication (usually in italic), with correct references to volume, number, series, pages, date, and publisher (U.S. Govt. Print. Off.).

Therefore the example would read:
U.S. Department of the Interior, "Highlights in history of forest and related natural source conservation," Conservation Bulletin, No. 41 (serial number not italic), Washington, U.S. Dept. of the Interior (or U.S. Govt. Print. Off.), 1966. 1 p. (or p. 1).

Another Government periodical citation would read as follows:
Reese, Herbert Harshman, "How To Select a Sound Horse," Farmers' Bulletin, No. 779, pp. 1-26 (1917), U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Clarity may be maintained by capitalizing each word in book titles, but only the first word in the title of articles.

Other examples are:

Preston W. Slosson, The Great Crusade and After: 1914-1928 (New York: Macmillan, 1930)

Edward B. Rosa, "The economic importance of the scientific work of the government," J. Wash. Acad. Sci. 10, 342 (1920)
Or:
Preston W. Slosson, The Great Crusade and After: 1914-1928 (New York: Macmillan, 1930)

Edward B. Rosa, "The Economic Importance of the Scientific Work of the Government," J. Wash. Acad. Sci. 10, 342 (1920)

Note that the principal words in both book titles and titles of articles are capitalized. Consistency is more important in bibliographic style than the style itself.

The science of bibliography is covered in many texts, and the following references are available for study:

3. CAPITALIZATION

(See aiso Abbreviations; Guide to Capitalization)
3.1. It is impossible to give rules that will cover every conceivable problem in capitalization; but by considering the purpose to be served and the underlying principles, it is possible to attain a considerable degree of uniformity. The list of approved forms given on pages 35 to 61 will serve as a guide. Manifestly such a list cannot be complete. The correct usage with respect to any term not included can be determined by analogy or by application of the rules.

5. SPELLING

(See also Compound Words; Abbreviations)

5.1. To avoid the confusion and uncertainty of various authorities on spelling, the Government Printing Office must of necessity adopt a single guide for the spelling of words the preferred forms of which are not otherwise listed or provided for in this Manual. The guide is Webster's Third New International Dictionary. Unless herein otherwise authorized, the Government Printing Office will continue to follow Webster's spelling. Colloquial and dialect spellings are not to be used unless required by the subject matter or specially requested.

Preferred and difficult spellings

5.2. In addition to indicating the preferred forms of words with variant spellings, the list also contains other words frequently misspelled or causing uncertainty. (See also Word Division, a supplement to the Style Manual; for brief description, see p. 2.)

Endings "ise," "ize," and "yze"
5.12. A large number of words have the termination ise, ize, or $y z e$. The letter $l$ is followed by $y z e$ if the word expresses an idea of loosening or separating, as analyze; all other words of this class, except those ending with the suffix wise and those in the following list, end in ize.

Geographic names

5.20. The spelling of geographic names must conform to the decisions of the U.S. Board on Geographic Names (BGN). In the absence of such a decision, the U.S. Directory of Post Offices is to be used for names of post offices in the United States and its possessions.
5.21. If the decisions or the rules of the BGN permit the use of either the local official form or the conventional English form, it is the prerogative of the originating office to select the form which is most suitable for the matter in hand; therefore, in marking copy or reading proof, it is required only to verify the spelling of the particular form used. The Government Printing Office preference is for the conventional English form. Copy will be followed as to accents, but these should be uniform throughout each job.

Nationalities, etc.

5.22. The table on page 235 shows forms to be used for nouns and adjectives denoting nationality.
5.23. In designating the natives of the several States, the following forms will be used.

Transliteration

5.27. In the spelling of nongeographic words transliterated from Chinese, Japanese, or any other language that does not have a Latin alphabet, copy is to be followed literally.

6. COMPOUND WORDS

(See also Guide to Compounding; Word Division (supplement to Style Manual), description on p. 2)

6.1. A compound word is a union of two or more words, either with or without a hyphen. It conveys a unit idea that is not as clearly or quickly conveyed by the component words in unconnected succession. The hyphen in a compound is a mark of punctuation that not only unites but separates the component words, and thus facilitates understanding, aids readability, and ensures correct pronunciation.
6.2. In applying the following rules and in using the Guide to Compounding, the living fluidity of our language should be kept in mind. Word forms constantly undergo modification. Two-word forms often acquire the hyphen first, are printed as one word later, and not infrequently the transition is from the two- to the oneword form, bypassing the hyphen stage.
6.3. The rules as laid down cannot be applied inflexibly. Exceptions must necessarily be allowed, so that general good form will not be offended. However, current language trends point definitely to closing up words which, through frequent use, have become associated in the reader's mind as units of thought. The tendency to amalgamate words, particularly two short words, assures easier continuity, and is a natural progression from the older and less flexible treatment of words.

General rules

6.4. In general, omit the hyphen when words appear in regular order and the omission causes no ambiguity in sense or sound. (See also rule 6.16.)
banking hours blood pressure book value census taker day laborer fellow citizen living costs palm oil patent right real estate rock candy training ship violin teacher
6.5. Words are usually combined to express a literal or nonliteral (figurative) unit idea that would not be as clearly expressed in unconnected succession.

| afterglow | forget-me-not  bookkeeping  cupboard | gentleman |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| newsprint | right-of-way |  |

| coldbloodedness | ill-advisedly | praiseworthiness | Y-shaped |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| footnoting | outlawry | railroader |  |

6.7. Except after the short prefixes $c o, d e$, pre, pro, and re, which are generally printed solid, a hyphen is used to avoid doubling a vowel or tripling a consonant. (See also rules 6.29 and 6.32 .)

7. GUIDE TO COMPOUNDING

7.1. The following list is based on the rules for compounding given on pages 73 to 80 . Manifestly, such a list cannot be complete. However, by analogy with listed words of like prefixes or suffixes, with consideration given to length and readability, and the application of the rules, fuller treatment of unlisted compounds will be achieved. Nevertheless, the list is reasonably complete for meeting the needs of printers, editors, and writers.
7.2. In order to keep the list from becoming cumbersome, certain restrictions had to be adopted.
7.3. The listing of hyphenated compounds ending in ed was kept to a minimum, it being thought adequate to give one or two examples under a keyword rather than to admit needless repetition.
7.4. Similarly, many two-word forms which create no difficulty were omitted.
7.5. On the other hand, care was exercised to achieve fuller coverage of solid compounds, particularly when the adopted form is at variance with that laid down in Webster's Third New International Dictionary. It should be added that while Webster's, with indicated exceptions (pp. 63-67), is our guide to the spelling of words, it is not our guide for the compounding of words. The rules and the guide prescribe and limit our practice.
7.6. Distinction should be made between words used in a nonliteral sense-e.g., highlight (prominent detail), sideline (added activity), where the one-word form differentiates from literal use-e.g., high light (elevation of a light), side line (physical line), where the two-word form frequently assures proper emphasis in pronouncing more distinctly each word in the group.
7.7. Distinction should also be made in the compounding of two words to form an adjective modifier and the use of the same words as a predicate adjective; e.g., "crystal-clear water," but "the water is crystal clear"; "fire-tested material," but "the material is fire tested."
7.8. Caution should be used in distinguishing when a succession of words is intended as a compound and when it is merely a collocation; e.g., "we know someone who will do it," but "we ought to master some one thing well."
7.9. For better appearance, it may sometimes be necessary to treat alike words which would have different forms when they appear separately; e.g., bumblebee and queen bee, farmhand and ranch hand. In juxtaposition, these and similar words should be made uniform by being printed as two words. This is only a temporary expedient and does not supersede the list.
7.10. Combining forms and prefixes are usually printed solid. For greater readability, the hyphen is sometimes required to avoid doubling a vowel (anti-inflation, naso-orbital), except as indicated in rule 6.7; or not to change a normally capitalized word (mid-April, non-European); or to assure distinct pronunciation of each element of a compound or ready comprehension of intended meaning (contra-ion, un-ionized); or to join a combining form or prefix to an already hyphenated compound (equi-gram-molar, pro-mother-in-law).
7.11. As nouns and adjectives, holdup, calldown, layout, makeup, and similar words should be printed solid. Their er derivatives (holder-up, caller-down, layer-out, and maker-up) require hyphens. On the other hand, such compounds as run-in, run-on, and tie-in resist quick comprehension when solid. They are therefore hyphenated.
7.12. Words spelled alike but pronounced differently, such as tear-dimmed and tearsheet, wind tunnel and windup, are listed under the same keyword.
7.13. This list does not include the large group of plant and insect names which are covered in separate lists, pages 257 to 274.
7.14. The abbreviations adv. (adverb), n. (noun), v. (verb), u.m. (unit modifier), pref. (prefix), c.f. (combining form), and conj. (conjunction) indicate function.
[Words printed flush are combined with the words which follow to form solid or hyphenated compounds; a spacemark (#) indicates a two-word form (note that twoword forms in the adjective position use a hyphen, except as laid down in rules 6.16, 6.21, and 6.24.)]

8. PUNCTUATION

8.1. Punctuation is a device used to clarify the meaning of written or printed language. Well-planned word order requires a minimum of punctuation. The trend toward less punctuation calls for skillful phrasing to avoid ambiguity and to ensure exact interpretation. The Manual can only offer general rules of text treatment. A rigid design or pattern of punctuation cannot be laid down, except in broad terms. The adopted style, however, must be consistent and be based on sentence structure.
8.2. The general principles governing the use of punctuation are (1) that if it does not clarify the text it should be omitted, and (2) that in the choice and placing of punctuation marks the sole aim should be to bring out more clearly the author's thought. Punctuation should aid in reading and prevent misreading.

Apostrophes and possessives

8.3. The possessive case of a singular or plural noun not ending in $s$ is formed by adding an apostrophe and $s$. The possessive case of a singular or plural noun ending in $s$ or with an $s$ sound is formed by adding an apostrophe only. (For possessives of italicized nouns, see rule 11.6.)

8.4. In compound nouns, the 's is added to the element nearest the object possessed.
comptroller general's decision attorneys general's appointments Mr. Brown of New York's motion attorney at law's fee John White, Jr.'s (no comma) account 8.5. Joint possession is indicated by placing an apostrophe on the last element of a series, while individual or alternative possession requires the use of an apostrophe on each element of a series.
soldiers and sailor's home
Brown & Nellon's store
men's, women's.and children's clothing
St. Mi, ${ }^{\text {chael's }}$ Men's Chub editor's or proofreader's opinion

Carter's or Reagan's administration Mrs. Smith's and Mrs. Allen's children the Army's and the Navy's work master's and doctor's degrees
8.6. In the use of an apostrophe in geographic names, firm names, the names of organizations and institutions, and the titles of books, the authentic form is to be followed. (Note use of "St.")

[^21]Court of St. James's
St. Peter's Church
St. Elizabeths Hospital
Johns Hopkins University Hinds' Precedents
but Martha's Vineyard
8.7. Generally the apostrophe should not be used after names of countries and other organized bodies ending in $s$, or after words more descriptive than possessive (not indicating personal possession), except when plural does not end in $s$.

United States control
United Nations meeting
Southern States industries
Massachusetts laws Bureau of Ships report

Teamsters Union editors handbook syrup producers manual technicians guide
teachers college

8.8. Possessive pronouns do not take an apostrophe. its ours theirs
8.9. Possessive indefinite or impersonal pronouns require an apostrophe.
each other's books one's home someone's pen
but somebody else's proposal
8.10. The singular possessive case is used in such general terms as the following:
arm's length attorney's fees author's alterations confectioner's sugar cow's milk distiller's grain fuller's earth miner's inch printer's ink traveler's checks writer's cramp
8.11. In addition to illustrating possession, an apostrophe is used to indicate contractions, the omission of figures or letters (see also "Courtwork," rule 17.34), and the coined plurals of letters, figures, and symbols.

| don't | the 1920's or the | RIF's |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |

8.12. The apostrophe is omitted in abbreviations, and also in shortened forms of certain other words.

| Danl., not Dan'l | coon | Halloween |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Sgt., not Sg't | possum | copter |
| phone | Frisco | but ma'am |

8.13. The plural of spelled-out numbers, of words referred to as words, and of words already containing an apostrophe is formed by adding $s$ or es; but 's is added to indicate the plural of words used as words if the omission of the apostrophe would cause difficulty in reáding.
twos, threes, sevens ands, ifs, and buts ins and outs ups and downs whereases and wherefores yeses and noes
but do's and don'ts which's and that's 8.14. The possessive case is often used in lieu of an objective phrase even though ownership is not involved.

| 1 day's labor (labor for 1 day) | 5 or 10 billion dollars' worth |
| :--- | :--- |
| 2 hours', traveltime | for charity's sake |
| a stone's throw | for pity's sake | 2 weeks' pay

8.15. The possessive case is not used in such expressions as the following, in which one noun modifies another.

| day labor (labor by the day) |  |
| :--- | :--- |
| quartermaster stores | State prison |
| State rights |  |

8.16. For euphony, nouns ending in $s$ or $c e$ and followed by a word beginning with $s$ form the possessive by adding an apostrophe only.
for goodness' sake for old times' sake $\quad$ for conscience' sake Mr. Hughes' service for acquaintance' sake 8.17. A possessive noun used in an adjective sense requires the addition of 's.
He is a friend of John's Stern's is running a sale 8.18. A noun preceding a gerund should be in the possessive case.
in the event of Mary's leaving the ship's hovering nearby

Brackets

Brackets, in pairs, are used-

9.2. The nature of the publication governs the extent to which abbreviations are used. In text of technical and legal publications, and in parentheses, brackets, footnotes, sidenotes, tables, leaderwork, and bibliographies, many words are frequently abbreviated. Cut-in sideheads, legends, tables of contents, and indexes follow the style of the text.
9.3. Internal and terminal punctuation in units of measure are to be omitted to conform with practice adopted by scientific, technical, and industrial groups, nationally and internationally. Where omission of terminal punctuation causes confusion; e.g., the symbol in (inch) mistaken for the preposition in, the abbreviation should be spelled out.
9.4. Standard and easily understood forms are preferable, and they should be uniform throughout a job. Abbreviations not generally known should be followed in the text by the spelled-out forms in parentheses the first time they occur; in tables and leaderwork such explanatory matter should be supplied in a footnote. As the printer cannot rewrite the copy, the author should supply these explanatory forms.
9.5. In technical matter, abbreviations for units of measure should be used only with figures; similarly, many other abbreviations should not appear in isolation; for example, energy is measured in foot-pounds, not energy is measured in $\mathrm{ft} \cdot \mathrm{lb}$.
Capitals, hyphens, periods, and spacing
9.6. In general, an abbreviation follows the capitalization and hyphening of the word or words abbreviated. It is followed by a period unless otherwise indicated.

\begin{array}{lll}
\text { c.o.d. } \quad \text { St. } \quad \text { but } \mathrm{ft} \cdot \mathrm{lb}
\end{array}

9.7. Abbreviations and initials of a personal name with points are set without spaces. However, abbreviations composed of contractions and initials or numbers, will retain space.

"Other organized bodies" shall be interpreted to mean organized bodies that have become popularly identified with a symbol, such as MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology), GM (General Motors), GMAC (General Motors Acceptance Corp.), etc. (See rule 9.61.) Symbols, when they appear in copy, may be used for acts of Congress. Example: ARA (Area Redevelopment Act).

9.52. Avoid breaking latitude and longitude figures at end of line; space out line instead. In case of an unavoidable break at end of line, use hyphen.
9.53. Temperature and gravity are expressed in figures. When using the degree mark bump to cap letters, not against figures. Note the following abbreviations and letter symbols:

9.56. Metric unit letter symbols are set lowercase roman unless the unit name has been derived from a proper name, in which case the first letter of the symbol is capitalized (for example Pa for pascal and $W$ for watt). The exception is the letter $L$ for liter. The same form is used for singular and plural. The preferred symbol for cubic centimeter is $\mathrm{cm}^{3}$; use $c c$ only when requested.

A space is used between a figure and a unit symbol except in the case of the symbols for degree, minute, and second of plane angle.

10. SIGNS AND SYMBOLS

10.1. The increased use of signs and symbols and their importance in technical and scientific work have emphasized the necessity of standardization on a national basis and of the consistent use of the standard forms.
10.2. Certain symbols are well standardized-number symbols (the digits, $0,1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9$ ); letter symbols (the letters of the alphabet, a, b, c, d, etc.); and graphic symbols (the mathematical signs,,$+- \pm, \times, \div)$.
10.3. The signs,,$+- \pm, \times$, and $\div$, etc., are closed against accompanying figures and symbols. When the $X$ is used to indicate "crossed with" (in plant or animal breeding) or magnification, it will be separated from the accompanying words by a space.

$20,000 \pm 5,000$

Early June $\times$ Bright (crossed with) $\times 4$ (magnification)

Symbols with figures

10.4. In technical publications the degree mark is used in lieu of the word degree following a figure denoting measurement.
10.5. Following a figure the percent symbol is used in areas where space will not allow the word percent to be used. The spelled form is preferred.
In that period the price rose 12,15 , and 19 percent.
10.6. Any symbol that is set close up to figures, such as the dollar mark or cent mark, is used before or after each figure in a group or series.

$ 5 \text { to } $ 8 \text { price range } & \pm 2 \text { to } \pm 7 ; 2^{\circ} \pm 1^{\circ} \\
5^{\circ}-7^{\prime} \text { long, not } 5-7^{\prime} \text { long } & \text { but } $ 12 \text { (thin space) } \\
& \text { from } 15 \text { to } 25 \text { percent }
\end{array}

Letter symbols

10.7. Letter symbols are set in italic (see rule 10.8) or in roman (see rule 9.56) without periods and are capitalized only if so shown in copy, since the capitalized form may have an entirely different meaning.

Equations

10.8. In mathematical equations, use italic for all letter sym-bols-capitals, lowercase, small capitals, and superiors and inferiors (exponents and subscripts); use roman for figures, including superiors and inferiors.
10.9. If an equation or a mathematical expression needs to be divided, break before,,$+-=$, etc. However, the equal sign is to clear on left of other beginning mathematical signs.
10.10. A short equation in text should not be broken at the end of a line. Space out the line so that the equation will begin on the next line; or better, center the equation on a line by itself.
10.11. An equation too long for one line is set flush on the left, the second half of the equation is set flush on the right, and the two parts are balanced as nearly as possible.
10.12. Two or more equations in series are aligned on the equal signs and centered on the longest equation in the groúp.
10.13. Connecting words of explanation, such as hence, therefore, and similarly, are set flush left either on the same line with the equation or on a separate line.
10.14. Parentheses, braces, brackets, integral signs, and summation signs should be of the same height as the mathematical expressions they include.
10.15. Inferiors precede superiors if they appear together; but if either inferior or superior is too long, the two are aligned on left.

11. ITALIC

(See also Courtwork; Symbols; Datelines, Addresses, and Signatures)

11.1. Italic is sometimes used to differentiate or to give greater prominence to words, phrases, etc. However, an excessive amount of italic defeats this purpose, and its use in general work should be restricted as indicated.

Emphasis, foreign words, titles of publications

11.2. Italic is not used for mere emphasis, foreign words, or the titles of publications unless it is specially requested and the copy is edited therefor.
11.3. In nonlegal work, ante, post, infra, and supra are italicized only when part of a legal citation. Otherwise these terms, as well as the abbreviations id, ibid., op. cit., et seq., and other foreign words, phrases, and their abbreviations, are printed in roman. (See also rule 17.8.)
11.4. When "emphasis supplied," "emphasis added," or "emphasis ours" appears in copy, it should not be changed; but "underscore supplied" should be changed to "italic supplied."
11.5. When copy is submitted with instructions to set "all roman (no italic)," these instructions will not apply to Ordered, Resolved, Be it enacted, etc.; titles following signatures or addresses; or the parts of datelines which are always set in italic.

Names of aircraft and vessels

11.6. The names of aircraft, vessels, and spacecraft are italicized unless otherwise indicated. In lists set in columns and in stubs and reading columns of tables consisting entirely of such names they will be set in roman. Missiles and rockets will be caps and lowercase and will not be italicized.

12. NUMERALS

(See also Tabular Work; Leaderwork)

12.1. Most rules for the use of numerals are based on the general principle that the reader comprehends numerals more readily than numerical word expressions, particularly in technical, scientific, or statistical matter. However, for special reasons numbers are spelled out in indicated instances.
12.2. The following rules cover the most common conditions that require a choice between the use of numerals and words. Some of them, however, are based on typographic appearance rather than on the general principle stated above.
12.3. Arabic numerals are generally preferable to the use of Roman numerals.

NUMBERS EXPRESSED IN FIGURES (rules 12.4 to 12.15)

12.4. A figure is used for a single number of 10 or more with the exception of the first word of the sentence. (See also rules 12.9, 12.23.)

| 50 ballots | 24 horses | about 40 men |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| 10 guns | nearly 10 miles | 10 times as large |

Numbers and numbers in series

12.5. When 2 or more numbers appear in a sentence and 1 of them is 10 or more, figures are used for each number. See supporting rule 12.6 .

but If two columns of sums of money add or subtract one into the other and one carries points and ciphers, the other should also carry points and ciphers.
At the hearing, only one Senator and one Congressman testified.
There are four or five things which can be done.
12.6. A unit of measurement, time, or money (as defined in rule 12.9), which is always expressed in figures, does not affect the use of figures for other numerical expressions within a sentence.

Each of the five girls earned 75 cents an hour.
Each of the 15 girls earned 75 cents an hour.

13. TABULAR WORK

(See also Abbreviations; Leaderwork)

(See pp. 192-193 for sample table and tabular terms)
13.1. The object of a table is to present in a concise and orderly manner information that cannot be presented so clearly in any other way.
13.2. Tabular material should be kept as simple as possible, so that the meaning of the data can be easily grasped by the user.
13.3. Tables shall be set without down (vertical) rules when there is at least an em space between columns, except where: (1) In the judgment of the Government Printing Office down rules are required for clarity; (2) the agency has indicated on the copy they are to be used. The mere presence of down rules in copy or enclosed sample is not considered a request that down rules be used. The publication dictates the type size used in setting tables. The Congressional Record is set 6 on 7. The balance of congressional work sets 7 on 8 .

Abbreviations

13.4. To avoid burdening tabular text, commonly known abbreviations (see rule 9.61 and abbreviation rules) are used in tables. Metric and unit-of-measurement abbreviations (p. 150) are used with figures.
13.5. The names of months (except May, June, and July) when followed by the day are abbreviated; otherwise months are spelled. However, in narrow reading columns or boxheads consisting solely of single months, the months may be abbreviated.
13.6. The words street, avenue, place, road, square, boulevard, terrace, drive, court, and building, following name or number, are abbreviated. For the numbered streets, avenues, etc., figures are used.
13.7. Abbreviate the words United States if preceding the word Government, the name of any Government organization, or as an adjective generally. (See rules 9.9-9.10.)
13.8. Use the abbreviations $R R$. and $R y$. following name (except as indicated in rule 9.27), and $S S, M S$, etc., preceding name.
13.9. Use lat. and long. with figures.
13.10. Abbreviate, when followed by figures, the various parts of publications, as article, part, section, etc. (See rule 9.38.)
13.11. Use, generally, such abbreviations and contractions as $98 t h$ Cong., 1st sess., H. Res. 5, H.J. Res. 21, S. Doc. 62, S. Rept. 410 (see rules 9.42-9.43), Rev. Stat., etc.
13.12. In columns containing names of persons, copy is followed as to abbreviations of given names.
13.13. Periods are not used after abbreviations followed by leaders, but are used before footnote references.

Bearoff (normally an en space)

13.14. An en space is used for all bearoffs.
13.15. In a crowded table, when down rules are necessary, the bearoff may be reduced in figure columns.
13.16. Fractions are set flush right to the bearoff of the allotted column width, and not aligned. (See example, p. 184.)
13.17. Mathematical signs, parentheses, fractions, and brackets are set with a normal bearoff.

Boxheads

Horizontal

13.18. Periods are omitted after all boxheads, but a dash is used after any boxhead which reads into the matter following.
13.19. Boxheads run crosswise.
13.20. Boxheads are set solid, even in leaded tables.
13.21. Boxheads are centered horizontally and vertically.

13.22. In parallel tables, and when so prepared in divide tables, a spanner head that is divided is repeated on subsequent pages with the word Continued. (See pp. 194-195.)
13.23. In referring to quantity of things, the word Number in boxheads is spelled if possible.
13.24. Column numbers or letters in parentheses may be set under boxheads, and are separated by a quadline below the deepest head. (If alignment of parentheses is required within the table, use brackets in boxhead.) These column references align across the table. Units of quantity are set in parentheses within boxheads.

Braces

13.26. Braces are avoided if possible; if used, they are placed in the left-hand bearoff of the column braced, or to the right of down rules, and should extend to the complete depth of the group, including overruns.

Centerheads, flush entries, and subentries

13.27. Heads follow the style of the tables as to the use of figures and abbreviations.
13.28. Heads and headnotes over parallel tables center over the two-page spread of tables, except short lines. In heads over parallel tables, words are not divided between pages. (See pp. 194-195.)
13.29. In divide tables that are made up parallel, the heads and headnotes are set over parallel tables; the heads and the headnotes repeat on each succeeding page; the word Continued is used on the head only.
13.30. Punctuation is omitted after centerheads. Flush entries and subentries over subordinate items are followed by a colon (single subentry to run in, preserving the colon), but a dash is used instead of a colon when the entry reads into the matter below. (See also rules 13.101-13.102.)

(See also rule 13.32.) However, if an overrun, rule, etc., in another column, or in the same column, creates a blank space above the head, the extra space is not added.

Ciphers

13.34. Where the first number in a column or under a cross rule is wholly a decimal, a cipher is added at the left of its decimal point. A cipher used alone in a money or other decimal column is placed in the unit row and is not followed by a period. In mixed units the cipher repeats before decimals unless group totals.

13.35. In columns containing both dollars and cents, ciphers will be supplied on right of decimal point in the absence of figures.
13.36. Where column consists of single decimal, supply a cipher on the right, unless the decimal is a cipher.

13.38. Copy is followed in the use of the word None or a cipher to indicate None in figure columns. If neither one appears in the copy, leaders are inserted, unless a clear is specifically requested.
13.39. In columns of figures under the heading $£ s d$, if a whole number of pounds is given, one cipher is supplied under $s$ and one under $d$; if only shillings are given, one cipher is supplied under $d$.
13.40. In columns of figures under Ft In, if only feet are given, supply cipher under In; if only inches are given, clear under Ft; if ciphers are used for None, place one cipher under both Ft and In.
13.41. In any column containing sums of money, the period and ciphers are omitted if the column consists entirely of whole dollars.

Continued heads

13.43. Continued heads over tables will be worded exactly like table heading. Notes above tables are repeated; footnote references are repeated in boxheads and in continued lines.

Dashes or rules

13.44. Rules are not carried in reading columns or columns consisting of serial or tracing numbers, but are carried through all figure columns.
13.45. Parallel rules are used to cut off figures from other figures below that are added or subtracted; also generally above a grand total. (For examples, see rules 13.31, 13.60, and 13.105.)
Ditto (do.)
13.46. The abbreviation $d o$. is used in reading columns only, lowercased and preceded by leaders when there is matter in preceding column. If ditto marks are requested, opening quotes will be used.
13.47. Capitalize Do. in first and last columns.
13.48. To achieve consistency in the treatment of do., tracing columns are counted as the first and last columns of table.
13.49. All do.'s should be uniform throughout column; if any one is lowercased, all in the column should be lowercased and preceded by leaders. (For examples see pp. 192-193.)
13.50. In mixed columns made up of figure and reading-matter items, do. is used only under the latter items.
13.51. Do. is not used-
(1) In a figure or symbol column;
(2) In the first line under a centerhead in the column in which the centerhead occurs;
(3) Under a line of leaders or a rule;
(4) Under an item italicized or set in boldface type for a specific reason (italic or boldface do. is never used; item is repeated);
(5) Under an abbreviated unit of quantity or other abbreviations;
(6) Under a braced group; and
(7) Under words of three letters or less.
13.52. Do. is used, however, under a clear space and under the word None in a reading column.
13.53. Do. does not apply to a reference mark on the preceding item. The reference mark, if needed, is added to do. (See table, pp. 192-193.)
13.54. Leaders are not used before Do. in the first column or before or after Do. in the last column.
13.55. In a first and/or last column 6 ems or less in width, a 1 -em space is used before Do. In all other columns 6 ems or less in width, six periods are used. Bearoff is not included.
13.56. In a first and/or last column more that 6 ems in width, 2 ems of space are used before Do. In all other columns more than 6 ems in width, six periods are used. Bearoff space is not included. If the preceding line is indented, the indention of Do. is increased accordingly.
13.57. Do. under an indented item in an inside reading column, with or without matter in preceding column, is preceded by six periods which are indented to align with item above.

Divide tables. (See "Parallel and divide tables," p. 186.)

Dollar mark

13.58. The dollar mark or any other money symbol is placed close to the figure; it is used only at the head of the table and under cross rules when the same unit of value applies to the entire column.
13.59. In columns containing mixed amounts (as money, tons, gallons, etc.), the dollar mark, pound mark, peso mark, or other symbol, as required, is repeated before each sum of money.
13.60. If several sums of money are grouped together, they are separated from the nonmoney group by a parallel rule, and the symbol is placed on the first figure of the separated group only.

Double-up tables

13.64. A hairline rule is used to separate the two parts of a double-up table. If down rules are necessary, a parallel rule is used to separate the two parts.

Figure columns

13.65. Figures align on right. To conserve space in a table the bearoff may be reduced in figure columns only. There is no bearoff on leaders. (See rule 13.26.)
13.66. In a crowded table, when down rules are used, the bearoff may be reduced. It is preferable to retain the bearoff. The whole table, including all parts of a divided table, must be treated alike. (For example, see rule 13.26.)
13.67. Figures in parentheses align if so required.
13.68. In double rows of figures in a single column, connected by a dash, a plus, or minus sign, and in dates appearing in the form 2-12-43, the dashes or signs are aligned.
13.69. Plus or minus signs at the left of figures are placed against the figures regardless of alignment; plus and minus signs at the right of figures are cleared. (For example, see rule 13.34.)
13.70. Words and Roman numerals in figure columns are aligned on the right with the figures, without periods.

Down-Rule Style (See Rule 13.3)

13.71. For symbols and letters in columns, see rules 13.12713.128.
13.72. Figures (including decimal and common fractions) expressing mixed units of quantity (feet, dollars, etc.) and figures in parentheses are aligned on the right.
13.73. Decimal points are aligned except in columns containing numbers that refer to mixed units (such as pounds, dollars, and percentage) and have irregular decimals.
13.74. It is preferred that all columns in a table consisting entirely of figure columns be centered.
Footnotes and references
13.75. Footnotes to tables are numbered independently from footnotes to text.
13.76. Superior figures are used for footnote references, beginning with 1 in each table.
13.77. If figures might lead to ambiguity (for example, in connection with a chemical formula), asterisks, daggers, or italic superior letters, etc., may be used.
13.78. When items carry several reference marks, the superiorfigure reference precedes an asterisk, dagger, or similar character used for reference. (See rule 15.15.) These, in the same sequence, precede mathematical signs. A thin space is used to bear off an asterisk, dagger, or similar character.
13.79. Footnote references are repeated in boxheads or in continued lines over tables.
13.81. Footnotes to a parallel table begin on the even page unless there are no references on that page. With references on each page, footnotes are made up in approximately equal depth on both pages.
13.82. In a divide table, references to footnotes are numbered consecutively across and down the first part of the divide, then similarly in the second part.
13.84. Two or more footnote references occurring together are separated by spaces, not commas. (For example, see rule 13.133.)
13.85. In a figure column, a footnote reference standing alone is set in parentheses and flushed right. In a reading column, it is set at the left in parentheses and is followed by leaders, but in the last column it is followed by a period, as if it were a word. In a symbol column it is set at left and cleared.
13.86. Numbered footnotes are placed immediately beneath the table. If a sign or letter reference in the heading of a table is to be followed, it is not changed to become the first numbered reference mark. The footnote to it precedes all other footnotes.
13.87. For better makeup or appearance, footnotes may be placed at the end of a lengthy table. A line reading "Footnotes at end of table." is supplied.
13.88. If the footnotes to both table and text fall together at the bottom of a page, the footnotes to the table are placed above the footnotes to the text, and the two groups are separated by a $50-$ point rule flush left; but if there are footnotes to the text and none to the table, the 50 -point rule is retained.
13.89. Footnotes to cut-in and indented tables and tables in rules are set full measure, except when footnotes are short, they can be set in 1 em under indented table.
13.90. Footnotes are set as paragraphs, but two or more short footnotes should be combined into one line, separated by not less than 2 ems. (See rule 2.20.)
13.91. The footnotes and notes to tables are set solid.
13.92. Footnotes and notes to tables and boxheads are set the same size, but not smaller than 6 point.
13.93. Footnotes to tables follow tabular style in the use of abbreviations, figures, etc.
13.94. In footnotes, numbers are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of a note or sentence. (For fractions, see rule 13.98.)
13.95. If a footnote consists entirely or partly of a table or leaderwork, it should always be preceded by introductory matter carrying the reference number; if necessary, the copy preparer "should add an introductory line, such as " ${ }^{1}$ See the following table:".
13.96. An explanatory paragraph without specific reference but belonging to the table rather than to the text follows the footnotes, if any, and is separated from them or from the table by space.

Fractions

13.97. All fractions are set flush right to the bearoff.

No-Down-Rule Style (Preferred)

13.98. Fractions standing alone are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of a line, but not at the beginning of a footnote.

Headnotes

13.99. Headnotes should be set lowercase, but not smaller than 6 point, bracketed, and period omitted at end, even if the statement is a complete sentence; but periods should not be omitted internally if required by sentence structure.
13.100. Headnotes are repeated under continued heads but the word Continued is not added to the headnote.

Indentions and overruns

Subentries

13.101. The indention of subentries is determined by the width of the stub or reading column. Subentries in columns more than 15 ems wide are indented in 2 -em units; in columns 15 ems or less, with short entry lines and few overruns, 2-em indentions are also used. All overruns are indented 1 em more.
13.102. Subentries in columns of 15 ems or less are indented in 1 em units. Overruns are indented 1 em more.

Total, mean, and average lines

13.103. All total (also mean and average) lines are indented 3 ems. In very narrow stub columns, total lines may be reduced to 1 or 2-em indentions, depending on length of line.
13.104. Where overrun of item above conflicts, the total line is indented 1 em more. Runovers of total lines are also 1 em more.
13.105. It is not necessary to maintain uniform indention of the word Total throughout the same table. The word Total is supplied when not in copy.
No-Down-Rule Style (Preferred)

| Wide stub column-subentries 2 ems | Total, all  banks | National  banks | Non-  national  banks | Building  associ-  ations |
| :---: | ---: | ---: | ---: | ---: | ---: | | Assers |

Italic

13.106. Names of vessels and aircraft (except in columns consisting entirely of such names), titles of legal cases (except $v$. for versus), and certain scientific terms are set in italic. The word "Total" and headings in the column do not affect the application of this rule. In gothic typefaces without italic, quotes are allowed.
13.107. Set "See" and "See also" in roman. (See rule 15.21.)

Leaders

13.108. Leaders run across the entire table except that they are omitted from a last reading column. (For example, see table, pp. 192-193.)
13.109. The style of leadering is guided by two rules: (1) Tables with a single reading column leader from the bottom line, and (2) tables with any combination of more than one reading or symbol column leader from the top line.
13.110. If leadering from the top line, overruns end with a period. (For example, see table, pp. 192-193.)
13.111. A column of dates is regarded as a reading column only if leaders are added; in all other cases it is treated as a figure column.

Numerals in tables

13.113. Figures, ordinals, and fractions are used in all parts of a table, except fractions which will be spelled out at the beginning of a footnote. (See also rules 13.94, 13.98, and 13.126.)

Overruns. (See "Indentions and overruns.")

Parallel and divide tables

13.114. Parallel tables are set in pairs of pages, beginning on a left-hand page and running across to facing right-hand page; leader from the top line.
13.115. Heads and headnotes center across the pair of pages, with 2-em hanging indention for three or more lines when combined measure exceeds 30 picas in width. Two-line heads are set across the pair of pages. A single-line head or headnote is divided evenly, each part set flush right and left, respectively. Words are not divided between pages.
13.116. Boxheads are set as described on pages 174-175. Boxheads and horizontal rules align across both pages.
13.117. Boxheads are not divided but are repeated, with Continued added.
13.118. Vertical rules are used on the right of even pages and on the left of odd pages only when down rules are used.
13.119. Tracing figures are carried through from the outside columns of both pages and are set to "leader from the top line."

Divide tables

13.120. In divide tables that are made up parallel, with stub column repeated, the head and headnote repeat on each succeeding page, with Continued added to the head only.

No-Down-Rule Style (Preferred)

13.121. Tables with tracing figures or stub, or both, repeating on the left of odd pages, are divide tables and not parallel tables. Over such tables the heads are repeated, with Continued added. Outside vertical rules are not used.

Reading columns

13.122. Figures or combinations of figures and letters used to form a reading column align on left and are followed by leaders. Do. is not used under such items.
13.123. The en dash is not to be used for to in a reading column; if both occur, change to to throughout.
13.124. Cut-in items following a colon are indented 2 ems.
13.125. Run in single entry under colon line; retain the colon.
13.126. Numerical terms, including numbered streets, avenues, etc., are expressed in figures, even at the beginning of an item. (See also rules 9.16 and 12.13.)

Symbol columns

13.127. A column consisting entirely of letters, letters and figures, symbols, or signs, or any combination of these, is called a symbol column. It should be set flush left and cleared, except when it takes the place of the stub, it should then be leadered. No closing period is used when such column is the last column. Blank lines in a last column are cleared. Do. is not used in a symbol column.

13.128. Columns composed of both symbols and figures are treated as figure columns and are set flush right. In case of blank lines in a last column, leaders will be used as in figure columns.
No-Down-Rule Style (Preferred)

Tables without rules

13.129. It is preferable to set all tables alike; that is, without either down rules or cross rules and with roman boxheads. When so indicated on copy, by ordering agency, tabular matter may be set without rules, with italic boxheads. The same arrangement and bearoff for figures prevails as in ruled tables; that is, neither leaders nor rules bear off.
13.130. Column heads over figure columns in 6 - or 8 -point tables are set in 6-point italic, solid.
13.131. Horizontal rules (spanner) used between a spread or upper level column heading carried over two or more lower level column headings are set continuous and without break, from left to right, between the two levels of such headings.

Units of quantity

13.133. Units of quantity in stub columns are set in lowercase in plural form and placed in parentheses.

No-Down-Rule Style (Preferred)

13.134. Units of quantity and other words as headings over figure columns are used at the beginning of a table or at the head of a continued page or continued column in a double-up table.
13.135. Over figure columns, units of quantity and other words used as headings, and the abbreviations a.m. and p.m., if not included in the boxheads, are set in italic and are placed immediately above the figures, without periods other than abbreviating periods. In congressional work (gothic), or at any time when italic is not available, these units should be placed in the boxheads in parentheses. Any well-known abbreviation will be used to save an overrun, but if one unit of quantity is abbreviated, all in the same table will be abbreviated. If units change in a column, the new units are set in italic with space above and no space below. The space is placed both above and below only when there is no italic available. (See examples, pp. 192-193.)

Quoted tabular work

13.136. When a table is part of quoted matter, quotation marks will open on each centerhead on top of table, on first centered boxhead then on each footnote paragraph, and if table is end of quoted matter, quotation marks close at end of footnotes. If there are no footnotes and the table is the end of the quotation, quotation marks close at end of last item.

DEFINITION AND PARTS OF A TABLE

To define and describe fully all of the many parts, terms, and details which enter into tabular presentation is difficult to explain in a few words or to understand readily without an accompanying visual example. The example tabular terms and details. Many of the terms can be applied to any form of tabular matter.

14. LEADERWORK

(See also Abbreviations; Tabular Work)

14.1. Leaderwork is a simple form of tabular work without boxheads or rules and is separated from text by 4 points of space above and below in solid matter and 6 points of space in leaded matter. It consists of a reading (stub) column and a figure column, leadered from the bottom line. It may also consist of two reading columns, aligning on the top line. In general, leaderwork (except indexes and tables of contents, which are set the same style as text) is governed by the same rules of style as tabular work. Unless otherwise indicated, leaderwork is set in 8 point. The period is omitted immediately before leaders. (See also "Tables without rules," p. 188.)

Bearoff

14.2. No bearoff is required at the right in a single reading column.

Columns

14.3. A figure column is at least an en quad wider than the largest group of figures, but not less than 3 ems in single columns and 2 ems in double-up columns. Total rules are to be the full width of all figure columns.

| Year: 1952. | $\begin{gathered} \text { 1Pounds } \\ 655,939 \end{gathered}$ |

${ }^{1}$ Certain production methods require the use of an 8 -point italic centered heading here.
14.4. Where both columns are reading columns, they are separated by an em space.

Continued heads

14.5. The use of continued lines is no longer in effect.

Ditto

14.6. The abbreviation $d o$. is indented and capitalized in stub. It is capitalized and cleared in last reading column. (See rules 14.4 and 14.20.)

Dollar mark and ciphers

14.7. The dollar mark or any other money symbol is used at the beginning of each statement.
14.8. In a column containing mixed amounts (as money, tons, gallons, etc.) the figures are aligned on the right, and the dollar mark or other symbol is repeated before each sum of money. If several sums of money are grouped and added to make a total, they are separated from the nonmoney group by a parallel rule, and the symbol is placed on the first figure of the separated group only. (See rule 13.60.)
14.9. If two columns of sums of money add or subtract one into the other and one carries points and ciphers, the other should also carry points and ciphers.

Flush items and subheads

14.10. Flush items clear the figure column.
14.11. Subheads are centered in full measure.

Footnotes

14.12. Footnotes to leaderwork follow the style of footnotes to tables. (See "Footnotes and references," p. 183.)
14.13. Footnote references begin with 1 in each leadered grouping, and footnotes are placed at end, separated from it by 4 points of space. Separate notes from matter following by not less than 6 points of space.
14.14. If the leaderwork runs over from one page to another, they will be placed at the bottom of the leadered material. ${ }^{1}$

Units of quantity

14.15. Units of quantity or other words over a stub or figure column are set italic.
14.16. The example below shows the style to be observed where there is a short colon line at left. In case of only one subentry, run in with colon line and preserve the colon.

[^33]14.17. If there is no colon line, the style is as follows:

Freight carried by the Dixie RR. and the Baltimore & Ohio Tons RR. in May 71,500

14.18. Explanatory matter is set in 6 point under leaders (note omission of period):
14.19. In blank forms, leaders used in place of complete words to be supplied are preceded and followed by a space.

NOTES

15. TEXT FOOTNOTES, INDEXES, AND CONTENTS

FOOTNOTES AND REFERENCE MARKS

(For footnotes in tabular work, see p. 183.)
15.1. Except as noted under "Abbreviations" (p. 135), footnotes to text follow the style of text.
15.2. In a publication divided into chapters, sections, or articles, each beginning a new page, text footnotes begin with 1 in each such division. In a publication without such divisional grouping, footnotes are numbered consecutively from 1 to 99 , and then begin with 1 again. However, in supplemental sections, such as appendixes and bibliographies, which are not parts of the publication proper, footnotes begin with 1.
15.3. Copy preparers must see that references and footnotes are plainly marked and must also indicate the measure if footnotes are to be doubled up.
15.4. On a job that is not completed, the last footnote number must be given to the supervisor, who will record it so that there will be no question as to next footnote number.
15.5. If a reference is repeated on another page, it should carry the original footnote; but to avoid repetition of a long note, the copy preparer may use the words "See footnote 3 ( 6, etc.) on p.-" instead of the entire footnote.
15.6. Unless copy is otherwise marked: (1) Footnotes to 12-point text (except 12-point briefs) are set in 8 point; (2) footnotes to 11point text are set in 8 point, except in Supreme Court reports, in which they are set in 9 point; (3) footnotes to 10 - and 8 -point text are set in 7 point. (See also "Courtwork," p. 215.)
15.7. Footnotes are set as paragraphs at the bottom of the page and are separated from the text by a 50 -point rule, flush on the left, with no less than 2 points of space above and below the rule.
15.8. Footnotes to indented matter (other than excerpt footnotes) are set full measure. (See also rule 13.89.)
15.9. To achieve faithful reproduction of indented excerpt material (particularly legal work) containing original footnotes, these footnotes are also indented and placed at bottom of excerpt, separated by 6 points of space. No side dash is used. Reference numbers are not changed to fit numbering sequence of text footnotes.
15.10. Footnotes must always begin on the page carrying the reference. The breaking over of a footnote from one page to the next should be avoided. ${ }^{1}$
15.11. Footnotes to charts, graphs, and other illustrations should be placed immediately beneath such illustrative material.

[^34]15.12. A cutoff dash is not required between the chart or graph and the footnotes.
15.13. For reference marks use: (1) Roman superior figures, (2) italic superior letters, and (3) symbols. Superior figures (preferred), letters, and symbols are separated from the words to which they apply by thin spaces, unless immediately preceded by periods or commas.
15.14. Where reference figures might lead to ambiguity (for example, in matter containing exponents), asterisks, daggers, etc., or italic superior letters may be used.
15.15. When symbols or signs are used for footnote reference marks, their sequence should be (*) asterisk, ( $\dagger$ ) dagger, ( $\ddagger$ ) double dagger, and (§) section mark. Should more symbols be needed, these may be doubled or tripled, but for simplicity and greater readability, it is preferable to extend the assortment by adding other single-character symbols.
15.16. Symbols with commonly established other meanings likely to produce confusion, such as the percent mark (\%) and the number mark (#), should not be used.
15.17. To avoid possible confusion with numerals and letters frequently occurring in charts and graphs, it is preferable in such instances to use symbols as reference marks.
15.18. When items carry several reference marks, the superiorfigure reference precedes an asterisk, dagger, or similar character used for reference.
15.19. A superior reference mark follows all punctuation marks except a dash, but falls inside a closing parenthesis or bracket if applying only to matter within the parentheses or brackets.
15.20. Two or more superior footnote references occurring together are separated by thin spaces.

INDEXES AND TABLES OF CONTENTS

15.21. Indexes and tables of contents are set in the same style as the text, except that See and see also are set in italic.
15.22. Page, section, paragraph, etc., over figure columns are set in roman, flush on right.

[^35]Legends. (See Miscellaneous rules.)
Appendixes A, B, C, and D, maps, illustrations, and excerpts. $\qquad$ In supplemental volume 15.24. For better appearance, Roman numerals should be set in small caps in the figure columns of tables of contents and indexes.
15.25. In indexes set with leaders, if the page numbers will not fit in the leader line, the first number only is set in that line and the other numbers are overrun. If the entry makes three or more lines and the last line of figures is not full, do not use a period at the end.
If page folios overrun due to an excessive amount of figures use this form........ 220 , $224,227,230,240$
And this way when overrun folios make two or more lines.................................. 220 , $224-225,230-240,245,246,250-255,258,300,320,330,350,360,370$, $380,390,400,410-500,510,520,530,540,550,560,570,580,590$, $600-620,630,640,650,660,670,680,690,700$
(For examples of item indentions in reading column of indexes set with leaders, see index in this Manual.)
15.26. Overrun page numbers are indented $31 / 2$ ems in measures not over 20 picas and 7 ems in wider measures, more than one line being used if necessary. These indentions are increased as necessary to not less than 2 ems more than the line immediately above or below.
15.27. When copy specifies that all overs are to be a certain number of ems, the runovers of the figure column shall be held in 2 ems more than the specified indention.

16. DATELINES, ADDRESSES, AND SIGNATURES

16.1. The general principle involved in the typography of datelines, addresses, and signatures is that they should be so set as to stand out clearly from the body of the letter or paper which they accompany. This is accomplished by using caps and small caps and italic, as set forth below. Other typographic details are designed to ensure uniformity and good appearance. Street addresses and ZIP Code numbers are not to be used. (But in certain lists which carry ZIP Code numbers regular spacing will be used preceding ZIP Code.) Certain general instructions apply alike to datelines, addresses, and signatures.

General instructions

16.2. Principal words in datelines, addresses, and titles accompanying signatures are capitalized.
16.3. Mr., Mrs., Miss, Ms., and all other titles preceding a name, and Esq., Jr., Sr., and $2 d$ following a name in address and signature lines, are set in roman caps and lowercase if the name is in caps and small caps or caps and lowercase; if the name is in caps, they are set in caps and small caps, if small caps are available-otherwise in caps and lowercase. (See also rule 9.37.)

Spacing

16.4. At least 2 points of space should appear between dateline and text or address, address and text, text and signature, and signature and address. (See examples, rule 16.26.)

DATELINES

16.5. Datelines at the beginning of a letter or paper are set at the right side of the page, the originating office in caps and small caps, the place name and date in italic; if the originating office is not given, the place name is set in caps and small caps and the date in italic; if only the date is given, it is set in caps and small caps. Such datelines are indented from the right 1 em for a single line; 3 ems and 1 em , successively, for two lines; and $5 \mathrm{ems}, 3 \mathrm{ems}$, and 1 em, successively, for three lines. In measures 30 picas or wider, these indentions are increased by 1 em .

17. COURTWORK

(See also Capitalization; General Instructions; Italic)
17.1. Courtwork differs in style from other work only as set forth in this section; otherwise the style prescribed in the preceding sections will be followed.

Briefs, decisions, exhibits, and opinions

17.2. In general, copy is printed "Fol. lit."
17.3. Titles of legal cases are italicized.
17.4. Single punctuation is used in citations wherever possible.
17.6. When Question and Answer are spelled out in copy, set in separate paragraphs.
17.7. In National Labor Relations Board transcript, the abbreviated forms $Q$. and $A$. are always used, run in, and the question and its answer are connected by an em dash.
17.8. The words infra and supra are italicized. Copy is followed for the use of italic in Latin legal terms and abbreviations, in addition to italic used for emphasis.
17.9. In the titles of cases the first word and all principal words are capitalized, but not such terms as defendant and appellee.
17.10. In the titles of cases copy is followed as to use of figures and abbreviations.
17.11. Abbreviations in names of legal cases are to be followed literally in all classes of work.
17.12. The following examples indicate the capitalization, italic, small caps, abbreviations, etc., generally used, except the word case, which is set in italic only when so indicated in copy.

17.13. In citations of single lines, the period is inserted at the end of each line.
17.14. If citations are run in, semicolons are used.
17.15. The following forms show punctuation and spacing required:

| 1. X Q. | 4. R. X Q. | 24. Q. | 46th. Cross-int. |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| X Ques. 1. | Re X Q. 1. | 24. Question. | 46. Cross-int. |

| 2. Re-R.D.Q. | 24. X. | 24th. Cross-ques. | Question 1. |

17.16. When spelled out, use the following forms:

cross-examination
cross-interrogatory re-cross-examination
17.17. Brackets, not parentheses, are used (in transcripts, congressional hearings, testimony in courtwork, etc.) to enclose interpolations that are not specifically a part of the original quotation, corrections, explanations, omissions, editorial comments, or to caution that an error is reproduced literally.
17.18. If the entire sentence is in brackets, the punctuation should be within the brackets.
17.19. The following examples illustrate the use of brackets, other punctuation, and spacing. (See also rule 8.20.)

At end of sentence: [Laughter.]; within sentence: [laughter]
The paper was as follows [reads]:
I do not know. [Continues reading:]
The Chairman [to Mr. Smith].
Mr. Kelley [to the chairman].
Several Voices. Order!
The Witness. He did it that way [indicating].
By the Commissioner:
Q. Do you know these men [handing witness a list]?
[Objected to.]
A. [After examining list.] Yes; I do.
Q. Did you see-A. No, sir.
Q. [Interrupting.] But why?-A. I really cannot say.
Q. What did you say?-A. It was the City of Para.
Q. The City of what? Did you say Paris?-A. No; I said City-—
Q. Well, Paris or Para; it does not matter.

Question [continuing].
Answer [reads].
By Mr. Smith:
17.20. In text, a parenthetic citation at the end of a sentence is included within the sentence unless it forms a sentence in itself or unless copy is specifically marked otherwise; but if a sentence contains more than one parenthetic reference, the one at the end is placed before the period.

This statement is made by the defendant. [See exhibit 1.]
This statement is made in the claimant's brief [p. 65].
This statement is made by the defendant [exhibit 1], but its accuracy is open to doubt [see exhibit 29].

That case has not been decided. [Italic ours.]
17.21. Only one cut-in is used in courtwork. Text matter that is an excerpt from law or a citation of language used as an argument and not a part of the brief proper is indented 3 ems on the left and separated from the preceding and following full-measure matter by 3 leads. Other matter that follows a colon is quoted.
17.22. Footnote matter following a colon does not indent. It is quoted and set full measure.
17.23. All footnotes in 12 -point briefs are set 10 -point leaded, and extracts in footnotes are set full measure and are quoted.
17.24. The following differences in capitalization and in the use of quotation marks should be noted:

The said paper was marked "Defendant's Exhibit No. 4" [exact title]. The defendant's exhibit No. 4 was thereupon placed on file.
17.25. The following capitalization is followed in all courtwork:

| Circuit Court | Court of Appeals | Southern District |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| Circuit Court for the | Court of Customs and | Sixth Circuit |
| Southern District | Patent Appeals | Superior Court |
| Circuit Court of the | Court of Claims | Supreme Bench |
| United States for the | District Court | Tax Court |
| Southern District of New York | Emergency Court of Appeals |  |
| County Court | John Smith, U.S. marshal for the Northern District |  |

17.26. Unless otherwise indicated, covers and captions in briefs are single leaded at all times. Signatures are also single leaded, even in briefs set double leaded.

Supreme Court records

17.27. Paragraphs are made of answers in Q. and A. matter.
17.28. The folio number is flush in the same line as the first word of the folio and in a cut-in 3 ems square (unless there are 10 points of white space above or below). Indentions of paragraphs, etc., are in addition to the 3 -em cut-in. In hanging indentions of headings the extra indention is carried to the end of the heading. (See p. 246.)
17.29. A cut-in folio is not used opposite a paragraph reading "Endorsement on cover."
17.30. Copy is followed literally, including capitalization (initial capitalization of words), punctuation (including compounding), and obscene language, but not italic.
17.31. Italic letters are used only to indicate errors in spelling (for example, curely for surely), except in the names of persons and firms, in geographic names, and in foreign words that are not law terms. These and errors in syntax are not corrected. Roman letters are used to indicate errors in words set in italic.
17.32. In typewritten records manifest errors of the typewriter are corrected (for example, if one letter has been struck over another or if a space appears where a letter was obviously intended to be); but if a word is used in the wrong place (for example, in for on; boot for boat), it is not changed nor set in italic.
17.33. Words having the sanction of any dictionary are permissible, and the spelling is not changed.
17.34. An apostrophe is used to indicate the omission of one or more letters in a word; but in well-established abbreviations, the period is used instead of an apostrophe.
17.35. Doublets are indicated by italicizing the repeated words or lines.
17.36. A 3 -em quad is used to indicate the omission of one or more words.
17.37. The names of vessels are set in roman, quoted.
17.38. The titles of cases are set in roman, including the abbreviation of versus.
17.39. The word The is capitalized in names of legal cases as follows:
the said The B. & O. RR. Co.
The Sun v. The Globe
The City of Washington v. The B. & O. RR. Co. the defendant, The Davies County Bank
17.40. Printing Office editorial marks must be erased before the copy is returned to the originating office. Copy preparers should make only necessary marks thereon, and those lightly, with a soft pencil. Cut-in folios should not be indicated on copy. All instructions are entered on the preparer's instruction sheet. The folio numbers on copy are picked up. Any matter preceding or following an original folio is marked, in pencil, with the jacket number followed by lowercase letters (e.g., J. 12-345a, J. 12-345b, etc., to the end).
17.41. Preparers must indicate on the instruction sheet such information as 11-point type, solid or leaded, cut-in folios, etc.
17.42. The following abbreviations of the names of reporters are used in citations of U.S. Supreme Court Reports:

18. USEFUL TABLES

GEOLOGIC TERMS

[With suggestions by U.S. Geological Survey]
For capitalization, compounding, and use of quotations in geologic terms, copy is to be followed. The list below exemplifies common usage of both rock and time terms. The term red beds has been used to designate certain rocks of mixed lithologic character that are predominantly red; as a unit modifier the use should be redbed. The terms lower, middle, and upper (referring to rocks) are capitalized only as indicated in the list (Upper Devonian, lower Tertiary, lower Paleozoic); similarly, the terms early, middle, and late (referring to time) are capitalized only as indicated. A formal geologic term is capitalized: Devonian System, Pliocene Series, San Rafael Group, Morrison Formation, Fayetteville Shale, Wedington Sandstone Member, Wisconsin Glaciation, Tazewell Stade. (Geologic terms quoted verbatim from published material should be left as the original author used them; however, it should be made clear that the usage is that of the original author.) A structural term such as arch, anticline, syncline, dome, uplift, or basin is not capitalized even if preceded by a name: Cincinnati arch, Cedar Creek anticline, Ozark uplift, Michigan basin. (A physiographic term that is preceded by a name is capitalized: Bighorn Basin, Half Dome.)

20. PLANT AND INSECT NAMES

PLANT NAMES AND ADJECTIVE FORMS

20.1. The following list of plant names, some of which vary in form from those given in Webster's Third International Dictionary, has been compiled with the cooperation of the Department of Agriculture. The name of the kinds of agricultural and vegetable crops are given in the "Rules and Regulations Under the Federal Seed Act.'
20.2. In general, derivatives of proper names with acquired independent common meaning are not capitalized. (See rule 3.4.) However, in plant names, if the capital letter is retained, either the hyphened or the two-word form is used, depending on predominant usage. Such names as English ivy, Dutchmans-pipe, Cupids-dart, flower-of-Jove, and apple-of-Peru retain the capital letter. On the other hand, such names as Charlie, Jack, and Susan lose their capital letter in fanciful names; e.g., creeping-charlie, jack-in-a-box, and browneyedsusan.
20.3. The apostrophe is omitted in names with a possessive element; thus: babysbreath, Grays lily, devils-paintbrush, etc.
20.4. To indicate preferred usage, there are also included adjective forms, such as nightblooming, straightstem, three-color, twowing, etc., not by themselves plant names.
20.5. Except as indicated in the list, plant names ending in bane, bark, bean, berry, bine, brush, cup, fern, flower, grass, leaf, lily, nut, pea, plant, pod, root, seed, thorn, tree, vine, weed, wood, and wort are printed solid, unless the preceding word is a proper name which retains its capitalized form. ## 21. CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

LAWS AND RULES FOR PUBLICATION OF THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD

CODE OF LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Title 44, Section 901. Congressional Record: Arrangement, style, contents, and indexes.-The Joint Committee on Printing shall control the arrangement and style of the Congressional Record, and while providing that it shall be substantially a verbatim report of proceedings, shall take all needed action for the reduction of unnecessary bulk. It shall provide for the publication of an index of the ConGRESSIONAL RECORD semimonthly during and at the close of sessions of Congress. (Oct. 22, 1968, c. 9, 82 Stat. 1255.)
Title 44, Section 904. Congressional Record: Maps; diagrams; illustrations.Maps, diagrams, or illustrations may not be inserted in the RECORD without the approval of the Joint Committee on Printing. (Oct. 22, 1968, c. 9, 82 Stat. 1256.)

GENERAL RULES

The rules governing document work apply to the Congressional Record, except as may be noted herein. The same general style should be followed in the permanent Record (bound Record) as is used in the daily Record. All should familiarize themselves with the exceptions and the forms peculiar to the Record.

Daily and permanent Record texts are set in 8 -point type on a 9 -point body. Extracts are set in 7-point type on an 8-point body and stamped "FIC & punc." Quoted matter in 8 point is to be treated as "FIC & punc."

An F-dash will be used preceding 8-point cap lines in proceedings in Senate and House.

All 7-point extracts and poetry will carry 2 points of space above and below.
All extracts are set 7 point unless otherwise ordered by the Joint Committee on Printing.

Except as noted below, all communications from the President must be set in 8 point, but if such communications contain extracts, etc., the extracts are set in 7 point.

An address of the President delivered outside of Congress or referred to as an extract is set in 7 point.

A letter from the President to the Senate is set in 7 point when any form of treaty is enclosed that is to be printed in the Record in connection therewith. The letter is set in 7 point whether the treaty follows or precedes it or is separated from it by intervening matter.

In all quoted amendments and excerpts of bills and in reprinting bills, the style and copy as printed in the bill, will be followed, as these data are picked up and converted, and no rekeying is required. Bill titles as used in Record briefs and History of Bills will follow Record style.

Profanity, obscene wording, or extreme vulgarisms are to be deleted and a $3-\mathrm{em}$ dash substituted therefor.

Instructions covering the measure and the size and kind of type for parallel columns in the Record will be at the discretion of the preparer in charge of the Record.

In correcting proof, operators must exercise great care.
Extreme caution must be used in making corrections in copy, and no important change will be made without authority.

Observe the lists of names of Senators and Representatives, committees of both Houses, and duplicate names. Changes caused by death, resignation, or otherwise must be noted. There is no excuse for error in the spelling of names of Senators, Representatives, or department officials. In case of doubt, the Congressional Directory will be the authority.

Datelines should be followed on Extensions of Remarks. If any question arises as to the proper date to be used, the preparer in charge of the Record in the markup section must be consulted.

Indented matter in leaderwork will be 1 em only.
Queries must not be made on proofs. In case of doubt, readers will consult the Referee.

CAPITALIZATION

(See also Guide to Capitalization, p. 35)
If the name of the Congressional Record is mentioned, it must be set in caps and small caps and never abbreviated, even when appearing in citations.

The name of a Senator or a Representative preceding his direct remarks is set in caps and is followed by a period with equal spacing to be used.

The name of a Senator or a Representative used in connection with a bill or other paper-that is, in an adjectival sense-is lowercased, as the Hawkins bill, the Fish anmendment, etc.; but Fish's amendment, etc.

The names of Members and Members-elect of both branches of the Congress, including those of the Vice President and Speaker, will be printed in caps and small caps if mention is made of them, except in "FIC and punc." matter.

Deceased Members' names will be set in caps and small caps in eulogies only on the first day the House or Senate is in session following death of Member, in a speech carrying date when Member was eulogized, or on memorial day in Senate and House. Eulogy day in one House will be treated the same in the other.

Certificates of Senators-elect of a succeeding Congress are usually presented to the current Congress, and in such cases the names of the Senators-elect must be in caps and small caps.

Names of Members of Congress must be set in caps and lowercase in votes, in lists set in columns, in the list of standing and select committees, in contested-election cases, in lists of pairs, and in all parts of tabular matter (head, body, and footnotes). (See under Pairs, p. 284.)

Observe that the names of all persons not certified Members of Congress are to be set in caps and lowercase; that is, names of secretaries, clerks, messengers, and others.

Names of proposed boards, commissions, services, etc., are capitalized.
Capitalize principal words and quote after each of the following terms: Address, article, book, caption, chapter heading, editorial, essay, heading, headline, motion picture or play (including TV or radio program), paper, poem, report, song, subheading, subject, theme, etc. Also, following the word entitled, except with reference to bill titles which are treated as follows: "A bill (or an act) transferring certain functions of the Price Administrator to the Petroleum Administrator for War," etc. (See rules $355,8.131$.)

CONTRACTIONS

Do not change well-founded historical utterances or expressions made popular by continued use on television, radio, or in the press. Use quotation marks and say, "Don't shoot until you see the whites of their eyes," "Let's look at the record." Follow contractions in 7 -point extracts and when quoted in 8 -point text or when used as a heading over 8 -point data when it is the title of the article in 7 point. The abbreviation etc. must be made to read and so forth (et cetera if so worded), except in extracts and headings.

FIGURES

The general rules set forth under "Numerals" (p. 165) will apply to the use of figures in the Record.

Figures appearing in copy as " 20 billion 428 million, 125 thousand dollars" should be converted to figures, as " $$ 20,428,125,000$."

In a Member's language ( 8 point), when numbered items are used, they are to read first, second, third, etc. In 7-point excerpts, either the numerals 1, 2, 3 or the words first, second, third may be used.

For ordinal numbers, follow rules 12.10-12.12.

TABULAR MATTER AND LEADERWORK

Record tables may be set either one or three columns in width, as follows:
One-column table: 14 picas ( 168 points).
Three-column table: $43 \frac{1}{2}$ picas ( 522 points). Footnote(s) will be set $431 / 2$ picas. All short footnotes should be run in with 2 ems between each.

ITALIC

Italic, boldface, caps, or small caps shall not be used for emphasis; nor shall unusual indentions be used. This does not apply to literally reproduced quotations from historical, legal, or official documents. If italic other than restricted herein is desired, the words should be underscored and "Fol. ital." written on each folio. Do not construe this to apply to "Provided," "Provided further," "Ordered," "Resolved," "Be it enacted, etc.," titles following signatures or addresses, or the part of datelines which should be set in italic.

Names of vessels must be set in italic, except in headings, where they will be quoted.

The prayer delivered in either House must be set in 8-point roman. If prefaced or followed by a quotation from the Bible, such quotation must be set in 8 -point italic. Extracts from the Bible or other literature contained in the body of the prayer will be set in 8-point roman and quoted.

When general or passing mention is made of a case, the title is set in roman, as Smith Bros. case, in 7 and 8 point. When a specific citation is indicated and reference follows, use italic for title, as Smith Bros. case (172 App. Div. 149).

Titles of cases are always set in italic if followed by references; but, except as in casual use noted above, titles in 7-point matter are italicized in "versus" cases whether or not references follow, as United States v. Jones Lumber Co., but follow copy if it is marked "FIC and punc." See page 162 for other examples.

In 8-point matter, when only the title of a case is given, set in roman, as United States versus 12 Diamond Rings.

When versus is used in other than legal phrases and for the purposes of showing contrast, it is not abbreviated or set in italic, as "airplanes versus battleships."

For contested-election cases, see page 304.
For other examples of legal cases and references, see rules 9.45 and 17.12.

MISCELLANEOUS

Do not quote any communication carrying date and signature. However, a letter (or other communication) bearing both date and signature that appears within a letter shall be quoted.

Do not put quotation marks on centerheads in 7-point extracts unless centerheads belong to original matter.

In newspaper extracts, put place and date at beginning of paragraph. Use caps and small caps for name of place and roman lowercase for spelled-out date. Connect date and extract by a period and an em dash. If date and place are credited in a bracket line above extract, they need not be used again at the beginning of paragraph. (See p. 286 under "Credits.")

Each Whereas in a preamble must begin a new paragraph. The Therefore be it must be preceded by a colon and be run in with the last Whereas. Be it will run in with the word Therefore, but must not be supplied when not in copy. Note the following:

Whereas it has been deemed advisable to, etc.: Therefore be it
Resolved, That the committee, etc.
In the titles of legal cases copy is followed as to spelling, abbreviations, and use of figures.

Use single punctuation in citations of cases and statutes:
United States v. 12 Diamond Rings (124 U.S. 329; R.S. p. 310, sec. 1748). Indent asterisk lines 2 ems on each side. Use five asterisks.
If a title is used as part of the name of an organization, vessel, etc., spell; thus, General U.S. Grant Post No. 76, Grand Army of the Republic.

The order of subdivision of the Constitution of the United States is as follows: article I, section 2, clause 3.

If an exhibit appears at the end of a speech, the head Exhibit is set in 7-point caps and small caps.
In extracts containing votes the names must be run in, as Mrs. Smith of Nebraska, AuCoin, and Clay, etc.

In a Senator's or a Representative's remarks, when amendments, sections, etc., are referred to by number, use No. before the figure even though number appears in copy. However, if intervening words separate the number and the term it identifies, use numbered. For example, Senate amendments Nos. 187 and 188, amendments of the Senate numbered 187 and 188; bill sections Nos. 10 and 11, sections of the bill numbered 10 and 11.
In text references to Senate and House reports and in executive and miscellaneous documents, the No. must always be supplied if not in copy; thus, House Report No. 98-75, Executive Document No. 98-20, Miscellaneous Document No. 37.
In headings and text references to resolutions and memorials, the No. is not used. Examples: House Resolution 46, House Joint Memorial 3, Resolution 4.

In gross or en gros

When a bill comes to final action, in the presentment of amendments collectively for a vote, either the term "in gross" or the French equivalent "en gros" may be used.

CREDITS

[From the Sacramento (CA) Bee, July 22, 1983]
The Kissinger Smoke Screen (By C. K. McClatchy)
The Reagan administration has embarked on a dangerously aggressive, confrontational policy in Latin America that should be sending shock waves of anger and fear through the American public. Thus far, however, the opposition has been muted by a combination of the administration's anti-Communist rhetoric and public relations molasses.

[From the Wall Street Journal, Aug. 1, 1983]

The Sky Hasn't Fallen
Backers of the proposal to increase the U.S. contribution to the International Monetary Fund by $$ 8.4$ billion staved off several attacks in the House Friday, but the bill still faces an uncertain future. It has been languishing in the House for nearly three months, and the 40 or so amendments still awaiting it testify to the difficulty of putting together a winning coalition.

POETRY

If poetry is quoted, each stanza should start with quotation marks, but only the last stanza ishould end with them. The lines of the poem should range on the left, those that rhyme taking the same indention, and the quotation marks should be cleared. Poems are flush left; overs 3 ems; 2 points of space between stanzas, and 2 points of space above and below.

> Eisd, O Eisd!
> (Listen, O Listen!)

Oft in the still of a moment's dream,
A fleeting glimpse I see
Of a giant of a man from a foreign land,
And he stares back at me.
And I shake my head to clear my eye,
And I try my pulse to slow.
But his steady glance and lordly stance Bring me an inner glow.
His clothes are strange-worn loose and free;
His features warm and clean; A dagger thrust close by his knee, And his plaid MacArthur green.

Son of Arthur? Is this then he Whose name I bear so long?
Is this the man from that phantom clan, Heard in a piper's song?
Can kith and kin all count his flesh As if it were their own?
Can that sure smile fail to beguile Pretenders to his throne?
What is this call I feel to go, That stirs my restless feet?
Has the cross of fire instilled desire To march, to join, to meet?

As pipes and drums echo commandGrandfather Mountain's callA ghostly hand from a distant land Beckons to us all!

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Richard C. Halverson, LL.D., D.D., offered the following prayer:
Let us pray:
Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God.-Psalm 90: 1-2 RSV.

Almighty God, eternal Father, make Thy presence felt in this place today. Grant that all who do business here may experience a fresh touch from Thee. As the Senators enter into this very full week, help them to have a perspective which sees the parts in light of the whole. Free them from the tyranny of urgency which makes it impossible to see the forest for the trees. Help them not to allow the transitory to obliterate the transcendent. Give them vision which sees the temporary in light of the permanent, the temporal in light of the eternal.

Guide them to decisions which will honor Thee and bless the people. In Jesus' name. Amen.

By Mr. QUAYLE:

S. 1778. A bill to provide for a block grant to States for health planning activities, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Labor and Human Resources.
health planning block grant act of 1983

- Mr. QUAYLE. Mr. President, I introduce S. 1778, a bill to establish a block grant to the States to support health planning.

The latest authorization for the Federal health planning program expired at the conclusion of the last fiscal year. The program has been funded under a continuing resolution despite the fact that it has not been reauthorized. Health planning has been useful in many States in containing health care costs and assuring equitable access to health services. It is important that the Federal Government continue to encourage health planning on the State and local levels but the current health planning law should be replaced.

PUNCTUATION

Comma precedes folio figures.
If numbers of several bills are given, use this form: S. 24, 2586; H.R. 217, 2887, etc.; that is, do not repeat S. or H.R. with each number. Separate the Senate and House bills with a semicolon: S. 24; H.R. 217.

In consecutive numbers (more than two) use an en dash to connect first with last: S46-S48, 518-520.

Quotes are used for book titles.

A 3 -em dash is used as a ditto for word or words leading up to colon: example: Taxation: farm property ———tuition

ROMAN AND ITALIC

Use italic for Members of Congress descriptive data: ABDNOR, JAMES (a Senator from South Dakota); ACKERMAN, GARY L. (a Representative from New York).

Names of vessels in italic: Brooklyn (U.S.S.); Savannah (nuclear ship); Columbia (space shuttle).

REPORTS, DOCUMENTS, AND HEARINGS

[In either Senate or House reports follow bill style in extracts from bills. Report numbers run consecutively from first to second session, etc.]

STYLE AND FORMAT OF CONGRESSIONAL REPORTS

There are set forth below certain rules which the Government Printing Office has been authorized to follow in the makeup of congressional numbered reports:

1. All excerpts to be set in 10-point type, cut in 2 ems on each side, except as noted in paragraph 3 below. For ellipses in cut-in matter, lines of five stars are used. In matter set 13 picas, lines of three stars are used.
2. Contempt proceedings to be considered as excerpts.
3. The following are to be set in 10-point type, but not cut in:
(a) Letters which are readily identified as such by salutation and signature.
(b) Straight matter set in two columns.
(c) Appendixes and/or exhibits which have a heading readily identifying them as such; and
(d) Matter printed in compliance with the Ramseyer rule. ${ }^{1}$
4. All leaderwork and lists of more than six items to be set in 8-point type.
5. All tabular work to be set in 7-point type.
6. An amendment in the nature of a substitute to be set in 8-point type, but quotations from such amendment later in the report to be treated as excerpts, but set full measure (see rule 10).
7. Any committee print having a report head indicated on original copy to be set in report type and style.
8. Committee prints not having a report head indicated on original copy to be set in the old report style; that is, excerpts to be set in 8 point, full measure.
9. If a committee print set as indicated in paragraph 8 is later submitted as a report or included in a report, and the type is available for pickup, such type shall be picked up and used with format conversion to make it conform to the new type and style.
10. On matter that is cut in on the left only for purposes of breakdown, no space is used above and below, but on all matter that is cut in on both sides, two leads are used above and below. If a bill is submitted as an excerpt, it will not be squeezed because of the indentions and the limit on the number of locators.
11. On reports of immigration cases, set memorandums full measure unless preceded or followed directly by committee language. Memorandums are indented on both sides if followed by such language. Preparers should indicate the proper indention on copy.

Order of printing (Senate reports only): (1) Report, (2) minority or additional views, (3) Cordon rule ${ }^{2}$ (last unless an appendix is used), (4) appendix (if any).
Minority views or additional views will begin a new page with 10 -point cap heading.

Mr. Hightower [presiding]. Mr. Shakespeare, we have several questions concerning increased pay costs for fiscal year 1982, which we shall submit to you and ask you to answer in writing.
Mr. Shakespeare. Very well, Mr. Chairman.
[The questions referred to and the answers submitted thereto, follow:]
[Note styles for questions and answers]

Questions From Mr. Hightower

Impact of Fiscal Year 1982 Pay Raise Costs

Question. What are the costs associated with the October 1, 19814.8 percent general pay raise and the raising of the executive pay cap on January 1, 1982 for fiscal year 1982?

Answer. The pay raise for the general scale employees increased the budgeted amount by $$ 4,826$ for fiscal year 1982 .
[Note the following style for questions and answers when a person is either asking or answering:]

Question. How are you financing these costs?
Mr. Shakespeare. The general scale increase costing $$ 4,826$ was absorbed by a turnover in one secretarial position, a position which was budgeted at the GS-6 level but filled by a GS-4 level employee who was hired to replace the former incumbent of that position. This turnover saved the Board for International Broadcasting (BIB) approximately $$ 5,000$ and allowed the BIB to absorb the $$ 4,826$ October 1, 19814.8 percent pay raise.

Mr. Hightower. In what program areas are you absorbing these costs?
Answer. Because of the BIB's ability to absorb these fiscal year 1982 costs in a manner described in the foregoing answer, it has not been necessary to absorb them in program areas.

FISCAL YEAR 1982 INCREASED PAY COSTS
Mr. Dwyer [presiding]. I have several questions concerning increased pay cost requirements for the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for fiscal year 1982.

What is the total cost of the cost-of-living pay raise granted last fall and the increase in the pay cap for senior level Government employees that was enacted in December of 1981?

Mr. Rostow. Bill, could you respond?
Mr. Montgomery. Yes, I have that figure with me. In round numbers, the total for 1983, fiscal year 1983, is about three-quarters of a million dollars. I can give you that figure precisely here, if you will just bear with me.

INTRODUCTION OF WITNESSES

Senator Cochran. The hearing will come to order.
This morning we are happy to have representatives of the Office of Inspector General and the General Accounting Office with us, and I would like to ask that all of you who are here to testify come forward. Let's all of you act as one panel, and the questions that we have will be directed to both.

SUCCESS OF AMERICAN AGRICULTURE

With a great deal of hard work, ingenuity and technology, the United States has become the most productive agricultural nation in the world. Modern agriculture, as practiced in the United States, has become a technological marvel, soundly based on advanced science and finely tuned to economic conditions. This complex enterprise is served by an equally sophisticated and far-reaching Department of Agriculture.
With over 120,000 employees and a program totaling over $$ 47$ billion annually, the Department serves not only farmers, but also provides assistance to the hungry in our cities and rural areas and to those in countries around the world. This Department not only assists in the development of new technologies in agricultural production, it also provides the necessary educational links to get this knowledge out to those who must apply it. From the protection of our soil and water resources to marketing the fruits of those resources, the Department serves all Americans.

INTRODUCTION OF WITNESSES

It is a great pleasure for me, this morning, to welcome to our committee, Secretary of Agriculture John Block, who is accompanied by Dick Lyng, his deputy secretary, and Mr. Dewhurst, the budget officer for the Department of Agriculture.

Gentlemen, welcome to the subcommittee. We appreciate your being here.

Before asking you for your statement, I would like now to invite Senator Eagleton to make any comments or statement that he might have.

STATEMENT OF SENATOR EAGLETON ${ }^{1}$

Senator Eagleton. Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.
I welcome this the first of our series of hearings on the fiscal year 1982 Department of Agriculture budget. I noted in a wry way as I came in the room there was a gentleman sitting in my chair. [Laughter.]
Surrounded by obsequious staff, drinking coffee. I carried in my own cup. What a difference an election makes. [Laughter.]

No; I am delighted to participate in this hearing and in the ensuing hearings. I am delighted to work with you, Mr. Chairman, and the new Secretary of Agriculture.

Of all the various subcommittees in the U.S. Senate, I think this particular subcommittee is the most bipartisan, nonpartisan subcommittee of which I know. For 4 years I worked with Senator Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma, one of the finest men I have ever known on God's Earth. We didn't always agree on every issue. We agreed, I think, 99 percent of the time.

The subcommittee met, pursuant to call, at 9:35 a.m., in room 304, Cannon House Office Building, Hon. Robert Garcia (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding.

Mr. Garcia. Today the House Census and Population Subcommittee continues its series of hearings on the impact of the President's budget cuts on the information this Nation will have today, tomorrow, and in the future.

With that we will call up our first panel, Dr. James T. Bonnen, Department of Agricultural Economics, Michigan State University, and the director of the President's Reorganization Project for the Federal Statistical System; Dr. Stephen E. Fienberg; Department of Statistics, the Carnegie-Mellon University, and the chairman of the Committee on National Statistics in the National Academy of Sciences.

STATEMENTS OF JAMES T. BONNEN, DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS, MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY AND STEPHEN E. FIENBERG, DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS, CARNEGIEMELLON UNIVERSITY
Mr. Bonnen. Thank you, Mr. Garcia. It is a pleasure and a privilege to be here.

I have been asked to comment primarily on the central coordination of statistical planning and policy which was the focus of the study that I directed, as you mentioned.

Ours is an increasingly complex economy and society. If we do not have objective, accurate and relevant information in making decisions, our comprehension of the world will forever run behind events.

24. FOREIGN LANGUAGES

[Revision for this edition by foreign language experts at the Library of Congress, under the supervision of the Publications Offce]

PURPOSE AND PLAN

The purpose of this section of the Styil: Manual is to provide a guide to the ty pography of the more important languages handled in this Office.

It has been designed to answer the needs of two categories of users:

1. Those who have very little or no knowledge at all of a language but seek to become more competent in following copy and syllabifying with at least a passing degree of accuracy; and
2. Those who have an academic knowledge of a language but lack the practical information belonging to the special field of typography, complete guidance to which is procurable only from advanced and foreign works.

To answer the needs of the former, there is presented first a sample of the language as it looks in print, followed hy an adequate display of the alphabet and a helpful paragraph on special characters. This will be found fully adequate, for all practical purposes, to enable printers to follow copy competently, even though with but literal accuracy.

There is also included a brief discussion of pronunciation, so far as this can be described without special technical phonetic data, as a basis for the rules for syllabifying words in printing.

The rules for syllabifying follow, and these were formulated so that with the aid of the first four rules, which require no further knowledge of the language, a printer can syllabify with at least an 80 -percent accuracy. The application of the remaining rules may require a further knowledge of the language, but these are intended essentially for the second category of users.

To answer the needs of this category fully, the rules for syllabifying are presented with utmost comprehensiveness, so that they cover all possible problems that may be encountered; and subjoined is also a selected list of illustrative word divisions, which may be used either for further study or reference. Other useful data on typography and bibliography are also included.

Dictionaries of languages other than English rarely show syllable division. This is due in part to the fact that many spelling systems are less complex than that of English, and therefore make it easier to divide words in writing according to the spoken syllable divisions. The rules stated in the following sections are intended to be summaries of the procedures actually followed by printers native to the languages.

DANISH

Den lille sønderjyske by, jeg kender fra barneårene, har som mange andre små og større danske byer forandret sit fysiognomi i de senere år. De små hjemmeindustrier er vokset op til store fabrikker, nye bydele har bredt sig ud over barndommens marker, og tilrejsende fremmede har fundet hjem og eksistens her.-Johan Severin Hansen, Den lille profil, p. 16, 1969.

Special characters

Danish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the following special characters: $\boldsymbol{E} \boldsymbol{x}, \emptyset \phi$, and $\AA \AA$.

The $c, q, w, x$, and $z$ are used in words of foreign origin and in proper names.
Until quite recently, $a a$ was written for $&$, and in dictionaries, indexes, telephone directories, etc.. was found either preceding $a$ or following it. Now the tendency is to place it at the end of the alphabet. The letter $w$ is often regarded as a mere variant writing for $v$, and in dictionaries, etc., the $w$ 's are then found interspersed with the $v$ 's; otherwise, $w$ follows $v$.

Fraktur type (German text) is scarcely in use today.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u, y, \mathscr{x}, \phi$, and $d$; the back vowels being $a, o, u$, and $d$; the front vowels $e, i, y, \nsim$, and $\oint$. The other letters of the alphabet are consonants.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: Ba-lance, hvi-sken, hu-stru, bøj-ning.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: af-ten, dan-ske, sek-sten, tjenst-lig, blom-stre.
4. Division may be made between two vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and a vowel: fri-er, lej-er.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: ad. af, an, bag, be, bi, bort, efter, er, for, fra, frem, ge, in, ind, med, mis, ned, om, op, over, paa, til, ud, ude, und, under, and ved: ad-splitte, af-drift, an-drag, bag-slag, etc.
6. Certain suffixes are kept intact. These are: agtig, artig, hed, and inde: barn-agtig, egen-artig, mat-hed, mester-inde.
7. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 6 ), the compounding $s$, if used, going with the preceding component: aften-avis, aften-blad, aftens-tid.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: pa-triot, me-trisk, repu-blik, eks-trem, postskriptum, Shake-speare, Wash-ington. Under this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: hemi-sfære, dia-gnose.

Stress and diacritics

Most words are stressed on the first syllable, except when they begin with a prefix such as be-, er-, for-, ge-, in which case the following syllable is stressed. Foreign words, especially those of French origin, are usually accented on the last, or next to the last, syllable. In compound words, the first component receives the primary stress; the second receives secondary stress.

In stressed syllables, vowels are generally long before one consonant or none, and short before two or more consonants. There are, however, many exceptions, especially in that a long vowel is often found before two or more consonants. Some monosyllables, which are generally weakly stressed in the sentence, are short, even when they end in a vowel or single consonant.

In unstressed syllables, the vowel is always short. If a word, having, when it stands alone, a long vowel, occurs unstressed in a spoken sentence, the vowel in question is pronounced short.

Characteristic of Danish is an unwritten sound, called the stød, or glottal stop; i.e., a closure of the vocal cords, followed by a sudden opening of them. The sound, resembling a slight cough, occurs often in English before stressed vowels, but speakers of English are scarcely aware of it.

The stød occurs only in stressed syllables. It is used both after vowels and after voiced consonants following a vowel. It does not occur in a word or syllable which is made up of a short vowel followed by one or more of the consonants $p, b, t, d, k, g, f$, or $s$, nor in any word or syllable ending in a short vowel. It is also usually absent from the first part of compound words, even where the uncompounded form would have a st. $\boldsymbol{\mathrm { d }}$. Otherwise, the stød is found in all monosyllables and in some polysyllables, especially foreign loanwords. It is also found in polysyllabic second members of compounds, even where, uncompounded, the word would have no stød.

However, the presence or absence of the stød cannot be determined from the written form of the word, but must be known for each word itself, and even for each form of the word. A word which is pronounced with a stød when stressed may lose it if it is weakly stressed in a sentence.

With the exception of $\dot{d}, \vec{a}$ (variants for $æ$ ), and $\ddot{o}$ (variant for $\phi$ ), diacritics are used only in foreign loanwords and in certain proper names.

Capitalization

Capitalization is as in English, except that the pronouns $D e, D e m$, and Deres are capitalized, as is the familiar form of the pronoun I. Formerly, all nouns were capitalized, as in German. Proper adjectives are lowercased.

Punctuation

Punctuation is practically the same as in English, except that all dependent clauses are set off by commas.

DUTCH

Nu is het duidelijk, dat het duratieve aspect in de feitelijke handeling moeilijk tot zijn recht kan komen. Men kan wel stilstaan op een plaats, maar niet stilstaan in de tijd. De enige middelen, die hier practisch ten dienste staan, zijn de herhaling en de vertraging. Van beide vindt men in allerlei godsdienstige rituelen voorbeelden.Held: Magie, Hekserij en Toverij, Groningen (1950), p. 10.

Alphabet and pronunciation

Special characters

Dutch uses the Latin alphabet; and with the exception of the circumflex and acute accents, which it uses only to a small extent, it has no special characters.

The letters $i j$ are treated like a ligature. When they begin a capitalized word, both letters must be uppercased, thus: IJsland, Iceland; IJverig, zealous.

Vowels and consonants

The vowel letters are $a, e, i, o, u$, and $i j$; the remaining characters are all consonants. The so-called double vowels, $a a, e e, o o$, and $u u$, are merely lengthened sounds of their respective single forms; thus $a a$ is like $a a$ in Saar, ee like $a$ in taste, oo like o in rose (never like oo in good), $u u$ like $u$ in sure. Double vowels are regarded by most grammarians as single characters rather than diphthongs.

Diphthongs

The diphthongs are pronounced approximately as follows:
$a a i$ as $a i$ in aisle $\quad i e u$ as $e u$ in reunion
$a u$ as $o u$ in house eeu as $a$ in fate followed by French $u$ or German $u$
$e i$ as $a i$ in aisle
eu as er in her
$i e$ as $i e$ in pier
$i j$ as $a i$ in aisle
$o e$ as oe in shoe oei as uoy in buoy
ooi as oy in annoy
$o u$ as ou in house
$u i$ as urry in furry

Digraphs

The digraphs and their sounds are:

ch like German ch ${ }^{1}$$p h$ as $f$$q u$ like English $q u$

sch as 8 plus ch or $\boldsymbol{8}^{2}$
$s j$ as $s h$ in shall th as $t$

Rules for syllabification

1. Double vowels, diphthongs, and digraphs may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant or a digraph: le-ven, leu-gen, la-chen, vrou-wen, le-raar.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant or digraph: heb-ben, amb-ten, man-tje; but if one of the consonants is 8 preceded by another consonant, the s goes over: kor-sten, ern-stig, Pink-ster. This rule cannot be applied to personal names, e.g.: Bensdorp should be: Bens-dorp; Rijnsburger should be: Rijns-burger, etc.
4. Division may be made between two vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and a vowel: zaai-en, knie-ën, spi-on.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: aan, achter, af, be, bij, daar, door, er, ge, heen, her, in, mede, mein, mis, na, neder, neer, om, on, onder, ont, oor, op, over, samen, tegen, terug, toe, uit, ver, voor, voort, wan, weder, and weg: aan-vaarden, achter-eind, af-breken, be-drog, etc.
6. Certain suffixes are kept intact. These are: aard, aardig, achtig, heid, je, pje, schap, sche, ske, ste(n), ster, and tje: dronk-aard, eigen-aardig, zak-achtig, oord-je (little place), oor-tje (little ear), boom-pje, hoog-ste, bak-ster. ${ }^{3}$
7. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 6): eer-ambt, angst-kreet. The compounding s, if used, is kept with the preceding component: rijks-ambt, volks-eenheid.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: repu-bliek, por-tret, Trans-atlantisch, Washington, Shake-speare. Under this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: dia-gnostisch, proto-plasma; but interesse has been naturalized and is divided inte-resse.

Stress and diacritics

The stress in Dutch words falls on the root syllable in simple words and on the main component (usually the first) in compound words: beSTELlen (to order), SCHOOLboek (schoolbook). Words of foreign origin keep their own characteristic stress.

Diacritical marks are used to a limited extent in Dutch. The circumflex is used to indicate the contraction of two syllables into one, if the contraction is unusual: daan for daden (deeds), liên for lieden (people). The dieresis (trema) is used to indicate that the vowel over which it is placed does not form a diphthong with the preceding vowel but is pronounced separately: zeeën (pronounced zay'-en), seas; oliën (pronounced olee'-en), to oil. The acute is used to give added emphasis: daar is het, there it is, but daar is hij eindelijk, there he is finally; én gulden, one guilder, but een gulden, a guilder.

Capitalization

Capitalization in Dutch is similar to that in English, but with the following differences:

The months, and days of the week in Dutch are written lowercase.
If the first word of a sentence is a single letter only, the word goes lowercase and the next one is capitalized: 's Avonds is het koud, in the evening it is cold. ' $k$ Weet niet wat hij zegt, I do not know what he says.

The first-person pronoun, ik (I), is not capitalized, but the second-person pronouns $U$ (you), $U w$ (your), and $G i j$ (you), are generally capitalized in personal correspondence.

The name particles de, ten, van, if not preceded by the Christian name, are capitalized; otherwise, lowercased.

Punctuation and hyphenation

Punctuation and hyphenation are similar to the usages in German (q.v.). The apostrophe, however, is used not only to indicate abbreviations or contractions but also to form the plural and possessive of foreign loanwords: ' $n$ paard (for een paard), a horse; 's avonds (for des avonds), in the evening: 't huis (for te huis), at home; ' $k$ heb (for ik heb), I have; sofa's, sofas; Maria's, Mary's. Quotation marks are set: ,,thus."

Läänien vaakunat. Valtioneuvosto vahvisti tammikuun 18 päivänä 1962 Suomen lääneille omat vaakunat. Vaakunoiden pohjana ovat useimmissa tapauksissa vanhat maakuntavaakunat tai niiden yhdistelmät. Niinpä Uudenmaan läänillä, Ahvenanmaalla, Kuopion läänillä ja Pohjois-Karjalan läänillä on vaakunansa pohjana vanha maakuntavaakuna. ## Vowels and consonants

The vowel letters are $a, e, i, o, u, y, \dot{a}$, and $\ddot{0}$, the remaining letters being all consonants. With the exception of $d, v, h$, and $j$ which appear only in short versions, all Finnish sounds and their graphic counterparts may be short or long. Short sounds are represented by a single letter. Long vowels are represented by double letters: $a a$, ee, $i i, o o, u u, y y, a \dot{a} \ddot{a}$, and $\ddot{o} o ̈ ;$ long variants of the consonants are indicated in the same way: $g g, k k, l l, m m, n n, p p, t t$, etc.

Long variants of vowels occur in initial, middle, or final position in the context of words: aamu, saada, kotimaa. Long versions of consonants occur only in middle position in the context of words.

The letter $\mathbb{\&}$ (of the Swedish alphabet), while not a genuine element of the Finnish, is frequently used in Finnish print, mostly in Swedish versions of Finnish proper names. Also known and used are the consonants $s h$ (English sh) and $\xi$ and $\check{z}$ (representing the $s h$ and $z h$ consonants which occur in Russian), mostly in proper names.

Diphthongs

The diphthongs and their sounds are:
$a i$ as $a i$ in aisle
au as ow in how ei as ei in eight eu like Finnish e plus $u$
ey like Finnish e plus $y$
$i e$ like Finnish $i$ plus $e$ iu like Finnish $i$ plus $u$ $o i$ as $o i$ in oil ou as ow in low $u i$ like Finnish $u$ plus $i$ uo like Finnish $u$ plus o
$y i$ like Finnish $y$ plus $i$
$y o ̈$ like Finnish $y$ plus $o$
$a i$ like Finnish $a$ plus $i$
$a y$ like Finnish $a$ plus $y$
$o ̄ i$ like Finnish ö plus $i$
$o ̈ y$ like Finnish $\ddot{o}$ plus $y$

The diphthongs ie, uo, yb, eu, iu, yi, ai, äy, $\ddot{\partial}$, and $\ddot{o y}$ are sounded as indicated above; i.e., like their constituent separate letters but in quick succession, $i e, u o, y \ddot{0}$ having the main stress on the second vowel, the others on the first. The above combinations, except those ending in $i$, are diphthongs only at the beginning of a word or of a compound constituent; elsewhere they are separate vowels and may be divided: tapa-us, kope-us, kieli-en.

Rules for syllabification

1. Division is made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and a vowel; however, a single vowel, especially at the beginning of the word, is not separated from the rest: lapsi-en, oi-ke-us; asi-asta, eri-ävä.
2. Long vowels which are represented by double letters may not be divided: maat, ku-nin-kaan, kä-teen, e-siin, syyn, teh-dään.
3. Two vowels (members of a diphthong) at the beginning of a word or immediately following the initial consonant may not be separated: Suo-mi, ai-na, kau-ka-na, tie-dän.

But when two vowels come together as the result of $k$ alternating with zero in consonant gradation, there is a syllable division between the vowels: nä-en (from $n a ̈-k e-$ ), ta-ot-tu (from ta-ko-).
4. When two vowels (diphthongs) occur beyond the first syllable in the word, they may not be divided if the second vowel is $i$, $u$, or $y$ : an-tai-sin, va-rau-tui. Otherwise, there is a syllable division between the vowels: $a$-si- $a, k a-t u-a, l y-h y-a ̈ t$, sil-mi-ä-ni.
5. Division is made on a vowel (short or long), or on a diphthong before a single consonant: ka-la, kä-ve-let, ky-sy-mys; maa-ta, pii-ri, kuu-si; neu-la, tie-ni, yö-tä, kau-pun-ki, tu-le-vai-suus.
6. Long consonants which are represented by double letters are divided: kans-sa (with), tyt-tö, kuk-ka, kap-pa-le, keit-ti-ö, käyt-täy-tyy, lop-pu-ma-ton, lai-val-la, pork-ka-na.
7. Division is made between two different consonants: kan-sa (nation), piis-pa, kau-nis-ta, Tuk-hol-mas-ta.
8. When more than two consonants appear together, division is made before the last one: Rans-kas-ta, myrs-kyi-den.
9. Compound words are divided according to their components: maa-ilma, esi-isä, muinais-usko, talous-elämä, levy-laulaja, kulttuuri-rahasto. Further divisions of each component part follow the rules as described above.
10. Finnish prefers to add a vowel ( $a, o, u$, but mostly $i$ ) to consonant endings of foreign words including proper names: aateli (from German Adel), markka
(from Swedish mark), karamelli (from Spanish caramel), humpuuki (from English humbug), punssi (from English punch), hattu (from Swedish hat), kirkko (from Nordic kirk). In syllabification, such foreign words follow the rules applied to the original Finnish stock: aa-te-li, mark-ka, ka-ra-mel-li, hum-puu-ki, puns-si, hat-tu, kirk-ko.

In forms of declination the foreign words experience the same transformations as the original stock: markat (nominative plural for markka), syllabified as mar-kat; hatun (genitive singular for hattu), syllabified as ha-tun; kirkon (genitive singular for kirkko), syllabified as kir-kon.
11. Not adapted foreign words and names retain most of the original forms in pronunciation and orthography; however, a final $i$ is added to words ending with consonants: demokraatti (democrat), intrigi (intrigue), alkoholi (alcohol), kongressi (congress), monogrammi (monogram). Syllabification of such words follows the general Finnish rules: de-mok-raat-ti, int-ri-gi, al-ko-ho-li; or, in cases of more evident etymological background, they are divided according to their original components: kon-gressi, mono-grammi.

Declination forms with closed syllables (ending with consonant) of foreign words which are adopted with long $p p, k k$, and $s s$ in their singular nominative forms (mostly ending with $i$, i.e., with an open syllable), reduce the long consonants: Euroopan (from Eurooppa), romantiikan (from romantiikka), monarkit (from monarkki, monarch), tansit (from tanssi, adapted form of German Tanz). In syllabification: Eu-roopan (but Eu-roop-pa), ro-man-tii-kan (but ro-man-tiik-ka), mo-nar-kit (but mo-nark-ki), tan-sit (but tans-si).
12. Unadapted foreign words and their derivatives retain most of the original orthographic form of the basic words (for reasons of frequent reprinting or for difficulties caused when respelled in accordance to characteristics of Finnish pronunciation): Shakespeare and Shakespearin elämä (life of Shakespeare), Budapest and Budapestissa (in Budapest), Washington and Washingtonista (from Washington), apopleksia, diagnostinen. In syllabification: Shake-speare (but Shake-spea-rin), Bu-da-pest (but Bu-da-pes-tis-sa), Wa-shing-ton (but Wa-shing-to-nis-ta), a-po-plek-si-a, dia-gnos-ti-nen.

Diacritics and stress

With the exception of $a$ and $\delta$, Finnish uses no diacritics. Stress is always on the first syllable.

Capitalization

1. Long versions of vowels are capitalized by capitalization of the first letter: $A a, E e, I i, O o, U u, Y y, \ddot{A} \ddot{a}, \ddot{O} \ddot{o}$. The same rule applies to diphthongs which are capitalized by the capitalization of their first graphic element: $A i, A u, E i, E u$, $I e, I u, O i, O u, U i, U o, Y i, Y \ddot{\partial}, A ̈ i, A ̈ y, O ̈ i, O ̈ y$.
2. Capitalized is the Finnish name God: Jumala (or equivalent terms), but not its derivatives: jumalallinen (divine).
3. The personal pronoun (nominative second person singular) sinä (thou) is capitalized ( $\operatorname{Sinäa}$ ) when referring to relatives, children, close friends (in correspondence), to God, or is used in poetry. The personal pronoun (nominative second person plural) te is capitalized ( $T e$ ) when used in addressing a third person or a group of persons with a mark of respect.
4. Capitalized are both parts of a hyphenated name (proper noun) if the second part is also a proper noun: Länsi-S゙aksa (Western Germany), Etelä-Amerikka (South America), Pohjois-Karjala (Northern Carelia), Vähä-Aasia (Asia Minor). If the name does not refer to a recognized independent region, letters in lowercase are used: pohjois-Suomi (northern Finland), itä-Ranska (eastern France).
5. Capitalized are proper names which form part of the name of a state or church holiday: Juhannuspäivä or Juhannuksen päivä (St. John's Day or Midsummer Day), Mikon päivä (St. Michael's Day), Tapanin päivä (St. Stephen's Day), or first letters of similar days, including those of memorial days, if they are compound words: Itsenäisyyspäivä (Independence Day), Pääsiäispäivä (Easter Day, i.e., Easter Sunday), Snellmanin päivä (Snellman Day), etc.
6. Capitalized are names of countries: Ranska (France), Englanti (England), Yhdysvallat (United States), Suomi (Finland), but derivatives of the same names meaning nations (nationalities) or languages of the same countries appear in lowercase: ranskalainen (Frenchman), englantilainen (Englishman), amerikkalaiset (Americans), suomen kieli (Finnish language).
7. Capitalized are words indicating attributes of historical figures: Kaarle Suuri (Charles the Great), Pyhä Henrik (Henric the Saint).
8. Capitalized are all words appearing as separate parts of a proper name: Kasvatusopillinen Korkeakoulu (Pedagogical, i.e., Teachers' College), Yhteiskunnallinen Korkeakoulu (College of Social Sciences); but Kansallisteatteri (National Theater), Kymijoki (Kymi River), Maamme-laulu "Our Land" (the Finnish national anthem), Neuvostoliitto (Soviet Union), Olympiakylä (Olympic Village), Senaatintalo (Senate Building).
9. Capitalized are parts of main titles of newspapers, journals, and unique literary works (including those of linguistic monuments) and series: Uusi Suomi (New Finland, newspaper), Helsingin Sanomat (Helsinki News, newspaper), Helsingin Kaupungin Historiallisen Museon Julkaisuja (Publications of the Historical Museum of the City of Helsinki, series), Historiallinen Arkisto (Historical Archives, journal), Uusi T estamentti (The New Testament), Vanha Kalevala (Old Kalevala); but Aleksis Kiven Seitsemän veljestä (the Seven Brothers by Aleksis Kivi), Taidetta ja käsityötä Kansallismuseossa (Arts and Handicrafts in the National Museum, series).

Punctuation and hyphenation

Finnish punctuation differs from the English in the following:

1. The period indicates that a figure stands for the ordinal number: 2. partisiippi (the second participle), but it is not applied in connection with Roman numerals: II partisiippi. Neither does it appear when a figure is followed by p. (for päivänä, on . . th day): $6 p$. joulukuuta, on the 6th of December. The period is used to separate parts of determinative dates: Urheilukatsaus 1.10.1961-30.9.1962 (Sports Survey, Oct. 1, 1961-Sept. 30, 1962).
2. A comma separates subordinated sentences in the front of conjunctions like että (that), jntla (in order that), koska (because), kun (when), jos (if), vaikka (though), and kuin (as). But it is not used before the conjunctions eli (or), $j a$ (and), sekä (as well as, and), tai (or), vai (or), and the enclitic $-k a,-k a ̈$.
3. The colon replaces letters (or parts of words) in abbreviations: $p: n a ̈$ (for pärvänä, on . . th day), $k: l o$ (for kello, o'clock). Endings of grammatical cases are joined to figures by a colon: Kirjasto on avoinna k:lo 10:stä 15:een ja k:lo 17:sta 21:een (The library is open from $10 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. to $3 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. and from 5 to $9 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.). The abridged parts of the text have to be read as: kymmenestä, vititeentoista, seitsemästätoista and kaksikymmentäyhteen.
4. The apostrophe is used to mark the omission of a letter: yht'äkkiä (for yhtääkkiä, suddenly). It is also used in foreign words and names ending in a vowel sound in order to clearly separate the end of the name from the Finnish case-ending: Loti'n (of Loti), Raleigh'n (of Raleigh), Friedrichsruh'ssa (in Friedrichsruh).
5. The hyphen is used between two identical vowels in compound words: raha-apu (financial aid). Also where, in two or more compound words, one element is to be understood as common: suomen-, saksan- ja englanninkielinen (in Finnish, German, and English languages) ; syntymäpaikka ja -aika (place and date of birth). Hyphen is used also where one part is a figure or abbreviation: S0-vuotias ( 30 years old) ; palovak.-yhtiö (for palovakuutusyhtiö, fire insurance company).

FRENCH

Maël, issu d'une famille royale de Cambrie, fut envoyé dès sa neuvième année dans l'abbaye d'Yvern, pour y étudier les lettres sacrées et profanes. A l'âge de quatorze ans, il renonça à son héritage et fit vœu de servir le Seigneur.-Anatole France, L'fle des Pingouins, chapter 1 , opening lines.

Special characters

French uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the following special characters: $d, a, \varsigma, \ell, \dot{e}, \boldsymbol{\ell}, \vec{e}, \tilde{u}, \delta, \grave{u}, u, u$.

Vowels and consonants

The vowel letters are $a, e, i, o, u, y$; the other letters are consonants. Vowel sounds are represented by one of the vowel letters or by a combination of two or three of them. Consonant sounds are represented by one or two consonant letters.

Combinations of two vowel letters (diphthongs)

| $a i, a y, e i$, ey as $e$ in met or there | ou, ou, aon as oo in moon |
| :--- | :--- |
| au, eau as o in no | oui like English we |
| eu, $\alpha$, cue as $u$ in fur ${ }^{1}$ | ui somewhat like English we |

$o i, o y$ as $w a$ in watt

Combinations of two consonant letters (digraphs)

$c h$ as $s h$ in shoe; occasionally as $k$
$g n$ as $n y$ in canyon
$g u$ as $g$ in give before $e, i, y$; occasionally as $g w$ ph as in English
$q u$ as $k$; occasionally as $k w$ rh as $r$
th as $t$
$l l$ as $y$ in yet (in -ille)
Sequences of vowel(s) and $n$ or $m$ (nasals)
In French, there are four nasal sounds. These are produced by allowing air to pass through the nose and the mouth at the same time, but without any actual sound of $m, n$, or $n g$ after them. These sounds are represented by the syllables:

1. am, an, em, en, the vowel sound of each being like $a$ in far:
2. aim, ain, eim, ein, im, in, oin, ym, yn, the vowel sound of each being a in sang;
3. om, on, with the vowel like o in song;
4. eun, um, un, with the vowel like $u$ in sung.

Nasals occur at the end of a word or in the middle of a word before another consonant except $m$ or $n$ : faim, bien, loin, manger, membre; otherwise, the above combinations are not nasalized: ananas (pronounced àndnà), nommer (pronounced nome). There are a few exceptions.

Consonantal units

In French, certain consonants followed by $l$ or $r$ or preceded by $s$ are pronounced in the same syllable with the following vowel. These consonant groups are:

| $b l, b r$ | $f, f r$ | $s c, s p, s p h, s q u, s t$ |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| $c h l, c h r, c l, c r$ | $g l, g r$ | $t h r$ |
| $d r$ | $p h l, p h r, p l, p r$ | $v l, v r$ |

Rules for syllabification

In French, words are divided into syllables according to the following rules:
(1) A consonant between two vowels commences a new syllable:
ca-pi-tal, ca-pi-ta-li-sa-ble, ca-pi-ta-li-ser, ca-pi-ta-lis-me, ca-pi-ta-lis-te, mo-no-mé-tal-lis-te, li-bé-ra-toi-re, dé-sap-pro-vi-si-on-ne-ment, a-rith-mé-ti-que-ment, [^62]an-tis-ta-tu-tai-re-ment, pri-vi-lè-ge, su-bor-don-né, su-res-ta-ries, é-ti-que-ta-ge, e-xa-mi-na-teur, e-xer-ci-ce, e-xis-ten-ce, e-xo-né-rer, i-ne-xac-te-ment, in-de-xa-ti-on, i-nu-ti-le, u-ne, u-na-ni-me-ment, vi-gueur, vi-gou-reux, vi-gou-reu-se, paie-ment, pa-ral-lé-lé-pi-pé-di-que.

(2) Two adjoining consonants (except rule 4 digraphs) between two vowels separate into two syllables:
ac-com-mo-der, ac-quit-te-ment, at-ter-ris-sa-ge, bail-le-res-se, chan-geant, chan-gean-te, con-cur-ren-ti-el-le, cor-res-pon-dan-ce, des-cen-dre, ex-cep-ti-on-nel-le-ment, ex-pé-di-ti-on-nai-re, in-na-vi-ga-ble, in-te-ro-cé-a-ni-que, in-ter-val-le, ir-res-pon-sa-bi-li-té, os-cil-ler, ras-seoir, re-con-nais-san-ce, res-ti-tu-er, sub-di-vi-ser, sur-taux, veil-le.
(3) A vowel can only begin a syllable, other than an initial syllable, when preceded by another vowel:
a-e-ro-pla-ne, a-gré-er, an-ci-en, ar-ri-è-re, bé-né-fi-ci-ai-re, ca-mi-on, ca-outchouc, co-as-so-ci-é, co-ef-fi-ci-ent, co-in-ci-der, dé-pou-il-le-ment, ex-tra-or-di-nai-re, feu-il-le, in-né-go-ci-a-ble, li-er, mi-eux, na-ti-on, ou-est, ré-é-va-lu-er, ré-u-ni-on, ro-yau-me, vic-tu-ail-les, vi-e-il-lir, vi-eux, voi-li-er, vo-ya-ge.
(4) The following digraph consonants are inseparable:
bl: câ-blo-gram-me, chan-gea-ble, o-bli-té-rer, pu-bli-que. Exception: sub-lu-nai-re.
br: dé-brou-il-ler, li-bre, su-bré-car-gue. Exception: sub-ro-ger and derivatives.
ch: dis-pa-cheur, échan-til-lon, é-chauf-fer, gui-chet, re-cher-che.
cl: ac-cla-mer, ac-cli-ma-ter, é-clai-ra-ge, é-clu-se, ex-clu-sif.
cr: des-crip-ti-ve, é-cri-tu-re, ma-nus-crit, pres-cri-re, sous-cri-re.
dh: ré-dhi-bi-toi-re.
dr: a-dres-ser, cor-res-pon-dre, en-tre-pren-dre, or-dre.
fl: af-flux, ef-fleu-rer, in-fla-ti-on, in-flu-ent.
fr: af-fran-chir, en-cof-frer, in-dé-chif-fra-ble, ré-af-frè-te-ment, re-frap-pa-ge.
gl: ag-glo-mé-rer, a-veu-gle, é-tran-gle-ment, né-gli-gen-ce, rè-gle-ment.
gn: com-pa-gnie, é-par-gnant, ren-sei-gne-ment, si-gnal, vi-gnet-te.
gr: ag-gra-va-ti-on, dé-gros-sir, de-ni-grer, in-té-gral, re-gret.
ph: chi-io-gra-phai-re, dac-ty-lo-gra-phi-er, té-le-pho-ne, u-ni-gra-phi-que.
pl: ac-com-plis-se-ment, ap-pli-ca-ti-on, com-plè-te-ment, ex-ploit.
pr: an-ti-pro-tec-ti-on-nis-te, ap-pren-dre, ex-pri-mer, pro-pri-e-té.
rh: ar-rhe-ment, ar-rhes, bi-blo-rhapt, e-nar-rher, trans-rhé-na-ne.
th: au-then-ti-que, dés-hy-po-thé-quer, hy-po-thé-cai-re, mé-tho-de.
tr: ad-mi-nis-tra-tif, cen-tre, co-di-rec-tri-ce, con-tre-si-gner, con-tres-ta-ries, il-lus-trée.
vr: a-vril, li-vrai-son, li-vre, ma-nœu-vrer, ou-vri-er.
(5) (a) ns, bs, and rs are separable if followed by a vowel:
con-sa-crer, con-seil-la-ble, con-si-dé-rer, in-sé-rer, in-sol-va-ble, in-suf-fi-sant, tran-sac-ti-on, tran-sat-lan-ti-que, tran-si-ter; ab-sor-ber, ob-ser-ver; per-su-a-der.
(b) ns, bs, and rs are inseparable if followed by a consonant:
cons-pi-rer, cons-ta-ter, cons-ti-tu-er, ins-pec-ter, ins-tal-ler, trans-cen-dant, trans-fè-re-ment, trans-port; no-nobs-tant, obs-ta-cles, subs-tan-ce; in-ters-ti-ce, pers-pec-ti-ve.
(c) ns and bs are inseparable if followed by a consonant coupled with r :
cons-trui-re, ins-cri-re, trans-cri-re, trans-gres-ser; abs-trac-ti-on, obs-truc-ti-on.
(d) ns and bs are separable before ci:
con-sci-en-ci-eux, in-sci-em-ment; ab-scis-se.
(6) (a) mp and nc followed by t are inseparable:
a-comp-te, comp-ta-ble, es-comp-ter, pré-emp-ti-on; fonc-ti-on, sanc-ti-on.
(b) In all other combinations mp and nc are separable:
em-plo-yer, em-prun-ter, im-por-tant; a-van-cer, fran-çais, fran-che, fran-co.
(7) In writing or in print no syllable is separable which does not include a vowel; thus, trigraph consonants are inseparable initially: scru-tin, but separable medially: ins-cru-ta-ble.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: alpen-stock, reichs-amt, cre-scendo, sky-scraper, Wash-ington. Under this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: dia-gnostique, hemisphère, hémo-ptysies.

Some of the small syllables, especially initial vowel uniliterals and final biliterals beginning with a vowel, are not usually separated from the body of the word in writing or print, but they are of importance in the pronunciation; thus, émission is pronounced $\varepsilon$-mi-si-on, but the written or printed word is ordinarily only divided émis- (end of line) sion, not é- (end of line) mission, nor émissi- (end of line) on, though d'é- (end of line) mission, l'é- (end of line) mission, are better than d' (end of line) émission, l' (end of line,' émission.

Divisions of words at the ends of lines should, of course, be avoided as far as possible, and not be carried to extremes.

Stress and diacritics

In French, words do not have any syllabic stress, each syllable being uttered with almost equal force with a slight stress falling on the last.

The diacritics used in French are the acute, the circumflex, the grave, the dieresis (trema), and the cedilla.

The circumflex occurs on the vowels. It may indicate that an $s$ followed the vowel in Old French, as in île from isle, island, and pate from paste, paste; it may distinguish homonyms like $d \mathfrak{a}$ (due) and $d u$ (of the); $a, \ell, 6$ may represent vowels longer than those spelled $a, e, o$, as in ane, bête, mole.

The acute accent occurs only on the $e$; $仑$ represents a close $e$ sound, more like the $a$ in late than the $e$ in met. It will be found on an $e$ followed by a single consonant or digraph or consonantal unit, followed by a vowel as in erable, eglise, etrenne. It will not be on an $e$ followed by two consonants (i. e., two consonants which do not form a digraph or consonantal unit), as in esclaves, elbeuf. The letter $e$ is common at the end of words (ete, passe), and frequently initially, and medially as well, under the conditions already stated.

The grave accent occurs on $a, e$, and $u$. One of its functions is to distinguish homonyms: $a$ (has) and $\grave{a}$ (to); des (of the) and dès (since); ou (or) and où (where). Far more frequent is the occurrence of $\dot{e}$, indicating an open $e$ sound, more like the $e$ in met than the $a$ in late. It occurs in one-syllable words in which mute $e$ is the last letter, and a single consonant or digraph, or consonantal unit, is the next-to-last letter, as ère, lèvre, sèche; in word-final syllables like -ère, -ière, -ègre, -èbre, -èvre, -èdre, -ères, -ières, -ègres, etc.; occasionally, in a word ending in es, to indicate that the $e$ is not silent, as in progrès, succès.

The dieresis occurs on the second of two consecutive vowel letters to indicate that the sequence does not have its usual value.
$a i$ as $e$ in met (plaisir)
$e i$ as $e$ in met (reine)
$o i$ as $w a$ in watt (toi) $\propto$ as $u$ in fur ( $a i l$ ) gue as $g$ in go plus mute $e$ in vague
$g u i$ as $g$ in go plus ee as in meet (guide); sometimes $g$ as in go plus we as in we (aiguille)
$a \ddot{i}$ as $a$ in watt plus ee as in meet (naïf)
$e i$ as $e$ in met plus ee as in meet oï as o in for plus ee as in meet (colloüde) oë as $o$ in for plus $a$ as in late (canoë); as $o$ in for plus $e$ as in met (noël) $g u e ̈$ as $g$ in go plus $u$ as in German $u$ plus mute $e$ (aiguë) guï as $g$ in go plus $u$ as in German $\ddot{u}$ plus ee as in meet (contiguïté)

The cedilla occurs under the letter $c$ before $a, o$, or $u$, to indicate that $c$ is pronounced like $s$; reçu, received.

Capitalization

1. Capitalize the first word of sentences, phrases, verses, speeches, citations: Un homme dit: "Je passerai la mer
2. After interrogation, exclamation, and suspension points when they end the sentence.
3. In proper names in general: Jeanne, la France, la Seine.
a. The names designating God,the three holy persons, Jesus Christ: Le Créateur, la Providence, le Messie, le Tout-Puissant.
b. The names of mythological divinities and abstractions personified by poetry or mythology, as well as the names of stars, constellations, and planets: Jupiter, les Furies, Sirius, le Cygne.
c. The proper names of people, families, and dynasties: Les Français, les Bourbons; but l'Etat allemand, le drapeau français.
4. The names of holidays: La Toussaint, ad Noël: but not the names of days or months.
5. The names that have become proper names: L'Orateur romain (Cicero), la Vierge (Virgin Mary).
6. The proper names of scholarly, political, and religious organizations, or orders of chivalry: L'Eglise, l'Institut de France, la Chambre de représentants, l'Université catholique de Paris, l'Ordre de la Couronne.
7. Ordinarily the cardinal points when they are used absolutely, as in: Les peuples de l'Orient; otherwise the lowercase is used.
8. The proper names of streets, monuments, buildings, ships, etc.: La rue des Tuileries, le Parthenon, le Titanic.
9. The titles of books, poems, pictures, works of art, etc.
10. Titles, such as: Sa Majeste, Son Excellence, when addressing the person himself.
a. Nous, Vous, etc., in encyclicals, pastoral letters, etc.
b. Historical events: La Renaissance, la Revolution.
11. The adjective is capitalized when it is intimately connected with the proper name: Etats-Unis, la Comédie-Française, Charles le Temeraire.
a. When it precedes the name: Le Saint-Office, la Sainte-Alliance.
b. When it accompanies a geographic term: La mer Méditerranée.

Punctuation and hyphenation

The period indicates the end of the sentence. It is used sometimes to give greater emphasis to a subordinate clause.

The interrogation point is used in general as in English; an indirect interrogation is never followed by an interrogation point. When an interrogative phrase is followed by an insertion, the interrogation point is placed immediately after that phrase, the sentence continuing in lower case.

The exclamation point is placed directly after the exclamation; the interjection 6 is never used by itself, as in $O$ regret!, and the exclamation point is placed after the complete exclamation.

The comma marks a brief pause. In spelled out figures the decimal part is separated from the main part by a comma (instead of a period, as in English). It must be used after the place in the date: Paris, le 4 juin

The comma follows salutations, such as: Ma chère Marie, . . . .
It is used before et, ou, or $n i$ when coordinating more than two elements, such as: Un bon financier, dit . . ., ne pleure ni ses amis, ni sa femme, ni ses enfants. The semicolon marks a medium long pause.
The colon is used as in English.
The suspension points are used as in English.
The quotation marks in French are written: 《》. However, Le Grand Larousse, in the preface to its 1960-64 edition, uses the English version: "".
The punctuation is usually placed at the end of the quote, if the citation is a the punctuation, as in: Quel homme, que ce <<Pere la Victoire>!!

The apostrophe is used to mark the omission of $a, e, i$, as in: l'arme, d'abord, s'il vous plaît.

The hyphen is used much more widely than in English, and care should be exercised not to mistake the marginal hyphen in copy used orthographically as one of syllabification. The various orthographic uses of the hyphen are as follows:

1. Between verbs and the pronouns in questions: Parlez-vous? Do you speak?
2. Between verbs and object pronouns: Parlez-moi, speak to me.
3. Between verbs and the participles en, $y$, ce, on: Portez-leur-en, bring them some.
4. Between the personal pronoun and the adjective même, moi-même, myself.
5. On each side of the euphonic $t$ : A-t-il? Has he? Parlera-t-elle? Will she speak?
6. Before $c i$ and là: celui-c $i$; and in certain expressions after $c i$ and $l a ̀$, as in ces choses là-dessus.
7. After entre in all reciprocal verbs: s'entre-tuer, to kill one another.
8. Between demi and its noun: une demi-heure, half an hour.
9. In compound nouns and adjectives, especially with prepositional particles, as in arc-en-ciel, rainbow; nouveau-né, newborn.
10. In spelled numbers (see p. 446).
11. Between first names: Louis-Charles-Alfred de Musset.
12. Between the word Saint and the following name, when used to designate a locality, a feast-day, a street, an era, etc., but not when it concerns the Saint himself: la rue Saint-Jacques, La Saint-Nicolas.
13. In geographic names: Saint-Valerry-en-Caux, etc.
14. In certain invariable phrases: Pêle-mêle, avant-hier, etc.

Sets of figures, separated in English by commas, in French are separated either by spaces, as in: $1005 ; 1000000$, or by periods as in: $1.005 ; 1.000 .000$. Percentages printed in English in lowercase are in French frequently printed in uppercase: $21 / 20 / 0$.

Authors and their works are cited in the text as follows: first name (mostly by initial), last name in caps; followed by a comma, then the name of the work in italics, followed by a comma, then volume in Roman numerals, followed by a comma, then the page: p. 211, for example. If the source is a newspaper or a periodical, the name of the author appears, as above, followed by dans (in) le Temps (a newspaper), or the name of the periodical, followed by a comma and the date, as in: 7 aoat 1962, followed by a comma, then p. . . .. The source appears in parentheses, and, followed if cited at the end of a sentence, by a period. Sometimes $t$. (volume) precedes the volume, and ch. (chapter), the chapter referred to.

GERMAN

Wenn aber auch der Charakter verschiedener Weltgegenden von allen äu ßeren Erscheinungen zugleich abhängt; wenn Umriß der Gebirge, Physiognomie der Pflanzen und Tiere, wenn Himmelsbläue, Wolkengestalt und Durchsichtigkeit des Luftkreises den Totaleindruck bewirken; so ist doch nicht zu leugnen, daß das Hauptbestimmende dieses Eindrucks die Pflanzendecke ist. Dem tierischen Organismus fehlt es an Masse; die Beweglichkeit der Individuen und oft ihre Kleinheit entziehen sie unseren Blicken. Die Pflanzenschöpfung dagegen wirkt durch stetige Größe auf unsere Einbildungskraft.Alexander von Humboldt, Ansichten der Natur, vol. II, p. 20 f. (1849).

Special characters

German used to be set, traditionally, in the Frektur alphabet (German text). It was abolished for official publications in 1941 and is virtually no longer used. For information on Fraktur, see earlier editions of this Manual. The Latin alphabet, which is now generally .used, has, however, retained the following special characters, called umlauts: $\AA \ddot{\AA}, O \ddot{O}$, and $U$ ü.

The Fraktur alphabet employed four ligatures: ch (ch), ck (ck), B ( $ß$, ss), and tz (tz). However, German style when using a Latin alaphabet has retained the following usages: In syllabification, tz may be divided, ch and ß may never be divided, and ck, if division is called for, must be changed to $\mathrm{k}-\mathrm{k}$. This is because the character c may never end a word or a syllable and, hence, may not terminate a line.

When German is set in Latin characters, the only ligature employed is $\beta$; the other ligatures are represented by their respective individual characters. When $B$ is not available, it may be replaced by $s s$.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u$, and $y$ (including the umlauts $a, \ddot{b}$, and $u$ ). The other letters of the alphabet are consonants.

Vowel sequences (diphthongs)

The diphthongs and their sounds are:

aa}\mathrm{ as German long a ai as ai in aisle
    au as ou in our au as oi in noise ee as German long e ei as ai in aisle
    eu as oi in noise

ie as German long $i$

$o o$ as German long $o$
oe as German long $o$ in some proper names (as distinguished from oe for the umlaut $\ddot{0}$ )
$o i$ as German long $o$ in some proper names
To the ie there are a few exceptions, as in a few words ie is not a diphthong but the two letters are sounded separately, as ee-uh. These exceptions occur usually at the end of words of foreign origin, the $i e$ being equivalent to the Latin ia: Linie, Materie, etc.

To the above diphthongs should be added also ae, oe, and ue, which are sometimes used in place of $\ddot{a}, \ddot{0}$, and $\ddot{u}$, respectively, and are sounded as $\ddot{a}, \ddot{0}, u \ddot{u}$.

Consonant sequences (digraphs)

The digraphs and their sounds are:
$p h$ as English $p h=f$ th as $t$
sch as sh in shall
The sound for ch may be approximated by making a strong $h$ sound. In words some, $c h$ is pronounced like $k$. The digraph sch must be distinguished from the mere coincidental juxtaposition of those letters, pronounced like $s$ and $c h$ separately: biß-chen, little bit; Fäß-chen, little barrel; Häus-chen little house.

Consonantal units

The combinations $q u$ (pronounced $k v$ ), st, and $\beta$ are treated as consonanta units. Some editors treat pf as a consonantal unit, especially after anothe: consonant; but this is not favored by Duden, Rechtschreibung der deutschez Sprache, which divides kämp-fen, Karp-fen, rup-fen as indicated. The rule is that $p f$ is separated when followed by a vowel.

When $\mathcal{B}$ is replaced by $s s$, ss is never divided.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided with the exception of $n g$.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: le-ben, lie-ben, wa-chen, wa-schen, Mei-ster, gro-ßen, Re-qui-sit.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: Mut-ter, Was-ser, stimm-ten, kämp-fen, wün-schen, Fen-ster, Pfing-sten.
4. Division may be made between two vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and a vowel: Oze-an, Trau-ung.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: $a b, a n, a u f, a u s$, be, bei, durch, ein, emp, ent, er, fort, ge, her, hin, hinter, in, miß, mit, nach, nieder, ob, um, un, unter, ver, vor, weg, wider, wieder, zer, zu, zurück, and zusammen: $a b-a ̈ n d e r n, A n-e r b e$, auf-arbeiten, etc.
6. Certain suffixes are kept intact. These are: artig, chen, haft, heit, schaft, and tum: eigen-artig, Hühn-chen, Knapp-heit, Wachs-tum.
7. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 6): alt-italienisch, Tür-angel. The compounding $r$ and $s$, if used, are kept with the preceding component: dar-auf, wor-auf, Redensart, Orts-angabe.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words follow the conventions of the language of origin: Repu-blik, Hy-drant, Wash-ington, Shake-speare. Under this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: Dia-gnose, Mikro-skop.
9. When division is made on or before a syllable from which a letter was elided, the letter is restored to render the syllable integral: glitschst is divided glit-schest, Luftschiffahrt is divided Luftschiff-fahrt; and when the double consonant $c k$ is divided, the $c$ is changed to $k$, thus Hacke and $Z u c k e r$ are divided Hak-ke and Zuk-ker. It is important to bear in mind that words divided under this rule, if subsequently reset and run over, must have their original spelling restored.
10. No division should be made that results in a single letter being separated or a syllable of two letters occupying the second line. Wrong: O-zean, koch-te.
11. When, in a compound word, the first word ends with $s$ and the second begins with $t$, the st rule does not apply: Reichs-tag not Reich-stag.
12. No division is permitted that affects the meaning adversely: Spar-gelder not Spargel-der; Ur-instinkt not Urin-stinkt.

Diacritics and stress

Other than the umlauts, no diacritical marks are used in German. The chief stress falls on the root syillable in simple words (SINGen, to sing), and on the leading component, usually the first, in compound words (FESTland, mainland). Words of foreign origin have their own characteristic stress.

Capitalization

With the exception of the following, capitalization conventions are the same as in English:

1. All nouns and words used as nouns are capitalized: ${ }^{1}$ das Geben, the giving; die Armen, the poor.
2. Proper adjectives are lowercased: die deutsche Sprache, the German language.
3. Adjectives derived from personal names are capitalized: die Lutherische Uhersetzung, Luther's translation; but when used descriptively, lowercased: die lutherische Kirche, the Lutheran Church; ciceronische Beredsamkeit, Ciceronic eloquence.
4. The pronouns Sie, you, Ihr, your, and Ihnen, to you, are capitalized, but not ich, I. The pronouns Du, you, Dein, your, and their various forms are capitalized in correspondence.

In solid matter, where the umlaut on capital letters is likely to cause trouble in alinement, it will be omitted and a lowercase $e$ added after the capital, as Ae (Aerger), Oe (Oel), Ue (Uebel).

Punctuation and hyphenation

Punctuation is practically as in English. The comma, however, is used to set off subordinate clauses of all kinds; e.g., ich glaube, daß er kommen wird, I believe that he will come.

In series of words made up of two parts, where one part is common to both words, the hyphen is used as follows: Feld-und Gartenfrüchte (field- and garden produce), the word früchte being common to both Feld and Garten; but Haftpflicht-Versicherungsgesellschaft und -Versicherte (liability-insurance company and -insured), because Haftpficht is common to both Versicherungsgesellschaft and Versicherte.

In transliteration from Classical Greek, the letters may be represented thus: $a, b, g, d, e, z, \bar{e}, t h, i, k, l, m, n, x, o, p, r, s, t, u, p h, c h, p s, \bar{o}$; initial $\dot{\rho}$ is transliterated by $r h$, internal $p \dot{\phi}$ by $r \tau h ; v$ not following $\alpha, \epsilon, \eta, \iota$ often represented by $y$ instead of $u$. It was formerly customary to latinize Classical Greek names, and this custom is still followed for most ordinary names used in English literature; in doing this, the letters are transliterated as above, except: $\boldsymbol{\gamma}$ is represented by $n$ before $\gamma, \kappa, \xi, \chi$ (the same applies to transliteration); $\eta$, by $e$, but the macron is usually omitted, giving simply $e ; \kappa$, by $c$; $v$, by $y$, except after $\alpha, \epsilon, \eta, \iota$, where it is $u$; $\omega$, by 0 , but the macron is usually omitted. The diphthong $\epsilon \iota$ may be represented by $i$ instead of $e i$, the diphthong ov may be represented by $u$ instead of ou. The "rough breathing" is represented by $h$. In transliteration and romanization the accents and other diacritical marks are usually omitted.

The stigma ( 5 , representing f), koppa ( Q ) and sampi ( $$$ ) are survivors of an earlier alphabet and are used only in numerical notation.

These numerals, except the cardinals from 5 to 100, are regularly declinable according to the rules of the language.

The numeral characters take an acute accent after them, from 1 to 999. To place an accent below and to the left of a character multiplies it by 1000; e.g., $\left.\alpha^{\prime}=1, ~, a=1000, ~, a\right) \mu \delta^{\prime}=1944$.

Chronology

The ancient Greek communities had no uniform system of time reckoning. For the purpose of holding Olympic Games they divided time into periods of 4 years, called Olympiads, the first year of the first Olympiad beginning in the middle of the summer of $776 \mathrm{~B} . \mathrm{C}$. Each year was divided into 12 months, but there was no division into weeks. From the third century B.C. the era of the Olympiads has been introduced to historical chronology.

The seasons were called $\boldsymbol{\varepsilon} a \rho$ ( $\bar{\eta} \rho$ ), spring; $\theta^{\prime} \rho o s$, summer; $\delta \pi \dot{\omega} \rho a$, autumn, and $\chi \in i \mu a(\chi \epsilon \tau \mu \dot{\omega} \nu)$, winter.

After the rise of Roman supremacy, the Julian calendar was adopted, with the Latin month names transliterated. After the advent of Christianity, the weekly system was adopted, with names of the days as in Modern Greek.

These are the months of the Athenian calendar, the best known to us. Several other calendars were in use throughout the ancient Greek world, the beginning of the year falling often at other seasons.

The modern equivalents are, of course, only approximate, as the Greeks had not calculated the year as accurately as more modern mathematicians have. The first day of Hecatombaion was intended to fall upon the summer solstice, but it actually varied from the middle of June to the first week in Augusi.

In connected speech, many phonetic changes occur: word-final $n$ often drops or becomes $m$, and the first sound of the next word may change, for example, from $p$ to $b$; ts at the beginning of a word becomes $d z$ after a word ending in $n$; many other such differences in pronunciation, between an isolated word and a word in connected speech, are observable. These phenomena, however, are not reflected in the spelling.

Modern Greek uses the same alphabet as Classical Greek, but many of the letters stand for different sounds now because of the linguistic changes that have taken place since classical times. The names of the letters are given here in the usual English version of their Classical Greek form. These names are usually pronounced in English as follows: alpha (al as in Alfred), bayta, gamma, delta, épsilon ( $o$ as in don), zayta, ayta, thayta, eye- 6 -ta, kappa, lamda, mew, new, zie ( $i e$ as in die or sigh), $6 \mathrm{~m}-\mathrm{i}$-kron ( $o$ 's as in don), pie, roe, sigma, tou (ou as in house), ybu-psi-lon (or úp-silon), fie, kie, sie, o-máy-ga. In Modern Greek, the letter names are pronounced ahlfa, veeta, gahma, thelta (th as in ther), eh-pseeláwn, zeeta, eeta, theeta (th as in thin), yoeta, kahpa, lahmvtha (th as in then), mee, nee, ksee, oh-mee-kráwn, pee, ro, seeg-ma, tahv, ae-psee-láwn, fee, hee, p-see, o-mee-ga.

It is suggested that for transliterating Modern Greek names, etc., the usual transliteration of the letters be used, regardless of pronunciation: $a, b, g, d, e$, ${ }^{2}, \bar{e}, t h, i, k, l, m, n, x, o, p, r, s, t, u, p h, c h, p s, \bar{o}$. For $\beta, v$ may be used if desired. (Compare with the remarks on transliteration of Classical Greek, p. 419.)

There are two quite different styles of Modern Greek: one is an extremely formal academic style, known as katharevousa; the other, called Demotic Greek, is used by everybody in daily speech, and in modern novels, stories, poetry, and some newspapers. There are considerable differences between the two styles in grammatical structure and vocabulary, but their pronunciation and spelling are largely the same.

Special characters

Some of the letters of the alphabet have variant forms: for alpha, $\alpha$ and $a$; for beta, 6 and $\beta$; for theta, $\vartheta$ and $\theta$; for kappa, $\kappa$ and $u$; for $\mathrm{pi}, \pi$ and $\omega$; for phi, $\varphi$ and $\phi$; for psi, $\psi$ and $y$. These are used interchangeably.

Some Greek letters are exactly or nearly like the corresponding Latin letters:
 tically Greek: $\Gamma \gamma, \Delta \delta, \zeta, H_{\eta}, \theta_{\theta}, \Lambda \lambda, \mu, \nu, \Xi \xi, \Pi \pi, \mathrm{P}_{\rho}, \Sigma \sigma, \Upsilon, \Phi \phi, \mathrm{X}_{\chi}, \Omega \omega$.

Vowels

The vowels are $\alpha, \epsilon, \eta, \iota, o, v$, and $\omega$, including the three vowels with a subscript ( $a, \eta$, and $\varphi$ ), which are pronounced the same as their respective vowels without the subscript. The remsining letters are consonants.

Consonantal units

For purposes of syllabification, any combination of consonants that may begin a Greek word is a unit. Hence, the following are consonantal units:

\begin{array}{ll}
\beta \delta, \beta \lambda, \beta \rho & \pi \lambda, \pi \nu, \pi \rho, \pi \tau \\
\gamma \lambda, \gamma \nu, \gamma \rho & \sigma \beta, \sigma \theta, \sigma \kappa, \sigma \mu, \sigma \pi, \sigma \tau, \sigma \tau \rho, \sigma \varphi, \sigma \chi \\
\delta \mu, \delta \nu, \delta \rho & \tau \lambda, \tau \mu, \tau \rho \\
\theta \lambda, \theta \nu, \theta \rho & \varphi \theta, \varphi \lambda, \varphi \nu, \varphi \rho \\
\kappa \lambda \lambda, \kappa \mu, \kappa \nu, \kappa \rho & \chi \theta, \chi \lambda, \chi \nu, \chi \rho \\
\mu \nu &
\end{array}

Also, any group of three consonants, the first two and the last two of which are units, as listed above, are likewise regarded as consonantal units. Thus, $x \theta \rho$ is a unit, because $\chi \theta$ and $\theta \rho$ are units.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs when they represent a single sound, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: $\pi \alpha-\tau_{\epsilon}-\rho \alpha s, \pi \alpha \iota-\delta t a ́, \beta t-\beta \lambda o s$.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, the division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: $\gamma \lambda \bar{\omega} \sigma-\sigma \alpha, \pi o \rho \theta-\mu \dot{s}$, ' $\mathrm{A} \gamma-\gamma \lambda i \alpha, a ̈ \nu-\theta \rho \alpha \xi$.
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: $\epsilon \dot{v}-\epsilon \delta \delta_{n}^{\prime}$, $\theta^{\prime} \in-\alpha \tau \rho \circ \nu, \lambda \alpha-i \kappa \delta \dot{s}$, oü-i $\alpha$.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: à $, \delta \omega \alpha, \delta \iota \sigma, \delta \nu \sigma, \epsilon i \sigma$, $\dot{\epsilon} \kappa, \dot{\varepsilon} \nu, \dot{\epsilon} \xi, \mu \iota \sigma, \pi \rho o s, \sigma v \nu, \dot{v} \pi \in \rho$, and $\dot{\omega} \sigma:$ a $\nu-\alpha \rho \chi i \alpha, \dot{\epsilon} \xi-\dot{\alpha} \delta \epsilon \lambda \varphi \rho o s, \ddot{\omega} \sigma-\tau \epsilon$.
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): $\varphi \iota \lambda-\alpha \dot{\alpha} \theta \rho \omega \pi \pi o s, \tau \rho \iota \sigma-\dot{\alpha} \theta \lambda \iota o s$.
7. Foreign words in Greek orthography are regarded as naturalized words and divided according to rules 1 to 5: 'A $\gamma-\gamma \lambda \iota \alpha$, Bá- $\sigma \iota \gamma-\kappa \tau \omega \nu$, ' $E \delta o v-\alpha, \rho-\delta o s ;$ but foreign compound words are divided according to their component parts: T $\sigma \in \chi 0-\sigma \lambda о \beta \alpha \kappa i \alpha$.

Accents and diacritics

The three accent marks used in Greek now all represent the same thingloud stress, although in Classical Greek they are supposed to have represented different pitch accents:

1. The acute ('), which may occur on the vowel, or on the second vowel of a diphthong, in any one of the last three syllables of a word.
2. The circumflex ( ${ }^{\wedge},{ }^{\wedge}$ ), which may occur on the vowel, or on the second vowel of a diphthong, in either of the last two syllables of a word. The circumflex never appears over $\epsilon$ or o.
3. The grave ('), which may occur only on the vowel, or on the second vowel of a diphthong, in the last syllable of a word; such a word must be followed directly by another word, not a period or comma.

Greek orthography also employs two "breathing" marks:

1. The rough breathing, or spiritus asper ( ${ }^{\circ}$ ), which occurs on an initial vowel, or on the second vowel of an initial diphthong. It has no phonetic value, although in Classical Greek it represented an $h$ sound before the vowel or diphthong; in transliteration, it may be represented by $h$.
2. The smooth breathing, or spiritus lenis ('), which occurs on an initial vowel, or second vowel of an initial diphthong. It has no phonetic value, and in Classical Greek represented a lack of $h$ sound before the vowel.

In text, these breathings and the grave and acute accent marks are placed above and to the left of capital vowel letters, rather than directly above.

Some words, called enclitics, may appear with no written accent at all; the word preceding an enclitic, however (unless it too is an enclitic), will always have at least one accent mark and may have two; e.g., roıaürá é $\sigma \tau \iota$.

Another diacritical mark is the dieresis (trema) ("), which occurs on the second of two vowels to indicate that they do not form a diphthong, which otherwise they would form: ккüцévos (pronounced kaeeménos instead of kavménos).

These diacritical marks may form combinations, as follows:

[^67]An iota is of ten placed beneath the vowel $\alpha, \eta$ ，or $\omega$ ，mainly to indicate a declen－ sional or conjugational inflection：$\dot{\eta}$ ，the nominative plural of $\dot{\eta} ; \tau \iota \mu \bar{q}$ ，third person singular of $\tau \iota \mu \bar{\omega}$ ．This iota is called iota subscript．

Capitalization

Capitalization is practically the same as in English．The pronoun of address is usually capitalized．（This does not apply to Classical Greek．）Capital letters do not take diacritical marks．If a lowercase accented vowel is capitalized，the accent mark is dropped．（In Classical Greek this is quite true but this statement should perhaps be modified to the effect that it applies to whole words spelled out in capitals，not to those beginning with capitals；the example illustrates the case well．）An initial capital vowel，however，carries the accent mark before it． The iota subscript may be placed either beneath the vowel or changed into a regular iota and placed right after the vowel．Thus the words ăyoos，${ }^{\circ} \delta \eta s$, and a $\pi \delta$ ，if capitalized，are set＂$A \Gamma I O \Sigma$ ，＂A $\triangle H \Sigma$ ，and＇AПO．＂Ą $\delta \eta s$ may also be set ＊Aı $\delta \eta s$ ．In Classical Greek iota subscript cannot stand under capital；if the letter under which it stands is capitalized then iota subscript becomes iota adscript； e．g．，THI $\Omega \mathrm{I} \Delta \mathrm{HI}-\tau \tilde{\eta} \tilde{\varphi} \delta \bar{\eta}$ or＇${ }^{\prime} \swarrow \iota \delta \bar{\eta}$ ．

Punctuation

The comma，the period，and the exclamation point are the same as in English and are used similarly．The semicolon and the colon are represented by a point above the line．The question mark resembles the English semicolon．The scheme for quotation marks is the same as in the western languages．

Hebrew uses no capitals at beginning of words, such as proper names.
Hebrew follows English and American usage with regard to quotation marks and italics.

In transliteration, especially of names, the macrons over vowels and the dots under consonants, as well as ' and ', are often omitted; 'is also printed as '. For $f, p h$ is often used. For $\delta$, an ordinary $s$ is often found, and then samekh is sometimes represented by $\dot{s}$. For $s h, \xi$ is sometimes used, especially in scholarly works. There are other special transliteration practices to be found in scholarly works.

Hebrew is read from right to left. Its alphabet consists of 22 letters, all consonants; the vowels are represented by vowel signs or points, as explained under Vowels below.

Special characters

Five of the letters (kaf, mēm, $n \bar{u} n, p \bar{e}$, and $s a d \bar{e})$ have a so-called final form, shown immediately to the right of its respective regular form. This final form is used as the final letter of a word.

Eight of the letters represent two sounds each, distinguished by means of a dot, as follows:
a as bor v
I as $g$; also like Dutch $g$
4 as $d$; and like $t h$ in then a as $h$ or silent
כ as $k$ or German ch
D as $p$ or $f$
as $8 h$
$n$ as $t$ or $t h$

د as $b$ or $b b$ a as $g$ in big, $g g$
7 as $d, d d$
$\pi$ as $h h$ (stronger aspiration) 3 as $k$, $k k$
as $p, p p$.
0 as $s$ in $\sin$
ก as $t, t$

Some of the letters seem to be more or less similar. These are grouped, for the convenience of identification, wit hin brackets below:

The vowels are represented by marks called vowel points. These are placed above or below the consonant and, with the exception of the furtive patah, have the effect of a vowel following the consonant; e.g., ヨ (ba), $\bar{\nabla}$ ( $\bar{e}$ ). The forms, names, and sounds of the vowels are as follows:

| Long Vowels |  | Short Vowels |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| - Qames $\bar{a}$ | $a$ as in palm | - Patah a | $a$ as in part (short) |
| - Şere è | ei as in vein | - Segol e | $e$ as in bed |
| - Hirik gadol $\bar{\imath}$ | $i$ as in machine | - Hirik katon $i$ | $i$ as in big |
| 1 Holam ō | $o$ as in no | - Qames katon o | $o$ as in soft |
| 7 Shuruk $\bar{u}$ | 00 as in moon | - Kubbuts u | $u$ as in full |
| The furtive patah |  |  |  |
| All vowels are p | nced as if the | low the conso | which they are |
| ascribed, with the exception of final ${ }^{\text {n }}$, which is pronounced not ha, but ah. |  |  |  |

The shwa

Sometimes shwa represents the sound of the first $e$ in believe; e.g., yoma); it may be transliterated 0 . At other times it is not pronounced, as in (avrom), so that a consonant cluster results. Also, shwa is written, according to certain rules for writing Hebrew, before the points for $a, e$, and $o$ to represent $\bar{\because}$, and $\bar{\mp}$ are transliterated $\check{a}, \check{\varepsilon}$, and $\delta$, respectively.

Punctuation and accentuation

Although the principles and marks of punctuation in modern Hebrew are, in the main, as in English, Scriptural Hebrew employs, in addition to the vowel points, 21 accent marks, which are placed either singly or in various combinations above or below the consonantal characters they modify. These have a threefold object: (a) to indicate stress; (b) to direct cantillation-the chanting in which the Scriptures are intoned; and (c) to indicate distinctions in the meanings of

As marks of cantillation, accent marks are divided into two classes: disjunctives and conjunctives, the former corresponding to marks of separation in Englishthe period, semicolon, comma, etc., the latter indicating that the word bearing them is connected in sense with that which follows. The table presents the forms, names, and classifications of these accents:

Disjunctives

Conjunctives

| מַּ | 7 Darga' |
| :---: | :---: |
| วิกี่า | $\geqslant$ Merkä |
|  | 7 Merk $\bar{a}^{\prime} K^{\text {ef }}$ ūlāh |

There are also three supplementary marks of interpunction: The soph-pasuk (:), terminal mark of a verse; the pesik (|), for a pause within the verse; and makkeph $(-)$, the elevated hyphen between words.

Syllabification

Words in modern Hebrew may be divided between syllables of three or more letters.

The calendar

The Hebrew calendar was given its present fixed form by Hillel II about A.D. 360 . It is based on a year of 12 months, alternating 30 and 29 days, with an intercalary month of 29 days in leap year. These months, with their corresponding periods in the Gregorian calendar, are as follows:

The year begins on the first day of the month of Tishri, which is the day of the Molad, or appearance of the new moon, nearest the autumnal equinox. The actual date is, however, sometimes shifted 1 or 2 days, according to specific regulations; thus, New Year may not fall on either a Friday or a Sunday, since that would conflict with the observance of the Sabbath; nor, for a like reason, may it come on a Wednesday, since that would cause Atonement Day to come on a Friday.

To convert a given year (anno Domini) into its corresponding Hebrew year (anno mundi), add 3,760 to the former, bearing in mind, however, that the year begins in September. As the Hebrew calendar omits the thousands, the year 5705, corresponding to the Christian year 1945, is represented in Hebrew characters by $i \pi n, 705$, these characters, as already explained, denoting 400 , 300 , and 5 , respectively.

The days of the week are referred to as first day, second day, etc., the seventh being called Sabbath ( $n \geq \boxtimes)$. The holidays, festivals, and fasts, with their dates, are as follows:

| Hashana (Now | ה |
| :---: | :---: |
| Tsom Gedaliah (Fast of Gedaliah, Tishri 3) | צום גדידיה |
| Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement, Tishri 10) | 711 |

| Shabuoth (Feast of Weeks, Sivan 6) | פבועות |
| Tishah be-Av (Fast of Av, Av 9) | 2xะ ลบต |

Abbreviations

In Hebrew, abbreviations are set as follows: If of one letter, one prime mark (') is used after the letter; if of more than one letter, a double prime (') is used just before the last letter. Vowel points are always omitted. The abbreviations most frequently used are as follows:

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, \dot{a}, e, \dot{e}, i, i, o, b, \vec{o}, b, u, u, u, u$, and $u$; the remaining letters of the alphabet are consonants.

The vowels $\dot{a}, \dot{e}, \dot{\imath}, o ́, o b, u ́$, and $u$ are long; the other vowels are short. Double consonants are pronounced long, somewhat in the manner of $n(k) n$ in penknife. When doubled, $c s, g y, l y, n y, s z, t y$, and $z s$ are written $c c s, g g y, l l y, n n y, s s z, t t y$, and $2 z \mathrm{~s}$.

The combination $q u$ is pronounced $k v ; w$ is usually pronounced $v ; x$ is pronounced as though written $k s z$. The letter $y$ in many family names is pronounced as though written $i$.

Diphthongs

Standard Hungarian has no diphthongs. Each vowel is fully articulated.

Compound letters

The compound letters and their sounds are:
$c h$ as $c h$ in church (old spelling and foreign words as technika, mechánika) cs (see Alphabet and pronunciation)
$c z$ now written $c$, like ts
$d z$ as $d$ followed by $z$ (see Alphabet and pronunciation)
$d z s$ as $j$ in judge (see Alphabet and pronunciation)
$g h$ as $g$ in go (old spelling)

Main rules for syllabification

1. Every word consists of as many syllables as the number of vowels in it. Consonants alone do not constitute syllables: $f-a-i$, ro-ko-na-ink, $a-m e-r i-k a-i$, ma-gyar, ki-alt.
2. Vowels which constitute syllables in themselves may be left at the end of the line or transferred to the next line: dia-dal or di-adal, fia-tal or fi-atal, hia-ba or hi-aba. The same rule applies to the division of derivative forms: arui-bol or aru-iboll, könyvei-tek or könyve-itek.
3. However, it is not customary to leave one letter at the end of the line or to bring one over to the next: aka-rat (not a-karat), ha-zai (not haza-i).
4. If there is only one consonant between two vowels it is attached to the second syllable: a-dok, pa-pir, ko-sár.
5. Double letters indicative of long consonants between two vowels are divided: filletr, ket-to'; єm-ber-rel, viz-zel, szeb-be, job-bat, hit-tem, tol-las, sok-kal.
6. Compound letters may not be divided; they are treated as single (short) consonants: asz-tal, mor-zsa, tarisz-nya, ar-chivum; kin-cses, ma-zsas, almana-chot.
7. Divided double compound letters representing long consonants (such as ccs, ggy, lly, nny, ssz, tty for cscs, gygy, lyly, nyny, szsz, tyty) are repeated in full forms: hosz-szui (from: hosszû), fagy-gyu (from: faggyû), haty-tyú (from: hattyû).
8. The compound consonants $d z$ and $d z s$ are separated as follows: (a) when a consonant appears before them: brin-dza (from: brindza), lan-dzsa (from: landzsa); (b) when a vowel appears before them: mad-zag (from: madzag), maharad-zza (from: maharadzsa).
9. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant (including compound letters): ab-rak, al-szik; temp-lom, lajst-rom; nyolc-kor, part-ra, rend-ben; sakk-ban, rossz-ra; kard-dal, kulcs-csal, rongy-gya.
10. Compound words are divided according to their formative elements: vas-üt, kert-ajtó, rend-ör, csak-is; egyszer-egy, kis-ásszony, tölgy-erdb, rozs-szalma. The same applies to derivatives of compound words: vas-ütas, rend-öri, kisasszonynak.
11. The same rule applies to certain nominal and adverbial prefixes (originally separate words) which are kept intact, such as: al, ala, at, el, elé, elð̈l, fel, fenn (fent), hâtra, ki, kinn (kint), leg, meg, össze, szett, túl, viszont, in words like al-elnök, at-adas, fel-adat, ki-esés, leg-els ${ }^{\circ}$, meg-ette, össze-iras.
12. Frequently used foreign words are divided as the original stock of the Hungarian vocabulary: ar-zen, elekt-romos, gra-fikon. The same applies to compound foreign words of wide acceptance in which the etymological boundaries between the components may not be apparent for the general Hungarian speaker: de-magog, demok-racia, inf-luenza, inst-ruktor, mo-narchia, prog-ram, ref-lex. But: extra-profit, kilo-gramm, melo-drama.
13. Last syllables of the Hungarian derivatives of foreign words are divided according to the rules of Hungarian syllabification: eminen-sek, helikopte-ren, extrapofi-tert, heliocentriku-san, refle-xek.
14. Infrequently used foreign words and components of foreign words are divided according to their respective conventions: dia-fragma, bif-sztek, champi-gnon.
15. Not compound forms of Hungarian and foreign proper names, including family names, are divided according to the rules of Hungarian syllabification: Köl-csey, Móricz; Schil-ler, Tolsz-toj; Bor-sod, Moszk-va; Sziny-nyei (from: Szinnyei), Berety-tyo (from: Berettyo), Megy-gyes (from: Meggyes). The same applies to derivatives of proper names: Balo-ghot (but Ba-logh), Gorki-jig (but Gor-kij), Budapes-ti or budapes-ti (but Buda-pest), Regensbur-gig (but Regensburg) : Kovacs-csal (from: Kovaccsal), Wass-sal (from: Wassal), Végh-gel (from: Véghel), György-gyel (from: Györggyel), Grimm-mel (from: Grimmel).
16. Since $c h$ and $x$ are regarded as symbols for short (single) consonants, they are treated in syllabification of foreign words as single letters: Mün-chen, Ri-chard, $M e-x i k 6, X e r-x e s$. The same applies to syllables in derivatives beginning with these letters: Züri-chig, Feli-xet; but Felix-szel (from: Felixszel).

Stress and diacritics

Without exception, stress is on the first syllable. Diacritical marks (see Special characters) are used to denote vowel modifications.

Capitalization

1. Forms of address in letters, etc., and titles are capitalized: Felséges Uram (Your Majesty) ; Meltóságod (Your Lordship) ; Tisztelt Uram (Dear Sir).
2. Proper names and those referring to God are capitalized.
3. Adjectives formed from proper names and names of months are lowercased: budapesti (of Budapest) ; januar, március, szeptember (January, March, September).
4. Titles of newspapers and periodicals (with the exception of definite and indefinite articles and the conjunction if they appear beyond the first word in such a titie) are capitalized: Acta Linguistica, Elet es Tudomany, Magyar Nemzet, Orvosi Hetilap, Történelmi Szemle.
5. Titles of scientific handbooks, dictionaries, encyclopedias, linguistic monuments or other unique publications are capitalized: Magyar Szofejt8 Szotar, Revai Nagy Lexikona, Halotti Beszed, Jokai Kbdex, Toldi Szerelme.

But titles of poems, books, and monographic series are capitalized generally only by capitalization of the first letter of the title: Nemzeti dal, A magyar vers ritmusa, Ember és világ.
6. Personal pronouns (second and third persons singular and plural and their declinative forms) are capitalized in correspondence and public addresses: $T e$, Ön; Ti, Önök; Téged, Önt; Titeket, Önöket.
7. Names of nations, ethnic groups, ethnolinguistic, and religious units are lowercased: amerikai (American); eszt (Estonian); magyar (Hungarian); olasz (Italian) ; szâsz (Saxonian); szêkely (Székely, Siculian); indián (Indian); néger (Negro) ; germán (Germanic) ; román (Romance, also Rumanian); szláv (Slavic); buddhista (Buddhist); romai katolikus (Roman Catholic); református (Reformed); zsid6 (Jewish).

Punctuation

The most important differences are as follows:

1. Period is used in dates after numbers, indicating the year, the month, and the day (in that order) : 1848. III. 15; the same date may be written as follows: 1848. marcius 15. or 1848. marc. 15.
2. Period is used generally after the ordinal numbers when indicating a position of somebody or something in a set or line: 12. törvenycikk (Law Article XII); 1956. Evi (of the year of 1956) ; IX. kerület (IXth district).
3. Period is used after the number of pages in a source referred to when the absence of a period could become the source of confusion: Petöfi összes muvei V. $k$. 24 (Pet0fi's All Works, volume V, [page] 24); but Petöf összes mưvei V. k. 24. (Pet0fi's All Works, volume V, page 24; i.e., 24 th page), because the number 24 without a period would mean that volume 5 contains only 24 pages.
4. Period is used after most of the abbreviations (see Abbreviations).
5. In compound and complex sentences each sentence is separated by a comma; accordingly, the conjunction hogy (that), de (but), hanem (but), and the relative pronouns, when linking a subordinate clause, are preceded by a comma.
6. Hungarian equivalents of inserted words such as however, indeed, too, therefore, are not placed between commas (as is the case in English) unless there is another reason for doing so.
7. Speech is not separated by a comma but by a dash.
8. In correspondence, salutation is not separated by a comma but by an exclamation mark.
9. The colon is used in the front of a quotation which is preceded by a quoting sentence or reference.
10. The colon is used in the front of the title of a work when listed after the author's name: Arany: Toldi; Vörösmarty: Csongor es Tünde. In the context of a sentence, however, the colon is omitted: Arany Toldijanak iteltek a dijat.; (The prize was given to the "Toldi"' by Arany). Mikszáth "Különös házasság" cimul regenyebbl filmet készitettek. (A motion picture was made from the novel "A Peculiar Marriage"' by Mikszáth.)
11. The colon introduces an enumeration: Harman ullek a kocsiban: az apa, az anya es a fiú. (There were three sitting in the car, the father, the mother, and the son.)
12. In works of belles lettres (novels, short stories, etc.) the dialog is written in alternating lines with a dash in the front of each sentence:
-Maguk hova mennek? (Where are you going?)
-Budapestre. (To Budapest)
-Mikor indulnak? (When are you leaving?)
-Amikor akarja. (Any time you wish)
13. A sentence, interjected in the context of another, is separated by the dash: "Nem hagyta cselédit-ezêrt öli bú-vele halni meg, ócska ruhába'!" ("He could not suffer, that was his deep concern, to let his servants die with him in worn-out clothes!'")
14. Words or phrases which appear (as explanations to certain elements in the sentence) within the context of the sentence are put in parentheses: A szofajoknak (beszedrészeknek) többfele csoportositása leketséges. (There are more possibilities for the grouping of the types of words; i.e., the parts of speech.)
15. If the parenthesized words or phrases appear at the end of that part of a compound or complex sentence which is separated from the rest by a comma, the comma is used after the closing half of the parenthesis: Vannak olyan szavaink (pl. fagy, les, nyom stb.), amelyek igek is, nevszok is. (We have words like frost, watch, print, etc., which are used as verbs as well as nouns.)
16. In Hungarian, the initial half of the quotation mark appears on the lower level, the conclusive half on the upper level of a line: ,, . . . . ."

The quotation within a quotation is indicated by the so-called 'inner quotation mark' which is: >>. . . . . .<<

Word order

1. Surname is given first, followed by Christian name: Nagy Janos (John Nagy).

The same applies to statements regarding authorship, etc.: Szerkesztette: Nagy Janos (Edited by John Nagy). Irtak: Kovács Pal és Szabo Jozsef (By Paul Kovács and Joseph Szab6).
2. Words denoting profession or used in addressing a person (with full name) follow the Christian name: Nagy Janos tanar (Prof. John Nagy), or the last name (when the Christian name is not indicated): Kovacs muvesz ür (The artist Mr. Kovács).
3. The word order in a date is the reverse of that in English; first comes the year, then the month, and at the end the day: 18.48. március tizenötödike (March 15 of 1848); január elseje (the first of January).

ITALIAN

Un tratto importante, che caratterizza il grande movimento della civiltà italiana risorgente e che risulta, non pure dalla poesia e filosofia di quel tempo, ma anche dall'opera dei politici e degli stessi guerrieri, è quell'impronta diffusa di umanità, in cui si avvolge come in una rosea nube il loro pensiero e la loro vita, pur diretti come sono ad un unico ideale: il risorgimento della Patria.-Giovanni Vidari, Le civiltà d'Italia (1934), as quoted by Young and Cantarella, Corso d'Italiano (1942), p. 320.

Alphabet and pronunciation

| A |  | $a$ in far |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| B | b | $b$; all consonant letters may be doubled, and then pronounced long, as $n(k) n$ in penknife, etc. |
| C | c | $c$ in scan ( $=k$ ) before $a, o, u$, and consonants; before $e$ or $i$, similar to ch in chant; cia, cie, cio, and ciu pronounced as cha in chart, che in check or cha in chafe, cho in chortle, and chu in Manchu, respectively; ccia, etc., sound like tch, etc.; scia, scie, scio, and sciu pronounced as sha in sharp, she in shepherd, sho in show, and sho in shoe, respectively |
| D | d |  |
| E |  | $a$ in grate; $e$ in bell |
|  | f |  |
| G | g | $g$ in gay before $a, o, u$, and consonants; before $e$ or $i$ like $j$ gia, gie, gio, and giu pronounced as $j a$ in jar, $j e$ in jet between ja in jaw and jo in joke, and ju in jury, respectively; ggia, etc., sound like $d$ plus $j a$, etc. |
| H | h | silent, but makes a preceding $c$ or $g$ hard |
| I | i | $e$ in me; $i$ preceded by $c, s c$, or $g$ and followed by $a, o$, or $u$ is silent unless stressed; before or after more highly stressed vowel, $i$ is similar to $y$ in yes and in boy, respectively |
|  |  | $y$ in yes; now obsolete and replaced by |
| K | k | $k$; only in foreign words |
| L | 1 | $l$ in million |
| M | m | $m$ |
| N | n | $n$ |
| 0 | 0 | $o$ in note; $a w$ in saw |
| P | p | $p$ in spin |
| Q | q | always with following $u$; $q u$ pronounced as in quick |
| R | r | $r$ in three |
| S | s | $s$; usually $z$ between two vowels; scia, scie, scio, and sciu are pronounced sha, she, sho, and shu, respectively |
| T |  | $t$ in step | similar to $w$ in wet and how, respectively

Special characters
Italian uses the Latin alphabet. It has no special characters; accents are employed only to a limited extent.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u$, and $y$; the other letters of the alphabet are consonants.

Diphthongs

The combination of an $i$ or $u$ with another, more highly stressed, vowel may be regarded as diphthongal.

Digraphs

The digraphs and their sounds are:
ch as $c$ in cat only before $e, i$ gh as $g$ in go only before $e, i$
$g l$ as $l l$ in million ${ }^{1}$
$g n$ as in cognac ( $=n y$ in canyon)
$q u$ as in squalor sc as sh in shall (before $e$ or $i$ )

Consonantal units

For the purpose of syllabification, a mute consonant followed by a liquid consonant is a consonantal unit. Hence, the following are consonantal units:

| $b l, b r$ | $d r$ | $g l, g r$ | $t l, t r$ |

Also the combination of the letter $\varepsilon$ with any other following consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit is a unit for purposes of syllabification.

Rules for syllabification

1. Digraphs and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel before a single consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: ami-co, ba-gno, ca-pra, giu-sto, ma-schera, ro-stro.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: sab-bia, ac-qua, ist-mo, an-che, com-pro.
4. Division may be made between vowels only if they are strong, that is, $a, e, o$. Hence, only the following vowel groups may be divided: $a a, a e, a o ; e a, e e, e o$; oa, oe, oo: be-ato, co-atto, po-eta, etc.
5. Prefixes are kept intact only if this conforms to rules 2 to 4: con-stare (rule 3), pro-emio (rule 4), pro-getto (rule 2), sub-marino (rule 3); but co-nestabile (rule 2), proi-bire (rule 2), su-bordinare (rule 2). ${ }^{2}$
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5 ): gentil-uomo, cento-uno.

If a compound is formed with an apostrophe, division may not be made on the apostrophe; thus dell'albero, un'arte, dovrebb'essere may be divided only del-l'al-be-ro, un'ar-te, do-vreb-b'es-se-re, respectively. A compound may be divided also by making use of the full article or word: dello albero, dovrebbe essere.
7. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: Wash-ington, Haps-burg, Hamp-shire, reichs-bank, Wag-ner.

Stress and diacritics

No simple rules can be formulated for word stress in Italian. The majority of words receive their stress on the penultimate (next to the last) syllable: aMIco, comPLEto; fewer words are stressed on the antepenultimate (third from the last) syllable: FABrico, gramMAtica; only a limited number are stressed on the ultimate (last) syllable, but in this case the vowel carries the grave accent: cit TTA fabbriCO.
$\mathcal{F}$ Accent marks are used only to a limited degree-chiefly to indicate a final stressed syllable. Generally a grave (') is used when the final vowel is open and an acute (') is used when that vowel is closed. Word types illustrating these usages are:
(a) Nouns ending in ta or tu having the singular and plural alike: libertà, virtu (from the Latin libertade, virtude, etc.).
(b) Verbs in the third person singular past absolute and first and third persons singular future: comprò (he bought), comprerò (I shall buy), comprerà (he will buy); similarly in the second and third conjugations: vendé, venderò, venderà; fini, finirò, finirà.
(c) Homonyms. The most common of these homonyms are:

| che, because | che, that | $n e$, neither, nor | ne, of it, of them |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| cold, there | cola, strainer | pie, foot | pie, pious |
| costd, there | costa, shore | per, therefore | pero, pear tree |
| da, gives | da, by, from, to | se, himself | se, if |
| di, day | di, of | si, yes | si, himself, one |
| e, is | $e$, and | lte, tea, | te, thee |
| $l d$, there | la, the, her | teste, just now | teste, heads |
| $l i$, there | $l i$, the, them |  |  |

(d) Monosyllables terminating in two vowels, to indicate that the preceding vowel is shortened: ciò, già, giú, piú, può, quà.
(e) Terminations $i a$ and $i o$ in which the $i$ is to be stressed: magia, desio.

The acute is used by some editors to distinguish words differently stressed, where otherwise a misunderstanding might arise: malvágia (wicked), malvagia (malmsey, a wine). This use is rare.

The circumflex is used to indicate contraction: cacciar (for cacciarono), ginnasf (for ginnasii). This use is rare.

The dieresis (trema) is used in poetry over the $i$ to indicate that it is to be sounded separately from a following vowel: armonïoso (pronounced armoni-oso, instead of armonio-so). This use is rare.

Capitalization

Capitalization in Italian is similar to that in English, with a few exceptions:
(a) Proper adjectives are lowercased: la lingua italiana, the Italian language, but gl'Italiani, the Italians (proper noun).
(b) Tine names of days and months are lowercased.
(c) Titles followed by name are lowercased: il signor Donati, Mr. Donati; il principe Umberto, Prince Umberto.
(d) The pronoun io, $I$, is lowercased, but the pronouns of formal address, Ella, Lei, Loro, all meaning you, are sometimes capitalized. These pronouns, however, in modern Italian usage, and Lei in particular, are not capitalized in a written text except for that of a letter, and a formal one at that. Ella is often capitalized in poetry.
(e) In poetry, the first word of each line is usually lowercased.

Punctuation

Punctuation is similar to that of English. The comma is used to point off all clauses, restrictive as well as descriptive. Commas are not used, however, with the conjunction $e$ in a series of several words. The apostrophe is used to indicate vowel elision only: un'opera d'arte (for una opera di arte), sopra 'l letto (for sopra il letto). The space after the apostrophe is no longer required.

Quotation marks:

Used less often than in English.
In the text of a dialog they are often substituted by a new paragraph for each speech, sometimes preceded by a long dash.

Titles of books, poems, and articles are usually entered in quotation marks in a text. Titles of books are sometimes entered in italic, and periodicals, more often than books, are also entered in italic in a text.
[No authority specifically stating this found. However, the use of quotation marks as stated above can be seen in Hall's text. In any Italian text or newspaper the above use of italic can also be observed.]

| M | m | $m$ | Y | y | $e e ; i$ as for $i$ |
| N | n | $n$ | Z | z | $z$ |

Consonants

Formerly $u$ and $v$ were written with $v$, and $i$ and $j$ with $i$. Modern texts customarily distinguish both pairs. Thus: uva, visu, janua, Jove.
$K, z$, and $y$ are rather rare, occurring mostly in loanwords. $Q$ is used only in the combination $q u$, pronounced $k w$.

The digraphs $c h, p h$, and $t h$ are pronounced as $k, f$, and $t$, respectively.

Vowels

Each of the five vowels is either long or short in each occurrence, and an accurate pronunciation will reflect this difference. Elementary texts usually mark the long vowels with a macron; thus: $\bar{a}, \bar{e}, \bar{i}, \bar{o}, \bar{u}$.

Diphthongs

Two short vowels may occur together in the same syllable, in which case the second of the two is a semivowel; i.e., $u$ as the second element of a diphthong is pronounced like $w$, and $i$ or $e$ in this position is pronounced like $y$. The commonest diphthongs are $a e$ and $a u$, pronounced to rhyme with high and how. Less common are ei (as in vein), eu, oe (as oi in oil), and ui.

The following combinations are referred to as consonant clusters in the rules given below for syllabification: $b l, b r, c l, c r, d r, f l, f r, g l, g r, p l, p r, t l, t r, s c r, s t r$, spl, spr.

The digraphs $c h, p h$, and $t h$ are treated just like $c, f$, and $t$ in consonant clusters.

[^70]
Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonant clusters may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonant cluster: ca-sus, si-pho, pa-tres, cae-lum.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonant cluster: vit-ta, mag-nus, punc-tus, bac-chor, am-plus.
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong: pu-er, di-es, fili-us, Tro-ius.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: $a b$, ante, circum, cis, con, de, ex, extra, in, inter, intro, ob, per, prae, praeter, per, post, pro(d), propter, re(d), sub, super, supra, and trans: ab-eo, con-scriptum, inter-esse.
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): quot-annis, et-enim, sic-ut.
7. The letter $x$ is retained with the preceding syllable: dix-it.

Note.-The above rules do not apply to anglicized Latin scientific names used in English works. Their syllabification follows the English practice.

Stress

Words of two syllables are always stressed on the first syllable: ROma, LIber.
In words of more than two syllables, the stress is on the next to the last syllable if that syllable ends in a consonant, a long vowel, or a diphthong. Otherwise the stress is on the third from the last syllable. Thus: ho-NO-ris, CON-su-lis.

Norway has two official languages, bokmål and nynorsk. The designations for these languages derive from an act of legislation of 1929. Before that time the languages were known as riksmål and landsmål, respectively. The term riksmål is still used unofficially in Norway today. Bokmål, also known in the past as Dano-Norwegian, was originally a written language acquired from Denmark during the centuries the two nations were united (1397 to 1814). It differed in many ways from the speech of the Norwegian people, and in its written form was almost identical with Danish until 1907. Since then there have been a number of language reforms-including major ones in 1907, 1918, 1938, and 1959-promulgated by the Storting, the Norwegian Parliament, for the purpose of making the orthography correspond more closely with the spoken language. These changes were binding only for government officials and schoolbooks. Private individuals and publishers have been free to use the new systems or not, as they have seen fit. As a consequence there exists a variety of styles in the literature of the 20th century.

The other official language, nynorsk, is a synthetic language based on rural Norwegian dialects and originating in the 1850's. Since that time, it has also undergone a number of official reforms as well as changes in name. While its official status is equal to that of bokmål, nynorsk enjoys less popularity and is used with less frequency than bokmål. Approximately 85 percent of the works published in Norway are in bokmål, and the percentage of the population using nynorsk has been estimated at approximately 22 percent.

The two languages, and their dialects, are in any event very similar, and in their struggle for supremacy are constantly influencing each other. The result may in the end be a single "compromise" language.

Ho wever that may be, the linguistic situation in Norway, both in its written and spoken aspects, is very much in a state of flux, and it is particularly difficult to make clear-cut statements about it.

Special characters

Norwegian uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of three special charac-ters-the last three shown in the alphabet.

The letters $c, q, w, x$, and $z$ are now used only in foreign words and proper names. Even in popular words of foreign origin they are preferably avoided by substituting $k$ or $s$ for $c, k v$ for $q u, v$ for $w, k$ for $x$, and $s$ for $z$.

Fraktur type (German text) was abolished officially in 1907, and is now scarcely in use anywhere.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u, y, x, \phi$, and $a$; the so-called back vowels being $a, o$, $u$, and $d$; the front vowels $e, i, y, \not x$, and $\phi$. The other letters of the alphabet are all consonants.

Combinations of vowel letters (diphthongs)

The diphthongs and their sounds are as follows:
$a i$ as $a i$ in aisle
$a u$ as ou in our ei as $e i$ in weigh $o i$ in foreign words), as oi in boil
$\phi y$ (formerly written $\phi i$ ), like Norwegian $\phi$ followed by slight sound of Norwegian $y$, the two being sounded as one syllable

Combinations of consonantal letters (digraphs)

The digraphs and their sounds are:
ch (in foreign words), as sh in shall or ch in chorus
${ }^{g j}$ as $y$ in yes
$h j$
$h v$ $k j$ lj
$n g$
$p h$ (in foreign words; obsolete)
ps (in foreign words)
$q v$ (also written $q u$; in foreign words, obsolete)
eu (in foreign words), like Norwegian æ followed by slight sound of Norwegian $u$, the two being sounded as one syllable ou (in foreign words), like Norwegian $u$

Consonantal units

For purposes of syllabification, consonant combinations are treated as units. In addition to the digraphs, the following are also consonantal units: $k v$, $s k j$, $s p, s p r, s t, s t r$.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: ale-ne, hvi-ske, hu-stru, bei-ning.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: af-ten, dan-ske, sek-sten, tjenst-lig, blom-ster.
4. Division may be made between two vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: fri-er, lei-er.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: ad, an, av, bak, be, bi, bort, efter, er, for, fra, frem, ge, in, inn (formerly ind), med, mis, ned, om, opp (formerly op), over, $p d$ (formerly $p a a$ ), til, under, unn (formerly und), ut, ute, and ved: ad-splitte, an-bringe, av-klipp, bak-slag, etc.
6. Certain suffixes are kept intact. These are: aktig (agtig), artet, asje, het (hed), inne (inde): barn-agtig, god-artet, lekk-asje, matt-het, vert-inne.
7. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 6 ), the compounding $s$, if used, going with the preceding component: aften-avis, aften-blad, aftens-tid.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: pa-triot, anti-kvar, inter-esse, mid-shipman. Under this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: me-trisk, hemi-tropi, dia-gnose.

Stress and diacritics

Most words are stressed on the first syllable, except when they begin with a prefix such as $b e$-, er-, for-, ge-, in which case the syllable following the prefix is stressed. Words borrowed from French are usually stressed on the last or next to last syllable. In compound words, the first component receives the primary stress, the second receives secondary stress.

In stressed syllables, vowels are long before one consonant or none, but short before two consonants or more. However, the letter $m$ is never doubled at the end of a word, even though it nearly always follows a short vowel. Some words which usually occur unstressed in the sentence are written with only one consonant following the short vowel. The addition of an ending beginning with a consonant usually, but not always, makes the vowel short. Under such conditions, a long vowel may stand before two or more consonants.

Norwegian words of one syllable when pronounced in isolation or in accented positions in a sentence, and is one of the syllables of longer words, are spoken with a stress or loudness accompanied by pitch. The pitch is raised in monosyllables and in many longer words. Other words of more than one syllable have a pitch on the accented syllable that falls and then rises again on the next syllable. It is not possible to tell from the spelling which pitch-stress combination is to be used.

Consonants when written double are always pronounced long; compare with the long $d$ in English midday.

With the exception of $\dot{d}$ (sometimes replaced by $a a$ ), $\ddot{a}$ (variant for $\mathfrak{x}$ ), $\ddot{0}$ (variant for $\phi$ ), diacritics are used only in foreign loanwords and in certain proper names.

Capitalization

Capitalization is now as in English, except that the polite personal pronouns De, Dem, and Deres are capitalized, but proper adjectives and the names of the months and the days of the week are lowercased. A capital is not required to begin a new line of poetry, and only the first word of titles is capitalized.

Previously, Norwegian followed the German custom of capitalizing all words that functioned as nouns.

Punctuation

Punctuation is very much like that of English. Norwegian used to punctuate like German, with commas before every clause, but the tendency is away from that now. A comma is not used before the word og in an enumeration (A, B, C og D), but is often used where English would have a semicolon or a period. Sometimes commas are used instead of periods for decimals: 10,6. Commas are not used between thousands: 1000000 .

Special characters

Polish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the following special somewhat similar characters frequently confused: $\dot{Z} \dot{Z}, \delta \dot{z}$, and $t t$.

Vowels and consonants

The vowel letters are $a, q, e, \varepsilon, i, o, b, u$, and $y$. The remaining letters of the alphabet are consonant letters.

Diphthongs

The sequences of $i$ or $j$ followed by one of the vowel letters may be called diphthongs, as are the sequences of a vowel followed by $j$ : ia, ja, iq, jq, ie. je.
 are not found initially or after a vowel.

Digraphs

The digraphs are: ch. $c z, d z, d \dot{z}, d \dot{z}, r z, s z, s z c z$ and $s f$. Their sounds are shown in the alphabet table.

Consonantal units

The following groups of consonants are for purposes of syllabification treated as units:

| $b l, b l, b r, b r z$ | $p l, p l, p r, p r z$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| $c h l, c h l, c h r, c h r z, c h w$ | $s c, s k, s k r, s k r z, s m, s p, s p r, s p r z, s t$, |
| $d l, d l, d r, d r z, d w$ | $t l, s t r, s t r z, s t w$ |
| $f_{l}, f r$ |  |
| $g l, g l, g r, g r z, g w$ | $w l, w l, w r, w r z$ |
| $k l, k l, k r, k r z, k w$ |  |

Rules for syllabification ${ }^{1}$

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, consonantal units, and one-syllable words may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: uli-ca, mię-so, ko-chać, je-szcze, do-bry, do-brze, bli-sko, ko-me-dia, we-grzyn.
3. In a group of two or more consonants the division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: les-ny, lek-ko, lep-szy, pant-stwo, maj-ster, pierw-szy.
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: po-ić, po-ema, oce-an, ma-jor.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: bez, do, na, nad(e), naj, ni, nie, o, ob(e), od(e), po, pod(e), poza, prze, przed(e), przy, roz(e), spol, $u$, $w y, z a$, and $z e$ : bez-interesowny, do-slać, na-slać, nad-inspektor, nade-slac, ni-gdzie, nie-krwawy, etc.
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): kraj-ohraz, krótko-trwaly.
7. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: golf-sztrom, foks-trot, kop-sztyk, superarbiter. This rule applies also to technical and scientific terms, which editors prefer to divide etymologically: san-gwinik, dia-gnostyka, strato-sfera, hiper-mnezja.

Stress and diacritics

Stress is usually on the penultimate (next to the last) syllable: MAT-ka, $g l_{\ell}-B O-k i$, spo-wo-DO-wact. In verbs of the first and second person plural past tense and in words of Latin and Greek origin the stress is on the antepenultimate (second from the last) syllable: $B Y-l i-s m y$ (we were), $B Y-l i-s c i e ~(y o u ~ w e r e), ~$ $a-r y t-M E-t y-k a, M U-z y-k a, r e-\Gamma O-r y-k a$.

The diacritical marks used are the inverted cedilla (c), to indicate the nasal sounds $q_{\varepsilon}$ and $\varepsilon$; the acute ('), to indicate the palatalization of a consonant; the stroke $(\varsigma)$, to indicate the hard $l$; and the superior $\operatorname{dot}(\cdot)$, to indicate the postpalatal $\begin{gathered}\text { z. }\end{gathered}$

Capitalization

Capitalization is practically the same as in English, except that proper adjectives are lowercased and names of days and months are lowercased. Initial caps are used in titles of periodicals.

Punctuation

Punctuation is practically the same as in English, except that the comma is used to mark off restrictive as well as nonrestrictive clauses.

Alphabetization

The letters $q, \dot{c}, \varepsilon, z, \sigma, s^{\prime}, \xi$, and $\dot{z}$ are regarded as separate characters and are so alphabetized. The complete alphabetic order is: $a, q, b, c, c, d, e, e, f$, $g, h, i, j, k, l, \ell, m, n, \dot{n}, o, 6, p, r, s, \xi, t, u, w, y, z, z, \dot{z}$.

PORTUGUESE

Concluindo êste ponto: há o fato da língua brasileira, que percebemos nos atritos com as diferenças, especialmente as diferenças portuguêsas, que estão mais próximas de nós. Fora dêsses atritos, nós não nos damos conta dela: vivêmo-la. E há o conflito entre ela e a formação líterogramatical que recebemos na escola e no livro de erudição. E o chamado problema da língua brasileira, em que a consciência da nacionalidade, o patriotismo político e o espírito objetivo das ciências positivas se debatem contra a rotina, a filologia, a gramática, e o diletantismo tais como se radicaram em algumas cidades brasileiras.-Herbert Parentes Fortes, A Questão da Língua Brasileira (1962?), p. 10.

Special characters

Portuguese uses the Latin alphabet, with the addition of the following special characters: the acute ( $\rho$ ), the circumflex ( ${ }^{\wedge}$ ), the grave ( $\left(\ominus\right.$ ), and the dieresis ( ${ }^{\circ}$ ).

The Portuguese system of writing vowels makes use of diacritical marks to indicate all of the vowel distinctions operant in the Portuguese language. Thus, $i, \varepsilon, \hat{e}, a, \sigma, \hat{o}$, and $u$ for the nonnasalized vowels; $\tilde{\imath}, \tilde{e}, \tilde{a}, \tilde{o}$, and $\tilde{u}$ for the nasalized vowels. The dieresis is used over the letter $u$ to indicate that the $\ddot{u}$ has the value of $w$, as in wet. The cedilla is used with the letter $\&$ to indicate the value of $s$ before $a, o$, and $u$.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e^{}, i, o^{}$, and $u$, all of which have nasalized variants. The etter $y$, which occurs only in foreign words, is treated as a vowel before a consonant, otherwise as a consonant. The other letters of the alphabet are all consonants.

Diphthongs and triphthongs

A diphthong is a combination of two vowels. This is pronounced as one syllable, the first vowel receiving the predominant sound: pai (pronounced pAi). If the second vowel, however, carries an accent mark, the two vowels do not constitute a diphthong and are pronounced separately: pais (pronounced pa-Is).

A diphthong may also be a combination of two weak vowels. In such case the first vowel receives the predominant sound and the second one is slurred over: fluido (pronounced flUido), partiu (pronounced partIu). If the second vowel, however, carries the acute mark, the two vowels do not constitute a diphthong: ruído (pronounced $\mathrm{r} u$-Ido), miúdo (pronounced mi-Udo).

In diphthongs in which the first element is stressed, the final $i$ and $e$ have the value of $y$ in boy; the final $o$ and $u$ have the value of $w$ in cow. In diphthongs where the second element is stressed, the initial $i$ and $u$ have the value of $e e$ in fee, and $u$ in Ruth; other vowels retain their normal values.

A triphthong is a combination of three vowels, the middle one of which is stressed, the others weak, and is pronounced as a single syllable, the stressed vowel receiving the predominant sound: iguais (pronounced iguAis). If one of the weak vowels, however, carries an accent mark, the vowels do not constitute a triphthong: partieis (pronounced partI-eis).

Digraphs

The digraphs and their sounds are:
ch as $s h$ in ship; in archaic forms, like $k$ in kite (archaic refers to works written before the orthographic reforms of 1942)
$g u$ as $g$ in go, only before $e, i$; $g u ̈$ before $e, i$ to indicate the sound of gw
$l h$ as $l i$ in million
$n h$ as $n y$ in canyon
$p h$ as $f$ (in the older orthography only) $q u$ as $k$ before $e, i$; before $a$ and sometimes before $o$ as $q u$ in quality ( $=k w$ ) ; qü is used before $e, i$ to indicate the sound of $k w$
$t h$ as $i$ (in the older orthography only)

[^73]
Consonantal units

For the purpose of syllabification, the following are consonantal units:

| $b l, b r$ | $d l, d r$ | $g l, g r$ | $t l, t r$ |
| $c h l, c h r, c l, c r$ | $f l, f r$ | $p l, p r$ | $v l, v r$ |

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, triphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: ba-lão, ba-nhar, ma-dre, flui-do.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: par-te, guer-ra, sump-to, per-cha, sem-pre.
4. Division between vowels is avoided. In narrow measure, however, division is admissible between two strong vowels. Hence, in the interest of good spacing, the following vowels may be divided: $a a, a e, a 0 ; e a, e e, e o ; o a, o e, o o$ (but not the nasal vowels $\tilde{a} e, \tilde{a} o$, and $\tilde{o} e$, etc.): do-ente, le-oa, po-ema.
5. According to the new orthography, only the prefix ex is kept intact, but division may be made on the other prefixes if such division conforms to rules 2 to 4 : con-socio (rule 3), in-justo (rule 3), pro-mover (rule 2), re-organizar (rule 4); but cons-tar (rule 3), ins-pirar (rule 3), pros-crever (rule 3), reü-nião (rule 2).
6. Compound words (hyphened) are divided preferably on the hyphen (and each part, according to rules 1 to 5): além-atlantico, sub-rogar.
7. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: Wash-ington, co-gnac, cre-scendo, Reichsamt. Technical and scientific terms are regarded as naturalized words and are divided according to rules 1 to 6.

Stress and diacritics

Stress in Portuguese words normally falls on the next-to-last syllable: flosofIa, punIa, punIam, louvarIas, continUo, continUe; otherwise on the last syllable: continUa. Words ending in $l, r$, and diphthongs followed or not by s: can Al entendEr, var $\tilde{A} o, v a r O_{e s,}, \operatorname{sar} A u$, arrAis.

Words contrary to the above rule have their stress marked either with an acute or a circumflex: The use of the acute indicates that the stressed vowel is open; the circumflex indicates that the stressed vowel is closed. Besides indicating that the vowel receives prominent sound, therefore, stress can also mark the opening or closing of a vowel; in either of these cases, the meaning of a word can change radically: e.g., tróco (small change), troco (I change); sabia (wise woman), sabia (he/she knew), sabiá (Brazilian bird), etc. ${ }^{2}$

Accent marks are used as mere diacritics for other purposes, as follows:
(a) The acute mark is used over the $e$ or $o$ in the stressed diphthongs $e i, e u, o i$, to indicate that the $e$ or $o$ is open; otherwise, the $e$ or $o$ is closed: $r$ és, plural of real (but reis, plural of rei), bateis, plural of batel (but bateis, second person plural of bater), sóis, plural of sol or second person singular of soer (but sois, second person plural of ser); also véu(s), chapéu(s), herбi(s), joia, giboia, etc.
(b) The acute is used over the $i$ or $u$ to indicate that the diphthong does not adhere to the normal penultimate (next-to-last) stress and that the prominent sound should be shifted to the marked vowel: puniriamos, país, saîda, saúde, baú, etc.
(c) The circumflex is used over stressed $e$ or $o$ to close the vowel and to indicate that there are other words spelled like them with the stressed $e$ or o open: rêgo (furrow), rego (first person singular of regar); rogo (request), rogo (first person singular of rogar); demos (present subjunctive of dar), demos (present indicative of dar), côrte (court), corte (cut, edge), etc.
(d) The acute and circumflex are used as in (c) on monosyllables ending in $a, ~ a s, ~ e, ~ e s, ~ o, ~ o s: ~ p \hat{a}(s), s \hat{( }(s), v \hat{( }(s), m \ell s, p \delta(s), p \delta s$ (from $p \delta r)$, etc.
(e) The acute and circumflex are used on certain words carrying sentence emphasis to distinguish them from words spelled like them but not receiving sentence emphasis: qué (interrogative), que (relative); porqué (interrogative), porque (conjunction); pôr (verb), por (preposition); pára (verb), para (preposition); pela (noun), pela (preposition), etc.
(f) The grave and circumflex are used to indicate primary stress in adverbs ending in mente: ràpidamente, somente, cortesmente (from rápido, só, cortês).
(g) The dieresis ( ${ }^{*}$ ) is used over the $u$ in $g u$, $q u$ before $e$ or $i$ to indicate that the $u$ is to be pronounced but not stressed. In other cases the $u$ in $g u$ and $q u$ before $e$ or $i$ is silent: conseqüéncia, but arguir, arguí (first person preterite), and argui (third person present).
( $h$ ) The grave is used as a marker of contractions (the preposition $a+$ a following pronoun or article): $\grave{a}$ (to the), $a$ (the); aquele (that one), àquele (to that one), etc.
(i) The tilde ( $\sim$ ) is used to indicate a nasal vowel. It is also used at times to indicate a contraction: Roiz (=Rodriguez), $\bar{q}$ (=que), sņ̃a (=sentença).

Capitalization

Capital letters are used as in English with the exception that names of months, days of the week, and proper adjectives are lowercased.

Punctuation and hyphenation

Punctuation marks are used as in English.
The apostrophe as a sign of contraction between prepositions and pronouns has practically disappeared: neste (instead of, formerly, $n$ 'este, 'nesie, or $n$-este), in this; dêsse (instead of d'ĉsse), of that; daquem (instead of d'aquém), on this side; dêle (instead of d'ele), of him, his; etc. The apostrophe is still retained, however, in proper nouns and a few compounds: S'ant' Ana, Nun' Alvares. (Note also compounds in paragraph following.)

The hyphen is employed, aside from its use in syllabification, to indicate compounds whose elements retain their phonetic independence: mãe-d'agua, reservoir; mão-d'obra, workmanship; contra-almirante, rear admiral; para-raios, lightning conductor. It is also used to set off suffixed and infixed pronouns in verb forms: dê-me, give me; dizem-no-lo, they say it to us; fa-lo-ia, I would do it; also after the monosyllabic forms of haver when followed by de and an infinitive: hei-de ler, I must read, but haviamos de ler, we had to read.

Special characters

Russian uses the Cyrillic alphabet．Many of the characters are the same as in Latin，with the following special ones：Б б，Г г，Д д，Ж ж，这 送，Л л，П п，ФФ， Ц д，Ш ш，Щ щ，Ђ ъ，Ы ы，Э э，Ю ю，and Я я．Note the following somewhat similar characters：З Э，Л П，У Ч，ІІІ Щ，з э，л п，ш щ．The Ы is a separate character and not a combination of $b$ and $I$ ．

Transliteration

This is a mechanical process of substituting the transliteration letter or com－ bination of letters for each Russian letter：Москва＝Moskva，Киев＝Kiyev， Русски $=$ Russkiy，etc．
Vowels and consonants
The vowel letters are a，е，ё，и，о，у，ы，э，ю，and я，represented，respectively， by $a, e$ or $y e, e \ddot{e}$ or $y e ̈, i, o, u, y, e, y u, y a$ ．The letters $\ddot{a}, \mathfrak{z}$ ，and ь are not called either vowels or consonants．All other letters are consonants．

Diphthongs

The sequences of a vowel followed by ${ }^{4}$ are often called diphthongs．Their sounds are： a⿺辶（ $a y$ ）$a i$ in aisle ы⿺辶（ $y y$ ）$y$ in rhythm plus $y$ in yield ein（ey，yey）ey in they，or as yea （＝yes） uй（iy）like prolonged English ee oú（oy）oy
y⿺辶（ $u y$ ）uoy in buoy as pronounced by some（oo plus $y$ ）

Digraphs

The transliterations $y e, z h, k h, t s, c h, s h, s h c h, y u, y a$ represent single Russian letters and should not be divided in syllabification．

Consonantal units

The following combinations of consonants should be treated，for syllabification purposes，as indivisible units：

| бл，бр $(b l, b r)$ | мл $(m l)$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| вл，вр $(v l, v r)$ | пл，пр $(p l, p r)$ |
| гл，гр $(g l, g r)$ | ск，скв，скр，ст，ств，стр $(s k, s k v, s k r$, |
| дв，др $(d v, d r)$ | st，stv，str） |
| жл（zhd） | тв，тр $(t v, t r)$ |
| кл，кр $(k l, k r)$ | фл，фр $(f l, f r)$ |

These simplified rules have been followed for the past 2 years by the Library of Congress Card Division．（Based on practice in Bol＇shaß sovetskaßa entsiklo－ pedâ，v．36．）
General：
1．A single letter is not separated from the rest of the word．
2．A soft or hard sign is not separated from the preceding consonant．
3．Division is made at the end of the prefix（a fill－vowel is considered part of the prefix）：со－глас－но воз－дух по－треб－ле－ние объ－ем пре－до－ста－вить．

4．In compound words，letters are not separated from the component parts of the word，and a fill－vowel goes with the preceding syllable：

> сов-хоз зем-ле-вла-де-лец

Two vowels together：
1．Division is made between the vowels：cто－ит（but：рос－сий－скии）．
One consonant between two vowels：
1．The consonant goes with the following vowel： ма－не－ры по－вы－ше－ни－ем ста－тья－ми．
Two consonants between two vowels：
1．Division is made between the consonants．（Exception：cт goes with the following vowel）：топ－ли－во управ－ле－ние ре－ак－тив－ныи биб－ли－о－те－ка Поль－ша（but：пу－скает ча－сти）．
Three or more consonants between two vowels：
1．If a consonant is doubled，division is made between the two：

искус－ство диф－фрак－ция．

2．ст is never separated．
3．Division is not made before the first nor after the last consonant．（Exception：

When ct begins the consonant group, it may be separated from the preceding vowel): мест-ность or ме-стность
4. Otherwise, division is optional: элек-три-че-ство or элект-ри-че-ство. Ан-глия or Анг-лия дент-раль-ный ог цен-траль-ный

Exceplion: The following are consistently divided as shown: марк-сизм Мо-сква

Rules for syllabification ${ }^{1}$

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: ба-гаж (ba-gazh), Ба⿺夂-кал (Bay-kal), му-ха ( $\quad$ mu-kha), рё-бра (rë-bra), каче-ство ( $k a c h e-s t v o$ ), свой-ство (svoy-stvo).
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: мас-ло (mas-lo), мас-са (mas-sa), мар-шал (mar-shal), точ-ка (toch-ka), долж-ноств (dolzh-nost'), сред-ство (sred-stvo).
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: оке-ан (oke-an), ма-як (ma-yak).
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact, except before m . These are: без (бес), во, воз (вос), вы, до, за, из (ис), ня, над, не, ни, низ (нис), о, об обо, от, ото, пере, по, под, пред(и), пред(о), при, про, раз (рас), с(о), and у. In transliteration these prefixes are respectively bez (bes), vo, voz (vos), vy, do, za, $i z(i s), n a, n a d, n e, n i, n i z(n i s), o, o b$, obo, ot, oto, pere, po, pod, pred(i), pred(o), pri, pro, raz (ras), s(o), and $u$ : без-вкусным̆ (bez-vkusnyy), бес-связь (bessvyаz'), во-круг (vo-krug), but раэ-ыскать (ra-zyskat'), etc.
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): радио-связь (radio-svyaz'), фото-снимка (fotosnimka).
7. It is to be noted that the ( $(\boldsymbol{\imath})$ always terminates a syllable: бой-кии (boy-kiy), parion (ray-on); the s (") terminates a syllable except in words beginning with въ ( $v^{\prime \prime}$ ), взъ ( $v z^{\prime \prime}$ ), and съ ( $s^{\prime \prime}$ ): отъ-ехать ( $0 t^{\prime \prime}$-yekhat') but съём-ка ( $c^{\prime \prime}$ уёт-ka), сзест-нои ( $8^{\prime \prime}$ yest-noy) ; the в (') terminates a syllable except before the soft vowels е (e), и (i), ю (yu), and я (ya): маль-чик (mal'-chik), but соло-вьев (solo-v'yev), бри-льянт (bri-l'yant). се-мья ( $s e-m^{\prime} y a$ ).
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: Шек-спир (Shek-spir), мас-шта6 (mas-shtab), Jоa-pı (Loa-ra) [not Jо-apa (Lo-ara) (from the French Loire)], се-ньор (se-n'ог).

Stress and diacritics

No simple set of rules for syllabic stress can be formulated. The only dependable guide is a native, or a dictionary in the case of basic forms and a grammar for their inflectional shiftings.

The only diacritics are the dieresis and the breve. These do not indicate stress but modification of sound. Note alphabet.

Capitalization

Capitalization is practically as in English, except that proper adjectives, names of the months (except when abbreviated), and days of the week are lowercased.

Punctuation

Punctuation is very similar to that of English, but the comma is used for restrictive as well as nonrestrictive clauses. The dash is used between a subject and a complement when there is no verb is or are, and sometimes before a clause where tiee equivalent of the conjunction that has been omitted. Dialog is usually shown by dashes rather than quotation marks. Cited material is enclosed in quotation marks, which are usually in the French form-" ", though sometimes in the German form-," ", and rarely as in English.

NOTE ON OLD SPELLING

On October 10, 1918, the Council of People's Commissars decreed the introduction of a spelling reform that had been proposed many years before but never adopted. The spelling used from that time in all official publications, except those of the Academy of Sciences (Akademiya Nauk), was this new spelling. The academy adopted the new spelling in 1924. All Russian publications, except for a few printed outside the Soviet Union, have used the new spelling since the institution of the reform.

The old spelling, found in books printed before the dates mentioned, differed in the following ways:

1. There were used the additional $i$ (in the alphabet, after $u$ and before $\kappa$, as in was not considered a separate letter), * (after b), $\theta$ (after $\boldsymbol{\text { f }}$, and r (after $\theta$ ).
2. I was used only before another vowel letter and in the word міръ, world. It is now replaced by и (міръ became мир).
3. © occurred in certain words and in some grammatical endings. It represented the same sound as $e$ and is now replaced by e everywhere. In a few cases $t$ was pronounced like $\ddot{e}$, and where $e$ is now printed with dieresis ( $\cdot \cdot$ ), the replacement of $\begin{gathered}\mathrm{t} \\ \text { is, of course, è. } \\ \text { e }\end{gathered}$
4. $\theta$ was used in words of Greek origin, for Greek $\theta$ (th). It was pronounced $f$, and is now replaced by $f$.
5. V was used in a few ecclesiastical words, for Greek $v(u, y)$. It was pronounced like $n$, and is replaced by that letter.
6. 万 was used at the end of all words after a consonant not followed by b. In this position thas simply been omitted since the reform. For some years after 1918, some publishers omitted r altogether, using an apostrophe for it after prefixes, but the use of the apostrophe is now discouraged, and r is used.
7. The prefixes из, воз, вз, раз, низ, без, чрез, через were written with final з everywhere, whereas now they are written ис, вос, etc., before к, п, с, т, х, ц, ч, II, Ф, ㅍ.
8. Some adjective endings in the genitive singular were written -aro, -яro; these were replaced by -ого, -его.
9. The plural nominative of adjectives agreeing with feminine and neuter nouns was written-ыя, -ія; these endings were replaced by -ые, -ие, which had formerly been used only for adjectives agreeing with masculine nouns.
10. The pronoun "they" in referring to the feminine gender was written он屯; this was replaced by они, previously used only for masculine reference.
11. Similarly, однћ, однћх, одньми were replaced by одни, одних, одними.
12. The genitive pronoun "her" was written es; this was replaced by eë, formerly used only as accusative.
13. # was printed only in schoolbooks.

SPANISH

No hay que decir que la consideración que reclama el aspecto fonológico del lenguaje no viene a disminuir el interés del estudio fonético, indispensable, por su parte, para seguir la transformación de los vocablos, para conocer las tendencias que dominan en la evolución del idioma, para la comparación de los dialectos y para la determinación de las zonas y áreas de la geografía lingüistica.Tomás Navarro, Estudios de fonología española, p. 10.

Special characters

Spanish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the characters $\bar{N} \tilde{n}$. Note that $c h, l l$, and $r r$ are regarded as separate units; i.e., words beginning with $c h$ will be entered in the dictionary after words beginning with $c z$, not between the groups of words beginning with $c e$ and $c i$. The acute accent appears very frequently over one of the vowel letters in a word. The dieresis appears occasionally over $u$ following $g$; its occurrence elsewhere is so rare as to be negligible.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u$, and sometimes $y$. The other letters are consonants. The letter $y$ is a consonant at the beginning of a word (before a vowel) and between two vowels.

Combinations of vowel letters (diphthongs and triphthongs)

The vowel $i$ or $u$ preceding $a, e, z, o, u$, or following $a, e, o$, is pronounced as a single syllable with the preceding or following vowel; if the diphthong occurs in a syllable which needs an accent mark (see Stress and diacritics), the acute accent is placed over the vowel other than $i$ or $u$. The diphthongs are:

| $a i$ | $e i$ | oi |  | ai | ei | bi |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| $a u$ | eu | Or |  | au | eu | \%u |  |
| $i a$ | ie | io | iu | ia | ie | io | iu |
| ua | ue | uo | $u i$ | uá | ué | u6 | $u$ |

At the end of a word and in one-syllable words, ay, ey, oy replace the diphthongs ending in $i$.

Sequences of vowel letters which are not diphthongs, and which may be divided, are those in which $\{$ or $u$ precedes or follows another vowel: ai, $e\{$, oi,

Spanish also has triphthongs. A triphthong is a combination of three vowels, the middle one of which is stressed, the others unstressed; the combination is pronounced as a single syllable. The triphthongs are:

| iai | iei | ioi | iui | uai | uei | uoi |  |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| iau | ieu | iou |  | uau | ueu | uou | uiu |

If the $i$ or $u$ at the beginning or the end of a sequence of three vowel letters has an acute accent, it is not part of a triphthong, and division may be made accordingly; e. g., $\imath-a i, u a-u$, $u$-oi.

Combinations of consonant letters (digraphs)

The digraphs are $c h, l l$, and $r r$.

Consonantal units

In Spanish certain consonants followed by $l$ or $r$ are pronounced in the same syllable with the following vowel. These consonant groups are: bl, br; cl, cr; $d r$; $f l, f r ; g l, g r ; p l, p r ; t r$.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, triphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: ca-sa, bue-no, re-yes, mu-cho, po-llo, co-rrer, ha-blar, li-bro.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: ac-ta, ac-cionn, ist-mo, mar-cha, cen-tro.
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or triphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: ca-er, le-er, ba-úl, flu-ido, temi-ais.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: anti, bis, circum, cis, des, inter, mal, pan, sub, super, trans, and tras: anti-artístico, bis-anuo (never bi-sanuo), circum-ambiente (never circu-mambiente), des-union (never de-sunion). Other prefixes are also divisible from the stem, provided the division conforms to rules 2 to 4: contra-parte (rule 2), ab-negacion (rule 3), ex-traer (rule 3), coexistir (rule 4). Otherwise division on prefixes should be avoided, except in cases of exigency, such as very narrow measure: ab-usar (better abu-sar), re-unir (better reu-nir), ex-anime (better ext-nime), in-afectado (better ina-fectado), coincidencia (better coin-cidencia). In no case may division on a prefix be made, however, before an $s$ followed by another consonant: cons-titucion (never constitucion), pers-pectivo (never per-spectivo), subs-tancia (never sub-stancia). ${ }^{1}$
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): estado-unidense (rather than estadou-nidense), bien-estar (There are not many compound words in Spanish the correct division of which does not coincide with rules 1 to 5 .)
7. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: Wash-ington, Groen-landia (never Gro-enlandia), Gegen-stand, F'rei-schütz, Ingol-stadt, Ste-phenson. Scientific and technical words derived from Latin and Greek are treated as naturalized Spanish words and are divided according to rules 1 to 6: diag-nostico, hemis-ferio, anastomosis.

Stress and diacritics

The tilde, the dieresis, and the acute accent are the diacritical marks used in Spanish. The tilde is used only over the $n$, and $\tilde{n}$ is a special character representing a separate phoneme, the palatal $n$. The dieresis mark ( $\cdot \cdot$ ) called diéresis or crema in Spanish, is to be found in a limited number of words, such as vergüenza, and argüir, to indicate that the vowel $u$ must be pronounced.

The acute accent is used over a vowel to indicate that it is stressed; it is also used to distinguish homonyms. If there is no accent mark, a word ending in a consonant (including $y$, except $n$ and $s$ ) is stressed on the last syllable; a word ending in a vowel, $n$, or $s$ is stressed on the next-to-last syllable. Specifically, the acute accent is used as follows:

1. To indicate that the vowel is stressed.
2. To indicate vowels not forming a diphthong (see Diphthongs).
3. To distinguish words of the same spelling but of different meanings: aún, still, yet, aun, even; de, give, de, of; el, he, him, el, the (but el que, el cual, he who, him who); há, ago, ha, has; hé, behold, he, I have; mi, me, mi, my; más, more, mas, but; sé, I know, be thou, se, oneself; sí, yes, oneself, si, if; solo, only, solo, alone, single; $t e ́$, tea, $t e$, thee; tú, thou, $t u$, thy; vé, go, ve, sees.
4. To distinguish interrogative or exclamatory use from relative or declarative: adónde, where? adonde, where; cómo, how? como, as; cuan, how! cuan, how; cuándo, when? cuando, when; cuanto, how much? cuanto, as much; cuyo, whose? cuyo, whose; donde, where? donde, where; que, what? que, which; quien, who(m)? quien, who (m).
5. To distinguish pronouns from adjectives: éste, this one, este, this; ese, that one, ese, that; aquel, that one yonder, aquel, that.
6. Arbitrarily on monosyllabic aorists: di, I gave; fui, I was; fué, he was; rib, he laughed; ví, I saw; vib, he saw.
7. To avoid confusing the word o (or) with the zero: 26 3, but dos o tres, two or three.

Capitalization

The English style of capitalization is followed with few exceptions.
Adjectives derived from proper nouns are lowercased, as in música colombiana (Colombian music) and teatro español (Spanish theater).

Days of the week and months begin with a lowercase letter.
In titles of books, the general practice is to capitalize only the initial word and the proper nouns, as in El ingenioso hidalgo don Quijote de la Mancha (The ingenuous gentleman Don Quixote de la Mancha) and Con los indios cuna de Panama (With the Cuna Indians of Panama). In the case of short titles there is a tendency to capitalize adjectives and common nouns, as in Ortografía Castellana (Castilian orthography) and Enciclopedia de la Cocina (Encyclopedia of cooking).

Punctuation and hyphenation

Punctuation is practically the same as in English. One conspicuous exception is the use of inverted interrogation and exclamation marks, which are placed at the exact beginning of the question or exclamation: $\mathbf{6 H a b l a}$ usted español? (Do you speak Spanish?) Si quiere visitar el Brasil, bpor qué no estudia portugues? (If you want to visit Brazil, why don't you study Portuguese?) ;Viva el astronauta! (Long live the astronaut!') No recibí invitacion, iy no comprendo por qué! (I did not receive an invitation, and I cannot understand why!)

Quotation marks are used to reproduce a statement, text, etc., but not a dialog as developed in prose fiction. In the latter case, preference is given in Spanish to em dashes at the beginning of each interlocutor's paragraph. Example:
-Yo soy Juan de Aguirre, el marino, el hermano de su madre de usted, el que desapareció.
-iUsted es Juan de Aguirre!
-Sí.
-bMi tio?
-El mismo.

- $Y$ por qué no habérmelo dicho antes!
(Pio Baroja, Las inquietudes de Shanti Andia)
The hyphen, as a rule, is used only in syllabification. The apostrophe is not employed in modern Spanish.

SWEDISH

Den germanska bosättningen i Skandinavien och Finland talade ett språk, ur vilket nutidens svenska, norska, danska, isländska och färöiska har utvecklat sig. Språket var, såvitt vi vet, väsentligen enhetligt över hela området. Det kallas urnordiska. Carl-Eric Thors, Svenskan förr och nu [1970] p. 18.

Alphabet and pronunciation

[^79]Swedish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of three special charactersthe last three in the alphabet.

Vowels and consonants

The vowels are $a, e, i, o, u, y, d, \vec{a}$, and $\ddot{\boldsymbol{o}}$; the so-called back vowels being $a$, $o, u$, and $\dot{a}$; the front vowels $e, i, y, \ddot{a}$, and $\dot{o}$. The other letters of the alphabet are all consonants.

Diphthongs

The diphthongs in Swedish are au, pronounced like ou in house; eu, pronounced somewhat like $e(p h) e w$ in nephew; $o j$ as in boy; $a j$, pronounced like $i g h$ in high.

Digraphs

The digraphs and their sounds are:
$c h$ as $s h$; rarely as $k$ (och)
$k j$ as $c h$ in chair
$p h$ as $f$ (in foreign words)
sch as sh in shall
sj as sh in shall
$s k$ as $s h$ in shall (it is not a digraph if pronounced like $s k$ in basket) ${ }^{\frac{1}{1}}$ skj as $s h$ in shall stj as $s h$ in shall th as $t$ (in foreign words)
$q u$ as $k v$

Nasals

The combination $n g$ is pronounced like $n g$ in sing-er (not fin-ger) and is termed a nasal: ingen (pronounced ing-en), hängar (pronounced häng-ar), engelsk (pronounced eng-elsk), finger (pronounced fing-er). The velar nasal $n g$ must be distinguished, however, from the incidental collocation of the two letters resulting from compounding or affixing, in which case the $n g$ is not a nasal: angelägen (from an plus gelägen), ingripa (frorn in plus gripa); nor is $n g$ a velar nasal in words of foreign origin, such as singular, evangelium.

The letter $g$ is also a velar nasal when it follows a short vowel and precedes the letter $n$ : lugn (pronounced lung'n), lugna (pronounced lung'na), vagnar (pronounced vang'nar), ugnar (pronounced ung'nar).

Consonantal units
The combinations $k v$ (the substitute for the Romance language $q u$ ), $s k, s p, s t$, and str are treated for purposes of syllabification as units.

Rules for syllabification

1. Diphthongs, digraphs, and consonantal units may not be divided.
2. Division is made on a vowel or on a diphthong before a single consonant, a digraph, or a consonantal unit: ta-la, re-gel, hu-set, ma-skin, pa-scha, be-kväm, reu-matisk.
3. In a group of two or more consonants, division is made before the last consonant, digraph, or consonantal unit: al-la, myc-ket, häs-sja, al-stra, hög-ste, fladd-ra, kan-ske, mar-schera, forsk-ning.
4. Division may be made between vowels not constituting a diphthong or between a diphthong and another vowel: se-ende, ga-ende.
5. Certain adverbial prefixes are kept intact. These are: an, $a v, b a k, b e, b i$, bort, efter, en, ent, er, fort, fram, från, för, före, gen, genom, hop, in, med, miss, mot, ned, o, om, på, samman, sönder, till, under, upp, ur, ut, ute, veder, vid, àt, diter, and över: an-draga, av-tryck, bak-slag, be-kläda, etc.
6. Certain suffixes are kept intact. These are: aktig, artad, het, ska, skap(s), and ske: del-aktig, ull-artad, envis-het, amerikan-ska, grann-skap, hand-ske.
7. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 6 ): där-emot, dess-utom, bank-aktie, blom-stjälk, bok-tryck. The compounding $s$, if used, is kept with the preceding component: dags-ljus, gevärs-exercis, guds-man.
8. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: por-trätt, atmo-sfär, manu-skript. Under this rule are also included technical and scientific words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: tele-skop, dia-fragma, des-infektion.
9. The letter $x$ and the nasal $n g$ are properly kept with the preceding syllable: byx-or, lax-en, gung-an, konung-en. ${ }^{2}$
10. When division is made on a syllable from which a letter was elided, the letter is restored to render the syllable integral: till-lika (from tillika). It is important to bear in mind that words divided under this rule, if subsequently reset and run over, must have their original spelling restored.

Diacritics and stress

With the exception of $d, \vec{a}$, and $\ddot{0}$, diacritics are used only in foreign loanwords (résumé) and in certain proper names (Tegner).

Syllabic stress falls on the root syllable in all simple native words and on the main, usually the first, component of compound words.

Capitalization

Capitalization is similar to that in English, except that proper adjectives, days of the week, months, and holidays are lowercased. In compound names, only the first word is usually capitalized (Förenta staterna, United States; Karl den store, Charles the Great), and the second-person pronouns Ni, Eder, Er are capitalized in correspondence.

Punctuation

The rules of punctuation are essentially the same as in English, although Swedish punctuation is perhaps somewhat closer, the comma, especially, being used more freely. The apostrophe is not used to indicate possession, except in foreign names and those terminating in the letter s: Shakespeare's dramer (Shakespeare's dramas), Valerius' visor (the ballads of Valerius).

Abbreviations

Where the last letter of the abbreviation is the last letter of the complete word, the period is not used.

Special characters

Turkish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the following special occur also as $G$ g. Note the characters 1 I, i i. The circumflex accent ( ${ }^{\wedge}$ ) is frequently used over vowels $a$ and $u$. It sometimes indicates prolongation of the vowel, sometimes palatal ( $y$-like) pronunciation of neighboring $k, g$, or $l$. Turkish orthography uses no digraphs. Since $\imath$ and $i$ are two different letters, the ligature fi should not be used; $f$ and $i$ or $i$ should be separate letters.
Vowels and consonants
The vowel letters are $a, e, i, \imath, o, \ddot{0}, u$, and $\ddot{u}$. The remaining letters of the alphabet are consonants. The apostrophe ('), which indicates hiatus or slight glottal catch, counts as a consonant.

Consonantal units

For the purposes of syllabification, there are no consonantal units in Turkish, although in foreign words deference is shown to consonantal units according to the language of origin.

Rules for syllabification

1. Turkish, not having diphthongs, digraphs, or consonantal units, has no groups of vowels or consonants which may not be divided, provided division conforms to rules 2 to 8 below.
2. Division is made on a vowel before a single consonant: ha-va, zi-ya, sa-kin.
3. In a group of two or more consonants. division is made before the last consonant: bil-mek, bil-lûr, ört-mek, sat-ĥ, sal-ya.
4. In words of Arabic root, vowels may be divided: ma-ani, mu-af, cema-at, gayri-tabî̂.
5. Turkish has no prefixes in the conventionally accepted sensc. The negative particle gayri, however, acts as a prefix and is kept intact: gayri-matbu.
6. Compound words are divided according to their component parts (and each part according to rules 1 to 5): gözz-ağr $\imath s i$, hanım-eli, açık-göz.
7. Foreign words and components of foreign words (not naturalized) follow the conventions of the language of origin: fa-brika, am-plifikatör, ka-blo, tel-graf, boy-skavt. In this rule are also included scientific and technical words, which editors prefer to treat etymologically: pan-kreas, proto-plasma.
8. Division may be made on the apostrophe indicating hiatus: mes'-ul.

Stress is not marked in Turkish orthography. The only diacritics are the dieresis, cedilla, and circumflex, all of which are explained under Special characters.

Capitalization

Capitalization is practically as in English.

Punctuation is similar to that in English, but the comma and dash are used somewhat more frequently than in English. Quotation symbols: <<>>.

SLAVIC LANGUAGES AND THEIR ALPHABETS

The Slavic languages are usually divided into three groups:

(a) West Slavic, which includes Polish, Sorb or Wendish (also called I usatian), Czech, and Slovak; Polabian, now extinct, also belongs to this group, as do Kashubian (almost extinct) and Slovinzian (extinct). Polish is the language of Poland. Sorb or Wendish is spoken along the river Spree in both Upper and Lower Lusatia. Czech and Slovak are two separate, though very similar, languages; Czech is spoken in western and central Czechoslovakia (Bohemia and Moravia), and Slovak in the eastern part of the country (Slovakia). Polabian was spoken in the regions adjacent to the Elbe River. Kashubian and Slovinzian were found in the region around Danzig in Pomerania.
(b) East Slavic, which comprises Russian, Ukrainian, and White Russian. Russian is spoken throughout the Soviet Union, but was originally native only to central and northern European Russia. White Russian is spoken in the White Russian Soviet Socialist Republic. Ukrainian is found in most of the Ukrainian Soviet Socialist Republic; the variety of Ukrainian spoken in what was formerly sub-Carpathian Russia in Czechoslovakia was often referred to as Ruthenian. Ukrainian was formerly called Little Russian, and Russian proper was then designated as Great Russian.
(c) South Slavic, which includes Slovene, Serbo-Croatian, Macedonian, and Bulgarian. Serbo-Croatian is a single literary language, the Serbian areas writing it in the Cyrillic alphabet, while the Croatian areas use the Latin alphabet (in the form given as transliteration for Serbian Cyrillic). Serbo-Croatian is the language of all Yugoslavia, but Slovene is used in Slovenia (northwest Yugoslavia) and Macedonian in Macedonia (southeast Yugoslavia). Correspondence between Serbian and Croatian alphabets insures correct spelling of the SerboCroatian language in Roman alphabet. Bulgarian is spoken in Bulgaria.

The West Siavic languages and Slovene and Croatian have always been written in the Latin alphabet. The other Slavic languages use modern forms of Cyrillic. Cyrillic was devised in the 10th century, being based on the Greek alphabet. It was created for the purpose of writing Old Macedonian, which is usually called Old Church Slavic, and the old form of the alphabet, not given below, is now found only in printed ecclesiastical materials. Old Church Slavic is sometimes called Old Church Slavonic.

Slavic (Cyrillic) alphabets

Macedonian: А а, Б б, В в, Г г, Ѓ ѓ, Д д, Е е, Ж ж, З з, S s, И и, Ј ј, Кк, Ќк, Л л, Ј ј, Мм, Н н, Њ њ, О о, Пп, Р р, С с, Т т, У у, Ф ф, X х, Ц ц, Ч ч, Џ џ, Ш ш, '
Serbian: А а, Б б, В в, Г г, Д д, ந ђ, Е е, Ж ж, З з, И и, Ј ј, К к, Л л, Ј ј, М м, Н н, Њ ш, О о, П п, Р р, С с, Т т, ћ ћ, У у, Ф ф, X х, Ц ц, Ч ч, Џ џ, Ш ш

The Cyrillic alphabet has been adopted recently in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics for use with various non-Slavic languages, such as Moldavian, Kirghiz, Tajik, Mongolian, and others. Usually the Russian form is used as a base, with special letters added as needed.

Transliteration of Cyrillic alphabets

The transliteration given first place here is that of the United States Board on Geographic Names, adopted in 1944. It is identical with that used by the (British) Permanent Committee on Geographical Names, adopted about the same time. The Board on Geographic Names transliteration has been officially adopted only for Russian, Bulgarian, and Serbian; for the other languages here given it is applied by extending the same principles and supplying new symbols or digraphs as needed. Certain additions to avoid possible ambiguity are also given.

The Library of Congress uses a transliteration that differs at certain points from that of the Board on Geographic Names. These differences are indicated.

In works on Slavic in the fields of linguistics and philology, still other transliterations are used. These are also indicated, the word "linguistics" being used to mean linguistics and philology.

In the list below, the transliterated symbol holds for all six languages when it s not marked. Where different uses are recommended for different languages, or where a letter is used only in some of the languages, these facts are stated.

[^60]:    ${ }^{1}$ This sound of $c h$ is for words of native origin only. In words of French origin ch is pronounced as in French (like sh) and in words of Greek origin like ch in chorus.
    ${ }^{2}$ The digraph sch has two sounds. At the beginning of a word and at the beginning of a syllable preceded by a prefix it is pronounced like 8 plus the Dutch ch; elsew here like English 8.
    ${ }^{3}$ The suffixes listed must be distinguished from the same letter combinations that are not suffixes and not appended to a meaningful word. Thus ste in beste is not a suffix, as be is not a word. Likewise aard in veinzaard and grijnzaard is not a suffix in the above sense, as there are no words veinz and grijnz. Properly, veinzaard and grijnzaard are derivatives of veinzen and grijnzen and are syllabifled according to rule 3 ; i.e., vein-zaard, grijn-zaard, and beste is syllabifed bes-te.

[^61]:    With only minor exceptions, words are spelled as they are pronounced and pronounced as they are spelled. Each letter is pronounced as only one sound and each sound is spelled with only one letter. The only exception to this rule is the $n$ sound (the velar nasal like $n g$ in song) which is represented by $n$ (before $k, k e n k \ddot{a}$ ) or by $n g$ (in kangas which is spelled kaŋnas). It has to be remembered also that $n$ followed by $p$ is of ten pronounced $m$; and, that $s$ has a transient pronunciation between English $s$ and $s h$.

    Finnish $h$ is pronounced also at the end of a syllable which is followed by a consonant (kahvi, lehmä) the same way as at the beginning of a word or syllable.

    Since no $f$ exists in common Finnish, coffee was pronounced kahvi and adapted as such. Initial $b$ is pronounced $p:$ pommi (from French bombe), initial $d$ as $t$ : tohtori (from Latin doctor), and $g$ as $k$ : kuvernö̈ri (from French gouverneur).

    Finnish pronunciation prefers one consonant at the beginning of the word, as reflected by Finnish adaptations of foreign words: Tukholma (Stockholm), ranta (strand).

    ## Special characters

    Finnish uses the Latin alphabet with the addition of the following special characters: $\ddot{A} \ddot{a}$ and $\ddot{O} \ddot{o}$.

    The letters $b, c, f, q, x$, and $z$ do not occur in native Finnish words. However, the standard dictionaries, containing words of foreign origin, list them in the alphabetic order shown above.

[^62]:    ${ }^{1}$ Note that $\propto$ is printed as a single piece of type when it has this pronunciation, and also in some words of Latin origin, where it is pronounced as French $e$. When o and e are printed separately, they represent separate sounds in different syllables.

[^63]:    NOTE.-It will be noted that the period is not used where the last letter in the abbreviation is the last letter of the complete word.

[^64]:    ${ }^{1}$ All German vowels are pronounced short or long. German spelling does not consistently indicate vowel quantity, but two dependable conversion rules may be mentioned. A double vowel and a vowel followed by a single consonant are pronounced long; a single vowel followed by a double consonant is pronounced short. Consonant quantity is fairly stable; a double consonant does not indicate a lengthened sound.

[^65]:    In the interest of simplicity, works in philology and bibliogrsphy often allow all common nouns to go lowercase.

[^66]:    ${ }^{1}$ The character $\sigma$ is used in initial and medial positions in a word; the character s, in the final position

[^67]:    ${ }^{*}$ lenis acute

    - asper grave
    - circumflex lenis
    - circumflex asper
    - dieresis acute
    - dieresis grave
    - lenis grave
    * asper acute

[^68]:    ${ }^{1}$ The ordinal ket is used when followed by a noun; otherwise kettd.

[^69]:    ${ }^{1}$ In a few words gl is not a digraph and is pronounced as $\boldsymbol{c l}$ in angle; for example: Ganglio, glicerina, geroglifico. glifo, gloria, negligere, etc.
    ${ }^{2}$ Usage varies as to this rule; some orthographers still prefer dividing on the preflx. The rule given in the text above follows the recommendation of Leone Donati, Corso Pratico di Lingua Italiana, 207, 1934, Orell Füssli Editori, Zurigo e Lipsia. It is followed by most dictionaries as well as general works extant.

[^70]:    ${ }^{1}$ Some Latin lexicographers still use the classic method of determining consonantal units; namely, any group of consonants which can begin a word constitutes a consonantal unit and may begin a syllable. This method is still in use in Greek syllabification; but in present-day Latin orthography it has been largely replaced by the Romance-language method, given in the text and recommended by Allen and Greenough. (See References.)

[^71]:    ${ }^{1}$ Syllabification usage varies considerably among Polish printers, especially as regards the division of consonantal groups. Fditors usually permit printers to divide such groups nptinually, provided the division does not override phoneties and etymology. The rules given here, beine designed for consultants who might not be fully familiar with Dolish, are somewhat restrictive, but they insure invariably correct and consistent word division.

[^72]:    ${ }^{1}$ The pronunciation shown is that of Brazilian Portuguese; in Portugal unstressed vowels are more slurred, and certain consonants have slightly different sounds.

[^73]:    *Open and close forms.

[^74]:    ${ }^{2}$ On the whole, the rules here recommended follow those now valid in Brazil.

[^75]:    1 U.S. Board on Geographic Names transliteration, 1944. (See p. 526 for Slavic transliteration as a whole.)
    2 When stressed; when unstressed, like $a$ in sofa.
    ${ }^{3}$ Also pronounced as $v$ in the genitive ending -ro; often used for original $h$ in non-Russian words, but is pronounced as $g$ by Russians.

    4 Ye initially, after vowels, and after $\mathbf{b}, \mathbf{b}$.
    ${ }^{8}$ Pronounced as $i$ in habit, or the same sound with preceding $y$, when unstressed.

    - $Y \bar{c}$ as for $y e$. The sign $\bar{e}$ is not considered a separate letter of the alphabet, and the ${ }^{*}$ is often omitted. Transliterate as $\bar{e}, y \bar{e}$ when printed in Russian as $\bar{e}$ : otherwise use $e, y e$.
    ${ }^{7}$ Only stressed.
    ${ }^{8}$ Like $i$ in habit when unstressed; like yie in yield after a vowel and after $b$.
    - Like 0 in abbot when unstressed.

    10 The symbol " (double apostrophe), not a repetition of the line above.
    ${ }^{11}$ No sound; used only after certain prefixes before the vowel letters e, ë, $\boldsymbol{\text { f. }}$ ю. Formerly used also at the end of all words now ending in a consonant letter. See Note on Old Spelling, p. 473.

    12 ' (apostrophe).
    ${ }^{13}$ Palatalizes a preceding consonant, giving a sound resembling the consonant plus $y$, somewhat as in English meet you, did you.

[^76]:    ' Since the orthographic reform of 1918, the rules for syllabification have been considerably liburalized. It is generally permitted now to divide according to convenience, provided that phonetics and etymology are not severely overridden. These rules, designed as a guide for workers who might not be thoroughly familiar with the Russias language, are of necessity somewhat restrictive, but they insure invariably correct word division in conformity with generally approved usage.
    As a great deal of Russian matter, especially bibliography, is printed in transliterated form, these rules have been formulated so as to apply with equal accuracy whether matter is in Russian characters or in transiltaration.

[^77]:    ${ }^{2}$ The ordinal numbers here given are of the masculine gender. To convert them to feminine or neuter, it is ouly necessary to effect the proper gender changes: For the feminine, change Mh to as, uk to bs, of to as. For the neuter, change ый to oe, й to be, and of to oe.

[^78]:    ${ }^{1}$ This rule of the $s$ is rigidly adhered to, because no Spanish word and hence no syllable can begin with a group of consonants the first of which is 8.

[^79]:    1 In the orthography employed prior to 1906 , the $v$ sound was represented in absolutely final position by $f$ : medially by $f v$. Since $1906, v$ has represented $f$ and $f r$, except in some proper names.
    ${ }^{2}$ In words of Latin origin, the combination $t i$ in the suffix tion is pronounced as in English if preceded by any consonant except $\tau$ (aktion, pronounced akshon), otherwise like ch in chair (nation, pronounced nachon; portion, pronounced porchon); in the combinations tia and tie likets (profetia, pronounced profetsia; aktie, pronounced aktsie).
    ${ }^{3}$ In typesetting, if the character $\dot{d}$ is not available, it is replaced by aa.

    ## Special characters

[^80]:    ${ }^{1}$ The letters sk are a digraph and pronounced soft, like $s h$, when they occur before a soft vowel in a stressed syllable: skära (pronounced sha'ra), skynda (pronounced shin'da), maskin (pronounced mashin'); otherwise they are pronounced hard, like the English sk (skada, skriva, fisk, rusk, handske, fisket, ruskig).

    There are a few exceptions. Contrary to the rule, sk is soft in människa (pronounced manni-sia), marskalk (pronounced marshalk), kanske (pronounced kanshe). On the other hand, sk is hard, contrary to the rule, in skiss, konfiskera, riskera, skelett, skeptisk, and in a few other words of foreign origin.
    ${ }^{2}$ The practice varies, however, and many editors allow $x$ to be brought over to the next syliable and ng to be divided, according to the convenience of the compositor; hence: by-xor, la-xen, gun-gan, konun-gen (cf.
