PREFACE

The "consolidated index of Congressional documents" for the third session of the Sixty-second Congress, herewith presented, is the nineteenth in the series prepared in the Office of the Superintendent of Documents in compliance with the requirements of the printing law of January 12, 1895.

The documents included in this index number 1411, divided as follows: Senate reports, 271 (nos. 1070-1340); House reports, 373 (nos. 1256-1628, of which no. 1570 is blank); Senate documents, 199 (nos. 952-1150); House documents, 568 (nos. 927-1494).

Serial number 6328 is assigned to the Senate Journal and 6329 to the House Journal.

The following changes in the schedules of volumes in previous indexes should be noted:

The report of the Department of Insurance of the District of Columbia for the calendar year 1908, which was to have been published as volume 5 of the reports of the District of Columbia, 1909, and bound as volume 110 of the House documents of the second session of the Sixty-first Congress, will not be issued and serial number 5813 will remain a blank.

According to information received from the printing clerk of the Senate, Senate document 785, Sixty-first Congress, third session, Index to the reports of the Immigration Commission, which was to have been bound as volume 24 of the Senate documents, will not be issued and serial number 5882 will remain a blank. The Immigration Commission expired December 4, 1910.
