A Great Way to Order Recurring and Series Government Publications!

Welcome to the U.S. Government Printing Office's first ever Standing Order Service catalog! Our Standing Order Service is a great way to guarantee automatic receipt of many of our most popular recurring and series publications. Once you sign up, you will receive each new edition automatically as soon as it is published. Just search the list below for the publications that interest you, then set up your Standing Order with a Visa, MasterCard, American Express, or Discover/NOVUS credit card, or a Superintendent of Documents Deposit Account.

For more information on how to set up a Standing Order for any of these publications, email ContactCenter@gpo.gov or call (866) 512-1800 (toll free) or (202) 512-1800 (Washington, DC area).

Superintendent of Documents Deposit Accounts

A deposit account is a prepaid account established with the Superintendent of Documents for customers who have a continuing need to purchase Government products. A minimum deposit of $50 is required to open the account; this amount may be paid by check or money order (payable to the Superintendent of Documents) or by credit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover/NOVUS, or American Express). All credit card payments must include the account number and expiration date of the credit card.

A written request to open a Superintendent of Documents deposit account, accompanied by payment, may be submitted by mail or fax. Allow three weeks for a new deposit account to be activated. You can start your deposit account via fax or mail.

Basic Guide to Exporting

This comprehensive guide, now completely revised and updated, provides the nuts-and-bolts information needed to meet the challenges of the world economy by examining:

- How to identify markets for a company's products
- How to finance export transactions
- The best methods of handling orders and shipments
- Sources of free or low-cost export counseling

Also included are numerous real-life examples that illustrate the principles of exporting, samples of forms needed to export, and detailed information on how to obtain guidance and counseling offered by the Federal Government through its domestic network of 115 Export Assistance Centers, and through commercial counselors located in U.S. embassies abroad.

"Sourcing and selling goods around the world has never been easier, and more and more small U.S. businesses are competing and winning in the global economy. A Basic Guide to Exporting is a great source for anyone preparing to do business or to increase their sales overseas. We strongly recommend it to our customers."

FREDERICK W. SMITH
President, Chairman, and CEO
FedEx Corporation

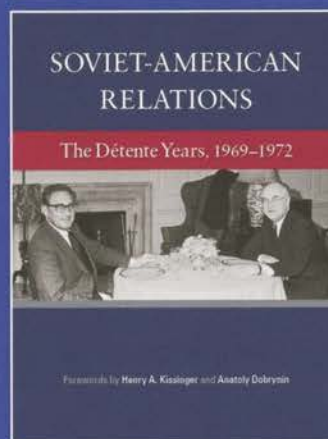

"A Basic Guide to Exporting is an invaluable resource for the beginner, the experienced person, and the student of international trade. The new version is even better and includes brief case histories that bring subjects to life."

Soviet-American Relations: The Détente Years, 1969-1972

This official joint documentary publication presents the formerly secret record of how the United States and Soviet Union moved from Cold War to détente during 1969-1972. Published side by side are U.S. and Soviet accounts of meetings between Henry Kissinger and Soviet Ambassador Anatoliy Dobrynin, the so-called Kissinger-Dobrynin confidential channel, related documents, and the full Soviet and U.S. record of the first Moscow Summit between President Richard Nixon and Soviet Secretary General Leonid Brezhnev. The Soviet documents are being released for the first time anywhere. Scholars, journalists, and the public have the unique opportunity to compare the Soviet and U.S. independent accounts of a crucial foreign policy dialogue and process. This important new book, which includes a specially-written Foreword by Henry Kissinger, is an indispensable source for those who wish to understand firsthand, through the original documents, the dynamic relationship between the two Cold War superpowers at a critical point in their history.
