* Document for sale by Superintendent of Documents.

† Distribution by office issuing document, free if unaccompanied by a price.

‡ Document not obtainable.

Explanation

Words and figures inclosed in brackets [] are given for information, but do not appear on the title-pages of the publications catalogued. When size is not given, octavo is to be understood. Size of maps is measured from outer edge of border, excluding margin. The dates, including day, month, and year, given with Senate and House documents and reports, are the dates on which they were ordered to be printed. Usually the printing promptly follows the ordering, but various causes sometimes make delays. When Congress and session are not given with the numbers of Senate and House documents and reports, 61st Congress, 3d session, is to be understood.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Superintendent of Documents is authorized to sell at cost any public document in his charge, the distribution of which is not otherwise provided for.

Documents can not be supplied by this Office free to individuals, nor can they be forwarded in advance of payment.

Documents entered in this catalogue that are for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., are indicated by a star (*) preceding the price named. A dagger (†) indicates that application should be made to the Department, Bureau, or Division issuing the document, a double dagger (§) indicates that the document is not obtainable, and whenever additional information concerning the method of procuring a document seems necessary it will be found under the name of the Bureau. The Senate and House documents and reports are issued in limited editions, and unless otherwise indicated, may be obtained only through Members of Congress.

In ordering a publication from the Superintendent of Documents give the name of the issuing Department, Bureau, or Division, and title. If publication is numbered give number also. Do not order by Library of Congress card number.

The accumulation of publications in this Office amounts to over a million, of which several hundred thousand are assorted, forming the sales stock. Many rare books are included, but under the law all must be sold "at cost," regardless of their age or scarcity.

In ordering, it should be borne in mind that many of the books have been in stock some time and are apt to be shop-worn. In filling orders, however, the best copy available is sent.

No general price-list of public documents is available, but lists on special subjects will be furnished on application.

MONTHLY CATALOGUE DISTRIBUTION

The Monthly catalogue is sent to each Senator, Representative, Delegate, and officer in Congress, to designated depositories and State and Territorial libraries, to substantially all Government authors, and to as many school, college, and public libraries as the limited edition will supply.

Subscription price to individuals, $1.10 a year, including indices. Back numbers can not be supplied. Please notify the Superintendent of Documents of any change in address.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS CARDS

Numbers to be used in ordering the L. C. catalogue cards will be found at the end of the titles of the more important monographic documents. The figure following the card number (separated from it by a slanting line) indicates the number of cards required for entries suggested (title entry not included) on the cards. The price of the cards is 2c. for the first card and $\frac{1}{10}$ c. for each additional card for the same title ordered at the same time. Remittances should be made to the Librarian of Congress. Cards can not be furnished by the Superintendent of Documents.

CUMULATIVE INDEX

Beginning with July, 1910, the Index to the Monthly catalogue will be issued separately each quarter and will cumulate for the twelve months ending June, 1911. That is, the September number of the Index is an index to the Monthly catalogue for July, August, and September, the December number is an index to the Monthly catalogue for October to December, the March number will be an index to the Monthly catalogue for January to March, and the June number will be the Index for the fiscal year 1911. Persons desiring to bind the catalogue at the end of the year should be careful to retain the numbers received monthly, as duplicate numbers can not be supplied.

HOW TO REMIT

Remittances for the documents marked with a star (*) should be made to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C., by postal money order, express order, or New York draft. Currency may be sent at sender's risk.

Postage stamps, foreign money, defaced or smooth coins will positively not be accepted.

To facilitate the payment of the cost of documents, the Superintendent of Documents will hereafter accept coupons issued by him instead of cash. Coupons of the value of 5 cents each are sold in sets of 20 for $1.00. Address order to Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office.

No charge is made for postage on documents forwarded to points in United States, Guam, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, or to Canada, Cuba, or Mexico. To other countries the regular rate of postage is charged, and remittances must cover such postage.

NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

The lumber industry (61st Congress, 3d session, Senate document 818) is Part 1 of a Summary report of the commissioner of corporations on the lumber industry of the United States. Part 1, which is dated Feb. 13, 1911, deals with the amount and ownership of standing timber, under three subheadings: 1. Concentration of control in a few enormous holdings; 2. Vast speculative purchases and holdings of timber land; 3. Enormous increase in the value of these holdings. The commissioner states that the largest holder of timber lands is the Southern Pacific Railroad Company; the 2d largest, the Weyerhaeuser companies; the 3d, the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

The Hydrographic Office, Navy Department, is desirous of obtaining the opinion of practical navigators as to the utility of a new sort of chart of which it has published a limited edition and the probable demand for it if put on sale at a moderate price. It is a skeleton form of chart, called "Position plotting sheets." It may be used for general navigation work, saving the more costly charts from disfigurement.

Commercial relations, 1909, which had been announced for publication in 2 volumes has been issued in 1 volume. The new printing law which was introduced in the Senate at the last session of the 61st Congress but not passed (Senate bill 10646) provided for the discontinuance of this publication altogether.

The Annual report of the Public Printer for 1910 has been published in three parts, Part 1 being the report proper; Part 2, the Government Printing Office Style book; and Part 3, Correct orthography of geographic names supplied for the use of the Printing Office by the Geographic Board. The Superintendent of Documents has the Report on sale at the following prices: Part 1, paper, 45c., buckram, 60c.; Part 2, paper, 15c., buckram, 30c.; Part 3, paper, 15c., buckram, 35c. The Report is listed on page 451 of the February monthly catalogue.

Senate document 671, 61st Congress, 3d session, is the Report of the Government board of managers on the Seattle Exposition. It is a somewhat profusely illustrated document and a considerable demand for it is already evident.

The statute of the 61st Congress, 3d session, for which there is the most active inquiry is Public act 475, the Judiciary chapter of the new revision of the Federal statutes. It works radical changes in the judicial establishment. 10 cents.

There is a new Use book of the Forest Service, treating especially of water power. 10 cents.

Experiments in blueberry culture, Plant Industry Bureau Bulletin 193, first issued Nov. 15, 1910, has already appeared in a new edition dated Feb. 18, 1911. 25 cents.

Plant Industry Bureau Bulletin 213, Crown-gall of plants, its cause and remedy, maintains that this destructive disease is of bacterial origin and prescribes curative and preventive treatment. 40 cents.

The Indian school manual catalogued last month which showed what girls should learn to do at school has this month a companion manual entitled Farm and home mechanics, some things that every boy should know how to do and hence should learn to do in school. This also is a very practical manual. It shows by text and illustration how may be taught elementary carpentry, masonry, fence building, tree planting, etc., giving lists of needed tools and the like. This one as well as the former one is on sale by the Superintendent of Documents. 15 cents.

The Indian school service has issued also Social plays, games, marches, old folk dances, and rhythmic movements for use in Indian schools. This sells at 10 cents.

The 1910 report of the Philippine Commission presents a colored slip attached to the title-page reading thus: "Special notice: The matter contained herein comprises the entire Philippine Commission Report for the year ended June 30, 1910, as printed in the United States." A similar notice is found also in the 1909 report. Previously it was the custom to print under the heading of the Commission several volumes of the Philippine report, including the laws enacted in the Islands, and to reprint the same matter as parts of the War Department Report. The full report is presumably still printed in Manila, and there only. The 1910 report as printed in the United States is a small volume of only 204 pages.

Tariff series 26, Manufactures Bureau, Tariff relations of Canada, system now in force and proposed concessions to the United States, is a document which supplies much needed information concerning reciprocity with our northern neighbor and its relation to the existing tariff system. It appears that Canada has three tariff rates, a preferential rate for England, an intermediate rate, and a general tariff rate. In Tariff series 26 the articles affected by the reciprocity agreement are tabulated under these three rates and also under the reciprocity rate. There is much other information as to the sur-tax on importations from Germany, concessions to France and other countries, the history of previous reciprocity agreements and other proposed agreements, etc. A footnote on page 5 says: "The official edition of the customs tariff of Canada may be purchased (for 15 cents) from the King's Printer, Ottawa." There has been considerable inquiry for the Canadian tariff on the supposition that it has been reprinted as a United States public document. This, however, is not the case. Tariff series 26 can be supplied at 5 cents.

The annual report of the chemist, Agriculture Department, is a modestly congratulatory review of work done and a hopeful sketch of plans for the future. 5 cents.

The extensive bibliography of medical and veterinary zoology which for some years has been in course of publication as Bulletin 39, Bureau of Animal Industry, approaches conclusion. Part 33 includes the author headings from W to Werbitzki. 10 cents.

A pamphlet reprint from the 26th annual report of the Animal Industry Bureau has the title Viability of tubercle bacilli in butter and in cheese.

The somewhat disagreeable fact is set forth that in such habitats these dangerous bacilli are of long life and cold storage does not put an end to them.

The "hearings" on proposed advances in railroad freight rates, before the Interstate Commerce Commission, August to November, 1910, have now been published, in 9 volumes, as Senate document 725, 61st Congress. A 10th volume containing an index is promised.

Volume 3, Glass industry, is the latest issue in the 19-volume report on the condition of woman and child wage-earners of the United States which has been prepared by the Labor Bureau and is now in course of publication as Senate document 645, 61st Congress.

House reports 2270 and 2270, part 2, 61st Congress, are majority and minority reports on a bill providing for the registration, identification, and regulation of automobiles engaged in interstate commerce. The uses of the auto are many, but this is perhaps its first legal recognition as a common carrier.

The 1910 report of the Navy Department on the naval militia shows that these amateur sailors when put in charge of naval vessels in 1910 conducted deepsea and deeplake voyages with success and credit.

Inquiries for the 1910 annual report of the Mines Bureau have been made. As the annual reports of Government bureaus are for the Government fiscal year beginning July 1, and as the Mines Bureau began operation July 1, 1910, which was the beginning of the fiscal year 1911, it is evident that the first annual report of the Bureau must be for the fiscal year 1911, ending June 30 next.

An abridged edition of the 1910 report of the Secretary of Agriculture has been published as Department Report 93. Copies are sold by the Superintendent of Documents at 10 cents.

Public health bulletin 44 is a précis or abstract of the available information concerning the very dangerous malady known to the people as infantile paralysis and to the faculty as acute anterior poliomyelitis. Copies can be supplied at 10 cents.

Farmers' bulletin 431, The peanut, supersedes Farmers' bulletin 356 and does more than any preceding publication to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about one of the most familiar and democratic products of American soil, and one which is rapidly growing in importance as a crop. The methods of production and use of the peanut have materially changed within very recent years. All Farmers' bulletins are sold by the Superintendent of Documents at the uniform rate of 5 cents.

The postal laws and regulations pertaining to the second class of mail matter, corrected to February, 1911, have been issued in a pamphlet by the Post-Office Department.

The accounting system of the United States, 1789-1910, is a historical review and compilation of laws issued in pamphlet by the Treasury Department committee on auditing. 10 cents.

Inventory 21 of plants imported by the Agriculture Department has been published as Plant Industry Bureau Bulletin 205. It lists and describes importations numbers 26048 to 26470. This inventory records several importations which promise to be of real value.

There are thousands of good people who want lawn soils and consequently want Soils Bureau Bulletin 75, called Lawn soils, and telling how to get them. Such wants can be supplied, so far as Bulletin 75 will do it, for 15 cents.

Senate document 768, 61st Congress, issued by the State Department, is the report of Mr. C. A. Conant, the United States delegate to the International Conference on Bills of Exchange, held at The Hague, June 23-July 25, 1910. The purpose was to promote uniform legislation regarding letters of exchange. Thirty-one nations were represented.

The coupon ballot is described in Senate document 840, 61st Congress. It is a new kind of ballot said to have been successfully used in La Crosse and Eau Claire counties, Wisconsin, last fall. It is asserted that at the first trial it was more easily understood and used by the voters than the old forms of ballot that they had been using for years.

Entomology Bureau Bulletin 75, first published in seven separate pamphlets, is now issued as a whole. Price 30 cents. The entire contents relate to various phases of beekeeping.

Senate document 849, 61st Congress, 3d session, is a report from the Tariff Board relative to various commodities named in the reciprocity agreement—just the kind of information many people are asking for just now.

To farmers and fruit growers contemplating settlement on the irrigated or to-be-irrigated arid lands of the West, Plant Industry Bureau Bulletin 201 may be of great value. Its title is Natural vegetation as an indicator of the capabilities of land for crop production in the Great Plains area. It helps the prospector to determine in advance the probable character and value of the desert lands when brought under cultivation.

Experiment Stations Office Circular 110, by Dr. Langworthy, entitled Food customs and diet in American homes, is a discussion, historical, geographical, racial, and physiological, of the food question in its broad and general aspects. The author arrives at the comforting conclusion that "no country has a greater variety of readily accessible foods of good quality than the United States," and that our people "as a whole are adequately nourished as compared with other races." Also, that "the acknowledged energy and achievement of the American people, with their general good health and physical well-being, indicate that they have in the main used their food resources advantageously." Those readers who may think this view too favorable have the option of looking on the other side of the picture in Professor Irving Fisher's report on the national vitality. Dr. Langworthy's essay is selling at 5 cents, Professor Fisher's at 10 cents.

Bulletin 91, Labor Bureau, dated November, 1910, was issued during the current month. Here are the titles of its chief papers: Working hours of wage-earning women in selected industries in Chicago; Labor laws which have been declared unconstitutional [more than 150 of them]; Review of labor legislation of 1910; Laws of various States relating to labor, enacted to Jan. 1, 1910. Under this last heading are found many enactments, the full text being given in each case. Bulletin 91 presents also a cumulative index to labor laws and decisions of the courts concerning them and a full and complete chapter on the old-age and invalidity pension laws of Germany, France, and Australia. More than 350 pages altogether. 25 cents.

Of course the Agriculture Department—most practical of departments—never indulges in fiction. Nevertheless, it sometimes tells a good story. One of its best is told in Farmers' bulletin 432, How a city family managed a farm. It is very good reading for city people, and none the less so for country people. Both kinds of people can learn from it. This bulletin was prepared in the Plant Industry Bureau.

COMPLETION OF THE LAW INDEX

The second Index analysis of the Federal statutes has been issued under the direction of the Librarian of Congress, but it is not called volume 2 of Scott and Beaman's Index analysis. It is, on the contrary, a volume preliminary to Scott and Beaman. It will be remembered that Scott and Beaman indexed the general and permanent law in the Revised statutes of 1873 and vols. 18-34 of the Statutes at large (1873-1907), and at the time of publication of their Index analysis (1908) announced the forthcoming issue of a volume 2 which should index "the Statutes of temporary, local, and personal character," inferentially for the same period covered for the general and permanent laws by volume 1.

The proposal to make an elaborate index of the private legislation was, however, not carried out, because, as stated in the preface to the second Index analysis, "it was found that the more pressing demand was for a guide to the general and permanent law from 1789 to 1873."

This pressing demand has been met by the new volume. It has not been thought advisable to call it volume 2, because in point of time it precedes volume 1. If the work were to be done over again, or if both volumes had been published simultaneously, the one now just issued (1911) would be called volume 1, and the volume 1 issued in 1908 would become volume 2.

The new volume is similar in scope, style, and classification to the Index analysis published as volume 1 in 1908, and was prepared in the same manner. The acts and portions of acts from 1789 to 1873 that were incorporated in the Revised statutes are indexed in the new volume under the same headings and subheadings under which the corresponding sections of the Revised statutes were indexed in Scott and Beaman. The new volume, however, is not an index to the Revised statutes, but to the Statutes at large, volumes 1-17, which differ from the Revised statutes both in provisions included and provisions excluded.

The Index analysis is now considered to be complete. It indexes the whole body of permanent and general legislation of the United States from the foundation of the Government to the close of the 59th Congress (1907). The issue of an index to the local, personal, and temporary laws is not now contemplated.

Both volumes of the Index analysis are offered for sale by the Superintendent of Documents. They are in buckram binding, vol. 1 priced at $2.50 and the preliminary unnumbered volume just issued at $2.25.

TWO MORE GOVERNMENT SUBSCRIPTION PERIODICALS

Treasury decision 31368 is of somewhat unusual interest as illustrating the growing tendency toward the discontinuance of free distribution of public documents and the substitution of sales at cost to those citizens who have sufficient use for the documents to make it to their interest to buy them. The Decision in question reads thus:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 10, 1911.

To customs officers and others concerned:

The free issuance of Treasury Decisions and Reappraisement Circulars to persons other than Government officials, being of doubtful legality, will be discontinued on April 1, 1911, and thereafter all who desire those publications should subscribe to them by communicating with the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., and inclosing the subscription price of $1.75 per year for the Treasury Decisions and 60 cents per year for the Reappraisement Circulars.

FRANKLIN MACVEAGH, Secretary.

Are there not some other public documents whose "free issuance" is of "doubtful legality" which would form attractive additions to the list of Government periodicals supplied to subscribers by the Superintendent of Documents? He has now subscription lists for 31 periodicals, 2 quarterly, 1 bimonthly, 15 monthly, 7 weekly, 2 daily, 4 at irregular intervals. These are the titles: Agriculture Department Library, Monthly bulletin; Army list and directory (monthly); Copyright catalogue, Part 1, group 1 (weekly); Copyright catalogue, Part 1, group 2 (monthly); Copyright catalogue, Part 2 (monthly); Copyright catalogue, Part 3 (monthly); Copyright catalogue, Part 4 (monthly); Climatological service of Weather Bureau (monthly); Congressional record (daily); Crop reporter (monthly); Experiment station record (monthly); Interstate Commerce Commission Reports, advance sheets (irregular intervals); Labor Bureau Bulletin (bimonthly); Land decisions, advance sheets (irregular intervals); Slip laws (irregular intervals); Monthly catalogue United States public documents; Monthly summary of commerce and finance; Monthly weather review; Mount Weather Observatory bulletin (quarterly); National weekly weather bulletin; Navy and Marine Corps list and directory (monthly); Naval medical bulletin (quarterly); Official gazette of the Patent Office (weekly); Pension decisions, advance sheets (irregular intervals); Public health reports (weekly); Reappraisements of merchandise by general appraisers (weekly); Schedule of steamers appointed to convey United States mails (monthly); Snow and ice bulletins (weekly); State publications, monthly list; Treasury decisions (weekly); Weather map (daily).

APPALACHIAN AND WHITE MOUNTAINS NATIONAL FOREST RESERVATIONS

The so-called Weeks law, providing for the purchase and conservation by the Government of lands in the southern Appalachian and White mountains regions is Public [act] 435, 61st Congress, 3d session. Its title is: An Act to enable any State to coöperate with any other State or States, or with the United States, for the protection of the watersheds of navigable streams, and to appoint a commission for the acquisition of lands for the purpose of conserving the navigability of navigable rivers.

Neither the title nor the text mentions the Appalachians or the White Mountains. The territory to be acquired is fixed for the present by a provision that lands may be bought only in those States whose legislatures have consented to such transfer. The States which thus far have passed such legislation are Georgia, Maine, Maryland, New Hampshire, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia, and it is only in these States that purchases are now authorized.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to examine, locate, and recommend for purchase such tracts as are necessary to carry out the purposes of the law, but purchases can be made only on the approval of a commission consisting of the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, two Senators to be named by the President of the Senate, and two Representatives to be named by the Speaker of the House. Senators Gallinger of New Hampshire and Smith of Maryland and Representatives Hawley of Oregon and Lee of Georgia have been appointed.

The Secretary of Agriculture has issued, through the Forest Service, a circular declaring the purposes of the Government and inviting proposals for the sale of land within any one of 13 prescribed areas, with much other information of interest to all who will be affected by the action to be taken under the Weeks law.

The law appropriates $1,000,000 to be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910. This of course is inoperative, as the law was not passed till after the date named. Two million dollars are appropriated for each of the fiscal years 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, and 1915, $10,000,000 in all. The Forest Service publication says that this sum is by no means sufficient for complete treatment of the matter in hand, but that by careful selection of lands it may be so expended as to accomplish a large measure of good.

A. L. A. CATALOGUE

The cabalistic letters A. L. A. stand for American Library Association. Under the auspices of this Association two catalogues of books selected by the combined wisdom of the Association as the most suitable for popular libraries have been prepared by library experts and published by the United States Government. The first was for a model library of 5,000 volumes exhibited by the A. L. A. at the Chicago Fair of 1893. The second, which is still current, was for a similar library of 8,000 volumes exhibited by the A. L. A. at the St. Louis Fair in 1904.

This second catalogue was first offered for sale in cloth binding for 50 cents. This was a merely nominal price, much below even the cost of printing alone. All of the copies that could be supplied at this nominal price were soon sold, and as the demand continued a reprint was made. For this reprint, however, the Superintendent of Documents was charged the actual cost of printing, and was compelled to charge a corresponding price to his customers. The first issue was in 2 parts, both parts listing the whole 8,000 books, Part 1 being a class list, according to the decimal or Dewey classification, and Part 2 a dictionary catalogue, according to the expansive or Cutter classification. In the reprint both parts were included in 1 volume. It had a paper binding instead of cloth, and the price was $1 instead of 50c.

Despite the increase of price, the A. L. A. catalogue was still a very cheap book. Part 1 fills 404 pages; part 2, 485 pages; the whole book 889 pages. The price was based on printing from the same electrotype plates that were used for the first edition. There was no charge for setting type or making plates or for the invaluable knowledge, experience, and skill of the compilers and editors.

The 1,000 copies of the reprint having been all sold, a second reprint of the same number of copies, also to be printed from the original plates, and sold at $1 a copy, has now been ordered. Copies will, it is presumed, be ready for delivery on or before May 1.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL PUBLICATIONS IN FOREIGN LANDS

For quite a number of years past the Agriculture Department has been printing a special Monthly list of publications for foreign distribution. This has now been discontinued.

Simultaneously the Department has discontinued its former custom of sending free copies of its publications to foreign applicants. The output of agricultural publications is exceedingly large, but at the present time the home demand for them is even larger. There has been a great awakening in all regions of the country in the direction of agricultural education and improvement, and the brunt of it falls on the Agriculture Department. Its appropriations for printing, though comparatively large, have a limit, while the demand for agricultural publications seems to be without limit and growing at a constantly accelerating rate.

The result is that the numerous requests of foreign correspondents for publications are by the Department turned over to the Superintendent of Documents, who fills them at the low prices fixed in accordance with law. Under his general authority to reprint a sufficient number of documents to meet the sale demand, he can replenish his stock when it runs low.

LEGISLATIVE DAY

This is a term often seen in the newspapers while Congress is in session, but conveying little or no meaning to readers who are not conversant with the somewhat complex rules of Congressional procedure.

If on any day either Senate or House refuses to adjourn, but instead takes a recess, no matter of what duration, the legislative day continues without regard to the almanac. This prolongation of the legislative day has, under the rules, various effects upon the status and the progress of pending bills and motions. These effects are too numerous and too complex to be stated here. Whatever they may be, the legislative day remains simply a legislative fiction. The calendar day, the real day, of course can not be affected by any action of Congress. In the Proceedings of Congress as reported in the Congressional record both the fictitious legislative date and the true calendar date have been published in recent years when the two dates conflict. Of course as a general rule the two dates harmoniously agree. It is only when a parliamentary struggle or "filibuster" is afoot that the fictitious legislative day sets the Gregorian calendar at defiance.

Almost the only cases in which the recognition of the legislative day affects the accuracy of the public records is when it makes the sessions of Congress seem to have closed at a time when they really did not close.

Following numerous precedents, the "legislative day" has been used in the tables of dates of the closing of sessions of Congress in the forthcoming Checklist of public documents.

The Constitution fixes the duration of Congressional terms, but the Constitutional provision has been differently construed at different periods. In the early years of the Republic it was generally held that the term of a Congress lawfully ended at midnight of March 3 in the odd-numbered years. As a matter of fact it never did end then. The work of legislation was usually continued far into the small hours of March 4, despite earnest protests often made. Finally, March 3, 1851, both the Senate and the House took official action determining that the legal date for the close of a Congress is 12 o'clock noon of March 4. (See Hinds' Precedents of the House, vol. 5, pages 862, 863.) This ruling has been ever since invariably followed. Whenever the legislative day varies from this date as the closing date of a Congress it is wrong. Minor departures, provided for by turning back the official clocks, and winked at by all departments of the Government, have been of course disregarded in compiling the Checklist.

PUBLISHING THE THIRTEENTH CENSUS

Occasionally there is an American citizen who thinks that the results of a census of 100,000,000 persons, their ages, nativities, occupations, products, etc., etc., can be compiled and published over night. Many such have written to the Superintendent of Documents for the price of the "complete census of 1910." For their benefit, and for the information also of their more considerate fellow countrymen, a little preliminary news concerning the publications of the 13th census is offered.

Thus far, though a great number of mimeographed news slips have been supplied to the newspapers, but two publications of the returns of the new census have been printed. The first is Bulletin 109 of the Permanent Census Bureau; it gives the numbers of the population of the States and Territories in gross, without reference to subdivisions or other particulars. The second is an unnumbered circular giving the gross population of all cities of the United States of 25,000 or more inhabitants.

The first important series of census publications to be issued will be the State bulletins (one for each State) of population by counties, minor civil divisions, and incorporated places. It was intended that these should be issued during March and April, 1911, but as these lines are written March is nearly gone and the first of the State bulletins has yet to appear.

The next following series will be the State bulletins for principal characteristics of the population, color, race, native or foreign birth and parentage, sex, illiteracy, etc. It is planned to issue these bulletins at as early a date as possible, probably all along from April to October, 1911. It is hoped to issue in October a general bulletin giving similar population statistics for the United States as a whole and for States and principal cities.

The bulletins of agricultural statistics will be next in order. These also will be State bulletins, one for each State, giving, by counties, the number, acreage, tenure and value of farms, crop and stock statistics, etc. It is intended to issue these during April, May, and June of this year, with a general issue for the whole United States in June.

State issues giving statistics of manufactures and of mines and quarries will follow, but the probable date of their appearance has not been announced.

A new and valuable feature will be a Compendium for each State instead of a single Compendium for the whole country as in former censuses. Each State Compendium will contain general statistics of population, agriculture, and mining for the United States as a whole and detailed statistics on the same subjects for the particular State represented. These issues are to be completed about June, 1912.

The publications thus far noted are intended for general popular distribution. The Bureau plans also a limited distribution of more elaborate publications to the larger libraries and educational institutions, and to newspapers and special investigators. In this distribution will be included the final reports, which will fill from 15 to 20 large volumes.

SLIP LAWS TO SUBSCRIBERS

The first printed form in which the laws of the United States appear is known as the "slip laws" because of the fact that each law is separately printed, many of them being but a single leaf or "slip" while some others are pamphlets of considerable size. The separate laws are printed as soon as possible after their approval by the President and are at once mailed by the Superintendent of Documents to subscribers. The 202 public laws and 18 public resolutions of the 61st Congress, 3d session, which ended March 4, 1911 (a short session), were thus mailed to several hundred subscribers for $2.00. For future sessions, special or regular, long or short, the price for supplying the slip laws will be the same. This at least is the present plan, and as it has been well considered it is not likely that it will be changed.

TESTS OF METALS

Nobody who sees the Report of the tests of metals and other materials for industrial purposes made with the United States testing machine at Watertown Arsenal, Massachusetts, during the fiscal year 1909, will wonder that it has been somewhat delayed in publication. It is in 3 vols. instead of the usual single volume. Vols. 1 and 2 are very large, containing in addition to the text nearly 900 plates, showing with graphic minuteness the results of the very numerous and important tests of many materials which have been made. The 1909 report will be sold in sets only, in cloth binding at $6.85.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

NOTE.—In its latest price-list the Smithsonian Institution publishes this note: "The publications of the Smithsonian Institution are: 1, Contributions to knowledge; 2, Miscellaneous collections; 3, Annual reports; 4, Special publications. No sets of these are for sale or distribution, as most of the volumes are out of print. The volumes of Contributions and of Miscellaneous collections are distributed only to public libraries and to learned institutions and societies in this country and abroad. A small edition of the papers in these two series is printed separately for sale or exchange. The Smithsonian reports are regularly distributed by the Institution to libraries throughout the world, and only a limited number of the volumes remains to supply demands from other sources. No general mailing-list of individuals is maintained. The reports can be had by purchase from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. The papers printed in the annual reports are published separately for free distribution. Publications should be ordered by the serial number. Remittances should be made payable to 'Smithsonian Institution.' An application from a library should state the number of volumes in the library and the date of establishment, and have the endorsement of a Member of Congress." The annual reports are the only Smithsonian publications that are regularly issued as public documents. All the others are paid for from the private funds of the Institution.

NATIONAL MUSEUM

NOTE.—The publications of the National Museum comprise bulletins, annual reports, and an annual volume of Proceedings. The annual report is included in the Congressional set. The editions of the bulletins and Proceedings are too limited to admit of general distribution, and the volumes of the latter are sent only to libraries.
