About GPO Access

GPO Access is a service of the U.S. Government Printing Office that provides free electronic access to a wealth of important information products produced by the Federal Government. The information provided on this site is the official, published version and the information retrieved from GPO Access can be used without restriction, unless specifically noted. This free service is funded by the Federal Depository Library Program and has grown out of Public Law 103-40, known as the Government Printing Office Electronic Information Enhancement Act of 1993.

GPO Access home page at: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov>

● A-Z Resource List: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/databases.html>

Use GPO Access to search or browse official, full-text information from the three branches of the Federal Government. Databases are updated based on their print equivalent and generally date back to 1994. Biennial Report to Congress on the Status of GPO Access.

● Federal Depository Library Program: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/fdlp.html>

For more than 140 years, the Government Printing Office (GPO) has kept America informed by producing and distributing Federal Government information products. GPO combines conventional technology with state-of-the-art methods whether providing public access to Government information online, or producing or procuring printed publications that serve the information needs of the U.S. Congress, Federal agencies, and the American public.

● Preservation Agreement with NARA: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/naramemofinal.pdf>

The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) recognizes GPO as an official archival affiliate for the electronic content on GPO Access. Signed in 2003, the NARA-GPO agreement provides for the permanent preservation and access to the online versions of the Congressional Record, the Federal Register, the Code of Federal Regulations, and other appropriate publications from GPO Access.

● U.S. Government Online Bookstore: <http://bookstore.gpo.gov/>

Locate and order publications (books, maps, serials, videos, CD-ROMs, subscriptions) available for sale through the Information Dissemination (Superintendent of Documents), U.S. Government Printing Office. Orders may be placed online, via mail, fax, phone, teletype. Online orders are encrypted to ensure secure transactions.

● GPO Contact Center: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/help/index.html>

Users needing assistance with GPO Access can contact the GPO Contact Center. These highly trained specialists are available Monday through Friday (except Federal holidays) from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. The Contact Center may be reached via :

● Ben's Guide to U.S. Government: <http://bensguide.gpo.gov/>

Ben's Guide serves as the educational component of GPO Access by providing learning tools for K-12 students, parents, and educators. The site provides age-specific explanations about how the Federal Government works, explains the use of the primary source materials.

USER'S GUIDE , CATALOG ARRANGEMENT, AND INDEXES

The bibliographic entries in the Serials Supplement are arranged in Superintendent of Documents classification number order. Each record is also assigned a unique catalog number, which consists of a four-digit prefix representing the catalog year, followed by a sequential number beginning with 1 in the first issue of each year. Within this arrangement, the publications of each Government author are further identified by the name and address of the issuing agency.

The Serials Supplement contains records for serial publications which GPO distributes in a physical or electronic format to the Depository Libraries and which have a quadrennial or more frequency of issue. Serials that changed title or ceased publication during the preceding year are noted in the "Title Changes" and the "Discontinued Serials" list.

Superintendent of Documents classification changes for serial titles found in the Serials Supplement are identified in the "Classification Changes" list. In instances where Superintendent of Documents classification are the same for different serial titles, the classification number is qualified by a trailing superior number, for example I 19.65:(NOS.) 2. The "Classification Changes," "Ceased Publications," "Title Changes," and "... available in Electronic Only" lists are located in the preliminary pages of the Serials Supplement.

Serials Supplement entries may be accessed through the following indexes.

Author index: An alphabetical list of government, personal, and corporate authors, editors, and conferences.

Title Index: An alphabetical list of titles proper, subtitles, and alternate, titles.

Subject Index: An alphabetical list of subjects derived from the Library of Congress Subject Headings.

Series/Report Index: An alphabetical list of series statements, and tracings, series numbers, and report numbers.

Stock Number Index: An Alphanumeric list of GPO and other sales stock numbers.

Title Keyword Index: An alphabetical list of truncated titles, arranged by important words in publication titles.

A Margin Index on the back cover locates the six indexes. Listings in all of the indexes are followed by the catalog entry number, which refers the user to the complete bibliographic citation. Listings in the Title and Subject Indexes are augmented with the publications' author and classification number to enhance identification and retrieval.

Federal Depository Library Program

The Federal Depository Library Program was established by Congress to provide free public access to U.S. Government publications. The program is administered by the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office. Over 1,300 public, academic, State, and law libraries serve as an information link with the Federal Government by maintaining collections of Government publications. These collections, which are tailored to local needs, are open to the public. Libraries designated as regional depository libraries have the responsibility of retaining material permanently and providing inter-library loan and reference services in their regions.

The Internet web site for the Program is located at:

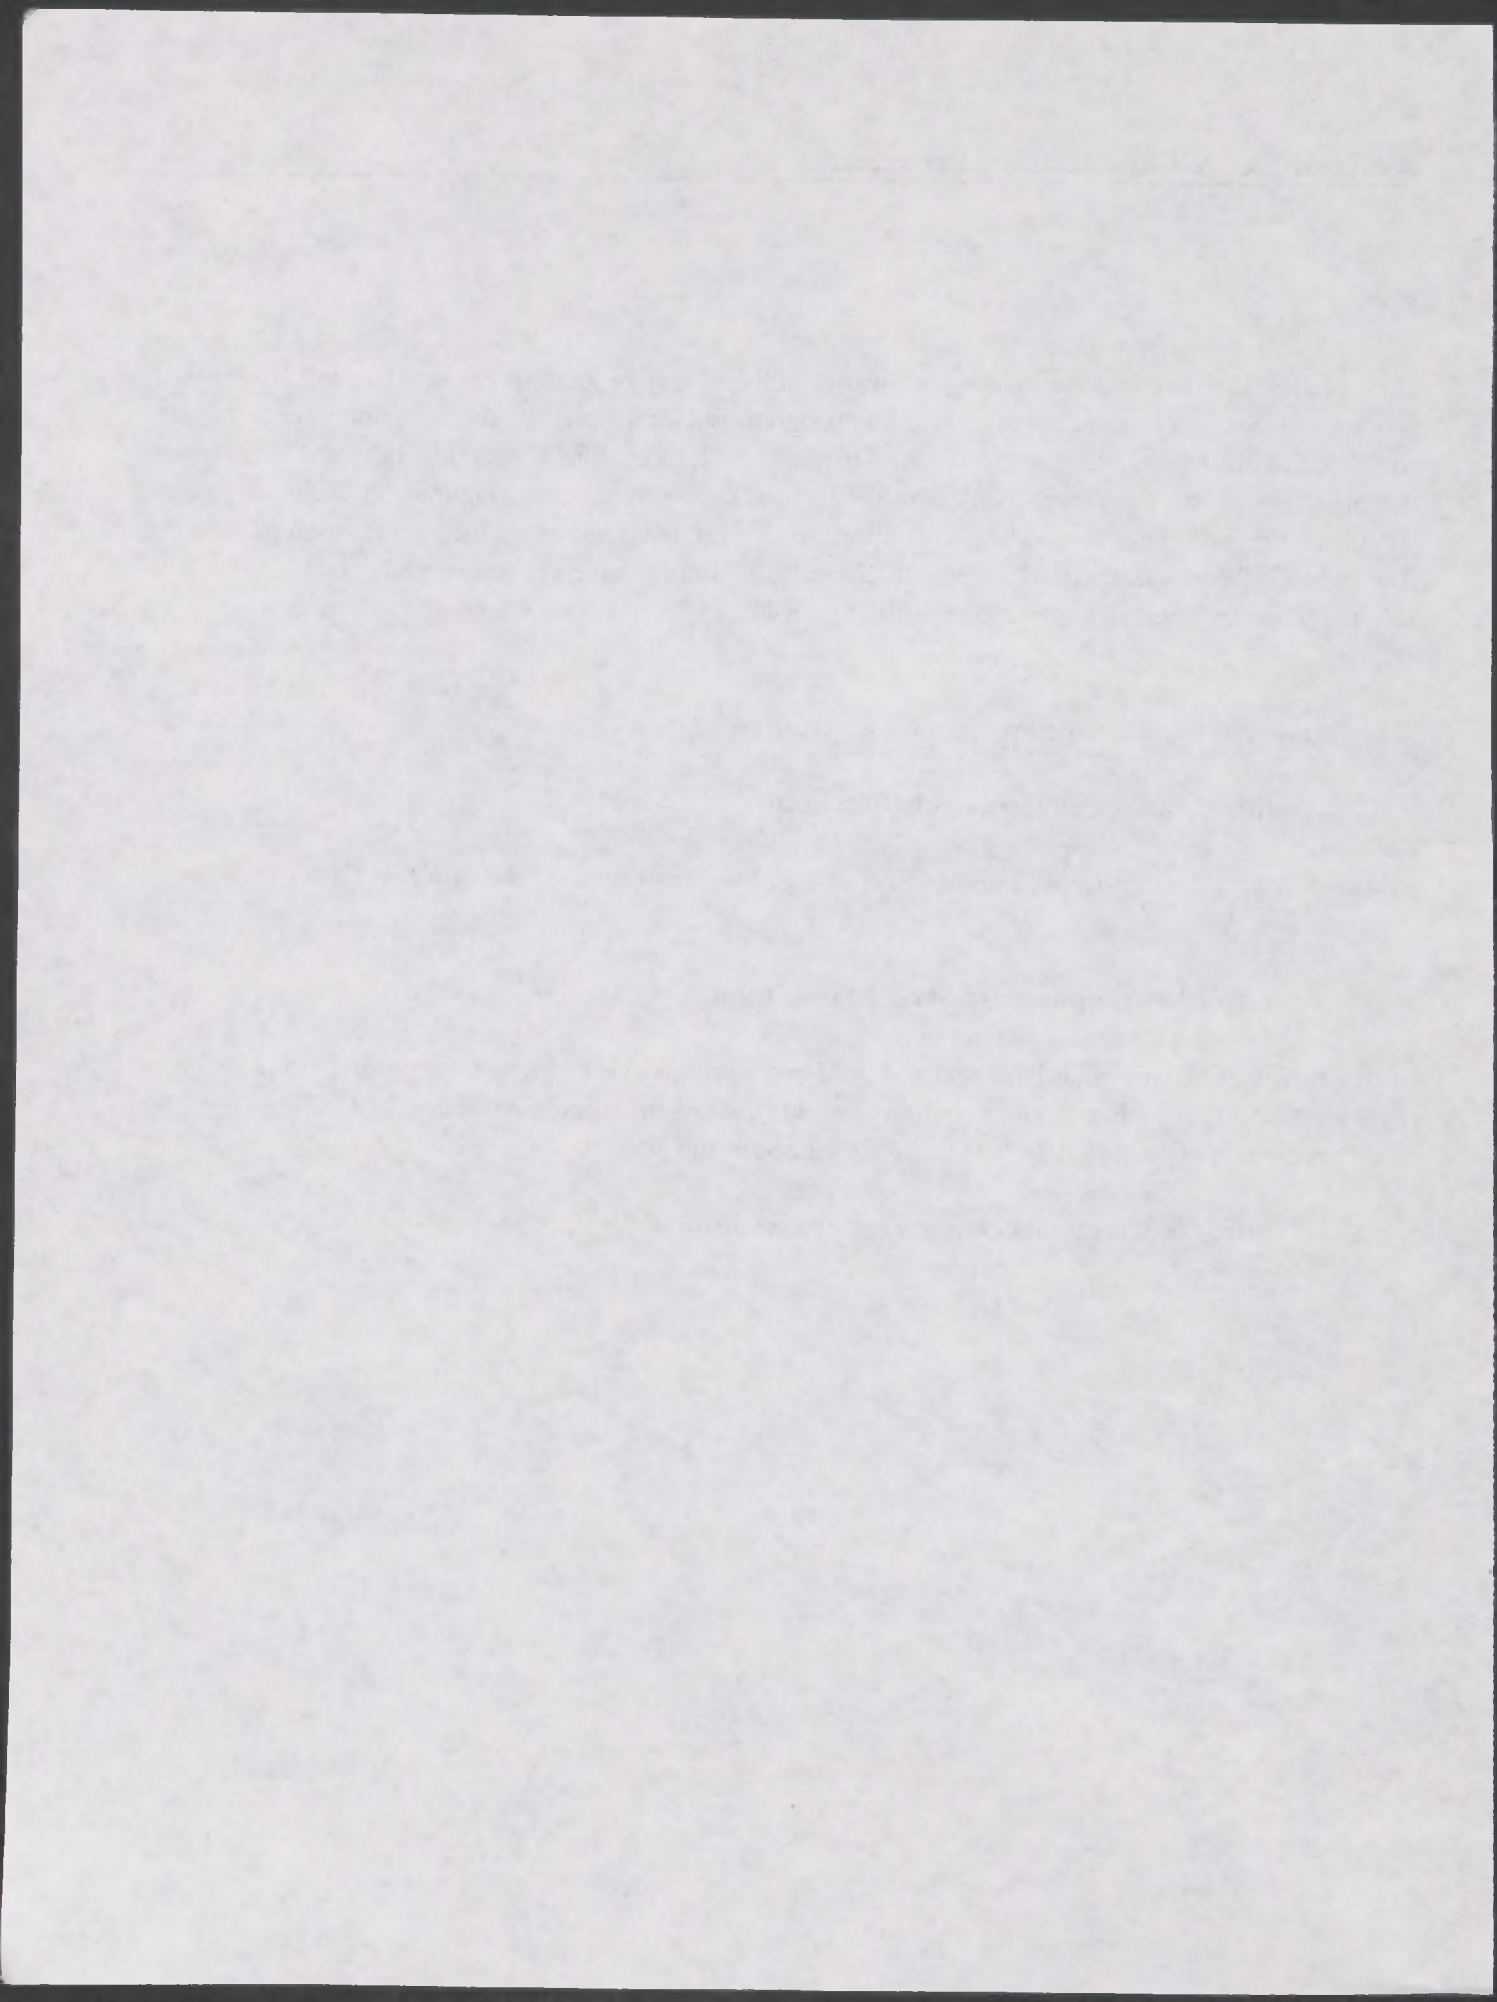

<http://www.gpoaccess.gov/fdlp.html>

You may locate the depository libraries in your area by going online to the GPO ACCESS internet site. At:

<http://www.gpoaccess.gov/libraries.html>

The depository libraries that have selected the Item numbers and received publications listed in this catalog may be located by searching the publications in the online Catalog of U.S. Government Publications (CGP) at GPO ACCESS on the internet. At:

Title from title screen (viewed on May 30, 2001). Not published in 2000. Science education resource journal to be used with learners from grade 5 and older. Contains natural resource research articles conducted by USDA Forest Service scientists. These are scientific journal articles that have been reformatted to meet the needs of an audience who are new to the area of science. Articles are easier to understand, shortened, more aesthetically pleasing to the eye, contain glossaries, and include hands-on activities. The goal is to encourage critical thinking, scientific inquiry, and investigation while learning about our natural resources and the environment. Online version of the print publication.
