RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS FOR 1855-'56.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A statement of receipts and expenditures of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1856.

MARCH 3, 1857.—Ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
March 3, 1857.

SIR: I have the honor to forward herewith statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with a copy of his letter transmitting them to this department, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1856, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JAMES GUTHRIE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. N. P. BANKS, Jr.,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, March 3, 1857.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1856, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th of December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains—

First. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1856. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

Second. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to, and repaid by, each individual during the year.

Third. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1856, including the balances on the 1st of July, 1855, the payments during the year, the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

Fourth. Statements of the balances due by and in favor of the supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct taxes and internal revenue.

Fifth. Statements of the operations of the several land offices in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1856.

Sixth. Statements in relation to the customs.

Seventh. Statements of the emoluments of the officers of the customs as far as received at this office. The balance will be included in the next year.

The account of the receipts and expenditures was prepared and ready to be transmitted on the 12th of January last, (as reported from this office on the 15th of the same month,) but the transmission was postponed, expecting the full return of the emoluments of the officers of the customs. This being the last day of the session, it cannot be delayed longer, otherwise it could not be printed.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER, Register.

Hon. JAMES GUTHRIE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACCOUNT
THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES
THE UNITED STATES,

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1856.

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed December 30, 1791, viz :

“Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or, if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all the public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday in October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein ; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation ; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriations ;”

And of “An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the treasury of the United States,” passed August 26, 1842.

General account of the receipts and expenditures of the

To balance in the treasury, June 30, 1855. 47,777,672 13
