TREASURY DEPARTMENT

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

Vol 24

1851-'52.

LETTER

TO THE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

An account of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1852.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, March 2, 1853.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the printed account of the Receipts and Expenditures of the United States, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1852, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30th, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains—

First. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1852. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

Second. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to and repaid by each individual during the year.

Third. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1852, including the balances on the first of July, 1851, the payments during the year, the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

Fourth. Statements of the balances due by and in favor of supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct tax and internal revenue; also, statement of the foreign and domestic debt, including temporary loans and Treasury notes, on the first day of January in each of the years, from 1791 to 1852 inclusive.

Fifth. Statements of operations at the several land offices in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1852.

Sixth. Statements in relation to customs.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

N. SARGENT, Register.

Hon. THOMAS CORWIN,

Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACCOUNT
OF
THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES
OF
THE UNITED STATES,
FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1852.

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed on the 30th day of December, 1791, viz :

" Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday in October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein ; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation ; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriations ; and of " An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States," passed August 26, 1842. ## STATEMENT—Continued.

NOTES.

- (1) On the 1st day of July, 1851, this balance was erroneously reported to be $20,248 27, caused by inadvertently adding $930 of outstanding warrants of the previous year to the payments; instead of adding it to the payments on account of the appropriation for "Navy invalid pensions."
- (2) On the 1st day of July, 1851, this balance was erroneously reported to be $58,803 35, caused by omitting to add $930 of outstanding warrants of the previous year to the payments; the same being thus added to the payments on account of appropriation for "war invalid pensions."
- (3) On the 1st day of July, 1851, this balance was $19,053 84, the whole of which has been transferred to "expenses of running and marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico."
- (4) The amount appropriated for "interest on stocks under Cherokee treaty of 1835," was..... 19,732 35
 From which deduct the amount transferred to "interest on stocks due Indian tribes and reimbursable"..... 3,595 28
$16,137 07
- (5) On the 1st day of July, 1851, this balance was $11,013 42, the whole of which has been transferred to "expenses of running and marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico."
- (6) On the 6th of September, 1851, there was repaid to this appropriation.... 10,553 98
 From which deduct this sum, transferred to "expenses of running and marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico"..... 10,000 00
