RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

An account of receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year 1855.

FEBRUARY 28, 1856.—Laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
February 27, 1856.

SIR: I have the honor to forward herewith statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with a copy of his letter transmitting them to this department, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1855; stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES GUTHRIE,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. N. P. BANKS, Jr.,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, February 26, 1856.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1855, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains—

First. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1855. The pages on the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

Second. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to and repaid by each individual during the year.

Third. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1855, including the balances on the 1st of July, 1854, the payments during the year, the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

Fourth. Statements of the balances due by and in favor of supervision collectors, and others, of the late direct tax and internal revenue.

Fifth. Statements of the operations of the several land offices in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1855.

Sixth. Statements in relation to the customs.

Seventh. Statements of the emoluments of the officers of the customs from the 1st of January, 1841, to the 30th of June, 1855.

It is deemed proper to state that the account of the receipts and expenditures was prepared and ready to be transmitted at the time required by law; but has been withheld awaiting the preparation of the statements of the emoluments of officers of the customs, directed by your letter of August last.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER, Register.

Hon. JAMES GUTHRIE,
Secretary of the Treasury.
