TREASURY DEPARTMENT

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

An account of the receipts and expenditures of the government for the year ending June 30, 1853.

JUNE 24, 1854.—Laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

June 24, 1854.

SIR: I have the honor to forward, herewith, statements prepared by the Register of the Treasury, with a copy of his letter transmitting them to this department, exhibiting an account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending 30th of June, 1853; stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th of December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES GUTHRIE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

HON. LINN BOYD,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, June 22, 1854.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1853, stated in pursuance of the standing order of the House of Representatives of 30th of December, 1791, and an act of August 26, 1842.

This account contains—

First. A general account of the receipts and expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1853. The pages on the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

Second. The expenditures and repayments under each head of appropriation, showing the aggregate amount paid to and unpaid by each individual during the year.

Third. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending 30th of June, 1853; including the balances on the 1st of July, 1852, the payments during the year, the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

Fourth. Statements of the receipts, expenditures, and appropriations; showing the aggregate annual amounts, under various general heads, from 4th of March, 1789, to 30th of June, 1853.

Fifth. Statements of the balances due by and in favor of supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct taxes and internal revenue.

Sixth. Statements of the operations at the several land offices, in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1853.

Seventh. Statements in relation to customs.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER, Register.

HON. JAMES GUTHRIE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACCOUNT
OF
THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES
OF
THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1853;

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed on the 30th December, 1791, viz:

"Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or, if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday in October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriation;"

And of "An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States," passed August 26, 1842.
