LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

TRANSMITTING

An account of the receipts and expenditures of the government for the year ending June 30, 1845.

DECEMBER 8, 1845.

Read, and laid upon the table, and 100 extra copies ordered to be printed for the use of the Register of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, December 4, 1845.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to you an account of the receipts and expenditures of the government for the year ending June 30, 1845, prepared in the office of the Register of the Treasury, pursuant to the resolution of the House of Representatives passed December 30, 1791.

I am, sir, respectfully, your obedient servant,

R. J. WALKER,
Secretary of the Treasury.

To the SPEAKER
Of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, November 29, 1845.

SIR: I have the honor to hand you the account of the receipts and expenditures of the United States for the fiscal year ending the 30th of June, 1845, stated in pursuance of the resolution of the House of Representatives of December 30, 1791, which is in the following words, to wit:

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or, if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday of October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys, down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday of October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which fall under each head of appropriation, and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriation;”

And of the act entitled “An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States,” passed August 26th, 1842.

This account contains—

I. A general account current of the receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1845. The pages in the margin of the credit side refer to the detailed expenditures under the specific heads of appropriation.

II. Statements of the appropriations made for the fiscal year ending the 30th June, 1845, including the balances on the 1st of July, 1844; the payments during the year; the several sums carried to the surplus fund, and the balances unexpended at the end of the year.

III. Statements of balances due by, and in favor of, supervisors, collectors, and others, of the late direct taxes and internal revenue.

IV. Statements of the operations of the several land offices during the year ending June 30, 1845.

V. Statements exhibiting the operations relative to the customs for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1845, which will be added in an appendix, in time to be printed with the accounts.

The statements relative to the official emoluments of officers of the customs are again omitted, in consequence of this office not being in possession of materials from which to make them full and correct.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

R. H. GILLET, Register.

Hon. R. J. WALKER,
Secretary of the Treasury.

AN ACCOUNT
OF
RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1845;

Stated in pursuance of the following standing order of the House of Representatives of the United States, passed on the 30th day of December, 1791, viz :

“ Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the House of Representatives, on the fourth Monday of October in each year, if Congress shall then be in session, or if not then in session, within the first week of the session next following the said fourth Monday in October, an accurate statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys down to the last day, inclusively, of the month of December immediately preceding the said fourth Monday of October, distinguishing the amount of the receipts of each State or district, and from each officer therein; in which statement shall also be distinguished the expenditures which shall fall under each head of appropriation; and shall be shown the sums, if any, which remain unexpended and to be accounted for in the next statement of each and every of such appropriation;”

And of “ An act to define and establish the fiscal year of the Treasury of the United States,” passed August 26, 1842.
