Do do eastern district of Virginia	656 89
Mallory, Charles, collector of the customs Norfolk, relative to prisoners of war	258 35
Mason, John, late superintendent of Indian Trade	13,438 09	This sum appears to have been paid from 1st January, 1803, to 31st March, 1811, to the several factors, their assistants, and clerks, by the superintendent, out of the trade fund, on account of their salaries, which the superintendent states he was entrusted to do by the then Secretaries of War, under the direction of the then Presidents; but as the amount thus paid was taken from a fund which had not been appropriated for the payment of salaries, but for another object, the accounting officers have not considered themselves authorized to allow the superintendent credit therefor, in the settlement of his accounts at the Treasury. It is submitted whether, according to the foregoing statement, the case is of such a character as to require the interposition of Congress.
