Adjournment: Speaker rules that concurrent resolution for an adjournment for more than three days is a privileged question 439.

Amendment: Speaker rules in order motion to strike out or amend an amendment to an amendment before original amendment perfected 1122, 1123.

Appropriation and revenue bills: debate on point of order whether closing of debate can be applied to a pending section or only to pending paragraph 2876–2884, 2995, 2996.

Committee on Ways and Means: Speaker rules that their right to report at any time extends only to bills raising revenue 529.

Committees of the Whole: debate on methods of stopping debate in, and decision that motion to strike out enacting clause is debatable 61, 62.

Conference committee: Speaker rules relative to referring constitutional objection to the tariff bill to 3344.

Conference reports: rulings of Speaker relative to nature of written report required by the rules 3709–3712.

Consideration: Speaker rules that unanimous consent given to report back at any time carries with it right of consideration, but that question of consideration may be raised 859.

——— Speaker rules that member can raise question of consideration against a bill without reference to matter he proposes to call up if question carried 1582.

Enacting clause: decision of Committee of Whole that motion to strike out is debatable 61, 62.

——— chairman of Committee of Whole rules that motion to amend bill may be made pending the motion to strike out enacting clause, but that latter motion must be first voted on 65.

Engrossment: Speaker rules that point of order that a bill has not actually been engrossed can not be made after bill read a third time 186.

Leaves of absence: Speaker rules that request for leave of absence is not subject to amendment 436.

——— Speaker rules that House has right by majority vote to grant 438.

——— Speaker rules that if more than fifteen members present it requires majority of those present to grant 437.

——— Speaker rules that motion to adjourn would take precedence of submitting requests for leave of absence, but that motion for a recess to take effect at future time would not affect right of members to submit requests for 438.

Points of order: Speaker rules that they must be raised before consideration of bill begins 3337.

Previous question: Speaker rules that previous question having been ordered on bill and pending amendments prior to engrossment and third reading, that motion to recommit is not in order, but that motion to lay on table is in order 223.

Recess: Speaker rules that concurrent resolution for an adjournment for more than three days is a privileged question 439.

——— Speaker rules that a roll-call would be stopped if in progress at time fixed for a recess 3309.

Recommittal: Speaker decides that the rule of House allowing motion to recommit after previous question ordered is applicable only to bills and joint resolutions 3314.

Reconsideration: Speaker rules that motion to reconsider can not be entertained pending the demand for previous question 186.

Rules: Speaker rules that an amendment of which one day's notice has been given may be considered without being referred 1324.

——— Speaker decides that introduction of resolution to amend rules is a privileged question 2572.

Special orders: Speaker rules that they can be antagonized by motions to consider other matters 285.

——— Speaker rules that they suspend rule requiring first consideration of a bill to be in Committee of Whole 860.

——— Speaker rules that question of consideration may be raised against 904.

——— debate on decision of Speaker that special order suspends rule requiring first consideration in Committee of Whole 926–928.

——— Speaker rules that consideration of a bill in the House as in Committee of Whole, under a special order, does not deprive House of power to close debate by ordering previous question 3260.

Decisions on

Striking out: Speaker rules that House having adopted amendments to a substitute, that a motion to strike out the substitute does not carry with it the amendments adopted, and that it is in order to move to strike out any portion of a substitute as amended 1136.

——— Speaker rules that if substitute to section of a bill be adopted it is not in order to move to strike out the section 1137.

——— Speaker rules that a motion to strike out several sections of a bill is not divisible 1147.

Suspension of rules: Speaker decides that committees can move to suspend rules on third Monday of month, and report for passage matters that have not been referred to them 2955.

Tariff-bill rule: Speaker decides that the resolution to allow majority to suspend rules to take up the tariff bill is to be treated and considered as a rule 3308.
