House resolution 551.
- Whereas death has again invaded our ranks and removed from the scene of his earthly activities our friend and colleague, the Hon. Michael F. Conry, of the State of New York:
- Resolved*, That in his death we experience a keen sense of personal loss. As a Member of the House for four terms, and many years a member of this committee, he discharged at all times with distinguished ability and patriotism the duties devolving upon him;
- Resolved*, That in his death the House and the committee have lost a wise, diligent, patriotic member and the district he represented, a citizen and a public servant devoted at all times to high ideals and prompted by those lofty purposes and motives which make for the very best type of American citizenship;
- Resolved*, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon a page of the record of this committee to be set apart for that purpose, and that a copy of the same be presented to the House by the chairman of this committee for printing in the Congressional Record; and
- Resolved*, That a copy of these resolutions appropriately engrossed be transmitted by the clerk of this committee to the family of the deceased.
- Mr. Kitchin, by direction of the Committee on Ways and Means, and ordered to be spread upon the record, 4920.—Remarks delivered in House on death of (Appendix 698, 821, 824, 824, 850, 889, 893, 896).
