

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LODGE. Mr. President, the House is not yet organized. I understand it will be organized to-day. We have appointed our committee to notify the President. As there is nothing further for the Senate to do at this time, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 3 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Thursday, December 6, 1923, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, December 5, 1923.

The House met at 12 o'clock noon, and was called to order by the Clerk.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Let Thy presence, our Heavenly Father, direct our minds and hearts this day, that our labors may be efficient, that our paths may be plain, and that all our ways may be gentle and benevolent. Be graciously near us, that we may be wise servants unto Thee and unto our country. Day by day may our footsteps press the paths of righteousness and good will toward all men. In our deliberations help us to go forward with wisdom, patience, and fortitude, and hasten the coming of Thy kingdom, and may we never wrong any man. In the Spirit of the Master. Amen.

The CLERK. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings.

The Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was read.

The CLERK. Without objection, the Journal will stand approved as read.

There was no objection.

CREDENTIALS OF A MEMBER.

The CLERK. The Clerk begs to announce that he has received the certificate of election of Mr. JOSEPH W. MORRIS as a Representative elect from the seventh congressional district of Kentucky to succeed the late Representative-elect Cantrill, deceased, and the Clerk has placed the name of Mr. MORRIS upon the roll.

ELECTION OF A SPEAKER.

The CLERK. The question recurs upon the election of a Speaker. The tellers will please come forward and take their places.

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. Mr. Clerk—

The CLERK. For what purpose does the gentleman from Wisconsin rise?

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. To ask unanimous consent to submit a statement relating to the organization.

The CLERK. The gentleman from Wisconsin asks unanimous consent to submit a statement relating to the organization of the House. Is there objection? [After a pause.] The Clerk hears none. The Clerk will read the statement.

The Clerk read as follows:

A committee of the Progressive group of the House of Representatives, consisting of Messrs. WOODRUFF and LA GUARDIA and myself, met with Majority Leader LONGWORTH last evening and discussed the proposed procedure for a revision of the rules of the House. At this meeting mutual assurances were given that the following program would be carried out:

1. That the rules of the Sixty-seventh Congress should be adopted as the rules of the Sixty-eighth Congress for 30 days only.
2. That during these 30 days amendments to the rules may be offered by any Member, to be referred to the Committee on Rules, which committee shall consider such amendments and make a report thereon to the House.
3. Within such 30 days the committee shall make a report of the rules and such amendments as they recommend. The rules and amendments as reported by the committee shall be subject to reasonable discussion, amendment, and record votes of the House.
4. When the committee shall have made its report any Member of the House shall have opportunity to offer amendments to any rule of the House and may call for a record vote thereon, whether such rule has been included in the report of the committee or not.
5. One motion to recommit shall be in order.

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. Mr. Clerk, this statement was submitted to the floor leader and, I trust, the next chairman of the Committee on Rules, and I understand is agreed to, but I would like to hear from either gentleman.

Mr. BEGG. Will the gentleman yield for a question?

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. I will.

Mr. BEGG. Does the statement—I could not hear the reading distinctly—set forth the fact this is the program that had been already agreed upon?

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. The gentleman has the statement there.

Mr. GARNER of Texas. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. I will.

Mr. GARNER of Texas. I would like to know if the gentleman from Ohio agrees to the statement that has been read from the desk?

Mr. LONGWORTH. As far as I am concerned I agree to the interpretation of what the House will have an opportunity to do in regard to it.

Mr. GARNER of Texas. In other words, the gentleman is in accord with the statement read at the desk?

Mr. LONGWORTH. I am in accord with the interpretation.

Mr. GARNER of Texas. Will the gentleman from Wisconsin yield for a question?

Mr. NELSON of Wisconsin. I will.

Mr. GARNER of Texas. I want to ask the gentleman from Wisconsin if he submitted willingly to this outrage? [Laughter.]

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Clerk, I ask for the regular order.

The CLERK. The regular order is the taking of the vote upon the election of a Speaker.

Mr. COOPER of Wisconsin. Mr. Clerk, I ask unanimous consent to say a word.

The CLERK. In relation to the organization of the House?

Mr. COOPER of Wisconsin. Yes.

The CLERK. Is there objection? The Clerk hears none.

Mr. COOPER of Wisconsin. I am in hearty accord with the announcement just made by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. NELSON]. As to whether it is in accord with an agreement previously made, I have only this to say, that if any other agreement had been made or even suggested by anybody anywhere it was never made public so that I or any other Member of this House had heard of it. We do not wish to be put in the attitude of having deliberately obstructed for what might be characterized as pettifoggery purposes the business of the House. Not at all. Let me direct the attention of the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BEGG] to the fact that until a few years ago the rules of this House permitted the Speaker to appoint all of the committees, to appoint all of the chairmen of all of the committees, to appoint the powerful Committee on Rules, and he himself, ex officio, to be the chairman of that committee, and he himself also, of necessity, to have the sole power of recognition. I want further to invite my young friend's attention to the fact that Ostrogowski, the Russian, came over to this country while the Czar of Russia was at the height of his power, and that he wrote syndicate articles and a book in which he said that one of the very great surprises of his trip through this magnificent Republic came when he discovered such a concentration of power in the Speaker of the House of the American Congress as was not to be found in the presiding officer of any other parliamentary body in the world.

And we, who were the so-called Progressives at that time, made a fight—and we succeeded—to deprive the Speaker of that power, not because any of us had ceased to be Republicans, not because any of us were anarchists, not because any of us, as some papers have been saying, are bandits; not at all, but simply because we wished to give the Representatives of the American people on this floor an opportunity to represent the constituents who honored them by sending them here. [Applause.] That was all, and that is all we wish to do now. All that we have sought to do was to secure a reasonable and fair opportunity to propose amendments to the rules; not to coerce amendments, not to demand amendments, but to present amendments, and to have a reasonable and fair discussion of our proposals in this Chamber. That is all. That is representative government, and anything else is tyranny. [Applause.]

Mr. Chairman, during the last session of the last Congress, and repeatedly before that time, under the rules of this House, there being nothing in the rules to prevent it, chairmen of great committees, when measures had been favorably reported from those committees with a request that they be submitted to the House, have deliberately put those resolutions and measures in their respective pockets and kept them there, because they, the chairmen, said, "We do not wish to have them come before the House." [Applause.] Does not my young friend from Ohio want the rules amended which tolerate a wrong like that?

Mr. BEGG. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. COOPER of Wisconsin. No; I will not at this time.

Mr. ANDERSON. Then I will ask for the regular order.

The CLERK. The regular order is asked for.

Mr. BEGG. Mr. Chairman, I ask for the regular order.

Mr. BLANTON. Mr. Chairman, I submit that this is the regular order. The gentleman from Wisconsin was recognized by the Chairman or the Clerk.

The CLERK. The gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. COOPER] obtained unanimous consent to address the House upon a matter relating to its organization and had proceeded for a few moments, when two gentlemen demanded the regular order, which the Clerk assumes to have implied that the gentleman from Wisconsin is not addressing himself to the subject of the organization. The Clerk may be wrong in that assumption.

Mr. BEGG. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

The CLERK. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. BEGG. I have no objection at all to the gentleman's making a statement, but I do object to his making a speech now and then refusing to yield the floor. Now, the fact that he was given permission—

The CLERK. The Clerk will state—

Mr. BEGG. I meant refusing to yield to a question.

The CLERK. The Clerk will state that the Clerk does not regard that as a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Chairman, I hope that no technical objection will be interposed to any statement the gentleman from Wisconsin wishes to make. [Applause.] No good purpose can be served at this juncture by trying to shut anybody off from any statement which will shed light upon the present condition, and if we can have harmony, in God's name let us have it. [Applause.]

The CLERK. The gentleman from Wisconsin will proceed.

Mr. COOPER of Wisconsin. Mr. Chairman, I feel that before saying anything more—I shall be brief—my thanks are due, and they are most cordially given, to my distinguished friend, the floor leader [Mr. LONGWORTH], and to my equally distinguished friend the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MADDEN], two as fair-minded men as I have ever known in the House of Representatives. [Applause.]

I only wish to add, Mr. Chairman, that in the circumstances, in view of the maledictions—I almost might have said curses—heaped upon the heads of the men who, without asking my consent, proposed me for Speaker—I have never asked anybody to cast a vote for me for the position—I thought I had a right, if not in justice to myself, then in justice to the men who have stood by me so loyally in the midst of this hurricane of slander and abuse, to say a word in extenuation of their offense. [Laughter.] That is all. [Applause.]

Mr. WOOD rose.

The CLERK. For what purpose does the gentleman from Indiana rise?

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Chairman, I ask for the regular order.

The CLERK. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Indiana?

Mr. ANDERSON. I feel we should proceed with the regular order. While I shall not object to this speech, I shall ask for the regular order immediately after.

The CLERK. Without objection, the gentleman from Indiana will proceed for one minute.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Chairman, I desire to state for the information of the House and also for the information of the public that there is nothing in the statement handed to the Clerk by the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. NELSON] but what in substance and in fact is embodied in a resolution that the proposed chairman of the Committee on Rules has had in his pocket for more than a week, ready to be offered when opportunity afforded. [Applause.]

Mr. BLANTON. In his pocket? [Laughter.]

The CLERK. The regular order is demanded.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Chairman, I merely wish to say that as the leading candidate for Speaker, as shown by the vote on the ballots taken yesterday [laughter], I have no suggestion to make except that the roll call proceed.

The CLERK. The Clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following was the result:

FOR MR. MARTIN B. MADDEN—2.

 Reid, Ill. |

ANSWERED "PRESENT"—4.

Berger
 Garrett, Tenn. | Kvale | Wefald |

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Clerk, before the announcement of the vote I desire to say on behalf of the gentleman from New York [Mr. LINDSAY] and the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. TINKHAM] that they are unavoidably absent—Mr. LINDSAY on account of the death of a sister and Mr. TINKHAM on account of the death of his mother. I also desire to add that the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. THOMPSON] is absent on account of the death of his wife.

Mr. BARKLEY. Mr. Clerk, I desire to say that my colleague [Mr. JOHNSON of Kentucky] is absent on account of illness. If here, he would vote for Mr. GARRETT.

Mr. HILL of Maryland. Mr. Clerk, I wish to say that the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. Mudd] is absent on account of illness. If here, he would vote for Mr. GILLETT.

Mr. CRISP. Mr. Clerk, my colleagues [Mr. WISE and Judge PARK] are both absent. Mr. WISE is ill and Judge PARK is at the hospital attending his wife, who is seriously ill. If they were here, they would both vote for Mr. GARRETT.

Mr. OLIVER of Alabama. Mr. Clerk, my colleague [Mr. McDUFFIE] is unavoidably detained, but if he were here he would vote for Mr. GARRETT.

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their tally. The total number of votes cast is 414, of which FREDERICK H. GILLET has received 215, FINIS J. GARRETT 197, MARTIN B. MADDEN 2, and 4 Members have answered "Present."

The Hon. FREDERICK H. GILLET, Member elect from the State of Massachusetts, having received a majority of all the votes cast is duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the Sixty-eighth Congress. [Applause.]

The gentleman from Ohio [Mr. LONGWORTH], the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. GARRETT], the gentleman from Wisconsin [Mr. COOPER], and the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MADDEN] will please conduct the Speaker elect to the chair, and the Clerk will designate the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. GREENE] to administer to the Speaker elect the oath of office prescribed by law. The Clerk desires to thank the Members for their kind forbearance and consideration of him.

The committee appointed to notify Mr. GILLET of his election and escort him to the chair having returned with him,

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee said: My colleagues of the House of Representatives, a gentleman by birth and breeding and culture, a legislator of long experience and fine capacity, a robust partisan, but a polite one, a presiding officer honorable and fair, is he whom I now have the honor formally to present to you, the elected Speaker of the House, the Hon. FREDERICK H. GILLET, of Massachusetts. [Prolonged applause.]

ADDRESS OF THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. Gentlemen of the House, I am deeply appreciative and grateful for your action, and I hope this cordial greeting means a genuine friendliness and good will, which I heartily reciprocate. This honor is to me the greatest and most acceptable which the world could give, and my gratitude is correspondingly great to you who have given it to me. I think I can best show it by a faithful and conscientious performance of the duties of the office. That I promise you.

Since the Speaker ceased to be chairman of the Committee on Rules, he has constantly tended to be more and more a judicial officer. I believe the wish of those who elected me is that I should interpret the rules of parliamentary law according to my best and honest judgment, without favor or malice, so that every Member shall be protected in all the rights guaranteed to him by the rules, to the end that this shall be a Government of law, and not of men. That will be my effort.

The country is waiting for legislation. We are still suffering from the disorganization and unnatural stimulation of the war. Production was forced into unnatural channels and unnatural proportions, and we have not yet everywhere reached an equilibrium. If there is any legislation which can hasten the complete return to prosperous peace conditions, we ought to discover and apply it.

The closeness of party divisions here and the approach of a presidential election will naturally engender more than the usual amount of political heat and tend to prevent that poise and calmness which we all know is the best atmosphere for good legislation. Let us all try to preserve equanimity, decorum, and the mutual respect and forbearance which is appropriate to the dignity of the House and which is essential for wise legislation.

Again thanking you heartily for your confidence, I am ready to take the oath of office.

The oath of office was administered to the Speaker by Mr. GREENE of Massachusetts.

SWEARING IN OF MEMBERS.

The SPEAKER. The first business is the swearing in of Members by States. Members will now be called by States to take the oath of office.

The Members presented themselves as their States were called and took the oath of office prescribed by law.

During the swearing in of the Members, when the State of Illinois was called, the following occurred:

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, at this point I object to the swearing in of EDWARD E. MILLER, a Representative from the State of Illinois, for the reason—

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I object to any statement being made just now.

Mr. RAINEY. But I am preferring the request in the usual way.

The SPEAKER. The ordinary practice is, if any objection be made to an individual, he stands to one side until all of the others have been sworn in, and then the matter can be taken up.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. MADDEN. If a Member elect stands here ready to be sworn in, with his certificate properly filed with the Clerk, with all the evidences of his election manifest, with no contest pending, no crime charged, no charges pending anywhere against the Member elect, is it possible that under such circumstances a Member elect could then be asked to step aside and wait until all of the other Members had been sworn in?

The SPEAKER. That is the practice, and, of course, it is followed simply for the convenience of the House. The question could be taken up by the House at this time.

Mr. MADDEN. I think it ought to be taken up now.

The SPEAKER. It is the ordinary practice that the Member elect to whom objection is made shall stand to one side and wait until the others are sworn in, and then his case can be taken up separately. If there is no objection, that practice will be followed now.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I shall object.

The SPEAKER. Then if objection be made, the Chair thinks the question should be taken up at this time. The trouble is that if it be taken up at this time, there is only a very small portion of the membership already sworn in.

Mr. MADDEN. I object to any discrimination being made against any Member who presents the proper credentials.

The SPEAKER. That is the invariable practice.

Mr. SNELL. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the gentleman surrenders no right whatever if he temporarily stands aside.

The SPEAKER. He does not.

Mr. SNELL. And after the swearing in of the other Members his case can be taken up.

The SPEAKER. The Member elect will surrender no right whatever.

Mr. SNELL. That is the practice that has been followed for several years in the organization of the House.

The SPEAKER. That is the custom that has always been followed, as far as I know.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, a further parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ASWELL. Mr. Speaker, I demand the regular order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois makes a parliamentary inquiry, which the Chair thinks is quite proper.

Mr. MADDEN. If the other members of the Illinois delegation wish to refrain from being sworn in until they can all be sworn in together, is there any objection to that, under the parliamentary practice?

The SPEAKER. There is not.

Mr. RAINEY. Of course, Mr. Speaker, that is a matter that is optional with the members of the Illinois delegation. If they do not want to be sworn in now, they need not be.

The SPEAKER. The Chair so stated. Mr. MILLER will please step aside until the others are sworn in.

Mr. BRITTEN. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that the same procedure also apply to Mr. JAMES R. BUCKLEY, a Member elect from the State of Illinois.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois makes the same objection to Mr. BUCKLEY. Mr. BUCKLEY will please stand aside until the Members are sworn in.

Mr. MILLER and Mr. BUCKLEY stood to one side and the swearing in of the Members was then completed.

Mr. BUTLER and Mr. GRIEST affirmed.

The Delegate from Hawaii [Mr. JARRETT] took the oath of office.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I offer the resolution which I send to the Clerk's desk and move its adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the gentleman from Illinois (EDWARD E. MILLER) be permitted to take the oath.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the resolution.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I offer a substitute to the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois moves the previous question. If the previous question is voted down, the gentleman can offer his substitute.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.
Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Is it in order to move the previous question under general parliamentary law, no rules having been adopted?

The SPEAKER. The Chair thinks that has been the uniform practice.

Mr. BLANTON. Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order there has been no debate whatever by the gentleman offering the resolution, and that until the gentleman has used some time in debate he can not now move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair overrules the point of order. The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Illinois for the previous question.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced the ayes seemed to have it.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a division.

The House divided; and there were—ayes 209, noes 164.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays, and pending that I wish to make a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. If the previous question should carry, would there be 20 minutes' debate on a side, there having been no debate before?

The SPEAKER. Of course that would be the rule in the House of Representatives under our rules, but the Chair is informed that under the practice in the House in this condition before the rules have been adopted that has not been allowed.

Mr. RAINEY. I desire to propound a unanimous-consent request.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. RAINEY. I ask, if the previous question is ordered, that I be allowed 20 minutes and the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MILLER] be allowed 20 minutes to address the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois asks unanimous consent that if the previous question be ordered he be allowed 20 minutes and the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MILLER] be allowed 20 minutes to address the House. Is there objection?

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The question is on ordering the yeas and nays on the previous question. Obviously there is a sufficient number, and the yeas and nays are ordered.

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 209, nays 197, answered "present" 1, not voting 27, as follows:

So the previous question was ordered.

The Clerk announced the following pairs:

Mr. Paige (for) with Mr. Vinson of Georgia (against).

Mr. Swing (for) with Mr. Doyle (against).

Mr. SWEET. Mr. Speaker, I desire to have my vote recorded.

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman present in the Hall and listening when his name was called?

Mr. SWEET. I was, on the first call.

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman on the second?

Mr. SWEET. I was not.

The SPEAKER. Then the gentleman does not qualify. The rule, the Chair will state, is that when a person did not answer on either roll call he can not vote unless he will state that he was present and listening when the roll was called and did not hear his name called, the theory being that his name probably was not called. It is meant to correct an error on the part of the Clerk not calling the gentleman's name. So the Chair always, in accordance with the precedent, asks gentlemen if they were present and listening when their names were called. If they answer that question in the affirmative, they can vote; if they can not answer it on their conscience, they can not vote. Therefore the Chair asked the gentleman whether he was present and listening when his name was called.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, that rule is a special rule of the House of Representatives. Under parliamentary law any person entitled to vote has the right to vote at any time before the ballot closes.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the distinction, but the Chair is informed that that is one of the rules that has been followed by precedent in the House.

Mr. WINGO. It may be followed by precedent, but under general parliamentary law the policy is that any person is entitled to vote before the roll is closed.

The SPEAKER. Undoubtedly; but that is the practice that the Speaker follows.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, owing to the fact that this is the first record roll call, I will ask unanimous consent that the gentleman be allowed to vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that under parliamentary law the Chair recognizes that it is best, in accordance with our knowledge of parliamentary law, to follow as far as possible the practice that has prevailed in the House of Representatives, and that has been the practice of Speakers in the past.

Mr. WINGO. If that has been the practice, I think the Speaker is right.

The SPEAKER. General parliamentary law has been followed here because Members are familiar with it, and in that way it has become the precedent of parliamentary law at this juncture. The Chair's feeling is that it is wise as far as possible to lean in favor of the custom of the House, because that is a custom that we are all familiar with.

Mr. LONGWORTH. I ask unanimous consent that all Members who did not vote may vote on this roll.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Ohio asks unanimous consent that all Members who did not vote on this roll may vote. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. Any gentleman who did not vote may now vote.

Mr. SWEET. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of making it clear to the House I desire to state that I was present and listening when the roll was called.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will call the gentleman's name. The Clerk called the name of Mr. SWEET, and he answered in the affirmative.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

So the previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the motion of the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. MADDEN].

The question was taken, and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that Mr. JAMES R. BUCKLEY may be sworn in.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will recognize the gentleman who made the motion.

Mr. BRITTEN. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my objection to the swearing in of Mr. BUCKLEY.

Mr. MILLER, Mr. BUCKLEY, Mr. NEWTON of Missouri, and Mr. SUTHERLAND, Delegate from Alaska, appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Illinois rise?

Mr. RAINEY. For the purpose of raising a question of privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state the question of privilege.

Mr. RAINEY. I have in my possession here evidence which shows that EDWARD E. MILLER, a Member elect from the State of Illinois, has expended nearly $85,000 in securing his election to a position in this House, and that over $63,000 of that amount was a part of a trust fund.

Mr. SANDERS of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman must first introduce his resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Indiana makes the point of order that the gentleman from Illinois should first introduce his resolution. The gentleman from Illinois is aware that that is the custom.

Mr. RAINEY. That is what I propose to do.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois presents, as a question of privilege, the resolution which the Clerk will report. The Clerk read as follows:

Whereas it is charged that EDWARD E. MILLER, a Representative elect from the State of Illinois, is probably ineligible to a seat in the House of Representatives; and

Whereas such charge is made through a Member of the House and on his responsibility as a Member;

Whereas it is charged that said MILLER has grossly misused two trust funds committed to his charge by the State of Illinois while he was treasurer of the State of Illinois in promoting his candidacy for election to the Sixty-eighth Congress;

Whereas it is charged that said fund so used also greatly exceeds the amount he is permitted by law to expend for said purpose;

Resolved, That the question of the right of said MILLER to a seat as a Representative of the State of Illinois in the Sixty-eighth Congress in the House be referred to a committee of seven Members of the House, to be appointed by the Speaker, and said committee shall have power to send for persons and papers and examine witnesses on oath as to the subject matter of the resolution.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I move to refer the resolution—

Mr. RAINEY. I have the floor.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has the floor, but there are other motions that may be made, such as a motion to lay on the table. The Speaker does not know what the gentleman's purpose is.

Mr. RAINEY. I have the floor.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has not the floor in precedence of certain resolutions. The Chair does not know whether the gentleman from Ohio is going to offer a resolution or not. The Chair will see what the gentleman's purpose is.

Mr. LONGWORTH. I move to refer the resolution just read to one of the three Committees on Elections when constituted, and on that I move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not think that that is privileged in advance.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Then I move to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I insist that the gentleman can not be recognized for that purpose.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Illinois will reflect a moment he will recognize that the motion to lay on the table always has precedence.

Mr. RAINEY. A parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. RAINEY. The Speaker recognized me for the purpose of raising a question of the privilege of the House and I was proceeding to state it and I have not yielded the floor. The Chair required me in pursuance of the rule to present the resolution which I have presented. Now I want to state the question of privilege for which I was recognized. I am aware that they have the votes over there now—

Mr. SANDERS of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman is evading the question. The gentleman started to debate the question before he had the right to be heard, before he had introduced his resolution. That resolution must first be introduced. He introduced the resolution, and when he did that there was an end to his recognition. The Chair recognized the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. LONGWORTH], and he moved to lay the resolution on the table, and the gentleman can not now debate the question.

Mr. SABATH. Oh, the gentleman from Indiana is in error. The Chair recognized the gentleman from Ohio to raise a point of order which was overruled.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the matter is very simple. The gentleman from Illinois raises the question of privilege of the House, the right of a Member to his seat. That is always privileged. Such a resolution is customarily referred to one of the Committees on Election and have it there considered, but the House has a right to have it considered by a committee, and considered at once. On the other hand, the House has the right, if it prefers, when the resolution is offered to lay it on the table. That motion the gentleman from Ohio has made. The motion is always in order and takes precedence.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the matter be referred to one of the three Committees on Elections when constituted.

Mr. MADDEN. I think that should be done.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. I do not know what the effect of tabling it might be. It might prevent its consideration.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Tennessee asks unanimous consent that the resolutions be referred to one of three Committees on Elections when constituted. Is there objection? [After a pause.] The Chair hears none.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to print in the Record the protest against the seating of EDWARD E. MILLER that I propose to present on the floor.

Mr. SPROUL of Illinois and Mr. JOHNSON of Washington objected.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Republican majority of the House I present the following resolutions, which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 3.

Resolved, That William Tyler Page, of the State of Maryland, be, and he is hereby, chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives;

That Joseph G. Rogers, of the State of Pennsylvania, be, and he is hereby, chosen Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives;

That Bert W. Kennedy, of the State of Michigan, be, and he is hereby, chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives;

That Frank W. Collier, of the State of Wisconsin, be, and he is hereby, chosen Postmaster of the House of Representatives; and

That Rev. James Shera Montgomery, of the District of Columbia, be, and he is hereby, chosen Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I propose a substitute resolution and ask unanimous consent that this resolution just read be separated. I ask unanimous consent that the name of Reverend Mr. Montgomery be separated and that he be now elected Chaplain of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Illinois asks unanimous consent that the resolution be divided and that the nomination of the Reverend Mr. Montgomery be considered at once. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The question was taken, and Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., was elected Chaplain of the House.

Mr. RAINEY. Now, Mr. Speaker, I propose the following resolution as a substitute.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That South Trimble, of the State of Kentucky, be, and he is hereby, chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives;

That C. R. Evans, of the State of Nevada, be, and he is hereby, chosen Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives;

That Joseph J. Sinnott, of the State of Virginia, be, and he is hereby, chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives; and

That F. E. Scott, of the State of Tennessee, be, and he is hereby chosen Postmaster of the House of Representatives.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the substitute.

The question was taken, and the substitute was rejected.

The SPEAKER. The question now is on the original resolution.

The question was taken, and the resolution was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The officers will please come forward and take the oath of office.

Mr. Page, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Collier, and Reverend Mr. Montgomery appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office.

THE MINORITY LEADER.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to speak for two minutes.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate my colleagues on the Democratic side of the aisle, and in so doing I am certain I represent the sentiment on this side of the aisle, upon their wisdom in having selected as their leader the distinguished gentleman from Tennessee, Mr. GARRETT. [Applause.] He is eminently equipped for the leadership of a great party—courageous, kindly, good natured, a splendid orator, a fine debater, an expert parliamentarian, a profound student of economics, and, as my friend from Illinois suggests, preeminently an honest man. I am sure that his selection is one that will cultivate the friendly spirit which should prevail, particularly in the session to come. I can say in all truth as a result of our 20 years' acquaintance, FINIS GARRETT is a scholar and a gentleman. [Applause.]

NOTIFICATION TO THE SENATE.

Mr. GREEN of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 4.

Resolved, That a message be sent to the Senate to inform that body that a quorum of the House of Representatives is assembled; that FREDERICK H. GILLET, a Representative from the State of Massachusetts, has been elected Speaker; that William Tyler Page, a citizen of the State of Maryland, has been elected Clerk; and that the House is ready for business.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I present the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 5.

Resolved, That a committee of three Members be appointed by the Speaker on the part of the House of Representatives, to join with the committee on the part of the Senate, to notify the President of the United States that a quorum of each House is assembled, and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

The SPEAKER appointed as the committee to wait upon the President Mr. LONGWORTH, Mr. GREEN of Iowa, and Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 6.

Resolved, That the Clerk be instructed to inform the President of the United States that the House of Representatives has elected FREDERICK H. GILLET, a Representative from the State of Massachusetts, as Speaker, and William Tyler Page, a citizen of the State of Maryland, as Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-eighth Congress.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

MINORITY EMPLOYEES.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, I present the usual resolution with respect to minority employees, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 7.

Resolved, That, until otherwise ordered, Joseph J. Sinnott be authorized to act as special employee of the House of Representatives and receive compensation at the rate of $1,800 per annum; that John O. Snyder be authorized to act as special chief page and pair clerk and receive compensation at the rate of $1,800 per annum; that L. M. Overstreet be authorized to act as special messenger and assistant pair clerk and receive compensation at the rate of $1,800 per annum; that W. E. Kenney, D. K. Hempstead, and Wallace P. Bassford be authorized to act as special messengers and receive each compensation at the rate of $1,800 per annum; that James J. Kenah be authorized to act as minority telephone messenger and receive compensation at the rate of $2,160 per annum; such employees to be at all times under the control of the Speaker of the House and subject to change at any time by the House, as provided by law.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

JOHN R. QUINN.

Mr. BARBOUR. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to speak out of order for one minute.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

Mr. BARBOUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to call to the attention of the House the fact that sitting in the Speaker's gallery is a young man from the district which I have the honor to represent, of whom the people of California are more than proud. I present to Members of the House Mr. John R. Quinn, of Delano, Calif., national commander of the American Legion. [Applause.]

THE RULES.

Mr. SNELL. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 8.

Resolved, That the rules of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-seventh Congress be adopted as the rules of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-eighth Congress until January 14, 1924.

Mr. SNELL. Mr. Speaker, on that resolution I move the previous question to the adoption of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. The question is on ordering the previous question.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DIGEST AND MANUAL OF THE RULES.

Mr. KIESS. Mr. Speaker, I present the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 9.

Resolved, That there be printed as a House document 2,000 copies of the Digest and Manual of the Rules and Practice of the House of Representatives for the Sixty-eighth Congress, the same to be bound and distributed through the folding room.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution. Mr. LaGUARDIA. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield? Mr. KIESS. Yes.

Mr. LaGUARDIA. Are these rules going to be printed immediately as they are now, or are they to be printed as finally adopted by the House?

Mr. KIESS. Mr. Speaker, it is the idea to have the rules placed in type and the proofs held until the rules are finally adopted at the end of 30 days. This is the customary resolution, and we are offering it at this time in order to save time, because Members will want a copy of the rules as quickly as they can get them. They will not be printed until finally adopted, 30 days from now.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

PRINTING AND BINDING FOR COMMITTEES.

Mr. KIESS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer another resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution. The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 10.

Resolved, That the standing committees of the House of Representatives and the floor leader and the chairman of the conference minority are hereby authorized to have such printing and binding done as may be actually necessary for the transaction of their official business during the Sixty-eighth Congress.

The question was taken, and the resolution was agreed to.

DAILY HOUR OF MEETING.

Mr. SNELL. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, and move its adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution. The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 11.

Resolved, That until otherwise ordered the daily hour of meeting of the House of Representatives shall be 12 o'clock meridian.

The question was taken, and the resolution was agreed to.

THE U. S. BATTLESHIP "COLORADO."

Mr. TAYLOR of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to address the House for two minutes.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Colorado asks unanimous consent to speak out of order for two minutes. Is there objection? [After a pause.] The Chair hears none.

Mr. TAYLOR of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, in compliance with the terms of the international treaty on the limitation of armament, entered into on February 6, 1922, between our country and England, France, Italy, Japan, and others, our Government was permitted to complete the construction of the three largest and most powerful battleships our Nation has ever built, namely, U. S. S. Colorado, U. S. S. Maryland, and U. S. S. West Virginia.

They each carry eight 16-inch guns, the only highest-class capital ships of that caliber under the American flag.

The Maryland was commissioned last year; the West Virginia was commissioned last Saturday at Norfolk, Va. The Colorado was launched on March 22, 1921, and to-morrow afternoon, at the New York Navy Yard, there will be held the ceremony of the presentation of the colors by the State of Colorado to this one of the three world's mightiest dreadnoughts, the U. S. S. Colorado, the greatest fighting machine in the world.

These three battleships are each of 32,600 tons displacement, electrically propelled, and are the last capital ships that can be built by our Government under that treaty before the year 1934. The commissioning of these ships marks an epoch not only in the history of our country, but it marks the end of an era in the history of the world and of the future welfare of the people of this planet.

I think we may well pause for a moment to reflect upon what the completion of these last three most powerful, most effective, and mighty battleships means to our country and to humanity. We all hope they mean the termination for all time of international competitive battleship building.

The Governor of Colorado has extended the very great honor of commissioning me to represent our Commonwealth and present the flags of the Centennial State to this marvelous man-of-war. And while I regret exceedingly to miss the joint session of the Senate and House to-morrow, at which President Coolidge will deliver his first address to this Congress, nevertheless, on behalf of my State, I ask unanimous consent for leave of absence for two days that I may perform this historic, patriotic, and pleasant duty. [Applause.]

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Colorado [Mr. TAYLOR] asks unanimous consent for leave of absence for two days. Is there objection? [After a pause.] The Chair hears none.

EMPLOYMENT IN PENITENTIARIES.

Mr. GRAHAM of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, the Sixty-seventh Congress by joint resolution appointed a committee to report upon the condition of employment in the penitentiary at Leavenworth and the one in Washington. This committee has had a number of meetings, and I hold in my hand and ask leave to file the report of this joint committee together with their recommendations. I shall also at the same time offer a bill intended to carry into effect the provisions of the report, and I ask that it be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, may I ask the gentleman if there is anything in the report itself which will require action by the House; is there any resolution in the report?

Mr. GRAHAM of Pennsylvania. None.

The SPEAKER. The report is presented and the bill will be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

DEATH OF HON. CLAUDE KITCHIN.

Mr. POUL. Mr. Speaker, it becomes my painful duty to announce to the House of Representatives the death of our colleague the Hon. CLAUDE KITCHIN on the 31st day of May, who at the time of his death was minority leader. During my service of twenty-odd years I have not known a greater debater than CLAUDE KITCHIN. But his heart was so full of the milk of human kindness he commanded the respect and affection of his political opponents as well as his friends. I shall say nothing further at this time, but send to the Clerk's desk a resolution, the adoption of which I ask, and at a future day I shall ask that a day be set apart on which Members may express this appreciation of our dead leader.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from North Carolina offers a resolution which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 12.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. CLAUDE KITCHIN, a Representative from the State of North Carolina.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of deceased.

The question was taken, and the resolution was unanimously agreed to.

DEATHS OF HON. W. BOURKE COCKRAN, HON. DANIEL J. RIORDAN, AND HON. JAMES V. GANLY.

Mr. CAREW. Mr. Speaker, it is my melancholy duty to announce to this House that since the elections of 1922, at which this House was elected, that three distinguished citizens of the State of New York, who were then chosen for membership in this House, have passed away. In the last year or so death has stricken many a shining mark in this country of ours. We all recall the sadness with which we heard that on the 1st day of last March, after a speech upon this floor, which was marked with all the eloquence and learning, the grace, philosophy, and statesmanship that characterized everything he did, that the Hon. WILLIAM BOURKE COCKRAN, a Member from the State of New York, a few hours later at his home was stricken and before morning died. Then again on April 28 last a distinguished Representative of the State of New York, a veteran in this Chamber, who, although Congress was not in session, was nevertheless here engaged in the performance of the many duties that came to him, the Hon. DANIEL J. RIORDAN, while in his office in the House Office Building was stricken and later in the night died.

Then again, later in the summer, on September 7 last, another Member who had been here before, the Hon. JAMES V. GANLY, from the State of New York, met with sudden death at his home.

These bereavements of ours have mellowed the spirit of partisanship which otherwise might actuate us. We bow our heads with the grief of the country in our own personal bereavement, which in these instances came so closely home to so many of us.

I offer these three resolutions, Mr. Speaker, and ask for their adoption. At some future time I shall ask the House to set apart some appropriate occasion when suitable tribute may be paid to the distinguished services and memory of these most well-beloved friends of ours.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolutions.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 13.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. WILLIAM BOURKE COCKRAN, a Representative from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the next resolution. The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 14.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. DANIEL J. RORDAN, a Representative from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the next resolution. The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 15.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JAMES V. GANLY, a Representative from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. JOHN W. RAINEY.

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Speaker, it is my painful duty to announce to the House the death of the Hon. JOHN W. RAINEY, of Illinois. Although his term of service here was not long, as terms go, yet he had endeared himself to every Member of this House. He was a courteous gentleman, an able and conscientious legislator, a forceful debater, and an honest man.

At some time in the future I shall ask the House to set apart a day when tributes may be paid to his memory.

I offer now this resolution and move its adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 16.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JOHN W. RAINEY, a Representative from the State of Illinois.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. JAMES C. CANTRILL.

Mr. FIELDS. Mr. Speaker, it becomes my painful duty to announce to the House the death of our former colleague, Hon. JAMES CAMPBELL CANTRILL, a Representative from the State of Kentucky.

At the last general election Mr. CANTRILL was reelected to a seat in this body. At the primary election in August last he was nominated by his party for the office of Governor of the State of Kentucky. He died, and a few days later he was buried in the cemetery at his home town, Georgetown, Ky. In his death the Nation suffers a grievous public loss and the State of Kentucky loses an eminent and valuable Representative.

At a subsequent time I shall ask that the House set apart a day for eulogies upon his life and public services. I send to the Speaker's desk a resolution and ask for its adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 17.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JAMES C. CANTRILL, a Representative from the State of Kentucky.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. BENJAMIN G. HUMPHREYS.

Mr. COLLIER. Mr. Speaker, it is with a feeling of profound sorrow that I rise to announce the death of my friend and colleague, Hon. BENJAMIN G. HUMPHREYS, from the State of Mississippi.

Mr. HUMPHREYS possessed the confidence, as well as the affection, of all who knew him. He was one of the most distinguished men that my State has ever produced, and he held service longer in the House of Representatives than any other Member from the State of Mississippi since our State was admitted into the Union.

I shall not speak further at this time, Mr. Speaker, than to say that at a later date I shall ask that a day be set apart when we may pay tribute to his memory. I offer the following resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Mississippi offers a resolution which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 18.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. BENJAMIN G. HUMPHREYS, a Representative from the State of Mississippi.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. LUTHER W. MOTT.

Mr. PARKER. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep sorrow that I announce the death of the Hon. LUTHER W. MOTT, a Member of Congress from the State of New York, whose service dates back longer than that of any other Member on this side of the Hall.

At some future time I shall ask the Speaker to designate a day when we can pay our respect to the memory of the late Mr. MOTT. For the present I offer the following resolution and move its adoption.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 19.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. LUTHER W. MOTT, a Representative from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.

THE LATE JOHN M. C. SMITH, REPRESENTATIVE FROM MICHIGAN.

Mr. McLAUGHLIN of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, and move its adoption.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 20.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JOHN M. C. SMITH, a Representative from the State of Michigan.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.

THE LATE REPRESENTATIVE TYSON, OF ALABAMA.

Mr. STEAGALL. Mr. Speaker, it becomes my sad duty to announce the death of the Hon. JOHN R. TYSON, from the second congressional district of Alabama. Mr. TYSON was one of Alabama's most beloved sons and one of her best public servants. His capabilities and attainments, although he had a short service in Congress, were fast winning him an enviable position as a Representative in this great body. He died enjoying the deepest respect and regard both for his character and his ability on the part of the Members of this House, regardless of political affiliations. At a later day I shall move that a time be set aside when appropriate honors may be done him. I offer the following resolution, and ask that it be adopted.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

House Resolution 21.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JOHN R. TYSON, a Representative from the State of Alabama.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.

THE LATE REPRESENTATIVE SAWYER, OF ARKANSAS.

Mr. OLDFIELD. Mr. Speaker, it is with sadness that I announce the death of the Hon. L. E. SAWYER, late a Member of this House from Arkansas. He was elected a Member of the House in 1922, and therefore his term of service began on the 4th of March last. Within a month he was stricken at his home in Hot Springs, Ark., and died a few hours after he was stricken. While the Members of the House did not know Mr. SAWYER, except those of our own State, yet he was a splendid man, a brilliant orator, and a man of State legislative experience. I offer the following resolution, and at some future date I shall ask that a day be set aside to pay honor to his memory. The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 22.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. L. E. SAWYER, a Representative from the State of Arkansas.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.

THOMAS UPTON SISSON.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, it is with profound sorrow that I arise to announce to the House the death of our late colleague, the Hon. Thomas Upton Sisson, formerly a Representative from the fourth district of Mississippi, who passed away in the city of Washington on September 26, 1923. He was not a Member of the House at the time of his death, but up until the 4th day of last March he had occupied a seat in this body for 14 years.

Possibly no man within that time enjoyed to a higher degree the love, esteem, and confidence of his fellow Members.

His life was gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him, that nature might stand up
And say to all the world, "This was a man!"

Mr. Sisson was born in Atalla County, Miss., on September 22, 1869, and was the son of Charles Augustus Sisson and Repinkerton Miller Sisson, representatives of two of Mississippi's best families. His father was a Confederate soldier and served in Forrest's cavalry throughout the Civil War.

Thomas Upton Sisson obtained his early education in the country schools of Choctaw County, Miss., and the French Camp Academy. He later entered the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn., and received the degree of bachelor of arts from that institution in 1890. He afterwards entered the Cumberland University, of Lebanon, Tenn., and was graduated from that college in 1895 with the degree of bachelor of laws.

His boyhood home was one of refinement and culture, and the effects of his early training in a Christian household went with him throughout his eventful career.

He began the practice of law in Memphis, Tenn., in 1895, but removed the next year to Winona, Miss., where he continued the practice of his profession until he was elected to Congress in 1908. Prior to that time he had held many positions of public trust, and during those years his advance in public life was steady, and his associates and acquaintances recognized in him the quality of leadership that would stand the test of time.

When quite a young man he was a member of the Board of Aldermen of Winona, Miss.; city attorney and county attorney of Montgomery County, Miss. In 1898 he was elected to the State senate to fill out an unexpired term. In 1903 he was elected district attorney and held that position until 1907, when he resigned to enter the race for governor of the State; and while unsuccessful in that campaign, he made such a favorable impression that he was chosen the next year to represent the fourth district of Mississippi in the National House of Representatives, in which position he served with distinction for 14 consecutive years.

Mr. Sisson was one of the most prominent Masons Mississippi has ever contributed to that great institution. He served as Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge of Mississippi in 1904, and was known throughout the Nation as one of the leading Masonic orators of his day.

As a member of the great and powerful Committee on Appropriations, he always espoused the cause of economy, and by his relentless, courageous efforts in that respect he saved the country hundreds of millions of dollars that otherwise would, perhaps, have been squandered in useless expenditures. He was a Democrat of the old school and believed in and stood by those fundamental principles of Democracy which have come down to us from Thomas Jefferson. He poured his very life into his work, and toiled with a diligence that distinguished him as one of the most attentive, painstaking, faithful, and industrious Members of the House.

He was courteous in his bearing and generous in all his dealings with mankind. His honesty was beyond question and his honor above reproach. No man, however widely he might have differed from Mr. Sisson on governmental policies or legislative procedure, ever questioned or doubted his unsullied integrity. He stood four square to every wind of fortune or adversity and never lost confidence in the ultimate triumph of the right.

He loved his fellow Members, and, regardless of their political views, he spurned with contempt every aspersion cast upon them by those carping critics who would impugn the integrity of every man who does not carry out their wishes or underwrite their views. He loved the people of Mississippi, and spent his life toiling in their behalf. He loved his State and referred to it with almost his dying breath as "God's country," uttering these words only a few moments before he passed away.

According to his wishes, often expressed, he was laid to rest amidst the scenes he loved so well, to mingle his dust with that of his native State.

Peace to his ashes. May the birds sing sweetly about his last resting place, and the wild flowers bloom above his couch, while the moaning pines sing his perpetual requiem throughout the still lapse of coming ages.

THE LATE SENATOR KNUTE NELSON.

Mr. DAVIS of Minnesota. Mr. Speaker, I am about to introduce a resolution that perhaps is a little mite out of the ordinary. Some 30 years ago, about the time when our honored Speaker began his service in this House, there was a gentleman from Minnesota who was serving here and who served quite a number of years. He then became the Governor of Minnesota, and about 24 years ago the people of that State elected him a United States Senator, where he served four successive terms. About the close of the last Congress, unexpectedly and without any premonition on his part, or of any of his friends, on his return home, he died very suddenly.

He is styled in Minnesota by thousands as the "Grand Old Man of Minnesota," and it is with profound sorrow that I announce his death to the House at this time. I offer the following resolution, which I send to the desk and ask to have read.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 23.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. KNUTE NELSON, a Senator of the United States from the State of Minnesota.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, it saddens me beyond expression to call the attention of this House to the death of that distinguished son of Vermont, who so long served here and so ably in the Senate of the United States. I refer to the Hon. WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM. He served the State and the Nation with ability and with fidelity and courage during more than two decades of history. As a fitting tribute, I offer the following resolution and move its adoption.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 24.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM, a Senator of the United States from the State of Vermont.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

DEATH OF HON. SAMUEL D. NICHOLSON.

Mr. TIMBERLAKE. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, which I send to the desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 25.

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of the Hon. SAMUEL D. NICHOLSON, a Senator of the United States from the State of Colorado.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Speaker, as a further mark of respect to the memory of our deceased colleagues and Senators, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 40 minutes p. m.) the House adjourned until to-morrow, Thursday, December 6, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, December 6, 1923.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O God, our Lord and Father, we bless Thee that Thou art such an accessible God. The weary, the worn, the sad, the broken-hearted, and even the wandering and wayward, can find access to Thy presence. And we rejoice that there is for us all the assurance that Thy guidance can be had always in every crisis of life. Thy leadership is assured unto us also where we falter and hesitate, so that when our convictions may weaken: Thou canst give us strength to realize the stalwartness of a great purpose, and to be moved upon by the energy of Thy Spirit. So give us Thy presence and guidance this day. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday's proceedings, when, on request of Mr. CURTIS and by unanimous consent, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

ADJOURNMENT TO MONDAY.

Mr. CURTIS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate adjourns to-day it stand adjourned until Monday next at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Kansas asks unanimous consent that when the Senate adjourns to-day it shall stand adjourned until Monday next at 12 o'clock. Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and it is so ordered.
