

of Providence, like the affection of their colleagues, follow them through many very happy and useful years.

Mr. WHERRY. Mr. President, I now yield to the senior Senator from Maine [Mr. WHITE] with the request that he formally make the motion to adjourn.

RESPONSE OF SENATOR WHITE—
ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

Mr. WHITE. Mr. President, I cannot resist saying a brief word in appreciation of all the kindly expressions which have come to me during this day from Members on both sides of the Chamber, as well as the many kindnesses which have been shown me throughout my long service in this body. I am deeply grateful, but I am robbed of the words adequately to express how I feel. I am eternally grateful.

Now, Mr. President, it is my understanding that the business appropriate to today has been concluded. Because of that fact, in pursuance of action taken concurrently by House and Senate, I now move that the Senate adjourn sine die, and as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senator and Representatives.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 1 o'clock and 28 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1948

Pursuant to House Concurrent Resolution 222, the House met and was called to order at 12 o'clock noon by the Speaker, Hon. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, the Father of mankind, we would be still and know that Thou art God, holy and blessed forevermore. In the afterglow of this holy season, O let the Star of Bethlehem radiate until it lightens the darkened corners of the earth, bringing peace to men of good will.

As we stand at the threshold of a new year, lay Thy hand upon the homes of our land; O pour the blended spirit of city, village, and country into the chalice of our national life that it may ever bear the fruitage of unselfish devotion to the honor and glory of Thy holy name. We ask in the name of Jesus our Saviour. Amen.

The Journal of the proceedings of Saturday, August 7, 1948, was read and approved.

ASSISTANCE TO GREECE AND TURKEY—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States which was read, and, with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

Transmitted herewith is the fifth quarterly report (covering the first quarter of the fiscal year 1949) on United States military assistance to Greece and Turkey. Military aid to Greece and Turkey was inaugurated under the authority of Public Law 75, Eightieth Congress, and was continued under the authority of title III of Public Law 472, Eightieth Congress, known as the Greek-Turkish Assistance Act of 1948. Responsibility for United States assistance in the economic rehabilitation of Greece begun under Public Law 75 was, pursuant to Public Law 472, title I, transferred effective July 1, 1948, to the Economic Cooperation Administration, and results are reported to the Congress under that title.

The encouraging prospect for substantial elimination of the Greek guerrilla forces which existed at the time of the victory of the Greek National Army in the Grammos Mountains and which was referred to in the report for the period ending June 30, 1948, has unfortunately not materialized. A military stalemate has ensued which has prolonged the struggle. The United States is, of course, through the American Mission for Aid to Greece, continuing to deliver to the Greeks necessary military supplies and equipment and to advise and assist the Greek armed forces, in accordance with the Assistance Act.

HARRY S. TRUMAN.

UNITED STATES MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO GREECE AND TURKEY—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States, which was read, and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

Transmitted herewith in accordance with the provisions of Public Law 75 (80th Cong., 1st sess., 61 Stat. 103) is the fourth quarterly report of expenditures and activities in conjunction with the program for aid to Greece and Turkey.

This legislation was enacted at a critical juncture in the history of the struggle for peace, involving the right of small nations to self-determination of their future. The conspicuous success of this program in enabling the people of Greece to meet the military and economic crisis which confronted them, and in supporting the Turkish determination to remain independent in the face of external pressure, has contributed significantly toward stabilizing this strategic area of the world in the interest of world peace.

LEND-LEASE OPERATIONS—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States, which was read, and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States of America:

I am transmitting herewith the twenty-sixth report of operations under the Lend-Lease Act.

The attached report on lend-lease fiscal operations was prepared by the Treasury Department and submitted to the Secretary of State in accordance with Executive Order No. 9726. The period covered is from March 11, 1941, through September 30, 1947.

Activities to complete fulfillment of the various pipe-line agreements have continued since the issuance of the twenty-fifth report.

A final settlement agreement was signed with Norway on February 24, 1948. In March, Haiti paid the balance due on its account. An arrangement was concluded with Brazil on April 15, 1948, fixing the terms of payment of the amount due under the original master agreement with Brazil.

As stated in chapter 4 of the twenty-third lend-lease report, one of the important remaining lend-lease functions is the collection of payments due under various international agreements. Some of these agreements involve matters other than lend-lease, such as surplus property and claims. Recent payments arising out of agreements covering lend-lease, and in some cases other matters as well, are shown in the following list:

Brazil: $5,000,000 principal paid on July 15, 1948; installment on its remaining lend-lease obligations.

France: $13,000,000 interest paid in francs on July 1, 1948, under settlement agreement dated May 28, 1946.

Iran: $711,753.40 paid on April 29 and $711,753.40 on July 15, 1948, principal under settlement agreement dated December 21, 1945.

Netherlands: $960,000 interest paid in dollars on June 30, 1948, under settlement agreement dated May 28, 1947.

United Kingdom: $76,617.50 paid on March 31, $262,112.50 on April 30, $403,250 on May 28, and $403,250 on June 15, 1948 (paid in pounds), principal under settlement agreement dated December 6, 1945.

CONGRESSIONAL INAUGURATION COMMITTEE

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication:

NOVEMBER 29, 1948.

HON. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR.,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Congressional Inauguration Committee, such resignation to take effect as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

L. C. ARENDS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce that pursuant to the provisions of Senate Concurrent Resolution 48, Eightieth Congress, and the order of the House of August 7, 1948, empowering him to appoint commissions, boards, and committees authorized by law or by the House, he did on November 29, 1948, appoint as a member of the joint committee to make the necessary arrangements for the inauguration of the President-elect of the United States the gentleman from California [Mr. SHEPARD] to fill the existing vacancy thereon.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that in view of the longstanding custom of the House of Representatives there will be no speeches made today except in eulogy of our deceased members.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. ROHRBOUGH asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD in two instances and include extraneous matter in each.

Mr. HORAN asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include three articles.

Mr. WELCH asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include a report.

Mr. MACY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD and include therein a report of the Subcommittee on Questionable Trade Practices, although it may exceed the allowance.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.

Mr. FARRINGTON asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include a radio talk made by him.

PERMISSION TO EXTEND REMARKS AT THIS POINT

Mrs. SMITH of Maine. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks at this point in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Maine?

There was no objection.

Mrs. SMITH of Maine. Mr. Speaker, today marks the end of nearly nine happy and informative years for me in the House of Representatives—for today the Eightieth Congress ends. This means that it is my last day in the House, for as you know, I am relinquishing my seat in the House to move over to the Senate.

I shall miss my friends in the House, friends who have generously given of their time and talents to "teach me the ropes" in Congress to make a better legislator of me. I shall never forget my friends in the House who have taught me patience, forbearance, parliamentary procedure, clean progressive politics—who have given me constructive lessons in statesmanship. Without these friends I would never have been able to equip myself with the necessary qualifications for the United States Senate in the degree as approved by the people of Maine in granting me that office on September 13. Yes, much of my good fortune will be directly attributable to my friends in the House.

I shall be homesick for the House. One of the good things about being elected to the Senate is that I will be in Washington with my good friends in Congress—to be able to walk over from the other side of the Capitol and to return to the floor of the House and renew and continue friendships which have meant and mean so much to me. I say to the membership of the House, and to its truly great leader, the Speaker, thank you from the bottom of my heart.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. STEVENSON asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include three statements by Paul O. Peters of the Select Committee on Small Business.

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts asked and was given permission to extend her remarks in the RECORD and include a letter.

Mr. EDWIN ARTHUR HALL asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD.

Mr. REED of New York asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD in five instances and in each to include extraneous matter.

Mr. ARENDS asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include therein an editorial from the Champaign News-Gazette about the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DIRKSEN].

Mr. O'HARA. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD and include a statement by George J. Burger, a member of the board of directors of the National Federation of Small Business, made before the Committee on Monopolistic Practices of the Small Business Committee on November 17, 1948.

Mr. Speaker, I am informed by the Public Printer that the estimated cost of printing is $177.50. Notwithstanding the cost, I ask unanimous consent that the extension may be made.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Minnesota?

There was no objection.

Mr. ROSS asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include copy of a bill which he introduced today.

Mr. HOBBS asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD in two instances and include extraneous matter.

Mr. RANKIN asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include a report of the Committee on Un-American Activities together with some documents released to the press.

Mr. BONNER asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include an editorial.

Mr. LYNCH asked and was given permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD in two instances: First, in connection with the death of George F. Rogers; and, secondly, in connection with the death of Edgar A. Sharp, and also to include an editorial.

Mr. EBERHARTER asked and was granted permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and insert a speech made by Gen. Omar N. Bradley.

PERMISSION TO EXTEND REMARKS AT THIS POINT

Mr. LANE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks at this point in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

Mr. LANE. I believe it to be the unanimous sentiment of this House that we go on record to express our hearty appreciation of the excellent service rendered by the retiring Speaker, the Honorable JOE MARTIN, of Massachusetts.

Although he was reelected as a Member of Congress by the flattering majority of 33,000, his party—Nation-wide—did not do as well. And so, due to circumstances beyond the claims of his own meritorious record, JOE MARTIN is stepping down from the Speakership to his old and able role as minority floor leader.

Even we, of the Democratic Party, regret this transition, for there is no more democratic Member of this body—and I use the word in its nonpartisan meaning—than the genial and fair-minded Representative from the Fourteenth Massachusetts District.

His own party is indebted to him for his steadfast devotion to those principles which he believes in. Under his Speakership, we of the opposition have learned to respect him highly. In an office whose power and responsibility is second only to that of the Presidency, he has worked hard, honestly, and well.

It is such character that nourishes our national unity in spite of partisan divisions, and to this, we of the opposite party wish to pay tribute.

We tender to you our thanks for your distinguished and invaluable leadership. But, what is more, we want you to know that we think you are a swell guy.

This comes from your legion of friends on both sides of the aisle who hope that you will be with the Congress for many, many years to come.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. HAYS asked and was granted permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD in two instances and to include therewith excerpts.

Mr. LYLE asked and was granted permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include a speech delivered by Mr. Dale Miller.

Mr. BYRNES of Wisconsin asked and was granted permission to extend his remarks in the RECORD and include an editorial from the Saturday Evening Post.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK] to kindly take the chair.

Mr. McCORMACK assumed the chair as Speaker pro tempore.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. McCORMACK). The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN].

HON. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I come to perform a pleasurable duty in one sense, and one that is not so, in another. I come to speak of the man who will in all probability on next Monday vacate the Speaker's chair.

Before I offer a resolution of thanks to him for his uniform kindness and fairness, I desire to say that as minority leader when I was Speaker, and as Speaker when I was minority leader, our relationships personally, and in the conduct of the business of the House, have been uniformly pleasant. He has worked with me as I have sought to work with him.

I say this without fear of contradiction, that he will go down in the history of the House of Representatives as one of the fairest, one of the ablest men who ever graced the chair of Speaker. I look forward in the days to come to a continuation of that fine association, because I will need his counsel, I will need his help, and I will need and desire the benefit of his great parliamentary skill.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I offer a highly privileged resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the resolution (H. Res. 720) offered by the gentleman from Texas.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the thanks of the House are presented to the Honorable JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR., Speaker of the House of Representatives, for the able, impartial, and dignified manner in which he has presided over the deliberations and performed the arduous duties of the Chair during the present term of Congress.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the vote on the resolution may be had by a rising vote of the House.

The question was taken; and on a rising vote the resolution was unanimously agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to express his sincere thanks to the distinguished gentleman from Texas for his generous and laudatory remarks and also the splendid comradeship to every Member of the House. It has been a pleasure for me to have served 2 years as your Speaker. I have endeavored to the best of my ability to be fair to all. At all times I have been conscious of the great prestige the House enjoys among the people of this country, a prestige that makes the heart of every Member of this body swell with pride. This great House of Representatives is a symbol, a symbol of democracy; it is a symbol of a people's government. I have tried to maintain that high tradition. Let me say any success I may have enjoyed would not have been possible without the generous support of the majority leader, the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. HALLECK], and the always fair and uniform cooperation of the distinguished minority leader, the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN].

Each of us have our own opinions, sometimes they are in conflict; but I have always been proud to say that few people ever came to the Congress who were not trying each in his own way to build a better and finer country. I have been proud of membership in this Congress not only in these last two critical years, but in the 24 years I have served in this body.

Next Monday, in another role, I hope to have a greater opportunity to express my personal tribute to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN], when I present him to the House as your Speaker. I know we will all be in safe hands when he is Speaker. I thank the Members of the House for their generous resolution which I shall always cherish.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate, by Mr. Carrell, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate had passed without amendment a joint resolution of the House of the following title:

The resolution was agreed to.

FLORENCE M. COLLIER

Mr. HALLECK. Mr. Speaker, I offer a privileged resolution (H. Res. 722) and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That there shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the House to Florence M. Collier, widow of Frank W. Collier, late Postmaster of the House of Representatives, an amount equal to 1 year's salary at the rate he was receiving at the time of his death, and an additional amount not to exceed $250 toward defraying the funeral expenses of said Frank W. Collier.

The resolution was agreed to.

THE LATE HONORABLE MILTON H. WEST

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, since last we convened here the State of Texas, the Congress, and the Nation have sustained a great loss in the passing of our former colleague from Texas, a Member of the Eightieth Congress, Hon. MILTON WEST, who passed away in the city of Washington on the 28th day of October 1948.

This year I have served as chairman of the Texas congressional delegation, and on behalf of the members of the delegation I speak at this time. We, of course, were shocked and grieved over the passing of our colleague. He was our friend.

Earlier in the year when Mr. WEST announced that he would not seek reelection to Congress I had occasion in the House of Representatives to speak of this stalwart friend and his distinguished service in the Congress.

He came to the House of Representatives during the Seventy-third Congress when the Honorable John Nance Garner from southwest Texas was made Vice President. At the time this seat became vacated MILTON WEST took over and served here for many years with great distinction.

MILTON WEST was much beloved by his colleagues from Texas and he was much beloved by the Members of the House on both sides of the aisle. He performed a great service to his own district and State, to the Congress, and the Nation. We all mourn his passing and we extend our sympathy to his bereaved family.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. POAGE].

Mr. POAGE. Mr. Speaker, it was my pleasure to serve with MILTON WEST in the Texas Legislature nearly 20 years ago. We knew him there as here, as a man who would speak his mind without hesitation and without reservation. We knew him as one on whom we could rely and one whose word was always good. We came to have a real affection for MILTON WEST as did the Members of this House.

MILTON WEST has served his State and his Nation over a long period of time with credit to himself and with great benefit to his own community. His passing was a great loss to the Nation, and although he had voluntarily retired from the Congress and was not a candidate for reelection, his passing will be felt in Texas and throughout the United States. All of us will find ourselves the poorer by losing this great friend of ours.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. GOSSETT].

Mr. GOSSETT. Mr. Speaker, this is our first meeting since the untimely death of our late lamented friend and former colleague, the Honorable MILTON WEST, of Brownsville, Tex. I join with my colleagues in paying tribute to him. He served his district, the State of Texas, and the Nation here in the Congress for many years with rare distinction. He was a rugged individualist of whom we have too few. He commanded the respect of all who knew him. There was never any doubt of his position on any issue. He always fought for what he thought to be right with honesty, courage, and ability. Our country is a better place because of his life and service, and suffered a great loss in his passing.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. RICH].

Mr. RICH. Mr. Speaker, I also wish to pay my tribute to MILTON WEST. He was one of the finest men I have ever associated with in all my life. He was a man who had his own individual ideas and at heart he was one of the finest characters I have ever known. Always sincere in the things he wanted to do, he did those things which he believed would be in the best interest of his country.

The people of Texas have lost a great representative, the people of the United States have lost a man who was always interested in doing those things that would make our country a better place in which to live. Personally, I have lost one of the finest friends I have ever had.

Mr. Speaker, MILTON WEST's name will go down in history as one of the greatest Congressmen. He was a friend at all times, a man for whom we had great respect and confidence. His loss is mourned by all.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. DOUGHTON].

Mr. DOUGHTON. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Texas for giving me this opportunity to say a word of tribute to our late colleague and my very dear friend, MILTON WEST. While I had the honor to be chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, Mr. WEST served for a number of years as a member of that committee. Up to the time his health failed he was always attentive and diligent in his work, and his outstanding ability was equaled only by his courage. He always acted in a way that he conceived to be his duty, not only for the best interest of his own district, but in advancement of the welfare of the entire country. He enjoyed the respect and confidence and, I might say, the love of each member of our committee.

MILTON WEST succeeded a great man in this House. He represented the district formerly represented by the great John Nance Garner, who was for many years, as we all know, one of the most able and outstanding Members of this House. Mr. Garner served two terms as Vice President of the United States.

MILTON WEST succeeded a great man; he represented a great district; and he discharged his duties in a most commendable manner. I am proud and glad to have the privilege of saying a word of tribute to the splendid work he did in this Congress.

In closing I express my deepest and most profound sympathy for each member of his family in their great sorrow and bereavement.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from New York [Mr. REED].

Mr. REED of New York. Mr. Speaker, this Nation lost a wise legislator, an able, fearless, public servant in the passing of Hon. MILTON H. WEST, of Texas. Those who have served with Representative WEST know that he was firm in his convictions and moreover that he had the courage to stand by them at all times and under all circumstances. Here was the type of Representative who never deviated from what he considered the fundamental principles of sound government.

Although a quiet man, when he did express himself either in committee or on the floor of the House his words carried weight with his colleagues on both sides of the aisle.

During the Seventy-third Congress to the Eightieth Congress, inclusive, the service of Representative WEST in the House of Representatives was of the highest order in the field of statesmanship. I knew him well. I not only had a profound respect for him but a deep affection as well. We were personal friends to the very last.

I consider that the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives has lost one of its ablest and most valuable members in the passing of our distinguished colleague from Texas.

I extend my deepest sympathy to Mrs. West and to the relatives and friends of Representative West.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. JENKINS].

Mr. JENKINS of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I am glad to add my word of tribute to this distinguished gentleman from Texas [Mr. WEST]. He was a man of noble impulse; a man of the highest character; a rugged man of the soil. It was a pleasure to serve with him on the Ways and Means Committee when we were considering matters of great importance, which we did frequently on that important committee; it was a test of one's intelligence, and more important yet, it was a test of one's courage and fortitude. With the gentleman from Texas [Mr. WEST] it apparently was easy for him to make his decision and it was easy for us to know his position and to know that when he once took a position he could be depended upon. I shall miss MILTON WEST, for I had great confidence in him and great respect for his opinion.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. COOPER].

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, it was with very deep regret that I heard of the unfortunate passing of our distinguished colleague, MILTON WEST, of Texas. It was my privilege to serve with him throughout his service here and to be rather closely associated with him as a member of the Committee on Ways and Means. He was a man who possessed the highest attributes of character and all of the sterling qualities of manhood; a man of recognized ability and demonstrative devotion to public service.

I am sure we all extend our deepest sympathies to the members of his bereaved family.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. DINGELL].

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay a modest tribute to my good friend, MILTON WEST, who has been to me a paragon of rugged honesty and helpful in all the things that are good and decent. May God rest his soul.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. SHORT].

Mr. SHORT. Mr. Speaker, strong, stalwart, statesmanlike, fearless, without ever asking any quarter from anybody anywhere, MILTON WEST, from the State of Texas, which is not a State but an empire, stood on the floor of this House and voiced his opinion and spoke his convictions often at times against his own colleagues.

There is not much remuneration that we get from being in this body except the camaraderie and the good friendship, but always until my dying day shall I cherish the memory of MILTON WEST.

He was no softie or cream puff. He was not a sissy. No one ever accused him of being such. He was a Texas Ranger. He had red blood in his veins, he had clear thinking in his mind, and he had brotherly love in his heart.

I loved MILTON WEST more than I ever dared tell him. CLARENCE LEA, you who have served for a third of a century in this House, knew him well. We are sorry to see you leave, but having lived and associated with him all these years, I know that you like myself will cherish his blessed memory.

Words are weak and impotent, they are so hollow, and we cannot really give expression to the feeling that is deep down in our hearts, but you who lived with him and knew him much better than most any of us know that we can say "Here is a man." God bless him and his loved ones through all the years to come.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from New York [Mr. LYNCH].

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, it was with real sorrow and regret that I learned of the death of our colleague and member of our committee, Hon. MILTON WEST, of Texas.

During my terms of service in the House of Representatives, and more particularly since I became a member of the Committee on Ways and Means, I learned to know him and to admire him for his outstanding ability, for his courage, and his loyalty. I know that we are all sorry to hear of his death.

I extend to his family and relatives my sincerest condolences.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. EBERHARTER].

Mr. EBERHARTER. Mr. Speaker, during my entire service on the Committee on Ways and Means I enjoyed very much the friendship and comradeship of MILTON WEST. He served on that committee with distinction to himself, to his district, and to the Congress of the United States and to the United States as a nation.

It was with great regret and sorrow that I learned of his death. I knew that he had been ill for several months. I join with the other Members who have expressed their sorrow at his passing.

Mr. BENTSEN. Mr. Speaker, it is, indeed, an honor for me to speak of my distinguished and honored predecessor, MILTON H. WEST.

God in his wisdom has seen fit to take from our midst one of the House of Representatives' most courageous and capable men. I knew MILTON WEST and members of his family intimately, although I did not have the privilege, as you men had, of serving with him. But I did have the honor of being one of his constituents.

He was of the pioneer stock that took Texas as a frontier country and made it the progressive State it is today. His life story is almost a legendary one of service to the people of this Nation as a Texas Ranger, district attorney, State legislator, and United States Representative.

The things that MILTON stood for were pronounced by his every deed and his every action. He was known throughout his district as a man of courage and ability, a man who voted his convictions in serving both his district and his country.

Now that MILTON WEST has gone west, we of his district want the Members of the House to know that the thoughts and love of the people of his district go with him. He was a sincere, honest, and generous citizen of our State—a man we like to think of as a real Texan.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN].

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, the words of the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. SHORT], or at least some of them, in describing the man, MILTON WEST, were accurate and deeply touching. Always when I thought of MILTON WEST, I thought of two things. I thought of the Rock of Ages and I thought of the giant oak. He was sturdy; he was strong. He was a Texas Ranger in the days when it was dangerous to be an officer of the law in some sections of the far West. He was a sheriff. He was a lawyer. He was a prosecuting attorney. He was a Congressman. He was true to the ancient faith every day of his good life.

Mr. FISHER. Mr. Speaker, in Texas, MILTON WEST needs no eulogy, for it is written in the hearts and minds of the people who knew and admired him. He typified the spirit of the West, of those who believed in good, old-fashioned Americanism. He had but little patience with those who want something for nothing, who sneer at the fundamentals of our democratic institutions.

MILTON WEST was reared in southwest Texas, along the silvery waters of the Rio Grande, where he developed a code of honor and justice which followed him throughout his useful life. In Congress he devoted himself to the welfare of his own constituents with a frequency unequalled. Among men of honor he commanded the highest respect, and with his logic and soundness of judgment he wielded a tremendous influence.

Mr. Speaker, in the passing of our friend, the State of Texas and his district have lost an eminent representative and an outstanding citizen, the Nation has lost an exponent of those principles of sound government which must be preserved if our democracy is to survive, and I have lost a treasured friend.

By the memory of MILTON WEST, let us resolve to cultivate, preserve, and emulate those fine qualities which characterized his career; let us determine to meet the call of duty with that firmness of character and devotion to principle which typified his life.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members of the House who desire to do so may have unanimous consent to extend their remarks in the RECORD at this point in regard to the passing of our late beloved colleague, MILTON WEST.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

Mr. THOMAS of Texas. Mr. Speaker, in the passing of our beloved colleague, MILTON WEST, the membership of the House and the people of his great dis-strict have lost an able and patriotic public servant. No man has ever served in the House who was more highly regarded by his colleagues than he. His common honesty, good level head and straightforward manner in dealing with men and problems endeared him to all of us. We will miss his wise counsel and his personal friendship.

I enjoin with you in expressing to his lovely family our deep and sincere sympathy. We share with them their great sorrow and irreparable loss.

Mr. MAHON. Mr. Speaker, I send to the desk a resolution (H. Res. 723) and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. MILTON H. WEST, a Representative from the State of Texas.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.

THE LATE HONORABLE JOHN J. DELANEY

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, since the House recessed at the special session, we in New York have lost a very distinguished Member of our congressional delegation in the death of the Honorable JOHN J. DELANEY.

Mr. DELANEY represented his district in Brooklyn in this House for many years. He first came to Washington in the Sixty-fifth Congress, and later in the Seventy-second Congress, and remained here until his death, shortly after he had been elected to the Eighty-first Congress which will shortly convene.

JOHN DELANEY was one of the most beloved citizens of Brooklyn. For years he had been active in the fraternal and civic affairs of his native borough and had served the city of New York as one of its deputy commissioners in one of its very important departments.

He came here as a young man and devoted himself to the service of his country and to the legislation in this House. He was made a member of the Rules Committee of the House, where he served with distinction for many years.

I am sure we are all regretful of his passing, which came shortly after he had been reelected. Although during the last campaign he had been unable to go out and speak for himself, because of his illness, nevertheless his friends were legion, and they returned him to this House.

To his wife and son and daughter I extend my deepest sympathy.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that any Member who may desire to do so may extend his remarks in the RECORD at this point.

The SPEAKER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

There was no objection.

Mr. LYNCH. I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK].

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, the death of our late colleague and dear friend, JOHN DELANEY, is a personal loss to me, and a great loss to the House of Representatives. During our years of service, while I have become very close to many Members, and I think enjoy the friendship of most Members with whom I have served, there is none who occupied a closer or more friendly relationship than the late beloved JOHN DELANEY. He had a long and honorable service, not only in this body but in other public offices in the great State of New York.

JOHN DELANEY was not only a lovable personality, but a man of understanding nature; a man with whom anyone could live, without regard to differences of opinion or race or color or creed, because he was possessed of that one spirit, which I think is more important to enable people to live together than anything else—the spirit of understanding, of respect of one for the other, with an understanding state of mind.

JOHN DELANEY was a man of intense faith, a man of equally intense loyalties; and when in the journey of life you and I find a person of intense faith and intense loyalty we find one of God's noblemen.

My career in this body has been a rather interesting and checkered one. I served for 10 years on the Committee on Ways and Means and for 6½ years as majority leader. In the last 2 years I was a member of the Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments. That was the first time in my 20 years' service in this body with JOHN DELANEY that he and I were on the same committee. He was a tireless worker, not one who spoke excessively, but one who wielded a powerful influence in this body and in its committees, because of the respect we all had for him, and the last 2 years in committee work with JOHN DELANEY were most pleasant to me.

The House has lost one of its most humble Members, a man of great simplicity, but one of its most influential Members because of the persuasion he wielded in his quiet way, because of the noble things of which he was symbolic, and because of our response to his great endowments.

To his widow I extend my deepest sympathy, and I know that all of my colleagues join me in expressing to her their deepest sympathy in their great loss and sorrow.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. SABATH].

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, when JOHN DELANEY was a member of the Rules Committee I leaned on him with confidence for many years. He was able, conscientious, loyal, patriotic, well schooled in the principles of sound government and their application. He endeavored at all times to beneficially serve not only his great State and district but all the people of the United States. He was in no sense or degree provincial. He showed extraordinary interest in the cause of labor and legislation in the interest of the masses. Frequently, he was the only man on whom I could consistently rely to help me in my endeavors in the Rules Committee to effect the mandates of the people and our party program. He could always be found on the side of the common people and trying to reflect in legislation the wishes of those who elected him.

I knew this lovable dead for many years. I saw him grow in stature as a statesman from the time he served first as a member of the Committee on Naval Affairs. He patiently and assiduously served an adequate novitiate before he became an influential member of the great Committee on Rules. I admired his unflinching courage to stand, after thorough and thoughtful consideration, for what he believed was right and for the best interest of the whole country.

I know his splendid family, consisting of wife, daughter, and son, to whom he has left an enviable record as good citizen, wise legislator, and humanitarian. May they in this sore and dark hour be comforted by the Giver of all good. His passing has left a void that will be hard to fill, because few men have the opportunity that was his, and which he embraced with enthusiasm, to acquire so much useful and practical information to help make this a better world for men and women of good will.

Although a lawyer by profession, our friend concentrated all efforts on his congressional duties. He was seldom absent when a roll call came on important measures and never unnecessarily absent. Indeed he represented his district with honor and distinction many years; and he has left a real imprint upon the major activities of National Government in the difficult era in which he served with perfect fidelity and selflessness.

His services will be gratefully remembered by many who are his beneficiaries; and I hope members of his family will extract from this useful life a sustaining love and remembrance that may soften this severe blow that must at this time seem irreparable. The gratitude of myriads will live long in connection with our deceased colleague. His earthly work is finished; but his influence for good is imperishable.

In thinking of our departed friend let us remember our obligation to make safe and secure the government of the people which has been committed to our keeping. Let us remember that it can thrive and grow only in a spirit of popular attachment and unselfish devotion; and, above all, let us remember the lessons and admonitions that flow from the useful life which we today memorialize.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. JENKINS].

Mr. JENKINS. Mr. Speaker, when I listen to these eulogies year after year, I like to think in what respect a certain individual was particularly outstanding. I knew JACK DELANEY well, although he came from a great metropolitan district and I come from a rural district, and although he was a Democrat and I a Republican we were very warm friends.

We lived at the same hotel and I knew him well. His character was above reproach. But he was distinctive in that he was preeminent in his unflinching courtesy. He was always a gentleman. He was warm and cordial and always courteous. I shall miss him and I extend to his widow my most profound sympathy.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from New York [Mr. REED].

Mr. REED of New York. Mr. Speaker, when I first came to Congress I met JOHN DELANEY and I found him to be most interesting, affable, and very helpful, even though he was a Member on the other side of the House. We were very good friends. We often dined together and talked things over. He was particularly interested in legislation that would take care of Members of Congress in their old age or on their retirement.

I looked upon Mr. DELANEY as a great citizen, a man who rendered a splendid public service to his Nation, to his city, and to his State. I regret his passing. I consider it a personal loss, and I extend to Mrs. Delaney and his family my heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Ohio [Mr. BENDER].

Mr. BENDER. Mr. Speaker, JOHN DELANEY was a fine, Christian gentleman. He was a member of the opposite party, but as a neighbor in the House Office Building and having served on the same committee with me, and living in the same hotel, I knew Mr. DELANEY as a fine Christian gentleman and mourn his loss.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California [Mrs. DOUGLAS].

Mrs. DOUGLAS. Mr. Speaker, may I take this opportunity to pay my respects to JOHN DELANEY. He was progressive, far-sighted, and generous. Mr. DELANEY was one of the first Members to welcome me to this great body, because we both came from Brooklyn.

It was with regret that I noted his passing, which is a great loss, not only to this body but to the Nation as a whole.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Tennessee [Mr. COOPER].

Mr. COOPER. Mr. Speaker, I could not fail to embrace this opportunity to raise my voice in very brief but sincere tribute to the life, character, and public service of our friend and colleague, JOHN J. DELANEY, of New York. It was my privilege to cherish a very warm and close friendship with him throughout the period of our services.

He was a man of unusual ability and great devotion to the public service. His heart beat in tune with the interest and welfare of the masses of our people. He was always extremely courteous and considerate of all of those with whom he came in contact. I am sure that we all feel a great loss now that he has passed away. We realize that his district, his city, and the Nation have lost an outstanding public servant.

We extend our deepest sympathies to his bereaved family.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. BEALL].

Mr. BEALL. Mr. Speaker, in the passing of JOHN DELANEY I have lost one of my best personal friends. Since first I came to Congress, Mr. DELANEY was very kind and very generous to me. We spent many happy hours together. Our association was very close, and I join with the other Members in expressing my deepest sympathy to his family. His passing is not only a very definite loss to his own district but to the country. He was a humanitarian, a man of great understanding, and I sincerely sympathize with his family at this time.

Mr. LYNCH. I yield to the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. DINGELL].

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I want to pay my heartfelt tribute to my good friend, JOHN J. DELANEY, of New York, and to say, in his memory, that he has rendered a great service, not only to his people but to the entire Nation. I can ask but one thing of the Lord, and that is that He rest his worthy soul.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN].

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution (H. Res. 724).

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. JOHN J. DELANEY, a Representative from the State of New York.

THE LATE HONORABLE HARLAN J. BUSHFIELD

Mr. CASE of South Dakota. Mr. Speaker, during the recess of the Eightieth Congress the State of South Dakota also lost a member of its congressional delegation, a Member of the other body, our very distinguished Senator HARLAN J. BUSHFIELD. Senator BUSHFIELD had been twice elected Governor of our State and was completing the sixth year of his term as Senator from South Dakota. He was one of the sturdiest and staunchest sons of the Northwest and it was a great loss to the State and the Nation when he passed away.

Senator BUSHFIELD had been in poor health for some months prior to his death. Last spring, that condition led to a decision to withdraw from a primary contest for nomination for reelection. Although he and his friends were confident of winning that contest, he calmly and deliberately decided that he did not have the physical strength to carry on a campaign in person at home and be faithful to his duties here in the Senate at the same time.

I shall never, never forget when he called me over to his office to tell me of his decision some days before he made a public announcement.

He was a man of great stature, a man accustomed to carrying out his convictions and his decisions with an iron will. He had led South Dakota out of the depression when he had to win support for a policy of economy and thrift and taxes in the days when drought had made our people poor. He led us with courage and confidence and the people responded to the inspiration of his call for sacrifice and hard work, though some called him cold and unfeeling.

That day, Mr. Speaker, I saw that his so-called coolness was but the calm courage of a true leader to follow the right as God gave him to see the right, cost what it might. When the time came for him to apply a difficult decision to himself, he was as true as steel to his sense of duty.

He had gone through whatever Gethsemane there is when a proud man peers into the shadows and sees the end of his hopes. The marks of the struggle were on his face that morning, but he did not flinch from carrying out the mandate of his conscience.

Some days later, when he announced his decision, I made some remarks in this Chamber on the outstanding service of Senator BUSHFIELD to South Dakota and the Nation and I shall not review them here. In passing I shall only say that in the days ahead, yes, in these very days, the world sorely needs men of the Bushfield courage, men of the Bushfield conviction, men of the Bushfield will, men who place public responsibility above personal ambition.

Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution for the consideration of the House and ask for its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will report the resolution (H. Res. 725).

The Clerk read as follows:

Resolved, That the House has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. HARLAN J. BUSHFIELD, a Senator of the United States from the State of South Dakota.

Resolved, That the Clerk communicate these resolutions to the Senate and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

The resolution was agreed to.
