LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, I should like to announce that shortly I shall move that the Senate take a recess until 11 a.m. tomorrow.

On tomorrow, after the Senate convenes, we shall have a quorum call. I hope we may be able to obtain a quorum quickly. If not, I shall ask unanimous consent to withdraw the suggestion of the absence of a quorum, so that discussion of the pending motion may proceed immediately. We shall also have a quorum call preceding the vote at 6 p. m.

I should like to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that on Saturday at 12:30 p. m., there will be a joint meeting with the House of Representatives; but the Senate will convene at 12 o'clock.

On Monday, we shall have a joint session with the House of Representatives for the purpose of counting the electoral votes.

I make these announcements so that all Senators may be on notice of the schedule.

It is customary not to transact business or to have bills introduced until after we receive the President's message on the state of the Union, unless that message is delayed and some several days intervene from the time when the session begins. In view of the fact that the President does not expect to have his state of the Union message ready until January 10, next Thursday, it is the plan of the leadership to ask Senators to withhold until Monday next the introduction of bills or the transaction of any other business not already agreed upon. After Monday, however, it will be agreeable to have bills introduced; and all Senators will be on notice so they may make the necessary preparations.

Mr. President—
The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Texas has the floor.

RECESS UNTIL 11 A. M. TOMORROW

Mr. JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. President, I move that the Senate stand in recess until tomorrow, at 11 o'clock a.m.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 3 o'clock and 20 minutes p.m.) the Senate took a recess until tomorrow, Friday, January 4, 1957, at 11 o'clock a.m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1957

This being the day fixed by the 20th amendment of the Constitution for the annual meeting of the Congress of the United States, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives of the 85th Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, Hon. Ralph R. Roberts.

The Chaplain, Rev. Bernard Braskamp, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty and ever-blessed God, on this 1st day of the 85th Congress, we are earnestly beseeching Thee that we may always be humble in spirit as we daily approach Thee with prayers and petitions for strength and wisdom and our many needed blessings.

Inspire us with this same spirit of humility, not only in our approach unto Thee, but in every appraisal that we make of ourselves and our resources to discharge faithfully the duties and responsibilities of our high vocation.

We pray that in the sphere of human relationships and all our associations, as colleagues and comrades in a grand and glorious mission, we may manifest a spirit that is gracious and generous in its appreciations, magnanimous and sympathetic in its attitudes, considerate and charitable in its judgments.

Grant that our President, our Speaker, our chosen Representatives, and all Government employees may be the humble and obedient servants of Thy divine will in the great adventure of mediating to mankind the principles of democracy and the spirit of peace and brotherhood.

Hear us in the name of the meek and lowly man of Galilee who hath taught us to say:

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The CLERK. Representatives-elect to the 85th Congress, this is the day fixed by the Constitution of the United States for the meeting of the 85th Congress.

As the law directs, the Clerk of the House has prepared the official roll of the Representatives-elect. Certificates of election covering the 435 seats in the 85th Congress have been received and are now on file with the Clerk of the 84th Congress. The names of those persons whose credentials show they were regularly elected in accordance with the laws of their several States and of the United States will be called, and as the roll is called, following the alphabetical order of the States, beginning with the State of Alabama, Representatives-elect will answer to their names to determine whether or not a quorum is present.

The reading clerk will call the roll.

The Clerk called the roll by States, and the following Representatives-elect answered to their names:

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their The total number of votes cast is 428, of which the Honorable Sam Ray-BURN, of Texas, received 227, and the Honorable Joseph Martin, of Massachusetts, received 199. Two voted "present."

Therefore, the Honorable Sam Ray-BURN, of Texas, is the duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 85th Congress, having received a majority of all the votes cast.

The Clerk appoints the following committee to escort the Speaker-elect to the chair:

The gentleman from Massachusetts, Mr. Martin; the gentleman from Massachusetts, Mr. McCormack; the gentleman from Georgia, Mr. VINSON; the gentleman from Missouri, Mr. Cannon; and the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. HALLECK.

(The Doorkeeper announced the Speaker-elect of the House of Representatives of the 85th Congress, who was escorted to the chair by the committee of escort.)

Mr. MARTIN. My colleagues, for 20 years the Speaker of the House and I have been rivals across the aisle. In such a long period of time one comes to know a man most intimately and so it is a great privilege and a pleasure for me today, as long as we must have a Democrat, to be able to present to you the man who is to be our next Speaker. He is a man of the highest character and of the finest integrity. He is a just man. He is a man with a fierce determination to uphold the fine traditions of this great legislative body. He has demonstrated in the past that his main objective is not only to dispense judgment impartially, but to keep this great deliberative body in the high position it occupies today. I can truthfully say that in all the period of time I have been a Member of this House, from Speaker Longworth to the present, we have never had a man who was not desirous of sustaining our finest tradition.

Today I am very happy to present to you the new Speaker, one worthy in every way to be our Presiding Officer. He is your Speaker, my Speaker, and my friend, the Honorable Sam RAYBURN, of

Mr. RAYBURN. My respected colleague, Joe Martin, and my fellow Members of the House of Representatives:

This is the eighth time that you have done me the high honor of electing me to this high post and from a grateful heart I thank you.

It has been a pleasure to work with all the Members of the House throughout these years. Especially has it been a pleasure to work with the leadership on the other side of the aisle, and especially a man of the high type of character, fairness, and intelligence of your leader, JOE MARTIN.

I come to this place again with no enemies to punish, but with a fervent desire that our leadership may be such that we can bring forth a program that will not only appeal to the people of our common country but will be of great and enduring service to all of our people. I am dedicated to that doctrine and I shall try to live up to it and to the highest expectations of the people who have been so partial to me during all the years that I have been a Member of the House of Representatives.

It is a high honor to be a Member of the House of Representatives for even one term, because there is not a district in America, in my opinion, where there are not 1,000 men and women who covet this place, and who would seek it if they thought they had a good opportunity of attaining that position. To be reelected to this high forum is an added honor and there has never been a day since I came here many years ago when I have not felt the honor conferred upon me by my people, nor have I forgotten the high and serious responsibility that rests upon my shoulders and upon the shoulders of every other Member of this body.

This is the highest theater that anyone plays in upon this earth today. I must refer again to the tremendous and at times appalling responsibility that falls upon the shoulders of each and every one of us. We must so act in the days to come that we will merit the confidence and the faith not only of our own people but of the people of the whole world. because your country and mine has been challenged to take the leadership of the free world. If we do not with courage and judgment accept that leadership, then the world will be a place in which good men and women will be unhappy.

In my opinion, the Christian civilization that we know and love and which is ours without the asking stands in more mortal danger today than it has stood in at any time since the lowly Galilean walked those shores and preached peace and good will. We are challenged, therefore, so to conduct ourselves in our legislative capacity and in our executive capacity that we will hold the respect and the high regard of every human being upon the face of the earth who wants to look this way and yearns for the freedom and the liberty that you and I and all of our people enjoy.

This is no time for acrimony. is a time of dedication for every human being that lives within the confines of the United States of America. Therefore, I look forward to a session that will be fruitful, that will be serviceable not only to us but to the other people of the earth.

In this feeling and in this belief I am now ready to shoulder the responsibility that you have placed upon my shoulders. and ask the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. VINSON] to administer the oath of office to me.

Mr. VINSON then administered the oath of office to Mr. RAYBURN, of Texas.

TENTH SEMIANNUAL REPORT ON THE OPERATIONS OF THE MU-TUAL SECURITY PROGRAM—MES-SAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 481)

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs and ordered to be printed, with illustrations:

To the Congress of the United States

I am transmitting herewith the 10th semiannual report on the operations of the mutual security program, for the period January 1, 1956, through June 30, 1956.

The accomplishments during this 6-month period under this program of mutual effort have further advanced the security, the economic progress, and the well-being of the United States and our partners in the free world.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER. THE WHITE HOUSE, September 20, 1956.

ASSISTANCE TO YUGOSLAVIA— MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States, which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs:

THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington, October 15, 1956.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Section 143 of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, provides for a suspension of assistance to Yugoslavia as therein specified unless I find and report to the Congress with my reasons therefor: "(1) that there has been no change in the Yugoslavian policies on the basis of which assistance under this act has been furnished to Yugoslavia in the past, and that Yugoslavia is independent of control by the Soviet Union, (2) that Yugoslavia is not participating in any policy or program for the Communist conquest of the world, and (3) that it is in the interest of the national security of the United States to continue the furnishing of assistance to Yugoslavia under this act."

After careful study and examination of all the relevant facts available to me, I hereby find and report to the Congress affirmatively, with respect to the three matters above mentioned.

My reasons therefor are the following: 1. The policy of assisting Yugoslavia was begun by this Government in 1949. That policy was not based upon the approval of, or affinity with the internal policies of the Government of Yugoslavia. It was undertaken because, despite such internal policies, it was then deemed in the interests of the United States to support the independence of Yugoslavia against a major effort by the Soviet Union to dominate that coun-The balance of available evidence leads me to find that Yugoslavia remains independent of control by the Soviet Union and desires to continue to be independent; that it is still subject to efforts by the Soviet Union to compromise that independence; and that some assistance from the United States continues to be required and is desired by the Government of Yugoslavia to assure the maintenance of its independence.

I am aware of the fact that the de-

I am aware of the fact that the designs of the Soviet Union against Yugoslavia are more subtle than heretofore, and that perhaps those designs are not adequately appreciated, or defended against, by Yugoslavia. Nevertheless, there remain the basic factors, i. e., the independence of Yugoslavia; the dedication of Yugoslavia to its independence; and the Soviet endangering of that independence.

2. My finding that Yugoslavia is not participating in any policy or program for Communist conquest of the world is based upon the fact that the ideology and doctrine of the Yugoslav Communist Party appear to adhere to the concept that each nation should determine for itself which kind of a society it wishes and that there should be no interference by one nation in the internal affairs of another.

3. My reason for finding that it is in the interests of the national security of the United States to continue to furnish at least limited assistance to Yugoslavia is that otherwise, in my opinion, there is a danger that Yugoslavia will be unable to maintain its independence. I believe, moreover, that the United States policies inaugurated in 1949 to enable Yugoslavia to maintain its independence remain valid.

This determination on my part meets the statutory requirement in section 143 regarding the utilization of the public funds allotted to Yugoslavia under the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, and under prior mutual-security legislation. Its primary immediate effect will be to clear the way for conversations with appropriate Yugoslav officials to examine the various possibilities for bilateral cooperation in the economic field thus made feasible under our laws. In the military field, the various departments of the Government have, since the enactment of section 143 in July of this year, at my direction, followed a policy of permitting only small, routine, and long-planned deliveries of equipment. T intend that this attitude, which implies the nondelivery of jet planes and other items of heavy equipment, shall be maintained until the situation can be more accurately appraised during the days to come. I believe, however, that economic aid for the people of Yugoslavia, primarily in the form of foodstuffs, may now prudently and wisely be proceeded with. In any case, I shall not consider that my action herewith definitely settles the various questions pertaining to United States-Yugoslav relations. These problems will, on the contrary, remain under my constant review, and I have, in addition, directed that those officers who conduct our day-to-day relations with Yugoslavia vigilantly apply the very helpful criteria established by the Congress in section 143 to insure that the decision which I have now made remains justified in future circumstances. I have made it clear, furthermore, that my de-termination is not, even in economic matters, to be taken as a continuing directive necessitating the obligation or expenditure of the funds available for Yugoslavia, regardless of circumstances, but is one which restores discretion in this area to me and my subordinates to take such actions as accord with the applicable national policy relating to Yugoslavia and serve the national interest. Such an approach will, I am sure, serve the foreign policy interests of our country and, at the same time, afford adequate protection against the unwise expenditure of public funds. Sincerely,

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER.

The honorable the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Washington, D. C.

INTRODUCTION AND REFERENCE OF BILLS INTRODUCED TODAY

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to make a statement concerning the introduction and reference of bills today.

As Members are aware, they have the privilege today of introducing bills. Heretofore on the opening day of a new Congress several thousand bills have been introduced. It will be readily apparent to all Members that it may be a physical impossibility for the Speaker to examine each bill for reference today. The Chair will do his best to refer as many bills as possible, but he will ask the indulgence of Members if he is unable to refer all the bills that may be introduced. Those bills which are not referred and do not appear in the Record as of today will be included in the next day's Record and printed with a date as of today. The Chair feels that he should make this statement at this time so that Members of the House may understand.

SALUTE TO AUSTRIA FOR HER VALOR TOWARD HUNGARY

Mr. SIKES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks at this point in the Record.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

Mr. SIKES. Mr. Speaker, no part of the free world need ever hang its head in shame over the response of mankind to Hungary's magnificent liberty-ordeath break for freedom from the Soviet Union.

The effect upon the history of our time is illimitable.

Here is the crack in the monolithic mass of tyranny that portends at long last what so many pray desperately is the beginning of the end.

In this most exciting international drama of the last decade there is a role played by one small nation which brings me to m, feet in the House today with a resolution of commendation.

This is the role played so valiantly by recently liberated Austria. This little nation, indifferent to her own safety, jumped into the breach. She stood by Hungary as if she, too, as much as Hungary herself, were immediately and fully involved. Without treaty obligations, without any obligations, she alined herself with the Hungarian revolution in the form of aid for fleeing refugees, in a way that will stand for all time a symbol to men whose hearts go out to those seeking to be free.

Against this seemingly impossible resistance stood the glowering, wounded, massive Soviet enemy of a free mankind. She was injured to the quick by this glaring exposure of her dishonest propaganda protestations of friendship for the proletariat and for peace—the most gargantuan fraud of the 20th century.

I ask passage of this resolution in the Congress for the glory of Austria, of course, but as much for peoples everywhere who do honor to the human spirit. And I want the valiant conduct of Austria memorialized by this documentary recognition from the United States lest the big part this little nation played in the mighty spectacle be swallowed up in the huge world canvas against which the tragedy of Hungary is being enacted.

Austria's deed was done without knowing whether she, like the refugees she was helping, would have to go it alone against the full vengeance of the infuriated Soviet Union. Her response to the challenge was instantaneous, it was wholehearted, it was in the tradition of man's noblest conduct toward man. But it was, in addition, as a kind of overplus, a brilliant demonstration of such raw human courage as only legends are made of.

It was this, as much as any single act of the Hungarian revolution itself, that deepened and bloodied the wound in the side of the Soviet enemy. Here, out in the open for all the world to see, was a performance of the Soviet Union destroying much of the faith in communism she had succeeded in building up in the rising nations of Africa and Asia by her blinding and deceitful enlightenment. And what the world saw, too, was valor in the purest sense of the word, as Austria, opening her arms to the Hungarian fighters against the Soviet Union, stood helpless and undefended against any of the armored divisions the Kremlin might send into Austria to crush her. Russia has found easier pretexts for aggression before.

But this little nation, this fragment of the free world, taking the harried and the driven of Hungary to her bosom, stopped the Soviet Union dead in its tracks. What it did was, of course, to arouse the indignation of mankind to a valor of its own by the example of Austria toward the terror-driven masses she was taking inside her borders.

Perhaps, to some extent, even our own country was itself swept up into the stream of the effort for helping Hungarian refugees by the stout example Austria set for mankind. Here is a nation of a mere 7 million. At the very moment that we were talking of taking in some handful of thousands from bloodied Hungary, Austria opened herself wide to 120,000 of them—coming over in droves under threat of torture and murder. Yet Austria had already within its gates no less than 180,000 refugees of World War II and the cold war.

Now that we have, on the official level, grasped in all its fullness the enormity of this tragic situation, I ask the House of Representatives of the United States to offer a proud and respectful salute to the little nation of Austria. She was there and she did the right thing. The resolution will show her and the world that her courage, her fortitude, and her immense valor have not gone unnoticed.

This resolution can, of course, speak only in words. But we can take comfort that the sense of justice and the indignation of the American people have moved our Government to take heart from Austria's example. What we say in this resolution in words we implement in action by doing for the refugee Hungarian patriots what Austria did for them under the threat of Soviet tanks and at peril of her life and her freedom.

Ladies and gentlemen of the Congress, I am proud to offer this salute to the people of Austria:

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress of the United States that the relief and good will extended by the people of Austria to refugees from strife-torn Hungary are in the finest traditions of humanity. The Congress, therefore, hereby expresses its admiration for the humanitarian conduct of the people of Austria and extends to them its best wishes for the future.

INVESTIGATION OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN HUNGARY

Mr. FEIGHAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks at this point in the RECORD and to include an address delivered by me on December 30, 1956.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

Mr. FEIGHAN. Mr. Speaker, today Mr. O'HARA of Illinois, Mr. Judd, Mr. BENTLEY, Mr. HILLINGS, Mr. BYRD, Mr. Machrowicz, and I have introduced identical resolutions to create a select committee to investigate the latest acts of Communist aggression in Hungary.

All the world was inspired by the heroism and patriotism of the Hungarians in their revolt against the Russian Communists. For a time it appeared the Hungarians had won their freedom and national independence. Then the Russians committed one of the cruelest and most inhuman acts of history. Without warning and contrary to promises given that they would evacuate their Red army from the Hungarian nation, all the military might of the Red army was turned against the young Hungarian government. The new Hungarian government, which had freed itself of Moscow control only a few days before, then had to stand alone against the fury of the Kremlin. With absolutely no effective assistance in any form from any of the western nations, it was not long before the Hungarian patriots were cut down by the Red army. Thousands of brave Hungarians died in this struggle. Still other thousands of patriotic Hungarians were deported from their homeland to the slave-labor camps of the Soviet Union. What the future holds for the Hungarian nation is indeed a very grave question in the minds of all of us.

I believe that the public interest would be served if Congress established a select committee to investigate all the facts of the Hungarian revolution against tyranny and the retaliatory acts of aggression committed by the Russian Communists. Such an inquiry would naturally concern itself with the causes of the revolution, how the revolution got started, and why the western nations were totally unprepared for such an event. It would also look into all other pertinent leads and information of this type.

I also believe such a select committee should look into other revolts against the Russians which have taken place in recent years, particularly those of the east Germans, the Georgians in the Soviet Union, and the Poles. By securing all the pertinent facts in connection with these revolutions and making them known here in the United States, I believe all of us will be better prepared to understand why such revolutions against tyranny will occur in the future. Moreover, we should be better prepared to do something about them. I also believe that now is the time for Congress to move on this question before information becomes cold and before memory is dimmed by the passage of time. In addition, I believe much documentation on these revolutions which would be available to Congress now might be lost sight of in the future.

Mr. Speaker, last Sunday I had the pleasure to address an International Freedom Rally in New York City. This affair was attended by approximately 5,000 people all of whom were concerned with the cause of the Hungarian nation and the ultimate freedom and independence of all the non-Russian nations enslaved by the Communists. In my address I analyzed recent world developments as I see them in light of our own national interest. I believe my remarks will be of interest to Members of this House and at the same time that they will provide additional information as to why the select committee will serve a necessary and useful purpose.

Under leave granted, I include my address delivered before the International Freedom Rally at Manhattan Center, New York City, December 30, 1956, and copy of the resolutions which have been introduced today:

ADDRESS BY CONGRESSMAN MICHAEL A. FEIGHAN BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL FREEDOM RALLY, NEW YORK CITY, DECEMBER 30, 1956

Mr. Chairman, it is most appropriate that this international freedom rally is being held today and in this setting. The cause of today and in this setting. human freedom has reached one of the most encouraging high-water marks of recent years. Tyranny, colonialism, and despotism have reached a point of low ebb in the eyes of thinking people the world over.

We owe an eternal debt of gratitude to the brave Hungarian patriots who rose up against the Russian Communist occupiers, and who today continue the fight for freedom despite the cold absence of any effective assistance from the nations of the free world. History will surely record the debt of all civilization to the Hungarian nation for creating this favorable atmosphere of freedom of which I speak.

For too long we here in America have been told that effective revolution against the Russian despots was impossible; that we must accept a status quo with the Russian tyrants and that there was a finality to the brutal Russian conquest and exploitation of the many non-Russian nations within the Communist empire. The seemingly endless pounding and repetition of these false and unsupportable beliefs have tended to dull our own national conscience and to bring on a spirit of defeatism in which we are encouraged to think only of our own comfort and immediate safety. Time alone can measure the extent of the damage to our national character as well as our prestige and respect among the nations of the world caused by the era of despair out of which we are just now passing. But of one thing we The decks must be may now be certain. cleared of these depressing and unfounded beliefs so that our Government can satisfy the ever increasing public demand that we measure up to our full stature in world affairs and develop a foreign policy consistent with the destiny of a great and free nation.

A series of revolutions against tyranny has set the stage for the development of future world trends. Among these revolts are those of the East Germans, the Georgians within the Soviet Union, the Poles, and now the Hungarians. These are the most dramatic explosions of human freedom and best known the public. But there have been many other such events in the last 3 years, including uprisings in the slave-labor camps which are so characteristic of Russian communism. While each of these events are important within themselves, their real importance can only be measured when examined against their relationship to the other enslaved non-Russian nations of the Communist Empire and the fact that each succeeding revolution against Russian despotism increases in its intensity and violence. It seems that the more repressive the measures employed by the Kremlin to preserve the empire the more violent and certain the reaction of the enslaved nations. This trend can lead in only one direction. That direction is the complete disintegration of the modern-day Russian empire, an event which is long overdue, but equally certain to occur. The Hungarian patriots have rendered a great service to their beloved homeland. They have rendered, in my opinion, an even greater service to all of humanity. By their heroic uprising, by their unyielding fight against the Russian occupier with little or no military equipment, and by their determination to die rather than to surrender their cause to the Russians, they have taught us some important and inescapable lessons. Along the most self-evident of these lessons are the following:

1. Communism has failed in its effort to break the national will of the non-Russian nations it enslaves. The world will never forget the cry of the Hungarian fighters of "Russians go home" or "We demand our national independence." Armed with love of country and fortified by love of God, the Hungarian patriots have struck the greatest single blow for human freedom and decency since our own forefathers signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. Communism has strengthened the national will of the nations it occupies and has fanned the flame of national independence beyond the control of any human force.

2. The degrading programs of Russification long used by the leaders of world communism have not only failed miserably but have created a spirit of contempt among the enslaved non-Russian people for all things Russian. This reality in the long run presents a very real danger to the survival of the Russian nation itself. The long series of human abuses and national degradation which have been forced upon millions and millions of people behind the Iron Curtain has created a spirit of violence against the Russian oppressor which know few equals in recorded history.

3. The people living closest to the Russians. that is, the people subjugated and exploited by them, have less fear of them than do many people who live in the comfort and safety of the free world. The Hungarian patriots have exposed the cowardice of the Russians and their constant fear of what the people they oppress may one day do to them. Only a coward could shoot down unarmed men, women, and children who demand nothing more than the freedom and respect befitting the dignity of all men. Cowardice is a fundamental characteristic of communism which must be understood and properly evaluated by those who are responsible for the preservation and extension of freedom throughout the world.

4. That the Russians cannot promote an effective war against civilization because the non-Russians in the Red army, the armed forces of the so-called satellite nations as well as the entire populations of the enslaved non-Russian nations will rise up and fight against them. This would create a situation in which the Russians would be compelled to stand alone against the entire world which obviously would mean their total destruction in short order. No one understands this truism better than the Red reactionaries who now seek desperately to hold the Russian Communist Empire together. This obviously does not mean that we can now relax our national defense programs and it does not lessen the need for eternal vigilance against a possible sneak attack by the Russian Com-munists. It does, however, mean that we must accord this truism its full political weight by giving immediate support to all those who fight for their freedom and national independence.

5 That the time has arrived for us to liberate ourselves from the false and strangling notion that to take any effective action against the Russians would mean war. This vicious piece of propaganda has been the secret weapon of the Russians for some time and they have used it with devastating effect throughout the free world. A desire to preserve the peace without a willingness to fight for those moral and political principles which form the foundation of peace is to flirt with disaster. Men of faint heart and timid action have never prevented war. The history of our own time tells us clearly that any effort to appease the dictator, to make accommodations with a dictator because of an overriding fear of war, can lead only to war.

This is not the time for harping or negative criticism. This is a time for realistic thinking and resolute action. Therefore, I hope that nothing I have said will be construed as criticism for criticism's sake. I have attempted to put into sharp focus those political realities which I sincerely believe have come out of the fight of the Hungarian people to regain their freedom and national independence. There are undoubtedly other lessons of importance which with time will appear out of the tragic events now taking place in Hungary.

The great opportunities for peace which have been provided us by the Hungarian revolution must now be seized upon and pursued with vigor. While we were totally unprepared for any kind of revolution behind the Iron Curtain and therefore appeared in the embarrassing posture of political paralysis, it is time we did something practical to support the brave Hungarian people who are this very day carrying on the fight against the Russian Communists.

To begin with we must eliminate the childish beliefs that political evolution is the answer to the hopes and aspirations of the people enslaved by communism. Revolt has always been man's answer to tyranny. This is a fact of history which knows no note-worthy exception. The brave Hungarians have been consistent with their own long history which is replete with heroic chapters of revolt against tyranny. It is time we faced up to this reality. Freedom like peace cannot be won the easy way. The resettlement of Hungarian escapees and refugees will not restore freedom and independence to Hungary. The care and housing of these Hungarian refugees in this hour of crisis is absolutely necessary, but it will not contribute to the restoration of freedom and independence to the Hungarian These things we must do and I remain as always a firm supporter of programs of this type, but we should come to grips with the real issue which is the continued Russian occupation of the Hungarian nation. I am convinced that if we can cause the Russians to get out of Hungary we will have resolved the major problems of the Hungarian escapees and refugees. With but few exceptions, these people want to return to a free and independent Hungary as soon as possible.

The United Nations some weeks ago, passed a resolution condemning Russian Communist aggression in Hungary and calling upon the Red army to get out of that tormented nation. Many weeks have passed during which the slaughter of the Hungarian patriots by the Russians has continued and yet the United Nations has failed to come to grips with the real issue. I regret to say that unless the United Nations does come to grips with the real issue it will lose the confidence of all thinking people and thus make even less effective the work it has been able to do to date. But it is not too late for the United Nations to take a firm stand in support of the principles of its own charter. This will require imagination and boldness. As a first step the United Nations should expell the Russians from membership unless they abide forthwith by the terms of Resolution A/424 passed December 12 by the General Assembly calling for, among other steps, the Red army to get out of Hungary.

In my considered judgment, if such an expulsion resolution were introduced in the General Assembly of the United Nations overwhelming world opinion would force its passage. The Russians would then have no other course but to withdraw their occupation forces from Hungary because they dare not expose themselves to the condemnation and isolation which would come with their expulsion from the United Nations.

The success of such an action would lead the way to the withdrawal of the Russian occupation forces from all the non-Russian nations of the Communist empire. It would take time to accomplish this task, but once it got started it could not be stopped. In the end such action would guarantee the presevation of the Russian nation itself—a consideration which merits the support of all thinking people.

I believe there are a number of things Congress can do in response to the great opportunities for peace presented by the Hun-garian revolution. Congress can establish a select committee to investigate Communist aggression against Hungary, which would include Russian intervention in the internal affairs of the Hungarian nation and deportation of Hungarian patriots by the Russian secret police and Red army. Such a committee should be authorized to make inquiry into all facts surrounding the Hungarian revolution and similar revolutions within the Communist empire, particularly those which have occurred during the past 4 years. I intend to introduce a resolution to create such a select committee during the first days of the new Congress.

I am encouraged by the action taken by the Assembly of Captive European Nations in calling upon the parliamentary bodies of many countries of the free world, including the United States, to establish such a select committee. The amount of public good that can come out of such inquiries, which would include the sworn testimony of eye witnesses is incalculable. I hope all organizations gathered here today will give their vigorous support to the resolution I shall introduce in Congress.

I pledge my support, as a Member of Congress, to all programs which back up the fight of the enslaved nations for their freedom and national independence and all actions in the United Nations which will give the Russians the choice of either abiding by the Charter of the United Nations or being expelled from that body.

Resolution to create a select committee to investigate the latest acts of Communist aggression in Hungary

Whereas the people of the United States of America are shocked by the latest acts of Communist aggression visited upon the Hungarian people who heroically have fought for their freedom and national independence: and

Whereas the Government of the United States has expressed the concern of the American people by protesting these acts of Communist aggression and by introducing and securing the passage of resolutions in the United Nations condemning such Communist aggression against the Hungarian nation and calling for the removal of the Red army from that nation; and

Whereas Congress can make a contribution to a better public understanding of the Hungarian revolution and the acts of Communist aggression and thus assist our country in being better prepared for such future revolts against tyranny: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That there is hereby created a select committee to be composed of 7 Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, 1 of whom he shall designate as chairman. Any vacancy occur-ring in the membership of the committee shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

The committee is authorized and directed to conduct a full and complete investigation and study of the Hungarian freedom revolution and the acts of aggression committed during this revolution by the armed forces of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, including the mistreatment of the civilian population, and other similar revolts against Communist tyranny.

The committee shall report to the House (or to the Clerk of the House if the House is not in session) as soon as practicable during the present Congress the results of its investigation and study, together with such recommendations as it deems advisable.

For the purpose of carrying out this resolution the committee, or any subcommittee thereof authorized by the committee to hold hearings, is authorized to sit and act during the present Congress at such time and places within or outside the United States, its Territories, and possessions, whether the House is in session, has recessed, or has adjourned, to hold such hearings, and to require, by subpena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems necessary. Subpenas may be issued under the signature of the chairman of the committee or any member of the committee designated by him, and may be served by any person designated by such chairman or member.

For the purposes of this resolution, the committee or any duly authorized subcom-mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit and act at such times and places, to require, by subpena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such books, papers, and documents, to administer such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing and binding, and to make such expenditures, as it deems advisable. The provisions of sections 102 to 104, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes shall apply in case of any failure of any witness to comply with a subpena or to testify when summoned under authority of this section.

THE NEED FOR GREATER HIGHWAY SAFETY

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks at this point in the RECORD.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ala-

There was no objection.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. Speaker, I was deeply grieved over our Christmas holidays to read the constantly mounting toll of deaths caused by traffic accidents. The 1956 Christmas weekend highway deaths reached the terrifying total of 706 dead-the highest in the Nation's history. If these deaths had all occurred in one place due to an explosion or fire, Federal aid would be sought and it would be declared a major disaster. Yet, because the deaths are stretched out across the Nation's highways, a few here and there, we tend to ignore the impact of this useless, bloody sacrifice of lives upon the altar of the automobile.

Mr. Speaker, I was privileged in the last few months of the last session of the 84th Congress to be appointed chairman of a Special Subcommittee on Highway Safety. The subcommittee was to determine the causes of our highway deaths and to discover what could be done to save lives. Our subcommittee held hearings in July and August from which we gained much valuable informa-The subcommittee, in accordance with the provisions of House Resolution 357, filed its report this morning. Unfortunately, however, there was not adequate time for the subcommittee to complete its entire task within a few months. I believe that the need for the continuation of this study is self-evident from the horrendous number of accidents we have just witnessed over the holidays. I hope that within the very near future this Congress will approve a continuation of the subcommittee so that we can stop this trend to a greater and greater death march every time the Nation celebrates a holiday.

Mr. Speaker, I would also like to take this opportunity to express my deep appreciation to the members of this subcommittee and the staff, all of whom were acutely aware of the seriousness of this national problem now of epidemic proportion. The hard-working, diligent members of the subcommittee were: Representatives SAMUEL N. FRIEDEL, of Maryland; Walter Rogers, of Texas; John Beamer, of Indiana; and Paul Schenck, of Ohio.

REPORT

PURSUANT TO FEDERAL REGULATION OF LOBBYING ACT

Note on Item "A".—(a) In General: This "Report" form may be used by either an organization or an individual, as follows:

(i) "EMPLOYEE".—To file as an "employee," state in Item "B" the name, address, and nature of business of the "employer." (If the "employee" is a firm [such as a law firm or public relations firm], partners and salaried staff members of such firm may join in filing a Report as an "employer."—To file as an "employer," write "None" as answer to Item "B."

(b) Separate Reports.—An agent or employee should not attempt to combine his Report with the employer's Report.

(i) Employers subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their agents or employees.

by their agents or employees

(ii) Employees subject to the Act must file separate Reports and are not relieved of this requirement merely because Reports are filed by their employers.

A. ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL FILING .—(1) State name, address, and nature of business; (2) if this Report is for an Employer, list names of agents or employees who will file Reports for this Quarter.

Note on Item "B".—Reports by Agents or Employees. An employee is to file, each quarter, as many Reports as he has employers; except that: (a) If a particular undertaking is jointly financed by a group of employers, the group is to be considered as one employer, but all members of the group are to be named, and the contribution of each member is to be specified; (b) if the work is done in the interest of one person but payment therefor is made by another, a single Report—naming both persons as "employers"—is to be filed each quarter.

B. EMPLOYER.—State name, address, and nature of business. If there is no employer, write "None."

Note on Item "C".—The expression "in connection with legislative interests," as used in this Report, means "in connection with attempting, directly or indirectly, to influence the passage or defeat of legislation." "The term 'legislation' means bills, resolutions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either House of Congress, and includes any other matter which may be the subject of action by either House'—Section 302 (e).

(b) Before undertaking any activities in connection with legislative interests, organizations and individuals subject to the Lobbying Act are required to file a "Preliminary" Report (Registration).

(c) After beginning such activities, they must file a "Quarterly" Report at the end of each calendar quarter in which they have either received or expended anything of value in connection with legislative interests.

- C. LEGISLATIVE INTERESTS, AND PUBLICATIONS in connection therewith:
 - 1. State approximately how long legislative interests are to continue. If receipts and expenditures in connection with legislative interests have terminated, place
- □ an "X" in the box at the left, so that this Office will no longer expect to receive Reports.
- 2. State the general legislative interests of the person filing and set forth the specific legislative interests by reciting: (a) Short titles of statutes and bills; (b) House and Senate numbers of bills, where known; (c) citations of statutes, where known; (d) whether for or against such statutes and
- 3. In the case of those publications which the person filing has caused to be issued or distributed, in connection with legislative interests, set forth: (a) description; (b) quantity distributed; (c) date of distribution; (d) name of printer or publisher (if publications were paid for by person filing) or name of donor (if publications were received as a gift).

4. If this is a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) rather than a "Quarterly" Report, state below what the nature and amount of anticipated expenses will be; and if for an agent or employee, state also what the daily, monthly, or annual rate of compensation is to be. If this is a "Quarterly" Report, disregard this Item "C 4" and fill out Items "D" and "E" on the back of this page. Do not attempt to combine a "Preliminary" Report (Registration) with a "Quarterly" Report.

AFFIDAVIT

Note on Item "D".—(a) In General. The term "contribution" includes anything of value. When an organization or individual uses printed or duplicated matter in a campaign attempting to influence legislation, money received by such organization or individual—for such printed or duplicated matter—is a "contribution" "The term 'contribution' includes a gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money, or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make a contribution"—Section 302 (a) of the Lobbying Act.

tion"—Section 302 (a) of the Lobbying Act.

(b) If This Report is for an Employers.—(i) In General. Item "D" is designed for the reporting of all receipts from which expenditures are made, or will be made, in accordance with legislative interests.

(ii) Receipts of Business Firms and Individuals.—A business firm (or individual) which is subject to the Lobbying Act by reason of expenditures which it makes in attempting to influence legislation—but which has no funds to expand except those which are available in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, in the ordinary course of operating a business not connected in any way with the influencing of legislation—will have no receipts to report, even though it does have expenditures to report.

(iii) Receipts of Multipurpose Organizations.—Some organizations do not receive any funds which are to be expended solely for the purpose of attempting to influence legislation. Such organizations make such expenditures out of a general fund raised by dues, assessments, or other contributions. The percentage of the general fund which is used for such expenditures indicates the percentage of dues, assessments, or other contributions which may be considered to have been paid for that purpose. Therefore, in reporting receipts, such organizations may specify what that percentage is, and report their dues, assessments, and other contributions on that basis. However, each contributor of $500 or more is to be listed, regardless of whether the contribution was made solely for legislative purposes.

(c) If This Report is for an Agent or Employee.—(i) In General. In the case of many employees, all receipts will come under Items "D 5" (received for services) and "D 12" (expense money and reimbursements). In the absence of a clear statement to the contrary, it will be presumed that your employer is to reimburse you for all expenditures which you make in connection with legislative interests.

(ii) Employer as Contributor of $500 or More.—When your contribution from your employer (in the form of salary, fee, etc.) amounts to $500 or more, it is not necessary to report such contribution under "D 13" and "D 14," since the amount has already been reported under "D 5," and the name of the "employer" has been given under Item "B" on page 1 of this report.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Statement by Hon. John Lesinski, of Michigan, on Introduction of Bill To Increase Retirement Annuities

> EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF

HON. JOHN LESINSKI

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Thursday, January 3, 1957

Mr. LESINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I have today introduced a bill to increase the annuities of those Federal employees who had retired prior to October 1, 1956.

Last year, the 84th Congress enacted a major revision to the Civil Service Retirement Act, but the improved benefits accrued only to those who retired subsequent to the effective date of that law. No action was taken to improve the annuities of those already retired.

With costs of living continuing to spiral upward, the retired Federal workers are finding it difficult to make ends meet. In a 17-year period since 1939 the real income of the retired civil-service employees has gone down 13 percent, while the real income of practically every other group have increased, in one case up 107 percent.

In addition to providing an increase in annuities, my bill provides annuities for the so-called forgotten widows of 1948. These surviving spouses of employees who retired and died prior to April 1, 1948, were not included among the beneficiaries of Public Law 426 which provided survivorship annuities for widows of employees who retired on or after April 1, 1948. They are a dying class and their numbers are decimated each year. Actuarial standards show that the entire class will expire in about 6 more years. Consequently any small cost of providing them annuities at this time will only be for a 6-year period and will get smaller each year.

I believe enactment of this legislation is an obligation which we cannot overlook. These people served their Government well and deserve the means by which to keep pace with current day costs of living. I strongly urge that immediate action be taken on the proposal.

Economic Relief of Civil Service Retirees

EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF

HON. THOMAS M. PELLY

OF WASHINGTON

Mr. PELLY. Mr. Speaker, on the opening day of Congress, January 3, I introduced H. R. 854, legislation designed for the economic relief of our civil service retirees. This group of our citizenry has suffered greatly due to rapidly rising prices in our Nation. The U.S. News & World Report of August 3, 1956, carried a very detailed and eye-opening account of this situation analyzing the inflation rates and showing the actual and realistic increases received by various groups in our economy after allowing for taxes and changes in the value of the dollar.

According to the report, on the basis of an analysis of 35 large groups representing approximately 95 percent of our population, it was found that these groups based on 1939 incomes were obtaining larger real income ranging all the way from 4 percent to 107 percent. Civil service retirees, on the other hand, were down 13 percent from the 1939 level.

Mr. Speaker, these figures speak for nemselves. This group of loyal and themselves. dedicated retired employees of our Government are indeed the forgotten men and women of our times. It is imperative that the Congress of the United States take effective and affirmative action to relieve this situation. On the basis of this information and knowing these figures to be reliable, the legislation which I have introduced is designed to provide justice for this loyal group of retired Federal workers. The bill, I be-lieve, is a practical and realistic one granting increases to our retirees of up to $800 per year.

It is my sincere hope that the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee will take prompt and favorable action on this measure, and that my distinguished colleagues and I will be given an opportunity to consider this vital legislation early in this session.

Religion in America Today

EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF

HON. JAMES E. VAN ZANDT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Thursday, January 3, 1957

Mr. VAN ZANDT. Mr. Speaker, during the rally day period conducted by the churches of Altoona, Pa., late in September 1956, I delivered the following address titled "Religion in America Todav":

It is an honor to be invited to participate in this annual rally day service.

I regard it as a special privilege and one which I have accepted in a spirit of deepest reverence.

Rally day is a very important occasion on the church calendar.

It signifies the end of the summer season when warm weather and vacations adversely affect church attendance.

Rally day sounds the call to action, as we take inventory of our spiritual needs and prepare to care for them during the enour attendance at church.

Not only on rally day but in fact every day of the year we should thank God for
