What's it say

1/17/2021 5:06 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

Caroline Wren, a veteran GOP fundraiser, is named as a "VIP Advisor" on an attachment to the permit that Women for America First provided to the agency. Between mid-March and mid-November, Donald J. Trump for President Inc. paid Wren $20,000 a month, according to Federal Election Commission records. During the campaign, she was a national finance consultant for Trump Victory, a joint fundraising committee between the president's reelection campaign and the Republican National Committee.

1/17/2021 5:07 PM

Brad Parscale [redacted]

So

1/17/2021 5:07 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

Wren did not return messages seeking comment, and locked her Twitter account after the AP reached out to her last Monday to ask her about her involvement in the Trump rally and the tweets she had removed. Several days later, she blocked the AP reporter.

1/17/2021 5:07 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

Maggie Mulvaney, a niece of former top Trump aide Mick Mulvaney, is listed on the permit attachment as the "VIP Lead." She worked as director of finance operations for the Trump campaign, according to her LinkedIn profile. FEC records show Maggie Mulvaney was earning $5,000 every two weeks from Trump's reelection campaign, with the most recent payment reported on November 13.

Maggie Mulvaney had taken down her Twitter account as of last Monday, although it reappeared after the AP asked her about the account's removal.

See. This is nothing compared to what is coming

1/26/2021 9:06 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

"Not only does this meeting appear to confirm that Trump's team helped orchestrate the events of January 6, but that it participated in the calibration of those events to exert maximum "pressure" on members of Congress in the midst of them executing a grave constitutional duty."

1/26/2021 9:07 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

"Guilfoyle's presence at the meeting is critical given that Stop the Steal coordinator Ali Alexander claims he received a call from Guilfoyle during the evening of January 5—when she would have been with Trump's family and advisers at Trump International."

1/26/2021 9:07 PM

Katrina's iPhone (+ [redacted])

"their presence at a private Team Trump strategy meeting the night before an armed insurrection affirms that the president's inner circle was in fact coordinating with the very men who were at that moment busy creating an armed mob for Trump to command on January 6. Just so, if Guilfoyle did indeed call Ali Alexander from the meeting, it means that one of the chief Stop the Steal organizers was involved in at least one high-level meeting with Trump family members, Trump administration officials, Trump campaign advisers, and a key member of the United States Senate the night before the January 6 insurrection."
