Trump supporters gathered Dec 11, 2020 Thursday afternoon in front of the United States Capitol to demand congress designate the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) as a “Transnational Criminal Organization.” They say that if congress does not make the declaration themselves, President Trump should immediately do so by executive order.

The above is what I have found so far, and as far as I am concerned that is enough info at this point that you can probably expect issues/ encounters depending upon numbers, firepower, and whatever else they have with them - and just WHO will be backing this particular group there......

I cannot access FB, unfortunately, to see what chatter they have put on there:

William Cook

Apparently, the Supreme Court has just rejected the PA case. Roberts and the left wing of the Court just outed themselves.

Stewart

Of course. The judges are compromised or deep state traitors as well.

All Trump has left is to invoke the insurrection Act and use his power to declassify. He must order SOCOM to seize all the data on the deep state traitors held by CIA, FBI, NSA, etc, and have SOCOM intel do the declass and data dump to the public.
All Trump has Dec 11, 2020 is to take the insurrection Act and use his power to declassify. He must order SOCOM to seize all the data on the deep state traitors held by CIA, FBI, NSA, etc, and have SOCOM intel do the declassify and data dump to the public. Expose them all. And task the military with suppressing the insurrection.

He must also remove Barr immediately, and put in a real fighter, and a special prosecutor. But that is a side issue.

Right now he needs use his power as commander in chief

We are at war.

At war with China and all its American proxies, who are the domestic traitors and insurrectionists.

Trump needs to be a wartime president and wage war on our enemies.

That’s all he has left. If he doesn’t do that, then we will have to fight against an illegitimate Biden regime and all of the deep state with him. It will be a bloody and desperate fight.

We are going to have a fight. That

We are going to have a fight. That can't be avoided. But it's better to have a fight now, while Trump is commander in chief then to wait till he is gone.

So Trump MUST step up. Right now.
