THE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM AND OVERSIGHT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, 105TH CONGRESS

I. JURISDICTION, AUTHORITY, POWERS, AND DUTIES

The Rules of the House of Representatives provide for election by the House, at the commencement of each Congress, of 19 named standing committees, one of which is the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight.[1] Pursuant to House Resolutions 12, 13, and 14 (adopted January 7, 1997), and House Resolutions 31 and 32 (adopted January 21, 1997) the membership of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight was set at 44 (3 vacancies at the beginning of the session) including one independent. Representative Bob Barr was elected to the Committee Jan. 21, 1997 (H.Res. 32), bringing the membership of the Committee to 42. Representative Kevin Brady resigned from the Committee Feb. 5, 1997 (communication to the Speaker), bringing the membership to 41. Representative Collin Peterson resigned from the Committee on Feb. 5, 1997 (communication to the Speaker), bringing the membership to 40. Representatives Danny Davis, John Tierney, Jim Turner, and Thomas Allen were elected to the Committee Feb. 5, 1997 (H.Res. 36), bringing the membership to 44. Representative Robert Ehrlich resigned from the Committee March 19, 1997 (communication to the Speaker), bringing the membership to 43. Representative Rob Portman was elected to the Committee April 9, 1997 (H.Res 108), bringing the membership of the Committee to 44. Representative Tim Holden resigned from the Committee April 17, 1997 (communication to the Speaker), bringing the membership of the Committee to 43. Representative Harold Ford was elected to the Committee April 17, 1997 (H.Res 120), bringing the membership of the Committee to 44. Representative Rob Portman resigned from the Committee Nov. 13, 1997 (communication to the Speaker), bringing the membership to 43. Representative Dan Miller was elected to the Committee Nov. 13, 1997 (H.Res 331), bringing the membership to 44. Representative Steven Schiff deceased March 25, 1998, bringing the membership to 43. Representative Ron Lewis was elected to the Committee May 13, 1998 (H.Res. 429), bringing the membership of the Committee to 44.

Rule X sets forth the committee's jurisdiction, functions, and responsibilities as follows:

RULE X

ESTABLISHMENT AND JURISDICTION OF STANDING COMMITTEES

THE COMMITTEES AND THEIR JURISDICTION

1. There shall be in the House the following standing committees, each of which shall have the jurisdiction and related functions assigned to it by this clause and clauses 2, 3, and 4; and all bills, resolutions, and other matters relating to subjects within the jurisdiction of any standing committee as listed in this clause shall (in accordance with and subject to clause 5) be referred to such committees, as follows:

* * * * * * *

[1] Rule X.

(G) COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM AND OVERSIGHT

(1) Federal Civil Service, including intergovernmental personnel; the status of officers and employees of the United States, including their compensation, classification, and retirement.
(2) Measures relating to the municipal affairs of the District of Columbia in general, other than appropriations.
(3) Federal paperwork reduction.
(4) Budget and accounting measures, generally.
(5) Holidays and celebrations.
(6) The overall economy, efficiency and management of government operations and activities, including Federal procurement.
(7) National archives.
(8) Population and demography generally, including the Census.
(9) Postal service generally, including the transportation of the mails.
(10) Public information and records.
(11) Relationship of the Federal Government to the States and municipalities generally.
(12) Reorganizations in the executive branch of the Government.

In addition to its legislative jurisdiction under the preceding provisions of this paragraph (and its oversight functions under clause 2(b) (1) and (2)), the committee shall have the function of performing the duties and conducting the studies which are provided for in clause 4(c).

* * * * * * *

GENERAL OVERSIGHT RESPONSIBILITIES

2. (a) In order to assist the House in—
(1) its analysis, appraisal, and evaluation of (A) the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of the laws enacted by the Congress, or (B) conditions and circumstances which may indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new or additional legislation, and
(2) its formulation, consideration, and enactment of such modifications of or changes in those laws, and of such additional legislation, as may be necessary or appropriate, the various standing committees shall have oversight responsibilities as provided in paragraph (b).
(b)(1) Each standing committee (other than the Committee on Appropriations and the Committee on the Budget) shall review and study, on a continuing basis, the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of those laws, or parts of laws, the subject matter of which is within the jurisdiction of that committee, and the organization and operation of the Federal agencies and entities having responsibilities in or for the administration and execution thereof, in order to determine whether such laws and the programs thereunder are being implemented and carried out in accordance with the intent of the Congress and whether such programs should be continued, curtailed, or eliminated. In addition, each such committee shall review and study any conditions or circumstances which may indicate the necessity or desirability of enacting new or additional legislation within the jurisdiction of that committee (whether or not any bill or resolution has been introduced with respect thereto), and shall on a continuing basis undertake future research and forecasting on matters within the jurisdiction of that committee. Each such committee having more than twenty members shall establish an oversight subcommittee, or require its subcommittees, if any, to conduct oversight in the area of their respective jurisdiction, to assist in carrying out its responsibilities under this subparagraph. The establishment of oversight subcommittees shall in no way limit the responsibility of the subcommittees with legislative jurisdiction from carrying out their oversight responsibilities.
(2) The Committee on Government Reform and Oversight shall review and study, on a continuing basis, the operation of Government activities at all levels with a view to determining their economy and efficiency.

* * * * * * *

(c) Each standing committee of the House shall have the function of reviewing and studying on a continuing basis the impact or probable impact of tax policies affecting subjects within its jurisdiction as described in clauses 1 and 3.

* * * * * * *

4.

* * * * * * *

(c)(1) The Committee on Government Reform and Oversight shall have the general function of—

(A) receiving and examining reports of the Comptroller General of the United States and of submitting such recommendations to the House as it deems necessary or desirable in connection with the subject matter of such reports;

(B) evaluating the effects of laws enacted to reorganize the legislative and executive branches of the Government; and

(C) studying intergovernmental relationships between the United States and the States and municipalities, and between the United States and international organizations of which the United States is a member.

(2) In addition to its duties under subparagraph (1), the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight may at any time conduct investigations of any matter without regard to the provisions of clause 1, 2, or 3 (or this clause) conferring jurisdiction over such matter upon another standing committee. The committee's findings and recommendations in any such investigation shall be made available to the other standing committee or committees having jurisdiction over the matter involved (and included in the report of any such other committee when required by clause 2(l)(3) of Rule XI).

* * * * * * *

Rule XI provides authority for investigations and studies, as follows:

RULE XI

RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR COMMITTEES

IN GENERAL

* * * * * * *

(b) Each committee is authorized at any time to consider such investigations and studies as it may consider necessary or appropriate in the exercise of its responsibilities under rule X, and (subject to the adoption of expense resolutions as required by clause 5) to incur expenses (including travel expenses) in connection therewith.

* * * * * * *

(d)(1) Each committee shall submit to the House, not later than January 2 of each odd-numbered year, a report on the activities of that committee under this rule and rule X during the Congress ending on January 3 of such year.

* * * * * * *

2.

* * * * * * *

Power to sit and act; subpoena power

(m)(1) For the purpose of carrying out any of its functions and duties under this rule and rule X (including any matters referred to it under clause 5 of Rule X), any committee, or any subcommittee thereof, is authorized (subject to subparagraph (2)(A) of this paragraph)—

(A) to sit and act at such times and places within the United States, whether the House is in session, has recessed, or has adjourned, and to hold such hearings, and

(B) to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems necessary.

The Chairman of the committee, or any member designated by such chairman, may administer oaths to any witness.

(2)(A) A subpoena may be authorized and issued by a committee or subcommittee under subparagraph (1)(B) in the conduct of any investigation or series of investigations or activities, only when authorized by a majority of the members voting, a majority being present. The power to authorize and issue subpoenas under subparagraph (1)(B) may be delegated to the chairman of the committee pursuant to such rules and under such limitations as the committee may prescribe. Authorized subpoenas shall be signed by the chairman of the committee or by any member designated by the committee.

(B) Compliance with any subpoena issued by a committee or subcommittee under subparagraph (1)(B) may be enforced only as authorized or directed by the House.

Use of committee funds for travel

(n)(1) Funds authorized for a committee under clause 5 are for expenses incurred in the committee's activities; however, local currencies owned by the United States shall be made available to the committee and its employees engaged in carrying out their official duties outside the United States, its territories or possessions. No appropriated funds, including those authorized under clause 5, shall be expended for the purpose of defraying expenses of members of the committee or its employees in any country where local currencies are available for this purpose; and the following conditions shall apply with respect to travel outside the United States or its territories or possessions:

(A) No member or employee of the committee shall receive or expend local currencies for subsistence in any country for any day at a rate in excess of the maximum per diem set forth in applicable Federal law, or if the member or employee is reimbursed for any expenses for such day, then the lesser of the per diem or the actual, unreimbursed expenses (other than for transportation) incurred by the member or employee during that day.

(B) Each member or employee of the committee shall make to the chairman of the committee an itemized report showing the dates each country was visited, the amount of per diem furnished, the cost of transportation furnished, any funds expended for any other official purpose and shall summarize in these categories the total foreign currencies and/or appropriated funds expended. All such individual reports shall be filed no later than sixty days following the completion of travel with the chairman of the committee for use in complying with reporting requirements in applicable Federal law and shall be open for public inspection.

(2) In carrying out the committee's activities outside of the United States in any country where local currencies are unavailable, a member or employee of the committee may not receive reimbursement for expenses (other than for transportation) in excess of the maximum per diem set forth in applicable Federal law, or if the member or employee is reimbursed for any expenses for such day, then the lesser of the per diem or the actual, unreimbursed expenses (other than for transportation) incurred, by the member or employee during any day.

(3) A member or employee of a committee may not receive reimbursement for the cost of any transportation in connection with travel outside of the United States unless the member or employee has actually paid for the transportation.

(4) The restrictions respecting travel outside of the United States set forth in subparagraphs (2) and (3) shall also apply to travel outside of the United States by Members, officers, and employees of the House authorized under clause 8 of rule I, clause 1(b) of this rule, or any other provision of these Rules of the House of Representatives.

(5) No local currencies owned by the United States may be made available under this paragraph for the use outside of the United States for defraying the expenses of a member of any committee after—

(A) the date of the general election of Members in which the Member has not been elected to the succeeding Congress; or

(B) in the case of a Member who is not a candidate in such general election, the earlier of the date of such general election or the adjournment sine die of the last regular session of the Congress.

The committee also exercises authority under a number of congressional mandates.[2]

Information to committees of Congress on request

[2] For legislation imposing duties specifically on the committee, see, for example, sec. 203(e)(6) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended (40 U.S.C. 484(e)(6)), relating to negotiated disposal of Federal surplus property. It requires that explanatory statements be sent "to the appropriate committees of the Congress" in advance of negotiated disposal under that act of all real and personal property (with limited exceptions) whose fair market value exceeds $1,000. The present statutory language stems from a 1958 amendment (Act of July 2, 1958; 72 Stat. 288). In the legislative report on that amendment, the Committee on Government Operations was specifically mentioned as the appropriate committee of the House (H. Rept. No. 1763, 85th Cong., pp. 3-5). See 41 CFR 10 1-47, 304-12(d). Previously under the original language of this provision (sec. 1(i) of the Act of July 12, 1952; 66 Stat. 593), it had likewise been the Government Operations Committee's function to receive such explanatory statements. (Cf. H. Rept. No. 982, 83d Cong., p. 2.) See also sec. 414(a) of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1969, as amended by the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1970 (Public Law 91-609, December 31, 1970), relating to disposition of surplus land for low- and moderate-income housing. See also sec. 304 of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-577), under which executive agencies must furnish each year to the Committee on Government Operations summary reports of special or technical services provided to local governments. See also 2 U.S.C. secs. 191-194, relating to oaths and testimony before a congressional committee.

An executive agency, on request of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight of the House of Representatives, or of any seven members thereof, or on request of the Committee on Governmental Affairs of the Senate, or any five members thereof, shall submit any information requested of it relating to any matter within the jurisdiction of the committee.

18 U.S.C. sec. 1505

Obstruction of proceedings before departments, agencies, and committees

Whoever, with intent to avoid, evade, prevent, or obstruct compliance, in whole or in part, with any civil investigative demand duly and properly made under the Antitrust Civil Process Act, willfully withholds, misrepresents, removes from any place, conceals, covers up, destroys, mutilates, alters, or by other means falsifies any documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony, which is the subject of such demand; or attempts to do so or solicits another to do so; or

Whoever corruptly, or by threats or force, or by any threatening letter or communication influences, obstructs, or impedes or endeavors to influence, obstruct, or impede the due and proper administration of the law under which any pending proceeding is being had before any department or agency of the United States, or the due and proper exercise of the power of inquiry under which any inquiry or investigation is being had by either House, or any committee of either House or any joint committee of the Congress Shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

31 U.S.C. sec. 712

Investigating the use of Public Money The Comptroller General shall—

* * * * * * *

(3) analyze expenditures of each executive agency the Comptroller General believes will help Congress decide whether public money has been used and expended economically and efficiently;

(4) make an investigation and report ordered by either House of Congress or a committee of Congress having jurisdiction over revenue, appropriations, or expenditures; and

(5) give a committee of Congress having jurisdiction over revenue, appropriations, or expenditures the help and information the committee requests.

31 U.S.C. sec. 719

Comptroller General reports

* * * * * * *

(e) The Comptroller General shall report on analyses carried out under section 712(3) of this title to the Committees on Governmental Affairs and Appropriations of the Senate, the Committees on Government Operations and Appropriations of the House, and the committees with jurisdiction over legislation related to the operation of each executive agency.[3]

II. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

The committee was initially named the "Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments." Its antecedents are summarized in Cannon's Precedents of the House of Representatives, vol. VII. sec. 2041, p. 831 (1935), as follows:

> This committee was created, December 5, 1927, by the consolidation of the eleven Committees on Expenditures in the various Departments of the Government, the earliest of which has been in existence since 1816. As adopted in 1816, the rule did not include the committees for the Departments of Interior, Justice, Agriculture, Commerce, and Labor. The committees for these Departments date, respectively from 1860, 1874, 1889, 1905, and 1913.

The resolution providing for the adoption of the rules of the 70th Congress discontinued the several committees on expenditures and transferred their functions to the newly created Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments:

[3] For other requirements which relate to General Accounting Office reports to Congress and which affect the committee, see secs. 232 and 236 of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1970 (Public Law 91-510).

On March 17, 1928, the jurisdiction of the committee was further enlarged by the adoption of a resolution, reported from the Committee on Rules, including within its jurisdiction the independent establishments and commissions of the Government.[4]

From 1928 until January 2, 1947, when the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 became effective, the committee's jurisdiction was set forth in Rule XI, 34, of the House Rules then in force (H. Doc. 810, 78th Cong., 2d Sess. (1945)), as follows:

POWERS AND DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

* * * * * * *

34. The examination of the accounts and expenditures of the several departments, independent establishments, and commissions of the Government, and the manner of keeping the same; the economy, justness, and correctness of such expenditures; their conformity with appropriation laws; the proper application of public moneys; the security of the Government against unjust and extravagant demands; retrenchment; the enforcement of the payment of moneys due the United States; the economy and accountability of public officers; the abolishment of useless offices, shall all be subjects within the jurisdiction of the Committee on Expenditures in the Executive Departments.

The Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946, section 121(b), as adopted in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of Rule XI, 8, of later Rules of the House (XI, 9 in the 93d Congress), provided:

COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM AND OVERSIGHT

(a) Budget and accounting measures, other than appropriations.
(b) Reorganizations in the executive branch of the Government.
(c) Such committee shall have the duty of—

(1) receiving and examining reports of the Comptroller General of the United States and of submitting such recommendations to the House as it deems necessary or desirable in connection with the subject matter of such reports;

(2) studying the operation of Government activities at all levels with a view to determining its economy and efficiency;

(3) evaluating the effects of laws enacted to reorganize the legislative and executive branches of the Government; and

(4) studying intergovernmental relationships between the United States and the States and municipalities, and between the United States and international organizations of which the United States is a member.

(d) For the purpose of performing such duties the committee, or any subcommittee thereof when authorized by the committee, is authorized to sit, hold hearings, and act at such times and places within the United States, whether or not the House is in session, is in recess, or has adjourned, to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such papers, documents, and books, and to take such testimony as it deems necessary. Subpoenas may be issued under the signature of the chairman of the committee of any subcommittee, or by any member designated by any such chairman, and may be served by any person designated by any such chairman or member.[5]

Rule X, 1(h), of later Rules of the House, effective January 3, 1975 (H. Res. 988, 93d Congress), added the additional jurisdiction of general revenue sharing (formerly within the jurisdiction of the Committee on Ways and Means), and the National Archives (formerly within the jurisdiction of the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service).

Rule X, 1(j)(6), of later Rules of the House listed the additional jurisdiction of measures providing for off-budget treatment of Federal agencies or programs, which was added by sec. 225 of Public Law 99-177, the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (December 12, 1985).

The 1946 Act contained the following proviso:

Provided, That unless otherwise provided herein, any matter within the jurisdiction of a standing committee prior to January 2, 1947, shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of that committee or of the consolidated committee succeeding generally to the jurisdiction of that committee.

This proviso was omitted from the Rules of the House adopted January 3, 1954.[6]

Under the Constitution (Art. I, sec. 5, cl. 2), "Each House may determine the Rules of its Proceedings." Omission of the proviso made no substantive change, since the scope of the committee's jurisdiction prior to January 2, 1947, was embraced within the committee's jurisdiction as stated in existing rules and precedents.

The committee's membership, which was fixed at 21 when it was consolidated on December 5, 1927, was increased to 25 when the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 became effective on January 2, 1947. In 1951, the committee's membership was increased to 27.[7] From 1953 until January 1963, the committee's membership remained at 30.[8] Pursuant to H.Res. 108, 88th Congress, adopted January 17, 1963, the committee was enlarged to 31 members. In the 89th Congress the membership of the committee was increased to 34 through passage of H.Res. 114, January 14, 1965. The committee membership in the 90th and 91st Congresses of 35 was first established by H.Res. 128, 90th Congress approved January 16, 1967. The committee membership in the 92d Congress of 39 was established by H.Res. 192, approved February 4, 1971. It was raised to 41 by H.Res. 158, adopted January 24, 1973. The committee membership of 42 was established by H.Res. 1238, adopted July 17, 1974. As stated above, it was increased to 43 by H.Res. 76 and 101, adopted January 20 and 28, 1975. (Note.—It dropped to 42 due to death of Hon. Torbert H. Macdonald.) Membership was maintained at 43 in the 95th Congress by H.Res. 117 and 118, adopted January 19, 1977. The committee membership was set at 39 in the 96th Congress by H.Res. 62 and 63, adopted January 24, 1979. The committee membership was set at 40 in the 97th Congress by H.Res. 44 and 45, adopted January 28, 1981. The committee membership was increased to 41 by H.Res. 370, adopted February 24, 1982, electing Representative Barbara B. Kennelly to the committee. In the 98th Congress, the committee membership of 39, including two vacancies, was established by H.Res. 26 and 27, adopted January 6, 1983. The vacancies were filled by appointments of Representatives Larry E. Craig on March 1, 1983 (H.Res. 108), and Daniel L. Schaefer on April 21, 1983 (H.Res. 168). (Representative Dante B. Fascell resigned January 25, 1984, leaving the membership of the committee at 38.) Representative Gerald D. Kleczka was appointed to the committee on May 16, 1984 (H.Res. 499), bringing the membership to 39. (Representative Buddy MacKay resigned September 12, 1984.) Representative George (Buddy) Darden was appointed to the committee on September 13, 1984 (H.Res. 582), leaving the membership at 39. The committee membership was set at 39 in the 99th Congress by H.Res. 34 and 35, adopted January 30, 1985. Representative Mel Levine resigned February 6, 1985; Representative John R. McKernan resigned February 27, 1985; Representative Matthew G. Martinez was appointed to the committee February 27, 1985 (H.Res. 83); and Representative Howard C. Nielson was appointed to the committee February 27, 1985 (H.Res. 84), leaving the membership at 39. Representative David S. Monson resigned June 19, 1985, leaving the membership at 38. Representative John G. Rowland resigned October 10, 1985, and Representatives Beau Boulter and John E. Grotberg were appointed to the committee October 10, 1985 (H.Res. 292), bringing the membership to 39. (Representative Grotberg was deceased November 15, 1986.) The committee membership was set at 39 in the 100th Congress by House Resolutions 45 and 54, adopted January 21 and 22, 1987, respectively. Representative David E. Skaggs resigned April 7, 1987, bringing the membership to 38. Representative Nancy Pelosi was appointed to the committee June 18, 1987 (H.Res. 202), leaving the membership at 39. Representative Ernest L. Konnyu resigned and Representative Christopher Shays was appointed to the committee November 4, 1987 (H.Res. 304), leaving the membership at 39. The committee membership in the 101st Congress was established at 39 by H.Res. 29 and H.Res. 45, adopted January 19 and 20, 1989. (Representative Bill Grant's election to the committee was vacated February 22, 1989); Representative Jim Bates was appointed to the committee March 1, 1989 (H.Res. 96); Representative Craig Thomas was appointed to the committee May 4, 1989 (H.Res. 148); (Representative Robert Walker resigned from the committee May 10, 1989); (Representative Louise Slaughter resigned from the committee July 20, 1989); Representative Richard Armey was appointed to the committee August 3, 1989; Representative Larkin Smith was deceased August 14, 1989; Representative Gary A. Condit was appointed to the committee October 16, 1989; Representative Ileana Ros-Lehtinen was appointed to the committee November 3, 1989 (H.Res. 281); Representative Joe Kolter resigned from the committee February 5, 1990; Representative Dennis E. the membership at 51. Representative Tim Holden was elected to the committee on July 13, 1995 (H.Res. 186), bringing the membership of the committee to 52. Representative Gene Taylor resigned from the committee on February 28, 1996 (communication to the Speaker), leaving the membership at 51. Representative Elijah Cummings was elected to the committee on April 25, 1996 (H.Res. 414), bringing the membership to 52. Representative Jon Fox resigned from the committee on June 25, 1996 (H.Res. 462), leaving the membership of the committee at 51. Representative Scott Klug was elected to the committee on July 22, 1996 (H.Res. 485), bringing the membership of the committee to 52.

Beginning September 28, 1949, the moneys appropriated to the committee were, by House resolution in each session of Congress, available for expenses incurred in conducting studies and investigations authorized under Rule XI, whether made within or without the United States.[9] In the 103rd Congress, these matters are covered in paragraph (b) of clause 1 of Rule XI, as set forth above, and by clause 5 of Rule XI. The funds for the committee's studies and oversight function during the first session of the 103rd Congress were provided by H.Res. 107, adopted March 30, 1993 (H.Rept. 103-38), and by H.Res. 369, adopted March 22, 1994 (H.Rept. 103-433), for the second session.

The committee's name was changed to "Committee on Government Operations" by House resolution adopted July 3, 1952.[10] The Congressional Record indicates the reasons underlying that change in name were, in part, as follows:[11]

> This committee is proposing the indicated change in the present title, in view of the fact that it is misleading and the committee's functions and duties are generally misunderstood by the public.
> In suggesting the proposed change the committee based its decision on what it considers to be the major or primary function of the committee under the prescribed duties assigned to it to study "the operations of Government activities at all levels with a view to determining its economy and efficiency." It was the unanimous view of the members of the committee that the proposed new title would be more accurate in defining the purposes for which the committee was created and in clearly establishing the major purpose it serves.

On January 4, 1995, the 104th Congress opened with a Republican majority for the first time in forty years. The shift in power from Democrats to Republicans has resulted in a realignment of the legislative priorities and committee structure of the House of Representatives. Perhaps more than any other committee, the Government Reform and Oversight Committee embodies the changes taking place in the House of Representatives. The Committee itself was created by consolidating three committees into one, resulting in budget and staff cuts of nearly 50%. The committees that were merged include the Committee on Government Operations, the Committee on the Post Office and Civil Service, and the Committee on the District of Columbia.

In order to fulfill the Republican Contract with America, the committee held a record number of hearings and mark-ups, and members cast more votes during this 100 day period than in any of the previous Committee's histories. Over the course of the first session, 295 bills and resolutions were referred to the committee and its subcommittees, and 180 hearings and mark-ups were held. Five of these measures have been signed into law.

In addition to its greatly expanded legislative jurisdiction, the Government Reform and Oversight Committee serves as the chief investigative committee of the House, with the authority to conduct government-wide oversight. Because the committee only authorizes money for a small number of Federal agencies and programs, it is able to review government activities with an unbiased eye.

The 105th Congress and the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight under the leadership of Chairman Dan Burton (R-IN) enjoyed a productive year as Congress continued to move closer to its goals established with the Contract with America, to seek to achieve a smaller, smarter, and more efficient common sense government.

In addition to the committee's oversight responsibilities, the Government Reform and Oversight Committee has pursued an active, ambitious agenda throughout the 105th Congress with its ongoing investigation of suspected illegal activities during the 1996 elections. The committee and its eight subcommittees conducted 252 hearings during the 105th Con-

Hearings covered the following diverse range of subjects: the year 2000 computer crisis; the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program; the Persian Gulf war veterans illnesses; oversight and implementation of the Results Act; the investigation of political fundraising improprieties; and the review of the Food and Drug Administration and its regulations respecting terminally ill patients and their ability to access desired treatments. The committee staff developed a web site (www.house.gov/reform) to post up-to-minute witness testimonies and reports for quick availability.

RULES OF THE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT REFORM AND OVERSIGHT

ONE HUNDRED FIFTH CONGRESS

(As Adopted February 12, 1997)

Rule XI, 1(a)(1) of the House of Representataives provides:

The Rules of the House are the rules of its committees and subcommittees so far as applicable, except that a motion to recess from day to day, and a motion to dispense with the first reading (in full) of a bill or resolution, if printed copies are available, are nondebatable motions of high privilege in committees and subcommittees.

Rule XI, 2(a) of the House of Representatives provides, in part:

Each standing committee of the House shall adopt written rules governing its procedures. * * *

In accordance with this, the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, on February 12, 1997, adopted the rules of the committee:

RULE 1—APPLICATION OF RULES

Except where the terms "full committee" and "subcommittee" are specifically referred to, the following rules shall apply to the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight and its subcommittees as well as to the respective chairmen.

(See House Rule XI, 1.)

RULE 2—MEETINGS

The regular meetings of the full Committee shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month at 10:00 a.m., when the House is in session. The chairman is authorized to dispense with a regular meeting or to change the date thereof, and to call and convene additional meetings, when circumstances warrant. A special meeting of the committee may be requested by members of the committee following the provisions of House Rule XI, 2(c)2. Subcommittees shall meet at the call of the subcommittee chairmen. Every member of the committee or the appropriate subcommittee, unless prevented by unusual circumstances, shall be provided with a memorandum at least three calendar days before each meeting or hearing explaining (1) the purpose of the meeting or hearing; and (2) the names, titles, background and reasons for appearance of any witnesses. The ranking minority member shall be responsible for providing the same information on witnesses whom the minority may request.

(See House Rule XI, 2(b).)

RULE 3—QUORUMS

A majority of the members of the committee shall form a quorum, except that two members shall constitute a quorum for taking testimony and receiving evidence, and one-third of the members shall form a quorum for taking any action other than the reporting of a measure or recommendation. If the chairman is not present at any meeting of the committee or subcommittee, the ranking member of the majority party on the committee or subcommittee who is present shall preside at that meeting.

(See House Rule XI, 2(h).)

RULE 4—COMMITTEE REPORTS

Bills and resolutions approved by the committee shall be reported by the chairman following House Rule XI, 2(l). Every investigative report shall be approved by a majority vote of the committee at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Supplemental, minority, or additional views may be filed following House Rule XI, 2(l)(5). The time allowed for filing such views shall be three calendar days, beginning on the day of notice but excluding Saturday, Sundays, and legal holidays (unless the House is in session on such a day), unless the committee agrees to a different time, but agreement on a shorter time shall require the concurrence of each member seeking to file such views. A proposed report shall not be considered in subcommittee or full committee unless the proposed report has been available to the members of such subcommittee or full committee for at least three calendar days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) before consideration of such proposed report in subcommittee or full committee. An investigative report or oversight report will be considered as read if available, to the members, at least 24 hours before consideration, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays unless the House is in session on such days. If hearings have been held on the matter reported upon, every reasonable effort shall be made to have such hearings available to the members of the subcommittee or full committee before the consideration of the proposed report in such subcommittee or full committee. An investigative or oversight report may be filed after sine die adjournment of the last regular session of the Congress, provided that if a member gives timely notice of intention to file supplemental, minority or additional views, that member shall be entitled to not less than seven calendar days in which to submit such views for inclusion with the report. Only those reports approved by a majority vote of the committee may be ordered printed, unless otherwise required by the Rules of the House of Representatives.

RULE 5—PROXY VOTES

In accordance with the Rules of the House of Representatives, members may not vote by proxy on any measure or matter before the committee or any subcommittee.
(See House Rule XI, 2(f).)

RULE 6—ROLL CALLS

A roll call of the members may be had upon the request of any member upon approval of a one-fifth vote.
(See House Rule XI, 2(e).)

RULE 7—RECORD OF COMMITTEE ACTIONS

The committee staff shall maintain in the committee offices a complete record of committee actions from the current Congress including a record of the rollcall votes taken at committee business meetings. The original records, or true copies thereof, as appropriate, shall be available for public inspection whenever the committee offices are open for public business. The staff shall assure that such original records are preserved with no unauthorized alteration, additions, or defacement.
(See House Rule XI, 2(e).)

RULE 8—SUBCOMMITTEES; REFERRALS

There shall be seven subcommittees with appropriate party ratios that shall have fixed jurisdictions. Bills, resolutions, and other matters shall be referred by the chairman to subcommittees within two weeks for consideration or investigation in accordance with their fixed jurisdictions. Where the subject matter of the referral involves the jurisdiction of more than one subcommittee or does not fall within any previously assigned jurisdiction, the chairman shall refer the matter as he may deem advisable. Bills, resolutions, and other matters referred to subcommittees may be reassigned by the chairman when, in his judgement, the subcommittee is not able to complete its work or cannot reach agreement therein. In a subcommittee having an even number of members, if there is a tie vote with all members voting on any measure, the measure shall be placed on the agenda for full committee consideration as if it had been ordered reported by the subcommittee without recommendation. This provision shall not preclude further action on the measure by the subcommittee.
(See House Rule XI, 1(a)(2).)

RULE 9—EX OFFICIO MEMBERS

The chairman and the ranking minority member of the committee shall be ex officio members of all subcommittees. They are authorized to vote on subcommittee matters; but, unless they are regular members of the subcommittee, they shall not be counted in determining a subcommittee quorum other than a quorum for taking testimony.

RULE 10—STAFF

Except as otherwise provided by House Rule XI, 5 and 6, the chairman of the full committee shall have the authority to hire and discharge employees of the professional and clerical staff of the full committee and of subcommittees.

RULE 11—STAFF DIRECTION

Except as otherwise provided by House Rule XI, 5 and 6, the staff of the committee shall be subject to the direction of the chairman of the full committee and shall perform such duties as he may assign.

RULE 12—HEARING DATES AND WITNESSES

The chairman of the full committee will announce the date, place, and subject matter of all hearings at least one week before the commencement of any hearings, unless he determines, with the concurrence of the ranking minority member, or the committee determines by a vote, that there is good cause to begin such hearings sooner. So that the chairman of the full committee may coordinate the committee facilities and hearings plans, each subcommittee chairman shall notify him of any hearing plans at least two weeks before the date of commencement of hearings, including the date, place, subject matter, and the names of witnesses, willing and unwilling, who would be called to testify, including, to the extent he is advised thereof, witnesses whom the minority members may request. The minority members shall supply the names of witnesses they intend to call to the chairman of the full committee or subcommittee at the earliest possible date. Witnesses appearing before the committee shall so far as practicable, submit written statements at least 24 hours before their appearance and, when appearing in a non-governmental capacity, provide a curriculum vitae and a listing of any Federal Government grants and contracts received in the previous fiscal year.

(See House Rules XI, 2(g)(3), (g)(4), (j), and (k).)

RULE 13—OPEN MEETINGS

Meetings for the transaction of business and hearings of the committee shall be open to the public or closed in accordance with Rule XI of the House of Representatives.

(See House Rules XI, 2(g)and (k).)

RULE 14—FIVE-MINUTE RULE

(1)A committee member may question a witness only when recognized by the chairman for that purpose. In accordance with House Rule XI, 2(j)(2), each committee member may request up to five minutes to question a witness until each member who so desires has had such opportunity. Until all such requests have been satisfied, the chairman shall, so far as practicable, recognize alternately based on seniority of those majority and minority members present at the time the hearing was called to order and others based on their arrival at the hearing. After that, additional time may be extended at the direction of the chairman. (2)The chairman, with the concurrence of the ranking minority member, or the committee by motion, may permit an equal number of majority and minority members to question a witness for a specified, total period that is equal for each side and not longer than thirty minutes for each side. (3)The chairman, with the concurrence of the ranking minority member, or the committee by motion, may permit committee staff of the majority and minority to question a witness for a specified, total period that is equal for each side and not longer than thirty minutes for each side. (4)Nothing in paragraph (2) or (3) affects the rights of a Member (other than a Member designated under paragraph (2)) to question a witness for 5 minutes in accordance with paragraph (1) after the questioning permitted under paragraph (2) or (3). In any extended questioning permitted under paragraph (2) or (3), the Chairman shall determine how to allocate the time permitted for extended questioning by majority members or majority committee staff and the ranking minority member shall determine how to allocate the time permitted for extended questioning by minority members or minority committee staff. The Chairman or the ranking minority member, as applicable, may allocate the time for any extended questioning permitted to staff under paragraph (3) to members.

RULE 15—INVESTIGATIVE HEARINGS; PROCEDURE

Investigative hearings shall be conducted according to the procedures in House Rule XI, 2(k). All questions put to witnesses before the committee shall be relevant to the subject matter before the committee for consideration, and the chairman shall rule on the relevance of any questions put to the witnesses.

RULE 16—STENOGRAPHIC RECORD

A stenographic record of all testimony shall be kept of public hearings and shall be made available on such conditions as the chairman may prescribe.

RULE 17—TV, RADIO, AND PHOTOGRAPHS

An open meeting or hearing of the committee or a subcommittee may be covered, in whole or in part, by television broadcast, radio broadcast, and still photography, or by any such methods of coverage, unless closed subject to the provisions of House Rule XI, 3.

RULE 18—ADDITIONAL DUTIES OF CHAIRMAN

The chairman of the full committee shall: (a) Make available to other committees the findings and recommendations resulting from the investigations of the committee or its subcommittees as required by House Rule X, 4(c)(2); (b) Direct such review and studies on the impact or probable impact of tax policies affecting subjects within the committee's jurisdiction as required by House Rule X, 2(c); (c) Submit to the Committee on the Budget views and estimates required by House Rule X, 4(g), and to file reports with the House as required by the Congressional Budget Act; (d) Authorize and issue subpoenas as provided in House Rule XI, clause 2(m), in the conduct of any investigation or activity or series of investigations or activities within the jurisdiction of the committee; (e) Prepare, after consultation with subcommittee chairmen and the minority, a budget for the committee which shall include an adequate budget for the subcommittees to discharge their responsibilities; (f) Make any necessary technical and conforming changes to legislation reported by the committee upon unanimous consent; and (g) Will designate a Vice Chairman from the majority party.

RULE 19—COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS

The committee has adopted the policy that the determination of the subject matter of commemorative stamps properly is for consideration by the Postmaster General and that the committee will not give consideration to legislative proposals for the issuance of commemorative stamps. It is suggested that recommendations for the issuance of commemorative stamps be submitted to the Postmaster General.

RULE 20—INTERROGATORIES AND DEPOSITIONS

The chairman, upon consultation with the ranking minority member, may order the taking of interrogatories or depositions, under oath and pursuant to notice or subpoena. Such authorization may occur on a case-by-case basis, or by instructions to take a series of interrogatories or depositions. Notices for the taking of depositions shall specify the date, time, and place of examination. Answers to interrogatories shall be answered fully in writing under oath and depositions shall be taken under oath administered by a member or a person otherwise authorized by law to administer oaths. Consultation with the ranking minority member shall include three business day's written notice before any deposition is taken. All members shall also receive three business day's written notice that a deposition has been scheduled. The committee shall not initiate contempt proceedings based on the failure of a witness to appear at a deposition unless the deposition notice was accompanied by a committee subpoena issued by the chairman. Witnesses may be accompanied at a deposition by counsel to advise them of their rights. No one may be present at depositions except members, committee staff designated by the chairman or ranking minority member, an official reporter, the witness, and the witness's counsel. Observers or counsel for other persons or for agencies under investigation may not attend. A deposition shall be conducted by any member or committee staff attorney designated by the chairman or ranking minority member. When depositions are conducted by committee staff attorneys, there shall be no more than two committee staff attorneys of the committee permitted to question a witness per round. One of the committee staff attorneys shall be designated by the chairman and the other shall be designated by the ranking minority member. Other committee staff members designated by the chairman or the ranking minority member may attend, but are not permitted to pose questions to the witness. Questions in the deposition will be propounded in rounds. A round shall include as much time as is necessary to ask all pending questions. In each round, a member or committee staff attorney designated by the chairman shall ask questions first, and the member or committee staff attorney designated by the ranking minority member shall ask questions second. An objection by the witness as to the form of a question shall be noted for the record. If a witness objects to a question and refuses to answer, the member or committee staff attorney may proceed with the deposition, or may obtain, at that time or a subsequent time, a ruling on the objection by telephone or otherwise from the chairman or a member designated by the chairman. The committee shall not initiate procedures leading to contempt proceedings based on a refusal to answer a question at a deposition unless the witness refuses to testify after an objection of the witness has been overruled and after the witness has been ordered by the chairman or a member designated by the chairman to answer the question. Overruled objections shall be preserved for committee consideration within the meaning of clause 2(k)(8) of House Rule 11. Committee staff shall insure that the testimony is either transcribed or electronically recorded, or both. If a witness's testimony is transcribed, the witness or the witness's counsel shall be afforded an opportunity to review a copy. No later than five days thereafter, the witness may submit suggested changes to the chairman. Committee staff may make any typographical and technical changes requested by the witness. Substantive changes, modifications, clarifications, or amendments to the deposition transcript submitted by the witness must be accompanied by a letter requesting the changes and a statement of the witness's reasons for each proposed change. A letter requesting any substantive changes, modifications, clarifications, or amendments must be signed by the witness. Any substantive changes, modifications, clarifications, or amendments shall be included as an appendix to the transcript conditioned upon the witness signing the transcript. The individual administering the oath, if other than a member, shall certify on the transcript that the witness was duly sworn. The transcriber shall certify that the transcript is a true record of the testimony and the transcript shall be filed, together with any electronic recording, with the clerk of the committee in Washington, D.C. Interrogatories and depositions shall be considered to have been taken in Washington, D.C. as well as at the location actually taken once filed there with the clerk of the committee for the committee's use. The chairman and the ranking minority member shall be provided with a copy of the transcripts of the deposition at the same time. All depositions and interrogatories received pursuant to this rule shall be considered as taken in executive session. A witness shall not be required to testify unless the witness has been provided with a copy of the committee's rules. This rule is applicable to the committee's investigation of political fundraising improprieties and possible violations of law, and is effective upon adoption of a resolution, in the House of Representatives, providing the committee with special investigative authorities.

The chairman, after consultation with the ranking minority member, may obtain testimony and evidence in other countries through letters rogatory and other means of international government cooperation and assistance. This rule is applicable to the committee's investigation of political fundraising improprieties and possible violations of law, and is effective upon adoption of a resolution, in the House of Representatives, providing the committee with special investigative authorities.
