FOREIGN SERVICE DESPATCH

V-48(3)

FROM: Embassy MOSCOW

DESP. NO.

November 2, 1959
DATE

TO: THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON.

REF:

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP: Lee Harvey OSWALD

Mr. Lee Harvey OSWALD, an American citizen, appeared at this Embassy October 31, 1959 and stated to Second Secretary Richard E. Snyder that he wishes to renounce his American citizenship and that he had applied to become a citizen of the Soviet Union. He presented to the interviewing officer his passport and the following signed, undated, handwritten statement, the original of which is retained by the Embassy (misspellings are as in original):

"I Lee Haroy (cq) Oswald do hereby request that my present citizenship in the United States of America, be revoked.

"I have entered the Soviet Union for the express purpose of appling for citizenship in the Soviet Union, through the means of naturalization.

"My request for citizenship is now pending before the Surpren Soviet of the U.S.S.R.

"I take these steps for political reasons. My request for the revoking of my American citizenship is made only after the longest and most serious considerations.

"I affirm that my allegiance is to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics."

s/ Lee H. Oswald

Oswald is the bearer of Passport No. 1733242, issued September 10, 1959 (retained at the Embassy). The passport shows that he was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, on October 18, 1939, and gives his occupation as "shipping export agent". Oswald gave his last address in the United States as that of his mother at 1936 Collinwood Street, Fort Worth, Texas. A telegram subsequently received at the Embassy for him indicates that a brother, Robert L. Oswald, resides at 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas. He stated that he was discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps on September 11, 1959. Highest grade achieved was corporal. Oswald evidently applied for his passport to the Agency at San Francisco while still in service. He stated that he had contemplated the action which he took for about two years before his discharge. He departed from the United States through New Orleans with the intent of traveling to the Soviet Union through Northern Europe. He states that he first applied for a Soviet tourist visa in Helsinki on October 14, that he applied for Soviet citizenship by letter to the Supreme Soviet on October 16 in Moscow. He stated that he did not mention his intent to remain in the Soviet Union to the Soviet Embassy in Helsinki at the time of his visa application.

Throughout the interview Oswald's manner was aggressive, arrogant, and uncooperative. He appeared to be competent. He insisted that he did not wish to waste time in discussion or answering questions concerning his "personal" affairs beyond what was directly related to divesting himself of his American citizenship. He was contemptuous of any efforts by the interviewing officer in his interest, made clear that he wanted no advice from the Embassy. He stated that he knew the provisions of U. S. law on loss of citizenship and declined to have them reviewed by the interviewing officer. In short he displayed all the airs of a new sophomore party-liner.

Oswald gave as the "principal reason" for his decision that "I am a marxist", but declined any further elaboration of his motives. However, other remarks bearing on his attitude were made during the interview. At one point he alluded to hardships endured by his mother as a "worker" and stated that he did not intend to have this happen to him. He also referred to himself several times as a "worker", but admitted that he had never held a civilian job, having entered the Marine Corps directly from junior year of high school. (He claimed to have completed high school while in service.) He stated that his service in Okinawa and elsewhere "gave me a chance to observe American imperialism." At another point he reacted sensitively when asked, in connection with his rank in the Marine Corps, whether he felt he should have had a higher grade.

Oswald categorically refused to discuss his family beyond stating that he was not married and that he has a mother in Texas. He had obliterated the address written on the inside cover of his passport and steadfastly refused to give any last home address until it was elicited by the "threat" that nothing could be done about his request to renounce his citizenship without this information. After giving the address noted above, he then confirmed that it was his mother's address. He would not say whether he had informed his mother and rebuffed any suggestion of concern for her.

Oswald offered the information that he had been a radar operator in the Marine Corps and that he had voluntarily stated to unnamed Soviet officials that as a Soviet citizen he would make known to them such information concerning the Marine Corps and his speciality as he possessed. He intimated that he might know something of special interest.

Oswald is presently residing in non-tourist status at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow awaiting the Soviet response to his application for citizenship. As his Soviet visa and militia registration expired on October 22, 1959, and have not been renewed, he is patently in a technically illegal residence status with the tacit consent of the Soviet authorities.

For what significance it may have, the foregoing was also the pattern in the Nicholas PETRUCCI case (our Despatch 111, September 11, 1959). Having evidently concluded, after allowing Petrulli to languish "illegally" in a local hotel for a month, that he was no asset as a Soviet citizen, the Soviets suddenly invited him to depart, pointing out that he had "overstayed" his visa.

In view of the Petrulli case and other considerations, the Embassy proposes to delay action on Oswald's request to execute an oath of renunciation to the extent dictated by developments and subject to the Department's advice.

FOLLOWING IS SNYDER STATEMENT:

TO MY BEST RECOLLECTION I HAD TWO PERSONAL INTERVIEWS WITH OSWALD, ONE ON HIS FIRST VISIT TO EMBASSY TO ANNOUNCE HIS DEFECTION, SECOND A NUMBER OF MONTHS LATER WHEN HE REVISITED EMBASSY TO SOUND OUT POSSIBILITIES RETURNING TO UNITED STATES. IN ADDITION, I CONDUCTED SEVERAL EXCHANGES OF CORRESPONDENCE WITH HIM. ALL ASPECTS OF ABOVE WERE COVERED IN MY REPORTS TO THE DEPARTMENT. I WAS SOLE OFFICER HANDLING OSWALD CASE. FOLLOWING IS MY ROUGH RECOLLECTION TWO INTERVIEWS:

FIRST INTERVIEW:

(PRECISE DATE ON RECORD IN DEPARTMENT.) OSWALD VISITED EMBASSY ON OWN INITIATIVE AND WAS REFERRED TO ME AS SENIOR CONSULAR OFFICER. (FOLLOWING REMARKS NOT NECESSARILY IN ORDER.) OSWALD STATED IN EFFECT THAT HE WISHED TO GIVE UP HIS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP, THAT HE INTENDED TO BECOME A SOVIET CITIZEN AND TO SERVE SOVIET STATE, THAT HE WAS DOING THIS BECAUSE "I AM A MARXIST", THAT HE CONDEMNED OUR GOVERNMENT AND POLICIES OF THE UNITED STATES AS IMPERIALISTIC, THAT HE ADMIRERD THE SYSTEM AND POLICIES OF THE SOVIET UNION AND DESIRED TO SERVE THE SOVIET STATE.

HE DELIVERED OVER HIS AMERICAN PASSPORT TO ME, AND SAID THAT

HE WANTED TO TAKE THE NECESSARY STEPS TO RENOUNCE HIS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP. HE STATED DESIRE TO CONCLUDE MATTER QUICKLY, THAT HE HAD BEEN FOREWARNED I WOULD TRY TALK HIM OUT OF DECISION, THAT HE WANTED NO LECTURES FROM ME, DESIRED ENTER INTO NO DISCUSSION. I NEVERTHELESS ELICITED FOLLOWING FROM HIM.

OSWALD STATED HE HAD JUST COMPLETED TOUR DUTY WITH U.S. MARINE CORPS, I BELIEVE IN OKINAWA OR JAPAN OR BOTH, THAT HIS INTENT TO DEFECT TO THE SOVIET UNION WAS FIRM BEFORE DISCHARGE THAT HE APPLIED FOR AN AMERICAN PASSPORT FOR THIS PURPOSE (ALTHOUGH NOT SO STATED ON HIS APPLICATION) IMMEDIATELY UPON ARRIVAL IN US, I BELIEVE SAN FRANCISCO OR LOS ANGELES, FOLLOWING HIS DISCHARGE. I BELIEVE HE STATED HE PAID BRIEF VISIT TO TEXAS BEFORE DEPARTING FOR SOVIET UNION VIA WESTERN EUROPE.

SOURCE HIS "MARKISM", I BELIEVE HE ATTRIBUTED TO "SONU BOOKS" AND OTHER MATERIALS HE HAD WHILE IN MARINE CORPS AND POSSIBLY BEFORE. OSWALD STATED HIS EYES HAD BEEN OPENED TO THE WAY AMERICA OPPRESSES AND COLONIZES FOREIGN PEOPLES FROM OBSERVING OUR ACTIONS IN OKINAWA. HE REFERRED THROUGHOUT IN CONDEMNATORY AND CONTEMPTUOUS TONES TO HIS OWN COUNTRY AND IN LAUDATORY TERMS TO SOVIET UNION. I RECALL STRONG IMPRESSION HE USED SIMPLE MARXIST STEREOTYPES WITHOUT SOPHISTICATION OR INDEPENDENT FORMULATION. HE REFERRED, I BELIEVE, TO EARLIER POVERTY AND HARD LIFE OF MOTHER AS PARTIAL RATIONALE FOR ATTITUDES. AT SAME TIME I BELIEVE I HAD IMPRESSION HE HAD LITTLE AFFECTION FOR AND FELT NO PARTICULAR OBLIGATION TOWARD HIS MOTHER.

OSWALD STATED THAT HE WAS AN ELECTRONICS SPECIALIST OR SOMETHING SIMILAR IN MARINES AND THAT HE INTENDED MAKE ALL HIS SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE AVAILABLE TO SOVIET GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT DECLARING INTENTION COMMIT A DISLOYAL ACT. I BELIEVE HE DID NOT CLAIM TO POSSESS KNOWLEDGE OR INFORMATION OF HIGHLY CLASSIFIED NATURE.

I DID NOT TAKE OSWALD'S RENUNCIATION ON THAT DAY, GIVING HIM AS REASON, I BELIEVE, THAT EMBASSY THEN CLOSED AND PREPARATION OF DOCUMENTS REQUIRED SOME TIME. I TOLD HIM THAT IF THAT HIS INTENT RENUNCIATION COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED FOLLOWING DAY OR ANY OTHER TIME HE APPEARED WHEN EMBASSY OPEN. REAL REASON NOT TOLD OSWALD WAS THAT IN MY JUDGMENT COMMON SENSE AND SOUND PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE ADVISE AGAINST IMMEDIATE ACTION ON REQUESTS FOR RENUNCIATION OF CITIZENSHIP WHERE SUCH ACTION BY CONSUL MIGHT IN EFFECT ABET INDIVIDUAL ACTING OUT OF SUDDEN QUIXOTIC OR IRRATIONAL IMPULSE OR OTHER TRANSIENT INFLUENCE TO COMMIT IRREVOCABLE ACT OF SERIOUS CONSEQUENCE. THIS A PARTICULAR CONSIDERATION MOSCOW WHICH MAGNET FOR CERTAIN DEFECTION-PRONE QUIXOTIC TYPES OF UNCERTAIN MENTALITY AND DOUBTFUL EMOTIONAL STABILITY. FURTHER CONSIDERATION IS POTENTIAL POLITICAL CONSEQUENCES WHICH CAN RESULT FROM RENUNCIATION BY SUCH PERSON NOT POSSESSING PERMANENT SOVIET RESIDENT STATUS. (EARLIER PETRULLI CASE ILLUSTRATES POINTS.)

OSWALD DID NOT PRESENT HIMSELF AT THE EMBASSY AGAIN BEFORE DEPARTING FROM MOSCOW FEW DAYS LATER BUT I HAD ONE EXCHANGE OF CORRESPONDENCE WITH HIM ADDRESSED TO HOTEL IN MOSCOW WHERE HE STAYED. THIS CORRESPONDENCE IS IN DEPARTMENT'S RECORDS.

WHILE DIFFICULT ISOLATE REACTION TO AND ESTIMATION OF OSWALD AT THAT TIME FROM FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS ENGENDERED BY HIS SUBSEQUENT ACTS, I BELIEVE CAN ACCURATELY CHARACTERIZE HIS DEMEANOR ON FIRST ENCOUNTER AS ARROGANT AND DEFIANT. HE STRUCK ME AS INTELLIGENT, ARTICULATE, UNINTELLECTUAL, EXCESSIVELY ASSERTIVE, INTENSE AND HUMORLESS. HE USED NO PROFANITY AND MAINTAINED SELF-CONTROL. THE OVERALL IMPRESSION WAS ONE OF OVERBEARING ARROGANCE AND INSUFFERABLE ADOLESCENCE.

SECOND INTERVIEW:

OSWALD VISITED ME AT EMBASSY A NUMBER OF MONTHS LATER, FOLLOWING EXCHANGE OF CORRESPONDENCE, TO INQUIRE ABOUT POSSIBILITIES AND CONDITIONS HIS RETURN TO UNITED STATES. (COPIES OF CORRESPONDENCE IN THE DEPARTMENT'S FILES.) I BELIEVE THIS INTERVIEW BRIEFER THAN FIRST ONE, LASTING PERHAPS 10 OR 15 MINUTES. ON THIS OCCASION HE DISPLAYED LITTLE OF ARROGANCE, CONTEMPTUOUSNESS AND ALL-AROUND OFFENSIVENESS OF FIRST ENCOUNTER. HE STILL DISPLAYED CHARACTERISTIC COCKSURENESS. HE STATED, IN EFFECT, THAT HE HAD NOT SUBSTANTIALLY CHANGED ANY HIS BASIC IDEAS BUT DESIRED TO RETURN TO UNITED STATES. HE STATED WAS WORKING IN A FACTORY IN MINSK WHERE HE HAD BEEN SETTLED BY SOVIET GOVERNMENT AFTER HIS DEPARTURE FROM MOSCOW, THAT HE HAD ACQUIRED WIFE WHO WAS SOVIET CITIZEN, THAT HE INTENDED SHE ACCOMPANY HIM TO UNITED STATES. WHILE I RECALL FEWER DETAILS THIS INTERVIEW, IT WAS DEVOTED IN PART

FROM TOKYO

TO QUESTIONING BY ME OF OSWALD IN ATTEMPT TO MAKE PRELIMINARY ASSESSMENT AS TO WHETHER HE HAD COMMITTED ACT WHICH MIGHT CAUSE LOSS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP. I BELIEVE THAT I CONCLUDED IN MY REPORT TO DEPARTMENT ON THIS INTERVIEW THAT I FOUND NO EVIDENCE THAT HE HAD ACQUIRED SOVIET CITIZENSHIP OR COMMITTED ANY OF ACTS SPECIFIED BY LAW WHICH CAUSE LOSS AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP. I BELIEVE THAT OSWALD DEMANDED AS "CONDITION" RETURN TO UNITED STATES ASSURANCE HE WOULD NOT BE PROSECUTED. I BELIEVE I TOLD HIM THAT THOUGH I HAD NO KNOWLEDGE ANY OUTSTANDING CHARGE AGAINST HIM THAT NO SUCH ASSURANCE COULD OR WOULD BE GIVEN, THAT IF HE WERE FOUND TO BE U.S. CITIZEN BY THE TIME HE WAS PREPARED LEAVE SOVIET UNION HE COULD RETURN TO UNITED STATES ON SAME BASIS AS ANY OTHER AMERICAN CITIZEN. I BELIEVE THAT I VERIFIED AT THAT TIME THAT THE SOVIET INTERNAL PASSPORT WHICH HE POSSESSED WAS OF THE TYPE ISSUED TO PERSONS NOT CITIZENS OF THE SOVIET UNION. OSWALD'S DEemeanOR DURING SECOND ENCOUNTER WAS CONSIDERABLY SUBDUED. I DO NOT RECALL THAT HE WAS CONTRITE, BUT HE DID NOT EXHIBIT EARLIER DEFIANCE. I BELIEVE HE GAVE SOME INDICATION DISILLUSIONMENT WITH FACTS OF LIFE IN SOVIET UNION AS THEY HAD APPLIED TO HIM IN PRECEDING MONTHS, AND I BELIEVE HE REMARKED LACONICALLY SOMETHING TO THE EFFECT THAT HIS PRESENCE IN MY OFFICE MUST GIVE ME SOME SATISFACTION. I BELIEVE THAT AT END OF INTERVIEW OSWALD INDICATED THAT HE INTENDED APPLY IN NEAR FUTURE FOR PERMISSION LEAVE SOVIET UNION TO RETURN TO UNITED STATES. I BELIEVE GMOI# HAD SOME FURTHER CORRESPONDENCE WITH HIM BEFORE I DEPARTED FROM MOSCOW ON TRANSFER IN JULY 1961, AT WHICH TIME, TO BEST KNOWLEDGE, HE STILL RESIDING MINSK.

ABOVE RECOLLECTIONS NECESSARILY SKETCHY. IF CONFLICT IN ANY PARTICULARS WITH FACTS AS REPORTED BY ME AT THE TIME AND NOW IN DEPARTMENT'S RECORDS, THE LATTER IS THE ACCURATE ACCOUNT.

MEMO FOR THE FILES

Nov. 17, 1959

Pricilla Johnson of NANA asked me today about Oswald. I gave her a general run down of the outlines of the case as I knew they were known to the public, suggesting that she also check with Korengold for any factual details I might have omitted and which were already generally known.

She told me that on Sunday, May 15, she had spent several hours talking with Oswald and that she had left it with him that she was available if he wanted somebody to talk to again.

Her general impression of Oswald was the same as ours has been. His naivete about what he can expect here is balanced by a rather carefully worked out set of answers and a careful reserve about saying things he feels he shouldn't. He made one interesting comment to her to the effect that he had never in all his life talked to anyone so long about himself. She remarked that although he used long words and seemed in some ways well read, he often used words incorrectly, as though he had learned them from a dictionary. He told her that his Soviet citizenship was still under consideration, but that the Soviets had already assured him that he could stay here as a resident alien if he so desired. They are also looking into the possibility of getting him into a school. He said that in any case he would never return to the United States. He also said that he had had a dependency discharge from the Marines to care for his mother, but had come right here instead. He said that his reason for taking this step was that he had seen imperialism in action against minority groups; to wit, Communists, negroes, and workers. Miss Johnson asked him whether it had occurred to him to desert from the Marines, since he had apparently intended so extreme a step as this anyway. He said that he did not wish to do anything "illegal". It was her opinion that he might have been consciously or not trying to leave a loophole for himself. Along this line she had also told her that he did not intend to come back to the Embassy, <sup>yet</sup> He seemed very much annoyed at the Embassy for having prevented him from formally giving up his citizenship.

Miss Johnson was particularly interested in picking me up on what she called a discrepancy in his statements; at different times he had said that the Embassy had not allowed him to give up his citizenship because it had been too busy and again on another occasion because we could not do it until he had heard from the Soviets <sup>about their decision.</sup> I explained that the law required that we not withhold the right to give up citizenship, but that the regulations and common sense ~~also required~~ that we ~~must~~ be sure that someone was not going to take any such serious step without due consideration and understanding of what he was about. I said that we had duly informed Oswald that he had a right to come in and give up his citizenship.

I also pointed out to Miss Johnson that there was a thin line somewhere between her duty as a correspondent and as an American. I mentioned Mr. Korengold as a man who seemed to have known this difference pretty well. I said that if someone could persuade Oswald at least to delay before taking the final plunge on his American citizenship, <sup>doubtless</sup> for that matter Soviet citizenship, they would be doing him a favor and ~~helping~~ the USA as well. She seemed to understand this point. I believe that she is going to try and write a story on what prompts a man to do such a thing.

PS (11/19/59) Priscilla J. told me since that O. has been told he will be leaving the hotel at the end of this week; that he will be trained in electronics; that she has asked him to keep in touch with her; that he has showed some slight signs of disillusionment with the SU, but that his "hate" for the US remains ~~very~~ strong although she cannot fathom the reason.

CONSULAR SECTION
TAKEN

I, Lee Harvey Oswald, do hereby request that my present United States citizenship be revoked.

I appeared in person, at the consulate office of the United States Embassy, Moscow, on Oct 31ST, for the purpose of signing the formal papers to this effect. This legal right I was refused at that time.

I wish to protest against this action, and against the conduct of the official of the United States consular service who acted on behalf of the United States government.

My application, requesting that I be considered for citizenship in the Soviet Union is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R..

In the event of acceptance, I will request my government to lodge a formal protest regarding this incident.

I Leo Percy Oswald do hereby request that my present citizenship in the United States of America, be revoked.

I have entered the Soviet Union for the express purpose of applying for citizenship in the Soviet Union, through the means of naturalization.

My request for citizenship is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R.

I take these steps for political reasons. My request for the revoking of my American citizenship is made only after the longest and most serious considerations.

I affirm that my allegiance is to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

OFFICIAL - INFORMAL

Dear Mr. Foster:

The Webster case (our Report No. 224) has pointed up the question here as to how far the Embassy ought to go in "defection" cases in seeking to document the loss of citizenship of persons like Webster in view of the often dubious circumstances surrounding such actions under the conditions prevailing in the Iron Curtain.

Webster appears to have lost citizenship under Sec. 349 by "obtaining naturalization in (the USSR) upon his own application." The regulations say that it is the Department's "desire" that, if possible, the consular officer document this with an official statement from the appropriate foreign authority confirming the performance of the act. It is the sense of the regulations, I believe, that the documentation of the loss be left with as few legal holes as possible.

The question arises whether in view of the special humanitarian and political considerations the handling of cases of "defection" or voluntary expatriation of Americans to the USSR, we ought to temper the "normal" consular guide lines with a bit of Talleyrand's dictum of "surtout pas de zele" in order to leave such avenues to repatriation as possible open to future contingency. On this basis we are inclined, although under the provisions of the Webster case there is no present indication that it would make any material difference, to leave the matter of proof of the acquisition of Soviet citizenship to the future course of events.

Libero Ricciardelli (Department's 7-37, August 12, 1959) is another current case in question. The only evidence we have on Ricciardelli is based on statement purportedly by him in the Moscow News of July 22, 1959, in which he renounced his American citizenship and accepted Soviet citizenship. Under ordinary procedure we would seek official confirmation that he had assumed Soviet citizenship upon his own application and submit this to support a certificate of loss of nationality. The passive approach which I have so far taken, as much out of the dictates of time as of policy, is to take no action concerning his citizenship unless and until he contacts the Embassy, or the Department specifically directs us to do so.

We would appreciate any thoughts you may have on this subject.

Dear Bob:

I refer to your letter of October 28, 1959 to Gene Eoster, in which you discussed action which the Embassy should take in documenting the loss of citizenship by persons who have "defected" (Webster, Oswald cases, etc.). Gene has been looking into this matter but departed on leave yesterday before this reply could be typed.

We were in the process of preparing a reply, when we learned that the Passport Office had sent a confidential Wirom on the case of Lee H. Oswald which it believed answered your questions. However, upon reading this Wirom, I see that it refers only to the responsibility falling on the Embassy by reason of Section 1959 of the revised statutes to accept a citizenship renunciation when an American citizen makes known his wishes to this effect. Your question regarding the leeway which the Embassy has in pursuing the question of proof of acquisition of foreign citizenship has not been commented upon.

From our discussions with the Passport Office relative to these recent renunciation cases, I gather that you have raised a delicate question. We have gone quite fully into our position in SOV over the years of giving liberal interpretations to any regulations which pertain to the status of Americans in the Soviet Union. I am quoting below PFI's guidance in this matter.

"Here it seems that the opportunity to be 'lenient' is not considered to be available because specific provisions of law are involved which give us no discretionary authority. It would hardly seem reasonable, to say the least, to expatriate a man in a friendly country and not do so in an 'unfriendly' country for the same expatriative act. We cannot do this and could get into serious trouble if we were to do it. Failure to act in a proper manner in the knowledge of specific actions could result in exclusion or deportation action by I&S such to our embarrassment at a later date.

"The securing of evidence necessary to establish a firm case of loss of citizenship is your responsibility and ours too. Whenever a case is before you for consideration you must expend the necessary effort to obtain evidence which establishes the real facts beyond any reasonable doubt. Such evidence is sometimes difficult to obtain and sometimes impossible. When it is difficult to obtain, the extra effort necessary has to be expended. When it is impossible to obtain, you can record what you have and if the case fails for the want of evidence, then so be it.

"In the Webster case the evidence has been strengthened by affidavits from Rend and Eockhinder. It is expected that the certificate of loss of citizenship will be approved. Your statement has been corroborated by them under oath."

Perhaps you should consider every case on its own merits and follow through in accordance with your best judgment keeping, however, the Passport Office thoroughly informed so that they can interpose other instructions if they believe this is necessary.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

Reference is made to your letter of November 3, 1959 in which you request to be divested of your American citizenship.

As you were informed at the time of your visit to the Embassy on October 31, 1959, it is a principle of the American Government that the right of expatriation is a natural and inherent right of any person and that the manner prescribed by law for renunciation of American citizenship is the execution of oath before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in the established form.

You are again informed that you may appear at the Embassy at any time during normal business hours and request that the Embassy prepare the necessary documents for renunciation of citizenship. The Embassy hours are as follows: 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday; 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday.

The Embassy has no evidence that Oswald has expatriated himself other than his announced intention to do so, and the Embassy is, therefore, technically in a position to institute an inquiry concerning his whereabouts through a note to the Foreign Office. # OPERATIONS MEMORANDUM

TO: Embassy INCOMM

FROM: The Department of State

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS - Lee Harvey Oswald

REF: Embassy's OM March 28, 1960.

Date: MAY 10 1960

It is believed that by now the Embassy will have received the Department's Operations Memorandum of March 28, 1960 concerning Mr. Oswald.

It is the view of the Department that, as of now, any further action which might be taken should be based upon the specific request of Mr. Oswald or upon a request voluntarily submitted by a member of his family in such form as to indicate that official action is necessary. It is not believed that the Department at this time should propose to a member of Mr. Oswald's family that this case be pursued further along the lines discussed in the communication under reference. The Department nevertheless appreciates the Embassy's continued interest and suggestions.

Dear Sir,

Since I have not received a reply to my letter of December 1960, I am writing again asking that you consider my request for the return of my American passport.

I desire to return to the United States, that is if we could come to some agreement concerning the dropping of any legal proceedings against me. If so, then I would be free to ask the Russian authorities to allow me to leave. If I could show them my American passport, I am of the opinion they would give me an exit visa.

They have at no time insisted that I take Russian citizenship. I am living here

The Embassy is writing to Oswald and suggesting that he come personally to the Embassy for an interview on which to base a decision concerning the status of his American citizenship. Oswald's reference in his letter to his being unable to leave Minsk without permission may indicate that he desires to come to the Embassy, in which case an invitation from the Embassy may facilitate his traveling to Moscow. The Embassy would as a last resort, if the Department found no objection and provided the Embassy were reasonably sure that Oswald had not committed an expatriating action, return his American passport to him by mail for what help this may be in facilitating his application for a Soviet exit visa.

The Embassy would like to be informed whether Oswald is subject to prosecution on any grounds should he enter the jurisdiction of the United States and, if so, whether there is any objection in communicating this to him.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

We have received your recent letter concerning your desire to return to the United States. Your earlier letter of December, 1960 which you mentioned in your present letter does not appear to have been received at the Embassy.

Inasmuch as the question of your present American citizenship status can be finally determined only on the basis of a personal interview, we suggest that you plan to appear at the Embassy at your convenience. The consular section of the Embassy is open from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

TO: The American Embassy MOSCOW

The Embassy's Despatch No. 535 of February 23, 1961 concerning Lee Harvey Oswald has been studied with particular reference to the last two paragraphs thereof. Despatch No. 499 of March 24, 1961 concerning him has also been noted.

If and when Mr. Oswald appears at the Embassy, he should be thoroughly questioned regarding the circumstances of his residence in the Soviet Union and his possible commitment to an act or acts of expatriation and, as contemplated by the Embassy, his statements should be taken under oath. If the Embassy is fully satisfied that he has not expatriated himself in any manner and if he presents evidence that he has arranged to depart from the Soviet Union to travel to the United States, his report may be delivered to him in a sealed packet only. It is not to be made available for anyone other than the individual named. For a variety of reasons, the Department does not consider that it would be prudent for the Embassy to forward such a report to him by mail.

The Department is not in a position to advise Mr. Oswald whether upon his desired return to the United States he may be amenable to prosecution for any possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or the laws of any of its States.

The developments in the case of Mr. Oswald should be promptly reported. In particular, a report of his travel data should be submitted when the Embassy receives confirmation of his travel plans.

It may be added that Mrs. Margarite Oswald has been informed of the address given by Mr. Oswald in his recent unaided communication referred to in Despatch No. 507 and of his desire to return to the United States. She has also been appropriately informed in the light of Despatch No. 659.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS; Leo Harvey Oswald

Leo Harvey OSWALD appeared at the Embassy on July 8 on his own initiative in connection with his desire to return to the United States with his wife.

Oswald executed the enclosed questionnaire pertaining to possible expatriating acts and was questioned at length concerning his activities since entering the Soviet Union. No evidence was revealed of any act on his part which might have caused loss of his American citizenship. He exhibited Soviet internal "stateless" passport (вид на жительство для лиц без гражданства) No. 311179 issued by the Moscow city government on January 11, 1960, which is prima facie evidence that he is regarded by the Soviet authorities as not possessing Soviet citizenship. Oswald stated that despite the wording of the statement which he handed to the Embassy on October 31, 1959 (Embassy despatch 254, November 2, 1959), he never in fact actually applied for Soviet citizenship. His application at that time was for permission to remain in the Soviet Union and for a temporary extension of his tourist visa pending the outcome of his request. This application, according to Oswald, contained no reference to Soviet citizenship, nor did he subsequently make any application for Soviet citizenship. The application was addressed by him to the USSR Supreme Soviet and was placed in the mail box of the Metropole Hotel. It appeared, however, to have been delivered to the central office of the Moscow CVR and apparently was the basis of a notification to him by that office three days later of permission to remain in the Soviet Union. There was subsequently issued his present "stateless" internal passport.

Oswald stated that he has been employed since January 13, 1960, in the Eolorussian Radio and TV Factory in Minsk, where he works as a metal worker in the research shop. He stated that he took no oath or affirmation or allegiance of any kind nor was he required to sign any kind of papers in connection with his employment. He gave his earnings as 90 rubles per month. He stated that he is not a member of the factory trade union organization, never having been asked to join.

Oswald stated that he had never been called upon to make any statements for radio or press or to address audiences since his arrival in the Soviet Union and that he has made no statements at any time of any exploitable nature concerning his original decision to reside in the Soviet Union. He recalled that he had been interviewed briefly in his room at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow on the third day after his arrival in the Soviet Union by a reporter from Radio Moscow. The reporter represented himself as seeking comments from American tourists on their impressions of Moscow. Oswald stated that he made no more than a few routine comments of a visiting-tourist nature, the whole lasting no more than two or three minutes and of no political significance. When queried about a statement which he had made to the interviewing officer at the time of his first appearance at the Embassy on October 31, 1959, to the effect that he would willingly make available to the Soviet Union such information as he had acquired as a radar operator in the Marine Corps, Oswald stated that he was never in fact subjected to any questioning or briefing by the Soviet authorities concerning his life or experiences prior to entering the Soviet Union, and never provided such information to any Soviet organ. He stated that he doubted in fact that he would have given such information if requested despite his statements made at the Embassy.

Oswald indicated some anxiety as to whether, should he return to the United States, he would face possible lengthy imprisonment for his act of remaining in the Soviet Union. Oswald was told informally that the Embassy did not perceive, on the basis of information in its possession, on what grounds he might be subject to conviction leading to punishment of such severity as he apparently had in mind. It was clearly stated to him, however, that the Embassy could give him no assurance as to whether upon his desired return to the United States he might be liable to prosecution for offenses committed in violation of laws of the United States or of any of its States. Oswald said he understood this. He had simply felt that in his own interest he could not go back to the United States if it meant returning to a number of years in prison, and had delayed approaching Soviet authorities concerning departing from the Soviet Union until he "had this end of the thing straightened out."

Oswald was married on April 30, 1961, to Marina Nikolovna FURKOVA, a dental technician. He is attempting to arrange for his wife to join him in Moscow so that she can appear at the Embassy for a visa interview in the next day or two.

Oswald intends to institute an application for an exit visa immediately upon his return to Minsk within the next few days. His American passport was returned to him for this purpose after having been awarded to the Soviet Union direct return to the United States only. The possession of a foreign passport or similar travel document is typically a prerequisite to being permitted to file an application for a Soviet exit visa, and it was felt that there was little prospect that Oswald could accomplish anything with the Soviet consular concerned unless he displayed his American passport. Oswald's present passport expires on September 10, 1961, and it is our intention not to renew it without the Department's prior approval of the enclosed renewal application, and then only upon evidence of a present need for the renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States.

Twenty months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He stated frankly that he had learned a hard lesson the hard way and that he had been completely relieved of his illusions about the Soviet Union at the same time that he acquired a new understanding and appreciation of the United States and the meaning of freedom. Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the Embassy appears to have left him. He stated that he is in contact with his mother and a brother in the United States. He stated that he had about 200 rubles and that he and his wife would save more for eventual costs of traveling to the United States.

Action Requested: The Department's action is requested on the enclosed application for renewal of Oswald's passport. If approved, it is requested that the Embassy be authorized to renew Oswald's passport at its discretion.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy received on May 25, 1961 an undated letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk, May 16, 1961, in which he states in part that he is asking "full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case" should he return to the United States, that if this "condition" cannot be met he will "endeavor to use my relatives in the United States to see about getting something done in Washington." According to the letter, Oswald is married to a Russian woman who would want to accompany him to the United States. The text of the letter is contained in Enclosure 1.

In view of the possibility that the Department may receive further inquiries from Oswald's mother or from other persons in his behalf concerning his case, the Embassy would be glad to have the Department's comments before replying to Oswald. The Embassy proposes to reply to Oswald, drawing upon the language of the third paragraph of the Department's A-173, that should he be found not to have lost American citizenship, he would be entitled to return to the United States under the laws and regulations applicable to all American citizens and that the Embassy is not in a position to advise him whether in the event of his return he may be subject to prosecution for possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or of any of the States. The Embassy's reply would also reiterate that the final determination of Oswald's claim to American citizenship could only be made on the basis of a personal interview and that he is free to visit the Embassy whenever he desires. The reply would include the Embassy's prepared information sheets explaining the requirements and procedures pertaining to his wife's intended immigration. Oswald would also be informed of the necessity for him and his wife to apply to the Soviet authorities for permission to leave the Soviet Union and would be invited to inform the Embassy if he had done so.

The reference in Oswald's letter to his present Soviet internal passport in which he is apparently designated as "without citizenship" is, if accurate, prima facie indication that the Soviet government does not regard him as possessing Soviet citizenship. It would appear on this basis that Oswald has not yet expatriated himself under Section 319(a)(1) of the Immigration and

The Embassy has noted that the Department did not consider it prudent to forward Oswald's passport to him by mail. The Embassy also feels that it would be neither prudent nor appropriate in this case to return Oswald's passport to him without the normal physical and legal safe-guards provided by the requirement that he appear at the Embassy for a personal interview. Should circumstances arise which make it desirable to provide Oswald with a passport or certificate of identity, under circumstances other than the foregoing, the Embassy will request the Department's prior advice. Does the Department consider that Oswald is entitled to the protection of the United States Government while he continues to reside abroad under present circumstances in the absence of reasonable evidence that he has committed an expatriating act?

"Dear Sirs:

"In regards to your letter of March 24. I understand the reasons for the necessity of a personal interview at the Embassy, however, I wish to make it clear that I am asking not only for the right to return to the United States, but also for full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case. I made that clear from my first letter, although nothing has been said, even vaguely, concerning this in my correspondence with the Embassy. Unless you honestly think that this condition can be met, I see no reason for a continuance of our correspondence, instead I shall endeavor to use my relatives in the United States, to see about getting something done in Washington.

"As for coming to Moscow, this would have to be on my own initiative and I do not care to take the risk of getting into a awkward situation unless I think it worthwhile. Also, since my last letter I have gotten married.

"My wife is Russian, born in Leningrad, she has no parents living and is quite willing to leave the Soviet Union with me and live in the United States.

"I would not leave here without my wife so arrangements would have to be made for her to leave at the same time as I do.

"The marriage stamp was placed on my present passport, after some trouble with the authorities, so my status as far as the USSR is concerned, is the same as before, that is "without citizenship."

"So with this extra complication I suggest you do some checking up before advising me further.

"I believe I have spoken frankly in this letter. I hope you do the same in your next letter.

"Sincerely yours,

Further study has been given to the case of Mr. Oswald in the light of the Embassy's Despatch No. 806 of May 26, 1961.

Mr. Oswald's mother has been informed to the effect that her son has not yet visited the Embassy and that he has informed the Embassy that he has married a Russian woman.

The Department concurs with the Embassy in its proposed reply to Mr. Oswald, as indicated in the second paragraph of Despatch No. 806.

It is noted that while Mr. Oswald is in possession of a Soviet internal passport he apparently is designated therein as "without citizenship." It is not entirely clear what this designation is intended to infer, i.e. whether he is without Soviet citizenship or without any citizenship. In any event in the absence of evidence showing that Mr. Oswald has definitely lost United States citizenship he apparently maintains that technical status. Whether he is entitled to the protection of the United States pending any further developments concerning his precise status is a matter which will be left to the Embassy's discretion in the event an emergency situation should arise. In a situation of this kind, not of an emergency nature, the facts should be submitted to the Department.

It is noted that the Embassy intends to seek the Department's prior advice before granting Mr. Oswald documentation as a United States citizen upon any application he may submit.

The Embassy's careful attention to the involved case of Mr. Oswald is appreciated. It is assumed that there is no doubt that the person who has been in communication with the Embassy is the person who was issued a passport in the name of Lee Harvey Oswald.

TO: Embassy MOSCOW Date: AUG 18 1961

FROM: The Department of State EW

REF: Embassy's Despatch No. 29, July 11, 1961 and passport renewal application, July 10, 1961, with questionnaire.

We concur in the conclusion of the Embassy that there is available no information and/or evidence to show that Mr. Oswald has expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States. EW

The renewal of Mr. Oswald's passport, issued on September 10, 1959 is authorized upon his referenced application, if no adverse reason is known, to take place upon his presentation of evidence that he needs such renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States, as indicated in the final sentence on page 2 of Despatch No. 29. As requested in the final paragraph of the despatch, the Embassy may perform this citizenship function for Mr. Oswald at its discretion.

Any passport renewal granted to Mr. Oswald should be limited to his passport needs and, as stated in the second paragraph of the Department's A-173, April 13, 1961 his passport should be made valid for direct return to the United States. The additional precaution set forth in the same paragraph should be observed and his passport should be delivered to him on a personal basis only. When available, a report of his travel data should be submitted, as well as a report of any intervening developments.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy received on March 20, 1961 the following letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk March 5 and Moscow March 17:

"Dear Sirs:

I reply to your recent letter. I find it inconvenient to come to Moscow for the sole purpose of an interview.

In my last letter I believe I stated that I cannot leave the city of Minsk without permission.

I believe there exist in the United States also a law in regards to resident foreigners from Socialist countries, travelling between cities.

I do not think it would be appropriate for me to request to leave Minsk in order to visit the American Embassy. In any event, the granting of permission is a long drawn out affair, and I find that there is a hesitation on the part of local officials to even start the process.

I have no intention of abusing my position here, and I am sure you would not want me to.

I see no reasons for any preliminary inquiries not to be put in the form of a questionnaire and sent to me.

I understand that personal interviews undoubtedly make to work of the Embassy staff lighter, than written correspondence, however in some cases other means must be employed.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lee E. Oswald"

We have written to Oswald advising him that it is the position of the Soviet Government that they interpose no objection or obstacle to visits to the Embassy by American citizens in the Soviet Union and suggesting that he use the Embassy's letter in applying to the authorities in Minsk for permission to travel to Moscow. Oswald was informed that in order for the Embassy to make a determination of his American citizenship status, a personal interview would be required at which pertinent statements could be taken from him under oath before a consular officer.

OFFICIAL USE ONLY

MEMORANDUM

Nov. 27, 1963

To: L Mr. Thomas Ehrlich
From: FSO John A. McVickar
Subject: Lee Harvey OSWALD

You asked me to submit a written memorandum regarding anything I know personally about Oswald and his dealings with the American Embassy in Moscow in 1959, 1960 and 1961.

First I should note that, while I was one of two officers in the consular section of the Embassy during this period, I did not myself handle the case and my contact with it was therefore peripheral. Moreover, to the extent that anything I have to say here conflicts with the record as reported by the Embassy at the time, the latter should be taken as nearer fact.

In addition to myself I know of the following other persons who were in contact with Oswald in Moscow:

- 1.) Consul Richard E. Snyder, who handled the matter during 1959-61 and who is I believe now in Japan.
- 2.) Consul Joseph Norbury who handled the case after 1961 for the Embassy and who is now assigned to the Foreign Service Institute of the Department.
- 3.) Mrs. Verna Deane (Stanley) Brown, who acted as the confidential secretary for the consular section during most of this period and who is now an employee of the Department of Agriculture.
- 4.) Miss Priscilla Johnson, who was at the time a correspondent for the North American Newspaper Alliance in the Soviet Union. She had a long interview with Oswald in his hotel in an effort to get his story and to persuade him to return to the United States.
- 5.) Mr. Bud Korngold, UPI correspondent, who is I believe still in the Soviet Union.

In my memory the following is a general description of the case: Oswald came into the Embassy immediately after his arrival from the Soviet Union from the United States. He turned in his passport and said that he wanted to renounce his American citizenship and remain in the Soviet Union. His passport was retained, but his renunciation was not accepted. He remained a few days in Moscow staying at the Metropole Hotel and was in contact with the Soviet authorities and with at least the two American correspondents named above (4) & (5). He then disappeared and was next heard from some weeks later from Minsk where he said he was working in an electronics plant. He eventually wrote again and said that he had married a Soviet girl and wished to return to the United States. He still later came to the Embassy for an interview in this connection in July, 1961. Many months later the Soviet Government finally gave him and his wife permission to depart and the Embassy was authorized by the Department to renew his American passport and to give his wife an immigration visa, whereupon they departed for the United States. I believe that this was in the spring of 1962, but I am not sure of this since I myself departed from Moscow in September, 1961.

My personal contact with the matter was actually only at the time that Oswald first came to the Embassy in the October, 1959. At this time I shared the same office with Mr. Snyder and was present in the room during his interview with Oswald. As I recall the interview may have lasted an hour or so. Oswald was extremely arrogant, truculent and unfriendly to America and Americans in general. He wanted to divest himself of his citizenship forthwith. His reasons were not too clear, but he gave the impression of being very angry about something or things which had happened to him during his childhood or during his duty in the Marine Corps. He said, however, that he was a "Marxist" and that he had become disgusted with American "imperialism" as he had observed it in operation in the Far East while in the Marines. He gave evidence of some education in the rudiments of Communist dogma and he apparently had some knowledge of the legalities involved in the renunciation of citizenship. He also did state that while in the Marines he had worked with radar and that he would turn over everything he knew about it to the Soviet military authorities. In the minds of those concerned at the time, this statement tended to extinguish any sympathy one may have felt for a confused and unhappy young man. Mr. Snyder did not accept his renunciation of citizenship on this occasion because it is not prescribed procedure to permit these things to be done hastily. Moreover, there had been a case immediately previous in which a man had renounced his citizenship and then wanted it back a week later. (This case involved one Petrucci, who as it turned out had a medical record of mental ailment). I recall having a few words with Oswald at the time, but I don't remember what was said. After Oswald left the Embassy on this occasion I had no direct personal contact with the matter, but followed it in conversations with my colleague, Mr. Snyder, and with the above named correspondents. As to fact, I have nothing further to add except what appears in the records or what may be better obtained from other parties involved.

Based on my impressions of Oswald, as I recall them, and on my general experience in consular work in the Soviet Union, I have these comments:

I recall thinking at the time that Oswald was behaving with a great deal of determination and purpose for such a young and relatively uneducated person. He was certainly very independent and fearless in a rather blind way and it seemed to me that he could have acquired all these ideas himself and could have planned his prompt trip to the USSR after release from the Marines and his attempted renunciation of citizenship. On the other hand, there also seemed to me to be the possibility that he was following a pattern of behaviour which he had been tutored by person or persons unknown. For example, in discussing Marxism and the levallities of renunciation he seemed to be using words which he had learned but did not fully understand. His determined statements in rather long words were not entirely consistent and not in a fully logical sequence. I am sorry that I do not remember examples but only this impression. Of course, this could have been because he had merely studied books himself without understanding what they meant, as but it seemed that it could also have been that he had been taught to say things which he did not really understand. In short, it seemed to me that there was a possibility that he had been in contact with others before or during his Marine Corps tour who had guided him in his actions and encouraged him in his actions.

In regard to his sanity, of course, not being an expert in this field one cannot say much. However, it did seem to me that his unqualified distaste for America and Americans was irrational in that it exceeded anything that could possibly have been justified. And this was my impression at the time and is not a ~~rust~~ projection of present feelings into the past. Furthermore the reasoning which he gave for this feeling was by no means clear and his thinking seemed quite muddled. I am not sure what a "persecution complex" is in the technical sense, but he seemed as though he might have one.

In conclusion, I may add that to the best of my memory I recognized the photographs which I have seen of Oswald in the newspapers as the same man who came into the Embassy under that name in October, 1959.

NOTE FOR OSWALD FILE

Nov. 9, 1959

I took a typed copy of the message from Pic down to the Metropole Hotel today to deliver to Oswald. I went directly to the room (233) and knocked several times, but no one answered. The cleaning lady told me that he was in the room and only came out to go to the toilet. She suggested that I ask the dejourney in charge of the floor. The latter told me that he was not in his room. I decided not to leave the message, but to have it sent by registered mail. On the way out I phoned from downstairs, but no answer.

QUESTION 1

On a copy of a list of applicants for passports which was sent by telegram from the New Orleans Passport Office to the Passport Office in Washington, D. C., on June 24, 1963, opposite the name of Lee Harvey Oswald there appears the word, "NO." We would appreciate an explanation of the origin of this notation, its significance, if any, and the identity of the person who wrote it.

ANSWER - The notation "NO" was placed on the incoming teletype message from the New Orleans Passport Agency by one of the employees in the TWX Section of the Passport Office in Washington, D. C.

The "NO" signifies that this message originated in the New Orleans Passport Agency. All clearance lists from the Passport Agencies are similarly marked with the agency's designator symbol for indexing to insure correct filing of the message. The symbols are: NO - New Orleans, BN - Boston, CG - Chicago, HH - Honolulu, LA - Los Angeles, MM - Miami, SF - San Francisco, NY - New York, SE - Seattle.

This symbol is routinely placed on the incoming teletype message by any one of the group of employees in the TWX Section. Its placement on the message opposite to the name of Lee Harvey Oswald is purely coincidental. The Department cannot determine which employee in the TWX Section wrote it.

A copy of a document dated June 20, 1962, attached hereto and marked "Exhibit A," refers to an "Operations Memorandum of June 12, 1962" which is said to be for inclusion in the passport file of Lee Harvey Oswald. Will you please describe this document and, if copies are still available, furnish us with a copy. If copies are not currently available, we would appreciate an explanation.

ANSWER - The Operations Memorandum of June 12, 1962 is in the passport file of Lee Harvey Oswald. A copy of this document was included in the photostatic copy of the Department's files which was sent to the Commission. We are, however, enclosing another copy.

The files we have been furnished indicate that on February 1, 1961, as the result of a call by Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, the Department of State in Washington sent a request to the American Embassy in Moscow that it inform the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs that Lee Harvey Oswald's mother was worried as to his personal safety and anxious to hear from him. Was this message encoded before being sent from Washington to the American Embassy in Moscow, or sent in some other manner designed to keep its contents hidden from Soviet authorities? Were the contents of the message ever communicated to the Soviet authorities? If they were, when was the communication made and to whom?

ANSWER - This message was sent by an instruction in a diplomatic pouch from the Department to the American Embassy in Moscow on February 1, 1961 (copy attached). It was not encoded, but since it was sent in a pouch, its contents could not have been seen by Soviet authorities before being received by the Embassy.

The Embassy responded by despatch on February 28, 1961. A copy of this response, which has been previously furnished to the Commission, is enclosed. As the response indicates, the Embassy received a letter from Oswald on February 13, 1961, and it was therefore unnecessary to request information from the Soviet authorities concerning his whereabouts.

The Embassy received on February 13, 1961 the following undated letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk February 5 and Moscow February 11:

"Dear Sirs:

Since I have not received a reply to my letter of December 1960, I am writing again asking that you consider my request for the return of my American passport.

I desire to return to the United States, that is if we could come to some agreement concerning the dropping of any legal proceedings against me. If so, then I would be free to ask the Russian authorities to allow me to leave. If I could show them my American passport, I am of the opinion they would give me an exit visa.

They have at no time insisted that I take Russian citizenship. I am living here with non-permanent type papers for a foreigner.

I cannot leave Minsk without permission, therefore I am writing rather than calling in person.

I hope that in recalling the responsibility I have to America that you remember yours in doing everything you can to help me since I am an American citizen.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lee Harvey Oswald"

Oswald's present address as given on the envelope and in his letter is: Ulitsa Kalinina, House 4, Apartment 24, Minsk. The Department may wish to transmit this address to Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. It would presumably fulfill the requirement in paragraph three of the Department's referenced Airgram.

The Embassy is writing to Oswald and suggesting that he come personally to the Embassy for an interview on which to base a decision concerning the status of his American citizenship. Oswald's reference in his letter to his being unable to leave Minsk without permission may indicate that he desires to come to the Embassy, in which case an invitation from the Embassy may facilitate his traveling to Moscow. The Embassy would as a last resort if the Department found no objection and provided the Embassy were reasonably sure that Oswald had not committed an expatriating action, return his American passport to him by mail for what help this may be in facilitating his application for a Soviet exit visa.

The Embassy would like to be informed whether Oswald is subject to prosecution on any grounds should he enter the jurisdiction of the United States and, if so, whether there is any objection in communicating this to him.

Reference is made to the document attached hereto marked "Exhibit B." Is this the "look-out card" which was once in the file for Lee Harvey Oswald? If it is not, please describe what it is.

ANSWER - Exhibit B is not a "lookout card." Exhibit B is a copy of a so-called "REFUSAL" sheet (Form DS-833). A lookout card is a small IBM card kept in a special file maintained in the Passport Office. The lookout card system is described in detail in pages 3 and 4 of part 2 of the Department's Report on Lee Harvey Oswald.

A form DS-833 is prepared for insertion in the passport file when information is received which may affect the issuance of a passport. It is used primarily as a "flag" and does not necessarily mean the person concerned should be denied passport facilities. It does indicate, however, that a lookout card for the named individual should have been prepared.

QUESTION 5

The attached document dated October 11, 1963 and labeled "Exhibit C" was apparently at one time accompanied by another one-page document containing "SECRET" information. Will you please furnish us a copy of this other document?

ANSWER - This document was at one time accompanied by a one-page message from the CIA. It is the same message that is referred to by the Commission in question No. 16 and copies have been previously furnished to the Commission. As Exhibit C indicates, the copy in Oswald's passport file was accidentally destroyed on November 23, 1963, while it was being thermofaxed. We are enclosing another copy of this message.

QUESTION 6

On July 10, 1961 while he was at the American Embassy in Moscow, Lee Harvey Oswald signed an Application for Renewal of Passport which contained a printed statement whereby, by crossing out either the word "have" or the words "have not", the applicant could indicate whether he had committed one or more of the disloyal or possibly expatriating acts listed. The printed statement also provided that if the applicant indicates that he committed one or more of these acts, a supplementary statement under oath explaining the circumstances is to be attached to the application. By crossing out the appropriate words, Lee Harvey Oswald stated under oath that he had committed one or more of the disloyal or possibly expatriating acts listed on the application.

Despite the foregoing, Oswald's existing passport was returned to him on July 10, 1961 and it was renewed for thirty (30) days on May 24, 1962. It is not clear from the Department's files whether any supplementary statement under oath setting forth the circumstances of Oswald's actions was attached to the Application for Renewal of Passport. Would you please explain this entire situation?

ANSWER - The file shows that Oswald executed on July 10, 1961, a supplemental statement (Questionnaire) which, along with the Renewal Application of July 10, 1961, was forwarded to the Department in Moscow despatch 29, July 11, 1961. The information furnished by Oswald in this Questionnaire does not contain any evidence that he, in fact, performed any act of expatriation. The file also shows (see Moscow despatch 29, July 11, 1961) that Oswald was questioned at length by an Embassy Consular Officer but no evidence was revealed of an expatriating act. This despatch also shows that Oswald's passport was returned to him for the purpose of allowing him to make an application for an exit visa for his wife immediately upon his return to Minsk. This passport was valid only until September 10, 1961.

On August 18, 1961, the Department sent an Operations Memorandum to the American Embassy at Moscow authorizing the renewal of Oswald's passport "if no adverse reason is known, to take place upon his presentation of evidence that he needs such renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States as indicated in the final sentence on page 2 of despatch 29."

The Embassy was further instructed that "Any renewal granted to Mr. Oswald should be limited to his passport needs and as stated in the second paragraph of the Department's A-173 of April 13, 1961, his passport should be made valid for direct return to the United States."

In the renewal application of May 24, 1962, Mr. Oswald signed a statement that he had not performed any of the acts of expatriation listed in the form. Consequently no supplemental statement or questionnaire was prepared at this time.

QUESTION 7

We would appreciate any further thoughts you may have as to the legal authority for the exercise of discretion by the United States Department of State and the United States Department of Justice, and the propriety of its exercise, in waiving the sanctions of Section 243(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act in issuing a visa to Mrs. Marina Oswald and admitting her into the United States in 1962.

ANSWER - Section 4 of the Department's Report on Lee Harvey Oswald concerned the issuance of a visa to Mrs. Oswald. Part 2 of that section, beginning on page 3 and running through page 10, sets forth our views on the issues involving Section 243(g).

This discussion may not have made it clear, however, that Section 243(g) vests exclusive authority in the Attorney General to impose the statutory sanction on any country, which, when requested, denies or unduly delays the acceptance of a deportable alien who is a national, citizen, subject or resident of that country. The Attorney General's decision to impose the sanction is discretionary to a degree since it is based on his judgment of what constitutes undue delay or a denial to accept a particular alien. There is no discretion, however, in the role performed by the Secretary of State. Upon receipt of notice from the Attorney General that the Section 243(g) sanction has been imposed on a particular country, the Secretary of State must take prompt action to suspend issuance of all immigrant visas in that country. He does this by an instruction to all consular officers performing their duties in the proscribed country. There is no uncertainty as to the authority to impose and terminate the sanction; it is vested solely in the Attorney General.

Just as the Department of State cannot impose the Section 243(g) sanction with respect to any country, the Department has no authority to waive the sanction in individual cases. The Immigration and Naturalization Service is satisfied, however, that the Attorney General has this authority and the Department of State has recommended its exercise in a number of cases, including that of Mrs. Oswald. The basis for the recommendation concerning Mrs. Oswald is set forth in full in the Department's Report on Lee Harvey Oswald.

A detailed description of the procedures in effect for exercising this discretion in your Department at the time it was exercised in the case of Mrs. Oswald would be helpful to the Commission. We are interested in the identity and function of each office or individual involved in these procedures and the names of the persons occupying the relevant positions or offices at the time the decision was made to grant a visa to Mrs. Oswald or to admit her into the United States.

ANSWER - The procedures in effect in 1962 when Mrs. Oswald was granted a waiver of the Section 243(g) sanction were prescribed by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. They are summarized in the State Department's visa instructions for the guidance of consular officers, Note 2 to 22 CFR 42.120, Vol. 9, Foreign Affairs Manual, a copy of which is enclosed. The Immigration and Naturalization Service's procedures are set forth in the Services's operations instructions, a copy of which is also enclosed.

The following is a chronology of the administrative actions which resulted in a waiver of the Section 243(g) sanctions for Mrs. Oswald:

(1) OMV-25 of August 28, 1961, from Embassy Moscow recommending a waiver of the Section 243(g) sanction. Drafter, J. A. McVickar, Foreign Affairs Officer.

(2) Letter of February 28, 1962, from the Service's District Director, J. W. Holland, at San Antonio, to Charles G. Sommer, Assistant Director of the Visa Office, attaching approved petition for forwarding to Moscow, and advising that a waiver of the Section 243(g) sanction was not authorized.

(3) OMV-61 of March 9, 1962, from Department to Embassy transmitting approved petition and informing Embassy that waiver of sanction not granted. This memorandum reminded the Embassy that Mrs. Oswald might proceed to some other country to file her visa application and thus avoid the sanction. Drafted by J. E. Crump, Consular Affairs Officer in the Visa Office, with copy to Miss Virginia James, International Relations Officer in the Office of Soviet Affairs.

(4) Memorandum of March 16, 1962, from the Office of Soviet Affairs -- Robert I. Owen, Officer in Charge of Bilateral Political Relations -- to John E. Crump, Consular Affairs Officer in the Visa Office (drafted by Miss James), recommending that the Immigration Service be asked to reconsider on an urgent basis its decision regarding the 243(g) waiver for Mrs. Oswald.

(5) Memorandum of March 23, 1962, from Robert F. Hale, Director of the Visa Office, to Michel Cieplinski, Acting Administrator of the Office of Security and Consular Affairs (drafted by Mr. Crump), transmitting proposed letter for Mr. Cieplinski's signature to Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization regarding waiver of Section 243(g) sanction.

(6) Memorandum of March 23, 1962, from Office of Soviet Affairs (Mr. Robert Owen) to Office of Security and Consular Affairs (Mr. Cieplinski) (drafted by Miss James), stating that SOV had cleared attached letter to Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. Memorandum contained a quote from Embassy's despatch No. 29 of July 11, 1961, regarding Oswald's activities in the Soviet Union.

(7) Letter of March 27, 1962, from Mr. Cieplinski to Mr. Farrell, Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, requesting that Section 243(g) sanction be waived in Mrs. Oswald's case, and stating his belief (Cieplinski) that it is in best interest of United States to have Mr. Oswald depart from the Soviet Union as soon as possible. (Letter drafted by Mr. Crump.)

(8) Telegram of May 4, 1962, from Embassy requesting an early decision on reconsideration of 243(g) waiver for Marina Oswald.

(9) Letter of May 9, 1962, from Robert H. Robinson, Deputy Assistant Commissioner of INS, to Mr. Cieplinski which concludes: "In view of strong representations made in your letter of March 27, 1962, you are hereby advised that sanctions imposed pursuant to Section 243(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act are hereby waived in behalf of Mrs. Oswald."

(10) Priority communication of May 8, 1962, drafted by Mr. Crump, informing Embassy that Section 243(g) sanction had been waived by Immigration Service for Marina Oswald.

PROCEDURAL NOTES

1. Reports on status of negotiations in deportation cases.

2. Waivers of sanctions imposed under section 243(g) of the Act.

2.1 Sanctions under section 243(g) of the Act are currently in effect against persons residing in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The sanctions will be waived only in individual meritorious cases in behalf of a beneficiary of a petition filed by a reputable relative pursuant to section 101(a)(27)(A), or paragraphs (2), (3), or (4) of section 203(a) of the Act. The waiver may also be granted for an alien residing in Hungary on whose behalf a petition has been approved under section 203(a)(1) of the Act. The endorsement "Beneficiary (ies) granted waiver(s) of sanctions imposed under section 243(g) of the Act" will be inserted on approved petitions and forwarded to the respective consular posts. The grant of a waiver of sanctions to the beneficiary of an approved petition automatically includes the spouse and children of the beneficiary.

2.2 In cases where a petition was previously approved by the Service without a waiver, the consular officer should forward a request for a waiver, in duplicate, direct to the approving district office. Such request will be processed by the Service, the decision endorsed thereon, and a copy returned directly to the consular post. If in any case there is special urgency in obtaining a 243(g) waiver because of the date of expiration of the individual's exit permit, the request for waiver should clearly state the date of expiration of the exit permit and indicate the name of the petitioner in the United States who should be asked to defray the cost of telegraphic notification if that appears to be necessary.

(c) Blood tests. Except for persons residing in the USSR for whom blood tests are not available, in all other visa petition cases in which the basis for the requested classification is a claimed blood relationship, and primary or secondary evidence in support of a claimed relationship is not available, blood tests shall be required only when the results thereof would be helpful in resolving the relationship issue. (Revised)

Any expense incurred shall be borne by the petitioner. Arrangements may be made for blood tests to be conducted by the United States Public Health Service. If such arrangements cannot be made or are not satisfactory, blood tests may be conducted by doctors considered qualified in that field. Every precaution shall be taken to insure that there shall be no substitution of blood examinees. Arrangements shall be made to request the examination on a form request, bearing the photograph and personal data of the examinee. The form shall be sent directly to the selected medical examiner who should be requested to satisfy himself that the person examined is the person to whom the photograph and personal data relate. The examining physician shall be requested to complete the form and return it directly to the requesting Service office so that the examinee will have no opportunity to arrange for a substitution of compatible blood or to tamper with the report.

If a petitioner refuses to submit to a blood test and has submitted no documentary proof of blood relationship, the petition shall be denied on the ground that the petitioner has failed to establish identity.

When there is no evidence that the claimed relationship does not exist and the petitioner or beneficiary or both are abroad, the petition may be approved on the condition that satisfactory blood test reports are received by the American consul. A conditionally approved visa petition shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons abroad for whom satisfactory blood tests will be required and shall be accompanied by the reports of any blood tests made in the United States.

205.3 OPERATIONS INSTRUCTIONS

205.3 Waiver of sanctions imposed pursuant to section 243(g). Before adjudicating a petition for an eligible beneficiary residing in the USSR, Czechoslovakia or Hungary, against which sanctions have been imposed, the district director shall obtain a report of investigation regarding the petitioner which shall include any affiliations of a subversive nature disclosed by neighborhood investigation, local agency records and responses to Form G-175a. The sanctions imposed against the USSR do not apply to an eligible beneficiary residing in Estonia, Latvia, or Lithuania who is not a national, citizen, subject, or resident of the USSR. If no substantial derogatory security information is developed, the district director may waive the sanctions in an individual meritorious case for a beneficiary of a petition filed by a reputable relative to accord status under section 101(a)(27)(A) or section 203(a)(2), (3), or (4). The waiver may also be granted for a section 203(a)(1) beneficiary residing in Hungary. When the sanctions are waived, the beneficiary's file and the approved petition shall be endorsed "beneficiary granted waiver of sanctions imposed under Section 243(g) of the Act," and the petition forwarded. If substantial adverse security information relating to the petitioner is developed, the visa petition shall be processed on its merits and certified to the Assistant Commissioner, Examinations, for determination whether the sanctions should be waived. The Assistant Commissioner shall endorse the petition to show whether the waiver is granted or denied, forward it, and notify the appropriate field office of the action taken.

When the issuance of an immigrant visa becomes imminent in connection with a petition previously approved by the Service without waiver, the consular will forward a request for waiver of the sanctions direct to the approving district office. Such request will be processed in the foregoing manner.

The waiver may also be granted for a section 203(a)(1) beneficiary residing in Hungary. When the sanctions are waived, the beneficiary's file and the approved petition shall be endorsed "beneficiary granted waiver of sanctions imposed under Section 243(g) of the Act," and the petition forwarded. If substantial adverse security information relating to the petitioner is developed, the visa petition shall be processed on its merits and certified to the Assistant Commissioner, Examinations, for determination whether the sanctions should be waived. The Assistant Commissioner shall endorse the petition to show whether the waiver is granted or denied, forward it, and notify the appropriate field office of the action taken.

If any material changes in the foregoing procedures have been put into effect by the Department since August 1959, we would like to be so informed.

ANSWER - No material changes in the foregoing procedures have been put into effect by the Department since August 1959.

ATTACHMENT B

QUESTION 10

We would like the same information requested in questions 7 through 9 in connection with the determination that Mrs. Marina Oswald was entitled to a visa and admission into the United States under the provisions of Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

(A) We would appreciate any further thoughts you may have as to the legal authority for the exercise of discretion by the United States Department of State and the United States Department of Justice, and the propriety of its exercise, in waiving the sanctions of Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act in issuing a visa to Mrs. Marina Oswald and admitting her into the United States in 1962.

ANSWER - Our views on this question were set forth in part 4 of the Department Report, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Issuance of Visa to Wife, Mrs. Marina Nicholaevna Oswald" (pp. 1-3). Some further elaboration may, however, be helpful.

Mrs. Oswald was issued a visa after it was determined that her membership in the Soviet Trade Union for Medical Workers was involuntary and, therefore, fell within the exception of Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i). Once it was found that her membership was involuntary, the ineligibility disappeared by operation of the statute. Therefore, the issuance of a visa would not be considered to have involved a waiver requiring an exercise of discretion.

In an operations memorandum dated August 28, 1961, the American Embassy in Moscow reported the following information concerning Mrs. Oswald: "In connection with her employment and her professional training, she has been a member of the Soviet Trade Union for Medical Workers since 1957. Such membership is routinely considered to be involuntary under Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Act."

In this operations memorandum the Embassy recommended a favorable advisory opinion by the Department and approval of Mrs. Oswald's petition. The Embassy considered, therefore, that Mrs. Oswald's membership in the Soviet Trade Union for Medical Workers was necessary to obtain her education at the Pharmaceutical Technical Institute in Leningrad and also to obtain her employment at the Klinincheskaya Hospital in Minsk. Membership in a proscribed organization is considered involuntary if it was necessary to obtain employment, food rations, or other essentials of living. (Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Act) The Embassy's finding of involuntary membership was concurred in by the Department; it was consistent with instructions issued to consular officers for their guidance in resolving such questions. (Note 3.3 to 22 CFR 42.91(a)(28), Confidential Appendix A, Vol. 9, FAM)

(B) A detailed description of the procedures in effect for making this determination in the Department at the time it was made would be helpful to the Commission. We are interested in the identity and function of each office or individual involved in the determination of these procedures and the names of the persons occupying the relevant positions or offices at the time the decision was made.

ANSWER - Upon receipt of the Embassy's operations memorandum dated August 28, 1961, which was drafted by J. A. McVickar, a Foreign Affairs Officer, the Visa Office processed the case in accordance with established procedures. It was referred first to the then Security and Accreditations Branch which had responsibility for conducting agency name checks and for processing requests for security advisory opinions. Miss Violet Smith, Deputy Chief of the Branch, was the action officer. A name check was initiated on September 12, 1961, with other agencies, namely, the Central Intelligence Agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Biographic Register (BR), and the Department's Office of Security. In addition, a check with the files of the Passport Office was made. This procedure is required in the cases of visa applicants who hold passports issued by Communist-controlled countries. Results of the name check were as follows:

CIA - On September 27, 1961, advised that there was no pertinent identifiable information.

FBI - On September 27, 1961, referred to reports concerning the alien's husband, already furnished to the Department (on file with the Office of Security).

O/SY - On September 13, 1961, furnished the Visa Office its file (No. 31-61981) concerning the alien's husband.

BR - On September 18, 1961, reported "no record."

PPT - Advised that the alien's husband had not expatriated himself.

The Department advised the Embassy at Moscow by telegram (wirom No. 950, October 3, 1961) that available information concerning the applicant established her eligibility for the relief provided by Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i). Wirom 950 of October 3, 1961, was drafted by Miss Violet Smith, cleared by Miss Virginia James, and signed by Miss Smith in the name of Frank L. Auerbach, Chief of the Field Advisory Services Division of the Visa Office.

(C) If any material changes in the foregoing procedures have been put into effect by the Department since the determination was made, we would like to be so informed.

ANSWER - No material changes in the procedures described in the answer to question No. 10(B) have been put into effect.

Similarly, we are interested in the same information as requested in questions 7 through 9 in connection with the determination that Lee Harvey Oswald had not expatriated himself so as to be disqualified for reentry into the United States as an American citizen in 1962.

(A) Any views you may have on the legal basis for the determination that Lee Harvey Oswald had not expatriated himself so as to be disqualified for reentry into the United States as an American citizen in 1962.

ANSWER - Our views on this question were set forth in part 3 of the Department's Report, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Expatriation." As stated in that analysis, there was no evidence then, nor is there any evidence now, that Oswald had performed any act which under our statutes resulted in expatriation, so as to be disqualified for reentry into the United States as an American citizen in 1962.

(B) A detailed description of the procedures in effect for making this determination in the Department at the time it was made. We are interested in the identity and function of each office or individual involved in these procedures and the names of the persons occupying the relevant positions or offices at the time the decision was made that Lee Harvey Oswald had not expatriated himself.

ANSWER - Under Section 104(a)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, the Secretary of State is charged with the responsibility of determining the nationality of persons "not in the United States." Under the regulations of the Department of State as embodied in Section 773.6(b) of Volume 3 of the Foreign Affairs Manual, this authority is performed by the Foreign Operations Division of the Passport Office.

Operating under this authority, the case was reviewed in the Eastern Europe, South Asia and Far East Branch of the Foreign Division, Passport Office, by Miss Bernice Waterman, a GS-12 adjudicator of many years experience in nationality matters. Miss Waterman, who has since retired, began her employment with the Passport Office in 1926. She drafted the Operations Memorandum of August 18, 1961, in which it was stated "there is available no information and/or evidence to show that Mr. Oswald has expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States."

The file was subsequently reviewed and the communication was approved and cleared by the following persons as shown by their initials on the blue file copy of the communication:

- "HFR" - Mr. Henry F. Kupiec - GS-13 Attorney-Advisor, Chief of the Branch and Miss Waterman's immediate supervisor. He has been employed by the Passport Office since 1946.
- "RCB" - Mrs. Rosalyn C. Bielaski - GS-11 Correspondence Review Adjudicator who has been employed by the Passport Office since 1943.
- "CHS" - Mr. Carroll H. Seeley - GS-13 Attorney-Advisor. In 1961 Mr. Seeley was Chief of the Security Branch of the Legal Division. Mr. Seeley is now a GS-14 Attorney-Advisor and Assistant Chief of the Legal Division.

The file was finally reviewed and the communication signed by Mr. John T. White (now retired), GS-15 Attorney-Advisor, Chief of the Foreign Operations Division.

The procedure followed in this case is the usual procedure in cases involving nationality and security.

(C) If any material changes in the foregoing procedures have been put into effect by the Department since the determination was made, we would like to be so informed.

ANSWER - No material changes in the procedures described in the answer to question No. 11(B) have been put into effect.

If possible, the Commission would appreciate a fuller description of the procedures in effect in the Department of State for preparing, modifying, placing and withdrawing a "look-out" card in the passport file, and a description of the security procedures used to prevent access to this file by persons who might make unauthorized changes in it, from the time when Lee Harvey Oswald was first issued a passport in 1959 up to the date of this letter. If any material changes in such procedures have been effected during that time, we would like to be so informed. We would like to know the names of all persons who were authorized to modify or remove a look-out card of the kind or kinds which might reasonably have been prepared for Lee Harvey Oswald or to prepare or prevent its preparation in the first instance, and a statement of the grounds upon which they were authorized to modify or remove such a card or to prepare or prevent its preparation. We are interested in the names of all persons, if they can be identified, who did in fact prepare, modify or remove any look-out card for Lee Harvey Oswald which did exist at any time, or failed to comply with standard procedures requiring the preparation of such a card.

(A) Description of the procedures in effect in the Passport Office for preparing, modifying, placing or withdrawing lookout cards.

ANSWER - Attached is a copy of Passport Office Instruction 2300.3, dated February 20, 1964 (TAB A), which sets forth the present procedures for the operation and maintenance of the Passport Office Lookout File. These procedures resulted from the experience gained in 1961-62 when the Lookout File was converted from a "3 x 5" typed card operation to the present printed and punched IBM card operation.

Prior to the promulgation of Instruction 2300.3, most actions to prepare or to remove a lookout card were initiated by adjudicator/officers in the Passport Office, based upon information from the passport folder, a passport application and/or correspondence. Until 1961 the adjudicator prepared a "Refusal" sheet (Form DS-833) and forwarded it to the Clearance Section for preparation of the card and filing it in the Lookout File or for removal of the card from the Lookout File. In 1961, during the period of conversion, some adjudicators/officers began making both "Refusal" sheets and lookout cards. Since February 1964 all adjudicators/officers make both "Refusal" sheets and lookout cards.

In addition lookout cards were prepared, and continue to be prepared, in the Clearance Section, upon information or request from the Finance Office of the Department of State, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, court orders, and requests by other agencies.

(B) Description of the security procedures used to prevent access to the Lookout File by persons who might make unauthorized changes from the time Lee Harvey Oswald was first issued a passport in 1959 to the date of this letter.

ANSWER - Attached is a copy of Passport Office General Management Instruction No. 1714.1 dated August 7, 1961 (TAB B), which sets forth the policies and procedures governing access to the main files and records of the Passport Office.

Set forth below is a short chronology giving the location of the Passport Office during the period in question and the procedures in effect to safeguard its records.

The Passport Office was physically located in the Matomic Building, 1717 H Street, N.W., from September 1955 to August 1960. While in the Matomic Building the entire Passport Office space was protected after hours by an anti-intrusion system. The building was also under 24-hour guard control.

The move from the Matomic Building to the State Department Building was made on Saturday and Sunday, August 20-21, 1960, under security guard protection and in accordance with procedures approved by the Department's Office of Security.

Since its installation in the State Department Building, the Lookout File has been located in a room to which access is limited during working hours. After working hours the room is secured by a combination lock and is guarded by the ADT Protection Service (American District Telegraph Company) and by the Department's guard force.

The security systems evolved for the protection of this space in both buildings were examined and approved by the Department's Office of Security.

(C) List any material changes in such procedures which have been effected during that time.

ANSWER - Concerning changes in physical security procedures, see answer immediately above, which covers changes made during this period, as the result of physical moves by the Passport Office.

Concerning substantive changes, lookout cards are now kept for an additional category of persons. In January 1964, the Department of State made arrangements with the Department of Defense to receive from that Department, on a continuing basis, identifying information, particularly names and dates of birth, of actual and potential defectors in the military service, including those who may have redefected, to Communist countries or Communist-dominated areas. On the basis of the information supplied by the Department of Defense, the Passport Office was instructed on March 14, 1964, that lookout cards should be kept for this category of persons. A copy of the letter to the Department of Defense requesting this information and copies of the instructions putting this procedure into effect are attached (TAB C).

(D) Names of all persons who were authorized to modify or remove a lookout card of the kind or kinds which might reasonably have been prepared for Lee Harvey Oswald, or to prepare or prevent its preparation in the first instance and a statement of the grounds upon which they were authorized to prepare or prevent its preparation.

ANSWER - In expatriation cases, lookout cards would be prepared (on evidence that the individual had renounced or intended to renounce his citizenship), modified or removed after a "refusal" sheet is made. Such "refusal" sheets for loss of nationality cases from the U.S.S.R. area would be authorized by the Chief of the Foreign

Operations Division, the Branch Chief (and Assistant, if any) for the Eastern Europe, Southern Asia and Far Eastern Branch, or the adjudicator assigned to the case. The following is a list of the people who filled these positions:

- Bernice L. Waterman - Adjudicator for Oswald case throughout. Branch Chief January 1, 1959 to August 20, 1960; Assistant Branch Chief August 21, 1960 to February 28, 1962. Retired.
- Henry F. Kupiec - Branch Chief March 23, 1961 to present.
- John T. White - Chief of Foreign Operations Division.

After a "refusal" sheet is prepared, Miss Nanny W. Berry (or a replacement) of the Clearance Section prepares or modifies the lookout card. After a lookout card is prepared or modified, it would be placed in the file by a clearance clerk in the Clearance Section. After its removal is authorized by the originating office, it would be removed by either the Supervisor of the Clearance Section (A. W. Maxwell) or the Assistant Supervisor (Vince Johnson, Jr.).

Mr. White, Mr. Kupiec, or Miss Waterman would be considered to be the people concerned with the expatriation aspect of the Oswald case in the first instance and would be authorized to prepare or not prepare the "refusal" sheet in the first instance.

When a repatriation loan is made, the Office of Finance of the Department of State (Miss Leola B. Burkhead or Mrs. Muriel B. Owens) would, normally, forward a copy of the repatriation loan bill to the Clearance Section. This serves as authorization to prepare a lookout card. The lookout card would be prepared (or removed upon notification from the Office of Finance that the loan is repaid) and filed in the same manner as mentioned above.

A "refusal" sheet (authorizing the modification, preparation, or removal of a lookout card) would be prepared or not prepared and lookout cards would be modified, removed, prepared, or not prepared at the request of the Director of the Passport Office, the Deputy Director of the Passport Office, or any superior of the Director of the Passport Office in the Department's chain of command.

The first report from the American Embassy, Moscow, concerned Oswald's intention to renounce his citizenship, which if carried out would have resulted in his expatriation. In the light of this information it was in accordance with standing procedures to prepare a card for insertion in the lookout file. This card would then serve as a "flag" in the event Oswald made an application for passport facilities. (A United States passport can only be issued to a United States national.)

Once the determination was made as to his citizenship status, the card would remain in the file, if Oswald expatriated (renounced citizenship) himself, or it would be removed if Oswald did not expatriate himself.

(E) Names of all persons, if they can be identified, who did, in fact, prepare, modify, or remove any lookout card for Lee Harvey Oswald, which did exist at any time.

ANSWER - Miss Bernice Waterman prepared a "refusal" sheet and an Operations Memorandum which show that she authorized the preparation of a lookout card; however, investigations, to date, fail to reveal any other indication or evidence that a lookout card was ever prepared, modified, or removed.

(F) The names of all persons who failed to comply with standard procedures requiring the preparation of a lookout card for Lee Harvey Oswald.

ANSWER - From the file and from the procedures then in effect, it appears that someone in the Files or Clearance Section missed the "Refusal" prepared on March 25, 1960, and failed to follow standard operating procedures to prepare a lookout card or that the "Refusal," after it left the Foreign Operations Division, was misplaced or misguided in transit and never reached the Clearance Section. The individuals who overlooked the "Refusal" or who did not properly handle it or deliver it to the Clearance Section cannot be identified from any material or information available as of this date. (See also question 13 with respect to preparation of a lookout card on Oswald as a result of his repatriation loan.)

INSTRUCTION 2300.3

To : All Employees

From: James E. Corcoran, Chief, Administrative Division

Subj: Lookout File

1. Purpose. This Instruction establishes responsibilities and prescribes procedures for the operation and maintenance of the Lookout File.

2. Background. Cards constituting the nucleus of the Lookout File were originally integrated alphabetically in the Master Index File, which contained more than twenty million cards dating from 1906. The Lookout File was established in 1956 as an independent File to aid the processing of passport applications. The File was converted in 1961 from a 3"x5" typewritten card file to a file of printed and punched cards.

3. Role of the File. The Lookout File serves two purposes. Its principal role is to identify those applications which require other than routine adjudication in determining an applicant's eligibility for passport services. The second role of the File is to identify certain incoming applications to ensure expeditious processing or special handling.

4. Categories of Lookout Cards. The Lookout File contains three categories of cards:

a. Permanent Lookout Cards. Cards in this category (buff in color) stay in the File until subsequent action reverses the original reason for its inclusion.

b. Temporary Lookout Cards. Cards in this category (pink in color) include typed cards filed pending preparation of permanent ones and cards which have an established expiration date.

c. Flagging ("Catch") Cards. These cards (green in color) are placed in the File to identify incoming applications which are to be given expeditious handling. Flagging cards are removed from the File three weeks after the date of their inclusion unless the originator indicates that the card should remain in the File longer. A realistic termination date shall be placed on those flagging cards which are to be held longer than three weeks.

5. Additions to File. (See Attachment No. 1 for instructions)

a. By Adjudicator. The adjudicator/officer determining that a Lookout Card is to be originated shall be responsible for having essential cards prepared and forwarded to PT/RCL.

b. By Clearance Section. The Clearance Section shall be responsible for preparing the necessary cards when requests for additions to the File are received from authorized sources outside the Passport Office, i. e., FBI, OF, etc.

6. Maintaining the File.

a. Preparation of Cards. The Passport Office does not have the means to mechanically produce printed and punched cards on a daily basis for additions to the File. Therefore, temporary interim cards (pink color) shall be prepared in duplicate for those cards which are to become a permanent addition to the File. The original card is filed immediately in the Lookout File. The duplicate card is used to prepare the permanent card. Only one card is required for the other categories of Lookout Card, i. e., temporary cards which have an established expiration date, and flagging cards. Printed and punched cards are not prepared for these categories.

b. Flexowriter Operation. Detailed instructions on the flexowriter operation are contained in TAE C, Attachment 3, of the Management Survey of the Passport Office Lookout File, October 16, 1961.

c. IBM 047 Operation. The IBM 047 is used to convert the flexowriter tapes to permanent printed and punched cards.

d. Filing Permanent Cards. The permanent card shall be verified with the interim card before it is filed. If there are no discrepancies, the permanent card shall be filed and the interim card removed. If a discrepancy does exist, the interim card shall remain in the File, the error noted on the permanent card and referred to the Section Chief, (PT/RCL), for correction.

e. Removing Cards From the File.

(1) The Section Chief, PT/RCL, is authorized to remove the following categories of Lookout Cards from the File:

(a) Those cards that have an established expiration date (after expiration).

(b) Those cards relating to individuals who have passed their 99th birthday.

(2) In all other instances authorization to remove a Lookout Card must be received from those sources authorized to create Lookout Cards. When a Lookout Card is to be removed from the File, a notation to disregard the Lookout Card shall be made on the pink "Refusal" sheet or on the face of the application. The individual requesting this action shall sign and date this notation. This file with a Form DS-10, Reference Slip, requesting the removal of the Lookout Card shall be forwarded to the Chief, Clearance Section, PT/RCL, Room 1811. The Chief, PT/RCL, shall be responsible for removing the card and noting its removal near the "disregard" notation. The file shall then be sent to the Files Section.

f. Disposal of Lookout Cards. Lookout Cards removed from the File for disposal shall be destroyed in accordance with existing security regulations.

7. Operating the Files.

a. Security Requirements. Access to the Lookout File shall be limited in accordance with Instruction 1714.1, August 7, 1951, Access to Passport Office Files and Records.

b. The Clearance Function. (See Attachment 2 for clearance procedures).

(1) Definition. The clearance check is a comparison of the name or names as listed on a document/request with the cards of the Lookout File to determine the existence or non-existence of a card with the same name. Then when a card exists, determine by comparison of birth data if the card may pertain to the individual listed in the document/request.

(2) Coverage. With respect to the passport function, the clearance check shall be performed on the following:

- (a) All domestic applications for passport facilities.
- (b) Applications/documents referred by Foreign Service Posts for issuance of passport or for decision.
- (c) Applications/documents executed at Foreign Service Posts by first-time applicants.
- (d) All applications on which passports are issued by the Governors of Puerto Rico, Guam, the Virgin Islands, and American Samoa.

(3) Responsibilities.

(a) The Clearance Section is responsible for performing the clearance check and for indicating on the document/request, the existence or non-existence of a Lookout Card. (See Attachment 2, paragraph 3).

(b) Adjudicators in the Central Office shall be responsible for determining that the clearance check has been performed, and when a Lookout Card exists, the effect it may have on the processing of the application. (Instruction 2510.6).

(c) PT/TWX shall be responsible similarly for clearance requests received by teletype.

8. Effective Date. This Instruction is effective immediately.

PREPARATION OF LOOKOUT CARDS

1. Use/Distribution of Card Form. When a Lookout Card is to become a permanent addition to the File, pink colored IBM cards shall be typed in duplicate (original and one carbon). Both cards shall be enveloped and routed to the Clearance Section (PT/ECL), Room 1011.

Only one card is required for temporary cards having an established expiration date, and for flagging cards.

2. Format/Entries.

Name _____ Date of Birth _____ Birthplace _____ Lookout Data Codes _____

Expiration Date and/or any additional data pertinent to location of case file/source document.

(TYPE ON REVERSE SIDE OF PRESSED CARD)

NOTE: Cards should be prepared so that the corner cut is at the bottom of the card.

- a. Name: The surname shall be recorded first, e. g., Smith, Howard Anthony Jr.
- b. Date of Birth: Usually the date of birth will consist of the month, day of month, and year of birth, e. g., September 6, 1913. Standard abbreviations may be used for the month of birth.
- c. Birthplace: If born in the United States, record both City and State, if both are known, e. g., South Bend, Ind. Standard abbreviations may be used for States, except Alaska, Hawaii, Iowa, Maine, Ohio, and Utah. NYC may be used for New York City, New York.

If born abroad, record name of country in full.

NOTE: The date of birth and place of birth are considered essential for identifying an individual and are required information, together with the name and Lookout codes. The only exceptions approved are: (1) If the reason code is K or C, the card may be filed if either the date of birth or place of birth are included. (2) If reason code is W, the card may be filed if neither date or place of birth is known. (3) In custody cases, cards limited to one month's validity may be prepared if neither date nor place of birth is known.

d. Lookout Data Codes. Record the series of 5 codes to show month (1st code) and year (2nd and 3rd codes) of preparation of Lookout Card; codes for reason for Lookout Card (4th code); and code for Source of card (5th code).

Adjudicators/officers directing the creation of the card shall provide the Reason and Source codes using the LOCKOUT FILE CODE LIST issued for Limited Official Use [redacted], and as an attachment to Notice 2300 dated February 19, 1964.

Typist will provide codes for date of preparation. Digits 1-9, as applicable, will be used for months January - September. Capital letters O, N, and D will be used for October, November, and December.

Example: 263LF indicates a Lookout Card prepared during February 1963 (263), the individual lost U. S. citizenship (L), the source of the card is the Foreign Division (F).

e. Expiration Date. When a card has limited lookout applicability, the card shall specify the date of expiration, i. e., Expires:         (Date)        . Cards relating to custody cases will be limited in accordance with Instruction 3330.1.

f. Locator Information. Any information essential to the location of the case or source document shall be clearly indicated on the card.

CLEARANCE PROCEDURES

A. PASSPORT FUNCTION

1. Documents Used in Process

The application for passport facilities itself is used in performing the clearance check except when the application is received and the passport processed at a Passport Agency or at Honolulu. The clearance check is made using teletype lists (TWX messages) received from the Agencies and Honolulu.

2. Priority of Work

a. Applications marked URGENT or otherwise tagged for expeditious handling and URGENT/PRIORITY TWX messages are given immediate attention when received in the Lookout File Section. See Instruction 1722.2 for instructions pertaining to TWX messages.

b. Routine domestic work is processed over the Lookout File on a continuing basis with applications/messages delivered for clearance and completed work collected at frequent intervals. The Supervisor of the Clearance Section is responsible with the guidance of the Chief, Records and Communications Branch, for determining the day-to-day order of processing consistent with the needs of the Central Office and Passport Agencies. Such factors as workflow, staffing, time zones in which Agencies are located, etc., are taken into consideration.

c. Routine foreign applications/documents and applications from the Governors are processed across the File on a day-to-day basis as the domestic workload permits.

3. Work Assignments. Applications to be cleared are sorted according to the first letter of the surname and distributed to the several segments of the Lookout File. Clearance clerks alphabetize the applications as necessary.

TWX messages contain the names of as many as thirty applicants, alphabetized according to surname. When a TWX message relates to more than one segment of the File, workflow is considered in making the initial distribution. When completed in one segment the clearance clerk is responsible for handing the message to another segment of the File as necessary to complete clearance of the names listed.

4. The Clearance Process.

The initial step in performing the clearance check is identical in all cases, i. e., the name check. Other steps in the process depend on whether or not a Lookout Card or a flagging card exists.

a. Name Check. The name of the passport applicant and any family members to be included in the passport are checked against the Lookout Cards. Aliases, "known as" names, and different names or spellings given in the document are checked. Names shall be checked as given on the document except as follows:

(1) Names with prefixes whether written as a separate word or joined to the name will be checked under the name and under the prefix.

(2) Chinese names will be checked under the family name if discernible from the father's or the husband's name. If the family name is not discernible, it will be checked as an English name as listed on the document and, in addition, the surname checked will be underlined in red.

(3) Spanish names will be checked under the family name if discernible from the father's or the husband's name. If the family name is not discernible, it will be checked as an English name listed on the document, and, in addition, the surname checked will be underlined in red.

b. When a Lookout Card is Non-Existent. When no Lookout Card exists, the clearance clerk indicates clearance of the application by writing "C" and his initials in the left margin opposite the name. In the case of successive name checks on the same document, a "C" is written before or above the names cleared and in close proximity so as to be unmistakably applicable thereto.

c. When a Lookout Card Exists. When a Lookout Card exists in the name being checked, a comparison is made of birth data. When the name and birth data are the same, the clearance clerk writes "Not C" and his initials in the left margin opposite the name. In addition the Lookout codes appearing on the right corner of the card are noted in the left margin, e. g., 3L5LU. (On TTX messages, because of space limitations in the left margin, the notations are made to the right of the name when a Lookout Card exists.) In cases where the source code is "I" the auxiliary file reference is also noted in the margin, giving file name or number and purport of reason in brief. In addition, the clearance clerk attaches (using a paper clip) a red 3"x5" "flag" to the top of the application as an indicator to the adjudicator.

d. When there is a Similarity. When, in the judgment of the clearance clerk, similarity between the name and birth data in the document and that of a Lookout Card warrants a notice to the adjudicator, a notation "Not C", initials, Try (Name & Data), etc., is made, as in paragraph c above.

e. When a Flagging Card (Green) Exists. When there is a flagging card relating to the document, the clearance check is noted appropriately as in subparagraph b, c, or d; the green card is attached to the top of the application by paper clip; and the case routed to the individual originating the flagging card. (This is the only type of card which is removed from the Lookout File and attached to a document during the clearance process).

5. Completed Work. After the clearance check is made, the clearance clerk will distribute the work as follows:

- a. Domestic applications - outgoing sorting table.
- b. TWX messages - outgoing TWX box.
- c. Foreign applications/documents - foreign carding box.
- d. Applications from Governors (see Section 7, b (2)(d) foreign carding box.

B. GOVERNMENT AGENCY LIAISON MATERIAL.

Miscellaneous documents submitted by various Government Agencies are cleared over the Lookout File using the process described in Section 4 (The Clearance Process). However, "ND" instead of "C" is used when there is no Lookout Card. Completed work is placed in the box labeled "OUTGOING LIAISON" located on the outgoing sorting table.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT INSTRUCTION 1714.1

To: Distribution List 1

From: Frances G. Knight, Director

Subj: Access to Passport Office Files and Records

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Instruction is to prescribe the policies and procedures governing access to the main files and records of the Passport Office.

2. Background. The fundamental drawback to a practice of liberal access is that it is difficult if not impossible to preserve the integrity of vital files and records. In essence, personnel charged with the responsibility for files and records maintenance are held accountable for conditions over which they do not have complete control.

Another drawback is that searches performed by personnel who are not regularly assigned to these files frequently are nonproductive and time consuming and invariably disturb the normal searching process.

For these reasons, action is being taken to restrict direct access to the following files and records of the Passport Office:

- a. Current Applications File
- b. Box (Applications) Files
- c. Master Index File
- d. Lookout Index File
- e. Passport Book File
- f. Subjective (Number) File
- g. Classified File

3. Policies.

a. Direct Access to files by Offices and Agencies Outside the Passport Office. Direct access to the aforementioned files will not be extended to offices and agencies outside the Passport Office unless authorized in accordance with 5. a. below.

b. Direct Access to Files by Offices Within the Passport Office. To the maximum extent possible, direct access to the files and records of the Passport Office will be limited to personnel responsible for their custody and maintenance. For security considerations, direct

When an authorization is made, it will be in writing and signed by either the Director, Deputy Director, or Chief Counsel. The authorizing document, identifying the bearer and specifying the validity period, will serve as the credentials permitting direct access.

b. Offices Within the Passport Office. In isolated instances (e.g., special studies), it may be desirable that other personnel within the Passport Office be permitted temporary direct access to these files. To obtain access, the Division Chief for whom the project is to be conducted will request authorization by addressing a memorandum to the Chief, Administrative Division. When an authorization is made, it will be in writing and signed by either the Director, Deputy Director, or Chief Counsel.

6. Directive Canceled. This Instruction cancels P-71 of March 2, 1961.

7. Effective Date. The provisions of this Instruction are effective immediately.

Did any other governmental agency or department at any time request that the Department of State place a look-out card in the passport file for Lee Harvey Oswald or request that such a card be removed or modified in any manner? Did any other governmental agency or department at any time forward information to the Department of State which might reasonably have caused the Department to prepare, modify or remove a look-out card for Lee Harvey Oswald? Did the Department of State itself develop information which might reasonably have caused it to prepare, modify or remove a look-out card for Lee Harvey Oswald? If the answer to any of these questions is "YES", please give details, including copies of all correspondence or other written papers of any kind. If in your opinion any of the foregoing information received by the Department of State or developed by it would have justified the preparation, modification or removal of a look-out card for Lee Harvey Oswald but the appropriate action was not taken, please inform the Commission why such action was not taken.

(A) Did any other governmental agency or department at any time request that the Department of State place a lookout card in the passport file for Lee Harvey Oswald or request that such a card be removed or modified in any manner?

ANSWER - No

(B) Did any other governmental agency or department at any time forward information to the Department of State which might reasonably have caused the Department to prepare, modify or remove a lookout card for Lee Harvey Oswald?

ANSWER - No. Reports from Navy, FBI and CIA were either inconclusive or contained no additional information to warrant preparation of a "lookout card" without a specific request. No such request was made.

(C) Did the Department of State itself develop information which might reasonably have caused it to prepare, modify or remove a lookout card for Lee Harvey Oswald?

ANSWER - Yes. The information from Moscow, beginning in October 1959, indicating that Oswald desired to renounce his citizenship and to acquire Soviet citizenship, was sufficient basis for the preparation of a lookout card for use until the expatriation question was resolved. The passport file shows that a refusal sheet (see question 4) was prepared on March 25, 1960 at the same time an Operations Memorandum was drafted to the American Embassy at Moscow. The Operations Memorandum which was approved and mailed on March 28, 1960 stated in part:

"An appropriate notice has been placed in the lookout card section of the Passport Office in the event that Mr. Oswald should apply for documentation at a post outside the Soviet Union."

It is noted that Oswald did not leave the Soviet Union to apply for documentation.

The refusal sheet should have led to the placement of a lookout card in the ordinary course of business. At that time, such cards were prepared in the Clearance Section of the Passport Office.

A present review of the passport file tends to indicate that a lookout card may not have been prepared and filed. This opinion is based upon the following grounds:

- (1) No such card has been located.
- (2) Under standard operating procedures in effect in March 1960, a file number "130" should have been placed on the refusal sheet immediately preceding the name on the index line on the right margin of the sheet when the card has been made. No such file number appears on the sheet.
- (3) The passport file contains a record stamp of a "PT/RCL (lookout files)" search made on August 2, 1961, which reports "No Lookout (Refusal) file record" located on that date (see the reverse side one of Foreign Service Despatch 29 of July 11, 1961).

There is no evidence or information contained in the file to indicate that any action was taken to remove from the lookout card file any card which may have been filed pursuant to the refusal sheet.

The procedure to have a lookout card removed from the file is to mark the refusal sheet "disregard" and to send the case to the Clearance Section with a notation to remove the card. The refusal sheet in the passport folder of Lee Harvey Oswald is not marked "disregard." The reason for this possible failure to take this administrative action is not apparent from the file.

In addition, a lookout card for Oswald should have been prepared in June 1962, when he received a repatriation loan. In the promissory note which he signed for the loan he stated, in accordance with 7 Foreign Affairs Manual §423.6-5, that:

The purpose of the lookout card would have been to ensure Oswald's compliance with this commitment.

On receipt of notice of the loan from the Embassy in Moscow, the Department's procedures provided that Miss Leola B. Burkhead of the Revenues and Receipts Branch of the Office of Finance should have notified the Clearance Section in the Passport Office of Oswald's name, date and place of birth. If the Passport Office received only the name and not the date and place of birth of a borrower, it would not have prepared a lookout card under its established procedures because of lack of positive identification. (Among the Passport Office's file of millions of passport applicants, there are, of course, many thousands of identical names.) Mr. Richmond C. Reeley was the Chief of the Revenues and Receipts Branch of the Office of Finance and Mr. Alexander W. Maxwell was Chief of the Clearance Section. If the notice was received in the Clearance Section it would have been delivered to the Carding Desk for preparation of a lookout card on Oswald.

It appears, however, that such a lookout card was not prepared. It may have been that the Finance Office did not notify the Clearance Section of Oswald's loan. One reason for this might have been the Finance Office's lack of information concerning Oswald's date and place of birth. On the other hand, the Finance Office may have notified the Clearance Section of Oswald's name only, in which case this Section would not have prepared a lookout card under its procedures. Since Oswald began repaying the loan in installments immediately after his return to the United States, it is also possible that the Office of Finance decided that it was unnecessary to pursue the matter further. In any event, Oswald's loan was repaid in full on January 29, 1963, five months prior to his application for a new passport.

Do any procedures exist which are not dependent upon the existence of a look-out card and which are designed to alert the Department to the fact that an individual who has applied for a passport or in some other manner indicated an intent to travel abroad might be cause for special action of some kind? Have any such procedures been in existence at any time since August 1959? If such procedures were or are now in existence, please describe them.

(A) Do any procedures exist which are not dependent upon the existence of a lookout card and which are designed to alert the Department to the fact that an individual, who has applied for a passport, or in some other manner indicated an intent to travel abroad, might be cause for special action of some kind?

ANSWER - Yes, such procedures exist in the Passport Office of the Department of State.

(B) Have such procedures been in existence at any time since August 1959?

ANSWER - Yes, such procedures were in existence for many years prior to this date.

(C) If such procedures were, or are now in existence, please describe them.

ANSWER - There are two broad categories of review procedures which are not dependent upon the existence of a lookout card. The first are the normal adjudication procedures applicable to every application for a passport. Each application and all documents submitted with it are examined in the Passport Office, a Passport Agency, or at a Foreign Service post abroad, by an individual who has been specially trained in the adjudication of passports.

These adjudicators check the application and related documents to detect any discrepancies on the application itself, or in the evidence submitted in conjunction with the application.

If any questionable statements or omissions of material importance such as those relating to birth, travel to restricted geographical areas, etc. are disclosed by adjudication, the application is held up until the discrepancy is resolved.

This may entail referring the matter to another area of the Passport Office or the Department, or may require an investigation or interview of the applicant, or some other action to resolve the discrepancy.

The second category of procedures relates to the notifications which the Passport Office receives from many sources advising the Passport Office that a named individual may apply for a passport, or renewal of a passport, and requesting some restrictive action on the part of the Passport Office.

As an example of the diversity of these sources, the notifications may come from any of the Departments of the Executive Branch, from security/intelligence agencies, the courts (usually in the form of a court order or warrant), or from the Congress. The notifications are also forwarded by agencies of State governments (usually the law enforcement agencies), and by private individuals (usually attorneys or other interested parties).

The information is almost as diverse as its sources, and might relate to a fugitive from justice; a member of the Communist Party; an individual who is planning to travel to a geographically restricted area of the world; a parent seeking to stop a child from traveling; a person seeking to avoid a subpoena from the courts or Congressional Committees; a report on the loss of citizenship; etc.

If the information warrants, a card of a specified or open expiration date, depending upon the circumstances, is placed in the Lookout File. When an application is received it is searched over the Lookout File and a notation is placed indicating whether there is or is not a Lookout Card. If there is a lookout card then the previous file, containing the notification, along with the application, are referred to the area in the Passport Office having jurisdiction of the action.

The action is normally a notification to some person or agency, prior to issuing passport facilities, along the lines of the notification discussed in the answer to question 15.

The foregoing procedures were in existence before August 1959, and continue in existence at the present time.

QUESTION 15

We would appreciate a description of the procedures, if any, within the Department of State for notifying other Government agencies or departments, such as the FBI, CIA and Secret Service, when a person covered by a look-out card or in some other special category applies for a passport or otherwise indicates to the Department his intention to go abroad.

ANSWER - Under procedures in effect for a long period of time the Passport Office, upon request, will advise other Government agencies or departments, such as the FBI, CIA, and Secret Service, of a person's application for passport facilities. This notification is usually effected by the insertion of a card in the lookout file of the Passport Office.

This lookout card serves to alert the employee who searches a passport application across the lookout file that some action must be taken before the application is cleared.

The previous file containing the information upon which the lookout card was placed, together with the application and/or TWX, are then referred to the responsible division in the Passport Office for action.

The responsible Division then complies with the initial request by advising the appropriate agency (usually a named individual or function) by telephone of the receipt of the application. Further action on the application is then held up, pending advice from the agency or department which originally requested to be informed of the person's travel.

Since the Department receives over 1,000,000 passport applications per year, it is generally not possible to notify other Government agencies of the passport application of a particular individual unless the agency has specifically requested that it be notified.

QUESTION 16

What action was taken by the Department of State, when it received information from the CIA in October 1963 concerning the appearance of Oswald at the Soviet and Cuban Embassies in Mexico City? Did the Department of State at this time undertake to prepare a look-out card or take any action intended to result in the cancellation of Oswald's passport? If so, please describe the actions taken.

ANSWER - A CIA report concerning (Lee Henry)Oswald's appearance at the Soviet Embassy in Mexico City only (the report did not contain any information regarding his appearance at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City) was received in the Passport Office on October 16, 1963. Records show that the passport file on Lee Harvey Oswald was obtained and that the CIA report was read by Mr. James F. Richie, an attorney, and by Mr. Carroll H. Seeley, Jr., a supervisory attorney in the Legal Division, on October 22, 1963. Since the report indicated no ground for determining that Oswald was ineligible for a passport, a determination was made that no action by the Passport Office was required. No action was, therefore, taken to prepare a lookout card, nor was any action taken intended to result in the cancellation of Oswald's passport.

We would like a description of the procedures, if any, within the Department for revoking a passport already issued should the Department determine or be informed that there are grounds for doing so, and a memorandum on the differences, if any, between the grounds for refusing to issue a passport and the grounds for revoking a passport already issued in the kinds of situations which might reasonably have applied to Lee Harvey Oswald.

ANSWER - The attached reprint from the Federal Register of January 12, 1962 sets forth the substantive and procedural regulations governing the denial and revocation of a passport. The grounds for the revocation of a passport and the refusal of a passport are identical.

There are no differences between the substantive or regulatory grounds for refusing to issue a passport, and the grounds for revoking a passport. When grounds are discovered for the revocation of a passport a letter of tentative withdrawal is prepared, setting forth the specific regulation under which the action is taken, and the basis for the action. The bearer of the passport is requested to surrender his passport and is informed of his right to seek a review of the Department's action, in accordance with the Department's Passport Regulations. (See Attached Reprint from the Federal Register.)

There were no grounds consonant with the Passport Regulations to take adverse passport action against Oswald prior to November 22, 1962.

Title 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

PART 51—PASSPORTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Paragraph 126 of Executive Order No. 7656 dated March 31, 1938, issued under the authority of section 1 of the Act of Congress approved July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 687 (22 U.S.C. 211a) and section 4 of the Act of May 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 111 (5 U.S.C. 151c) I hereby revise §§ 51.135 to 51.170 inclusive of Part 51 of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows:

§ 51.135 Denial of passports to members of Communist organizations.

A passport shall not be issued to, or renewed for, any individual who the issuing officer knows or has reason to believe is a member of a Communist organization registered or required to be registered under section 7 of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 as amended. (50 U.S.C., sec. 768.)

§ 51.136 Limitations on issuance of passports to certain other persons.

In order to promote and safeguard the interests of the United States, passport facilities, except for direct and immediate return to the United States, shall be refused to a person when it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that the person's activities abroad would: (a) Violate the laws of the United States; (b) be prejudicial to the orderly conduct of foreign relations; or (c) otherwise be prejudicial to the interests of the United States.

§ 51.137 Tentative denial of passports and available administrative procedures.

Any person whose application for a passport or renewal of a passport has been tentatively denied under § 51.135 or § 51.136 shall be entitled to a notification in writing of the tentative denial. The notification shall set forth clearly and concisely the specific reasons for the denial and the procedures for review available to the applicant.

§ 51.138 Procedure for review of tentative denial.

(a) A person whose application for a passport or renewal of a passport has been tentatively denied in accordance with § 51.135 or § 51.136 shall be entitled, upon request, and before the denial becomes final, to present to the Passport Office any information he deems relevant to support his application. He shall be entitled to appear in person before a Hearing Officer in the Passport Office; to be represented by counsel; to present evidence; to be informed of the evidence upon which the Passport Office relied as a basis for the tentative denial; to be informed of the source of such evidence; and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(b) The applicant shall, upon request by the Hearing Officer, confirm his oral statements in an affidavit for the record. After the applicant has presented his case, the Passport Office shall review the record and advise the applicant of its decision. In making its decision, the Passport Office shall not take into consideration confidential security information that is not made available to the applicant in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section. If the decision is adverse to the applicant, he shall be notified in writing, and the notification shall state the reasons for the decision. Such notification shall also inform the applicant of his right to appeal to the Board of Passport Appeals under § 51.139.

In the event of a decision adverse to the applicant, he shall be entitled within thirty days after receipt of notice of such decision to appeal his case to the Board of Passport Appeals provided for in § 51.150.

§ 51.150 Creation and functions of Board of Passport Appeals.

There is hereby established within the Department of State a Board of Passport Appeals, hereinafter referred to as the Board, composed of not less than three officers of the Department to be designated by the Secretary of State. The Board shall act on all appeals under § 51.139. The Board shall adopt and make public rules of procedure to be approved by the Secretary.

§ 51.151 Organization of Board.

The Board of Passport Appeals shall consist of three or more members designated by the Secretary of State, one of whom shall be designated by the Secretary as Chairman. The Chairman shall assure that there is assigned to hear the appeal of any applicant a panel of not less than three members including himself or his designee as presiding officer, which number shall constitute a quorum.

§ 51.152 Chairman.

The Chairman, or his designee, shall preside at all hearings of the Board, and shall be empowered in all respects to regulate the course of the hearings and to pass upon all issues relating thereto. The Chairman, or his designee, shall be empowered to administer oaths and affirmations.

§ 51.153 Counsel to the Board.

A Counsel, to be designated by the Secretary of State, shall be responsible to the Board for the schedule and presentation of cases; for assistance in legal and procedural matters; for providing information to the applicant as to his procedural rights before the Board; for maintenance of records; and for such other duties as the Board, or the Chairman on its behalf, may determine.

The Board may, in its discretion, appoint an examiner in any case, who may, with respect to such case be vested with any or all authority vested in the Board or the Chairman, subject to review and final decision by the Board, but an applicant shall not be denied an opportunity for a hearing before the Board unless he expressly waives it.

§ 51.155 Duty of Board to advise Secretary of State on action for disposition of appealed cases.

It shall be the duty of the Board, on the basis of the evidence on the record, to advise the Secretary of the action it finds necessary and proper to the disposition of the cases appealed to it, and to this end the Board may first call for clarification of the record; make further investigation; or take other action consistent with its duties.

§ 51.156 Basis for findings of fact by the Board.

In making or reviewing findings of fact, the Board, and all others with responsibility for so doing under §§ 51.135 to 51.164 shall be convinced by a preponderance of the evidence, as would a trial court in a civil case. In determining whether there is a preponderance of evidence supporting the denial of a passport, the Board shall consider the entire record before it. The Board shall not take into consideration any confidential security information which is not part of the record.

§ 51.157 Decisions of the Board.

Decisions shall be by majority vote. Voting may be either in open or closed session on any question except recommendations under § 51.155 which shall be in closed session. Decisions under § 51.155 shall be in writing and shall be signed by all participating members of the Board.

§ 51.158 Delivery of papers.

Appeals or other papers for the attention of the Board may be delivered personally, by registered mail, or by leaving a copy at the office of the Board at the address to be stated in the notification of adverse decision furnished to the applicant by the Passport Office.

§ 51.159 Notice of hearing.

An applicant shall receive not less than five business days notice in writing of the scheduled date and place of hearing, which shall be set for a time as soon as possible after receipt by the Board of the applicant's appeal.

§ 51.160 Appearance.

Any party to any proceeding before the Board may appear in person, or by or with his attorney, who must possess the requisite qualifications, as herein-after set forth, to practice before the Board.

§ 51.161 Applicant's attorney.

(a) Attorneys at law in good standing who are admitted to practice before the Federal courts or before the courts of any State or Territory of the United States may practice before the Board.

(b) No officer or employee of the Department of State whose official duties have, in fact, included participation in the investigation, preparation, presentation, decision or review of cases of the class within the competence of the Board of Passport Appeals shall, within two (2) years after the termination of such duties, appear as attorney in behalf of an applicant in any case of such nature, nor shall any one appear as such attorney in a case of such class if in the course of prior government service he has dealt with any aspects of the applicant's activities relevant to a determination of the case.

The record of proceedings held under § 51.138 shall be made available to the applicant in connection with his appeal to the Board. The applicant may appear and testify in his own behalf, be represented by counsel, present witnesses and offer other evidence. The applicant and witnesses may be examined by any member of the Board or by counsel. If any witness whom the applicant wishes to call is unable to appear personally, the Board may, in its discretion, accept an affidavit by him or order evidence to be taken by deposition. Such deposition may be taken before any person designated by the Board and such designee is hereby authorized to administer oaths and affirmations for purposes of the depositions. The applicant shall be entitled to be informed of all the evidence before the Board and of the source of such evidence, and shall be entitled to confront and cross-examine any adverse witness.

§ 51.163 Admissibility.

The Passport Office and the applicant may introduce such evidence as the Board deems proper. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but reasonable restrictions shall be imposed as to the relevancy, competency and materiality of evidence presented.

§ 51.164 Privacy of hearings.

Hearings shall be private. There shall be present at the hearing only the applicant, his counsel, the members of the Board, Board's Counsel, official stenographers, Departmental employees and the witnesses. Witnesses shall be present at the hearing only while actually giving testimony, or when otherwise directed by the Board.

§ 51.165 Misbehavior before Board.

If, in the course of a hearing before the Board, an applicant, or attorney is guilty of misbehavior, he may be excluded from further participation in the hearing. In addition, an attorney guilty of misbehavior may be excluded from participation in any other case before the Board.

§ 51.166 Transcript of hearings.

A complete verbatim stenographic transcript shall be made of the hearing by qualified reporters, and the transcript shall constitute a permanent part of the record. Upon request, the applicant or his counsel shall have the right to inspect the complete transcript, and to purchase a copy thereof.

§ 51.167 Notice of decision.

The Board shall communicate to the Secretary of State the action that it recommends under § 51.155. In taking action upon such recommendation of the Board, the Secretary shall not take into consideration any confidential security information which is not part of the record. The decision of the Secretary shall be promptly communicated in writing to the applicant.

GENERAL APPLICABILITY OF REVIEW AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

Except for action taken by reason of noncitizenship or geographical limitations of general applicability necessitated by foreign policy considerations, the provisions of §§ 51.135 to 51.167 shall apply in any case where the person affected takes issue with the action of the Secretary in refusing, restricting, withdrawing, cancelling, revoking, or in any other fashion or degree affecting the ability of such person to receive or use a passport.

The regulations contained in this order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) relative to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date are inapplicable to this order because the provisions thereof involve foreign affairs functions of the United States.

For the Secretary of State.

ROGER W. JONES,
Deputy Under Secretary for Administration.

QUESTION 18

As an aid to its interpretation of the materials in the files of the Department of State and the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Commission would appreciate a list of the abbreviations and code phrases commonly used in these files together with their translations. We draw your attention in particular to the inter-office telegrams, which contain a large amount of this kind of material.

ANSWER - Enclosed is a copy of "Authorized Abbreviations of the Department of State for Classified Telegrams." Many of these abbreviations are no longer in actual use.

The abbreviations on the left-hand side of Department telegrams refer to the offices within the Department, to the other Government agencies to which copies of the telegram have been distributed. A list of these abbreviations, taken from the Department's telephone directory, is enclosed.

Also enclosed is a list of abbreviations used in wiroms and cables in relation to visa matters. This list is found in Volume 9 of the Foreign Affairs Manual.

If there are any other abbreviations which are of interest to the Commission, we would be pleased to furnish translations.

opinion is required before eligibility under section 212(a) of the Act may be determined. Reference should be to the ringleader or, if unknown, to the group involved in such activities and not to any individual applicant who may be victimized by them.

INVESTIGATIONS:

All requests for investigation of fraud or suspected fraud concerning any aspect of a visa case or group of cases which can be investigated in the United States. In order that an effective investigation may be conducted, the original documents presented must be forwarded, with a statement of the post's reasons for suspecting that fraud may exist. When necessary, a request may be submitted for the investigation of a matter which is not indicative of fraud, if it appears that the results of an inquiry in the United States will assist the consular officer.

OPERATIONS:

All correspondence relating to the internal administration of the visa function at a specific post or at posts in a specific country including: problems arising from actions or requirements of the host government; reports on reciprocity under sections 221(c) and 281 of the Act and section 8 of the Act of September 11, 1957, as amended; deportation cases and others involving specifically authorized direct communication with the Immigration and Naturalization Service; relations of an operating nature with other government agencies including investigations performed on their behalf (e.g. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Public Health Service or their representatives); effect of personnel, supply or equipment problems on visa output; recommendations for awards; preparation of Form FS-514.

PRIVATE BILLS:

All correspondence relating to proposed, pending or enacted private legislation.

PROCEDURES:

All correspondence suggesting or reporting to the Department efficient methods used in doing visa work; new forms or form letters devised which, if approved, could be of use to many posts in one area or perhaps usable on a world-wide basis. For example, this heading should be used for suggestions concerning improvement in visa filing systems or methods of channeling visa applicants or how and why additional equipment or materials would result in a more efficient visa operation. This subject heading should not be used for suggesting changes in regulations or the substantive notes thereto or forms prescribed by law.

QUOTA CONTROL:

All discussion of the allocation and use of quota numbers, of the status of quotas or categories thereof and of the quota control system as a mathematical or mechanical concept, correspondence regarding post problems of registration, quota waiting lists, preparation and submission of Forms FS-469; (and FS-258 in quota immigrant cases). Does not include questions on quota chargeability.

REGULATIONS AND NOTES:

All correspondence concerning the organization, clarification, interpretation and completion of regulations and notes (substantive as distinguished from operational and procedural questions). All requests for or changes in the distribution of Visa Transmittal Letters.

REVIEW:

All visa correspondence submitted for review in the Department before release to other persons or agencies except for any item that is specifically covered by one of the foregoing headings.

SECTION 243(g) INDIVIDUAL WAIVERS:

All correspondence referring to individual cases involving section 243(g) waivers. (Applies to certain posts in Communist or Communist-controlled countries only.)

STATISTICS:

All correspondence relating to reports or statistical analyses of visa performance; preparation and submission of Forms FS-258 and FS-258A.

3. Telegraphic references to standard visa texts.

All telegraphic references to standard visa messages relating to "C" (Transit) visas or "G" (International Organization Alien) visas should refer to them as "Chester - 1", "Chester - 2", or "George - 1", "George - 2", etc., in order to minimize the chance of error in transmission.

3.1 From Department to Foreign Service posts.

All information requested or furnished by the Department and transmitted to Foreign Service posts, by WIROM or telegram, on the matters covered by the paragraphs listed below will refer to the subject heading "VISAS" followed by the indicator of the selected paragraph.

ONE

Information supplied by you and/or otherwise available to Department at this time does not warrant a finding that named applicant is ineligible under the cited paragraph(s) of section 212(a) of the Act. If information is hereafter developed at the post which would render him ineligible, the post should take appropriate action.

e.g. "VISAS ONE JOHN DOE (3) and (29)".

TWO

Information supplied by you and/or otherwise available to the Department is sufficient to find the named applicant ineligible under the cited paragraph(s) of section 212(a) of the Act.

e.g. "VISAS TWO JOHN DOE (9) and (27)".

THREE

The visa issued in this case is to be annotated with the period of time requested in the itinerary submitted or as indicated in the message transmitting the order. See 22 CFR 41.124, Proc. Note 5. (This key word is to be used in conjunction with one transmitting an order of admission.)

e.g. "VISAS FOUR AND THREE JOHN DOE (28) 30 DAYS NEW YORK ONLY".

FOUR

The applicant should be informed that the Attorney General has ordered that he be admitted into the United States temporarily pursuant to authority contained in section 212(d)(3)(A) of the Act, if admissible other than under the cited paragraph of section 212(a) of the Act. The order has been approved for the period of time and itinerary submitted, unless this message provides otherwise, and is subject to revocation at any time at the discretion of the Attorney General. Any deviation from the approved itinerary or extension of the period of admission after entry depends upon prior approval of the district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service having jurisdiction over the geographic area to which the travel is limited. (The telegraphic reference will include the applicant's name, paragraph(s) of section 212(a), any time limitation or other exception from the itinerary submitted, and any special conditions imposed by the order.)

e.g. "VISAS FOUR JOHN DOE (3) and (28) (four months) or (11/25/60)".

FIVE

Available information concerning the named applicant establishes his eligibility for the relief provided by section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Act. (See App. A, 22 CFR 42.91(a)(28), Note 3).

e.g. "VISAS FIVE JOHN DOE".

SIX

As recent security checks disclose no (additional) derogatory data regarding the applicant, you may process the case to a conclusion.

e.g. "VISAS SIX JOHN DOE".

SEVEN

ETD cannot be met due to time required to complete security checks and/or other actions necessary before Department will be able to take the action requested in the named applicant's case. Consideration of this matter is being expedited and a decision will be made as promptly as circumstances permit. (May be used together with Visas Eleven). (See App. A, 22 CFR 41.95, N. 1.3)

e.g. "VISAS SEVEN JOHN DOE".

3. (3.1 cont'd)(p. 3)

EIGHT

Telegraph named applicant's travel plans in advance of his arrival in the United States.

e.g. "VISAS EIGHT JOHN DOE".

NINE

Report final action taken in named applicant's case. The report should be transmitted by OMV unless a reply by telegram or STCOR telegram is directed.

e.g. "VISAS NINE JOHN DOE TELEGRAPH", or "VISAS NINE JOHN DOE STCOR".

TEN

The Department has been informed that named alien plans to enter the United States. If he applies for any kind of visa the consular officer should suspend action and request an advisory opinion. (Brief identifying data will appear in telegram.)

e.g. "VISAS TEN JOHN DOE Age 27 Polish born. Last address Hamburg, Germany (no street). Last applied Warsaw January, 1951".

ELEVEN

Issuance of a visa is left to your discretion if you are satisfied that he is not ineligible. If information is hereafter developed at the post which would render him ineligible, the post should take appropriate action. (May be used together with Visas Seven).

e.g. "VISAS ELEVEN JOHN DOE".

TWELVE

The Attorney General has ordered that applicant be admitted to the United States pursuant to provisions of section 212(a)(28)(I)(ii) of the Act, if otherwise admissible. See App. A, 22 CFR 42.91(a)(28), Note 4.4. Above information is not classified and may be repeated to applicant. (Name of applicant, date of Attorney General's Order, and INS File No. of case will be stated.)

e.g. "VISAS TWELVE JOHN DOE Order June 1, 1959, INS (No. A & file no.)".

THIRTEEN

Telegraph immediately a complete status report on this case. If named applicant is found to be eligible, expedite action because of special interest: if a non-immigrant and ineligible other than under paragraphs (27) or (29), submit urgently for possible 212(d)(3)(A) action. (Telegram will identify interested party, if pertinent.)

e.g. "VISAS THIRTEEN JOHN DOE Nonimmigrant Representative Jones, Kentucky STCOR".

FOURTEEN

Following quota numbers are allocated for category and month indicated. This allotment should be verified against your request. Any quota numbers that will not be used should be returned to the Department urgently. This allotment lists in sequence (a) total of quota numbers allocated; (b) quota from which allocated; (c) preference or nonpreference category for which allocated; (d) quota number(s); (e) month quota number(s) should be issued; and (f) priority date if applicable.

e.g. "VISAS FOURTEEN Three German first 500 through 502 July. One British sub-quota Jamaica first 25 August. Four Austrian nonpreference 4 through 7 September prior December 1, 1951".

FIFTEEN

Requested quota numbers are not available for an earlier month.

e.g. "VISAS FOURTEEN AND FIFTEEN Three German first 503 through 505 August".

3. (3.1 cont'd)(p.4)

SIXTEEN

Requested quota numbers not presently available. Report priority on next monthly quota registration report (Form FS-469).

e.g. "VISAS SIXTEEN".

SEVENTEEN

Requested quota numbers not presently available. Priority has been recorded for consideration when future allotments are made.

e.g. "VISAS SEVENTEEN".

EIGHTEEN

If the named alien is accredited as that term is defined in 22 CFR 41.1, the Department concurs in A-1 classification.

e.g. "VISAS EIGHTEEN JOHN DOE".

NINETEEN

Information available in the Department is insufficient to justify finding the named alien ineligible under section 212(a)(27) or (29). If accredited as that term is defined in 22 CFR 41.1, the Department concurs in the classification noted. (Name of alien and classification will be stated in telegram.)

e.g. "VISAS NINETEEN JOHN DOE A-2" or "VISAS NINETEEN JOHN DOE CHESTER-3".

TWENTY

Information available in the Department is insufficient to justify finding the named alien ineligible under section 212(a)(27) for G-1 classification.

e.g. "VISAS TWENTY JOHN DOE".

TWENTY-ONE

Information available in the Department is insufficient to justify finding the named alien ineligible under section 212(a)(27) or (29) for the classification noted. (This will be used for A-3, G-2, G-3, G-4, G-5.)

e.g. "VISAS TWENTY-ONE JOHN DOE GEORGE-2".

TWENTY-TWO

e.g. "VISAS TWENTY-TWO JOHN DOE A-1, JULY 1 - AUGUST 15, 1961.

TWENTY-THREE

Quota under which numbers were requested is exhausted for the current quota year. Should any numbers be returned by other offices an allotment will be made later.

e.g. "VISAS TWENTY-THREE".

TWENTY-FOUR

The Department and/or the Immigration and Naturalization Service finds that the circumstances reported or otherwise known in the case of the named applicant, who is ineligible for a visa under the cited paragraphs of section 212(a) of the Act, do not warrant exercise of the discretionary authority of section 212(d)(3)(A), inasmuch as the proposed visit is not considered to be in the national interest and/or the alien is otherwise not qualified therefor. The case should be re-submitted to the Department with substantiating details if you believe that this action should be reconsidered, particularly if it appears that the refusal adversely affects the foreign relations of the United States or the public relations of the post, or if it is otherwise embarrassing.

e.g. "VISAS TWENTY-FOUR JOHN DOE (28)".

(3.1 Con't) (p. 5)

TWENTY-FIVE

The applicant should be informed that the Attorney General has ordered that he be admitted into the United States temporarily in a C-2 classification for the period stated in paragraph (c), as provided in section 101(a)(15)(C) of the Act and pursuant to authority contained in section 212(d)(3)(A), despite inadmissibility under the cited paragraph(s) of section 212(a). This order is subject to revocation at any time at the discretion of the Attorney General and subject to the following conditions:

NASTURTIUM

Report follows. (Normally this indicates derogatory classified information which will be pouched to the requesting post as soon as possible.)

4. Specific subjects to be separated from general subjects.

4.1 On occasion the Department has noted that valuable discussions on visa problems that would be of general interest have not received the prompt attention they deserve because they were discussed in communications presenting for primary action the case of an individual visa applicant. Also, some very valuable procedural suggestions did not receive immediate consideration because they were added at the end of routine reports on other matters called for by Departmental instructions.

4.2 When time and original thought have been devoted to general or procedural matters they should be dealt with in a separate communication. If necessary, such communication should contain a cross reference to the communication concerning the individual case in connection with which the question arose.

5. Guides for officers engaged in the drafting and signing of correspondence on visa and immigration matters.

5.1 Letters should be composed in as simple and nontechnical language as possible, without sacrificing accuracy. It requires considerable skill to express accurately in nontechnical language, a statement dealing with technical matters and complicated problems. References to specific provisions of law and regulations should be avoided when writing to persons who are not lawyers or otherwise versed in immigration matters, except where the citation is necessary to identify the section of law under which a visa has been refused. In such a case all citations to law or regulations should be checked. Memory should not be relied upon, even when the citation is believed to be correct.

5.2 In correspondence with the public, references should not be made to Volume 9 - Visas of the Foreign Affairs Manual, circular instructions, or other informational sources which are not available to the general public.

5.3 When a visa was refused prior to December 24, 1952, the provisions of the law under which the visa was actually refused should be cited rather than the equivalent provisions of the currently effective law. If the case has been reexamined since the aforementioned date, reference should be made to the applicable provisions of both the original and the present statutes.

5.4 Consular officers should not take the initiative in suggesting the enactment of a private law to overcome a ground of ineligibility or to circumvent quota restrictions. (See 22 CFR 42.90, Note 3)

5.5 In answering an inquiry regarding applicants chargeable to an oversubscribed quota, the instructions contained in 22 CFR 42.60, Procedural Note 5 should be followed.

5.6 It should not be stated in correspondence with interested persons, including attorneys, that a case has been referred to the Department for an advisory opinion. Statements to this effect should be avoided particularly when a case has been submitted to the Department for name check, advisory opinion or waiver of ineligibility before a formal visa application has been executed by the alien. Exceptions to this rule should be made only under justifying circumstances such as (a) important local inquiries, (b) a lapse of more than thirty days since the request for name check, advisory opinion or waiver was forwarded to the Department and (c), in the discretion of the principal officer, local public relations aspects make such a statement necessary. Similarly, whenever possible, discussion of clearance procedures or processes should be avoided. The term "necessary administrative processing" may be used in written communications when reference is had to clearance procedures or the submission of cases to the Department.

- 5.7 In answering inquiries concerning the posting of a public charge bond, the procedure outlined in 22 CFR 42.91(a)(15), Note 6.1 should be followed.
- 5.8 In the preparation of correspondence relating to information contained in visa files the criteria set forth in Item 6 should be followed.
- 5.9 The officer signing correspondence shares fully the responsibility of the drafting officer for the accuracy of the information contained in any outgoing communication. In this connection, completed correspondence should be reviewed for (a) technical accuracy, (b) grammatical accuracy, (c) typographical accuracy, (d) appropriate signature.

6. Procedure for handling requests for information or documents contained in visa files.

- 6.1 Consular officers shall bear in mind that visa records shall be considered confidential, in accordance with section 222(f) of the Act. It is inappropriate for consular officers to make available to aliens official communications or communications received from the alien or his attorney bearing official notations.
- 6.2 Consular officers shall not furnish foreign government authorities information from visa files which they may require in support of applications for passports. In such cases, consular officers should instruct visa applicants to acquaint themselves with the requirements for issuance of the necessary foreign passport and to comply therewith as an obligation to their own government. In declining requests by foreign government authorities for information from visa files, consular officers should cite the consular convention between the United States and the host country, if existent, or the generally accepted principle under international law recognizing the inviolability of consular records. (See also Appendix A - General).
- 6.3 Likewise, information from visa files should not be furnished to individuals, firms or organizations not having a legitimate interest in the subject matter. For example, a request from a transportation company or travel agent for a list of names of visa applicants at a consular office should be declined.
- 6.4 In replying to inquiries concerning individual visa cases, consular officers should satisfy themselves that the inquirer is a person having a legitimate interest in the case, such as a friend, relative, attorney or Congressman. Good judgment should be used in dealing with such inquiries, and information should not be furnished which might cause embarrassment to the applicant. For example, it is inadvisable in correspondence concerning a visa refusal under section 212(a)(12) of the Act to cite as authority for such refusal the precise sub-section of that section. When specific information regarding a case is being declined, the letter may include a paragraph such as the following:
- "Should _____ desire further information concerning the precise reasons for the unfavorable action in _____'s case, it is suggested that _____ communicate direct with the alien in the matter."
- 6.5 If the visa was refused for reasons which, in the judgment of the consular officer, should not be divulged even to a close member of the applicant's immediate family, the consular officer's communication should be sent to the Department under cover of an OMV containing a full statement of the facts.
- 6.6 In the case of an alien refused a visa upon security grounds, the consular officer should confine his statement of the reasons for the refusal to a reference to the law or to the Code of Federal Regulations. In no case should information of a confidential nature be furnished to an inquirer.
- 6.7 Usually, if no document containing the information requested is contained in the visa file, the inquirer may be so informed.

THE LEGAL ATTACHE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

Commission Exhibit No. 949

Commission Exhibit No. 949

June 6, 1964

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In accordance with the request of your staff, the Passport Office has prepared the attached list of all cases in which action was taken to deny or withdraw passports under 22 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 51.136, between January 1962 and March 1964, and the reason for such actions.

The passports of all those individuals who were abroad at the time the action was taken were limited for direct and immediate return to the United States rather than revoked in order to enable them to come back to this country. In most cases in which passports were denied, no appeal was taken under the Department's passport regulations and the denial remained a tentative one.

The passports of a number of other United States citizens have also been limited for direct and immediate return to the United States. In each of these cases, the individual concerned was abroad and desired to return to the United States immediately. Some unusual circumstance, such as difficulties with officials of a foreign government, was involved in each of the cases. The only authority for limiting the passports of these individuals was 22 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 51.136. No list of these cases is maintained in the Department, however, and it was therefore not possible to include them in the attached list.

I hope this information will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Abram Chayes

LEE HARVEY OSWALD - CHRONOLOGY OF CONTACTS WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The first contact of the Department of State with Lee Harvey Oswald came in September 1959, just before Oswald's release from active service in the Marine Corps when he applied for a passport in Los Angeles. From that time until his death the Department of State records show that he came in contact with the Department a number of times both in the United States and in Moscow. Oswald applied for passports in September 1959 and June 1963 and for a renewal in July 1961; he made an attempt to renounce his citizenship in October 1959; he applied for a non-quota immigrant visa for his wife, a Soviet citizen, in July and August 1961; and he applied for a loan to pay for passage to the United States for himself, his wife, and their infant daughter in the spring of 1962. Separate memoranda attached hereto describe the laws, regulations, policies and procedures relevant to each of these matters. This paper presents a chronological narrative of Oswald's contacts with the Department.

Passport Application in Los Angeles - September 1959

Oswald appeared at the Los Angeles passport agency of the Department of State on September 4, 1959, and there executed a passport application. In support of that application he furnished a paper from the Separation Section, U.S. Marine Corps, El Toro, Santa Ana, California, certifying that he was scheduled to be released from active duty with the Marine Corps on September 11, 1959. Oswald's passport application stated that the purpose of his trip was to attend the College of Albert Schweitzer in Switzerland, the University of Turku in Finland, and to visit other countries as a tourist. He listed the countries to be visited as Cuba, Dominican Republic, England, France, Switzerland and Russia. He stated that his port of departure would be New Orleans and his approximate departure would be September 21, 1959. The passport file shows that a Marine Corps Reserve inactive ID card and a birth certificate were submitted as part of the passport application. The passport was issued routinely on September 10, 1959.

First Appearance at Moscow Embassy - October 1959

Six weeks later on October 31, 1959, Oswald appeared at the United States Embassy in Moscow and stated to the Consular Officer that he wished to renounce his American citizenship and that he had applied to become a citizen of the Soviet Union. He presented his passport to the interviewing officer and submitted the following undated hand-written statement:

I Lee Harvey Oswald do hereby request that my present citizenship in the United States of America, be revoked.

I have entered the Soviet Union for the express purpose of applying for citizenship in the Soviet Union, through the means of naturalization.

My request for citizenship is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R.

I take these steps for political reasons. My request for the revoking of my American citizenship is made only after the longest and most serious considerations.

I affirm that my allegiance is to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Lee H. Oswald

The Consular Officer talked with Oswald about the seriousness of the step he was proposing to take. Oswald gave as the principal reasons for his decision that "I am a marxist", but declined any further statement of his motives. He also stated that he had been a radar operator in the Marines and had offered to make the knowledge he had learned in that job available to Soviet officials when he became a Soviet citizen.

The Consular Officer told Oswald that the Consulate was then closed, but that he could come back to execute the appropriate documents at any time during normal business hours. It is clear from the report of the Consular officer to the Department that in view of the seriousness of the step, the fact that Oswald was only 20 years old at the time, and the fact that in another recent case the "defector" had changed his mind after receiving a less than warm welcome from the Soviets, the attitude of the Embassy in Moscow was to attempt to delay Oswald's formal act of renunciation. This was in line also with the general policy of the Department to discourage expatriation of American citizens.

Oswald Settles in Russia - Fall, Winter 1959

Oswald never returned to execute the formal papers. Instead, following the interview of October 31, Oswald directed another letter from Moscow to the Embassy dated November 3, 1959, as follows:

I, Lee Harvey Oswald, do hereby request that my present United States citizenship be revoked.

I appeared in person, at the consulate office of the United States Embassy, Moscow, on Oct. 31st, for the purpose of signing the formal papers to this effect. This legal right I was refused at that time.

I wish to protest against this action, and against the conduct of the official of the United States consular service who acted on behalf of the United States government.

My application, requesting that I be considered for citizenship in the Soviet Union is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R. In the event of acceptance, I will request my government to lodge a formal protest regarding this incident.

Lee Harvey Oswald

It was also noted at the time both by the Embassy officers familiar with the case and by American journalists who had interviewed Oswald that while Oswald appeared angry at the Embassy for not accepting his application at once, he failed to return to the Embassy, as he knew he could, to execute the papers. The reports suggest that Oswald might have deliberately left himself an opening by not executing these papers, perhaps waiting to see how his application for Soviet citizenship would fare.

. In the last days of November 1959, Oswald apparently left his hotel in Moscow without informing either the Embassy or American correspondents who had been in touch with him where he was headed. The Embassy reported this fact to Washington and undertook to inform the Department of any further developments. Nothing further was heard from Oswald for several months. Accordingly, the Department's Passport Office advised Embassy Moscow in March of 1960 that no further action was then required in the case. No final determination was made at this time that Oswald either had or had not expatriated himself.

During this time Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, made several inquiries of the Department as to her son's whereabouts, including an interview in January 1961. Apparently she also had no knowledge of where he was. She did report, however, that she had a short note from Oswald stating that he could not cash a check for $20.00 which she had sent and asking that she send cash instead as he was in need of money. She said that she thereupon sent Oswald a letter enclosing a $20.00 bill but that the letter had been returned to her. She also stated that she had sent him a $25.00 money order. Mrs. Oswald's contacts with the Department inquiring about her son's whereabouts continued until February 1961. In July 1960, Congressman Jim Wright of Texas received a letter from Mrs. Oswald and forwarded it to the Department. The Department's correspondence with Mrs. Oswald and copies of four letters exchanged with her in July were made available to Congressman Wright.

Oswald begins inquiries concerning return to the United States - February-August 1961

According to the Embassy records, the Department next heard from Lee Oswald in February 1961, when it received a letter postmarked Minsk February 5. The letter read as follows:

Dear Sirs:

Since I have not received a reply to my letter of December 1960, I am writing again asking that you consider my request for the return of my American passport.

I desire to return to the United States, that is if we could come to some agreement concerning the dropping of any legal proceedings against me. If so, then I would be free to ask the Russian authorities to allow me to leave. If I could show them my American passport, I am of the opinion they would give me an exit visa.

They have at no time insisted that I take Russian citizenship. I am living here with non-permanent type papers for a foreigner.

I cannot leave Minsk without permission, therefore I am writing rather than calling in person.

I hope that in recalling the responsibility I have to America that you remember yours in doing everything you can to help me since I am an American citizen.

Sincerely,
Lee Harvey Oswald

Apparently, the letter of December 1960 to which he refers was never received.

The Embassy replied to Oswald's letter of February suggesting that he come personally to the Embassy for an interview on which to base a decision concerning the status of his American citizenship. In reply to the Embassy's letter, Oswald wrote on March 22, 1961 that he found it inconvenient to come to Moscow for the sole purpose of an interview since he would have to apply for permission from the authorities in Minsk in order to travel to Moscow for such an interview.

On March 24, 1961, the Embassy wrote again to Oswald concerning an interview. The Embassy's letter stated in pertinent part:

The Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs has always assured the Embassy that it interposes no objections or obstacles to visits to the Embassy on the part of American citizens in the Soviet Union. As stated in our previous letter a final determination of your present American citizenship status can only be made on the basis of a personal interview. Certain statements of legal force relating to your citizenship status should be made under oath in the presence of a consular officer . . .

You may wish to present this letter to the authorities in Minsk in connection with your application for permission to travel to Moscow.

On May 25, 1961, the Embassy in Moscow received another letter from Oswald:

Dear Sirs:

In regards to your letter of March 24. I understand the reasons for the necessity of a personal interview at the Embassy, however, I wish to make it clear that I am asking not only for the right to return to the United States, but also for full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case. I made that clear from my first letter, although nothing has been said, even vaguely, concerning this in my correspondence with the Embassy. Unless you honestly think that this condition can be met, I see no reason for a continuance of our correspondence. Instead, I shall endeavour to use my relatives in the United States, to see about getting something done in Washington.

As for coming to Moscow, this would have to be on my own initiative and I do not care to take the risk of getting into a awkward situation unless I think it worthwhile. Also, since my last letter I have gotten married.

My wife is Russian, born in Leningrad, she has no parents living, and is quite willing to leave the Soviet Union with me and live in the United States.

I would not leave here without my wife so arrangements would have to be made for her to leave at the same time as I do.

The marriage stamp was placed on my present passport, after some trouble with the authorities, so my status as far as the USSR is concerned, is the same as before, that is, "without citizenship".

So with this extra complication I suggest you do some checking up before advising me further.

I believe I have spoken frankly in this letter, I hope you do the same in your next letter.

Sincerely yours,
Lee Harvey Oswald

On July 8, 1961, Oswald appeared at the Embassy on his own initiative. He executed under oath an application for the renewal of a passport, and in connection with that application he executed a questionnaire relating to possible expatriating acts. In that questionnaire he stated inter alia that he was not considered a national of the U.S.S.R. by the U.S.S.R.; that he had never sought or obtained registration as a national of a foreign country, and that he had never taken an oath or affirmation or other form of declaration of allegiance to a foreign state. In support of these statements Oswald presented his Soviet document of residence on which, he stated, his nationality was listed as American. The reporting officer at the Embassy noted that the document was a "document of residence for persons without citizenship".

At the July 8 interview, according to the reporting despatch, Oswald stated that despite the wording of the statement which he handed to the Embassy on October 31, 1959, he never in fact actually applied for Soviet citizenship. His application at that time was for permission to remain in the Soviet Union and for a temporary extension of his tourist visa pending outcome of his request. This application, according to Oswald, contained no reference to Soviet citizenship, nor did he subsequently make any application for Soviet citizenship.

The reporting officer noted that "20 months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He stated frankly that he learned a hard lesson the hard way and that he had been completely relieved about his illusions about the Soviet Union. . . . Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the Embassy appears to have left him."

Oswald stated that he intended to institute an application for an exit visa immediately upon his return to Minsk. The Embassy returned his American passport to him for use in connection with the exit visa application. The passport was stamped valid for direct return to the United States only. On August 18, 1961, the Department of State sent a memorandum to Embassy Moscow concurring in the conclusion of the Embassy that "there is no available information and/or evidence to show that Mr. Oswald was expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the U.S."

Oswald begins inquiries concerning a visa for his Russian wife

At approximately the same time as he had discussed his own status with the consular officer in Moscow (July 1961), Oswald inquired about a visa for his wife to accompany him to the United States. On July 11, 1961, he executed a visa petition under Section 205 of the Immigration and Nationality Act relating to non-quota status for Marina Nicholaevna Oswald as the spouse of an American citizen. This petition, together with a check for $10.00 and a copy of a Soviet marriage certificate showing Oswald's marriage on April 30, 1961, was submitted to the Department by Embassy Moscow on August 28, 1961.

At the same time the Embassy requested a "security advisory opinion" on Mrs. Oswald, with a recommendation that the opinion be favorable and that the petition be approved. The memorandum from the Embassy in Moscow gave the pertinent biographic information about Mrs. Oswald and stated that she was employed as a laboratory assistant in a hospital in Minsk. The Embassy reported that in connection with this employment Mrs. Oswald was a member of the Soviet Trade Union for Medical Workers. The Embassy noted that "such membership is routinely considered to be involuntary" under the section of the Immigration and Nationality Act exempting certain involuntary membership in communist or communist-front organizations from the provisions of inadmissibility contained in the Act (Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i)).

Upon receipt of the request from Embassy Moscow of August 28, the Department initiated a check on Mrs. Oswald with the CIA, the FBI, the Department's own Office of Security, Division of Biographic Intelligence and, since the nationality of the husband was relevant to the petition, the Department's Passport Office. The name checks turned up certain information concerning Lee Oswald but no information indicating a different conclusion from that contained in the Embassy memorandum of August 28. Accordingly, on October 3, the Department cabled to Moscow that available information concerning the applicant established her eligibility under Section 212(a)(28(I)(1) of the Act. The Department also forwarded the petition for non-quota status, together with the check, to the District Director of the Immigration and Naturalisation Service in Texas by letter dated October 6, 1961.

Correspondence between Oswald and Moscow Embassy
July 1961 - February 1962

Oswald wrote four letters to the Embassy in Moscow from July to October 1961. He described certain "unusual and crude attempts on his wife at her place of work, apparently on the basis that she was seeking to leave the country". He enclosed copies of his wedding certificate and the birth certificate of his wife; he asked for clarification of the notation on his passport that it was valid only for direct travel to the United States; and he requested the United States Embassy to institute an official inquiry on his behalf in connection with the delay in issuance of an exit visa to him by the Soviet authorities. The Embassy in Moscow replied to Oswald by saying that the question of passport renewal could be discussed only in person at the Embassy, that the petition concerning his wife's status had not yet been approved, and that the Embassy had no way of influencing Soviet action on exit visas.

On November 1, Oswald again wrote to the American Embassy in Moscow stating that his document of residence was good until January 4, 1962.

He wrote that the Soviet officials had said to him that if he had not received an exit visa by the time his document of residence expired, this document would be extended. Oswald expressed his opinion that extension of that document without his consent or request would be unlawful, and asked whether the American Embassy supported this view. In reply the Embassy in Moscow wrote on November 13 that the Soviet document which he had was the type issued to persons considered by the Soviet authorities to have no citizenship and not the type issued to individuals acknowledged to be foreigners. "Meanwhile", the Embassy continued, "you continued retention of your present Soviet passport or an extension thereof, does not prejudice in any way your claim to American citizenship."*

Oswald was not satisfied with that reply and renewed his question by letter to the Embassy of December 1, 1961. On December 14 the Embassy again wrote to Oswald that "since you are not considered a Soviet citizen by the authorities in this country, you are entitled to receive a Soviet exit visa upon presentation of a valid foreign national passport. Regarding the latter, as we have indicated to you before, you can take up the matter of renewing your expired American passport upon your next personal appearance at the Embassy."

* The word "passport" here refers to the identification document required of all persons resident in the Soviet Union, and not to a passport in the American sense of the word.

Oswald wrote back on December 27 inquiring how long the processing of his passport would take. He said that <sup>if</sup> a delay could be expected he would make a special trip to Moscow for the purpose of his passport application, but that he preferred to make a single trip at the time his wife's visa application came up. The Embassy replied on January 5, 1962, that the processing of his wife's visa application would still take some time but that "a passport could normally be extended at the Embassy within a single full work day if we are informed of your arrival in advance. Following issuance, the passport will be yours to keep until completion of your travel."

On January 5 Oswald wrote again to the Embassy to say that his document of residence in the U.S.S.R. had been extended until July 5, 1962. He said also that permission for exit visas for himself and his wife had been granted by the Soviet authorities but that his own exit visa would be good for 45 days only. He added that he would like to leave as soon as all documents were finished since there would be an addition to the family in March. Finally, Oswald said, "I would like to make arrangements for a loan from the Embassy or some organization for part of the plane fares. Please look into this and notify me." The Embassy replied on January 15, 1962 that several documents connected with Mrs. Oswald's immigrant visa application were still lacking and that in view of these circumstances Oswald might wish to reconsider his decision to defer his departure until Mrs. Oswald's documentation was complete. The Embassy letter indicated that it might be easier to provide the necessary evidence that Mrs. Oswald would not become a public charge if Oswald were already in the United States. As to the inquiry concerning a loan, the Embassy indicated that this could be discussed when he appeared at the Embassy.

Oswald replied on January 16, "I certainly will not consider going to the United States alone for any reason, particularly since it appears my passport will be confiscated upon my arrival in the United States." Oswald enclosed with that letter an affidavit of support in Russian executed before a Soviet notary in Minsk. The Embassy replied on January 24 stating that there was considerable doubt about the adequacies of the affidavit and other documentation which Oswald had sent to meet the provisions of United States immigration law. The Embassy letter, signed by the American Consul in Moscow, went on, "I cannot urge you strongly enough to obtain a support affidavit from a close relative in the United States in order to insure that your wife will be able to travel with you." Oswald never furnished such affidavit of support.

In answer to another letter from Oswald dated January 23, 1962, the Embassy wrote to him on January 31 that it was not yet in a position to issue a visa to Mrs. Oswald for two reasons: First, because an approved visa petition had not yet been received from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and second, because it was not yet clear that the affidavit of support which he had submitted met the public charge provisions of the immigration law. The Embassy said it "is making every effort to complete action on your wife's visa application as soon as possible ..." but that it was unlikely that the visa could be issued in time to permit her to travel to the United States before the child was born.

Oswald's Loan Application - January-March 1962

The Embassy had sent a memorandum to the Department on January 16, 1962 referring to some of the above correspondence, and requesting advice concerning authorization to make a loan for air travel to Mr. and Mrs. Oswald under the authority contained in the Foreign Service Manual. The Department wrote to Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, in Fort Worth, Texas, stating that Oswald had reported that he had received permission from the Soviet authorities to leave, but that he did not have the necessary funds. In its letter to Mrs. Oswald the Department said that it would arrange to transmit funds supplied by her through official channels in order to arrange for transportation for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Oswald. At the same time the Department got in touch by telephone with the International Rescue Committee in New York to find out if that organization was in a position to furnish funds for the travel of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald from the Soviet Union. The International Rescue Committee replied that it normally did not approve funds in this kind of case but only in the case of refugees.

On January 26 Senator John G. Tower of Texas wrote to the Department of State enclosing correspondence he had received from Lee H. Oswald relating to efforts on his behalf to return to the United States along with his wife. Senator Tower said, "Quite obviously his [Oswald's] inquiry should have been addressed to the Executive branch. For this reason I am forwarding this copy to you for whatever action the Department would consider appropriate." On February 9 the Department wrote to Senator Tower returning the letters he had sent in, and enclosing copies of certain correspondence between Embassy Moscow and Oswald and offering to keep the Senator informed of further developments if he should wish.

On February 1, 1962 the Department wrote to Mrs. Oswald that her son had indicated that he might be able to defray part of the cost of travel. The Department stated it hoped she would be able to raise the remainder of the necessary funds possibly by a loan from a bank or from friends or relatives. The Department discouraged her suggestion that her son's story be made public with an appeal for help. On February 2 the Department cabled the Embassy in Moscow that the loan was not approved pending receipt by the Embassy of an application in accordance with the Foreign Service Manual.

On February 6, the Embassy in Moscow addressed a letter to Oswald with a list of the information necessary to complete an application for a loan. On February 24, 1962, Oswald wrote to the Embassy enclosing answers to the questions listed in the Embassy's letter. He submitted also an "affirmation" in which he solemnly declared that he was a loyal U. S. national, that he had not lost his citizenship and that all the statements in this application are true.

On March 6 Embassy Moscow requested authorization to make the loan to Oswald for transportation to the United States. The Embassy telegram states that Oswald had estimated that transportation for him and his family would cost $800, while the Embassy's estimate was $700. Oswald stated that he could pay $200. On March 7 the Department replied that a loan for Oswald up to $500 was authorized.

Processing of Mrs. Oswald's Visa - February-May 1962

On February 28, 1962 the District Director, Immigration and Naturalization Service in San Antonio, Texas, advised the Department and also Oswald directly, that the petition for non-quota immigrant status of Mrs. Oswald had been approved. The District Director advised the Department that the waiver of sanctions imposed under section 243(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act relating to issuance of immigrant visas in the Soviet Union was not authorized.

The Department advised Embassy Moscow of this decision. The Department instructed the Embassy that if Oswald inquired about the possibility of a waiver of the section 243(g) sanction, "he may be informed that full and complete consideration was given to that possibility and it was determined that the sanction should not be waived." However, the Office of Soviet Affairs in the Department urged reconsideration of the 243(g) decision and addressed memoranda to that effect to the Visa Office, and to the Acting Administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs. Soviet Affairs stated that Oswald was an American citizen who defected from the United States and decided to reside permanently in the Soviet Union. Although he made known to the Embassy his original intention to renounce his American citizenship, he never completed the formalities and after due consideration the Passport Office made the decision that Oswald was still an American citizen. It added that:

SOV believes it is in the interest of the US to get Lee Harvey Oswald and his family out of the Soviet Union and on their way to this country as soon as possible. An unstable character, whose actions are entirely unpredictable, Oswald may well refuse to leave the USSR or subsequently attempt to return there if we should make it impossible for him to be accompanied from Moscow by his wife and child.

Such action on our part also would permit the Soviet Government to argue that, although it had issued an exit visa to Mrs. Oswald to prevent the separation of a family, the United States Government had imposed a forced separation by refusing to issue her a visa. Obviously, this would weaken our Embassy's position in encouraging positive Soviet action in other cases involving Soviet citizen relatives of US citizens.

The Soviet Affairs office also related the Oswald case to the general policy of the Department to seek to obtain permission from the Soviets for persons desiring to leave the Soviet Union in order to be with their close relatives who are American citizens.

Accordingly, the Department telegraphed Embassy Moscow on March 27, 1962, to withhold action on its memorandum of March 9. On the same date the Acting Administrator of the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs wrote to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization requesting reconsideration of the decision to refuse to authorize issuance of an immigrant visa in Moscow to Mrs. Oswald. The Department's letter read in pertinent part as follows:

I appreciate the difficulty this case presents for your Service, because of Mr. Oswald's background, and the fact that granting a waiver of the sanction makes it appear that this Government is assisting a person who is not altogether entitled to such assistance. However, if the Embassy at Moscow is unable to issue Mrs. Oswald a visa, it would appear that she and indirectly the Oswald's newborn child are being punished for Mr. Oswald's earlier indiscretions. I might also point out that this Government has advanced Mr. Oswald a loan of $500.00 for repatriation.

More important, however, is the possibility that if Mrs. Oswald is not issued a visa by the Embassy, the Soviet Government will be in a position to claim that it has done all it can to prevent the separation of the family by issuing Mrs. Oswald the required exit permission, but that this Government has refused to issue her a visa, thus preventing her from accompanying her husband and child. This would weaken the Embassy's attempts to encourage positive action by the Soviet authorities in other cases involving Soviet relatives of United States citizens.

Because of these considerations and because I believe it is in the best interests of the United States to have Mr. Oswald depart from the Soviet Union as soon as possible, I request that the Section 243(g) sanction be waived in Mrs. Oswald's case.

On May 4 Embassy Moscow telegraphed the Department to urge a decision on the Section 243(g) waiver as soon as possible. The Embassy reported that Oswald knew the petition for non-quota status for his wife had been granted but that the question under Section 243(g) had not been discussed with him because of the possibility of reconsideration. The State Department thereupon urged the Immigration and Naturalization Service to reach its decision as soon as it could.

On May 9 the Deputy Associate Commissioner, Travel Control, of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, wrote to the Department that, in view of the strong representations made in the State Department's letter of March 27, the sanctions imposed pursuant to Section 243(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act were waived on behalf of Mrs. Oswald. This decision was immediately communicated to the Embassy in Moscow and by the Embassy to Oswald.

Oswald's Passport Renewed and He Departs from the Soviet Union - May - June 1962

On May 24, 1962, Oswald executed an application for renewal of his U. S. passport. The passport renewal was granted on the same day apparently pursuant to the authorization given by the Department in its memorandum of August 18, 1961. In accordance with that memorandum the passport, which was already stamped "valid only for direct return to the United States", was renewed for 30 days only. On May 31st Embassy Moscow reported that the Oswalds would leave Moscow on June 1. In accordance with the loan authorization the Embassy paid for steamship tickets on the S/S Maadam for Oswald, his wife and their child costing a total of $418.00 and arranged that the tickets be delivered in

Rotterdam. The Embassy also paid a portion of the cost of rail tickets for the Oswalds from Moscow to Rotterdam in the amount of $17.71.

Oswald executed a promisory note at the Embassy in Moscow dated June 1, 1962 for a total of $435.71.

Oswald in the United States - June 1962 - June 1963

The Oswalds arrived in New York on June 13, 1962. The Department had previously notified the FBI of the time and place of Oswald's arrival. This was in line with the practice followed throughout the Oswald case, as in other "defector" cases, whereby the State Department regularly informed the FBI of all developments.

The Oswalds apparently proceeded immediately to Texas. From August 13, 1962, through January 20, 1963, the Department received seven payments on the loan. The payments in August, September and October, in the amounts of $10.00, $9.71 and $10.00 were mailed in Fort Worth, Texas, and the payment<sup>of $10.00</sup> in November was mailed in Dallas. On December 11 the Department received payment of $190 in two money orders mailed in Dallas. Another payment of $100 was received on January 9, again by money order from Dallas. The final payment of $106 was received on January 29, 1963, also from Dallas. Thus, Oswald repaid the Embassy loan in full over a period of seven months.

The Department did not again hear from Oswald until June 24, 1963, when he applied at the passport agency in New Orleans for a new passport.

In his application he listed his address as a post-office box in New Orleans and listed his aunt, Lilian Murett, of New Orleans as the person to notify in the event of death or accident. Oswald listed "tourist" as the purpose of his trip. He said he proposed to depart by ship from New Orleans and to stay abroad from three months to one year. He listed England, France, Germany, Holland, USSR, Finland, Italy and Poland as countries to be visited. In answer to the clerk's question he stated that his occupation was photographer. The passport agency in New Orleans sent a telex to the Department, as it does on all passport applications, requesting name checks of the applicant. Since Oswald's name did not appear on the "Lookout Card" index file, the Passport Office in Washington telegraphed its approval to the agency in New Orleans, and Oswald received a new passport on June 25, 1963.

MEMORANDUM

LEE HARVEY OSWALD -- PASSPORTS

Oswald was issued a passport on September 10, 1959, in Los Angeles. Oswald turned this passport in to the American Embassy in Moscow in October, 1959, and it was returned to him in July, 1961. This passport was renewed for thirty days on May 24, 1962, while he was in Moscow. He received a new passport on June 25, 1963, in New Orleans. This memorandum analyzes the rules and procedures governing the issuance of passports and their application in Oswald's case.

The Secretary of State is empowered to issue and renew passports under 22 U.S.C. § 211a, and in the absence of statutory or other authority he cannot refuse to do so upon request. Passports can, of course, only be issued to persons holding allegiance to the United States. 22 U.S.C. § 212. Furthermore, Section 6 of the Internal Security Act prohibits the issuance of a passport to an individual if the issuing officer knows or has "reason to believe" he is a member of the Communist Party of the United States.

The Department's regulations provide that passports shall be refused to a person when it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that his activities abroad would:

"(a) Violate the laws of the United States; (b) be prejudicial to the orderly conduct of foreign relations; or (c) otherwise be prejudicial to the interests of the United States." 22 C.F.R. § 51.136

I. PROCEDURES

I. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING PASSPORT APPLICATIONS

A. General

The following steps are taken prior to the issuance of every passport:

1. If the application is received by a Clerk of Court, it is forwarded to the Passport Office in Washington or to a local Passport Agency for adjudication.

2. When an application is received by the Passport Office or a Passport Agency, an adjudicator makes a determination whether the applicant is a United States citizen.

3. Passport Agencies forward to the Passport Office every applicant's name and date and place of birth by wire (TWX). The name of every passport applicant is checked against a "lookout file" in the Passport Office. If no "lookout card" is found for an applicant, the Passport Office authorizes the Agency by TWX to issue the passport (or the passport is issued by the Passport Office if the application was made in Washington). The procedures regarding the "lookout file" are described below:

4. If a Passport Agency, or the Passport Office, believes that a case may present a special problem, the applicant's file, if any, is referred to an appropriate division in the Passport Office.

B. Passport

B. Passport Office "Lookout File"

An IBM card file is maintained in the Passport Office containing the name, place of birth, and date of birth of approximately 250,000 individuals about whom the Passport Office has received information indicating that they may not be eligible or entitled to receive a passport. Each "lookout card" also indicates the date and reason for its preparation. These reasons are divided into 22 separate categories, such as loss of citizenship, passport fraud, parental objection to the issuance of a passport to a minor child, possible membership in the Communist Party of the United States, and non-payment of repatriation loans.

Unless a "lookout card" has been prepared on an individual, the Passport Office approves his application immediately, provided that he had properly completed the application, shown proof of his United States citizenship and paid the fee. This system enables the Passport Office to authorize issuance of passports to more than 99% of all applicants in a matter of hours.

Approximately 90% to 95% of the "lookout cards" are prepared because the individuals concerned may have lost their United States citizenship. These cards are included in the file at the direction of the division in the Passport Office which handles loss of nationality issues. Cards in the remaining categories are prepared at the direction of other divisions within the Passport Office, other offices within the State Department, and other agencies of the Federal Government. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, for example, requests the addition of several hundred cards each year. Similarly, the National Security Agency, the Office of Naval Intelligence and the Central Intelligence Agency each request the addition of cards. In all cases, these requests are complied with, and the agencies concerned are notified when any of the individuals in question apply for a passport.

II. PASSPORTS GRANTED TO OSWALD

A. September 10, 1959 - Oswald applied for a passport on September 9, 1959 at the Los Angeles Passport Agency. His application stated that the purpose of his trip was to attend the college of Albert Schweitzer, Ghor, Switzerland, and the University of Turku, Turku, Finland, and to visit other countries as a tourist. He listed these other countries as follows: Cuba, Dominican Republic, England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Finland, and Russia. At that time, the Department had no file on Oswald and no evidence that indicated any grounds for denial, and a passport valid for two years was routinely issued to him on September 10, 1959. It will be recalled that this action coincided with the time of his honorable discharge from active service in the Marine Corps.

Oswald turned this passport over to a United States consular officer in Moscow on October 31, 1959, when he stated that he wished to renounce his United States citizenship. (See separate memorandum, "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Expatriation")

B. May 24, 1962 - On July 10, 1961 Oswald executed an application for a renewal of his passport before a United States consular officer in the American Embassy in Moscow in connection with his efforts to return to the United States. At the same time he filled out a questionnaire used by the Passport Office to determine whether an individual has expatriated himself.

A United States consular officer stamped Oswald's passport as valid for direct return to the United States only and returned it to him on July 10 so that he could apply for a Soviet exit visa. The Embassy reported at the time that:

"The possession of a foreign passport or similar travel document is typically a prerequisite to being permitted to file an application for a Soviet exit visa and it was felt that there was little prospect that Oswald could accomplish anything with the Soviet officials concerned unless he displayed his American passport." (Foreign Service Despatch dated July 11, 1961, from Embassy in Moscow to the Department of State)

Oswald had told the Moscow Embassy that he would not leave the U.S.S.R. without his wife and since there was virtually no chance that both he and his wife could have obtained exit visas prior to September 10, 1961 when his passport expired, the Embassy apparently felt that there was little chance that he could have used the passport to travel. The Embassy added in the Despatch referred to above that:

"It is not our intention to renew it without the Department's prior approval of the enclosed renewal application, and then only upon evidence of a present need for the renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States."

A "lookout card"

A "lookout card" was probably prepared on Oswald on the ground that he might have expatriated himself, but this cannot be determined with certainty and no such card is now in the "lookout file". A memorandum dated March 28, 1960 from the Department to the Embassy in Moscow states that a card was prepared, and the customary forms dated March 25, 1960 were completed directing the preparation of a card. The usual notation on such forms indicating filing of a "lookout card" was not made, however, nor was a notation placed on the slip that the card was withdrawn, also a usual practice.

On the basis of the questionnaire which Oswald had filled out, and after a review of his file, the Passport Office determined that he had not expatriated himself. (See separate memorandum, "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Expatriation"). On August 18, 1961 the Department authorized the Embassy in Moscow to renew his passport, for direct return to the United States only. If a "lookout card" was prepared on Oswald, on the ground of possible expatriation, it was probably removed at that time.

Oswald made a new application for renewal of a passport on May 24, 1962, and his passport was renewed the same day, but only for thirty days. Apparently this was done on the basis of the Department's earlier authorization. As previously noted, the Embassy had restricted Oswald's passport to use for direct return to the United States. And, in fact, Oswald did return directly to the United States.

C. June 25, 1963 - Oswald applied for a new passport on June 24, 1963 at the Passport Office in New Orleans, Louisiana. His application indicates that his previous passport was cancelled and returned to him.

His application states that he intended to stay abroad for from three months to one year and to visit England, France, Germany, Holland, USSR, Finland, Italy and Poland.

As already noted, the Department had determined that Oswald had not expatriated himself in August 1961 in connection with his application for renewal of his passport in May 1962. There was no indication in the reports on Oswald sent to the Department by the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he was a member of the Communist Party. There is a "lookout card" category for individuals whose "actions do not reflect to the credit of the United States abroad," although not more than ten cards in this category are prepared each year. There was no request from any other agency for the preparation of a "lookout card" for this or any other reason after 1960.

According to the Department's procedures, a "lookout card" should have been prepared when Oswald received a repatriation loan in June 1962 (see separate memorandum, "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Repatriation Loan"), and this card would not have been removed from the file until the loan was repaid. Normally, an individual's passport file would indicate if such a "lookout card" was prepared and there is no such indication in Oswald's passport file. In fact, however, his repatriation loan was repaid on January 29, 1963, five months prior to his application for a new passport.

For these reasons, no card on Oswald was in the "lookout file."

The New Orleans Passport Agency reported by TWX to the Department on June 24, 1963, that Oswald had applied for a passport. The "lookout file" was checked, no card was found, and the Department authorized the Agency to issue the passport on June 25, 1963, also by TWX. A passport was issued to Oswald on the same day.

MEMORANDUM

LEE HARVEY OSWALD -- EXPATRIATION

On October 31, 1959, Oswald appeared at the American Embassy in Moscow, handed over his United States passport to a consular officer, Mr. Richard E. Snyder, and stated to the officer that he wished to renounce his United States citizenship and that he had applied for Soviet citizenship.

The Department determined in August 1961, that Oswald had not expatriated himself. This memorandum considers the issues involved in that determination.

A United States citizen may lose his nationality by performing any one of the expatriating acts described in the subsections to Section 349(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952. Only three of these subsections have any relevance in this case.

A. Oswald's Attempt to Renounce Citizenship -- Section 349(a)(6) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

Section 349(a)(6) provides that a United States national shall lose his nationality by:

"making a formal renunciation of nationality before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in a foreign state, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State;"

In accordance with this statute, the Secretary has set forth the requisite form and procedure which are embodied in 22 C.F.R.

section 50.1,

Sections 50.1, 50.2, and 8 Foreign Affairs Manual Section 225.6 (Exhibit). These regulations provide that four copies of the renunciation form are to be executed, and the original and one copy sent to the Department. After the Department has approved the form it advises the appropriate consular officer who may then furnish a copy of the form to the person to whom it relates.

Oswald gave Mr. Snyder the following signed, undated, handwritten statement:

"I Lee Harvey Oswald do hereby request that my present citizenship in the United States of America be revoked.

"I have entered the Soviet Union for the express purpose of applying for citizenship in the Soviet Union, through the means of naturalization.

"My request for citizenship is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R.

"I take these steps for political reasons. My request for the revoking of my American citizenship is made only after the longest and most serious considerations.

"I affirm that my allegiance is to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

s/ Lee H. Oswald"

Oswald was told by Mr. Snyder that he would have to come back on a later date to complete these forms. The Department officer who made this decision stated that he told

told Oswald that the Embassy was then closed and that the preparation of the documents would take some time, but that Oswald could accomplish his renunciation the following day, or at any other time he appeared when the Embassy was open. Mr. Snyder has stated in response to a recent inquiry by the Department that his real reason for this action was that:

"in my judgment common sense and sound professional practice advise against immediate action on requests for renunciation of citizenship where such action by consul might in effect abet individual acting out of sudden quixotic or irrational impulse or other transient influence to commit irrevocable act of serious consequence. This /is/ a particular consideration /in/ Moscow which /is a/ magnet for certain defection-prone quixotic types of uncertain mentality and doubtful emotional stability. /A/ further consideration is /the/ potential political consequences which can result from renunciation by such /a/ person not possessing permanent Soviet resident status. (Earlier Petrulli case illustrates points.)"

This advice

This advice by the consular officer was consistent with the Department's policy that consular officers are to make every effort to insure that individuals stating a desire to renounce their citizenship are sane and understand the seriousness and irrevocability of the act. Consular officers are generally instructed along these lines in orientation courses. It is common practice to delay accepting renunciation declarations in order to insure that the individual is not acting on a sudden impulse which he would later regret.

As noted in the above statement, the Moscow Embassy's experience with the case of Nicholas Petrulli illustrates the problems that can occur if such care is not taken. Mr. Petrulli executed an oath of renunciation of his United States citizenship on September 3, 1959, at the American Embassy in Moscow, less than two months before Oswald came into the Embassy. Later he attempted to repudiate this act. Furthermore, after his renunciation, an investigation of his medical background conducted in the United States indicated that he was not legally competent. On this basis the Department disapproved his loss of nationality certificate on October 13, 1959. This event was much in the mind of everyone in Moscow in dealing with Oswald.

On

On November 3, 1959, Oswald wrote to the American Embassy in Moscow requesting "that my present United States citizenship be revoked." In his letter he referred to his appearance at the Embassy on October 31 "for the purpose of signing the formal papers to this effect. This legal right was refused at that time." He stated that he wished to "protest this action," and that "my application requesting that I be considered for citizenship in the Soviet Union is now pending before the Supreme Soviet of the USSR. In the event of acceptance, I will request my government to lodge a formal protest regarding this incident." On November 6, 1959, the Department replied to Oswald's letter as follows:

"As you were informed at the time of your visit to the Embassy on October 31, 1959, it is a principle of the American Government that the right of expatriation is a natural and inherent right of any person and that the manner prescribed by law for renunciation of American citizenship is the execution of oath before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States in the established form.

"You are again informed that you may appear at the Embassy at any time during normal business hours and request that the Embassy prepare the necessary documents for renunciation of citizenship. The Embassy hours are as follows: 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday; 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday."

The Embassy

The Embassy was not contacted further by Oswald concerning this matter. It is evident that he did not expatriate himself under Section 349(a)(6) because he did not make "a formal renunciation of nationality before a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States" in a form 'prescribed by the Secretary of State.'

B. Naturalization In A Foreign State -- Section 349(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

Section 349(a)(1) provides that a United States citizen shall lose his nationality by:

'obtaining naturalization in a foreign state upon his own application, upon an application filed in his behalf by a parent, guardian, or duly authorized agent, or through the naturalization of a parent having legal custody of such person:'

Oswald wrote in the statement he delivered to Mr. Snyder on October 31, 1959 that he had applied for Soviet citizenship, although he later denied this. (Despatch dated July 11, 1961, from the American Embassy, Moscow, to the Department.) In 1961 he showed a United States consular officer a document issued by the Moscow City Government on January 14, 1960, which indicated that he never was declared a Soviet citizen.* There was, therefore, no basis on which a determination could have been made that Oswald expatriated himself under Section 349(a)(1).

C. Allegiance to a Foreign State -- Section 349(a)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

Section 349(a)(2) provides that a United States citizen shall lose his nationality by:

"taking an oath or making an affirmation or other formal declaration of allegiance to a foreign state or a political subdivision thereof;"

In the signed statement which Oswald delivered to the American Embassy in Moscow on October 31, 1959, he wrote:

"I affirm

*After the assassination of President Kennedy, an official of the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs stated to an officer of the American Embassy in Moscow that Soviet authorities had considered Oswald's application for Soviet citizenship, but had decided not to approve it because Oswald seemed unstable.

It might be argued that this statement is an "affirmation, or other formal declaration of allegiance to a foreign state" within the meaning of Section 349(a)(2). The Department of State has consistently held, however, that:

"for loss of nationality to result from taking an oath of allegiance to a foreign state, the oath must be one 'which is prescribed by law or by regulations having the force of law' and must be taken before a competent official of the government concerned." (III Hackworth Digest of International Law 218 (1942))

This position is supported by In Re Bautista's Petition, 183 F. Supp. 271 (D.C. Guam, 1960) in which the court held that petitioner's oath of allegiance to the Republic of the Philippines did not expatriate him because it was taken before a notary public and not an official of the Republic of the Philippines.

Similarly, the Board of Immigration Appeals held In the Matter of L-----, 1 Dec. Imm. and Nat. Laws 317 (1942), that the following affirmation did not expatriate the declarant:

"I do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty, King George VI, his heirs and successors, according to law. So help me God." Id. at 318.

The Board

The Board held that the individual involved had not expatriated himself because the affirmation was:

"not made to the British Crown in accordance with any law or regulation of the British Government. On the contrary, the obligation was between the appellant on the one hand and a private employer on the other." Id. at 320.

The Board further held that:

"An oath or formal declaration mentioned by the statute must mean not only the giving of the oath by the individual but the acceptance of that oath by the foreign state. An oath of allegiance has no real significance unless the oath be made to the state and accepted by the state. Such acceptance on the part of the state must be made in accordance with the laws of that state." Id. at 320.

Those cases in which an individual has been held to have expatriated himself have involved an oath, declaration, or affirmation before "a competent official of the government concerned" and were "prescribed by law or by regulations having the force of law."

In McC Campbell v.

In McCampbell v. McCampbell, 13 F.Supp. 847 (D.C.W.D. Ky. 1936), for example, the court held that the following oath, taken upon voluntarily joining the British Army, worked an expatriation under an earlier but substantially similar version of Section 349(a)(2):

"I . . . do make oath that I will be faithful and bear allegiance to His Majesty, King . . . his heirs and successors, and that I will, as in duty bound, honestly and faithfully defend his Majesty, his heirs and successors, his person, crown, and dignity against all enemies, and will observe and obey all orders of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and all of the Generals and officers set over me, so help me, God." Id. at 848.

Similarly, in Reaume v. United States, 124 F.Supp. 851, 852 (D.C.E.D. Mich. 1954), the Court held that the following declaration made upon voluntarily entering the Royal Canadian Navy expatriated the individual who made it under the same statute:

"I . . . do sincerely promise and swear (or solemnly declare) that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty."

Furthermore, even apart from the requirement that an oath, declaration, or affirmation must, to result in expatriation, be made before "a competent official of the government concerned concerned' and be "prescribed by law or by regulation having the force of law," it has been held the oath, declaration, or affirmation must also place

"the person taking it in complete subjection to the state to which it is taken, at least for the period of the contract, so that it is impossible for him to perform the obligations of citizenship to this country."

Jalbuena v. Dulles, 254 F.2d 379, 381 n.2 (3d Cir. 1958), quoting Secretary of State Hughes, III Hackworth, Digest of International Law 219-20 (1942); adopted in In Re Bautista's Petition, supra, at 275. Oswald's statement could not reasonably be interpreted to have placed him "in complete subjection to" the U.S.S.R.

For these reasons, it could not be held that Oswald expatriated himself under Section 349(a)(2) by his October 31, 1959 statement, and the Department has no evidence that he made any other oath or declaration of allegiance to the U.S.S.R.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD -- ISSUANCE OF VISA TO WIFE, MRS. MARINA NICHOLAEVNA OSWALD

Sometime in May 1962 the United States Consulate in Moscow issued a non-quota immigrant visa to Mrs. Oswald. Shortly thereafter she accompanied Lee Oswald to the United States, together with their infant daughter. The Oswald family arrived in New York on June 13, 1962. There is no question that Mrs. Oswald, as the wife of a United States citizen, was entitled to non-quota status under Section 205 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. However, issuance of an immigrant visa to Mrs. Oswald in Moscow required determinations under two other provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act -- Section 212(a)(28), which provides that aliens who are members of or affiliated with communist organizations are inadmissible; and Section 243(g), prohibiting the issuance of immigrant visas by Consuls in the territory of countries which have refused to accept the return of persons sought to be deported from the United States. The procedures governing these determinations are discussed in this memorandum.

1. Section 212(a)(28) - Membership in a Communist Organization

When the visa application of Mrs. Marina N. Oswald was received, the State Department ran a file check on her, as it does on all visa applicants, with the CIA, the FBI and the Department's Security Office, Division of Biographic Intelligence and the Passport Office. All of these reports were negative on the question raised by section 212(a)(28).

The only information pertinent to section 212(a)(28) was furnished by Embassy Moscow, namely that Mrs. Oswald had since 1957 been a member of the Soviet Trade Union for Medical Workers. Mrs. Oswald had graduated from the Pharmaceutical Technical Institute in Leningrad in 1959, and since her graduation lived in Minsk, where she was employed as a laboratory assistant in the Klinincheskaya Hospital. Membership in the Trade Union for Medical Workers was apparently required for her employment in the hospital. As stated in the Operations Memorandum from Embassy Moscow to the Department, dated August 28, 1961, "such membership is routinely considered to be involuntary under section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Act".

Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act provides in pertinent part that:

any alien who is within any of the classes described in subparagraphs (B), (C), (D), (E), (F), (G), and (H) of Section 212(a)(28) because of membership in or affiliation with a party or organization or a section, subsidiary, branch, affiliate, or subdivision thereof, may, if not otherwise ineligible, be issued a visa if such alien establishes to the satisfaction of the consular officer when applying for a visa and the consular officer finds that (1) such membership or affiliation is or was involuntary, or is or was solely when under sixteen years of age, by operation of law, or for purposes of obtaining employment, food rations, or other essentials of living and where necessary for such purposes ...

Embassy Moscow, with the concurrence of the Department, found that Mrs. Oswald's membership in the Medical Workers Union came under the exception in Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i). This finding is consistent with a long-standing interpretation concurred in by the State and Justice Departments that membership in a professional organization or trade union behind the Iron Curtain is considered involuntary unless the membership is accompanied by some indication of voluntariness, such as active participation in the organization's activities or holding an office in the organization. State-Justice agreement on this interpretation is reflected in a record of formal conference between the Visa Office and the Immigration and Naturalization Service on July 14, 1955. That interpretation is currently embodied in the Confidential Appendix, Appendix A, to the Visa Regulation of the Department, 22 C.F.R. 42.91(a)(28), Note 3, last issued on December 9, 1960. Paragraph 3.3 reads as follows:

3.3 Membership in mass organizations

Rank and file membership in proscribed mass organizations in Communist and Communist-controlled countries may in general, if police repression or political or economic discrimination is or was the coercive factor bringing about such membership, be considered involuntary within the meaning of section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Act unless the alien actively participated in the organization's activities or joined or remained connected with it because of political or ideological conviction. When an alien is refused a visa because of voluntary membership in a proscribed organization of this type the report submitted to the Department pursuant to Appendix A, 22 CFR 42.130, Note 1, should show the circumstances leading to the decision.

End

2. Section 243(g) - Issuance of Immigrant Visas in Moscow

On May 26, 1953, the Department of State transmitted to the United States Mission in Moscow a communication from the Deputy Attorney General stating that the Attorney General had invoked Section 243(g) as the result of failure by the Soviet Union to accept the return of aliens deported or sought to be deported from the United States.

Accordingly, Consular Officers were instructed to discontinue the issuance of immigrant visas until advised by the Department of State to the contrary. It should be noted that Section 243(g), when invoked by the Attorney General, applies to a country, or more specifically to United States Consular Officers stationed in such countries. The section does not create ineligibility for any particular alien or class of aliens, but was designed to exert pressure on countries which failed to receive deportees from the United States. In fact, any person precluded from receiving an immigrant visa because of the application of Section 243(g) may proceed to a United States Consulate in another country where the sanctions are not in effect, and receive an immigrant visa if otherwise qualified.

Section 243(g) does not contain any provision for waiver. However, the Justice Department has considered that such waiver powers existed under the general powers of the Attorney General granted by the Act. Conferences were held by the Departments of State and Justice from time to time since the statute had become applicable relating to procedures for handling Section 243(g) cases and policies in granting waivers. In fact, despite the application of Section 243(g), 661 immigrant visas were issued in Moscow in the ten-year period ending June 30, 1963. In FY 1962, 97 immigrant visas were issued in Moscow, and in FY 1963 102 such visas were issued.

In general, the policy for granting waivers of the prohibitions of Section 243(g) was that the statute would be waived in order to prevent separation of families, i.e., it would be waived in the case of persons eligible for non-quota or first preference visas. This policy is currently reflected in Part III of the Department of State's Visa Handbook, 22 C.F.R. 42.120, Procedural Note 2, last issued on February 15, 1961. Note 2 states:

2. Waivers of sanctions imposed under section 243(g) of the Act.

2.1 Sanctions under section 243(g) of the Act are currently in effect against persons residing in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The sanctions will be waived only in individual meritorious cases in behalf of a beneficiary of a petition filed by a reputable relative pursuant to section 101(a) (27)(A), or paragraphs (2), (3), or (4) of section 203(a) of the Act. The waiver may also be granted for an alien residing in Hungary on whose behalf a petition has been approved under section 203(a)(1) of the Act. The endorsement "Beneficiary(ies) granted waiver(s) of sanctions imposed under section 243(g) of the Act" will be inserted on approved petitions and forwarded to the respective consular posts. The grant of a waiver of sanctions to the beneficiary of an approved petition automatically includes the spouse and children of the beneficiary. (Amended 2-15-61)

2.2 In cases where a petition was previously approved by the Service without a waiver, the consular officer should forward a request for a waiver, in duplicate, direct to the approving district office. Such request will be processed by the Service, the decision endorsed thereon, and a copy returned directly to the consular post. If in any case there is special urgency in obtaining a 243(g) waiver because of the date of expiration of the individual's exit permit, the request for waiver should clearly state the date of expiration of the exit permit and indicate the name of the petitioner in the United States who should be asked to defray the cost of telegraphic notification if that appears to be necessary.

The statutory procedure for handling petitions for non-quota or preference status by reason of relationship calls for a determination of eligibility for such status by the Attorney General, and the responsibility for making such determinations has been delegated by the Attorney General to the District Directors of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Since in the Oswald case the relative (husband) making the petition for non-quota status was in Moscow at the time of the application, the petition was forwarded by the Embassy in Moscow through the State Department to the District Director in San Antonio, Texas, the office having jurisdiction over Oswald's domicile in the United States. In accordance with the procedure worked out between the State and Justice Departments and reflected in Procedural Note 2.1 quoted above, the District Director was to note his determination as to a waiver of Section 243(g) at the same time as he made his determination of eligibility for non-quota status under Section 205(a).

In the Oswald case, the District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service informed the Visa Office of the State Department by letter of February 28, 1962 that the petition for non-quota status had been approved, but that waiver of the sanction under Section 243(g) was not authorized. No reason for disapproval of the waiver was stated in the District Director's letter, but it is clear from the internal order of the Immigration and Naturalization Service that the refusal to authorize the waiver was based on Oswald's statements and attitude while in the Soviet Union. The District Director considered that neither Oswald, nor a person making an application by reason of relationship to him, was entitled to any special or discretionary benefits. The substance of the Immigration and Naturalization Service communication was transmitted by the Department of State to the United States Embassy in Moscow.

On March 16, the Soviet Affairs Office of the State Department advised the Visa Office of the Department as follows:

SOV believes it is in the interest of the US to get Lee Harvey Oswald and his family out of the Soviet Union and on their way to this country as soon as possible. An unstable character, whose actions are entirely unpredictable, Oswald may well refuse to leave the USSR or subsequently attempt to return there if we should make it impossible for him to be accompanied from Moscow by his wife and child.

Such action on our part also would permit the Soviet Government to argue that, although it had issued an exit visa to Mrs. Oswald to prevent the separation of a family, the United States Government had imposed a forced separation by refusing to issue her a visa. Obviously, this would weaken our Embassy's position in encouraging positive Soviet action in other cases involving Soviet citizen relatives of US citizens.

This representation was in accord with the Department's established policy of trying to obtain permission from the Soviet government for persons having claim to American citizenship and close relatives of American citizens to leave the Soviet Union to join their families in the United States.

Thereupon, on March 27, 1962, the Acting Administrator, Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs, addressed a letter to the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice, requesting reconsideration of the decision not to waive the provisions of Section 243(g) in the case of Mrs. Oswald. The text of the Department's letter is as follows:

The case of Mrs. Marina N. P. Oswald has been brought to my attention. Mrs. Oswald is the wife of Mr. Lee Harvey Oswald, an American citizen, and is applying for an immigrant visa at the Embassy at Moscow. She has been granted exit documentation by the Soviet authorities and the Embassy is prepared to consider her case under the provisions of Section 212(a)(28)(I)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

However, the Department has now been informed by the District Director of your Service at San Antonio that, while the petition granting Mrs. Oswald nonquota status for immigrant visa purposes has been approved, the sanction against the issuance of immigrant visas in the Soviet Union imposed pursuant to Section 243(g) of the Act will not be waived. I should like to request your reconsideration of that decision.

I appreciate the difficulty this case presents for your Service, because of Mr. Oswald's background, and the fact that granting a waiver of the sanction makes it appear that this Government is assisting a person who is not altogether entitled to such assistance. However, if the Embassy at Moscow is unable to issue Mrs. Oswald a visa, it would appear that she and indirectly the Oswalds' newborn child are being punished for Mr. Oswald's earlier indiscretions. I might also point out that this Government has advanced Mr. Oswald a loan of $500.00 for repatriation.

More important, however, is the possibility that if Mrs. Oswald is not issued a visa by the Embassy, the Soviet Government will be in a position to claim that it has done all it can to prevent the separation of the family by issuing Mrs. Oswald the required exit permission, but that this Government has refused to issue her a visa, thus preventing her from accompanying her husband and child. This would weaken the Embassy's attempts to encourage positive action by the Soviet authorities in other cases involving Soviet relatives of United States citizens.

Because of these considerations and because I believe it is in the best interests of the United States to have Mr. Oswald depart from the Soviet Union as soon as possible, I request that the Section 243(g) sanction be waived in Mrs. Oswald's case.

After a number of telephone conversations between the State Department and the Immigration and Naturalisation Service, the INS replied by letter of May 9 and agreed to waive the sanction of Section 243(g). The text of the INS letter of May 9, 1962 is as follows:

The Service file relating to the case of Mrs. Marina N. P. Oswald, subject of your letter of March 27, 1962, has been carefully reviewed in this office.

On February 28, 1962, the District Director at San Antonio wrote the Assistant Director of the Visa Office that he declined to waive in Mrs. Oswald's case the sanctions against the issuance of immigrant visas in the Soviet Union imposed pursuant to Section 243(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Your letter states that preventing Mrs. Oswald from accompanying her husband and child to the United States would weaken the attempts of the Embassy in Moscow to encourage positive action by the Soviet authorities in other cases involving Soviet relatives of United States citizens. Your letter also states that waiving of sanctions in behalf of Mrs. Oswald would be in the best interests of the United States.

In view of the strong representations made in your letter of March 27, 1962, you are hereby advised that sanctions imposed pursuant to Section 243(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act are hereby waived in behalf of Mrs. Oswald.

As the above-quoted exchange of letters indicates, the waiver of Section 243(g) in the case of Mrs. Oswald was not handled as a routine matter. Persons in the State Department who regularly deal with consular problems arising in Iron Curtain countries state that refusals to grant waivers in Section 243(g) cases involving close personal relationships were very rare and that the State Department requested reconsideration in each of these cases by the Immigration and Naturalization Service Central Office. The reason for Department concern was the desire to obviate the necessity for the spouses of American citizens to travel to a third country to receive a visa for which they were otherwise qualified under the law. Equally important was the Department's concern not to offer the Soviets an excuse for refusing exit permits to other spouses of American citizens.

MEMORANDUM

LEE HARVEY OSWALD -- REPATRIATION LOAN

On June 1, 1962, Oswald received a repatriation loan from the American Embassy in Moscow to enable him and his wife and child to return to the United States. The amount of Oswald's loan was $435.71, and it was in the form of three steamship tickets from Rotterdam to New York plus a small portion of the cost of railway tickets from Moscow to Rotterdam. Oswald repaid the full amount of the loan in installments. A schedule of the installments is attached. (Exhibit 1) This memorandum analyzes the authorities and procedures under which this loan was granted.

I. STATUTORY AUTHORITY

5 U.S.C. § 1701 authorizes the Secretary of State to:

"(a) make expenditures, from such amounts as may be specifically appropriated therefor, for unforeseen emergencies arising in the diplomatic and consular service and, to the extent authorized in appropriation Acts, funds expended for such purposes may be accounted for in accordance with section 107 of Title 31 . . . ."

Since 1947 the Department of State's annual Appropriation Act has included a sum "for expenses necessary to enable the Secretary of State to meet unforeseen emergencies arising in the Diplomatic and Consular Service, to be expended pursuant to the requirement of Section 291 of the Revised Statute (31 U.S.C. 107)." In recent years, the accompanying House Reports state that:

"These funds are used for relief and repatriation loans to United States citizens abroad and for other emergencies of the Department. Repayments of the loans are deposited in miscellaneous receipts of the Treasury."

For fiscal years 1962 and 1963, Congress appropriated $1,500,000 for these purposes. Between 1953 and 1962 the sum appropriated annually for these purposes had been $1,000,000. From these amounts the Secretary of State has annually allotted approximately $100,000 to meet the expenses of repatriation of indigent United States nationals who request repatriation loans. A chart showing a breakdown of expenditures from this allotment for the past five years is attached. (Exhibit 2)

II. REGULATIONS GOVERNING PROCEDURE

Under the Department's regulations repatriation loans to destitute United States nationals are authorized by the Department only when:

"a. Investigation shows that the United States national will suffer undue hardship if he does not return to the United States, that he is without relatives or friends either abroad or in the United States who are able and willing to assist him financially, and that he is unable, through employment or otherwise, to obtain funds for support or for

return passage (an initial telegram may be sent to relatives or friends in the United States through the Department at Government expense); or

"b. The United States national is in or is the cause of a situation which is damaging to the prestige of the United States Government or which constitutes a compelling reason for extending assistance to effect his return." (7 FAM § 423.1-2)

The Department considered that Oswald's continued presence in Russia was damaging to the prestige of the United States because of his unstable character and prior criticisms of the United States. The provisions of subsection "b" were, therefore, applicable. The Department sought, however, in accordance with subsection "a," to obtain funds for the Oswalds' repatriation from both Oswald's mother and from the International Rescue Committee. Neither effort was successful.

These regulations further provide that repatriation loans may be granted only to United States nationals:

"a. Who are in complete and unquestioned possession of their citizenship rights;

"b. Who are entitled to receive United States passports;

"c. Whose loyalty to the United States Government is beyond question, or to whom the provisions of section 423.1-2(b) apply." ("The United States national is in or is the cause of a situation which is damaging to the prestige of the United States Government or which constitutes

constitutes a compelling reason for extending assistance to effect his return." (7 FAM § 423.2-1)

Oswald met the requirements of subsections "a" (see separate memorandum, "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Expatriation") and "b" (see separate memorandum, "Lee Harvey Oswald -- Passports"). As for subsection "c," the provisions of Section 423.1-2(b) applied, as noted above.

The Department's regulations provide that all repatriation loans must be approved by the Department (7 FAM § 423.3-1), and that prior to approval of any loan the Department will first endeavor to obtain funds from the individual's family or other private sources.

(7 FAM § 423.3-2) Both of these requirements were met in the Oswald case. Loans are limited:

"to the minimum amount required to cover transportation and subsistence while en route to the nearest continental United States port . . . . The cost of transportation shall be limited to third-class passage by ship; loans shall not be granted to cover travel by air except:

"a. In cases of emergency; or

"b. When no other means of transportation by surface route added to unavoidable expenditures while awaiting embarkation exceeds the cost of air travel." (7 FAM § 423.3-3)

Oswald's loan was sufficient to cover only the least expensive transportation from Moscow to New York.

Repatriation

Repatriation loans are also authorized (and were granted in the Oswald case) for the alien wife and children of a United States national receiving a repatriation loan, in order to avoid division of families. (7 FAM § 423.3-5)

Each applicant for a repatriation loan is required to sign an application setting forth the following information (Oswald's responses are in brackets):

- "1. Your name in full. [Lee Harvey Oswald]
- "2. Place and date of birth. [New Orleans, La. Oct. 18, 1939]

- "6. Full name, age, relationship, and nationality of dependents who will travel with you. [Marina N. Oswald, Wife, Russian; June Lee Oswald, Daughter, American]
- "7. Personal funds or property in the United States or abroad, estimate of amount, exact location and person or institution in charge of them. [None]

- "9. Any previous advances of United States Government funds received (indicate amount, from whom and when). [None]
- "10. Estimated amount which you and your dependents will require for repatriation (expressed in dollars). Please note that it is necessary to indicate just how much of the cost of your return trip you can pay yourself. [$800.00 ($200.00 can be paid by myself)]
- "11. Names and addresses of relatives, friends, employers or other interested organizations which may be asked to provide funds for you and your dependents. [International Rescue Committee, 251 Park Ave., N.Y., N.Y.]
- "12. Permanent or last address in the United States to which you desire to return. [7313 Davanport St., Ft. Worth, Texas]."

Oswald was also required to sign the following affirmation:

"I solemnly declare that I am a loyal United States national, that I have not lost my citizenship and that all the statements in this application are true. I hereby apply for a loan of the United States Government funds for repatriation for myself and my dependents herein named. I promise to repay all funds that may be advanced to me, and to keep the Department of State, Washington, D.C., informed of my address after my arrival in the United States until such time as the loan is repaid in full."

The current form of this affirmation states in addition that the applicant is destitute and will not be furnished a passport until his loan is repaid. (7 FAM 423.5-2)

Each recipient of a repatriation loan is required to sign a promissory note by which he promised to repay without interest, to the Treasurer of the United States, upon demand, the amount of his repatriation loan. The note also states:

"I further understand and agree that after my repatriation I will not be furnished a passport for travel abroad until my obligation to reimburse the Treasurer of the United States is liquidated."
(7 FAM § 423.6-5)

A copy of Oswald's note is attached. (Exhibit 3)

All passports of persons receiving repatriation loans are required to be stamped as valid only for return to the United States.
(7 FAM § 423.7-1)

III. GENERAL PROCEDURES

United States nationals such as Oswald who request repatriation assistance abroad apply for such assistance to consular officers at American Embassies or Consulates. A consular officer interviews each applicant to insure that the applicant is a United States citizen and is destitute. The applicant must execute the application form referred to above before the consular officer. The original application is then normally forwarded to the Department by pouch and is processed by the Office of Special Consular Services (SCS) in the Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs (SCA). The Department may authorize a loan in advance of receipt of the executed application form, as in the Oswald case, when the facts are already known to the Department.

Each case is reviewed in the Protection and Welfare Division of SCS to insure compliance with the regulations referred to above and determine whether funds are available from any other sources, such as relatives, friends, employers, or other interested organizations.

In cases in which political questions are involved, such as when a foreign government has requested the removal of the applicant, and in all cases such as Oswald's which involve repatriation from the U.S.S.R. or Bloc countries, clearance by the political desk involved is obtained. In the Oswald case, the Office of Soviet Affairs supported the grant of a loan.

If funds are not available from other sources, the Department acts on the application for the repatriation loan, and informs any other agency which may be concerned or have evidenced interest. In the Oswald case, the Department informed the FBI on March 27, 1962, that Oswald had applied for a repatriation loan and that the loan had been authorized.

When a post receives approval of a loan, it obtains a promissory note from the applicant in the form referred to above and makes the funds or transportation tickets available. The promissory note is sent by the post to the Department for collection. The Department's Office of Finance thereafter undertakes to obtain repayment of the loan. These procedures were followed in the Oswald case.

PROMISE TO REPAY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE LOAN FOR PATRIOTISM:

I, Lee Harvey OSWALD, upon receipt of transportation tickets for myself, my wife, and my daughter for transportation from Moscow to New York, purchased on my behalf by the American Embassy, Moscow, do obligate myself to repay without interest to the Treasurer of the United States upon demand, in legal tender of the United States, the cost of these tickets, minus the contribution which I made toward their cost.

The cost of the transportation is as follows:

- |  |               |
|--|---------------|
| (1) Steamship tickets - Rotterdam-New York($199 per adult, $20 for infant) | $418         |
| (2) Rail tickets - Moscow-Rotterdam(52.97 Rubles per adult)                  | 105.94 Rubles |

I have contributed 90 Rubles toward the price of the rail tickets. Hence my obligation is $418 plus $17.71, the dollar equivalent of 14.94 Rubles, making a total of $435.71.

I understand that my obligation to repay the sum herein stated will not be discharged until the Treasurer of the United States actually receives in legal tender of the United States full repayment of that sum.

I further understand and agree that after my restriction I will not be furnished a passport for travel abroad until my obligation to reimburse the Treasurer of the United States is liquidated.

Repayment of the amount of this loan may be obtained by the Department of State Treasury monies now or hereafter due me from the Federal Administration or other agency of the United States Government.

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Notice is to provide addressees with information regarding Lockout File information codes and to transmit a Code List (classified OFFICIAL USE ONLY).

2. Background. All cards in the Lockout File have been coded preparatory to converting from a 3 x 5 typewritten card file to a machineable file of printed punched cards. Actual replacement of the File is now under way and is being accomplished on a tray by tray basis.

3. Lockout Information Codes. A sequence of five codes on each lookout card provides: (1) the month and year the card was included in the File; (2) the reason; and (3) the source. When there is a lookout card on an applicant for passport facilities, the information codes will be transcribed in the left-hand margin of the application. The code alerts the individual handling the case generally that there is a basis for checking previous records; the code is not a basis for final action.

a. Date of Inclusion. The first three codes of the sequence refer to the month and year of inclusion--a single code for the month plus the last two digits of the year. Numeric codes 1 - 9 are used for January-September; letters O, N, and D are used for October, November, and December.

b. Reason. A single alphabetic code--the fourth in the sequence--reflects the reason for the lookout card.

c. Source. A single alphabetic code--the fifth in the sequence--reflects the source of the information or card.

d. Example. Codes 162DU indicate card was included in the Lockout File during January 1962 (162); the individual was indebted to the United States (D); source of card is "unknown" (U).

Commission Exhibit No. 953

Commission Exhibit No. 953

CONFIDENTIAL

April 24, 1964

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Question No. 5 in Attachment A to your letter of March 23, 1964 requested a memorandum from Mr. John A. McVickar describing to the best of his recollection the specific facts which form the basis for his suspicions that Lee Harvey Oswald had been tutored in connection with his apparent attempts to renounce his American citizenship at the American Embassy in Moscow. In accordance with this request Mr. McVickar prepared the attached memorandum.

As you will see, Mr. McVickar states in paragraph 2 of his memorandum that it would have been significant if Oswald had been issued a "regular visa" and not a "tourist visa." Mr. McVickar did not, however, remember which type of visa Oswald had obtained. In fact, our files indicate that he applied for, and presumably received, a "tourist visa" in Helsinki. It should be noted, however, that Oswald stated that he applied for this visa on October 14, 1961, and was in Moscow on October 16, 1961. It appears, therefore, that he received the visa within a day or two. Usually it takes at least a week for Soviet authorities to process tourist applications, and so the speed with which Oswald received his tourist visa was unusual.

Mr. McVickar also states in paragraph 4 of his memorandum that "Oswald was accepted and sent to Minsk only about seven days (as I recall) after his arrival in Moscow." In fact, our files indicate that he was in Moscow for approximately six weeks prior to his departure for Minsk.

— Commission Exhibit No. 954 —

Dear Mr. Rankin:

The Department had understood that the United States Embassy in Moscow had sent last November all documents in its files pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife. The Department recently received, however, a telegram from the Embassy in Moscow stating:

"As noted earlier (EMBTTEL 1784 of November 27, 1963) Embassy pouched Department on November 26, 1963 all materials that had not been previously forwarded to Department. Embassy today, May 29, pouching remainder file which consists of duplicates or copies of items sent or received Department previously. No Oswald papers of any kind will now remain in Embassy dated prior to November 22, 1963."

This "remainder file" arrived in the Department last night. We immediately had it photostated and we are enclosing a copy. You will note that it is marked "File XIII," and that it consists of 104 documents.

The Embassy also forwarded to us two copies of Lee Harvey Oswald's July 10, 1961 application for passport renewal, together with a copy of the supplementary questionnaire which he executed. Copies of these documents are also enclosed with the covering airgram from the Embassy.

Sincerely,

Abram Chayes

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In accordance with your request, we have again reproduced the Department's files on Oswald, a copy of which we sent to you on January 21, 1964. Omitted from these files, of course, are the original documents which we sent to you on February 8, 1964 in accordance with your letter of February 7, 1964. Added to the files since January 21, 1964 have been a number of documents, copies of which we have sent you as we received them.

I am enclosing a complete copy of the files. Each document has been marked to indicate the file number, the document number, and the number of pages in the document. The symbols IV-C(16) on a document, for example, mean that it is the eighth document in File IV, and that it consists of sixteen pages. These files have incidentally now been microfilmed so that we will be able to supply additional copies to you more quickly should you wish them.

Each file contains the number of documents listed below:

MEMORANDUM

April 7, 1964

TO: Mr. Thomas Ehrlich, Special Assistant to the Legal Adviser, Department of State

FROM: John A. McVickar, Principal Officer, American Consulate, WV
Cochabamba, Bolivia

SUBJECT: Lee Harvey OSWALD

This is in response to the request contained in your letter of March 27, 1964, to further develop the suggestion contained in my memorandum of November 27, 1963, that there was a possibility that (in coming to the Soviet Union and attempting to renounce his citizenship) Oswald was "following a pattern of behavior in which he had been tutored by person or persons unknown." Although I now regret that I made no notes on this even then unusual case, the following points seem to me to lend weight to my suggestion, especially considering the youth and relative inexperience of the subject:

(1) As I recall it, Oswald stated that he had come almost directly to the Soviet Union after being discharged from the Marine Corps in New Orleans and that he took a ship from New Orleans to Helsinki. Since he arrived in Moscow in mid-October, 1959 and was discharged from the Marines in September, 1959 (as I recall), he would have to have made a direct and competently arranged trip. He would have to have known the not too obvious fact that Helsinki is a usual and relatively uncomplicated point of entry to the Soviet Union (one that the Soviets might well choose for example if arranging the passage themselves).

(2) Oswald obtained a Soviet visa and apparently very promptly. This point may be important: it depends on what kind of a Soviet visa he had, and I do not know. If he had obtained a "tourist visa," he could have probably gotten it rather easily through a travel agent, but he would have had to either buy a $30.00 per day "individual tour" or he would have had to join a group. I do not think or recall that he did either. If he had obtained any other sort of Soviet visa, probably a "regular visa", he would have had to obtain it from either the Soviet Embassy in Washington (presumably by mail from New Orleans) or from the Soviet Embassy in Helsinki. In my experience, Soviet "regular visas" (i.e. those other than issued to tourists, or to officials and diplomats) were hard to come by. Such "regular visas" were ordinarily issued only after checking with Moscow, and after some investigation of the reasons given for the visit by the applicant, usually a process of months duration. A Soviet "regular visa" issued to a person (in Washington or in Helsinki) on short notice would only be to a person already known to the Soviet authorities.

I repeat, I do not recall what sort of a visa Oswald had, but I believe that it would be significant if it indeed was a "regular visa" and not a "tourist visa." If it is still available, an examination of his passport could provide the answer. Or perhaps, Consul Richard E. Snyder, who handled the case at the time of Oswald's arrival, might remember or might have noted it in the record.

(3) Oswald evidently knew something of the procedure for renunciation of citizenship when he came into the office. This seemed a bit unusual, since it was so soon after his first departure from the United States on his first trip abroad traveling as a private citizen. (He had apparently been abroad in the Marines, but would be unlikely to have gained much experience in travel and citizenship documentation in that status.) I do not recall the way that he framed his demand for renunciation, except that it was truculent and insulting, but it seemed to me that Oswald understood that he had a legal right to renounce in the consular office and was rather insistent upon doing it.

(4) Oswald's application to remain in the Soviet Union made in Moscow was, again in my experience, relatively quickly accepted by the Soviet authorities. For example, in other "defector" cases of which I had some personal knowledge, the Soviet authorities were rather cautious about definitely permitting persons to remain permanently before they had investigated and interviewed them thoroughly. Not that the authorities were reluctant to take them in if they thought they might be useful, or even if not too useful, but they tended to be bureaucratic and cautious. Oswald was accepted and sent to Minsk only about seven days (as I recall) after his arrival in Moscow. This seems short to me, if his application in Moscow was indeed the first time his case came to the attention of the Soviet authorities concerned with these matters; but it does not seem too short, if they had known about him months before. However, even if they had already had a file on him, he would still probably have had to come to Moscow for interviewing and final approval at headquarters.

(5) At the time, Oswald seemed surprisingly confident, competent and determined about what he was doing, considering his age and experience.

(6) Oswald's expressed willingness to tell the Soviets what classified information he may have learned in the Marines doesn't necessarily argue the point that he had advance help, since he could have easily thought it up himself. The statement seems irrelevant except perhaps as a means of shocking the consular officer into prompt action.

(7) I am afraid that I remember only very little of the actual statements in Communist terms which Oswald made to justify his desire to renounce his citizenship. I recall he said that he wanted to renounce "because he was a Marxist". I think he said bitterly that he had learned what the "class struggle" meant during his difficult youth in the U.S., and that he had learned about "capitalist imperialism" while overseas in the Marines (in Okinawa, I think). As I said in my previous memorandum, it seemed to me then that he was using words that he did not fully understand, but this does not necessarily mean that he was taught to say them...he might have read some books himself.

(8) A last point not related to my contact with Oswald in 1959: Oswald's reported statement that he had been permitted to belong to a rifle club and practice target shooting while in Minsk seems odd to me. My impression was that in the Soviet Union such a privilege would not have been usual. But this is mere speculation.

Finally, however, I think I should raise a question which may tend to offset some of the above points: If we suppose the Soviets might have arranged his trip to Russia, why would they have permitted Oswald to come to the American Embassy to renounce his citizenship? I see no answer to that, except that perhaps he was still being treated in a very tentative way and therefore being allowed to behave in a more or less "normal" fashion vis-a-vis the U.S. Government. The principal effect of renunciation would have been to make his legal return to the U.S. more difficult and it is not known to be a requirement for becoming a Communist or residing in the USSR.

I hope that the above comments are of some assistance. It seems to me that the only concrete point is the Soviet visa: its type, and its date and place of issuance.

The term "minister" means a person duly authorized by a religious sect or denomination to conduct religious worship, and to perform other duties usually performed by a regularly ordained pastor or clergyman. Lay preachers, cantors, nuns, or others not authorized to perform the duties usually performed by a regularly ordained pastor or clergyman do not come within this definition.

- (3) Attach a clearance order from the United States Employment Service, unless the occupation is one already determined to be needed in the United States. (Consult the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office for information on such occupations.)
- e. Documents in general.
- (1) All documents must be submitted in the original. If the petition is for a minister or a highly skilled person original documents will not be returned unless accompanied by photostatic copies. However, a photostatic copy unaccompanied by the original may be accepted if the copy bears a certification by an Immigration or consular officer that the copy was compared with the original and found to be identical.

His wife or other dependent, abroad only, may swear to or affirm the petition in like manner.
6. Submission of petition. If you are residing in the United States, send the completed petition to the office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service nearest your place of residence. If you are petitioning for a highly skilled person or a minister, submit the petition to the office having jurisdiction over the place where the alien's services are to be performed. If you are residing outside the United States consult the nearest American consulate as to the foreign office of this Service designated to act on your petition. In all cases where the beneficiary of the petition is an unmarried child approaching the age of 21 years, the petition must be submitted in sufficient time for action to be completed on the petition and for the child to obtain a visa and reach the United States before the date on which he will be 21 years of age.
7. Fees. A fee of $10, payable in United States currency, must accompany this petition. The fee is required for filing the petition and is not returnable regardless of the action taken. If you mail this petition, attach money order or check. DO NOT SEND CASH. Money order or check should be drawn on a United States bank to the order of "Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice." If residing in Guam, draw remittance in favor of the "Treasurer, Guam." If residing in the Virgin Islands, draw remittance in favor of the "Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands."

QUESTION 1

Your file reflects the fact that Lee Harvey Oswald believed that he could not travel from Minsk to Moscow for the purpose of discussing his return to the United States with American officials without first obtaining the permission of Soviet officials in Minsk, and that Oswald was reluctant to seek this permission. Only a few months after expressing his fears in this respect, Oswald traveled to Moscow with his wife and returned, apparently without having sought or received permission to do so.

A. Could the average Soviet citizen travel in this manner without first obtaining permission from the appropriate officials of the Soviet Union?

ANSWER - We understand that a Soviet citizen may buy a ticket and travel on a public conveyance without obtaining permission from Soviet officials. The passport regulations issued by the USSR Council of Ministers and dated January 9, 1962, specify that Soviet citizens "arriving for permanent or temporary sojourn or changing their place of living in localities where the passport system has been introduced must within 24 hours produce their passports for the house administration, directors of hostels, or other persons responsible for registration in order to register them with militia authorities." In a speech entitled "Strictly Observe Passport Regulations," delivered on September 27, 1962, the Chief of the Passport Section of the Kyzyl City Militia Department, Mr. Cherkashin, stated that passports are required for "all citizens of the USSR 16 years of age or over who reside in cities, rayon capitals [a rayon is an administrative area like a county], city-type settlements, or in the border zones." He also stated that residents of rural areas must obtain a passport from the militia before departing for other regions in the Soviet Union. Copies of the regulations and speech referred to above are enclosed.

Although the regulations were issued in 1962, it is our understanding that Soviet travelers have been, for many years, required to register at their place of destination in almost all cases, except for short trips. We also know that Soviet militia often stop automobiles and trucks traveling from city to city. The driver or some other responsible person has to show that there is some reason for the travel and a passport or some other document signed by an appropriate official must be presented.

B. Could resident foreigners normally travel in this manner without first obtaining such permission?

ANSWER - There are only a few Western nationals now living in the Soviet Union. They include an American Roman Catholic priest, an American Protestant minister, a number of correspondents, some students and technical advisers to Soviet businesses. We know that the priest, the minister, the correspondents and the students must obtain permission from Soviet authorities before taking any trips. The technical advisers notify officials of their project before they travel and these officials personally inform the militia.

C. If travel of this type was not freely permitted, do you believe that Oswald normally would have been apprehended during the attempt or punished after the fact for traveling without permission?

ANSWER - Based on the information we have, we believe that if Oswald went to Moscow without permission, and this was known to the Soviet authorities, he would have been fined or reprimanded. Oswald was not, of course, an average foreign resident. He was a defector from a foreign country and the bearer of a Soviet internal "stateless" passport (vid na zhitelstvo dlya litza bez grazhdanstva) during the time when he was contemplating the visit to Moscow to come to the Embassy. (On January 4, 1962 he was issued a passport for foreigners -- vid na zhitelstvo dlya Inostrantsa.)

The Soviet authorities probably knew about Oswald's trip even if he did not obtain advance permission, since in most instances the Soviet militia guards at the Embassy ask for the documents of unidentified persons entering the Embassy grounds. By Oswald's own statement, the foremen at his wife's place of employment were notified that they had visited the Embassy while they were still in Moscow. The usual "enemy of the people" meetings were held, his wife condemned for her action and friends warned against speaking to her.

An American citizen who, with her American citizen husband, went to the Soviet Union to live permanently and is now trying to obtain permission to leave, informed the Embassy that she had been fined for not getting permission to go from Odessa to Moscow on a recent trip to visit the Embassy.

D. Even if such travel did not have to be authorized, do you have any information or observations regarding the practicality of such travel by Soviet citizens or persons in Oswald's status?

ANSWER - It is impossible to generalize in this area. We understand from interrogations of former residents in the Soviet Union who were considered "stateless" by Soviet authorities that they were not permitted to leave the town where they resided without permission of the police. In requesting such permission they were required to fill out a questionnaire giving the reason for travel, length of stay, addresses of individuals to be visited, etc.

Notwithstanding these requirements, we know that at least one "stateless" person often traveled without permission of the authorities and stated that police stationed at railroad stations usually spotchecked the identification papers of every tenth traveler, but that it was an easy matter to avoid such checks. Finally, she stated that persons who were caught evading the registration requirements were returned to their home towns by the police and sentenced to short jail terms and fined. These sentences were more severe for repeated violations.

SOVIET PASSPORT REGULATIONS

9 January 1962

Citizens arriving for permanent or temporary sojourn or changing their place of living in localities where the passport system has been introduced must within 24 hours produce their passports for the house administration, directors of hostels, or other persons responsible for registration in order to register them with militia authorities. A citizen who has received a new passport must also produce it for the house administration or call in person at the passport bureau for registration. After that the new passport must be produced at the place of work for the cadre department or personnel office, where it will be stamped to show that its owner has been accepted for work.

When receiving a new passport one must see that the information about the bearer and his children below 16 years of age has been properly entered, as well as the marriage data and stamp. It should be borne in mind that all citizens from 16 to 40 years of age receive passports valid for a limited period of time. When the validity of the passport expires, the citizen should apply to the passport office for a new passport. It should be born in mind that living without a passport or registration book, an invalid passport, or acceptance for work without a passport or registration book, constitutes violation of passport regulations. Persons guilty of such violations of the passport regulations are liable to prosecution.

SPEECH BY MR. CHERKASHIN, CHIEF OF THE PASSPORT SECTION OF THE KYZYL CITY MILITIA DEPARTMENT
SEPTEMBER 27, 1962

STRICTLY OBSERVE PASSPORT REGULATIONS

The Soviet passport is the only document certifying the identity of a citizen in a locale with a passport system (v pasportizirovannoy mestnosti). Possession of this document certifies that its holder belongs to the great family of the Soviet people and bears the honorable title of citizen of the USSR--the first soviet socialist state in the world. A Soviet man is proud to belong to the land of soviets where the common people are the possessors of great political and (word indistinct) rights. He gladly receives, carefully handles, and honorably bears the Soviet passport. In accordance with the statute on passports, all citizens of the USSR 16 years of age or over who reside in cities, rayon capitls, city-type settlements, or in the border zones must have a passport. Those not possessing this document are permanent residents of rural areas--excluding the above-mentioned places--and military servicemen who carry documents issued by unit commands. Upon departure to other regions of the Soviet Union, residents of rural areas must obtain a passport from militia organs at the place of a residence. Exceptions are made for individuals residing in a particular area for no longer than 30 days and for individuals leaving for sanatoriums, rest homes, conferences, congresses, official trips, and so forth. However, these individuals must obtain the appropriate certificates from the rural soviets to certify their identities and the purposes of their trips.

A passport not only certifies the identity of a citizen, but also provides him with (word indistinct) whereby he can secure employment and can travel and reside in cities and other populated places and areas of the country having a passport system. Agents of the imperialist states (and various?) criminal elements (word indistinct) strive to (word indistinct) the passports of citizens of the USSR in order to (ingratiate themselves with?) Soviet families, to conceal their true faces, and to commit infamous acts. This makes it incumbent upon the Soviet people to constantly increase their vigilance and to strictly preserve state secrets, to safeguard official and personal documents, the main one of which is the passport.

The overwhelming majority of citizens honestly observe passport regulations and carefully handle their passports. However, some citizens fail to comply, make blots and stains in passports, and sometimes lose them. For example, citizen Ivan Dmitriyevich (Brusov?), a resident of Kyzyl city, on 14 May 1962 submitted an application to the city militia department for the issuance of a new passport to replace the one that he had lost. This is what he wrote: "On 26 March 1962, while intoxicated, I lost my passport. I cannot explain where and how I lost it because I do not remember anything." When he lost his passport, citizen Vladimir Vasilyevich (Guzovskiy?), a resident of Kyzyl city, wrote in his application: "On 1 December 1961 I spent the night with friends. After having some drinks I became intoxicated and do not remember how I lost my passport and military service certificate." Later it was revealed that his passport had fallen into the hands of a rogue (against whom criminal charges have been preferred?).

Identical applications have been received from other residents of Kyzyl city--Viktor Petrovich Zubarev, Nikolay Denisovich (Chenko?), Nikolay Fedorovich Abramov, and others. We do not know where the passports lost by these citizens are or into whose hands they have fallen. In most cases passports are lost by citizens who are intoxicated. Alcohol, in addition to being the cause of most crimes and hooliganism, also causes individuals to lose their sense of personal responsibility and carefulness.

Organs of the MVD know of cases in which criminals, using assumed names and other people's documents, commit crimes and inflict harm on the Soviet people. Every citizen must be aware of this, be vigilant, and safeguard his personal documents, because carelessness causes harm to the state and society. Individuals are categorically prohibited from using passports as a deposit and from transferring them to other citizens. Nevertheless, despite this prohibition, the bailing of passports has occurred at the mechanization school, the musical school, and other establishments.

Under the criminal code, the forging of a passport, residing on another person's passport, and (words indistinct) entail criminal charges. In Ak-Dovurak settlement, a certain Dmitriy Piskunov, who was residing on another person's passport, was arrested and criminal charges were preferred against him. In the course of an investigation, it was revealed that in March last year Piskunov had bought the passport from criminals who had stolen it from citizen (Zinovycv?). Some citizens, unmindful of the consequences, make illegal entries and corrections in their passports. Such action is also subject to criminal charges.

Great attention should be attached to the registration of passports. Citizens staying in a new place for more than three days, those changing places of residence, or those acquiring new passports must within one day present their passports to persons responsible for registration. Individuals arriving in cities, rayon capitals, city-type settlements, or populated places of rural soviet territories which are adjacent to state borders must register with militia organs within three days after their arrival. The registration of citizens is not a mere formality. In this way the population is registered and such registration helps party, soviet, and other organs to control the growth of cities and populated places, which is necessary for supplying them with foodstuffs and manufactured goods and for providing the working people with normal living conditions.

Despite the fact that the overwhelming majority of residents in Kyzyl city and the republic strictly observe passport regulations, some individuals still violate registration regulations. For example, Petr Fedorovich Prokofyev, (name indistinct), and other persons resided in Kyzyl city for a long period without registering. There have also been cases in which citizens have let into their apartments strange persons possessing no documents whatsoever (words indistinct). Administrative responsibility rests not only with the individuals who have no passports or are not registered, but likewise with owners of houses and those responsible for registration. By letting individuals without documents into their apartments, landlords grossly violate the passport regulations and act carelessly, which often costs them a great deal.

For example, in June this year Tatyana Vasilyevna Filatova, who resided on Oktyabrskaya Street in Kyzyl city, let a strange woman without documents into her apartment. This woman stated that she had arrived to join her husband who lived in Kyzyl but could not find him; therefore she needed a place to stay overnight. Filatova let this woman into her apartment. After winning the latter's confidence, at the opportune moment the strange woman collected whatever she could find and disappeared. Later she was caught and the stolen items were returned to the victim. Identical incidents involving theft in apartments also occurred to others.

Therefore, any citizen who lets a stranger into his apartment must check the latter's passport to determine whether its possessor has been checked out from the previous place of residence. Work related to the observance of passport regulations must be conducted by housing managers and custodians and commissioners of rural soviets responsible for registration affairs, as well as by supervisors of enterprises and establishments or other persons in charge of hiring and discharging workers and employees. Enterprises and establishments should employ citizens only after checking the latter's passports and registration visas in the passports. Unfortunately, many supervisors of enterprises and organizations are still failing to observe these requirements properly.

Inspections conducted by militia organs have revealed that some supervisory workers are failing to observe the passport regulations in hiring workers and employees. For example, in 1962 the republican hospital has employed several individuals who were not registered in Kyzyl and (failed to present lists for the registration of cadres?). It should be borne in mind that violation of regulations in hiring workers and employees (by an?) administration (entails?) administrative action for the first offense and discharge in case of repetition.

It is the task of all soviet, economic, and other organs, supervisors of enterprises, establishments and organizations, and the working people to constantly strengthen socialist legislation and Soviet law and order, which is necessary for the successful building of communism in our country.

ATTACHMENT AQUESTION 2

The files of the Department of State reflect the fact that Oswald first applied for permission to remain in Russia permanently, or at least for a long period, when he arrived in Moscow, and that he obtained permission to remain within one or two months.

A. Is the fact that he obtained permission to stay within this period of time usual?

ANSWER - Our information indicates that a two months waiting period is not unusual. In the case of the Supreme Soviet decided within two months to give Soviet citizenship and he was thereafter, of course, permitted to stay.

B. Can you tell us what the normal procedures are under similar circumstances?

ANSWER - It is impossible for us to state any "normal" procedures. The Soviet Government never publicizes the proceedings in these cases or the reasons for its action. Furthermore, it is, of course, extremely unusual for an American citizen to defect.

A. At the time that Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina Oswald left Russia for the United States was it legal and normal under Soviet law and practice for a Russian national married to an American to be able to accompany him back to his homeland?

ANSWER - The Department knows of many marriages in the Soviet Union between American citizens and Soviet citizens. Most of these involved an American citizen husband and a Soviet citizen wife. Such marriages since World War II have mostly involved American newspaper correspondents, American businessmen and tourists, and, in a few instances, employees of the American Government. In practically all of these cases the husband remained in the Soviet Union until his Soviet wife was given permission to accompany him to the United States.

In the immediate post-war period there were about fifteen marriages in which the wife had been waiting for many years for a Soviet exit permit. After the death of Stalin the Soviet Government showed a disposition to settle these cases. In the summer of 1953 permission was given for all of this group of Soviet citizen wives to accompany their American citizen husbands to the United States.

Since this group was given permission to leave the Soviet Union, there have been from time to time marriages in the Soviet Union of American citizens and Soviet citizens. With one exception, it is our understanding that all of the Soviet citizens involved have been given permission to emigrate to the United States after waiting periods which were, in some cases, from three to six months and in others much longer.

B. Was the rapidity with which Lee Harvey Oswald was able to accomplish his return and Marina's return to the United States in any way unusual?

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

ANSWER - It does not appear to us that Mrs. Oswald's Soviet exit visa application was acted upon with unusual rapidity. On July 15, 1961 Oswald and his wife applied for Soviet exit visas. On October 4, 1961 Oswald informed the Embassy that he still had not gotten exit visas and requested Ambassador Thompson's intervention on his behalf. He related that there had been continuing attempts to intimidate his wife, apparently with the idea of forcing her to give up her plans to go to the United States. On November 1, 1961 Oswald told the Embassy that he had gone repeatedly to the Minsk officials but still had not been granted exit visas for himself and his wife. In January 1962, practically six months after the date of application (July 15, 1961), Oswald and his wife were granted Soviet exit visas.

It is difficult to generalize on the length of time required for Soviet action in such cases. There is no discernible pattern which we can find in the Soviet Government's handling of exit visa cases. The issuance of such visas is apparently subject to rather arbitrary official action. In some periods it has seemed related to the political climate between the Soviet Union and the foreign spouse's country, although this has not always been the case. In our view, for example, the issuance of exit visas in 1953 to the group of wives of American citizens mentioned above was undoubtedly part of an effort by the Soviet Government to create a favorable atmosphere between our two governments.

In the most recent case of this type a Soviet woman married an American citizen in December 1963 and received an exit visa about two months later. Such marriages cannot take place in the Soviet Union without permission of the Soviet Government. It seems probable that permission to marry in such cases is almost always tantamount to a favorable future decision to grant an exit visa since the American citizen is required to state his intention to bring his Soviet spouse back to the United States.

Since Oswald came to the Soviet Union as a defector, however, he was in a somewhat different situation. It is our judgment that the Soviet Government's granting of permission to his wife to leave the country was not considered a routine matter. We do have detailed information concerning another American defector, . His case is somewhat different since he actually obtained Soviet citizenship and was not, therefore, classified as "stateless."

was an employee of the assigned to work as a plastics engineer at the American National Exhibit in Moscow in the summer of 1959. He informed the Embassy on September 30, 1959, that he had decided to stay in the USSR and work. When interviewed in the presence of a Soviet official on October 17, 1959 he said he had applied for Soviet citizenship about July, 1959 and had been notified officially that Soviet citizenship had been granted by Decree of the Supreme Soviet. He received a Soviet internal citizen's passport on September 21, 1959 and the Embassy submitted to the Department a Certificate of Loss of Citizenship covering status.

On March 3, 1960 informed his father he would like to return home and that he had written to the Embassy about this but had received no reply. called at the Embassy on May 4, 1960, and thereafter returned to his residence in Leningrad. He applied for an exit visa on August 5, 1960 and was informed on October 24, 1960 that his application had been refused, but that he could reapply after one year.

On March 9, 1962 the Embassy received a Soviet foreign passport (i.e., Soviet citizen's passport for travel abroad) together with an exit visa for . A delay ensued while U.S. visa application was being processed. He was in communication with the Embassy by telephone but after the visit on May 4, 1960 he did not visit the Embassy until May 8, 1962, when he came to get his final papers. He told the Embassy during the interview that "he was not left alone" after he had informed his family by letter about his desire to return home. He left the Soviet Union May 15, 1962.

In comparison to Oswald, it took a year and nine months to get permission to leave the Soviet Union. His case differs in that he had been granted Soviet citizenship and was employed in an industry, plastics, for which his skills were particularly desired by the Soviet authorities. His case was also complicated by the fact that he had deserted his American wife and two children to live with a divorced Soviet woman who bore his child before his return to the U.S.

C. If possible we would appreciate a memorandum from you on the normal Soviet procedures in similar cases and the usual time periods involved, covering both emigration from Russia to the United States and emigration from Russia generally.

ANSWER - The Soviet Government is generally opposed to emigration of its citizens to foreign countries. Apparently the Soviet Government gives consideration to granting exit permits for the purpose of emigration to the United States only when the applicants wish to join members of their family.

For many years it has been extremely difficult for Soviet citizens to obtain permission to leave the Soviet Union to join relatives in the United States. In the 1930's a few such cases received favorable consideration, but it was only in the latter part of 1959 that the Soviet Union began issuing a number of exit visas in such cases. Since 1959 approximately 800 Soviet relatives of American citizens have received exit visas. This number, of course, is quite small compared to the number of those Soviet citizens who wish to come to the United States to join their relatives here.

Those who have been successful in obtaining exit visas were usually subjected to long delays before any action was taken on their applications, unlike those cases of American citizens who marry Soviet citizens while temporarily residing in the USSR.

In regard to emigration from Russia to other countries, we know that Soviet exit visas have been issued to persons desiring to join relatives in France, England, and other European countries, but we have very little information concerning the details of such emigration.

QUESTION 4

The Soviet Government issued Lee Harvey Oswald a passport which described him as being without citizenship, and he was issued a Soviet visa on a temporary, year-to-year basis. Were these procedures customary at the time Oswald was in Russia?

ANSWER - It is not possible for us to judge whether or not these procedures were "customary." Decisions in this area seem to be made without any discernible pattern. As was indicated above, non-Soviet citizens apparently receive either a "stateless" internal passport or an internal passport for foreigners. Oswald held both documents at different times.

The Embassy received on March 20, 1961 the following letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk March 5 and Moscow March 17:

"Dear Sirs:

In reply to your recent letter. I find it inconvenient to come to Moscow for the sole purpose of an interview.

In my last letter I believe I stated that I cannot leave the city of Minsk without permission.

I believe there exist in the United States also a law in regards to resident foreigners from Socialist countries, traveling between cities.

I do not think it would be appropriate for me to request to leave Minsk in order to visit the American Embassy. In any event, the granting of permission is a long drawn out affair, and I find that there is a hesitation on the part of local officials to even start the process.

I have no intention of abusing my position here, and I am sure you would not want me to.

I see no reasons for any preliminary inquiries not to be put in the form of a questionnaire and sent to me.

I understand that personal interviews undoubtedly make to work of the Embassy staff lighter, than written correspondence, however in some cases other means must be employed.

Sincerely,

TO: THE AMERICAN EMBASSY MOSCOW

FROM: THE AMERICAN EMBASSY MOSCOW

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy's Despatch No. 585 of February 28, 1961 concerning Lee Harvey Oswald has been studied with particular reference to the last two paragraphs thereof.

If Mr. Oswald satisfies you that he has a bona fide intention to return to the United States and informs you of his proposed travel plans, it may be considered that he has not expatriated himself to arrange his departure from the USSR. Under those circumstances, if Oswald is unable to call in person at the Embassy and if you are fully satisfied that he has not expatriated himself in any manner, you are authorized to amend his United States passport to be valid for his direct return to the United States and effect its delivery to him by mail under proper safeguards.

The Department is not in a position to advise Mr. Oswald whether upon his desired return to the United States he may be amenable to prosecution for any possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or the laws of any of its States.

The developments in the case of Mr. Oswald should be promptly reported. In particular, a report of his travel data should be submitted if the Embassy receives information of his confirmed travel plans.

It may be added that Mrs. Marguerite Oswald has been informed of the address given by Mr. Oswald in his recent undated communication referred to in Despatch No. 585 and of his desire to return to the United States.

SUBJECT: Instruction to Moscow Drafted March 27, 1961

Attached are the case file of Lee Harvey Oswald, PT/F's proposed instruction to Moscow, and Mr. Johnson's memorandum to me.

I believe the decision whether the Embassy at Moscow should be authorized to mail a passport to Mr. Oswald from the Embassy in Minsk should be yours.

You will note that our proposed instruction authorizes the mailing of the passport, under proper safeguards, only

1. If Oswald satisfies the Embassy that he has a bona fide intention to return to the United States
2. If Oswald is unable to call in person at the Embassy
3. If the Embassy is fully satisfied that Oswald has not expatriated himself in any manner.

I agree with Mr. Johnson that we should not be bound by the opinion which he expressed in paragraph 2 of his letter quoted in Moscow's despatch, and we have not let that opinion enter into our decision. Please note the third paragraph of our instruction. However, it is believed that whatever risk might be involved in transmitting the passport by mail under the above conditions would be more than offset by the opportunity provided the United States to obtain information from Mr. Oswald concerning his activities in the Soviet Union. For the best interests of the United States, therefore, and as the possession of a passport might facilitate his obtaining an exit visa it is believed that we should do everything within our power to facilitate Oswald's entry into the United States.

The Embassy's Despatch No. 585 of February 28, 1961 concerning Lee Harvey Oswald has been studied with particular reference to the last two paragraphs thereof. Despatch No. 659 of March 24, 1961 concerning him has also been noted.

If and when Mr. Oswald appears at the Embassy, he should be thoroughly questioned regarding the circumstances of his residence in the Soviet Union and his possible commitment of an act or acts of expatriation and, as contemplated by the Embassy, his statements should be taken under oath. If the Embassy is fully satisfied that he has not expatriated himself in any manner and if he presents evidence that he has arranged to depart from the Soviet Union to travel to the United States, his passport may be delivered to him on a personal basis only, after being rendered valid for direct return to the United States. For security reasons, the Department does not consider that it would be prudent for the Embassy to forward Oswald's passport to him by mail.

The Department is not in a position to advise Mr. Oswald whether upon his desired return to the United States he may be amenable to prosecution for any possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or the laws of any of its States.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy received on May 25, 1961 an undated letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk, May 16, 1961, in which he states in part that he is asking "full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case" should he return to the United States, that if this "condition" cannot be met he will "endeavor to use my relatives in the United States to see about getting something done in Washington." According to the letter, Oswald is married to a Russian woman who would want to accompany him to the United States. The text of the letter is contained in Enclosure 1.

In view of the possibility that the Department may receive further inquiries from Oswald's mother or from other persons in his behalf concerning his case, the Embassy would be glad to have the Department's comments before replying to Oswald. The Embassy proposes to reply to Oswald, drawing upon the language of the third paragraph of the Department's A-173, that should he be found not to have lost American citizenship, he would be entitled to return to the United States under the laws and regulations applicable to all American citizens and that the Embassy is not in a position to advise him whether in the event of his return he may be subject to prosecution for possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or of any of the States. The Embassy's reply would also reiterate that the final determination of Oswald's claim to American citizenship could only be made on the basis of a personal interview and that he is free to visit the Embassy whenever he desires. The reply would include the Embassy's prepared information sheets explaining the requirements and procedures pertaining to his wife's intended immigration. Oswald would also be informed of the necessity for him and his wife to apply to the Soviet authorities for permission to leave the Soviet Union and would be invited to inform the Embassy if he had done so.

The reference in Oswald's letter to his present Soviet internal passport in which he is apparently designated as "without citizenship" is, if accurate, prima facie indication that the Soviet government does not regard him as possessing Soviet citizenship. It would appear on this basis that Oswald has not yet expatriated himself under Section 349(a)(1) of the Immigration and

"Dear Sirs:

May, 1961

"In regards to your letter of March 21. I understand the reasons for the necessity of a personal interview at the Embassy, however, I wish to make it clear that I am asking not only for the right to return to the United States, but also for full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case. I made that clear from my first letter, although nothing has been said, even vaguely, concerning this in my correspondence with the Embassy. Unless you honestly think that this condition can be met, I see no reason for a continuance of our correspondence, instead I shall endeavor to use my relatives in the United States, to see about getting something done in Washington.

"As for coming to Moscow, this would have to be on my own initiative and I do not care to take the risk of getting into a awkward situation unless I think it worthwhile. Also, since my last letter I have gotten married.

"My wife is Russian, born in Leningrad, she has no parents living and is quite willing to leave the Soviet Union with me and live in the United States.

"I would not leave here without my wife so arrangements would have to be made for her to leave at the same time as I do.

"The marriage stamp was placed on my present passport, after some trouble with the authorities, so my status as far as the USSR is concerned, is the same as before, that is "without citizenship."

"So with this extra complication I suggest you do some checking up before advising me further.

"I believe I have spoken frankly in this letter. I hope you do the same in your next letter.

"Sincerely yours,

/s/ Lee Harvey Oswald"

The Embassy has noted that the Department did not consider it prudent to forward Oswald's passport to him by mail. The Embassy also feels that it would be neither prudent nor appropriate in this case to return Oswald's passport to him without the normal physical and legal safe-guards provided by the requirement that he appear at the Embassy for a personal interview. Should circumstances arise which make it desirable to provide Oswald with a passport or certificate of identity, under circumstances other than the foregoing, the Embassy will request the Department's prior advice. Does the Department consider that Oswald is entitled to the protection of the United States Government while he continues to reside abroad under present circumstances in the absence of reasonable evidence that he has committed an expatriating act?

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

TO: The American Embassy MOSCOW

Further study has been given to the case of Mr. Oswald in the light of the Embassy's Despatch No. 806 of May 26, 1961.

Mr. Oswald's mother has been informed to the effect that her son has not yet visited the Embassy and that he has informed the Embassy that he has married a Russian woman.

The Department concurs with the Embassy in its proposed reply to Mr. Oswald, as indicated in the second paragraph of Despatch No. 806.

It is noted that while Mr. Oswald is in possession of a Soviet internal passport he apparently is designated therein as "without citizenship." It is not entirely clear what this designation is intended to infer, i.e. whether he is without Soviet citizenship or without any citizenship. In any event in the absence of evidence showing that Mr. Oswald has definitely lost United States citizenship he apparently maintains that technical status. Whether he is entitled to the protection of the United States pending any further developments concerning his precise status is a matter which will be left to the Embassy's discretion in the event an emergency situation should arise. In a situation of this kind, not of an emergency nature, the facts should be submitted to the Department.

It is noted that the Embassy intends to seek the Department's prior advice before granting Mr. Oswald documentation as a United States citizen upon any application he may submit.

The Embassy's careful attention to the involved case of Mr. Oswald is appreciated. It is assumed that there is no doubt that the person who has been in communication with the Embassy is the person who was issued a passport in the name of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Lee Harvey OSWALD appeared at the Embassy on July 8 on his own initiative in connection with his desire to return to the United States with his wife.

Oswald executed the enclosed questionnaire pertaining to possible expatriating acts and was questioned at length concerning his activities since entering the Soviet Union. No evidence was revealed of any act on his part which might have caused loss of his American citizenship. He exhibited Soviet internal "stateless" passport (vid na zhitelstvo dlya litya bez granhdanstva) No. 311179 issued by the Moscow city government on January 14, 1960, which is prima facie evidence that he is regarded by the Soviet authorities as not possessing Soviet citizenship. Oswald stated that despite the wording of the statement which he handed to the Embassy on October 31, 1959 (Embassy despatch 23h, November 2, 1959), he never in fact actually applied for Soviet citizenship. His application at that time was for permission to remain in the Soviet Union and for a temporary extension of his tourist visa pending the outcome of his request. This application, according to Oswald, contained no reference to Soviet citizenship, nor did he subsequently make any application for Soviet citizenship. The application was addressed by him to the USSR Supreme Soviet and was placed in the mail box of the Metropole Hotel. It appeared, however, to have been delivered to the central office of the Moscow OVIR and apparently was the basis of a notification to him by that office three days later of permission to remain in the Soviet Union. There was subsequently issued his present "stateless" internal passport.

Oswald stated that he has been employed since January 13, 1960, in the Belorussian Radio and TV Factory in Minsk, where he works as a metal worker in the research shop. He stated that he took no oath or affirmation or allegiance of any kind nor was he required to sign any kind of papers in connection with his employment. He gave his earnings as 90 rubles per month. He stated that he is not a member of the factory trade union organization, never having been asked to join.

Oswald stated that he had never been called upon to make any statements for radio or press or to address audiences since his arrival in the Soviet Union and that he has made no statements at any time of any exploitable nature concerning his original decision to reside in the Soviet Union. He recalled that he had been interviewed briefly in his room at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow on the third day after his arrival in the Soviet Union by a reporter from Radio Moscow. The reporter represented himself as seeking comments from American tourists on their impressions of Moscow. Oswald stated that he made no more than a few routine comments of a visiting-tourist nature, the whole lasting no more than two or three minutes and of no political significance. When queried about a statement which he had made to the interviewing officer at the time of his first appearance at the Embassy on October 31, 1959, to the effect that he would willingly make available to the Soviet Union such information as he had acquired as a radar operator in the Marine Corps, Oswald stated that he was never in fact subjected to any questioning or briefing by the Soviet authorities concerning his life or experiences prior to entering the Soviet Union, and never provided such information to any Soviet organ. He stated that he doubted in fact that he would have given such information if requested despite his statements made at the Embassy.

Oswald indicated some anxiety as to whether, should he return to the United States, he would face possible lengthy imprisonment for his act of remaining in the Soviet Union. Oswald was told informally that the Embassy did not perceive, on the basis of information in its possession, on what grounds he might be subject to conviction leading to punishment of such severity as he apparently had in mind. It was clearly stated to him, however, that the Embassy could give him no assurance as to whether upon his desired return to the United States he might be liable to prosecution for offenses committed in violation of laws of the United States or of any of its States. Oswald said he understood this. He had simply felt that in his own interest he could not go back to the United States if it meant returning to a number of years in prison, and had delayed approaching Soviet authorities concerning departing from the Soviet Union until he had this end of the thing straightened-out."

Oswald was married on April 30, 1961, to Marina Nikolaevna FUSAKOVA, a dental technician. He is attempting to arrange for his wife to join him in Moscow so that she can appear at the Embassy for a visa interview in the next day or two.

Oswald intends to institute an application for an exit visa immediately upon his return to Minsk within the next few days. His American passport was returned to him for this purpose after having been amended to be valid for direct return to the United States only. The possession of a foreign passport or similar travel document is typically a prerequisite to being permitted to file an application for a Soviet exit visa, and it was felt that there was little prospect that Oswald could accomplish anything with the Soviet officials concerned unless he displayed his American passport. Oswald's present passport expires on September 10, 1961, and it is our intention not to renew it without the Department's prior approval of the enclosed renewal application, and then only upon evidence of a present need for the renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States.

Twenty months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He stated frankly that he had learned a hard lesson the hard way and that he had been completely relieved of his illusions about the Soviet Union at the same time that he acquired a new understanding and appreciation of the United States and the meaning of freedom. Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the Embassy appears to have left him. He stated that he is in contact with his mother and a brother in the United States. He stated that he had about 200 rubles and that he and his wife would save more for eventual costs of traveling to the United States.

Action Requested: The Department's action is requested on the enclosed application for renewal of Oswald's passport. If approved, it is requested that the Embassy be authorized to renew Oswald's passport at its discretion.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who attempted to defect to Russia in October, 1959, and who was a member of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, had been given an undesirable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve on August 17, 1960.

I. BACKGROUND

A. Name and Aliases

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, also known as Lee Oswald.

B. Residence

On April 28, 1960, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, subject's mother, currently residing at 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas, where she was employed at Methodist Orphans Home, volunteered the following information:

She stated that up until 1945 she and her sons had lived at New Orleans, Louisiana. In 1945 they moved to Fort Worth, Texas, where the subject attended high school until he enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps at the age of 17 in October, 1956.

On June 23, 1961, Mrs. JAMES E. TAYLOR, 4936 Collingwood Street, Fort Worth, Texas, stated the subject and his mother resided in a partly furnished upstairs apartment at 4936 Collingwood Street, from July 1, 1956, to May 1, 1957, except that subject sometime during the Fall of 1956, enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps at the age of 17. She advised that subject's brother, ROBERT OSWALD, also resided at 4936 Collingwood until the time of his marriage.

On April 10, 1961, Mrs. OSWALD voluntarily furnished the information that she was currently residing at 1612 Hurley Street, Fort Worth, Texas. She explained that she had returned to Fort Worth about April 1, 1961, from Boyd, Texas, where she had operated a dress shop which she found necessary to close on account of financial difficulties. Mrs. OSWALD related that during January, 1961, she had made a trip to Washington, D. C., for the purpose of contacting the office of the U. S. Secretary of State in an effort to obtain some information concerning subject. She stated that she had furnished all information available in her possession concerning the subject and that she had in turn sought information to ascertain his current address. She advised that she had recently been informed by the State Department that subject was located at Minsk, Russia. She also advised that it is her understanding that subject desires to return to the United States.

II. CONNECTIONS WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

ROBERT LEE OSWALD, 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas, was, on April 27, 1960, employed as a salesman for Acme Brick Company of Fort Worth. ROBERT LEE OSWALD stated that he is a brother of subject who was believed by ROBERT to be in Moscow, Russia. ROBERT related that his brother had obtained an honorable discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps in September, 1959, and after visiting his mother in Fort Worth for a period of about three days left Fort Worth with the expressed intention of going to New Orleans, Louisiana, to resume his former employment in export-import work. ROBERT stated that the entire family was later shocked to learn that subject had gone to Russia where he had renounced his United States citizenship and had applied for citizenship in the Soviet Union.

ROBERT LEE OSWALD also stated that he had never known the subject to have had any sympathy for or connection with communism before this incident occurred.

ROBERT OSWALD stated that he has had no contact in any manner or form with any individual known by him to be a Soviet official or affiliated in any way with Soviet establishments. He also stated that so far as he knows, neither his mother nor any other member of this family have had any contact whatsoever with Soviet officials or with Soviet establishments.

ROBERT LEE OSWALD stated that he would immediately contact the FBI in the event he were contacted by Soviet officials. He also stated that neither he nor his mother has been requested to furnish any items of personal identification to the subject in Russia and that in the event he were to receive such a request he would immediately contact the FBI.

On April 23, 1960, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, who was then employed at Methodist Orphans Home, 1111 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas, volunteered the following information:

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she has been very much upset and uneasy concerning her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, since she learned during the Fall of 1959, with much to her surprise that he had gone to Moscow, Russia, where he had renounced his United States citizenship and had apparently sought Soviet citizenship. She stated that following his discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps in September, 1959, he visited her for a few days in Fort Worth and left town stating that he was going to New Orleans, Louisiana, to resume his employment with an export-import company, at New Orleans. She stated that subject had engaged in export-import employment for a brief period of time prior to his enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps. Mrs. OSWALD also stated that subject had mentioned something about his desire to travel and said something also about the fact that he might go to Cuba.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that shortly after subject arrived in New Orleans, she received the following letter postmarked at New Orleans, Louisiana, from subject:

"Dear mother:

"Well I have booked passage on a ship to Europe. I would of had to sooner or later, and I think its best that I do now. Just remember above all else that my values are very different from Roberts or yours.

"It is difficult to tell you how I feel. Just remember this is what I must do. I did not tell you about my plans because you could hardly be expected to understand. Lee."

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she was very much shocked and surprised later to learn that he had gone to Moscow, Russia. She stated that she had no idea as to how he arrived there but that she does know that he had saved up about $1000 from his services in the U. S. Marine Corps. She stated that he did not previously discuss with her any intention to go to Moscow, Russia. She also stated that he had never shown any proclivities for the ideologies of communism. She stated that he had never expressed any sympathy for Russia or the communist system. She stated that subject was always a studious type of individual and that he read books that were considered "deep." Mrs. OSWALD stated that she would not have been surprised to have heard that subject had gone to, say, South America or Cuba, but that it had never entered her mind that he might go to Russia or that he might try to become a citizen of Russia. Mrs. OSWALD stated that she felt strongly that subject has a right as an individual to make his own decisions, however, she stated that she was very greatly surprised and disappointed that he had taken this action.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she made application on January 22, 1960, at the First National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, for a foreign draft and upon payment of $26.65 she was issued a "foreign money transfer No. 142,603" by which instrument she sent $25.00 by air mail to subject, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, in care of Hotel Metropole, Moscow, Russia.

Mrs. OSWALD explained that she was indebted to subject in the amount of $100 as a result of a loan which she had made to her previously.

She stated that on December 13, 1959, she had mailed a personal check of $20.00 by way of part payment on this debt to "LEE OSWALD, Metropole Hotel, Moscow, Russia." She made this check payment to LEE OSWALD. However, on or about January 5, 1960, this check was returned to her by mail containing a note scratched on a piece of paper in pencil by subject, stating he "could not use the check, of course." In this note he requested her to put $20.00 in cash in an envelope and send it to him inasmuch as he was "also short of cash and needed the rest. LEE." She stated that she then mailed a $20 bill and expressed her reluctance in sending cash through the mail. In this letter to subject she requested him to let her know if he received the $20 bill and also to furnish her with his correct address. She stated that she added in this letter her hope that he liked Russia. She added "If you don't and want to come back, I believe it can be arranged. Are you working?" She stated that she addressed this letter to Mr. LEE H. OSWALD, Metropole Hotel, Moscow, Russia. She also advised that the envelope containing the $20 was returned to her on February 25, 1960, stamped, "Retour Departi." She stated that on the reverse side of this envelope was stamped "Mokhan Noytant, Moscow, Russia," January 19, 1960," and also the following lettering "ЛЕХАЙНАРОВАТО."

Mrs. OSWALD advised that since January 22, 1960, she had sent three different letters to her son but that all had been returned to her undelivered. She stated that she feared that he might have become stranded and in danger. She stated that she has had correspondence with reference to subject with her Congressman and with the U. S. State Department inasmuch as she has been very much alarmed for fear that something might have happened to subject.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she would gladly report any contacts made with her by Soviet officials. She volunteered her eagerness to cooperate in any way possible. She stated that she had not been requested to furnish any items of personal identification to subject in Russia. She volunteered the information that subject had taken with him his birth certificate when he left Fort Worth. She promised to advise the FBI immediately in the event any contacts were made with her by Soviet officials or by Soviet establishments in this connection.

A check of the files of Office of Naval Intelligence, Eighth Naval District, U. S. Naval Station in Algiers, Louisiana, on April 18, 1961, revealed that this file contained a Photostat of a telegram from the Department of State, Moscow, Russia, dated October 31, 1959, at 7:59 A.M. This telegram stated in part that subject who was twenty years of age and unmarried, carrying passport No. 1733242, issued September 10, 1959, had appeared at the Embassy to renounce his American citizenship and had applied in Moscow for Russian citizenship following his entry into the USSR from Helsinki. This telegram advised further that subject's mother's address in the United States was 4936 Collingwood Street Fort Worth, Texas. This telegram quoted subject as having said he had contemplated this matter during the last two years. Main reason "American Marxist"; attitude arrogant and aggressive. Subject had recently been discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps. Subject was further quoted as having offered the Soviets any information he had acquired as enlisted radio operator.

On June 28, 1961, Mrs. JAMES E. TAYLOR, 4936 Collingwood Street, Fort Worth, Texas, stated that on or about July 1, 1956, she rented her upstairs west, partly furnished, apartment, to Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD. With Mrs. OSWALD were her two sons, ROBERT and the subject of this case. Mrs. TAYLOR stated that she had never known the third son. Mrs. TAYLOR stated also that she had never known any member of this family prior to July 1, 1956.

Mrs. TAYLOR stated that subject was a student in Arlington Heights High School and was only about 16 or 17 years of age when the OSWALDS moved to this address. She stated that ROBERT later married and moved with his wife to another address. Mrs. TAYLOR stated that subject was a peculiar boy inasmuch as he read a great deal and kept very much to himself. She stated that she has heard Mrs. OSWALD state that subject read books which were "over his head." Mrs. TAYLOR explained this to mean that the books he read were "deep" books. She stated that she does not know the titles of any of this material which he read. Mrs. TAYLOR stated that she got the impression that subject obtained some of this reading material through the mail. Mrs. TAYLOR stated that she actually felt sorry for the subject inasmuch as it appeared to her that he had few if any friends and no social life. She stated that she pitied the boy because he had never known his father who had died before his birth. She stated that Mrs. OSWALD worked continuously in an effort to support her two boys. Mrs. TAYLOR remarked that she has never seen any one stay at home more closely than did the subject. She stated that Mrs. OSWALD often quarrelled at him for staying at home so closely and on occasion urged him to get out and seek employment but that he preferred to sit at home and read.

Mrs. TAYLOR stated that Mrs. OSWALD was in poor health and extremely nervous and that she often quarrelled very loudly with both ROBERT and the subject.

Mrs. TAYLOR stated that the OSWALDS came to Fort Worth from New Orleans, Louisiana. Mrs. TAYLOR stated that both ROBERT OSWALD and Mrs. OSWALD were extremely shocked and hurt by the action which subject took disavowing his United States citizenship and claiming citizenship in Russia.

Mrs. TAYLOR stated that subject enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps while he was residing at 4936 Collingwood Street. She advised that Mrs. OSWALD moved from this address on or about May 1, 1957, and that she has had no contact with the OSWALDS in recent years.

On June 30, 1961, JAMES P. MEEK, 3120 West Fifth Street, Fort Worth, stated that for a period of several months three or four years ago Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD resided at 3124 West Fifth Street. He stated that so far as he knows subject had never resided at 3124 West Fifth and MEEK was unable to furnish any information of value to this investigation.

On June 23, 1961, Dallas Confidential Informants T-3 and T-4 advised that their knowledge of subject is limited to newspaper accounts reporting subject's defection to Soviet Russia. Dallas T-3 and T-4 advised that subject was not a member of the Communist Party (CP) at Fort Worth and that they have never heard his name mentioned in connection with CP membership.

It is noted that the Communist Party, USA (CP), has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States, pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A review on May 9, 1961, of the files of the Passport Office, U. S. Department of State, Washington, D. C., revealed that on or about January 23, 1961, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of subject, appeared at the U. S. Department of State in Washington, D. C. She advised that she had come to Washington to see what could be done to help her son, the subject. She expressed the thought that perhaps her son had gone to the Soviet Union as a "secret agent" and that the State Department was not doing enough to help him. She was advised that such was not the case and that efforts were being made to help her son.

On February 13, 1961, the U. S. Embassy in Moscow, USSR, received an undated letter from LEE HARVEY OSWALD postmarked Minsk, February 5, 1961. In this letter OSWALD indicated that he desired the return of his U. S. passport as he wished to return to the United States if "we could come to some agreement concerning the dropping of any legal proceedings against me." He also said that he could not leave Minsk without permission and therefore was writing instead of visiting the American Embassy.

On March 20, 1961, the U. S. Embassy in Moscow received a letter from OSWALD postmarked Minsk, March 5, 1961. In this letter OSWALD said he found it inconvenient to come to Moscow for an interview at the American Embassy and that he could not leave Minsk without permission. He asked that in place of a personal interview he be sent a questionnaire.

Lee Harvey Oswald

There is attached for your information a copy of Despatch No. 317 of October 12, 1961 from the Embassy at Moscow concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, who is having difficulties to arrange to depart from the Soviet Union with his alien wife.

We are informing the Embassy that we approve of its replies to Mr. Oswald relative to his receiving further passport facilities.

It is indicated that a copy of a Confidential Office Memorandum of July 27, 1961 from OY to PPT on the subject was forwarded to your office. Please note the inference in that memorandum that Mr. Oswald is not a citizen of the United States. Our determination on the basis of the information and evidence of record is that Mr. Oswald, who was born at New Orleans, Louisiana on October 10, 1939, has not expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States.

Commission Exhibit No. 984

MAR 11 1964

The Honorable Dean Rusk
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Secretary Rusk:

As you know, the Commission of which I am Chairman has been charged by the President with investigating all aspects of the assassination of President Kennedy with a view that a full report should be made to the American people. In particular, we have been engaged in collecting all possible information on the life and background of Lee Harvey Oswald, who was under arrest in Dallas on charges of murdering the President when he, in turn, was killed.

The Commission has already heard evidence given by Mrs. Marina Oswald, his wife, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, his mother, and Mr. Robert Oswald, his brother. We have also received statements and documents pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald from other sources, including the consular files of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, which Ambassador Dobrynin made available to the Department of State. This consular file relates chiefly to correspondence between the Consular Section of the Soviet Embassy and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald in the period 1962-63.

While the Commission has found useful the material presented in the consular file by the Soviet Embassy covering the years 1962-63 after Lee Harvey Oswald returned from the Soviet Union with his Soviet-born wife, Marina, and their baby girl, it lacks material relating to the years 1959-62 during which Lee Harvey Oswald was in the Soviet Union. It would be especially valuable to the work of the Commission and for the presentation to the American people of a full report on the life and character of Lee Harvey Oswald if the Soviet authorities could furnish the United States Government with further details of his activities during his residence in the Soviet Union, including copies of any official records which the Soviet authorities may find it possible to supply.

The Commission is particularly interested in records related to the following aspects of Lee Harvey Oswald's life in the Soviet Union:

- (1) Copies of any records of medical and psychological examinations and treatment of Lee Harvey Oswald, especially those relating to treatment in October of 1959 when, according to Lee Harvey Oswald's diary, he was found unconscious in his hotel room by Intourist Guide Rina Shirokova after an attempted suicide and removed to a hospital.
- (2) Copies of any records of medical and psychological examinations and treatment of Marina Oswald as an adult, especially those relating to any treatment around October of 1961 when, according to Lee Harvey Oswald's diary, she was treated for nervous exhaustion.
- (3) Copies of any records showing drunkenness, violence, disorderly conduct or other abnormal behavior on the part of Lee Harvey Oswald, whether or not criminal.
- (4) Copies of correspondence between Lee Harvey Oswald and Soviet authorities with regard to his request to reside in the Soviet Union and obtain Soviet citizenship.
- (5) Copies of correspondence between Lee Harvey Oswald or Marina Oswald and Soviet authorities with regard to their efforts to leave the Soviet Union.
- (6) Copies of records showing Lee Harvey Oswald's places of residence and employment in the Soviet Union.

- (7) Copies of any statements, before or since the assassination of President Kennedy, volunteered by Soviet citizens who knew Lee Harvey Oswald during his residence in the Soviet Union which relate to the above questions or might otherwise be of interest to the Commission.

The Commission has asked me to write you in the above sense and, if you concur, to request the Soviet Government for any assistance it may find it possible to give in shedding further light on Lee Harvey Oswald.

Sincerely,

Earl Warren

Chairman

NOTE VERBALE

The Secretary of State presents his compliments to His Excellency the Ambassador of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and has the honor to state the following.

The Department wishes to express its appreciation for the information about Lee Harvey Oswald already received from the Soviet Embassy comprising copies of correspondence between the consular officers of the Embassy and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald in the period 1962-63.

The Government of the United States would be grateful if the Soviet Government would furnish it with any further available information concerning the activities of Lee Harvey Oswald during his residence from 1959 to 1962 in the Soviet Union, in particular copies of any official records concerning him.

For the information of the Soviet Government, there is attached a copy of a letter to the Secretary of State from Chief Justice Earl Warren, Chairman of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy.

REPORT

on Lee Harvey Oswald, born in 1939, a native of New Orleans, American by nationality, secondary education, a regulator in the experimental shop of the Minsk radio plant.

Citizen Harvey Lee Oswald was hired as a regulator in the experimental shop of the plant on January 13, 1960.

During his employment as regulator his performance was unsatisfactory. He does not display the initiative for increasing his skill as a regulator.

Citizen Lee Harvey Oswald reacts in an over-sensitive manner to remarks from the foremen, and is careless in his work. Citizen L. H. Oswald takes no part in the social life of the shop and keeps very much to himself.

This report is issued for presentation to the Minsk City Militia Department.

Oct. 21 The patient was brought by ambulance into the Admission Ward of the Botkin hospital and further referred to Eldg. [or wing] No. 26.

According to his statement in the Admission Ward — with the aid of an interpreter — the patient arrived a few days ago in the Soviet Union as a tourist for the purpose of obtaining Soviet citizenship and remaining in Russia. For this reason he had been saving money for 3 years, and applied to the Supreme Soviet of the USSR. He did not receive a definite answer and on Oct. 21 was supposed to leave for his home country. In order to delay his departure he inflicted wounds on the lower third of his left forearm and put it into hot water. He lost consciousness and at 16:00 [4 p.m.] on Oct. 21, was brought to the Botkin hospital where he was examined by the surgeon and bandaged.

He was examined by a psychiatrist. [He spent] three days in the psychiatric ward for observation. According to the conclusion of the expert, the patient is not dangerous to other people and may stay in the somatic department. By order of the assistant to the chief physician he was transferred to room No. 7. General condition satisfactory. Respiration in the lungs is vesicular. Heart is normal. Pulse is rhythmic [illegible] RR  $\frac{100}{70}$ . Liver and spleen not enlarged.

The patient was admitted to Botkin Hospital on Oct. 21, '59. He was brought to the hospital because of an incised wound of the left forearm. The wound is of a linear character with sharp edges.

In the admission department he was given primary treatment of the wound and skin sutures.

The character of the injury is considered light without functional disturbances. The patient is of clear mind, no sign of psychotic phenomena.

He explains his attempt to commit suicide by the fact that he arrived from the USA in the Soviet Union on a tourist visa with the firm intention of staying in the Soviet Union. Not having the opportunity to realize his intention because of circumstances beyond his control, and having to leave the Soviet Union on Oct. 21, 1959, he tried to cut the blood vessels of his left arm on the same day.

During his stay in the [admission] department, his attitude was completely normal. He insists that he does not want to return to the USA.

Psychiatric examination

A few days ago [the patient] arrived in the Soviet Union in order to apply for our citizenship. Today he was to have left the Soviet Union. In order to postpone his departure he inflicted the injury upon himself. The patient apparently understands the questions asked in Russian. Sometimes he answers correctly, but immediately states that he does not understand what he was asked.

According to the interpreter, there were no mentally sick people in his family. He had no skull trauma, never before had he made attempts to commit suicide. He tried to commit suicide in order not to leave for America. He claims he regrets his action. After recovery he intends to return to his homeland.

It was not possible to get more information from the patient.

Oct. 22 According to the translator:

[The patient] arrived from the USA on Oct. 16 as a tourist. He graduated from a technical high school in radio-technology and radioelectronics. He has no parents. He came with the intention of acquiring Soviet citizenship. In this matter he turned to the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, USSR. His left arm, injured by a sharp instrument, was lying in hot water. The ambulance was called and he was taken to the Botkin Hospital.

He had saved money for three years to come to the USSR and to remain in the Soviet Union forever.

His mind is clear. His perception is correct. He remembers how he wanted to commit suicide by cutting his veins with a razor blade and putting his bloodstained hand into hot water. Now he is sorry for the attempt to commit suicide.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I, Oswald, Marina Nikolaevna, born Prusakova, M. N., was born July 17, 1941, in Severo-Dvinsk (former Molotovsk), Arkhangelskaya Oblast. I lived with my mother and stepfather in Leningrad, where I graduated from the secondary school and entered the Leningrad Pharmaceutical School. My mother died in 1957. On graduation from school, I was retained for work in Leningrad. Due to family circumstances, I worked for the last 2 years (up to 1962) as an assistant at the pharmacy of the 3rd Clinical Hospital in Minsk, residing at the home of my maternal uncle (Prusakov, Ilya Vasilevich), and subsequently was married. In February, 1962, a daughter, June Lee Oswald, was born to us. My husband is an American by nationality, and so we found ourselves in America. But a year later, I am applying for a visa for entry into the USSR and beg you not to deny my request. My husband remains in the U. S. A.

To the Embassy of the USSR

Consular Section,
Comrade Reznichenko

from Oswald, Marina Nikolaevna

Dear Comrade Reznichenko!

I received two letters from you in which you requested me to indicate the reason for my wish to return to the USSR.

But first of all, permit me to apologize for such a long silence on my part and to thank you for a considerate attitude toward me on the part of the Embassy. The reasons for my silence were certain family "problems" (if one can express it this way) which stood in the way. That is also one of the reasons why I wish to return to the Homeland. The main reason, "of course" (sic), is homesickness, regarding which much is written and spoken, but one learns it only in a foreign land.

I count among family "problems" the fact that in the middle or the end of October, I expect the birth of my second child. This would have probably complicated matters for me, because I would not be able to work during the first few months. And yet, I have no one from whom I could expect help, for I have no parents. My relatives were against my going to America and, therefore, I would be ashamed to appeal to them. That is why I had to weigh everything once more before replying to your letter.

But things are improving due to the fact that my husband expresses a sincere wish Уважаемый тов. Рязанский!

Получив от Вас 2 письма, в которых вы просили указать дорогу моего посыла, вернутой в СССР.

Во-первых, разрешите поблагодарить за обширную заботу мой мамаше и поблагодарить за внимательное отноше-ние ко мне со стороны Госплана.

Крепкой лично желаю здоровья всем по-скольку семейные проблемы решены но так тяжело, поэтому, поэтому не могу это так не одна но лично лично лично хочу вернуться на Родину, особенно проблема, конечно, тоже по Родине, о ней лично пишу и говорю, но уважаю только на здоровье.

К сожалению, проблема с здоровьем то что в середине июля октября с оными рождения 2-го ребенка. Это вероятно случилось от моей болезни, так как работа первая была в не смысле от. Я понимаю куда некуда, так родилась у меня мать. Родилась же она от отца моего отца в Америку и поэтому обратил к мне с просьбой дать от отца.

Вот почему лично это все все все, кроме чем ответить на Ваше письмо.

Но дело заключается так, что мой лучше известит исправнее мамаше.

to return together with me to the USSR. I earnestly beg you to help him in this. There is not much that is encouraging for us here and nothing to hold us. I would not be able to work for the time being, even if I did find work. And my husband is often unemployed. It is very difficult for us to live here. We have no money to enable me to come to the Embassy, not even to pay for hospital and other expenses connected with the birth of a child. We both urgently solicit your assistance to enable us to return and work in the USSR.

In my application I did not specify the place in which I would like to live in the Soviet Union. I earnestly beg you to help us to obtain permission to live in Leningrad where I grew up and went to school. I have a sister and a brother of my mother's second marriage there. I know that I do not have to explain to you the reason for my wish to live precisely in that city. It speaks for itself. I permit myself to write this without any desire to belittle the merits of our other cities. Moreover, it would be easier for me to find employment in Leningrad, since there are more pharmacies there and additional personnel are needed. For instance, when I came to Minsk from Leningrad, I could not find work in my specialty for quite a long time, because they had sufficient personnel.

These are the basic reasons why I and my husband wish to return to the USSR. Please do not deny our request. Make us happy again, help us to return that which we lost because of our foolishness. I would like to have my second child, too, to be born in the USSR.

Sincerely and respectfully,

/s/ M. Oswald

Dear sirs;

This is to inform you of recent events since my meetings with comrade Kostin in the Embassy Of the Soviet Union, Mexico City, Mexico.

I was unable to remain in Mexico indefinitely because of my Mexican visa restrictions which was for 15 days only. I could not take a chance on requesting a new visa unless I used my real name, so I returned to the United States.

I had not planned to contact the Soviet embassy in Mexico so they were unprepared, had I been able to reach the Soviet Embassy in Havana as planned, the embassy there would have had time to complete our business.

Of course the Soviet embassy was not at fault, they were, as I say unprepared, the Cuban consulate was guilty of a gross breach of regulations, I am glad he has since been replaced.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is not now interested in my activities in the progressive organization "Fair Play For Cuba Committee", of which I was secretary in New Orleans (state Louisiana) since I no longer reside in that state. However, the F.B.I. has visited us here in Dallas, Texas, on November 1st. Agent James P. Hasty warned me that if I engaged in F.P.C.C. activities in Texas the F.B.I. will again take an "interest" in me.

This agent also "suggested" to Marina Nichilayeva that she could remain in the United States under F.B.I. "protection", that is, she could defect from the Soviet Union, of course, I and my wife strongly protested these tactics by the notorious F.B.I.

Please inform us of the arrival of our Soviet entrance visa's as soon as they come.

Also, this is to inform you of the birth, on October 20, 1963 of a DAUGHTER, AUDREY MARINA OSWALD in DALLAS, TEXAS, to my wife.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Let me thank you for the attention you're giving me. I don't think you have anything to worry about. What you read in the papers is correct. I don't object to having the Secret Service around "guarding" me, as I am grateful for their time. I'm free to go where I please and see whom I please. I myself don't want to see anyone to remind me of what has happened. I hope you understand my feelings. When I feel I'm ready, I would with pleasure like to see Mrs Ruth Paine, who is as very nice person. I hope you understand I lived in a stranger's house and I would not want to inconvenience anyone as kind as Mrs Ruth Paine with visitors I be sure to receive, and also I give much time to visits with the FBI. I also want to thank you for being so kind to worry about my person. I am repeating again, I am in as good a position as could be expected after what has happened. Please let Mrs Ruth Paine know I owe to her much and think of her as one of my best friends.

Everything best to you

Уважаемый, господин Олс!

Разрешите поблагодарить Вас за внимание к мне, за то что Вы беспокоитесь о моей судьбе.

Сообщаю Вам, что Ваше волнение совершенно излишне, хотя исходя из того, что пишут в газетах, всё это вполне обосновано.

У меня нет никаких претензий к работникам Секретного отдела, которые "охраняют" меня. Кроме благодарности за то, что они несут о моей безопасности в данной ситуации, я ничего не могу сказать. Я вполне свободно ходить куда хочу и видеться с кем желаю. Моя оторванность от мира объясняется только моим самоубийством. У меня после всего, что случилось просто нет никакого желания видеть кого-либо тем более, если это напоминает мне служившее. Надеюсь, что Вы понимаете моё состояние и извините меня за мою замкнутость. Когда я почувствую, что всё более менее встало на свои места, я с удовольствием встречу с Рут Тэйн, которая очень хороша человек и много, кроме добра мне не сделала. Надеюсь, что вы также понимаете, что если я живу в гужандале, то просто неудобно стеснять людей какими визитами моих друзей и других людей, которые желают говорить со мной. К тому же я занята детьми и профессиональными сотрудниками ФБР (FBI) — отнимали много времени и сил.

Ещё раз спасибо за беспокойство о моей персоне. И искренне уверяю Вас, что нахожусь в прекрасном положении, которое <sup>только</sup> возможно после всего, что случилось.

Прошу также передать Рут Тэйлор, что очень обязана ей вниманием ко мне и конечно считаю её своим другом.

Всего хорошего.

Dear Mr. Olds -

I would like to thank you for your attentiveness toward me, and for the fact that you are worried about my fate.

Your concern is quite unnecessary, although, if one is to judge by what appears in the papers, it would seem justified.

I have no complaints about the Secret Service personnel who are "protecting" me. Except for thankfulness that they are taking care of my well-being and security in the present circumstances, I have nothing more to say. I am completely free to go where I want and to see whom I want. My isolation is due to my own state of mind; after all that has happened, I just don't want to see anybody, especially when it could remind me of what has happened. I hope you will understand my position and excuse my isolation. When I feel that life has more or less returned to its former course, I will be very glad to see Ruth Paine, who is a very fine person and who has been only helpful to me. I hope you will also understand that, since I am living in another person's house, it is just embarrassing for me to bother people with lots of visits from my friends and from other people who want to talk to me. And, besides, I am busy with the children and with visits from FBI people--and this takes up a lot of time and energy.

Once again thank you for your concern about me. I assure you quite sincerely that I am in as good a position as is possible, after all that has happened.

I also ask you to tell Ruth Paine that I am very obliged to her for her attentiveness toward me and of course consider her to be my friend.

Best regards

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 992

Ужаснейшею痛ю всё стало вчера, а прошло уже Зюда - срок не слишком большой, но прошёл быстро, как один день. И много воды утекло с тех пор, и много пере-
 мен. ~~Бывает, что сами~~ ~~примиряются~~ Вас ~~какая-то~~ ~~чужая~~ может быть интересу-ет как мы познакомились с Ли Овалдом, как жили. Жизнь обыкновенная, ни чем особенным не примечательная. Тут же живет огромное большинство людей во всем мире.
 Но мне кажется, что было что-то, что отличало судьбу. Я ~~даже~~ ~~теперь~~ ~~даже~~ теперь <sup>уже</sup> могу сказать, что это судьба.
 И пусть простят меня люди, которые не верят в судьбу.

.... Так вот. Познакомились мы с Ли в Минске. Это довольно большой; крупнейший город; столица Белоруской республики. Население составляет 500 тысяч человек. И вот среди этого сравнительно большого числа людей две наши друг друга. Я русский, мой содуший друг американец. Ли представля-ет разные страны, но <sup>раньше</sup> ~~судьба~~ ~~соединил~~ нас ~~мы~~ ~~стали~~

22/02/1967

Тот день был какой-то четверг, точно
 1967 года. В марте в Минске ещё очень холодно, снег, мороз и иногда ветер - зима не хочет сдаваться, но чувствуется во всем приближение весны. И даже сердца людей начинают гудеть по-ново-му. По крайней мере так мне кажется молодому. Мне было 19 лет. У меня было много поклонников среди молодой людей. Но все девушки, когда они

уже видят замиги могут сказать то же самое. Одним из них был Саша П. Он я учился в Меридианской ин-те и как я достоверно знаю она влюблен в меня по уши, хотя знал за мной не мало недостатков. Я не была увлечена им, ~~хот.~~ но это не потому, что он был тихим. Наоборот много девушек мечтали иметь его своим близким другол. Он был не дурак, умел я убедиться и королю, ~~в том~~ <sup>теперь он хороший друг у</sup> правда слыш, что <sup>тоже</sup> танко 20 лет. (когда не отрицайте молодое люди - кому двадцать - но думаю, что для серьезного дела, как кем-тобы это мало).
 Но сердце почему-то не можно у меня к этому Саше. Вероятно потому, что он был слишком хороши во всех отношениях и я знала, что он очень привлекателен ко мне. Это привлек меня и привлекал других его одноклассников.
 Он тоже был из Меридиан-го, но был на много старше Саше. После Парижа он познакомился в ин-туб. Ему уже было 26 - всё же человек с неизменными светлыми волосами.
 Совсем некрасивый (этого обычно я откопала у него с Мелом Феррером).
 Но мне стыдно было появляться с ним на людях - иная девушка. Стеснялась что подружки скажут с каким некрасивым молодым человеком встречается Маринка.
 Зато по телефону он с ней разговаривал там по 2-3 часа и это очень. Очень интересно было говорить с Эмиль Анастаси-мией. Он всегда некоем и интересном темат для разговоров, часто критиковал меня, даже иногда смеялся надо мной пошушуба, пошусерьезно. Мошен был ланность по-казались.

это и прибегало меня к нему. Он очень любил свою маму и катал на велосипеде с ней. Мне это нравилось. У мамы мамы уже не было. И мне приятно было видеть как такой большой, уже совсем взрослый человек относится как маленький невинный ребенок к своей маме.
Не все умеют смирять это так неосудительно, хотя почти все любят свою маму, многие считают это дурью. И много друго было в этом человеке но человеком прекрасного... Им он обязан конечно своим родителям, воспитавшим его. Он получил наказание до начала знакомства своего род-ного брата (кажется он убогий), которого он любил. Может быть поэтому он перебрал свою любовь на людей. Он хотел стать хорошим врачом, чтоб помогать людям в их страданиях. И еще он мог хорошо дружить.
Например у него был товарищ с которым они вместе поступили в Мед. ин-тут, но товарищ не ~~выдержал~~ прошел по конкурсу.
И хотя Анатолий мог был быть зачислен
в ин-тут по кол-ву баллов, он поступил снова вместе с товарищем на следующий год.
Мы встречались с Анатолием, он мне нра-вился, но я не думала ни о чем серьезном.
Он хотел жениться на мне, но я отказалась, т.к. он был еще студентом. И ~~я была~~ <sup>он</sup> ~~не~~ хотел уметь и содержать семью. Я пришла тогда он окончил. Слишком много для молодой девушки 5 лет. Так, мне казалось это 5 лет много и много может пре-мениться. ~~Пис~~

Так вот сама признала меня на молодежный вечер <sup>в</sup> Мед. ин-то. Где я знала меня друг детства Анатолий.

Сама она со своим мужем из Нью-Йорка
 Один из его друзей познакомил меня с Ли, назвав его Америком (Америком его звали все друзья с которыми он работал и встречался. Они перекрестили его русскими именами, т.к. его звали Ли (он не очень привычно для русского уха). ~~Вот~~ Но он не сказал, что Ли американец. И когда Ли пригласил меня танцевать и мне было интересно, то я решила, что он из Трибалтии, т.к. говорил с акцентом.
 Но позже, в этот же вечер <sup>и мне так же</sup> я узнала что Ли американец. ~~Этот~~ Этот вечер неадекватно, который представил мне Ли она с турне в Америку и рассказывала о своих впечатлениях. ~~Позднее~~ Позднее ей мне и пригласил Амику, которого видел друг мой раньше, на этот вечер. ~~Вот~~ ~~когда я пришла сразу Ли был~~ Но в этот же на вечер и этой беседы не случилось.
~~Вот~~ Вообще Ли мне понравился сразу. Он был очень веселый, внимателен и чувствовал, что ему я понравилась, т.к. он не старался не пропустить ни од-ного танца со мной и нервничал, как кто-то другой успевавший пригласить меня быстрее его. Позже ~~и~~ когда уже были знакомы) Ли сказал мне что он сразу, как только я пришла обратил на меня внимание. Не подумайте, что я о себе особого мнения или что-то много мною влюблен. Но могу сказать много раз ~~и~~ ~~и~~ и то что я была сразу же с него за - это сделано мной. ~~Позднее~~ Позднее же друзья уже узнали у себя, а я еще только ~~встретилась~~ узнала себя только
 - т.к. что мне совсем не было.

уши вил. Томми было на мне <sup>молнии</sup> (не потом моды со шпале) и интереса под Бриггид Бордот. В тоб вечер я даже сама себе нравилась. Ризи-те, как хваталось. Но шму то, то зубистована. Вей правда, но потом ска-зал мне, что <sup>верил</sup> когда я болела в
и получал как от похолодания со мной
за. и оно было по его шму, то он рау, <sup>показывал</sup> его товарищу пошел его к той толпе маюдени, где она я.
Далше по окончанию вечера мы вышли домой. Вел дружной гуляе, к тому Юрию, мать которого была в Америке.
Она сказала очень символической мен-шине, от'естовно смотрелась на вещи.
Томми, то они немного поспорили
с Анной, т.к Анна зашила Амери-ку. Не шму сказать, то она была
ме. Когда мать <sup>то</sup> просидела с мамой <sup>и ушла</sup> обещали слушать мамочки, которая она привезла из Америки, слушал му-зыку, смотрели открытки с видами
Соед. Штатов и сувениры. Но ~~собрания~~ ~~разговаривая~~ ~~об~~ ~~этом~~ ~~гораздо~~ ~~говори~~ ше о своей стране, интересно.
Мне понравилось, то он старается показать больше хорошего о своей Родине.
Томме когда я его спросила пошел ли он Америки он сказал, то моды, но не <sup>не все</sup> ~~хотел~~ ему нравится в Америке, например безработица, расприменение.
то то очень трудно получить образование - стоит очень дорого, то нужно много платить доктору, если ты боле.
Но ~~еще~~ он с гордостью говорил, то в Америке более красивые маленькими водными. Ты мне покравилась, но я не думаю ни о чем серьезном, поэтому продолжала раз-говаривать с друзьями. — надо же как-то заполнить свободные вечера. Когда я пришла в больницу и ты он был рад и не ожидал от меня этого. Ты знаю почему он так много обо мне подумал. Только фрукты ел консервированные абрикосы — и не знал, что это его любимый десерт. Изменил подкасал мне его вкус. Вообще у меня плохое чувство юмора и постоянно шутить, кот. пришел из <sup>с</sup> другого континента, совсем одинок, хотя и имел друзей. Все таки думаю он чувствовал себя одиноким в чужой стране.

Даже если и нравится много, все-таки еще больше непривычного. Например ты он удивлен, когда узнал, что в
СССР во всех магазинах одна цена на продукты. Если ты и приходишь покупать салат, то во всех магазинах он стоит одинаково.

Все же полемно в одно из наших свиданий
в больнице мне Таска и я привели ему красное яблоко. Он очень им обрадован, что у нас <sup>у нас в стране</sup> "родимые яблоки".
Меня здесь и так и невероятные люди, но этот человек очень старый и живет в модерн. <sup>некоторые невероятные</sup> Люди просто для того, что он как-то разнообразно стал для красных яблок, но многие еще и берут.

И хотя ты тоже не верил в Бога ему понравилась, что я так серьезно и думаю может это немного болел.
Хло мне. По крайней мере ~~ты~~

или другое слово. Всен было весело. <sup>(10)</sup> У нас было много пластинок классической музыки и он любил слушать их когда мы оставались одни. Он не очень любил шумные компании и предпочитал тихое общество со мной наедине. В один из вечеров поехали мы с ним за город с переноской и поехали гулять. Тогда (простите мое мнение о глупости по молодости) зашли мы очень поздно. Позже и некогда мы шли такой зашли и не слышали переноски - Ха! Ха!). Он сказал мне что хочет чтобы мы поменялись и я осталась здесь навсегда. У него была маленькая и милая <sup>однокомнатная</sup> квартира с балконом, ванной, газом, кухней, и мы хотели. Для этого этого достаточно - там более для молодых. ~~Видно было~~ Я сказала, что согласна стать его женой (я уже вытобила в нем), но нужно подождать некое время, т.к. неудобно переехать так как мы все еще скоропостижно немыслимо. Но мы согласились ждать только до 1-го мая. ~~Видно было~~ ~~что~~ ~~мы~~ ~~уже~~ ~~тепло~~ было уже тепло. На балконе мы посадили цветы в этот год, это и согласились стать женой. 20-го 9 апреля мы подали заявление в ЗАГС (после разрешения дяди и тети) и нам сказали, что надо подождать 10 дней (чуть 10!) и прийти там они узнают можем ли мы пожениться, т.к. у нас не было гражданства СССР. Через десять таких длинных дней нас звали мне

покинулись - до сих пор один из самых лучших дней моей жизни. Анка тоже думала она очень обаятельна, что нам разрешили пожениться. И только
 в день нашей свадьбы мы успокоились а до этого каждый день бегал в ЗАГС узнавать разрешили ли нам жениться.
 Только после того как как мы отметили свадьбу мы поверили оконча-тельно, что всё что мы хотим действительности случилось. Мы не верили, что такое возможно. Только мы приняли мне первые карусели и мы ~~нашли~~ переехали в ЗАГС с нашими друзьями. Обратно мы переехали ~~и~~ ~~на~~ ~~от~~ ~~дню~~ ~~солнце~~, тепло, воскресенье и всё прекрасно. Между прочим ~~на~~ ~~после~~ ~~руке~~ мы Души и наша <sup>защитный</sup> ~~цветок~~

 словаре Анки. Но в когда мы были в Нью-Йорке он подарил этот словарь Бюб-ловой библиотеке и когда вспомнил об этом ~~еще~~ уже в Далласе. Он расспрашивал, где потерял этот словарь. Но вспомнил назад. Вообще ~~маленький~~ ~~маленький~~ ~~маленький~~ обед - в России нет таких ~~здоровых~~ ~~здоровых~~ ~~здоровых~~ домашних продуктов и полуфабрикатов, как в США, во вторых я готовил как следу-ет не умела. Так что ездили на Малоземное

 кино, парк. Зато к нам приедут

 В России мы для обслуживания, ~~а также~~ моды и молодежные костюмы. В. Р. и я модны классическую музыку. У
 нас было много записей той музыки гайковского - модный композитор Р. Урина, Милба, Римского-Корсакова, Шумана. Подмой опера Р. "Тиковая дама". В России ~~еще~~ <sup>поставили</sup> фильм по этой опере - прекрас-ный фильм. Р. смотрел его 4-5 раз и дома даме приходилось равновать его к этой опере. После работы сразу же он примеривал эту музыку, и не один, а несколько раз. Мы также посещали опер-ный театр, консерваторию, цирк. Р. много посещал моих друзей и семью. Моя мать

Как то в середине июня мы с его товарищем Катерин очень хорошо говорили по американ-ской на Шинской море - зарплате, ку-пались. Очень хорошо провели этот день.
 и он сказал мне в этот вечер что он уезжает, что здесь ~~существенные~~ хотелось меньше моих выводов.

Я утверждал себе относительно хорошо, но боялся скажи, что я могу потерять ребенка, т.к. режиссера у меня отрицательный. Он расстроился. Но когда он проверил свою кровь, то оказалось, что у него режиссера крови тоже отрицательный.

Там же Невольничий агент, людей имеет режиссера крови отрицательный и также режиссера совпадение, что мне и жена оба режиссера отрицательные это очень интересно для нас

Перед замужеством и спросил у Ли может Ли он когда-либо возвратиться в США. Он ответил, что думает, что нет. ~~Но~~ После свадьбы он ~~был~~ Ли сказал что не имеет когда он писал письмо в Американское посольство с просьбой вернуться на родину, но не получил ответа и поэтому думает, что такое невозможно. Он спросил несколько лет он я с ним <sup>в США</sup>, если нам разре-
шат. И ответил, что ~~не~~ ~~невозможно~~ ~~да~~ если он мой муж, то я поеду с ним куда куда он поедет. Мне все равно, если это будет Китай, Африка или Соединенные штаты. Ли ~~не~~ сообщил Посольству, что он написал и вместе со мной писал он возвратится
в США. ~~Итак, Ли~~ Нам предложили посетить Американское посольство в Москве, что мы и сделали
в мое время. Я <sup>пошла</sup> ~~на~~ ~~посольство~~
в Американское посольство с просьбой о визе на въезд в США и сделанные в Министрство иностранных дел СССР с просьбой о визе на выезд. ~~Но~~ После этого оно стало отправлять, Как

доно ждато нам придеат ми не знали. Но к Новому году я получила ответ из Американского посольства, что мне разрешен виз в США. ~~Принимая~~ ~~делав~~ визой разрешение на выезд из СССР для меня. Но как иностранцу мне получить визу в любое время, как только
 я готов будет ехать. Это право иностранца.
 Но Американское посольство предложило мне уехать одному, раньше меня, но он отказался. Мои родственники и друзья стали говорить, что мне можно ехать так далеко и может быть никогда не увидимся более.

к стр 19

В середине мая я получила ~~разрешение~~ визу на выезд из СССР. Мне понадо-бились билеты в Москву для оформления гостевого разрешения документов, т.е.
 получения заграничного паспорта для меня, обмена валюты (поменяла рубли на доллары), покупки билета. Мне жили в Москве в отеле Останкино несколько дней, затем переехали в отель "Берлин", т.к. это было ближе к центру города.

Последние дни в Совете прошли в
 страшной спешке, надо было многое сделать, что отнимало много времени.
 В основном мы занимались оформлением,
 т.к. в это время сварили ~~в~~ Дружеской.

Новый год мы встречали с ~~многими~~ друзьями надеждами на перемены в нашей жизни. Нам позвонила мамам что мы уезжаем и в то же время зафиксировали мне, что маю много нового друзей. Все-таки

интересно посмотреть некие страны, увидеть как живут другие люди на Земле. Правда на моей работе не все так смотрели на это. Некоторым даже угрозили расстрелять с Ли и остаться в Союзе. Не знаю почему их пугало то, что я уезжаю в Америку — вероятно привидение.

Но молодость не скитается никому, наверное. И тогда моя интуиция подсказывала мне, что в Америке живут такие же простые люди, как и везде. И мне ничего не будут иметь против меня, если я им не сделаю ничего плохого. Ещё мне очень хотелось посмотреть родину моего друга <sup>Амели</sup> в Америке, <sup>о которой</sup> так много говорят и пишут.

14<sup>ое</sup> февраля мы шли в гости к моей подруге, очень хорошо провели время. Когда было весело и я почувствовала, что Ли завтра отправит меня в долину, хотя мы ожидали 30 февраля. Действительно ночью я проснулась в 6 часов утра и сказала Ли, что может быть найдём в долину. Ли странно обрадовался и испугался. Но мне было ужасно смешно, как он переживал, как будто ему нужно идти в долину. Он побранил меня, но было <sup>очень</sup> совсем неважно и я не хотела идти. После длительных уговоров Ли мы в 9 утра отправились в долину. Как могло так быть невозможно было найти. Мы с друзьями продолжили в автобус. Но Ли мне не было, так он велел. Никому

Я не видела его там. В феврале смерь, холодно и скучно. И я думаю это обязательно что-то случилось по дороге от авто. автобуса до моей боль-ницы. ~~Вчера~~. Я работала в аптеке аптеке при Клинической больнице и поэтому решила работать в этой больнице. Все-таки знакомые врачи, сестры, ~~и другие~~ все вместе много сил. Вам это страшное скорее поможет. Вобщем в 9<sup>10</sup> мы благополучно добрались до больницы и Алекс пошел на работу. А в 9<sup>55</sup> родилась дочка. Алекс еще не успел доехать до работы, когда ему позволи-ли на работу и поздравил с дочкой.
Так что его друзья там раньше, чем ~~еще~~ он сам, что он уже папа.
В России женщины после родов неко-дятся в больнице 10 дней, если все нормально, 3-4 дня не разрешают совсем вставать с постели. И если никто кроме мамы не видит, тогда не заказывают специально посторонние люди.
Там и родственники не имеют права посещать род дом, где находится мама и детки. Думаю что это хорошо.
Но мне навещали все-таки мои друзья, которые учились в Мед. инсте, и ~~надежда~~ проходили практику в
этой больнице. Несклько раз я даже удалось встретиться с Ли, т.к. моя аптека находилась
в том этаже этого здания, а я была на 3<sup>веч</sup>. На самом деле это немного было, так что у нас не моя дуре. Но мне очень хотелось директор М. Он очень обиделся девочке, как будто и не считал иметь сына. Сказал что девочка даже лучше для мамин, а старший будет обидчив по сын. Через 10 дней

я вписалась в оленину и много подарков родившимся, подруж, друзей встретил меня. Было холодно и мы с М. болели, то сын девочка вдохнет зать капельку холодного воздуха, то заболит. Мухоме молодого папа с мамой. М. даже звать запретил входить в комнату, где она была, пока люди не сочтутся приед с улицы.
Первый день 23 февраля, когда
я пришла домой она очень радостна дни в нашей семье. У М. даже не было слов, от волнения он не мог говорить. Он валивался только меня. Мы оба были по квартире, много суетились, что-то делали и ничего не делали в результате. Крашка для така маленькая и беспомощ-ная, что мы не знали, что с ней делать, дались на руки брать. А по ногам оба не знали, что пришить вאים пива и наша дочь. ~~Наша дочь~~ и мы дались, что ночью, что много слонет случится с бож и мы не замечем. Девочка для очень споко-на и хитрая но она очень много мной сказать, что М. она очень порошил мужик тогда и еще мучил напой. Вообще он всегда палочка мне по-хозяйству: удирал дом, шить пол, мыл посуду. А когда родилась девочка даже сбегал и шить

пейпки, т.к. стиральной машины у нас не была. Конечно я не стирала этим, но мыло не давал сама. Но мне пришло, что мой муж разделяет вместе со мной эти заботы.

Мы назвали нашу девочку Джуни - в честь месяца июня, 4 месяца ~~в~~ когда началась жизнь еще одного существа в нашей семье. Мы очень любили Джунику, мне казалось что меня он больше не любит, а только року. Это конечно неправда. Это две разные любви.

Вечером 23<sup>го</sup> февраля отметили день рождения моей тети и мы были приглашены туда. Но я боялась пойти & с маленькой крашечкой ~~туда~~ где ямою ходит. Я позвонила Ли поздравить тету и сказала ей доверь но долго <sup>Аммоний</sup>. Ли принял газет в 11 вечера и к моему удивлению он пришел. Первый раз видела Ли пьяным и это было странно слышно. Ему пришлось пить русскую водку в честь новорожденной дочки и так как много было гостей, то мой неприятие к русской водке американец не выдержал и оказался пьяным. Рядом ужасно сильно видеть его, он готов был много <sup>всего</sup> <sup>всего</sup> сделать мне и дочке и мы ужасно расобидели. Надо сказать что в таком состоянии он не спит, а мы очень послушны и почел спать. Вообще Ли никогда не пил и не любил это делать. Но такое содержит, как рождение дожки отлежал. Теряли две перели они баснословно-ми, но потом мы оба успокоились, что с девичьей жизнью не случится — т.к. все <sup>диалогично</sup> ~~формально~~ и стало ~~оказано~~ ~~выполнено~~ нормальными разбирательством. Все мои подруги приходили на-всего дожку, приносили котле шурш-ки, вышивали раскрасочки по вечерам для ~~маленьких~~ мамей, Вилушки. Она была общей модницей, особенно моя тётя она довольно имела выдумку. И даже шубы просила отдавать ей ей.

У нас было скоплено немалого денег и много денег от продажи мебели и некоторых вещей. Эти деньги мы обменяли на доллары, но этого конечно, недоста-точно для покупки оливок и т.п. первые время в США. Так что мы въезжали в Американском посольстве. Из Москвы мы поезде Москва <sup>Берлин</sup> Берлин - Амстердам добрались до Голландии. Эта маленькая уютная страна понравилась мне боль-ше всего. Было воскресенье, когда мы проехали Голландию. Звонили колокола на ~~улице~~ церквях, люди шли в церковь. Было спокойно и очень спокойно вокруг. Кажется, что люди здесь никогда не знают бед и всё как в сказке. Даже дома в Голландии кажутся сказочными. Много стекла, света. Голландия очень, очень чистая страна, наверное самая чистая страна на свете. Когда мы жили в апартаменте в Амстердаме Зден, наша хозяйка она настолько гостеприимной, что

даже странно оно ложится на ~~то~~ прошлым, чтобы не запутать. Не подумайте, что мы или грешили где нибудь. В Америке, кажется, не умеют так легко смирять, хотя и условия для это есть ещё большие. Зависит от людей. В Амстердаме была мы купили билет на пароход до Нью-Йорка.
 Мне уже шло месяц, но в Голландии ещё холодно. Мы шли в палатки. 13<sup>го</sup> июня приехали в Нью-Йорк. Был дождь и довольно холодно. Мы то что мне дождь мне казалось хорошей приметой. В России говорит, что если во время свадьбы, например, идёт дождь то люди будут счастливы или богат.
~~Нью-Йорк~~ Нью-Йорк. Я, думаю, подумала, что может быть здесь мы будем счастливы, думаю это не особенно важно, главное мир в семье, ~~и~~ ~~конца~~, и тогда легче переносить трудности. ~~Душа~~. По приезду в Америку мы стал очень озабоченным, т.к. вся ответственность ложилась на его плечи. А проблем оно немало.
 Довольно приличный долг, ~~но~~ безработы ~~было~~. (в Америке это пока problма), не знали как и где будем жить. Но отец в Нью-Йорке мы позвонил своему брату Роберту, кото-рый предложил, чтобы мы жили вре-временно у него в Форт-Йорке. Мы ку-пили билет на самолет и тем ближе приближались к Техасу, тем более смелами с собой окур. В Нью-Йорке можно оно жарить в палатке оно довольно холодно тогда. Но уже в

Атланте было очень жарко. Тамно в Атланте у нас был короткий отрез на несколько минут, пока готовили самолет к дальнейшему полету. Мы внизу поднимать светили воздухом. И люди косились на нас. Не могу похвастаться, что мы были одеты хорошо. Да и Динника была одета по-русски. В России маленьких детей пеленают, т.е. укрывают в пеленки, пюрки и кофточки, так что получается что-то наподобие мумии. Смотрю сейчас на себя дружище старом и думаю, что довольно смешное зрелище мы представляли.

... В Домладе нас встретил Роберт со своей семьей. Скажу, что мне было очень стыдно за свой темный вид, т.к. и устал мы порядком в дороге, да и не имели много для хорошего вида, не говоря уже о моей причёске. Боюсь, что Роберту тоже было стыдно за такую рождественщину, как я. Но они люди очень хорошие и не обидели меня, а наоборот помогли мне акклиматизироваться в новой стране. Такое чуткое отношение ко мне и к моей всей семье сильно способствовало хорошему впечатлению о людях, которые живут в этой стране.

Я совсем, к стыду моему, не говорила по-английски и нисколько не понимала. Так что губастовала себя же в своей тарелке.

Тамно жена Роберта предложила мне поменять жилье на короткие штатлики, т.к. очень жарко лежал в Тексасе! Это было для меня рево-

В Америке мне понравилось сразу (23)
это много очень рекламы. Можете быть они уже приехали амери-канском и они не обращают на это внимания. Но для меня это было непривычно - это все время разноцветные очень яркие, рекламные поднимали настроение.
И так мне жилось у Роберта, на Первое время мне много отдохнуло
с горой и Ли Зандел похвалили работой. Ука это было не очень легкое занятие. Особенно потому, что у Ли не было специализации. Нахо-дился даже повсюду и Ли нашел, правда весьма незавидную, работу. Он работал ассистентом на каком то маленьком предприятии где изготовляют итальянские изделия для домов. Но уже первое время и это было хорошо, лучше чем сидеть на улице и мерзнуть. Хотя стиль Роберта относился к нам очень хорошо, лучше иметь своего шефа. Ли к тому же у нас же долг <sup>перез</sup> в США.
После Роберта ~~мы~~ ~~мы~~ меня Ли предложил, если мне некогда время покинул с ней. Мы жили с ней квартал 2-3, а затем своим стартером на Mercedes st. ~~отъезду~~ ~~на~~ ~~француз~~.
Ли ходил на работу, а в свободное время брал с собой Джульетту и с удовольствием прожил по миссиям, было большой магазин Монгомери Ворд находились напротив. Все это благополучно. Ли не очень нравилось его работа, но он понимал, что для того года жить и выживать долг это хорошо. Организация Ли принимал с работы и не узнал пергодеть, как поступал какой-то муш-гина. Оказалось, что это агент ФБР.

 (FBI). Он пригласил Ли пойти в машину, которую он обслуживал напро-тив и поговорить. Там находилась ещё одна мушгине. Они разгово-ривали час 2, так что я даже стала злиться на этих импровизированных гостей, т.к.
 не самое удобное расписание обед несколько раз. Ли вернулся домой очень расстроенный, но ~~никогда~~ старался не показывать виду. Но по лицу и по поведению я видела, что этот визит принес много огорчений для него. Он не рассказывал мне о том, что говорил с этими людьми, а я не старалась расспрашивать, т.к. это ему было неприятно. [ Ли видел, что мне все-таки довольно скучно и одиноко здесь после того как первые праздники вчерашнего дня и остались работа и хлопоты по хозяйству.
 Однажды вечером однажды он сообщил мне, что познакомился с одним русским, который живет здесь очень давно.
 И так он пригласил его прийти и поговорить. Затем, через одно или два дня мы узнали, что в Далласе живет сравнительно много русских и познакомился со многими. Там у меня появились новые друзья, да к тому же русские. Это было очень приятно для меня. Если рус-ские друзья очень хорошо относились ко мне, очень много помогали. Но Ли не особенно был расположен к ним, вероятно потому, что они не поддерживали его сторону в ~~интерес~~ дискуссиях о политике, <sup>жизни</sup> (я всегда принимаюсь) в политике не особенно раскрепощен и не инициативен, так что не могу точно сказать в чем состояли эти ~~дискуссии~~ дискуссии. Но на один и тот же же вещи люди смотрят по-разному.

Так и здесь. Тотому вид меня симо нормально, что мои друзья не понимают и не поддерживают Ли.
Но мне не нравилось, что из-за этого он ~~стала~~ <sup>стала</sup> только относиться к своим друзьям ~~по-другому~~ и даже стал хуже относиться ко мне из-за того, что я старалась поддерживать контакт с моими друзьями. Мне это обидно, что Ли так нуждается людей и хочет чтоб я была такой же. Мы стали ссориться. Вообще по приезде в Америку наша семейная жизнь изменилась к худшему. Ли всегда был вспомогателен. А теперь еще более эта черта характера помогла нам жить дружно. Ли стал очень раскре-пощенным и много буквально субъективоводил его из себя. Я тоже не отличалась особенно спокойными нравом, но зато сохранила более менее спокойную семейную жизнь принимая много изменений в своем характере.
К концу <sup>сентября</sup> октября Ли потерял работу. Но хорошо, что мы уже выплатили долг американскому государству за переезд. Принимать го-волено трудно все-таки. Дела мои плохи. Русские друзья не могут ни

(26)

не, что помогли нам. Один из друзей ~~наш~~ помог найти Ли работу в Далласе. Он был работником в "Тринити компани" в Далласе. А временно осталась лишь у моих русских знакомых в Форт-Уорте. Ли снял комнату в Далласе и приезжал крестить нас. Но писал письма и звонил мне. Как он мне не сообразил я знаю, что Ли любит меня и сильно и верил мне. Мы сообразили только потому что у него трудный характер, что он иначе не умеет любить. Но он не думал, что ~~мы~~ эти соринки могут расфигурить сильно, т.к. я всё ему прощаю.

Ли мне очень доволен своей новой работой и вскоре <sup>16 октября</sup> ~~в конце октября~~ переехал к маме в Даллас. Мы сняли апартаменты на Elizabeth street в Далласе. В свободные дни ходили ~~на~~ ~~прогулки~~ ~~в~~ ~~парк~~ ~~и~~ ~~гуляли~~ ~~в~~ ~~парк~~, гуляли по городу, ~~то~~ посещали наших русских друзей. Ли по вечерам ~~иногда~~ ходил 2-3 раза в неделю ходил ~~иногда~~ занимался в вечерней школе в Далласе - учился печатать на <sup>типишине</sup> машинке. Я думаю, что этому совсем научиться. Но он не кончил курс до конца - разодралось. Однажды мы сильно поссорились из-за того, что Ли сказал неправду хозяйке дома о том, что я из России. Он сказал, что я из Техас-вакми. А когда хозяйка спросила меня об этом я сказал, что я из России. Я не знаю, что Ли сказал ей

И поэтому намучилось недоразумение — мне. Я не понимала почему Ри скрывает то, что он жеманно русский. Но я отказалась говорить неправду. Он рассердился на меня, сказал что я не понимаю ничего и не поддерживаю его. Я ответила, что трудно понять такие шутки и что он просто глупый. Тогда он ~~еще~~ переключился мне, что если мне это не нравится я могу уходить куда хочу. Мне стало ужасно одиноко. Верь у меня не было здесь никого близкого здесь, кроме него. И сам этот человек отказывался от меня, зорел же я буду мещать ему. Я взяла Рому и узнала от Ри к своим русским знакомым. Триста 3 дня Ри позвонил мне и захотел встретиться со мной и поговорить. Мы встретились с ним и Ри просил меня, чтобы я вернулась домой, что всё будет хорошо. Но я отказалась, т.к. хотела показать ему, что у меня свой характер и самостоятел. И конечно смущаю много наступать не это самостоятел. Иногда перед этим случилось, что Ри даже был мне, буквально из-за пустяков. Конечно сердцем я хотела вернуться к нему, но не стала показывать ему это. Я хотела, чтобы он видел, что семейная жизнь не игрушка и надо подумать более серьёзно об этом. Тогда мне казалось, что Ри больше меня не любит. И хотя очень тяжело было отказаться от него я сказала ему, что не хотела больше жить с таким человеком,

который неслучайно одиозно и кожу расцветает с ним. Я вижу, это вы ушёл домой очень расстроенный.
Может быть это послужит ему уроком, думаю я. Конечно я не хотела разводиться с вы, так любил его, но сейчас узнала от вас, если он он не так сильно настаивал и уговаривал меня вернуться. В одно из воскресений, когда я была у ещё у моих друзей, вы пришли с визитом. Мы разговаривали с вы один в комнате. И я первый раз видела, как вы плакал. Какое тяжёлое сердце, да ещё если люблю, выдержит это. Вы просили меня вернуться, просили прощения и обещал, что будет стараться измениться к лучшему, только чтобы я вернулась. Не думайте, что я хваляюсь этим — смотрите на как мне любил, даже плачет. Но знаю характер вы, я могу сказать, что может быть первый раз в жизни ему пришлось идти на поклон и быть более ~~каким~~ показывать свои слабости. Тогда я почувствовала, что этот человек очень несчастен в жизни, ~~каждый раз~~ что он и не может любить иначе. Это всё, включая и споры, ~~всё~~ называлось любовью на его языке. Я вижу, что это если я не вернусь к нему, будет очень плохо для него. Если вы не вы-особенно откровенен со мной ~~и~~ о своём самоубийстве, всегда носил маску ~~иногда не показывая свои чувства~~ ~~иногда~~ Тогда первый раз я

почувствовал, что этот человек не рождал для того, чтоб жить среди людей, что он одинок среди них. Мне оно тяжело и страшно. Я сказала, что если я не вернусь к нему, то-то случится. Я имела конкретно на предволании, но моя интуиция подсказывавала, что это делать нельзя. Не пому, что я какая-то <sup>особая</sup> персона, ~~выдающаяся~~ но я знала что я нужна ему. И я вернулась к Ли. Мы бы старались быть мужичи по отношению ко мне, но иногда всё таки случалось. Это же пожелание, если человек всю жизнь был таким! Не переделаешь сразу. Но я решила, что если я наберусь терпения всё будет лучше, что ему это поможет.
 Я понимала, что никто не блестящее материальное положение делает своё дело. Он умножно переживал, что не может дать мне то, <sup>материальное</sup> ~~которое~~ другие мужчины могли бы дать.
 Особенно это чувствовалось после посещения моих друзей, которые были гораздо лучше
 нас. Он подозревал меня (хотя не было оснований) в том, что я обвиняю его за его беспомощность устроится в жизни.
 ?! Чт-то то, что он думал об этом больше меня, ~~всегда всерьёз~~. Он записал на меня и упрекал меня моих друзьями. Мне пришлось скорчиться, но я не могла забывать охри и прощато, так там своему неудачнику-мужу.
 Но когда мы не скорчились ~~мы~~ ~~он~~ я оно они довольно стали Ли.
 Он помогал мне по хозяйству, познися с Джулией. Он много време-

(30)

им удалось Джункинг. И так же мне то же самое. Из доблестей мы приносим детишки книги и дублировать прокатыва их, гитары даже по ногали. Уингунга мне казалась, что он живет в каком-то другом своем мире, который сам устроил для себя, а опускается на землю только, чтобы ходить на работу, зарабо-тывать деньги для семьи, кушать и спать. Помню что это и теперь, ~~то~~ но у него было, на мой взгляд, две жизни — и больше он был своей особенной жизнью. Раньше, в России, я это не замечала, т.к. он не был таким замкнутым. Только одно время, когда он писал книгу о своей жизни в россии, он угодил в себя и раскре-пался, если ему мешали люди. Правда эта книга на английском языке и я ее не читала. Так что не знаю сейчас обо всем, что там написано. Он не особенно распространялся о своих иллюзиях.

... На "Танкс тивин" мы ездили автосту-дией в "Форт-Уэрт" к Роберту. Мне понравился этот хороший американец, американец, приятно отметить такой день. На вокзале Ли ~~мне~~ спросил меня, хочу ли я послушать музыку из фильма "Джесел". Я не знала этого фильма, но музыка мне очень понравилась. Мы потратили мно-го денег, т.к. ~~я~~ прокатывал эту пластинку несколько раз и сказал, что это одна из любимых его мелодий. Теперь, когда мы не бываем в живых я люблю эту мелодию.

еще больше, так с ней связались (3-й) хорошие воспоминания. Мы оба хватались весело настроен, мы много шутим, дурачимся, фотографировались на вокзале и смеялись, как смеелись мы пошурили. У Роберта оно тоже всё весело и празднично. Еще и потому, что мы встретили со своим популярным, которого не видел несколько лет. Было о нём поговорить, что вспомнить. Потом мы вернулись до-мой, когда стало очень поздно уже поздно. Хорошо всё-таки, что существуют праздники у людей, мож-но встретиться!

Следующим праздником было Рождество.
Мы встретили его у моих друзей.
Было очень много людей, много шума.
Твердо видеть радостные лица людей.
Мне очень понравилось, как украсили город и Рождеству, как люди торговать приносят подарки и празднику.
Очень красив здесь отмечают Рождество.
Это было первое Рождество мое Рождество
в Америке, но разве мое Рождество тогда, что следующее Рождество встретить без нас?!

Новый год был для скучный для нас.
Мы были дома. Мы пошел рано спать и сидела и вспоминала родные и своих друзей там. Было тоскливо на душе, особенно когда вспоминаешь дом, рождество, которые сейчас все забыть, а ты не с нами.
Сидела и скучала одна. Тогда Нового года мы переехали в новую квартиру на соседней улице. Там был балкон.

Это немного напоминало Россию и удобно было для Джулики, она и сама не могла. На полконе Ли сидела рядом с нами для цветов. Но цветы, кото-рые мы посадили не выросли, т.к
здесь довольно жарко для русских цветов, семена которых мы привезли из России. Это были семена цветов, из России. которые нам понравились, когда мы с Ли гуляли газон в Мэнском Ботаническом саду. Зима здесь очень теплая и непривычно для меня было не видеть снега зимой. Зато Ли она довольна, т.к ей трудно пережить погоду, особенно русскую зиму. Когда мы были здесь я уже не был особенно в контакте с русскими друзьями, ~~мыслила о том, что бы~~ т.к они не особенно любили Ли, а они их. Я же хотела бы встретиться чаще с моими друзьями, знаю, что Ли это не по душе, хотела сохранить спокойствие в нашей семье. Вспомнил еще изредка кое-кто из моих друзей еще навещал меня, хотя я не удерживаю со-сужки. Когда однажды мы с Ли приехали
в гости, где я познакомилась с Рут Пэйн, которая ~~была~~ играла русский язык здесь в Америке и хотела бы совершить свои танцы в раневорной рив. Мы ~~уже~~ стали встречаться.
Рут признала ко мне со своими детьми. И это было хорошо для меня и Джулики. У. Она была одна и была узнавай дикаркой, так это общество детей с было полезно. ~~Рут~~ Иногда мы устраивали вечеринки на соседних огорох. Мы хотели увидеть руну, а мы смотрели и разговаривали если он поймает рыбку. Наскоро рас дали и варила угу из этой руны, подмачивая собственными силами.

Наскоро рас мы едим и Рут, которая жила в Эрвине.

В это время я ожидала ребенка. Мы очень хотели иметь сына и она уверена, что следующим будет мальчик. Мы думали, ~~что он будет мальчиком, а не девочкой, и что он будет~~ ~~мальчиком, а не девочкой.~~ Я уверовала себя не очень хорошо. Обществу Рут оно очень ~~было~~ приятно для меня, т.к. две женщины могут поговорить о своих делах. Но конечно я не могла сказать ей всё, что мне мучает.

Например то, что мой папа хотел увидеть генерала Вокера.

А случилось это так. Я знала, что у папы есть рунья, но никаким образом значимую сумму не приговаривала. Многие мужчины имеют рунья.

денег это рунья. У меня оно добывает-ся своих забот. Означит папа дома не забравшая денег. Могу отметить, что он был очень пунктуален и всегда был заботливее дома. Я думаю, что он задуман и замечает в школе. Но было уже только означивать. Я была в любви и когда пришла в комнату, где папа обычно читал и занимал свои делами, то написала записку для папы, в которой он писал, что мне надо уехать в мир, если он арестует.

Я была в нерешительности 39 то это мо

тут арестовать? И когда мы вернулись, я показала ему записку и спросила что всё это значит. На них не было лица. Он прочел письмо и он не стал не спрашивать, а только сказал, что стрелок находится в штабеле Вокера и находится рядом. Но там ничего об этом не говорили. Можете себе пред-ставить, как я себя чувствовала. Я душала, что сейчас придут полицейские и скажут об этом им. Но он ответил, что я не волновалась прежде времени.
 Он не знал где находился всё это.
 Только утром радио сообщило, что оно совершенно похищено из Вокера и что он не убит. Я потребовала от него объяснений, почему он считает это. Он сказал, что этот человек принадлежит к фашистской организации и что лучше будет для людей, если его не будет. Я сказала, что кем он он не был, и не имеет права убивать человека. ~~Он ответил~~ На это мы ответили, что если он в своё время убили Гитлера, то не было бы столько горя у людей, и было бы войны. Конечно я сомневалась только в его мнении о Гитлере. Но было очень рада, что он не попал в Воке-
 ра. Я спросила его где его ручьёв, ~~ведь мы могли бы~~ где он его оставил, ведь мы могли бы найти. Он ответил что законная его. И через несколько дней он принёс его домой. Я была рада что это всё благополучно кончи-лось для нас и для Вокера. Я проси-ла бы не повторять более подобных

визит, а он обещал мне это. Я сказала, что сохранила эту записку, и если он попытается сделать что-то подобное, я пойду и заявлю в полицию. Через несколько дней Ли сообщил мне, что он там же не имеет работы. Господи, еще одно несчастье на мою голову! Ли сказал, что лучше будет дать мне, если я вообще вернусь в Россию. Ли стал ~~еще~~ еще более замкнутым и не был особенно хорошим в отношении ко мне. Я решила, что лучше уехать на Родину, а не быть в телескопическом состоянии, который вдобавок делает из нас такие страшные вещи. Я написала письмо в Советское посольство в Вашингтоне с просьбой о визе. И пока я решила, что если Ли не имеет работы, то лучше попытаться переехать в другой город. Такими же образом, что в Далласе много соблазна для Ли повторить покушение на Вокера. Я предложила поехать в Новый Орлеан - родину Ли. Там у него были родственники. Думая, что он побеспокоится делать такие вещи, как здесь. Тогдашнее обещание Рут Тейн предложила мне жить у нее в Ирвинге, пока Ли найдет работу. Я жила у нее 2 недели, ~~как~~ ~~позволил~~ Ли этот временный поехать в Нью-Орлеан. Но через 2 недели Ли позволил мне, что нашла работу и тогда я приехала Рут сообщила, привезти меня в Новый Орлеан, к тому же она хотела видеть этот город. Тогда мы приехали.

мы в Новой Орлеан мы в свой апартаменты, куда-то от его работы. Он работал в "Луизиане-корге компания".

Моё первое впечатление о Новом Орлеане было очень хорошее. Мне нравился чудесный теплый там. Очень интересно было видеть Французский квартал. Но это всё интересно более для туристов. А когда мы были не особенно красивой много и тебе не до посещения кафе и ресторанов увеселительных заведений, то думаю что Нов. Орлеан разочаровывает. К тому же ужасно дымно каморы там. Я трудно переношу такую влажную и жаркую погоду. Тем более трудно было в моем положении. Но когда мы жили в Новом Орлеане, ~~была наша~~ "но наша семейная жизнь в Новом Орлеане наша семейная жизнь была спокойнее. Мы с удовольствием показывал мне город, где он родился. Мы часто ездили на пляже, посетили Зоологический сад и парк. Мы нравились ездить любить красот. Правда его работа всё очень ему нравилась... Мы не имели особенно много денег, а прошение нового робинья требовало новых расходов.

~~Мы не могли...~~
~~Виделось...~~ Было очень трудно. Я думаю, что мы очень тяжело и думаю, что лучше уехать мне обратно в Россию. Оставить мы, конечно, было бы тяжело. Но ознакомлен к моему великой радости мы касал, что он

37

может сказать ~~вместе~~ вместе со мной. Все-таки лучше если он будет иметь постоянно работу там и не будет за свой заграничный день. Мы действительно проводили много времени за книгами. Тетом он ищет новую занятию для себя. Стал распространять про-кудникские листовки в городе. Мне это занятие не было особенно по душе. Но казалось, что это лучше, чем "мудрики" с ружьем, как в Домбассе. Я правда симпатизировала Кубе. У меня хорошее мнение об этой новой Кубе, т.к. когда я была в России, то много видела хороших фильмов о новой жизни на Кубе. Сидя за ружьем и читая литературу, я все-таки считала, что народ добился своей новой жизни, что революция дала многим работу <sup>землю,</sup> и лучшую жизнь, чем они имели раньше. Когда я приехала в США и люди сказали мне, что не любят Фидел Кастро, то я не поверила. В России мы не думаем так, потому что знаем о нем только хорошее. Я правда не знаю лично, как обстоят дела на самом деле, т.к. никогда не было на Кубе. Мой мнением только по фильмам, кинолент, газетам. Если я вижу в фильме, что люди довольны, то я не могу сказать, что это плохо.

Но я не поддерживала бы, т.к. считала, что он слишком маленькая персона, чтобы так много сказать на совет. Но мы возмущены, что сделал доминирующим

димо, что он напоминает Кубе. Но в Европе, что его никто здесь не поддерживал. Так зачем думать это? Тем более, что Кубе обойдется сама и без Ли Освальда. Лунге заведет саму, считала я. Мы спорили с Ли и вот всё. Всё особенно, потому что он мне однажды арестован и провел ночь в тюрьме. Думано, что это некаяко операция его имя. Но он выступились по радио и имел дискуссии с антикоммунистами. Думано, что и не понимает много по-английски и не знает, что говорит Ли.

Тогда тогда, как он мне арестован одинок, он уже не с таким рвением и активностью занимается распространением пропагандистской <sup>пропаганды</sup> литературы.

К концу августа Ли потерял работу и зрели. Мы поиграли покое по безработице. Ли искал работу, но не находил. Даже предложение не было особенно благоприятным и Ли стал больше думать о том, что мы уже обратили в Россию.

Я написала Рут Тейлор письмо, о на-шем состоянии. Она любезно предложила, чтобы я приехала с Джимом к ней и жила столько времени, сколько мне будет угодно. В это время она ~~тоже~~ проводила кетинг кампанию у ее со старыми детьми у родственников и знакомых и написала, что заедет и забереет меня в конце сентября.

20<sup>го</sup> сентября Рут приехала к нам и через несколько дней я с Джимом поехали в Эрлинг. Рут хотела, чтобы

39 я совершенствовале её разговорными русским язык, мне её подружал, т.к.

ей довольно скучно и одиноко отъ одна, доме. ~~Она~~ Она не жила вместе со своим мужем в то время.
Ли остался в Нов. Орлеане и сказал, что он постарается наискать работу здесь или в другом месте, а если не найдет приедет в Даллас. Я не ~~хотела~~ хотела, ~~что~~ годик ребёнок родится в Нов. Орлеане, т.к. не могла этой горю (может отъ мессамуринно).
Мне там же нравился Даллас. Спустя неделю где Ли позвонил по телефону и сказал, что он приехал в Эрвинг и если мы можем встретить его на автобусной остановке, то это было от хорошо, т.к. у Ли нет машины, а дом Фит Тэйл далеко от автобуса. У Фит машина мне
в это время в починке. У Ли приехал на попутной машине. Кажется это было 3<sup>го</sup> 4<sup>го</sup> октября. Ли переночевал у
нас и на следующий день утром мы с Фит отвезли его в Даллас (машина мне уже готова, накануне вечером). У нас были свои дела в Далласе и мы ему вспарили Ли ~~нет~~ в районе Окленда и он отправился спать ко взрослому дяде жилье, этот маль в Далласе и искал работу. Он жил в Далласе, а в Эрвинге у Фит Тэйл. Мне было очень удобно иметь её своей подружкой, т.к. она очень помогала мне во время переезда рождением ребёнка. В общем это от неё больше полови, т.к. ~~она~~ ходила к врачу со мной и если у нас нет машины, то могла отвезти меня в больницу.

Я с удовольствием шла у Фит Тэйл ли потому, что только познакомилась с ней. Мне было очень приятно её общество. Две недели мы могли повторить по душой. Мы её узнали друг друга ближе и проводили мно-го вечеров с удовольствием болтая о нашем житье-бытье.

Вы знаете каждый день по 3 часа, беспокоилась о моём самочувствии, о том как верёт себя Джульетта. Кандидат (уик-энд) он приехал к нам автобусом и мы встретили его. Вы же ещё не нашли работу. Однажды мы были на у соседки миссис Тэйл, где была ещё одна соседка. Мы разговорились (вернее все, кроме меня, т.к. пошла. Я не говорила). Фит сказал, что мой муж не может найти работу. Эта же женщина сказала, что её брат работает в "Бук энд депозитори" и кажется там было вакантное место. Так Фит в этот же день повторил туда, но там никого определённого не ответили, а просили подойти завтра. Мы ~~сказали~~
мне. Когда вы позвонили вечером мы сообщили ему эту новость. И на следующую день к 10 часам утра мы поехали туда справиться насчёт работы. Во время
"паузы" он радостно сообщил, что его приняли на работу. Это было 14<sup>ое</sup> - 16<sup>ое</sup> октября. Брат соседки, которая раньше нашла работу, привёз нас в пятницу и отвозил утром в следующе-
м. Это она сама лично пошла и была милой лоботью с его стороны, если он делом это.

Вспоминаю в начале сентября того агента ФБ FBI пришел к соседке и спрасывал ее кто живет у Руб Тэйл.
Она отвечает, что живет русская женщина с ребенком, но она не знает адреса и имени ребенка.

~~Температура~~ Тас не было дома в это время и поэтому он не пришел к
нам. На следующий день он пришел живет так как и говорил с Миссис Тэйл, спрашивал ее о м. Она сказала ему, что он живет в Далласе и даже номер его телефона. Он оставил свой телефон и фамилию. Через неделю он пришел снова ~~к~~ с каким-то молодым человеком и они ~~у~~ ознакомились 5 минут и ушел. Я не знаю о чем он говорил с Руб Тэйл, но она сказа-ла, что он ~~сказал~~ говорил о том, что если я иду какие-то трудности со стороны С. ССР, в смысле не мешают ли мне жить здесь, прико-дими ко мне агенты Советского Союза.
Думало, что это галлюцинация, или шутка.

Со мной он не говорил и как только ~~он~~ я позвонила в комнату он затворилась уходить. Сейчас я с Фруром точно вспоминаю дату, может быть это-то и было.

к тому времени, ~~когда~~ <sup>когда</sup> ~~родилась~~

родилась 20-го октября. Это было
в пятницу. Мы ждали ее к девочке-не шло и скажал ему, что если он хочет поговорить с Ли, то пусть подождет еще немного, но он ушел и Ли не видел. Мы сообщили Ли об этом и очень расстроились, что нам очень интересно.

Накануне 18<sup>го</sup> октября мы отметили день рождения Ли у Руб Тэйл. Был её муж. Мы мы очень хорошо настроены, т.к. имел работу в это время, отсюда родился сын. Он остался у нас на уик-энд. А в воскресенье 20<sup>го</sup> октября родился дочка. Мы в понедельник остался у Руб Тэйл, т.к. Дюк она сказала с парой. Во вторник утром ~~Руб Тэйл~~ в понедельник вечером мы пришли ко мне в больницу. Он был очень рад рождению новой дочки и даже про-слезился. Скажал, что две девочки это лучше для обеих — две сестрички. Он был у меня около двух часов. Говорил на работе много глупостей, он очень нежен со мной. И мне было приятно видеть, что мы переменили немало к мужчине, т.е. больше думает о семье. Вообще после того, как он приехал в Эрлинг, ~~он~~ мы были очень дружны. Мы говорили, что работая и живя один в Далласе, он может скопить немало денег, чтобы купить специальную машину (не новую конечно) для себя, т.к. будет больше связи с двумя детьми. Я хотела, чтобы мы купили автомобиль, т.к. это очень не удобно не иметь машины и быть зависимостью от других людей. Мы не наблюдали на это т.к. это не особенно нам по карману. Я просил его, чтобы он ушел вместе мамкой. И когда мы приехали к нам, она ушла его. Но он не проявлял особого желания уехать. Но ушел заметил они ушли вместе - он оказался способным улететь.

Правда живет у Рут, мы один раз поспорили из-за того, что мы считали команду в Дилласе не нашей своей настоящей командой. Это было так. В пятницу как верну мы захотел приехать к нам, но я сказала, что не надо так часто бегать это делать. В воскресенье я сошлась и поговорили мы, но там <sup>в доме Рут живем</sup> сказали, что там где не живет. Когда в понедельник мы звонили мне с работы я сказала ему об этом. Он ответил, что не хочет никаких расстройств, потому он говорит по-русски по-американски. Не хочет, чтобы имбирсовались его истерией о том, что он был в России. Сказал, что я выигрываю ее по темпам из книги Рут. Я ответила, что не имеет права этого делать. Какой смысл давать темпам, если ты скрываешь свое настоящее имя, то о не знаю об этом? Он настаивал, а я назвала его шуткой и повесила трубку.

Поэтому, когда в четверг (а не в пятницу) вечером / мы приехали в среду ~~от нас~~ я не удивилась. Он сказал, что сошлись. Рут не от дома - уехала в магазин за продуктами. Мы приехали в 5<sup>30</sup> вечера. Долго играл с Руди на улице, пошел мне, он очень красивый и старший нами - тогда, ~~он был~~ <sup>он был</sup> ~~он был~~ <sup>он был</sup> но я была оди-

...но мне из-за этого пришлось с Гилбертом поговорить. Он сказал, что ему пришлось пойти одному, но лучше если он сможет ~~идти~~ квартиру и забрать меня. Но я не сомне-емся, сказал, что еще немного попи-ву с Рудь Трайн, т.к. она поможет мне
 с работкой, хорошо ко мне относятся.
 Он сказал, что я не люблю его, если предположить так долго жить с Рудь Трайн.
 Но я думаю лучше остаться с Рудь до Рождества, лучше встретить праздники здесь с друзьями. Выли вы и конечно знали, что случится завтра, то конечно сощималась вы не ~~были~~ раздумывали.
 Решит кто если это-мисс Ли и задумал он поставил всё на карту. Т.е. есть, если я отбегу на его предположение переехать к нему в Далмас, то он не срежет то что задумал, а если нет, то наоборот.
 В этот вечер Ли не был особенно возбужден или кем-то особенным выгавал свои мысли. Только, когда я его спросила, что завтра как-нибудь приедет в Далмас, то как можно увидеть его, где по Гилбертовому, конечно он ответил, что не знает. Я замешкалась позвонить а Ли часов в 10 пошел спать. Когда в 12<sup>12</sup> я пришла в <sup>вашу</sup> комнату он спал.
 Трайн я не имела обморожений <sup>оставал</sup> и ~~узнала~~ готовить завтраки для Ли — он делает это вчера сам. В 7 часов утра позвонил судьямник, но Ли не встал. Минут через 10 я расбудила его и стала говорить Ройсу. Он сказал, что я не вставала, оделся, поправился и ушел. Я мне замета делкой и не слышала, когда он

Выйдя из дома и уехал. Но 7<sup>25-40</sup>, когда я вышла на кухню, там уже не было. Я посмотрела там ли он коров, но коровник был холоден. Я удивилась, почему он не завтракал. Тед Вилл Велер, мы сказали, что в пятницу он не при-едет, неудобно так рано. Там утром Рут уехала с детьми к врачу, а я смотрела телевизор и была очень радостно настроена, видя как радостно и приветливо народ встречает председателя. Тотом вернулась Рут и мы про-давали смотреть телевизор. Обе были в хорошем настроении. Но вдруг по телевидению сообщили, что кто-то ~~убил~~ стрелял в президента.
Мы обе ужасно расстроились и образи с небрежностью новостей о событиях Кеннеди. Рут сказала, что президент скончался. Я была настолько потрясена, что плакала, не слышала слов. Я не знаю почему, но я сматывала председателя президента, как будто я победила близкого человека. Хотя я совсем из другой страны и знаю очень мало о нем. Но то, что я знала было так хорошо. Я очень любила Джаклина и её детей. Устраивала себя, потому судьба так жестока.
Почему хорошие люди <sup>рано</sup> уходят этот мир, ~~и~~ а некоторые люди имеют счастье жить долго. Затем Рут сказала, что стрелили из здания где мы работаем. Моё сердце ёкнуло и я подумала, не мой ли
"супергерой" мучил это сердце. Но сообщения они раного сорта. Нам тотком сказать не так кто сшил такое. Всё шло так. Я пошел в гаранти, где мне показали все книги бумаги, посмотрели на место м. ручки, какие ли имеют. Но ручки, которые было завернуто в одеяло было на месте.

У меня отлегло от сердца. Но я не находила себе места все таки. Потом вдруг пришли полицейские и начался опрос. Они спросили имеет ли м. м.
ручье. Я ответила, что да. Но когда они пошел в гараж, то и взяли ручье в одеяло, то ручья там не оказалась. Когда я смотрела, то видела это одеяло, которое лежало около, как всегда как будто внутри там то-то было.
Я ~~спросила~~ про ручье я видела 3 неде-ли назад, когда перемещивалась, тоже это такое лежало, завернутое в одеяло, думаю, что это метаморфозы гаси от Дини провали. Я оберну-ла край одеяла и увидела деревянную часть ручья. Но после того, что ручья там теперь не оказалось. Я не жалею, что и думать. После опроса мы все вместе
с Дини и её детьми поехали в магазин, т.к. полицейские сказали, что мы аресто-ваны. Хотя 99% они ~~не~~ ушли они пробав можно муча, я всё-таки дума-ла, что это сшил не он, не хотелось верить этой страшной правде. Я считала, что просто какое-то недоразумение, веро ли всегда вы на подозревали.
После допроса в магазине, я встретилась здесь с матерью м. и его братом.
В этот день нам не разрешили видеть с м. А А

Я вернулся с матерью М в
Фрэнк и Руд. На следующий день вместе с матерью М мы поехали в магазин, чтобы видеть М. Свидание состоялось. Я поговорила с М, он расспра-шивал о детях, упоминавал и просил не вакцинировать. Всё будет хорошо, всё ~~просто~~ просчитано. Знал ли мать, что <sup>намере</sup> ею последний раз! Тогда и преступник, но это мой муж. Упрошу обвинить меня, если здесь я много распростра-нялась о своих чувствах. Субботним ночью вместе с матерью М и с нашим дядей М ночевали в <sup>намере</sup> Ватсон, который был для нас сотрудниками журнала
"Пойдо". Они сказали, что удобнее и спокойнее не возвращаться в К Руд. Т.к.
там много желающих иметь такую поводил и подробностей. В воскресенье мы поехали видеть М снова. С нами были сотрудники "Секрет сердца". Они сказали, что сегодня утром, когда М перевозили в другую тюрьму, ~~была~~ видно счастлива, а затем я узнала, что мой муж скончался. горе для меня было великое обаяет с двумя крошками, не знаю английского языка, не имел денег.
Но думаю, что если мой муж совершил такое, то Бог рассудил правильно.
И всё-таки мне умереть неоправданно, слепота, или электрический стул, но земными законами. После смерти мужа мне очень тяжело. Но я очень благодарна ~~быть~~ американцам, которые позаботились обо мне, о моих детях. Моральная поддержка настолько мне важна для меня, что я обрела

It seems as though it all happened yesterday, and three years already gone by--not a very long period of time, but it has passed as fast as a single day. Much water has flowed by, and there have been many changes.

You might be interested to know how I met Lee Oswald, and how we lived. It was an ordinary life, not unusual in any way. It is the way the enormous majority of people live in the world. But it seems to me as though it was in some way marked by fate. Even now I can confidently say that this was fate. And may those who do not believe in fate excuse me.

... This is how it happened: Lee and I met in Minsk. This is a rather large, provincial city of the USSR, the capital of the Belorussian Republic, with a population of 500,000. And among this comparatively large number of people, two found each other. Myself a Russian--my future husband an American. We represented different worlds, different continents, but we were united by fate.

It was, I think, a Thursday, the 4th of March, although I do not remember precisely, in 1961. I had already been in Minsk more than a year. It is still cold there in March, with snow, frost, wind--the winter does not want to pass, although the approach of spring can be felt. And even people's hearts begin to beat in a different way--at least that's the way it appears to young people. I was 19 years old. I had many admirers, but then, all girls, when they get married, can say the same. One of them was Sasha P. He studied in the Medical Institute, and I know that he was head over heels in love with me, although he knew I had plenty of defects. I was not attracted to him, although this was not because he was a bad-looking fellow. Quite to the contrary, many young girls were dying to have him as a close friend. He was very smart, studied both hard and successfully, was handsome, and from a good family. Today he is a good doctor (in Russia people become specialists very early--at the age of 23 or 24). Of course, at that time he was only 20 years old (I don't want to offend anyone of that age, but I think that 20 is too young for a serious step like marriage.)

For some reason I was not attracted to Sasha, probably because he was too wonderful in every way, and I knew that he was very drawn to me. At that time I was becoming interested in another person in his class. He was also in the Medical Institute, but was much older than Sasha. After his military service he had entered the Institute, and was already 26--a person who probably already had plenty of experience with life. He was quite ugly (and in this I think he has something in common with Mel Ferrar). But I was embarrassed to appear with him in public--silly girl. I was afraid that my friends would say "What an ugly boy friend Marina has." For that reason we would talk on the telephone for two or three hours at a time, and it was very, very interesting to talk with this Anatoli. He always found interesting subjects for conversation, often criticized me, and even laughed at me sometimes, half jokingly, half in earnest.

Perhaps this is what drew me to him. He loved his mother very much and talked about her very tenderly. I liked that. I no longer had a mother, and it was very agreeable to see how this big, fully grown man acted like an innocent little child toward his mother. Not everyone can do this so straight forwardly; although almost everyone loves his mother, many are embarrassed to do it. And this man had many other handsome features--which he owed to his parents who brought him up. Shortly before we met, his brother, whom he had loved very much, had drowned. This is perhaps why he transferred his love to people. He wanted to become a good doctor, and in this way help people in their suffering. And he was a good friend. For example, he had a friend who applied with him for acceptance into the Medical Institute. The friend did not pass the examinations, and although Anatoli's grades were good enough for acceptance, he waited until the next year and took the examinations again. Anatoli and I used to meet, and I liked him, but I did not think of anything serious. He wanted to marry me, but I refused, since he was still a student, and it is very difficult to study and maintain a family at the same time. To wait five years until he finished seemed too long for a young girl, as it seemed to me that in five years there could be a lot of changes.

One day Sasha invited me to a social evening at the Medical Institute, and I knew that Anatoli would be there too. You see what a frivolous girl I was. Sasha forced me to promise that I would be there and gave me an invitation. Anatoli told me that if I came with Sasha he would not want to see me again, and that we wouldn't be friends any longer. But I thought I could arrange things somehow so as not to offend either of them. The evening started at 7 o'clock, and I came at 10 o'clock without any expectation of finding anyone there, since the doors had already been closed. Something detained me at work, and I got home quite late; then I took two hours to get dressed and sat a long time in front of the mirror, then I lost my courage completely and was tired of dressing, so I put on an ordinary house dress. But my uncle (I lived with my uncle) started laughing at me: "Was it worth while standing in front of a mirror so long?" And, finally, something dragged me to that evening, even against my will. I can say this quite sincerely--I felt something quite unusual that evening but did not pay attention to it. To my amazement Sasha was waiting for me. He was standing out in the cold without an overcoat. He ran out every 10 minutes to look and see if perhaps I had showed up. We had trouble getting into the dance hall, since the doorman didn't want to let me in so late, but we persuaded him. At the dance I tried to catch sight of Anatoli, but I was told that he saw me with Sasha and left--which upset me very much.

Sasha was with his friends from the Institute. One of his friends introduced me to Lee, calling him Alik (all his friends, and the people with whom he worked, called him Alik, in that way rebaptising him with a Russian name, since the name Lee sounds too unusual in Russian). But he did not say that Lee was an American, and when Lee invited me to dance, and we started to talk, I decided that he was from one of the Baltic countries, since he talked with an accent. But later that same evening I found out that Lee was an American. The mother of the acquaintance who introduced us had been in the United States with Russian tourists, and was telling of her impressions. For that reason her son, who had known Alik previously, invited him to this dance. But I had come late, and didn't hear all this.

I liked Lee immediately. He was very polite and attentive, and I felt that he liked me too, since he tried not to miss any dances with me. He got nervous if anyone else managed to invite me first. Later, when we were married, Lee told me that he noticed me as soon as I came into the dance hall. Don't think that I have an especially high opinion of myself or am anything unusual, but I can say that my youth, and the fact that I had just come in from the cold --had their effect. By then the girls were already tired, whereas I had just taken off my overcoat--so that I had a fresh look and was not pale like the others. I remember having on my favorite dress made of red Chinese brocade (Lee liked this dress afterwards), and my hair was done ala Brigitte Bardot. That evening I even liked myself. You see how I am boasting; but I am writing what I felt. It's all true. Lee told me afterwards that he sees me come into the hall and thought how he might get to meet me. It showed on his face that he was glad to meet me when one of his friends led him over to the group of young people in which I was standing. Later, when the dance was over, we all went in a group to the house of the Yuriy whose mother had been in the United States. She turned out to be a very sympathetic woman who took a very objective approach to everything. I remember that she quarreled a little with Alik, since Alik defended America. I would not say she was attacking America. When Yuriy's mother said good night to us and went into her own room, we stayed and listened to records which which she had brought from America; we listened to music, looked at picture postcards of the United States and souvenirs. Lee spoke very favorably about his country and very interestingly. I was very pleased that he was trying to show the best side of his country. Later, when I asked him if he liked America, he said that he liked it, but not everything in it; for instance, unemployment, discrimination, the fact that it is very difficult and expensive to get educated, the high cost of doctors when one is ill. But he said very proudly that in America the apartments are prettier and not so crowded, and that the stores have things for every taste provided one has money. He also said that in America there is more democracy and that every person can say what he wants in the press, on the radio, or on TV. I haven't encountered this here, since I usually sat home; therefore I don't know. I only know what my husband told me. I am getting off the subject. I will try

That evening Sasha and Alik took me home. We were alone in the street for a few moments, when Lee asked when and where he could see me. I told him that perhaps I would come again to the dances at the place where we met but did not make any precise promise. But when, a week later, I went again with a friend to a dance--Lee was there. That evening he came home with me, and I introduced him to my Aunt. My Aunt liked his modesty and politeness, also the fact that he was very neat. She told me with a laugh that only an American was lacking in my collection. No one yet (nor I myself) thought that this was my future husband. We agreed to meet, I think, the next Saturday, but the day before, Lee was taken to the hospital and telephoned me asking me to visit him. But he rang three evenings in a row before he was able to tell me this, since when he rang I was away with my friends. I liked Lee, but I did not consider him seriously, and therefore I continued to go out with my friends--since you have to do something with your free evenings. When I came to the hospital to visit Lee, he was very glad, and hadn't expected it. I don't know why he thought so badly of me. I remember bringing some canned apricots--and didn't realize that this was his favorite dessert. Intuition told me what his taste would be. In general, I felt sorry for this young man who had come from a different continent and was completely alone although he had friends. And I think that he felt himself alone in a foreign country. Even if one likes a lot in a foreign country, still there is more which is unusual. For instance, Lee was surprised to find out that in all the stores of the USSR the prices of groceries are the same. For example, if you buy sugar, it costs the same in every store.

I remember one of our meetings in the hospital. It was Easter, and I brought him a colored egg. He was delighted that we had the same custom as in the United States. My uncle and aunt are non-believers, but this custom is very ancient and still survives in people. Some people don't believe in God, but color eggs just to change the pattern of their days, but many still believe. And although Lee also did not believe in God he was very pleased that I had done this and thought it had helped to bring us closer. In any case, it seems to me that he became more sympathetic toward me. Believe me that I didn't do this on purpose--I didn't know your customs, I just wanted to show what ours were. In general Lee had a very sickly look, and this made people sorry for him. I and my aunt were very sorry for him, for the fact that he was alone, and she was very cordial and even tender with him. While Lee was still in the hospital he told me that he wanted us to become engaged and said that I should not see anyone else. I promised, but did not take it seriously, since I did not yet love Lee, but was just sorry for him.

Then, after a successful operation (I think they cut out some glands or polyps in his nose--I am not sure) Lee was discharged from the hospital. We met very often, sometimes at our house, sometimes at his. We walked in the street. I very much enjoyed walking in the streets of Minsk in the spring--it is cold, but spring is coming on. Later Lee admitted that these walks in the snowy streets were a great lesson to him, since he could not stand cold weather, being from the South in the United States. Actually, after living in the warm climate of Texas or Louisiana, it is difficult to live in such a comparatively cold place.

When Lee and I met, my friends used to come along too and we would dance and drink coffee and tea. The boys and girls would try to show off their knowledge of English and ask Lee how various English words were pronounced. Everyone had a gay time. Lee had a lot of classical records, and he loved to listen to them when we were alone. He did not like noisy company and rather preferred to be alone with me. I remember one of these evenings when we drank tea with pastry and kisses. Then (please excuse my vulgarity, due to youth) the tea was very tasty. I never again drank such tea or ate such pastry--ha ha! Lee told me that he wanted us to get married and to stay here forever. He had a small darling one-room apartment with a balcony, a bathroom, gas, kitchen, and a separate entrance--quite enough for two, especially if they were young. I told him that I would become his wife (since I had already fallen in love with him) but that we should wait several months since it was a little embarrassing in front of our friends to get married so quickly. But Lee agreed to wait only until the first of May. It was already warm. We planted some flowers on the balcony in honor of my agreeing to marry him. On April 20 we applied to the

ZAGS (after getting my uncle's and aunt's permission), and we were told that we had to wait ten days (a whole ten days) before they would know whether we could get married, since Lee did not have Soviet citizenship. After ten days, which was very long for us, we got married. It was one of the happiest days in my life. Alik too, I think, was very happy that we were allowed to get married. He only calmed down on the day of our marriage; before that he went every day to the ZAGS to find out if we were to get permission. Only after our wedding did he finally believe that what we wanted had really happened. We did not believe that it was possible. I remember that Lee brought me some early narcissi, and we went to the ZAGS with our friends. We came back on foot; the sun was shining; it was a warm Sunday, and everything was beautiful. By the way, after the birth of June I found a dried narcissus from my bouquet in Alik's Russian-English dictionary. But when we were living in New Orleans he gave this dictionary to the public library and remembered this only in Dallas. He became very upset at losing this flower. But let's go back to the story. The happy month of May was our honeymoon month. On May 1 we strolled in the streets of Minsk in the warm spring rain and got soaked through, but did not notice it. Of course we were both working but we had the evenings after 5 o'clock and Sundays entirely to ourselves. We ate in restaurants, in the first place because I did not have time to cook dinner (in Russia there are none of those frozen and prepared foods that you have in the United States) and in the second place because I did not know how to cook properly. We went out to Youth Lake to go boating, went to the movies, and walked in the park. My friends often came to see us and we would have a good time listening to music, dancing or playing cards. In Russia Lee was sociable and liked youthful company. He and I loved classical music. We had many Tchaikovsky records, as he was Lee's favorite composer, and also Grieg, Liszt, Rimsky-Korsakov, Schumann. Lee's favorite opera was the Queen of Spades. In Russia a film was made of this opera, a beautiful film. Lee went to it four or five times and at home I even came to be jealous of this opera. After work he would immediately start playing this record, not once but several times. We often went to the opera theater, the conservatory or the circus. Lee liked to visit my uncle and aunt. My aunt was especially sorry for Lee since he was alone in our country, and treated us like her own children. She tried to make things as agreeable as possible for Lee, told me that I should not bother him with little things. We bought some furniture and many of my friends envied the way we lived. Lee was very anxious to have a child and was very grieved when the honeymoon was over and there was no sign of a baby. Sometime in the middle of June we were out on a lake near Minsk with one of his friends who spoke English very well lying in the sun and swimming. That was a wonderful day, and that evening Lee told me that he was sure that after the required time, starting from that day, we would have a baby. I did not believe it, but a week later we were eating in a cafe and I fainted. I think this was the first sign of the baby. It was a great joy for us and for my aunt. She has no children and she was very anxious to take care of my (sic) grandchildren. I felt fairly well, but the doctors told me that I might lose the baby since I had RH negative blood. Lee was very upset by this, but when he had his own blood checked, it turned out that he was also RH negative. Only a very small percentage have RH negative blood, and this very unusual coincidence--in which both husband and wife were RH negative--pleased us very much.

Before our marriage I asked Lee if he might sometime return to the United States. He answered that he thought not. After our wedding Lee told me that several months earlier he mailed a request to the American Embassy to return home, but had not received an answer, and for that reason thought that it was impossible. He asked if I would go back with him to the United States if he got permission. I answered that if he was my husband, I would go with him wherever he went. It was all the same to me if it was China, Africa, or the United States. Lee told the Embassy that he had gotten married, and that we both wanted to go back to the United States. They suggested that we visit the American Embassy in Moscow, which we did in July. I submitted an application to the American Embassy for an entry visa into the United States, and a request to the USSR Ministry of Foreign Affairs for an exit visa. After this there was another wait, and we did not know how long it might be. But by New Year's I received an answer from the American Embassy that I had been granted permission to come to the United States. We then had to wait for my permission to leave the USSR. Lee, being a foreigner, could obtain an exit visa anytime he wanted, as soon as he was ready to go. This is the right of foreigners. The American Embassy suggested that Lee leave by himself, before me, but he refused. My relatives and friends were unhappy that we could go so far away, perhaps never to return.

We met the New Year with great hopes for the change in our lives. My girl friends felt sorry that we were leaving and at the same time were envious that I would see so many new things. After all, it is interesting to see new countries, to see how others live on the earth. To tell the truth, in the place where I worked, not everyone took the same attitude. Some even tried to persuade me to divorce Lee and remain in the Soviet Union. I don't know why they were frightened at the idea of my departure for America-- probably it was the effect of habit. But it is certain that youth is afraid of nothing. And then my intuition told me that the same kind of ordinary people live in America as everywhere else. And they would not have anything against me as long as I did not do anything wrong. What is more, I very much wanted to see with my own eyes my husband's home--America, about which people talk and write so much.

On February 14 we were visiting a friend of mine and had a wonderful evening. We were both very gay, and I joked that Lee would send me to the hospital the next day, although we were not expecting the baby until February 30 (sic). As it happened, I woke up at six o'clock in the morning and told Lee that perhaps we should go to the hospital. Lee was terribly pleased and frightened. It was very funny to watch his suffering, as though he was the one who had to go to the hospital. He was hurrying me on, but I was not in any great pain and did not want to go. After lengthy persuasion on the part of Lee we went to the hospital at 9:00 a.m. As though it was deliberate, no taxi was to be found. With difficulty we squeezed into a bus. Lee's face showed how nervous he was. I had never seen him look like that before. It was February, cold and slippery, with snow on the ground. And Lee thought that something was sure to happen between the bus and the hospital. I worked in the drug store by the clinical hospital and for that reason decided to have the baby in that hospital. After all, I knew the doctors and the nurses and felt somewhat at home there. If something happened they would help me quicker. Anyway, at 9:10 we got to the hospital safely, and Lee went off to work. And at 9:55 our daughter was born. Alik had not yet made it to work when they telephoned his place of work and congratulated him on his daughter. So his friends knew before him that he was a father. In Russia women stay ten days in the hospital after having a baby, if all is normal; for three or four days they are not even allowed to get up from the bed. And no one except the mother sees the baby, in order to prevent infection from outsiders. The father and the relatives do not have the right to visit the maternity ward. I think this is a good idea. But nonetheless I was visited by my friends who were studying in the Medical Institute and who did their clinical practice in this hospital. Several times I even managed to meet Lee, since my drug store was located on the first floor of this building and I was on the third. This is illegal, so there is a sin on my soul, but I wanted to see Lee very much. He was very glad to have a daughter as though he had not been dreaming of a son. He even said that a girl is better for the mother, but that the next one would have to be a son. After 10 long days I was discharged from the hospital and was met by a whole crowd of relatives and friends. It was cold and both Lee and I were afraid that if the girl took even a breath of cold air she would get sick. Stupid young father and mother. Lee even forbade anyone to come into the room where the baby was kept until they got warm after coming from the street. The first day of my arrival home, February 23, was a very joyful day in our lives. Lee was so agitated that he couldn't even talk. He was more worried than I was. We both ran around the apartment, rushed hither and yon, were very busy, but achieved no results. The little one was so small and helpless that we didn't know what to do with her and were afraid to pick her up. And at night time neither of us slept but kept listening to make sure that our daughter was still alive. Lee was afraid that something could happen to the baby at night and that we would not notice it. The girl was very quiet and she did not give us too much trouble. I can say that Lee at that time was a very good husband and a very good father. He always helped me around the house, picked up things, cleaned the floor, washed the dishes. And when the baby was born he even washed and ironed the diapers because we did not have a washing machine. Of course, I did not try to profit by this and not do anything myself. But I was very pleased that my husband was sharing these chores with me.

We named our daughter June--in honor of the month of June, the month in which the life of one more human being in our family began. Lee loved June very much. It seemed to me that he didn't love me any more, but just the daughter. This, of course, was not true. These are two different kinds of love.

In the evening of February 23 my aunt had a birthday party at her house. But I was afraid to go with a small baby to a place where there were a lot of people. So I sent Lee to congratulate my aunt and waited a long time for him to return. Lee came home at 11:00 o'clock and, to my surprise, he was drunk. This is the first time I saw Lee drunk, and it was terribly funny. He had to drink vodka in honor of his newborn daughter, and since there were a lot of toasts, my American, who was not used to Russian vodka, could not hold it and became drunk. It was really terribly funny to see him; he said a lot of silly things to me and to his daughter, and was extremely happy. I have to say that in this condition he was not rowdy but very obedient and went straight to bed. Lee never drank and didn't like to drink, but was willing to celebrate an event such as the birth of a daughter. The first two weeks were a worrisome time, but then we both quieted down and decided that nothing would happen to our daughter, since everything was all right, and thus we became normal parents. All my girl friends came to visit our daughter, brought new toys, and sewed little dresses for her in the evenings. Everybody loved her, and my aunt was especially pleased to have a granddaughter. As a joke she even used to ask us to give June to her.

In the middle of May I received my Soviet exit visa. We went first to Moscow to put our documents in their final form, i.e., to obtain a foreign passport for myself, to exchange some money (to get dollars for rubles), and to buy a ticket. In Moscow we stayed several days in the Hotel Ostankino, and then transferred to the Berlin, since it was closer to the center of town.

The last days in the USSR were spent in a frantic rush. There was a lot to be done and this took up a lot of time. Basically Lee took care of the packing, since I was occupied with June.

We had saved a little money, and in addition we had money from the sale of our furniture and some other things. This we exchanged for dollars, but of course it was not enough to buy a ticket and to get a start in the United States. So Lee borrowed some money from the American Embassy. From Moscow we took the train to Warsaw, Berlin, and Amsterdam. Holland, that small and cozy country, pleased me most of all. We went through Holland on a Sunday. The bells were ringing in the churches, and people were going to church. It was sunny, and everything was very quiet. It seemed that the people here had never known trouble, and everything was like a fairy tale; even the houses in Holland look like ones in a fairy tale, with lots of glass and light. Holland is a very, very clean country, surely the cleanest country in the world. We lived in an apartment in Amsterdam for three days, and our landlady was so neat that we were even afraid to lie down on the sheets for fear of getting them dirty. Do not think that they thought we were dirty. In America, it seems, they cannot wash so clean, although there are even more facilities for it. It depends upon the people. In Amsterdam we bought a ticket on a boat for New York. It was already June, but in Holland it was still cold. We wore our overcoats. On June 13, we arrived in New York. Rain was falling, and it was rather cold. The fact that it was raining seemed to me a good sign. In Russia they say that if rain falls, for instance, during a wedding, the people will be happy or rich. Silly person that I was, I thought that perhaps here we would be happy, money did not matter, the most important thing was peace in the family, and then we would overcome any difficulties.

Upon our arrival in America Lee became very preoccupied since all the responsibility was on him. And we had a number of problems: a quite large debt, no work (in America this is still a problem), and we still didn't know how and where we would live. From the hotel in New York Lee telephoned his brother Robert who proposed that we live for the time being with him in Fort Worth. We bought a ticket on an airplane and the closer we got to Texas the more we undressed. In New York you could wear an overcoat, it was still rather cold. But by Atlanta it was already very hot. I remember that we took a short rest in Atlanta for several minutes while the airplane was being readied for its further flight. We went out to take a breath of fresh air. And people were eying us askance. I cannot boast about the way we were dressed. And even June was dressed in Russian style. In Russia children are dressed in diapers, that is to say their arms and legs are wrapped in diapers--the result being that they look something like an Egyptian mummy. I am looking at myself now with different eyes and think what a comical sight we must have been then.

In Dallas we were met by Robert and his family. I was very ashamed of how sloppy we looked. We were both very tired from the trip and didn't have anything very good to wear anyway, not to speak of the way my hair must have looked. I am afraid that Robert also was ashamed of having such a relative as myself. But they are very good people and did not say anything to me; quite to the contrary, they helped me get used to the new country. Their very delicate approach to me and to our whole family immediately gave me a very good impression of Americans. I am ashamed to say that I didn't speak a word of English and did not understand anything. So I felt quite out of place.

I remember that Robert suggested that I exchange my dress for shorts, since it is very warm in Texas in the summer. This was a revolution for me. Up until then I had only seen in the movies how American girls simply walk around the streets in shorts. But when you are sitting in a movie theater, where it is a lot cooler than on the streets of the city, this seems even indecent. In Russia shorts are only for the beach. Anyway, I felt much better in shorts and quite decent.

Robert showed me the American stores and I was delighted that everything was so simple, and that there were so many things which I had only dreamed of. I don't want to run down my own country, but these things are very nice to have. I think that in time Russia will get around to this too, but they still have a lot of different problems. It must not be forgotten that the Russian people suffered a great deal, and that many lives were lost in the wars, which made it impossible to develop a prosperous life. But any normal person will understand this. I haven't lived in the world long enough to make comparisons. But the last ten years have seen a lot of improvements in people's lives. Very many beautiful and comfortable houses are being built, and even whole new modern cities. It has become possible to satisfy the increasing demands of people for beautiful clothes, for beautiful and comfortable furniture, and for household articles. In America I immediately liked the many neon advertisements. Perhaps Americans are used to them and pay no attention to them. But for me they were unusual--these gay, many-colored lights in the windows and advertisements made me feel good.

And so we lived with Robert. At first we rested a little from our trip, and Lee started looking for a job. Alas, this was not very easy. I remember especially that Lee did not have any particular skill. Finally we had a stroke of luck and Lee found a job, although not a very enviable one. He worked as a machinist in some little factory which turns out metal products for homes. But for the beginning, even this was good and better than living off other people. Although Robert's family treated us very well, one can only go so far. And besides we still owed a debt for our travel expenses. After Robert, Lee's mother proposed that we live for a while with her. We lived with her for two or three weeks and then took an apartment on Mercedes Street. Lee went to work and during my free time I took June and used to enjoy looking around the stores. Montgomery Ward, a very large store, was across the street. Everything was fine; Lee did not like his work very much, but he understood that it would enable us to live and pay off our debts. One day Lee came home from work and had not yet changed his clothes when some man knocked at the door. He turned out to be an FBI agent and asked Lee to come into a car, which he had parked across the street, and talk. There was one other man in the car. They talked for two hours, and I started getting angry at these uninvited guests, since it is no fun to heat up dinner several times. Lee came home very upset but tried not to show it. But from his face and from his behavior I could see that this visit distressed him very much. He did not say what he had talked about with these men, and I did not try to question him since it was so unpleasant for him. This all happened at Robert's house in Fort Worth.

Lee saw that it was actually quite boring for me, and that I was very lonely after the first holiday impression had passed and nothing remained but worries and housework. One day he told me that he had met a Russian who had been living there for a long time, and that he had invited him home. Subsequently, through this person, we found out that there are a lot of Russians in Dallas, and we met many of them. In this way I acquired new friends, and Russian ones besides. This was very agreeable for me. My Russian friends were extremely kind to me, and helped a great deal; but Lee did not like them very much, probably because they did not take his side in political discussions. I am ashamed to say that I am not particularly competent, and not very interested, in politics, and therefore I cannot say precisely what these discussions were about. But people view things in different ways, and the same happens here. Therefore it seemed to me normal that my friends did not understand and did not support Lee. But I was not happy that because of this he started being disagreeable to my friends and even to me, because I tried to maintain contact with them. I was hurt that Lee so avoided people and wanted me to do the same. We started to quarrel. In general, our family life began to deteriorate after we arrived in America. Lee was always hot-tempered, and now this trait of character more and more prevented us from living together in harmony. Lee became very irritable, and sometimes some completely trivial thing would drive him into a rage. I myself do not have a particularly quiet disposition, but I had to change my character a great deal in order to maintain a more or less peaceful family life. In the end of September Lee lost his job. But it was a good thing that we had already paid off our debt to the American government. All the same, things were rather difficult. In spite of everything our Russian friends helped us. One of our friends helped Lee find a job in Dallas. He started working in the Printing Company in Dallas, and for the time being I lived with my Russian acquaintances in Fort Worth. Lee rented a room in Dallas and came to see me from time to time. But he wrote letters and telephoned. No matter how much we quarreled, I knew he loved me and the family, and I trusted him. We quarreled only because he had a difficult character and because that was the only way he could love. But he did not think that these quarrels could break up the family, and so I forgave him everything.

Lee was very pleased with his new job, and soon (in the end of October) I came to live with him in Dallas. We rented an apartment on Elsbeth Street in Dallas. In our spare time we walked in the park and around the city, visiting our Russian friends. In the evening Lee went two or three times a week to an evening school in Dallas--studying typing. I thought that this would be useful. But he did not finish the course, since he got tired of it. One day we had a serious quarrel because Lee told the landlady a lie about my being from Russia. He told her that I was from Czechoslovakia. And when the landlady asked me, I told her that I was from Russia, not knowing what Lee had told her. In this way a misunderstanding arose. I did not understand why Lee was hiding the fact that he was married to a Russian. But I refused to tell a lie. He got angry at me, said that I did not understand anything, and that I was not supporting him. I answered that it was hard to understand such stupidity,

and that he was simply stupid. Then he told me that if I didn't like it I could go where I wanted. I was terribly hurt. I had no one there close to me except him and if this man rejected me, why should I stand in his way. I took June and left Lee to go to my Russian acquaintances. Three days later Lee telephoned them and wanted to see me and talk to me. We met, and Lee asked me to come home, saying that everything would be all right. But I refused, since I wanted to show him that I had a character too as well as self respect, and that he couldn't trample on this self respect too much. Before this all happened Lee had even hit me at times, for absolute trifles. Of course my heart wanted to return to him, but I didn't try to show him this. I wanted him to see that family life is not a plaything, and that he had to be more serious about it. Then it seemed to me that Lee didn't love me any more, and although it was very hard to turn him down, I told him that I didn't want to live any longer with a person who hurt me without any reason, and that I wanted a divorce. I saw that Lee went home extremely upset, and I felt that this might teach him a lesson. Of course I did not want a divorce, since I loved Lee, but I would have done it if he had not so insisted and begged me to come home. One Sunday when I was still living with my friends, Lee came to visit. We talked alone in the room, and I saw him cry for the first time. What woman's heart can resist this, especially if she is in love? Lee begged me to come back, asked my forgiveness, and promised that he would try to improve, if only I would come back. Do not think that I am boasting--as if to say look how he loves her and he is even crying. But knowing Lee's character, I can say that this is perhaps the first time in his life that he had to go and ask someone a favor, and, what is more, show his tears. Then I felt that this man is very unhappy, and that he cannot love in any other way. All of this, including the quarrels, mean love in his language. I saw that if I did not go back to him, things would be very hard for him. Lee was not particularly open with me about his feelings, and always wore a mask. Then I felt for the first time that this person was not born to live among people, that among them he was alone. I was sorry for him and frightened. I was afraid that if I did not go back to him something might happen. I didn't have anything concrete in mind, but my intuition told me that I couldn't do this. Not because I am anything special, but I knew that he needed me. I went back to Lee. He tried to be better in his relations with me. But broke down at times all the same. What can you do when a person has been this way all his life? You can't reform him at once. But I decided that if I had enough patience, everything would be better, and that this would help him.

I understood that our unappealing material situation had its effect. Lee was terribly unhappy that he could not give me those things which other husbands can give their wives. This could be felt especially after we had visited my friends who lived much better than we. Lee suspected (although there was no reason for it) that I blamed him for his inability to get along in life. And because he thought about this more than I did, he used to get angry at me and would criticize me for my friends. Again we quarreled, but I forget hurts quickly and was ready to forgive-- especially my unsuccessful husband.

When we were not quarreling I was very happy with my Lee. He helped me with the house work, and took care of June. He devoted a great deal of time to June. He also read a great deal. He used to bring home dozens of books from the library and just swallowed them down, even reading at night. Sometimes it seemed to me that he was living in another world which he had constructed for himself, and that he came down to earth only to go to work, to earn money for his family, to eat, and to sleep. Perhaps this is not true, but, in my opinion, he had two lives, spending most<sup>o</sup> of his time in his own separate life. Previously, in Russia I had not noticed this, since he was not so withdrawn. Only once when he was writing a book about his life in Russia

he went off by himself and would become irritated if people bothered him. Of course this "book" was in English, and I didn't read it. Therefore I cannot tell about everything written in it. He was not particularly talkative about his memoirs.

For Thanksgiving we went to Robert's house in Fort Worth. I liked this good American holiday; it is very agreeable to celebrate it. In the station Lee asked me if I wanted to hear the music from the movie Exodus. I did not know this movie, but I liked the music very much. Lee paid a lot for this record, played it several times, and said that it was one of his favorite melodies. Now that Lee is no longer alive, I like this melody even more, since it is associated with happy memories. Lee was in a very gay mood, we joked a lot, fooled around, photographed one another in the station and laughed at how silly we were getting. At Robert's house everything was also very gay and in a holiday mood. Even more because Lee met his half brother whom he had not seen for several years. There was lots to talk about and to remember. Later we came home and resumed our ordinary everyday life. It is a good thing anyway that people have holidays--to get a good change.

The next holiday was Christmas, which we celebrated at the house of my friends. There were very many people, and it was noisy and gay. It is very agreeable to see people with happy faces. I was very pleased to see how nicely the city was decorated for Christmas, and how people were hurrying to buy their Christmas presents. The way Christmas is celebrated here is very beautiful. This was my first Christmas in America, but could I have thought then that I would celebrate the next one without Lee.

New Year's was very dull for us as we stayed home. Lee went to bed early, and I sat up and thought about Russia and my friends there. It was very depressing especially when I thought of my home, my relatives, who were making merry, and I was not with them, but sitting alone and unhappy. After New Year's we moved to a new apartment on the next street. There we had a balcony. This reminded us a little of Russia, and it was convenient for June, since she was beginning to crawl. On the balcony Lee set out boxes for flowers, But the flowers which we planted did not grow, since the weather here was rather warm for Russian flowers, the seeds of which we had brought with us. These were the seeds of flowers which we had liked when Lee and I took walks in the Minsk Botanical Gardens. The winter here was very warm and I was not used to the absence of snow. But Lee was happy, since he could not stand the cold, especially the Russian winter. When we lived here I was already somewhat out of contact with my Russian friends, since they did not particularly like Lee, nor he them. And although

I wanted to see my friends more often, I knew that Lee would not be too satisfied with that, and I wanted to maintain peace in our family. Nonetheless, every now and then, one of my friends would visit me in order that I would not die of boredom. One day we were invited to a friend's house, where I met Ruth Paine, who was studying Russian here in America and wanted to improve her conversational knowledge. We began to see each other. Ruth would come to see me with her children. This was very good both for me and for June. She was growing up alone and becoming terribly wild, so the company of other children was good for her. Sometimes we went out on picnics at a nearby lake. Lee loved to fish, and we would look and rejoice if he caught a little fish. Several times I even made soup out of the fish which we caught by our own efforts. Several times we went to visit Ruth who lived in Irving.

At this time I was pregnant. Lee was very anxious to have a son and was sure that the next child would be a boy. I did not feel very well. Ruth's company was very good for me, since we two women could talk about our own problems. But of course I could not tell her everything which was tormenting me, for example, that my Lee wanted to kill General Walker.

It happened like this: I knew that Lee had a rifle but did not pay any particular attention to it. Many men have rifles. How could I have known what this rifle was meant for? I had enough worries of my own already. One day Lee stayed out very late. I should note that he was extremely punctual and always came home on time. I thought that he had been delayed by his lessons in school, but it was already after eleven. I started to get uneasy, and when I went into the room where he usually read and occupied himself with his own affairs, I found there a note for me, which told me what I should do in case he was arrested. I was puzzled as to why he should be arrested, and when Lee returned, I showed him this note and asked him what it meant. His face was unrecognizable and asked me not to ask him any questions, only saying that he had recently taken a shot at General Walker. Then he turned on the radio, but didn't hear any news about it. You can imagine how I felt. I thought a policeman would any many and told Lee this. But he answered that I should not worry ahead of time. He did not know how this had all ended, and only in the morning he heard on the radio that an attempt had been made against Walker and that he had not been killed. I demanded of Lee an explanation of why he had done this. He answered that this person belonged to a Fascist organization, and that it would be better for everyone if he were dead. I answered that he did not have the right to kill a person, regardless of who he was. To this Lee answered that if Hitler had been killed early enough, people would not have suffered so much, and there would not have been a war. Of course I agree with his opinion of Hitler, but I was very happy that he had not hit Walker. I asked Lee where his rifle was, where he had left it, since someone might find it. He answered that he had buried it. Several days later he brought it home. I was glad that all this ended so favorably for us and for Walker. I asked Lee not to do such a thing again, and he promised me not to. I told him that I would keep this note and that if he tried anything similar I would go to the police. Several days later Lee told me that he no longer had a job. God, one more misfortune on my head! Lee said that it would be better for me if I returned to Russia. Lee became even more withdrawn and was not particularly kind in his relations with me. I decided that it would be better to go back to Russia and no longer be a weight to a person who, in addition, does such terrible things. I wrote a letter to the Soviet Embassy in Washington requesting a visa. In the meantime I decided that if Lee did not have a job, it would be better to go to a different city. I was also afraid that in Dallas Lee would be very tempted to repeat his attempt on Walker. I suggested that we leave for New Orleans--Lee's home town. There he had relatives. I thought that he would be ashamed to do the same things there as he had done in Dallas. I wanted to get as far as possible from the occasion of sin. Ruth Paine offered to have me live with her in Irving until Lee found a job. I lived with her a week, and during this time Lee went to New Orleans. Two weeks later Lee telephoned that he had found a job and that I should come. Ruth agreed to take us to New Orleans, and besides she wanted to see the city. When we arrived in New Orleans Lee rented an apartment near his work. He worked in the Louisiana Coffee Company.

My first impression of New Orleans was very good. I liked the wonderful beach. The French quarter was very interesting. But this is all more for tourists. When you live a rather busy life, and don't have much time to visit restaurants and the various places of amusement, I think that you would no longer like New Orleans. What is more, the mosquitoes are terribly vicious. I could hardly stand the humid and hot weather, and it was even more difficult in view of my condition. But our family life in New Orleans was more peaceful. Lee took great satisfaction in showing me the city where he was born. We often went to the beach, the zoo, and the park. Lee liked to go and hunt crabs. It is true, that he was not very pleased with his job. . . We did not have very much money, and the birth of a new child involved

new expenses. It was rather difficult. I saw that it was very hard for Lee and thought it would be better to go back to Russia. Of course it would be difficult to leave Lee, but one day, to my great pleasure, Lee said that he wanted to go back with me. After all, it would be better for him to have a steady job there and not to have to worry about the next day. As before, Lee spent a great deal of time reading. Then he discovered a new activity. He started to spread pro-Cuban leaflets in the city. I was not exactly happy with this occupation of his, but it seemed to me better than his "games" with the rifle, as in Dallas. To tell the truth, I sympathized with Cuba. I have a good opinion of this new Cuba, since when I was living in Russia I saw a lot of excellent movies about the new life in Cuba. After seeing these films and reading the literature, I came to think that the people were satisfied with their new life, and that the revolution had given to many work, land, and a better life than they had had before. When I came to the United States, and people told me that they did not love Fidel Castro, I did not believe them. In Russia we did not think this way, since we had only heard good things about him. Of course, I do not know from personal experience what conditions are like there, since I have never been to Cuba. I have formed an opinion only on the basis of films, books, and newspapers. If I see in a movie that people are happy, I cannot say that that is bad.

But I did not support Lee since I felt that he was too small a person to take so much on himself. He became conceited about doing such an important job and helping Cuba. But I saw that no one here agreed with him. So why do it? And even more in view of the fact that Cuba will get along by itself, without Lee Oswald's help. I thought it was better for him to take care of his family. Lee and I quarreled about this, especially one day when he was arrested and spent the night in jail. I think that this somewhat cooled off his passion. But he spoke on the radio and had discussion with anti-Cubans. It was a pity that I could not understand very much English and do not know what he said. After having been arrested, however, Lee distributed pro-Cuban literature with somewhat less ardor and activity than before.

In the end of August Lee lost his job here too. We were receiving unemployment compensation. Lee looked for a job but couldn't find one. Our situation was not especially prosperous, and Lee began to think more and more about returning to Russia.

I wrote Ruth Paine a letter about our situation. She very kindly offered me to come with June to her to live as long as I wanted. At this time she and her children were spending the summer vacation with her parents and her friends, and she wrote that she would come and pick me up in the end of September. On September 20 Ruth came to see us, and several days later June and I went to Irving. Ruth wanted me to help her with her conversational Russian and to be her friend, since she was rather bored and lonely at home alone. At that time she was not living with her husband.

Lee remained in New Orleans and said that he would try to find a job there or in some other place, and, if he could not find one there, would come to Dallas. I did not want the baby to be born in New Orleans, since I did not like that city (perhaps undeservedly). I liked Dallas better. After two weeks Lee telephoned and said that he had come to Irving and that if we could meet him at the bus station that would be fine, since he did not have an automobile and it was rather far to Ruth Paine's house by bus. Ruth's car was being repaired at that time, and Lee hitch-hiked his way there. This was, it seemed, October 3 or 4. Lee spent the night with us and the next morning Ruth and I took him to Dallas (the repairs having been finished that evening). We had some things to do in Dallas and dropped Lee off in Oak Cliff. He went off to rent a room to live in while in Dallas looking for work. He lived in Dallas and I lived in Irving with Ruth Paine. It was very nice for me to have her as my friend, since she helped me very much in the time before the child was born. She was even more useful in this respect, since she went with me to the doctor, and if we did not have transportation she could take me to the hospital. I was very happy to live with Ruth Paine not because she was useful, but because I liked her company. We two women could talk heart to heart. We got to know each other better and enjoyed spending many evenings together chatting about this and that.

Lee called twice a day, was worried about my health and about June. He came to us by bus every weekend and we would meet him. Lee hadn't yet found a job. One day we were with a neighbor of Mrs. Paine, and there was another woman there. We were conversing (or rather everyone was talking except me, since I did not speak English but only understood it). Ruth said that my husband could not find a job. This woman said that her brother worked in the School Book Depository and there was apparently an opening there. That day Ruth telephoned the Depository, but they did not give a definite answer, only asking that he come the next day. When Lee called that evening we told him the news, and the next day at 10 o'clock in the morning Lee went there to ask about the job. During the lunch break he told us delightedly that he had been accepted. This was October 14 or 16. The brother of the neighbor who had helped find the job brought Lee over on Friday and took him back on Monday morning. This was a very nice young man, and it was very kind of him to do it.

In the beginning of October I remember that an FBI agent came to see our neighbor and asked her who was living with Ruth Paine. She answered that a Russian woman was living there with her child, but that she didn't know her name or anything special about her. We were not home then and for that reason he did not come to see us. The next day he paid us a visit and talked with Mrs. Paine, questioning her about Lee. She said that Lee was living in Dallas and gave his telephone number. He left his own name and telephone number. A week later he came again with some other young man and they left in precisely five minutes. I don't know what he talked about with Ruth Paine, but she said that he asked if I had any difficulties with the USSR, meaning if they were bothering me here in Dallas, if Soviet agents came to see me. I think this was worse than nonsense. He did not talk with me, and as soon as I appeared in the room he hastened to leave. I have trouble now remembering the precise dates involved; perhaps I am mixing things up. I remember his first visit after visiting our neighbor came about two weeks after the birth of our daughter Rachel (Rachel was born October 20). It was a Friday. We were expecting Lee to come at 5:30 and told him that if he wanted to talk to Lee, he could wait a little while longer. But he left without seeing Lee. We told Lee about this, and he became very upset that they were again concerning themselves with him.

On the eve of October the 18th, we celebrated Lee's birthday at Ruth Paine's house. Her husband was there. Lee was in a very good mood, since he had a job and was expecting a son. He stayed with us through the weekend, and on Sunday the 20th in the evening our daughter was born. Lee stayed at Ruth Paine's on Monday, since June was quieter when her father was there. Monday evening Lee visited me in the hospital. He was very happy at the birth of another daughter and even wept a little. He said that two daughters were better for each other--two sisters. He stayed with me about two hours. In his happiness he said a lot of silly things and was very tender with me, and I was very happy to see that Lee had improved a little, i.e., that he was thinking more about his family. In general, we got along very well together after he came to Irving. Lee said that by working and living alone in Dallas he could save a little money to buy a washing machine (not a new one, of course) for me, since, with two children there would be more washing. I wanted us to buy an automobile, since it is very awkward not to have a car and to be dependent on others. Lee did not insist on this since it was rather beyond our means. I asked him to learn how to drive. And when Lee came to see us, she taught him. But he did not display any particular desire to learn. Even so, the lessons were successful, and he turned out to be a capable student.

Actually, while I was living with Ruth, Lee and I had one quarrel over his renting a room in Dallas without giving his real name. It happened like this: On Friday, Lee, as usual, wanted to come to see us, but I told him that he did not have to come so often now. On Sunday I got lonesome and telephoned Lee, or rather Ruth telephoned, but there we were informed that no one lived there by that name. When on Monday Lee telephoned me from work I told him about this. He answered that he did not want any unnecessary questions as to why he talked Russian on the telephone. He said that he did not want people to get curious about his having been in Russia and that I should erase his telephone number from Ruth's address book. I answered that I did not have the right to do this. What's the sense of giving a telephone number if you conceal your real name, and if even I did not know it. He insisted, and I said that he was stupid and hung up. Therefore I was not surprised when Lee came to Irving on Thursday (instead of Friday evening). He said that he was lonesome. Ruth was not home. She had gone to the store to buy groceries. He came at 5:20 in the evening. He played with June on the street for a long time, helped me, was very tender, and tried to make up, but I was offended at him for this incident of the telephone. Lee said that he was sick of living alone, that it was better for him to take an apartment and to take me there. But I did not agree, saying that I would live a little longer with Ruth Paine, since she was helping me with the child and treated me very well. Lee said that I did not love him if I preferred to live so long with Ruth Paine. But I thought it was better to stay with Ruth Paine until Christmas, better to celebrate the holiday there with friends. Of course, if I had known what was going to happen, I would have agreed without further thought. Perhaps (if Lee was planning anything) he staked everything on a card. That is, if I agreed to his proposal to go with him to Dallas, he would not do what he had planned, and, if I did not, then he would. That evening Lee was not particularly agitated and did not in any particular way reveal his thoughts. Only when I told him that Kennedy was coming the next day to Dallas and asked how I could see him--on television, of course--he answered that he did not know. I was busy around the house and Lee went to bed at 10 o'clock. He was asleep when I came into our room at 12:30. In the morning I did not usually get up to make breakfast for Lee--he always did that himself. At 7:00 a.m. the alarm clock rang, but Lee did not get up. After 10 minutes I woke him up and began to feed Rachel. He said that I should not get up, got dressed, said good-bye, and went out. I was busy with our daughter and did not hear when he left the house. But at 7:25, when I went into the kitchen, Lee had already gone. I looked to see if he had drunk his coffee, but the coffee pot was cold. I was surprised that he had not eaten breakfast. The previous evening Lee had said that he would not come on Friday, as it was inconvenient to come so often. That morning Ruth went with her children to the doctor, and I was watching the television set and was in a very joyful and friendly mood seeing how happy the people were to greet the President. Then Ruth came home and we continued to look at the television set. We were both feeling wonderful. But all of a sudden it was announced that someone had shot at the President. We were both terribly upset and waited impatiently for news of Kennedy's condition. Ruth said that the President had died. I was so shocked by this that I wept freely. I do not know why but I cried for the President as though I had lost a close friend, although I am from a completely different country and know very little about him. But all that I knew about him was good. I was very sorry for Jacqueline and her children. And I asked myself why fate was so cruel. Why good people leave this world so early while some bad ones have the luck to live for a long time. Then Ruth said that the shot had come from the building where Lee worked. My heart missed a beat and I thought did my "crazy" husband do this. But the news reports were all different. In the beginning no one knew who had done this. Everything was mixed up. I went into the garage where Lee kept all our things to see if his rifle was in its place. But the rifle which was wrapped in a blanket was there. I began to breathe easier but nonetheless I could not quite come to myself. Then all of a sudden some policemen came and began to search. They asked if Lee had a rifle. I answered that he had. But when they went into the garage and picked up the blanket, the rifle was not there. When I looked I saw this blanket, which lay in its usual position as though there was something inside it. I had seen this rifle three weeks earlier when I became curious as to what was lying there wrapped up in a blanket; I thought that it was some metal pieces of June's bed. I had picked up the edge of the blanket and seen the rifle stock. But when it turned out that the rifle was not there I did not know what to think. After the search we went to the police station together with Ruth and her children, since the police said that Lee had been arrested. Although 99 percent of the evidence was against my husband I nonetheless thought that he had not done it; I did not want to believe this fearful truth. I thought it was some sort of misunderstanding, since, after all, Lee had always been under suspicion. After being questioned by the police I met Lee's mother and his brothers there. That day they did not permit us to see Lee himself. I returned with Lee's mother to Ruth's house in Irving. The next day I went with Lee's mother to the police to see Lee. We met. I talked with Lee, he asked about the children, soothed me, and told me not to worry. Everything would be all right, and all would be cleared up. If I had known that I was seeing him for the last time! Although he was a criminal, he was still my husband. And I ask forgiveness if I talk here a great deal about my own feelings. Saturday evening, together with Lee's mother and my children, I went to a hotel room which had been rented to us by some people from Life Magazine. They said that it would be more convenient and easier if we did not go back to Ruth's house, since there were many people there who wanted to know more news and more details. On Sunday we went to see Lee again. Some Secret Service agents were with us. They said that that morning, when Lee was being taken to another prison, someone had shot him, and then I learned that my husband had died. It was a great sorrow for me to be left with two little babies, not knowing English, and without any money. But I thought that if my husband actually did this deed, God judged correctly. After all, it is easier to die unexpectedly than on the electric chair under present laws. After my husband's death things were extremely difficult. But I am very grateful to those Americans who thought about me and my children. The moral support was so important for me that I found the strength and the faith to remain in this country in the expectation of a better life. I am very, very grateful to the Secret Service agents who treated me so well and took such good care of me. Although some of the letters which I received accused these wonderful people of preventing me from seeing others, I am free to do anything I want. It's only that after everything which has happened I do not feel well enough to see anyone; I have no particular desire. I am a little offended at the FBI agents who have been tormenting me every day with their trivial questionings, some of which have absolutely nothing to do with Lee's case; for example, what sort of furniture we had in Russia, how many people lived in our house and their ages, not to mention questions about my friends and relatives. I think that they should not count on my practically becoming their agent if I desire to stay and live in the United States. In conclusion, I would like to thank all Americans for being, on the whole, such real and genuine people. I would like to thank them for having helped me without blaming me. I hope that I will find here a good future.

Since the assassination of President Kennedy on the 22nd of November last, we have been flooded with letters from all parts of the country (and of the world, too) asking for information. It is evident from these letters that a great deal of the news available here in Dallas has not been made available elsewhere. Even in these days of a controlled national news media system, it is difficult to muzzle the local reporter in his own local newspaper. Although we cannot, of course, guarantee the complete accuracy of the clippings assembled in this book, it undoubtedly will give the reader a better coverage of the incidents involved, answer a few questions, and pose some additional ones. A few, perhaps, that the Warren Commission will not see fit to answer.

We trust that this convenient book will prove of value to you.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1017

The following is an excerpt from the U. S. Secret Service Manual, Section 10, Chapter I, Page 7.

10. Liquor, use of.--a. Employees are strictly enjoined to refrain from the use of intoxicating liquor during the hours they are officially employed at their post of duty, or when they may reasonably expect that they may be called upon to perform an official duty. During entire periods of travel status, the special agent is officially employed and should not use liquor, until the completion of all of his official duties for the day, after which time a very moderate use of liquor will not be considered a violation. However, all members of the White House Detail and special agents cooperating with them on Presidential and similar protective assignments are considered to be subject to call for official duty at any time while in travel status. Therefore, the use of intoxicating liquor of any kind, including beer and wine, by members of the White House Detail and special agents cooperating with them, or by special agents on similar assignments, while they are in a travel status, is prohibited.

b. It may be necessary to call to duty suddenly special agents who are assigned to or who are cooperating on Presidential protection details at times either during the day or night when they are off duty or on leave at their official posts. Special agents who are subject to unexpected calls of this nature will be expected to be in condition to respond promptly and to perform their duties with thorough efficiency.

c. Violation or slight disregard of the above paragraphs or the excessive or improper use of intoxicating liquor at any time will be cause for removal from the Service. In interpreting the words "excessive" and "improper", slight evidence tending to indicate unusual or questionable conduct will be considered proof that the use of liquor has been improper or excessive. Association with others who drink to excess will be considered as an indication of using more than a moderate amount of liquor. The excuse that liquor was used for medicinal purposes will not be accepted.

d. A special agent, with prior approval of his superior officer, may partake of liquor while employed upon cases where his identity is concealed and where liquor must be drunk to prevent the arousing of suspicion of the person under investigation.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

Mr. J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of April 21, 1964.

Columnist Drew Pearson in a newscast over Radio Station WTOF, Saturday, November 30, 1963, was quoted to the effect that the night before the assassination at Dallas, Texas, "Six Secret Service men . . . were in the Fort Worth Press Club . . . some of them remaining until 3 AM," that several of these agents went later to an all night "beatnik" rendezvous called "The Cellar." Similar statements were made in Mr. Pearson's syndicated newspaper column of December 1, 1963, with the additional statement that "One of them was reported to have been inebriated."

As a result of these allegations, an Inspector from my staff was dispatched to Dallas on December 1, 1963, to conduct an immediate investigation.

On December 1, 1963, Mr. Pat Kirkwood and Mr. R. J. "Dick" Mackie were interviewed. Mr. Kirkwood is the proprietor of a nightclub called "The Cellar Coffee House," 10th and Main Streets, Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. Mackie acts as manager of this club. Mr. Mackie stated that he was working in his capacity as manager of the nightclub on the night of November 21, and the morning hours of November 22, 1963. The club is open from 6 p.m. until approximately 5 or 6 a.m., depending upon the condition of business. He stated that shortly after the Presidential party arrived at Fort Worth, he had a telephone call from a member of the press corps who told him that some members of the Presidential party wished to come to "The Cellar."

During the night, up until at least 4:30 or 5 a.m., Mr. Mackie stated that numerous guests arrived and left. As each arrived he was brought over to Mr. Mackie, introduced only as a member of the White House party or press. Mr. Mackie stated that no one entering was intoxicated, or disorderly, that he could not differentiate whether a person was a press member or White House staff, guest, or agent of the Secret Service. He stated, however, that if there were Secret Service agents in the room, they certainly were not intoxicated. He advised that all guests left his club in the same condition as they entered, as they serve no alcoholic drinks, the only refreshments being coffee, cola, and various fruit drinks.

On December 2, 1963, Mr. Calvin Sutton, Sunday Editor and Assistant Managing Editor of the Morning Star Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed. Mr. Sutton is also President of the Press Club of Fort Worth. He advised that he was aware of the remarks made by Drew Pearson and was very disturbed by the uncomplimentary reference to the Secret Service as he felt the remarks were grossly inaccurate. The Press Club has a closing curfew of 12 midnight. Mr. Sutton admitted he kept the Press Club open till sometime after 2 a.m. because he felt obligated as a good host to extend this courtesy to the visiting White House press and staff.

Mr. Sutton stated that he had received a long distance phone call from Drew Pearson on November 27, 1963; Mr. Pearson advised him at that time that he had been told by White House reporters that several Secret Service agents were at the Press Club party on November 22, and one of them could have been drunk. Mr. Sutton told Drew Pearson at that time that his information was erroneous, that none of the individuals he believed to be Secret Service agents were inebriated.

Mr. Sutton stated that at about 2 a.m., November 22, 1963, he ordered the bar at the Press Club closed. As the bar was being closed, a party of about four people arrived who were later identified to him as Secret Service agents. Mr. Sutton requested the bartender to serve them one drink, after which the bar was again closed and the party left.

During the interview with Mr. Sutton, he stated that he had been a newspaper man for many years; he has attended many parties such as the above; that at no time on the evening of November 21 did he see any person who was identified to him as a member of the Secret Service who was intoxicated, disorderly or ill-mannered. He further stated that at no time did he know of any agents who had more than one or two drinks.

Miss Barbara F. Richardson, a reporter for the Star Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas, was interviewed on December 2, 1963. She stated that while covering the President's arrival at Fort Worth, Texas, on November 21, 1963, she had occasion to talk to several of the Secret Service agents assigned to the airport about their duties pertaining to the limitation of the press covering the President's arrival. She was later introduced to several of these agents at the Press Club party and accompanied some of them to The Cellar. She stated that at no time did she see any persons identified to her as Secret Service agents intoxicated or conducting themselves other than in a gentlemanly manner.

The investigation was continued. All Secret Service personnel involved were interviewed.

There follows a summary of the information secured in the course of this investigation:

- (1) No one was found in the course of the investigation who saw or alleged he saw any Secret Service agent intoxicated or acting other than in an orderly manner or who stated to anyone else that he saw same. All of those interviewed, who were in a position to know, have specifically denied the allegations.
- (2) The only person whose sobriety was questionable was not a Secret Service agent, but a person who represented himself to be a member of the White House staff, and this person was wearing a round red and white lapel identification button, unlike the colored-bar identification worn by Secret Service agents.
- (3) Nine special agents of the White House Detail were in the Press Club at various times and departed at various hours up to 2:00 a.m. The amount of beer and liquor consumed by any of them did not exceed one and a half mixed drinks or, in one case, three glasses of beer.
- (4) During the night, 10 special agents of the Secret Service stopped at The Cellar coffee house at various times for coffee or fruit drinks. No alcoholic beverages were served there.
- (5) The investigation did not disclose that any special agent of the Secret Service was intoxicated.
- (6) All of the Secret Service agents who attended either the Press Club or The Cellar, as well as all other Secret Service agents assigned to the Texas trip, reported for duty at or before the hours assigned for their respective shifts on November 22 in suitable condition to perform their duties.

Sincerely yours,

James J. Rowley

SUBJECT: Conduct of Special Agents in Fort Worth, Texas, as Alleged in Newspaper Column of Drew Pearson, Monday, December 2, 1963

Attached hereto is memorandum report dated December 5, 1963, covering inquiry made at Fort Worth, Texas, by this Inspector, in company with Special Agent in Charge Sorrels, from December 1 through 4, 1963. This inquiry relates to the above-captioned matter.

As instructed, all members of the White House Detail, who made the trip to Fort Worth, Texas, were contacted and written statements obtained from those Special Agents who either attended the Fort Worth Press Club reception or "The Cellar Coffee House," both in Fort Worth, Texas. The statements, in effect, substantiate the findings at Fort Worth that no Special Agent was intoxicated while at Fort Worth. Nine (9) Special Agents readily admit attending the Press Club reception, the consumption of refreshment ranging from one mixed drink to three beers. Ten (10) Special Agents admit being in "The Cellar Coffee House" consuming coffee or fruit juice (no alcoholic beverage of any type dispensed at this club).

It is noted that of the 28 members of the White House Detail who accompanied the President to Fort Worth, only nine off-duty agents attended the Press Club reception, three (3) of whom were on the 4:00 p.m. - 12:00 midnight shift and who had been relieved and not scheduled for further duty until 12:00 noon at The Trade Mart in Dallas, prior to the arrival of the President. A review of statements made by Special Agents who were at the Press Club reception indicates the latest time of departure as 1:45 a.m., however, one statement by Reporter Phil J. Record places the approximate time of departure as approximately 3:00 a.m.

Attached hereto are the following:

1. Column by Drew Pearson, December 2, 1963.
2. Statements by members of the White House Detail involved.
3. Copies of statements by (a) Calvin Sutton, Sunday Editor, Star-Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas; (b) Barbara Richardson, Reporter; (c) Phil J. Record, Reporter; (d) Richard J. Mackie and Pat Kirkwood, Cellar Coffee House, Fort Worth, Texas.
4. Letter from Miss Barbara Richardson, dated December 3, 1963, complimentary in nature.

5. Letter, dated December 3, 1963, from Donald C. Bubor, Attorney-at-Law, Fort Worth, Texas, highly complimentary, and offering to come forward with at least 30 others to praise this Service for the manner in which all of our men conducted themselves and discharged their duties.
6. Letter to Chief Rowley, dated December 6, 1963, from Mr. James W. Mangan, Texas Bureau Assistant, The Associated Press, Dallas, Texas, complimentary to our agents, and in which he states, "I was disturbed that certain accounts indicated the Secret Service was carousing, because that was not what I saw." Copies of this letter were sent by Mr. Mangan to Senator Young of Ohio.

U. S. Secret Service

TO : Chief

DATE: December 5, 1963

201.0

FROM : Inspector Gerard B. McCann and SAIC Sorrels - Dallas

SUBJECT: Conduct of Special Agents in Fort Worth, Texas, as Alleged in Newspaper Column of Drew Pearson, Monday, December 2, 1963

This report is submitted to cover an investigation made at Fort Worth, Texas, by Inspector Gerard B. McCann, Washington, D. C., and Special Agent in Charge Forrest V. Sorrels of the Dallas Office.

This investigation was predicated on remarks made by News Commentator Drew Pearson over radio station WTOP (CBS) on Saturday, November 30, to the effect that the night before the incident at Dallas, Texas, six Secret Service Agents spent the night drinking until 3:00 a.m. at the Press Club of Fort Worth; that several of the Agents later went on to a beatnik "joint" called the "Cellar". A similar remark was also made by Pearson in his syndicated newspaper column of December 1, 1963, with the additional statement that "One of them was reported to have been inebriated."

On Sunday, December 1, 1963, in company with SAIC Sorrels, interviewed Pat Kirkwood and R. J. "Dick" Mackie at the home of Mr. Kirkwood, 3220 Cortez Road, Fort Worth, Texas, (CI 4-2336). Pat Kirkwood is the proprietor of the night club called "The Cellar Coffee House", 10th and Main Streets, Fort Worth, Texas. Mr. Mackie acts as Manager of this club at times and is employed also by the "B. C." Remedy Company. He resides at 5317 Purington, No. 1, Fort Worth, Texas, (Jefferson 5-7636).

When interviewed, both Kirkwood and Mackie spoke in complimentary terms as to all members of the White House party. Mackie stated that he was working in the capacity as Manager on the night of November 21 and morning hours of November 22, 1963, (this club operates from 6:00 p.m. to approximately 5:00 or 6:00 a.m., depending on the condition of business). He stated that he had a telephone call shortly after the Presidential party arrived in Fort Worth from a member of the press. This person told him that various members of the party desired to come down to the "Cellar", i.e., White House Press, White House Staff, and some Secret Service personnel. He stated that as the club is usually busy about this time he (Mackie) made necessary accommodations for use when and if they arrived. He stated that during the night, up until at least 4:30 or 5:00 a.m., numerous White House guests arrived and left. As each arrived they were brought over to Mr. Mackie, introduced only as a member of the White House Party or press. He then escorted them to tables.

Mr. Mackie stated that no one entering was intoxicated or disorderly; that he could not differentiate whether a person was a press member, White House staff guest, or Agent of the Secret Service. (He stated that if there were Secret Service Agents in the room, they certainly were not intoxicated, as each person was introduced to him as they entered.) He advised that all guests left his club in the same condition as they entered as they serve no alcoholic drinks, the only refreshments being coffee, coke, and various fruit drink concoctions bearing unique names, some with an imitation rum flavoring.

On December 2, 1963, Mr. Calvin Sutton, Sunday Editor and Assistant Managing Editor of the Morning Star-Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas, was personally interviewed. Mr. Sutton is also President of the Press Club of Fort Worth. Mr. Sutton advised that he was aware of the remarks made by Drew Pearson and was very much disturbed as to their uncomplicated reference to the Secret Service as he felt they were grossly inaccurate. In his article Drew Pearson stated that the Press Club was supposed to close at 10:00 p.m. This is not correct, as the Press Club has a closing curfew of 12:00 midnight. In a statement, Mr. Sutton admitted that he kept the Press Club open several hours after the curfew but felt obligated as a good host to extend his courtesy to the visiting White House Press and staff. He stated that he felt all would have had a long and hard day and he thought they would welcome a bit of refreshment. No alcoholic beverages were available outside of State liquor stores in compliance with State liquor laws, with the exception of private clubs.

Mr. Sutton advised that this entire matter originated on or about Wednesday, November 27, 1963, when he received a long-distance phone call from Drew Pearson. Pearson advised him at that time that he (Pearson) had been told by White House reporters that several Secret Service Agents were at his Press Club party on November 22, 1963, and one of them could have been inebriated. Mr. Sutton told Drew Pearson at that time that this information was erroneous; that none of the individuals he thought might be Secret Service Agents were inebriated. Further, that he would be unable to identify specific individuals at the Press Club as being Secret Service Agents, White House Press, or White House staff.

During the interview Mr. Sutton stated the only person he was told was a Secret Service Agent was one Andrew Berger. Shortly after midnight, November 21, 1963, Special Agent Berger, accompanied by another person about his same age, entered the Press Club and approached Mr. Sutton. He told Mr. Sutton that he was with the White House party and asked if he would be able to have a personal check cashed. Not having the cash on hand, $189.40, Mr. Sutton took the check to The Texas Hotel cashier and had it cashed; returning to the Press Club, he turned the proceeds over to the person known as Andrew Berger. Mr. Sutton was interested in verifying that the check was good, and as he did not want to embarrass this person for identification before cashing it, he made inquiry later through another person and was told that the person presenting the check was a member of the Secret Service, as well as the person accompanying him. These two persons had a drink or two at the club, remained for a short period and then left the Press Club.

A review of the records indicates that Special Agent Berger had worked the 4:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight shift, which shift was on duty until approximately 11:50 p.m. at the Texas Hotel; that he and his shift were relieved of duty at approximately 11:50 p.m., November 21, 1963, by the midnight shift and was not scheduled for further duty with his shift until approximately 12:00 noon, November 22, 1963, at the Trade Mart in Dallas, Texas, at which time he would report for duty prior to the arrival of the Presidential party.

Mr. Sutton went on to state that about 2:00 a.m., November 22, 1963, he ordered the bar at the Press Club closed as guests were leaving and no others were entering. About this time a party of about four persons arrived, later identified as Secret Service Agents. Mr. Sutton requested the bartender to serve them one drink, after which the bar was again closed and they left.

During the interview with Mr. Sutton he stated he has been a newspaper man for many years and that he has attended many parties such as the above; that at no time did he see any person who was identified to him as a member of the Secret Service who was intoxicated, disorderly or ill-mannered. Further, that as a citizen of the United States, and knowing the responsibility of Secret Service Agents, there was no activity on the part of any Secret Service Agent at the Press Club which would have interfered with their performance on protection duties. Mr. Sutton stated that at no time did he know of any Agent who had more than one or two drinks. He stated that he felt it very unfair for anyone to infer by innuendo, or other means, that the vicious attack on the President at Dallas could be charged to the dereliction of duty on the part of any member of the Secret Service.

On December 2, 1963, I interviewed Miss Barbara F. Richardson, Reporter, Star-Telegram, Fort Worth, Texas. She stated that while covering the President's arrival in Fort Worth, Texas, on November 21, 1963, she had occasion to talk to several of the Secret Service Agents assigned to the airport pursuant to their protection duties pertaining to security limitations of the press covering the President's arrival. She was later introduced to several of these Agents at the Press Club party. She stated that at no time did she see any person known to her as Secret Service Agents who were intoxicated or conducting themselves in any other than a gentlemanly manner. She further stated that, to her knowledge, none of those she met ordered any alcoholic drink as she paid no attention to what any person ordered.

On December 2, 1963, Mr. Phil J. Record, Police Reporter and part-time night City Editor, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, was personally interviewed. He advised that he could not identify any specific person he saw at the Press Club as being a member of the Secret Service, or White House Press, unless he had been so introduced. The only Secret Service Agent known personally to him was Special Agent Duncan, who made the advance arrangements and was in town about one week prior to the arrival of the President. He stated that Special Agent Duncan was not at the Press Club on November 22, 1963. (Mr. Record did say that during his short stay at the Press Club he had occasion to be introduced to several persons as Secret Service Agents, and that none so introduced could be in any manner classed as drinkers.) Mr. Record stated that all persons acted in a congenial manner and in full control of their faculties. Only one person he met indicated any sign of having been drinking. This party introduced himself to Mr. Record as a member of the White House staff. He was wearing a round red-white identification lapel button, unlike the bar-type badge that he had been told was being worn for identification by Secret Service personnel. He stated that this person, although he showed some indication of drinking, could not be classed as intoxicated. Mr. Record stated that in his opinion no one in the entire White House party was intoxicated, but that some slight qualification might be made as it concerned the man with the round red-white lapel button.

On December 2, 1963, Chief Cato Hightower and Deputy Chief R. R. Howerton were personally interviewed. Chief Hightower expressed surprise at any derogatory remarks made relative to the Secret Service. He expressed his highest regard for our Special Agents and was most complimentary of the advance security arrangements made at Fort Worth by Special Agent Duncan and for the arduous work required by the Agent. He was quite familiar with the minute details made by the Secret Service preparatory to the President's visit, and stated that, based on his knowledge of the security survey made, he would question the motive of anyone who spoke disparagingly about the Secret Service with relation to the security of the President.

On December 2, 1963, Mr. Liston W. Slack, Manager, Hotel Texas, was personally interviewed. He praised in a complimentary manner the work performed by Special Agent Duncan pertaining to security arrangements made at his hotel. Mr. Slack stated that he was more than surprised to learn the details required in making such security arrangements. He described Special Agent Duncan as a most dedicated Special Agent and that he was a person of high repute and that his demeanor was most mannerly. He stated that he would not question his sobriety; that in his official relations with Agent Duncan for a period of the one week prior to the President's visit he had, on several occasions at the day's end, invited Agent Duncan to be his guest for a drink but on each occasion he graciously declined. Mr. Slack also spoke in a complimentary manner concerning the entire Secret Service party who remained at his hotel during the visit of the President. He stated that the entire group conducted themselves as gentlemen at all times.

On December 4, 1963, Special Agent James M. Howard, assigned to the Dallas, Texas, Office, and who assisted in the advance arrangements at Fort Worth, Texas, advised that he was on duty at the Texas Hotel from the time the President arrived until 4:00 a.m. on November 22, 1963; that he was representing the Dallas Office and had occasion to meet and to talk to many of the Special Agents accompanying the President from Washington in the lobby, at the President's suite and in the Agents' rooms. He stated that at no time did he ever see any Special Agent of this Service in an intoxicated condition; that he himself was not at the Press Club. This Special Agent's remarks are worthy of comment, as it is known that he does not drink intoxicants of any kind, and it is believed that any remarks by him would be unbiased.

In summary, the facts disclosed the following:

1. That no one who was interviewed at Fort Worth, who was in a position to know, would make any statement to indicate that any Secret Service Agent was intoxicated or acted in any other than a proper manner.
2. That the only person whose sobriety was questioned was a person who represented himself to be a member of the White House staff and that this person was wearing a round red-white lapel identification button, unlike the bar-type worn by Secret Service Agents.
3. That Andrew Berger, the only Secret Service Agent whose identity became known, was off-duty when at the Press Club and that he was not scheduled for further duty until approximately 12:00 noon, November 22, 1963, at the Trade Mart in Dallas.
4. The Press Club remained open from 12:00 midnight until 3:00 a.m., November 22, 1963.
5. That the "Cellar Coffee House" is the only place, outside of the Texas Hotel, which is open after midnight, that serves coffee. That this same "Cellar" serves no alcoholic beverages.

6. An inquiry of White House Detail personnel disclosed that nine Special Agents were in the Press Club at various times, the latest leaving by 1:45 a.m. The amount of beer or liquor consumed did not exceed more than one or two drinks or an equivalent amount of beer.
7. Only nine members of off-duty shifts were in attendance at various time intervals at the Press Club. Only three of the 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. shift were in the Press Club. They advise they had but two glasses of beer and left at 1:45 a.m. for the "Cellar Coffee House" where they had some coffee.
8. Inquiry also indicated that during the night ten Secret Service Agents had occasion to drop in at the "Coffee House" for coffee or fruit drinks. (No alcoholic beverages dispensed.)

The inquiry failed to establish that any Special Agent of the Secret Service was inebriated, as reported in the attached news item.

THEY ARE three agencies of Government which are supposed to be in contact and have litigation or jurisdiction concerning the FBI, the Secret Service, and Central Intelligence. In the interest of protecting the life of the President, however, I am in my belief that a rigorous investigation should be undertaken regarding the FBI.

He also reports facts which should be investigated.

THE BOWER RESTAURANT—Six Secret Service men charged with protecting the President were in the Fort Worth Press Club the early morning of Friday, November 22, some of them remaining until nearly 3 a.m. This was the same day President Kennedy was assassinated. They were drinking. One of them was reported to have been inebriated. When they departed, three were reported en route to an all-night beatnik rendezvous, "The Collier."

Obviously men who have been drinking until nearly 3 a.m. are in no condition to be trigger-alert or in the best physical shape to protect anyone.

It has been stated that it was impossible for the Secret Service to check the occupancy of every building along the route. While this is true, it is also true that warehouse type buildings, such as that in which the assassin hid, should be searched, and the extra time spent by Secret Service men at the Fort Worth Press Club could have been spent in so doing.

***

THE FBI—In Dallas, the police stated that the FBI had interviewed Lee

Osborne but had not advised them about the FBI office in Washington. The FBI claims that it had interviewed Oswald usually.

Interview of Jack Ruby was interrupted by an earthquake three days ago. It is reported that the FBI office of Dallas had a copy of the FBI file on Jack Ruby. It is reported that the FBI office in Dallas had a copy of the FBI file on Jack Ruby.

It is reported that the FBI office in Dallas had a copy of the FBI file on Jack Ruby. It is reported that the FBI office in Dallas had a copy of the FBI file on Jack Ruby. It is reported that the FBI office in Dallas had a copy of the FBI file on Jack Ruby.

The Secret Service keeps a file of people who have written threatening letters to the President or who are otherwise suspect. If Oswald was not on their list, the FBI should have communicated with the Secret Service after they interviewed him.

***

THE DALLAS POLICE—Newsmen who were on the scene in the basement of the Dallas Police Station when the alleged assassin, Lee Oswald, was shot informed me that it is inconceivable the police did not know Jack Ruby was inside.

Most newsmen had to show their credentials to two police guards to enter the basement. It was more difficult to get in than into the White House. Yet a strip-tease night club operator with a police record of arrests for assault and for carrying concealed weapons was let inside.

I, Arthur L. Godfrey, shift leader of the 12am-8am section on duty at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas, on November 22, 1963, do attest to the following:

Special Agents Gerald S. Blaine, Kenneth S. Giannoules, Paul A. Burns, Gerald W. O'Rourke, and Robert R. Faison were on duty at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas, on the above date.

This section reported for duty at 10:00 p.m. at the hotel entrance (ATSAIC Godfrey and SA Blaine), the hotel lobby (SAs Giannoules and O'Rourke), and the President's suite (SAs Burns and Faison).

Upon the President's arrival, this section moved to the President's floor to secure it for the remainder of this section's tour of duty.

During the night some of the above agents went from the President's floor for coffee during their relief periods. This section was alert throughout their tour of duty, and had nothing stronger than coffee to drink.

Statement of Roy H. Kellerman, Assistant Special Agent in Charge, White House Detail, U. S. Secret Service, pertaining to the night of November 21, 1963, at Fort Worth, Texas:

On November 21, 1963, I, Roy H. Kellerman, was in charge of the White House Detail during the visit of the late President Kennedy to the State of Texas.

President Kennedy arrived at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas, at about 11 p.m. After the President entered his suite at the hotel and I felt he would not leave his suite during the rest of the night, I retired to my room in the neighborhood of 1 a.m., November 22, 1963. I did not leave the hotel at any time during the night.

I can further attest to the physical condition of Special Agents William Greer, Samuel Kinney, William Duncan, Ned Hall and David Grant. They were not intoxicated, were in full control of their physical and mental capabilities and able to conduct their assignments properly and effectively.

Statement of Emory P. Roberts, Assistant to the Special Agent in Charge, White House Detail, U. S. Secret Service.

On November 22, 1963, I was in charge of the 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. shift of Special Agents and in charge of the special agents that worked the Secret Service follow-up car.

This shift consisted of Special Agents John D. Ready, Donald J. Lawton, William T. McIntyre and Glen A. Bennett, who reported to me for duty at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas, at 7:20 a.m., on November 22, 1963.

Special Agents Clinton J. Hill and Paul E. Landis who were assigned to the First Lady's Detail (Mrs. John F. Kennedy) reported for duty at the Texas Hotel at approximately 8:05 a.m.

I hereby attest to the fact that I observed all of the above-named special agents before they went on duty and while on duty on November 22, 1963, and none of them showed any indication, whatsoever, that they had been drinking any intoxicating beverages. Each of the special agents assigned to my shift reported on or before the time allotted for their reporting. There was no question in my mind as to their physical and mental capacity to function effectively in their assigned duties.

Special Agents Ready, Lawton, McIntyre, Bennett and myself arrived at the Texas Hotel on November 21, 1963, at approximately 11:50 p.m., (which was a few minutes after the President arrived) and I went directly to my room where I remained until I got up to report for duty on the morning of November 22, 1963.

Special Agents Samuel A. Kinney and George W. Hickey, Jr., were not in Fort Worth, Texas, as they had driven the presidential car and the Secret Service follow-up car to Dallas Airport. SAs Kinney and Hickey were at Dallas when the presidential plane arrived; SA Kinney drove the Secret Service follow-up car and SA Hickey rode in same.

Statement of Stewart G. Stout, Jr., Assistant to the Special Agent in Charge, White House Detail, U. S. Secret Service, pertaining to the night of November 21, 1963, and morning of November 22, 1963, at Fort Worth, Texas:

On the night of November 21, 1963, we were working the 4 p. m. to 12 midnight shift, and arrived at the airport at Fort Worth, Texas, at 11:15 p. m., with the late President Kennedy. We drove directly to the hotel with the President where we were relieved by the mid-night to 8 a. m. shift. SA Sulliman and I were sharing a room and we immediately went to our room and to bed. We did not leave the room at the Texas Hotel at any time during the night.

At 7 a. m., November 22, 1963, Special Agents Samuel Sulliman, Richard Johnsen, Ernest Olsson and Andrew Berger and myself reported to the parking lot across the street from the Texas Hotel for our post assignments. The President was scheduled to speak there at 8:30 a. m.

At this time all of the above-mentioned agents were sober, alert, and ready for the performance of their duties.

Statement of Rufus W. Youngblood, U.S. Secret Service, Concerning Members of the Vice Presidential Detail in Ft. Worth and Dallas, Texas, on November 21 and 22, 1963

The following statement is being made this date in compliance with the verbal request of Inspector Gerard B. McCann, U.S. Secret Service, on April 28, 1964.

On November 21, 1963, at approximately 11:45 p.m., Vice President and Mrs. Johnson arrived at the Texas Hotel in Ft. Worth and went to their suite.

They were accompanied from Carswell Air Force Base to the Texas Hotel by the following members of the U.S. Secret Service Vice Presidential Detail: ASAIC Rufus W. Youngblood, ATSAIC Thomas L. Johns, SA Jerry D. Kivett, and SA Warren W. Taylor.

Special Agent Michael J. Shannon of the Vice Presidential Detail was on duty at the suite upon our arrival. He had previously come to Ft. Worth from the LBJ Ranch for the purpose of working the midnight to 8 a.m. shift at the Texas Hotel. His post of duty was in the hallway just outside the door to the Vice Presidential suite.

Special Agent Kivett and myself roomed together in a double room located just a few feet down the hall from the Vice Presidential suite. ATSAIC Johns and SA Taylor roomed together in a double room on another floor of the same hotel.

ATSAIC Johns and SA Taylor, along with myself and SA Kivett, remained on the floor of the Vice Presidential suite and conferred relative to our respective assignments, schedules, etc. for the following day.

Sergeant Paul Glynn, U.S. Air Force, a personal aide to the Vice President, came into our room and notified us when the Vice President retired.

ATSAIC Johns, SA Kivett, and SA Taylor then remained in the hotel and later retired in their respective rooms.

After informing all of the aforementioned personnel of my intentions and my whereabouts (including a phone number), I departed the hotel accompanied by Sgt. Paul Glynn with Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas to make a brief visit to their residence (about 10-12 minutes drive from the hotel). I have known Mrs. Thomas approximately 25 years, as she is a childhood acquaintance from my home town, and I have known Mr. Thomas for approximately 12 years. Mr. Thomas is an employee of the U.S. Weather Bureau and is presently assigned to the Ft. Worth area.

We visited with them in their home for awhile and then returned to the hotel. Sgt. Glynn went immediately to his room and I stopped for a few minutes in the coffee shop of the hotel with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. Shortly thereafter, I said goodbye to them and went upstairs. I stopped and chatted briefly with SA Shannon and then went to my room and retired.

Our first movement with the Vice President on November 22, 1963, was at 8:25 a.m., when he departed his suite. All of the aforementioned Secret Service personnel were on duty that morning. SA Taylor was specifically assigned to remain with Mrs. Johnson at any time she did not accompany the Vice President, and to work jointly with the rest of us when the two were together.

SA Shannon completed his tour of duty in Ft. Worth prior to the Vice President's first movement on November 22. He was instructed to return to Johnson City, Texas, where he would be available to work the midnight shift at the LBJ Ranch on November 23.

In my opinion, all of the aforementioned Secret Service personnel of the Vice Presidential Detail were in condition, mentally and physically, to perform their duties on November 22, 1963.

The foregoing account of events is true and accurate to the best of my recollections.

A STATEMENT, BY SPECIAL AGENT
GLEN A. BENNETT, U.S.S.C. - CONCERNING HIS ACTIVITIES
ON NOVEMBER 22, 1963

After being on duty for 16 hours on 11/21/63, I arrived, with ATSAIC Emory Roberts' shift, at the Texas Hotel, Fort Worth, Texas, about 12:00 Midnight. I went to my room and started to prepare for bed. About 12:10 AM, 11/22/63, Special Agent Donald Lawton, U.S.S.C., telephoned my room and asked if I would like to go for a sandwich and beer; that the agents and press had been invited to the Fort Worth Press Club. I asked my roommate, Tair McIntire, if he cared to go; he declined. I met S/A Lawton in the lobby of the hotel and proceeded to the Fort Worth Press Club, located about three blocks from the hotel. I arrived at the Press Club about 12:30 AM and joined agents at a table. The waitress was asked if they were serving any food, she answered in the negative; I then ordered a beer. I had two beers, thanked the hostess for the Club's hospitality and departed about 1:30 AM. I was in the company of two agents upon departing the Press Club; we then decided to go to a place called the Cellar - reputed by the manager at the Press Club to be a coffee house with guitar music/entertainment - no drinks. I arrived at the Cellar at approximately 1:40 AM and had two grape fruit drinks. I departed the Cellar at approximately 3:00 AM and went directly to the hotel.

Mr. James Rowley
Chief
United States Secret Service
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Rowley:

The headlines in our local paper this morning tell of an intended Senate investigation respecting the conduct of the members of your organization while in Fort Worth on November 21 and 22.

I was one of thirty men chosen from the Chamber of Commerce Sports Committee here in Fort Worth to assist the Secret Service at the breakfast for President Kennedy at the Texas Hotel. I have nothing but praise for the manner in which all of the men in the Service whom I saw conducted themselves and discharged their duties. Our group had a memorial service for the late President last Tuesday, and I heard many expressions of admiration for the quiet efficiency of the men under whom we served. I was acting under the immediate direction of Mr. Bill Patterson.

After the presidential party had left the dining room, I went out the Eighth Street door of the Texas Hotel, where the cars were waiting to carry the party out to Carswell Air Force Base. Since the Fort Worth Police officers were having some little difficulty getting the crowd back on the sidewalk, I stopped out there to lend whatever assistance might be needed.

I noticed a young man with chin whiskers, an obvious beatnik, standing in the front line inside of the ropes. So I appointed myself to stand near him and engage him in conversation. He told me and a police officer, who edged up that way also, how he had spent the evening down at the Cellar at Tenth and Main Street the night before and that there were a number of Secret Service men who came down there late at night, he thought to relax. After the presidential party had driven off, I mentioned to the police officer that no doubt the members of the Secret Service were down at the Cellar trying to memorize the faces of all of the queer individuals down there. At least that would have occurred to me as a wise precaution.

The only untoward incident which I was involved in that morning was in the Ballroom when a Brigadier General walked in without either a ticket to the breakfast or any other credentials except his uniform and decorations. When he first walked in, I was away, getting Congressman Thornberry taken care of by the person who was seating the special guests. When I got back to the door, the woman taking the tickets told me that a general had walked in without any identification, and walked over toward the next door. I communicated with Mr. Patterson at once to tell him about it, and he was interested in locating the general to identify him if possible. I was then told that someone in an officer's uniform had walked out the other door into the foyer.

Shortly after that, the general came back in the door where I was stationed, and the woman taking the tickets turned to me to report that this was the general who had come in earlier unidentified. I told him to wait a moment; that I would get a member of the Secret Service to identify him, since he had no ticket and no badge which we were instructed to acknowledge. He was quite incensed that he should be stopped, and told me that he was the President's Air Force Aide. I told him that that was fine, and I would get Mr. Patterson there in an instant to identify him. As soon as Mr. Patterson saw him, he told me that he was indeed the President's aide and should be admitted.

The General, however, seemed to feel that he had been humiliated in some respect, and told me that in his three years' experience (I suppose as the President's Aide), no one had ever before challenged his right of entry. I told him that I, myself, had served in the Air Force, and that it was there that I had learned to take orders and obey them, and that my orders from Mr. Patterson were that nobody got in without proper identification.

The General continued to press the point, telling me that it was strange that he would have to come back to his hometown to be treated in any such fashion. I reminded him that I could walk down to the Army store and buy a uniform, stars, and all the decorations he wore, and could very easily masquerade as a brigadier general. I was quite astonished that anyone in his position should have felt that he was above all security regulations.

I have given some thought about writing a letter to the Commanding General of the United States Air Force about the incident. If I do, I will forward you a copy of the letter.

Please know that if any committee of the Senate feels impelled to investigate the conduct of your subordinates while here in Fort Worth, there are at least thirty men that I know of who would be happy to come forward in the defense of your Service.

For your information, during World War II I was Assistant A-2 of the 26th Fighter Command, and later an Assistant Chief of Staff A-2 of the 6th Air Force, serving in Panama.

Yours very truly,

Donald C. Bubar

Ft. Worth, Texas
Sunday, December 1, 1963

I, Richard J. Mackie, 5317 Purlington, No. 1, Fort Worth, Texas, make the following statement of my own free will to Inspector Gerard E. McCann in the presence of Mr. Vernon Sorrels, Special Agent in Charge, U. S. Secret Service, relative to the conduct of Secret Service agents while in Fort Worth, Texas. I make this statement with a view of clearing up any statements by anyone that any Secret Service agents were observed by me conducting themselves in anyway but mannerly. On Thursday night, November 21 and Friday, November 22, 1963 I was acting as Manager of the Cellars Coffee House, 19th and Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This is an all-night entertainment establishment owned by Pat-Kirkwood.

Shortly after the President arrived in Fort Worth, about midnight, Thursday, November 21, I had a call from a member of the press from the Press Club of Fort Worth, the person calling I cannot recall. It is our practice to be hosts to any celebrities coming into town as we operate a unique show place with continuous light entertainment all night. We serve only coffee, fruit juices and no hard liquors or beer. We do have some scantily clad girls who serve as waitresses and also entertain. There is no one allowed to dance as we have no license for such. Our place caters to very high calibre of customers who just like to sit around, listen to impromptu readings, music, etc., and generally enjoy themselves, also, those who like loud music.

The member of the press who called me stated that he was sending and taking members of the White House press, party or Secret Service agents to our place and would like to have them welcomed. As Mr. Kirkwood always desires to act as host to such persons, after I checked with him, I told the press representative to send any and all down for leisure and as our guests.

During the night of November 22, 1963 from midnight on various groups from the White House party came in. They only introduced themselves as the White House party or press party - I met them personally and had them escorted to their seats. I must say this that there was no one in the parties who came in who did not conduct themselves as gentlemen do. As to anyone being drunk I actually saw no one who could be so classed. I would not be able anyway to differentiate between individuals and thus I would not know a person as an agent or press or White House party. All conducted themselves in a most complimentary manner and I sum up by saying we were pleased to have them and all are welcome back.

At no time did any press man question me as to any Secret Service agent in my place, except an NBC cameraman whom I do not know did mention to me that I should be careful as ..... "I (meaning the press) do not like those ba---ds, they just keep pushing us around". This was the only talk I had with any press as it concerns any member of the Secret Service.

I consider those agents as well representative of your Service and no one, I do believe, could say that there were any drunks in this group and that also covers the members of the entire party.

D ar Mr. Rowley:

At the request of Inspector Tom Kelly, I am writing to give you my first hand impressions of what occurred at the Fort Worth Press Club early on the morning the President was shot. I was there as part of the press corps covering the President.

We--newsmen and a scattering of secret service men--gathered at the club to relax after a hard day. We had been invited by Club President Cal Sutton to use the facilities. There was no revelry, no party. We sat around chatting. The agents kept by themselves, taking an obviously well-deserved breather.

I was disturbed that certain accounts indicated the Secret Service was carousing, because that was not what I saw.

I, Phil J. Record, a part time Police Reporter and part time City Editor (night) 5533 Wheaton Dr., Fort Worth, Texas, hereby make the following statement to try to set the record straight as to my knowledge of any activity on the part of the Secret Service agents while in Fort Worth, Texas.

To begin with of the persons I met and had contact with from the White House I cannot make any statements that any were agents of the Secret Service. I had met Agent Duncan at the Press Club about a week before Nov. 21, 1963 and I secured a pass for him as he was to be here all week and we wanted to extend our invitations. I might say that Duncan was not at the Club on the 21st or 22nd of November.

About 2:30 AM on Nov. 22, 1963 I went to the Press Club. There I saw a man with another reported, Barbara Richardson. I was later told that this man was a Secret Service agent. I could not say whether this person was or had been drinking and from his demeanor did not affect me as one drunk. I visited with the White House press, then I went by a table containing several men identified by someone unknown as Secret Service agents. At the table also was one girl, dressed in red and a reporter Barbara Richardson. I believe Barbara said something about going to the "Cellar" to make arrangements (meaning me) for a table, etc. This was about 3 A.M. About thissame time another fellow who had been at the table and was wearing a round red and white lapel badge, unlike the bar badge that I had been told was worn by Secret Service agents asked for the men's room and told me, after a brief conversation, that "I'm on the White House Staff."

About 3 A.M., or shortly thereafter this man who said he was on the Staff, Barbara Richardson, Bob Schieffer, a reporter, the other men at the table, about 4 in number and the woman in the red dress, with myself got on the elevator and left. Schieffer and I got off on the second floor to eat at the Coffee Shop and the others continued on to the "Cellar".

Shortly after 4 A.M. Schieffer and I went to the "Cellar" and saw there the man who said he was on the Staff, Barbara Richardson, the man whom I was told was a Secret Service Agent, and several other people at the same table. I do not know if these other men were at the Press Club nor whether they were Secret Service.

Of the persons I met I would not classify any as drunk, in fact the entire group appeared to be definitely sober and mannerly at the "Cellar". I will say that the only person who showed any sign of drinking at all of the entire group was the man who identified himself as on the White House Staff and wore the round red-white button.

I cannot say that any Secret Service or staff member, as I knew them, was drunk, disorderly or in any way obnoxious at the Press Club or "Cellar". The only person I would question as to conducting his affairs the next day, or then, would be the fellow with the red and white, round lapel button, identified as a White House Staff member.

I make the above remarks only to state in my opinion, as to the activities as I saw them at the Press Club and the "Cellar".

I, Barbara Faye Richardson, a reporter for the Morning Star-Telegram, would like to make the following statement relative to the conduct of any special agents of the Secret Service, whom I met or had occasion to be introduced to on Nov. 21 and 22 while in Fort Worth.

As a reporter, I attended the Press Club's reception for the Washington Press Corps, White House Staff or other invited persons. During the reception I met many press personalities and several gentlemen who were Secret Service Agents from Washington.

I arrived at 1 a.m. Nov. 22 after writing my story for the morning paper. Calvin Sutton, Press Club President, knowing I am single, introduced me to several of the persons there from Washington. I sat at the table with these persons and through a very bad fault socially and for a reporter, can't identify many of them by name now. Their faces I remember.

During the hour or so that I was there, I talked to several of the White House Press corps (some of whom I already knew) and Secret Service agents.

I had two or possibly three drinks while I was there, but saw no one introduced to me as a Secret Service agent who was inebriated or near it.

Later I moved to another table to meet some late arrivals who were friends of the persons I had just met. One drink was served.

After leaving the Press Club, the group went to the Star-Telegram to buy a morning paper which comes off the presses at 2 a.m., and then went to the Cellar, a night spot that poses as a beatnik place. The only two persons whose names I can recall in the party were Malcolm Kilduff and Andrew Berger. No one was inebriated. Mr. Berger was drinking an orange drink and I heard no one of the Secret Service order anything with alcohol content either at the Cellar or at the Press Club.

I personally believe that their activities that night and morning did not and could not have slowed or interfered with their effectiveness in their duties the following day.

Ft. Worth, Texas
Monday, Dec. 2, 1963

I, Calvin Sutton, Sunday Editor and Assistant Managing Editor of the morning Star Telegram, Ft. Worth, Texas, desire to make the following statement of my own free will in the presence of Inspector Gerard E. McCann and Special Agent in Charge Forrest V. Sorrels, U.S. Secret Service, with a view of clarifying any activities known to me relative to the conduct of Special Agents of the Secret Service who were in Ft. Worth, Texas, on November 21 and 22, 1963.

In addition to my regular employment I also serve as President of the Press Club of Ft. Worth. In conjunction with this duty I called our Bureau Representative in Austin, Harley Pershing and Sam Kinch on Thursday, November 21, who were traveling with the Presidential press party to Ft. Worth. They requested that I furnish complimentary passes to the Press Club for the use of the White House party when they arrived in Ft. Worth.

I have been put on notice of the article appearing by Drew Pearson in the December 2nd morning papers in which he makes certain accusations as to the Secret Service and the Ft. Worth Press Club and I would like to set forth to the best of my recollection just what transpired.

In order to clarify the statement made by Mr. Pearson that the Press Club was supposed to close at 10 P.M., I want to state that our Club has a midnight curfew pursuant to state laws. Along this line I also want to state that we realize, because of the importance of the party, and the fact that they did not arrive until after 11 P.M., that we might have stayed open longer than our curfew but we felt obligated to remain open to serve a few drinks and to be congenial hosts.

About midnight, November 21, our club started to receive various persons from the Presidential party, press, staff, etc. About this time a person who was not introduced to me entered with another man unknown to me and stated that he was with the White House party and wondered if I would cash a check for him in the amount of $189.40. I took this check to the Texas Hotel as I didn't have that much money on hand and they cashed it for me. I returned and gave him the proceeds at which time I noticed that he was joined by four other persons whom I did not know. After giving him the money one of my associates indicated that these persons were probably Secret Service agents and that you could tell them by a lapel button. This party had a drink or two at the Club and no one of them could be classified as drunk or near drunk. In fact they were emphatically not drunk. About 2:00 AM November 22, I ordered a shut-off by the bartender of all further drinks as guests were leaving and there appeared to be no other guests arriving. Just about this time four to six other persons entered and a reporter friend of mine said this was another group from Secret Service. In this group were two ladies. Feeling that they had no time to be here earlier I told the bartender to serve them one drink each which was done and the bar was closed.

C O P Y

[REDACTED]

Of the entire groups that I met, and I must say that the only person I could definitely identify was a Secret Service Agent was Mr. Berger because of the check incident. I saw none drunk or nearly drunk by any means. There was one person of the entire group who did appear to have had a drink or two before coming to the Press Club but even he could not be construed to be inebriated - I say this because I talked to him and he was certainly in full control of all his faculties.

During the course of time this reception was open several of the persons indicated that they intended to go to the Cellar, an all-night entertainment establishment bordering on the beatnik type and which night club serves only coffee and no alcoholic beverages.

During the reception I also had occasion to introduce one of my female reporters, Miss Barbara Richardson, to the various groups. As Barbara Richardson is single I felt that she might be good company for visiting guests. Miss Richardson left the reception with one of these groups.

I want to say this particularly that I have been a reporter and newspaper man for many years. I have been involved in many parties held by the press and others and I think I can safely say that I am in a good position to state whether one is drunk or sober or incapable of performing a duty. Based on this experience I will say definitely that there was no one introduced to me or known to me as a Secret Service Agent who did not conduct himself as a gentleman and I also want to say that as a citizen and knowing the responsibility of these agents can state that no activity on the part of any Secret Service Agent in the Press Club would interfere with their performance of duty in connection with their protection work. Also, that this vicious attack on the President could be in no way connected with derelict of duty as far as I can see on the part of the Secret Service Agents traveling with the President.

On or about Wednesday, November 27, I had a telephone call from a person identifying himself as Drew Pearson, the columnist. Mr. Pearson told me that he was advised by White House reporters who were at the Press Club reception that several Secret Service Agents were at this party and one could have been drunk. I told Mr. Pearson at this time that this was erroneous and that any persons whom I believed were Secret Service Agents were not drunk, nor nearly drunk, and I considered them in complete control of their faculties.

Following this call, it may have been the next day, I called Mr. Kilduff on the phone in Washington at his home, and he not being in at the time, I left word with his wife to call me as soon as possible.

Mr. Kilduff returned my call the following morning at which time I told him of my call from Mr. Pearson with a view of alerting him of this report.

On Monday, December 2, a person identifying herself as Marian Ottenberg telephoned me at my house from Washington, D. C., and she made reference to the article by Mr. Pearson and in her words indicated that she was a bit upset concerning this article and that she felt a bit on the defensive. I told her that I did not think that this had anything to do with Mr. Kennedy getting killed and that I did not tip Pearson but that I had talked to him.

Memorandum

U. S. Secret Service CFK
SPK

TO : Chief
Attn.: Inspector Kelley

FROM : SAIC Sorrels, Dallas SSA

SUBJECT: Cellar, Coffee House, Fort Worth, Texas

DATE: May 19, 1964

Reference is made to LD phone call this date from Inspector Kelley wherein he instructed that it be determined whether or not customers of the Cellar, an all night coffee house in Fort Worth, Texas, are permitted to bring their own liquor to this place, and to also ascertain if there are any signs posted in the place regarding alcoholic beverages.

On 5-19-64 contacted by phone Mr. W. A. Phillips in charge of the Texas Liquor Control Board, Fort Worth, Texas, who stated it is permissible for patrons visiting night clubs, restaurants, etc., to take their own liquor and drink it as these places up to 12:15 A. M. on weekdays and 1:15 A. M. on Sundays. Mr. Phillips stated that no liquor is served by the Cellar employees as this place does not have a license to sell intoxicating beverages. Mr. Phillips stated that the Cellar does sell imitation drinks, but that such drinks are not considered as alcoholic beverages because the alcoholic content is too low. Mr. Phillips states that he sends undercover investigators to the Cellar from time to time to obtain samples of mixed drinks sold by the Cellar, but that so far he has not found that these imitation mixed drinks contain even the minimum requirements of alcohol for them to be classed as alcoholic beverages. Mr. Phillips stated that they also check this place to see if there are any minors who are drinking alcoholic beverages, but that they have not found any violations so far.

On 5-19-64 contacted by phone Pat Kirkwood who is the owner of the Cellar who again stated that they do not sell any drinks containing alcohol, other than the alcohol which is contained in the flavoring used in mixing the imitation cocktails, etc. He stated that customers are permitted to bring their own liquor and that they sell the setups to the customers. He stated that no customers are permitted to drink alcoholic beverages brought by themselves after 12:15 A. M. weekdays and 1:15 A. M. on Sundays; that at 5 minutes to 12 each night except Sunday mornings which would be at 5 minutes to 1 o'clock, that an announcement is made over the loud speaker system that it is "bottle time" which means that anyone having a bottle of liquor will have to take it to their cars or else check it at the cash register and pick it up when they leave the place, and that under no circumstances would he permit drinking of alcoholic beverages after the curfew time as to do so would mean that his place would be closed. He also stated that his employees are all instructed to keep a careful watch as to underage customers drinking liquor and that they do not permit them to do so in his establishment. He stated that the package stores close at 10 P. M. each night, and that usually there is an announcement made about 9:30 P. M. or shortly thereafter that liquor stores close at 10 P. M. and that anyone wanting to get a bottle should do so.

Pat Kirkwood stated that he does not have any signs on the walls of his place regarding alcoholic beverages as it is known that they are not permitted to sell alcoholic beverages in his place of business.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1021

1. Protective Research Area.

Question:

a. Can you state more specifically than in the Rowley Report of December 18, 1963, the criteria employed in determining whether to list an individual in the PRS general files; in the "trip file"; in the "album"?

Answer:

The criteria in effect prior to November 22, 1963, for determining whether to accept material for the PRS general files were broad and flexible. All material is and was desired, accepted, and filed if it indicated or tended to indicate that the safety of the President is or might be in danger, either at the present or in the future. In these answers references to protection of the President also apply to members of his family and to the Vice President. There are many actions, situations, and incidents that may indicate such potential danger. Some are specific, such as threats; danger may be implied from others, such as membership or activity in an organization which believes in assassination as a political weapon. All material received by PRS was separately screened and a determination made as to whether the information might indicate possible harm to the President. If the material was evaluated as indicating some potential danger to the President -- no matter how small -- it was indexed in the general PRS files under the name of the individual or group of individuals to whom that material related. Much of this material, upon investigation, has been evaluated as not pertaining to an individual potentially dangerous to the President.

Individuals who are catalogued in the "trip index file" (a 3 x 5 index card file) are only those evaluated as dangerous pending investigation or after investigation, but who do not meet the requirements for hospitalization or prosecution. Each field office has a file on each of these individuals if they are known to reside in or frequent the area covered by the field office. The individuals in the "trip index file" are of two main categories: (1) people whose mental condition does not warrant their being committed to an institution, or who have been declared competent by mental institutions and released but who, nevertheless, have made statements or exhibited behavior indicating that they are believed by PRS dangerous to the President; (2) individuals who have not committed any specific crimes for which they could be prosecuted, but who belong to or are active in organizations believed dangerous to the life of the President or who possess attitudes or proclivities which have been evaluated as dangerous to the life of the President.

The "album" is a looseleaf booklet containing a number of cellophane envelopes in which are placed photographs and descriptions of subjects who are considered unusually dangerous or whose tendency to travel makes their whereabouts uncertain at any specific time. This album is kept up-to-date by PRS. A duplicate of the "album" is also on file in the office of the White House Detail, and special agents are instructed to become familiar with these potentially dangerous individuals, who might appear at any time or place.

Question:

b. Were all three files checked before the Texas trip? Are the "trip index file" and the "checkout control box" cards (mentioned in the Bouck memorandum of December 3, 1963) the same as the "trip file" and the "album"? How many names were in the trip file and the album?

Answer:

The "trip index file" is the same as the "trip file". It contained approximately 100 names on November 22, 1963, covering the United States and certain foreign countries. Prior to the President's trip to Dallas, it was checked and no person was listed in the Dallas area.

The "check-up control box" is, as its name indicates, a control device and not a file. It contained approximately 400 cards with names of persons whose activities were still being evaluated or whose activities were subject to frequent checks. Only the names of persons whose activities have been evaluated as dangerous are in the trip-index file. Since they are frequently checked up on, they are also in the "check-up control box" or an active investigation is in progress. In addition to these names, the check-up control box also contains the names of other individuals who are considered potentially dangerous and who are being checked but whose activities have not been evaluated as sufficiently serious to warrant their being included in the trip-index file. The "check-up control box" was checked prior to the President's trip to Dallas, and the names of no Dallas individuals regarded as dangerous were in the box.

The PRS general files are not organized on a geographic basis. As indicated above, they contain the names of many individuals whose activities are not considered dangerous to the President. They are not designed for checking in connection with Presidential trips, and they were not checked.

The album (described in the answer to Question 1 (a)) contained approximately fifteen (15) names of individuals on November 22, 1963.

They are particularly dangerous and mobile individuals. All agents on the White House Detail were under standing instructions to be familiar with and to be able to recognize them. The individuals in the album were constantly being reviewed. None was located in the Dallas area.

Question:

c. According to the December 18 report, the FBI office in Dallas gave the local Secret Service the name of a possibly dangerous individual in the Dallas area, and the Dallas Secret Service office also conducted an investigation of persons connected with the disturbance during Ambassador Stevenson's recent visit to Dallas, and obtained the photographs of some of these individuals. Were the names of these persons added to the PRS files before or after the Dallas trip?

Answer:

The names of the individuals referred to the Dallas office and investigated by them were added to the Protective Research Section files as soon as reports on these were received in Protective Research. The individual, whose name was furnished to us by the FBI and the Dallas Police, was investigated by the Dallas office of the Secret Service prior to the Dallas trip. The subject was interviewed and a report had been submitted to PRS on November 13, 1963.

The anti-Stevenson pickets were identified and available photos were in the hands of security personnel at the Trade Mart. These names were added to the PRS files after the trip.

2. Liaison Activities.

Question:

a. At the time of the Texas trip what criteria were employed in determining what information coming to the attention of other activities of the Treasury Department should be furnished to the Secret Service?

Answer:

The requirements of the Secret Service have been discussed at Treasury law enforcement coordination meetings held throughout the country for many years. In addition, Secret Service lectures at the Treasury law enforcement officers' basic training school for many years have included material on the requirements of the Secret Service. As indicated above, prior to November 22, 1963, the Secret Service had a very general and broad criterion as to information which it desired. It is believed that all Treasury law enforcement agencies -- both at the supervisory and working levels -- were aware that the Secret Service desired any information indicating that a threat to the life of the President might exist.

Question:

b. At the time of the Texas trip what formal or informal liaison arrangements existed, with respect to Presidential protection, with other federal, state, and local law enforcement and intelligence agencies?

Answer:

At the time of the Texas trip, an experienced FBI agent was assigned as a liaison officer from the FBI to the Secret Service. This special agent had had this assignment for a number of years and was in almost daily contact with the White House Detail, the Protective Research Section, and/or Secret Service Headquarters. While no written directives existed between the Secret Service and the FBI concerning the requirements of the Secret Service, the Secret Service understood that any information coming to the FBI which indicated a threat to the safety of the President would be brought to the attention of the Secret Service. Such information has, over the years, been brought to the attention of the Secret Service regularly and in substantial volume. A similar informal arrangement existed with the State Department and the CIA, especially in the area of foreign travel.

With state and local law enforcement and intelligence agencies, there is a constant interchange of information concerning how protective responsibilities should be shared and what information is desired by the Secret Service. Personnel of Secret Service field offices lecture in many state and local training schools and are in constant contact with local enforcement officers, during which time our jurisdiction and interest in the protection of the President are frequently discussed. In addition, on the occasion of every trip specific liaison is established with local law enforcement agencies. (See description of advance preparations for Dallas trip in Secret Service report to the Commission, dated December 18, 1963.)

3. Particular Protective Measures.

Question:

a. ASAIC Kellerman has been quoted as saying that the security precautions employed in Dallas "were the most stringent and thorough ever employed . . . for the visit of a President to an American city." If this is true, what were the usual measures employed?

Answer:

ASAC Kellerman denies that he made the statement attributed to him concerning the security precautions employed in Dallas. The precautions taken for the President's trip were the usual safeguards employed on trips of this kind in the United States during the previous year.

Question:

b. What is the justification for the failure previously to develop a bullet-proof Presidential vehicle?

Answer:

Presidential vehicles with a limited type of bullet proofing have been used in the past. The last "bullet proof" car left the White House in 1953. It was not replaced because of cost and technical problems and because it was very doubtful that a President would ride in the type of car which could be produced.

Every President has desired to ride in an open car on many occasions. The practicability of an open "bullet proof" car was and is questionable. Even the use of a plastic bubbletop developed by industry at the request of the Secret Service was contingent on our ability to remove it on those occasions when the President wished to ride in an open car. The reluctance to use an odd looking car has been expressed by Presidents who have travelled in cars equipped with the "bubbletop". This reluctance was only overcome by the fact that it allows the President to be seen by more people who brave inclement weather to get a glimpse of him without unduly exposing him for extended periods to the same inclement weather.

Presidential vehicles must be maneuverable; they must have quick pick-up, power, and speed. Technical problems in building an engine capable of moving the tremendous weight required by bullet proofing have heretofore been very difficult. With the recent development of exotic metals, some of these problems have now been alleviated. There has also been the further problem of developing a bullet proof bubbletop acceptable to the President. A bullet proof bubbletop which can be removed is not feasible now nor in the near future. Here again, the weight necessary for the building of a bullet proof bubbletop has been a deterrent.

Since the assassination, with a crash program instituted at our request by the Department of Defense, we are hopeful that solutions can be developed to the weight, the power, and the armor problems. There can be no certainty that the resulting vehicle, with a permanent bubbletop, will prove acceptable to the President for regular use.

Question:

c. Had the Secret Service ever suggested to a President that an agent ride at all times in the passenger section of the Presidential car, as in a jump seat? Would this have constituted an important added safety factor?

Answer:

On some occasions, during the Truman and Eisenhower administrations in particularly dangerous situations, the Secret Service requested and was permitted to have an agent ride in the passenger compartment with the President. However, Presidents in the past have made it clear that they did not favor this arrangement, and the Secret Service has therefore suggested this practice only on extraordinary occasions. While this arrangement would be an important added safety factor, the desired privacy of the President and his guests has militated against its routine use.

Question:

d. Had the Secret Service ever suggested to a President that agents ride at all times on the running boards or rear steps of the Presidential car? Would this have constituted an important added safety factor?

Answer:

It is not practical for agents to ride the running boards or the steps of the Presidential car at all times. As the speed of the car increases it is dangerous and difficult to stay on the car and still be effective as a screen. When the speeds are slow, the considerations concerning the use of this type of screen are similar to those set out in the answer to 3(c). The indiscriminate use of a screen would provide an important added safety factor; but Presidents, including the late President Kennedy, have preferred not to be constantly ringed by agents and cut off from the public. Accordingly, screening is employed only when the agent in charge believes the potential danger inherent in a specific situation requires it.

Question:

e. What formal or informal instructions did the agents in the motorcade have regarding emergency procedures for a contingency such as that which actually occurred in Dallas?

Answer:

The Secret Service has consistently followed two general principles in emergencies involving the President. All agents are so instructed. The first duty of the agents in the motorcade is to attempt to cover the President as closely as possible and practicable and to shield him by attempting to place themselves between the President and any source of danger. Secondly, agents are instructed to remove the President as quickly as possible from known or impending danger. Agents are instructed that it is not their responsibility to investigate or evaluate a present danger, but to consider any untoward circumstances as serious and to afford the President maximum protection at all times. No responsibility rests upon those agents near the President for the identification or arrest of an assassin or an attacker. Their primary responsibility is to stay with and protect the President.

Beyond these two principles the Secret Service believes a detailed contingency or emergency plan is not feasible because the variations possible preclude effective planning. A number of steps are taken, however, to permit appropriate steps to be taken in an emergency. For instance, the lead car always is manned by Secret Service agents familiar with the area and with local law enforcement officials; the radio net in use in motorcades is elaborate and permits a number of different means of communication with various local points. A doctor is in the motorcade.

Question:

f. Is it true that the response to the Dallas emergency developed on the spot without advance precautions such as having a doctor ride in the motorcade in a car close to the President, or having nearby hospitals on an alert status? Was it not dangerous to have taken the President and Vice President to the same location, particularly when there were closer sites of possibly greater safety to the Vice President such as the Dallas Police Headquarters?

Answer:

Response to the Dallas emergency developed on the spot. As indicated in the answer to 3 (e), the Secret Service believes that, because of the variety of emergencies which can develop, the best procedure is to have appropriate basic rules and basic equipment. Then, when an emergency develops, the experienced agent in charge can act as the situation dictates.

In Dallas, the President's physician, as a member of the President's staff, was assigned to a car in keeping with the usual procedure of assigning staff member positions in the motorcade.

The Secret Service has not followed the practice of having nearby hospitals on an alert status. In view of the situation as he knew it at the time, the agent in charge did not consider it dangerous to take the President and Vice President to the same location. If there had been an indication of danger at the hospital, appropriate steps would have been taken. It should perhaps also be noted that considerations other than security are relevant to a decision as to whether the Vice President should remain with or near a disabled President in an emergency situation.

Question:

g. At the time of the assassination, did the Secret Service have a policy with respect to the distribution of important persons throughout the vehicles of the motorcade?

Answer:

The Secret Service does not have a policy with respect to the distribution of important persons throughout the vehicles in the motorcades except that we would oppose any attempt to place the President and the Vice President in the same car.

Question:

h. To what extent did the Secret Service control or supervise the issuance of press credentials for the Texas trip and the Dallas visit?

Answer:

The Secret Service did not supervise the issuance of press credentials on the Texas trip. Credentials of the White House press were issued by the Protective Research Section at the request of the President's Press Secretary. The White House press work closely around the President and are known to the Secret Service. Local press credentials were issued by the local committee which acted as host for the President's visit. The Secret Service requested that these be issued only to bona fide local working press.

4. Supervision of Secret Service.

Question:

a. Describe the supervisory chain of command for the Secret Service in the Treasury Department at the time of the assassination. Did any of the individuals supervising the Secret Service have any technical qualifications in the area of, or associated with, Presidential protection?

Answer:

The head of the Secret Service is the Chief, who is selected from the career ranks of the Secret Service by the Secretary of the Treasury, subject to approval by the Civil Service Commission. The present incumbent in the Office of the Chief is James J. Rowley, who was appointed on September 1, 1961. Prior to his appointment as Chief, Mr. Rowley, for the previous 15 years, was the Agent in Charge of the White House Detail. In that position he had direct responsibility for Presidential protection.

The statute which gives the Secret Service its authorization to provide protection for the President is 18 U.S.C., Section 3056, which reads in part as follows:

"Subject to the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, United States Secret Service, Treasury Department, is authorized to protect the person of the President of the United States, the members of his immediate family, the President-elect, the Vice President or other officer next in the order of success to the office of President, and the Vice President-elect; protect a former President, at his request, for a reasonable period after he leaves office; . . ."

The Secret Service is a bureau of the Treasury Department and, as such, is under the general direction and supervision of the Secretary and the Under Secretary of the Treasury. The Chief of the Secret Service reports to the Secretary through an Assistant Secretary whose duties include the direct supervision of the Secret Service, the Bureau of the Mint, the Department's Employment Policy Program and who also represents the Secretary on various inter-agency committees and working groups.

On November 22, 1963, the Secretary of the Treasury was Douglas Dillon; the Under Secretary was Henry H. Fowler; the Assistant Secretary who directly supervised the Secret Service was Robert A. Wallace; James J. Rowley was Chief of the Secret Service. Chief Rowley had spent more than 26 years in the field of Presidential protection; the other three officials in the supervisory chain of command did not have technical qualifications in the area of, or associated with, Presidential protection.

Question:

b. Prior to Dallas, had either the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary discussed the appropriate relationship between the Secret Service and the President, with the President?

Answer:

The Secretary, the Under Secretary, and the Assistant Secretary responsible for the Secret Service discussed appropriate relationships between the Secret Service and the President with the Chief of the Secret Service, but only the Chief of the Secret Service had direct discussions with the President on this subject.

Question:

c. Prior to Dallas, had either the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary ever been asked by the Secret Service to intervene with the President to urge that a risk not be run?

Answer:

Neither the Secretary, the Under Secretary, nor the Assistant Secretary responsible for the Secret Service intervened with President Kennedy to urge that he not run a particular risk. The Secret Service had been instructed to bring problems of Presidential protection to the attention of the Assistant Secretary in order to receive policy guidance, or the Under Secretary or the Secretary if they thought an appeal to the President would be advisable. Numerous situations involving Presidential protection policies were brought to the attention of the Assistant Secretary and appropriate action taken. No specific appeals to the President were requested by the Secret Service. However, in 1962, when Congress enacted legislation authorizing Secret Service protection for the Vice President, the Secret Service requested the Secretary to speak to the Vice President about how the arrangements would be handled. The Secretary did speak to the Vice President. Protection was then provided by the Secret Service on a basis satisfactory to the Secret Service.

Question:

d. Prior to Dallas, to what extent did the President and the White House staff direct the activities of the Secret Service by instructions to agents, rather than to their Treasury Department superiors?

Answer:

The White House staff customarily deals directly with the Chief or the Special Agent in Charge of the White House Detail of the Secret Service on matters involving Presidential protection since virtually every movement undertaken by the President involves problems of protection. The White House staff provides the Secret Service with information on the President's movements but normally does not direct the activities of the Secret Service concerning Presidential protection, nor do they normally contact the Secretary, the Under Secretary, or Assistant Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

March 26, 1964

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

Mr. J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C. 20002

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of March 24, 1964, requesting a more detailed description of the events leading up to the release in the press of the motorcade route in Dallas and the actual release of the route; and in particular who released the route to the press and by what authority.

November 14, 1963

On this date Special Agent Winston G. Lawson, White House Detail, advance agent in charge of preparation for the President's visit to Dallas, Texas, was informed by Mr. Jack Puterbaugh, representing the White House Staff, that the luncheon would be held at the Trade Mart. Agent Lawson also received telephone verification of this decision from the White House Detail Office in Washington on this date, but was told that the release would not be made until November 15, 1963.

Later in the day, Agent Lawson, Mr. Puterbaugh and Forrest V. Sorrels, Special Agent in Charge, Dallas Office, drove over a route from the airport to the Trade Mart (later selected as the route to be used on November 22, 1963) for the purpose of determining the time it would take to drive the route and the exact distance involved.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1022

Mr. J. Lee Rankin

November 15, 1963

At a meeting held in the office of Chief of Police Jesse Curry about 11 am this date, all route possibilities were discussed; three from the airport to the Trade Mart and two or three to the fairgrounds where the Women's Building had been discussed as a possible luncheon site. Emphasis was placed on the route driven the preceeding day from the airport to the Trade Mart because the selection of this site was known to SAIC Sorrels and Agent Lawson, but the police were not informed by any representative of the Secret Service that the Trade Mart had been selected as the luncheon site. Chief Curry, Assistant Chief Charles Batchelor, Deputy Chief R. H. Lunday, Deputy Chief N. T. Fisher and other command officers of the Police Department, SAIC Sorrels and Agent Lawson were present on this occasion.

About Noon Mr. Puterbaugh informed Agent Lawson that the Trade Mart site had been released to the press. (Exhibit 6C of the Secret Service Report to the Commission)

At 3 pm a meeting was held in the Baker Hotel, attended by the host committee and other interested parties, which included Mr. Robert Cullum, President of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Felix McKnight, Executive Editor, Dallas Times-Herald, Mr. Erik Jonnson, President of the Dallas Citizens Committee, Mr. Sam Bloom of the Sam Bloom Agency, a public relations firm, Assistant Chief Batchelor, Mr. John Stemmons, co-owner of the Dallas Market Center, a few press representatives invited by the local committee, utilities representatives, SAIC Sorrels and Agent Lawson. The various possible routes from the airport to the Trade Mart and return to the airport were discussed, with emphasis on a downtown motorcade because of the 45-minute trip time factor, citizen participation and the expressed interest of the White House and the local political group in providing an opportunity for the President to see and be seen by the largest possible number of people in the time available. This meeting was announced as an off-the-record discussion.

November 18, 1963

A meeting was held at the Trade Mart and a general discussion of the itinerary of the visit, press arrangements and other details were discussed with Mr. Wayne Hawks, White House Aide. Mr. Hawks departed later in the day for Fort Worth. See attached news story which appeared in the Dallas Times Herald November 18, 1963. Present were Mr. W. E. Cooper, Manager of the Trade Mart, Special Agent Jerry D. Kivett, advance agent for Vice President Johnson, SAIC Sorrels and Agent Lawson.

Early in the afternoon, SAIC Sorrels, Agent Lawson, Assistant Chief Batchelor and Deputy Chief Lunday drove over the final route selected, and police coverage for intersections, underpasses, overpasses, crowd control, etc., was decided upon. The approximate time required in driving this route and exact distance was also verified.

Later in the afternoon, Agent Lawson attended a meeting at the Dallas Club which was already in session when he arrived. A number of matters were discussed which included the size and membership of the reception committee, the number and identity of the head table guests, seating of the guests at the luncheon, and other matters concerning the luncheon. In addition, Agent Lawson indicated that he had completed the final selection of the route with the police and the selected route was furnished to those present. Those present included Mr. Bloom, Mr. Puterbaugh, Mr. Eugene Locke, State Democratic Chairman, Mrs. Betty Harris, Mr. Scott Sayres, Mr. Cliff Cassidy, Mr. Robert Strauss, representing the Governor's office and the local party, and possibly one or more other people. Agent Lawson left this meeting prior to it being concluded to meet Special Agent Grant at the airport.

The selected route of the motorcade appeared in the November 19 Dallas Morning News (Exhibit 6D), and in the November 19 edition of the Dallas Times Herald (Exhibit 6E).

Mr. J. Lee Rankin

The route of a Presidential motorcade after it has been decided upon by the Secret Service, the local police and the local committee, is released either by the White House Press Secretary or by the local committee, usually after they have checked with the White House Press Secretary. The time of the release is decided by either the White House Press Secretary or the local committee. The Secret Service does not release selected routes of Presidential motorcades to the press and it did not in Dallas.

Specifically, the Secret Service does not know who released the route to the press, nor by what authority.

It is conceivable that someone present at the November 18 meeting may have released the details of the route after they had been furnished with this information.

At the time the Secret Service Report to the Commission was being compiled, a brief inquiry was made in Dallas by SAIC Sorrels of press representatives as to the source of the release and he was informed only that it was obtained from a reliable source.

I hope the foregoing information is what you desire.

Sincerely,

James J. Rowley

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1023

The United States Secret Service is charged by Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 3056, with the responsibility of protecting the President of the United States, the members of his immediate family, the President-elect, the Vice President, or other officer next in the order of succession to the office of President, and the Vice President-elect, together with a former President, at his request, for a reasonable period after he leaves office.

Effective liaison with other law enforcement and intelligence agencies of the Federal Government is necessary to insure that we receive information on individuals or groups of individuals which pose a potential threat to the safety of the Chief Executive and others for whose protection the Secret Service is responsible. Likewise, it is essential for law enforcement and intelligence agencies to know what types of information should be furnished.

Basically, the Secret Service should be furnished with any information coming to the attention of an agency of a threat to physically harm the President, or others named above, or to cause him or them embarrassment, whether it is by an individual or a group or organization.

Beyond the basic type of information -- a threat to harm or embarrass -- three factors must be considered in determining what other types of information are desired. The three factors are:

1. Interest of the individual or organization.
2. Capabilities of the individual or organization.
3. Activities of the individual or organization.

The interest of the individual or organization is the prime factor to be considered in the criteria but must be coupled with the capability and activity of the individual or organization in any determination for referral to the Secret Service.

The interest must be toward the President, or others named, or other high government official in the nature of a complaint coupled with an expressed or implied determination to use a means, other than legal or peaceful, to satisfy any grievance, real or imagined.

After the interest phase of the criteria is met, then the activity, which encompasses previous history (i.e., mental instability, history of violence) and the capability of the individual or organization for furthering this interest will dictate whether the case should be referred to the Secret Service.

In making referrals to the Secret Service, it is requested that the agency furnish all pertinent background information relating to each of the three-factor criteria.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1024

November 22, 1963. 11.35 AM. I arrived at Love Field, Dallas, Texas aboard USAF Plane #26000 from Fort Worth, Texas. My assignment at Dallas was to drive the President's Lincoln Convertible Limousine.

When I got off the plane, I went to where the President's Limousine and the Cadillac Followup Automobile were parked. I had the President's coats and hat and placed them on the front seat.

After the President and Mrs Kennedy had shook hands with some of the people at the airport the President, Mrs Kennedy, Governor and Mrs Connally entered the automobile with the President seated on the right side of the rear seat and Mrs Kennedy sitting on the left side, Governor Connally sat on the right jump seat in front of the President and Mrs Connally sat on the left jump seat. ASaIC Kellerman sat on the right front seat and I was driving.

After we left the airport, we drove several miles at speeds ranging from 15 to 30 miles per hour depending on the crowds. When we reached the business section of Dallas the crowds were very large and the motorcycle Police along side the President's automobile had a hard time keeping the people back.

When we came to a point where the crowd had thinned out, there was a right turn for about half a block and then a left turn. At this point, I would say the President's automobile was traveling about 12 to 15 miles per hour.

A short distance ahead, the street passed under a railroad or expressway. A building stood on <sup>right side</sup> side of the street, that would have been the last building we would have had to pass before entering the underpass.

The President's automobile was almost past this building and I was looking at the overpass that we were about to pass under in case someone was on top of it, when I heard what I thought was the backfire of a motorcycle behind the President's automobile. After the second shot, I glanced over my right shoulder and saw Governor Connally start to fall, I knew then that something was wrong and I immediately pushed the accelerator to the floor and Mr. Kellerman said, get out of here.

We rushed up to the police escort and I called to the motorcycle police, Hospital. Mr. Kellerman was calling to the lead automobile on the radio to get to the nearest hospital fast. I drove as fast as I could to the hospital and helped to get the President into the emergency room. I guarded the emergency room door until the doctors and nurses had completed their duty. I then drove an official automobile behind the ambulance to Love Airfield, Dallas. I boarded USAF Plane #26000 and returned to Andrews AFB, Wash. D.C. From Andrews AFB, I drove the U.S. Navy ambulance with the President's Body, accompanied by Mrs Kennedy and the Attorney General to the U.S. Naval Medical Center.

I assisted Mr. Kellerman while the surgery was being performed and then drove the ambulance with the President's body to the White House.

The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy
on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas

The President with Mrs. Kennedy and official party arrived at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, aboard AF #1 (USAF 26000) at 11:40 a.m. (cst). After receiving members of the official reception party, the President and Mrs. Kennedy walked over to a fenced area and shook hands with many of the people who had gathered there to view their arrival. At the conclusion of greeting the gathering, the President, Mrs. Kennedy, Governor and Mrs. Connally entered the presidential limousine (special car: bubble-top, 1961 Lincoln Continental, seven-passenger, four-door convertible sedan). The President sat on the right rear seat with Mrs. Kennedy to the left of him. Governor Connally sat on the right jump seat and Mrs. Connally sat on the left jump seat. I rode in the front (right side) and William Greer drove the vehicle.

Behind the follow-up car was the Vice President's car with Vice President and Mrs. Johnson and Senator Yarborough in the rear seat. SA Rufus Youngblood rode in the right front seat and a police officer drove the car. The following vehicles were four cars of congressional members, press cars, VIP bus and then press busses.

We departed Love Field at 11:55 a.m., along the planned motorcade route, enroute to a luncheon at the Trade Mart, given by the Democratic Citizens Council, scheduled for 12:30 p.m. cst. As the motorcade completed the main thoroughfare through Dallas, we made a sharp right turn, for about a 1/2 block, then a curved left turn into a slight downhill grade, entering an area with little or no spectators. We were still traveling at the normal rate of speed of from 12 to 15 miles per hour when I heard a noise, similar to a firecracker, exploding in the area to the rear of the car, about 12:30 p.m.

Immediately I heard what I firmly believe was the President's voice, "My God, I'm hit!" I turned around to find out what happened when two additional shots rang out, and the President slumped into Mrs. Kennedy's lap and Governor Connally fell into Mrs. Connally's lap. I heard Mrs. Kennedy shout, "What are they doing to you?"

I yelled at William Greer (the driver) to "Step on it, we're hit!" and grabbed the mike from the car radio, called to SA Lawson in the police lead car that we were hit and to get us to a hospital.

With SA Lawson riding in the police car they quickly formed the accompanying escort for the motorcade around our limousines and sped us through the streets to the emergency entrance of Parkland Memorial Hospital. Sometime during the ride to the hospital while looking back into the car I noticed SA Hill hanging on to the back of the car, laying across the trunk. When we got to the hospital I called to the agents to get two stretchers. The special agents of the follow-up car with the police ran into the hospital, obtained two stretchers on wheels. We placed the Governor on the first one at which time I noticed he was conscious and I spoke to him saying, "Governor, everything is going to be all right." His eyes were wide open and he nodded his head in agreement. Just before we removed the President, SA Hill took off his coat, placed it over the President's head and chest and we placed him on the stretcher. Both were taken into separate emergency rooms. The hospital staff appeared quickly and went immediately to work. I accompanied the President to the emergency room. His eyes were closed but I could see no visible damage to his face. The room was crowded with the medical people so I immediately walked out into a doctor's room, asked SA Lawson for the phone number of the White House switchboard in Dallas. SA Hill dialed the number to the White House operator in Washington and I talked with Gerald A. Behn, Special Agent in Charge, White House Detail. I informed him that we had an incident in Dallas, the President and Governor Connally had been shot and both were in emergency rooms at the Parkland Memorial Hospital. This I believe was about 12:38 p.m. cst. This direct telephone line from Dallas to SAIC Behn at Washington was kept open from this time until the plane departed. SAIC Behn was kept informed of all proceedings, plans or desires of both Mrs. Kennedy and President Johnson.

We immediately secured the corridors and the emergency room area, furnished the blood type of the President to the medical staff upon their request. It should be noted that Vice President and Mrs. Johnson were placed in a separate room away from the emergency room. Some time later SA Warren Taylor came to me and said the Vice President wanted to see me. Mr. Johnson asked me the condition of the President and the Governor. I advised him that the Governor was taken up to surgery, that the doctors were still working on the President. He asked me to keep him informed of his condition. SA Kinney entered the emergency room area when I returned there and asked if it would be all right to drive the President's car and the follow-up car back to the airport, load them aboard the plane. I said "Yes" and told him to return the cars to Washington, D. C.

The 4 to 12 shift (ATSAIC Stout, etc.) joined us at the emergency room and the 8 to 4 shift (ATSAIC Roberts, etc.) immediately joined the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson.

Through Dr. Burkley, President's physician, we were advised officially of the death of the President which was registered on the death certificate as 1 p. m. est. Between 1 p. m., and our departure from the hospital at 2:04 p. m. est., a casket was obtained and with Mrs. Kennedy, SA Hill and Dr. Burkley riding in the hearse with the casket, SA Berger (Stout and Kellerman in front seat) drove the hearse with police escort to Love Field.

The Vice President and Mrs. Johnson had preceded us with Roberts shift to the airport and when we had arrived, the field had been secured and we rushed to AF 26000. All available special agents carried the casket from the ambulance up the rear steps and placed it in the rear section of the plane. When we boarded the plane, Vice President Johnson and his party were aboard the plane. The services of Federal Judge Sarah T. Hughes was obtained, she was brought into the plane, and Vice President Johnson was administered the oath of office and sworn in as President at 2:38 p. m. est.

At 2:47 p. m., USAF 26000 was airborne for Washington, D. C., arriving at Andrews Air Force Base at 5:58 p. m., est.

While airborne, arrangements were made for a Naval ambulance from the New Naval Medical Center at Bethesda to be available at the airport. Upon landing we removed the casket, placed it into the ambulance. At the airport, Chief Rowley advised me that two FBI agents, Francis O'Neill, Jr., and James Siebert, had been assigned to this case and to allow them into the morgue at the U. S. Naval Hospital. I told Chief Rowley the cars would arrive at Andrews at about 8 p. m., and suggested he assign field agents to them to completely go over them for any evidence that might be found.

Mrs. Kennedy, Robert Kennedy and General McHugh sat in the rear of the ambulance; SAs Greer, Landis and myself with Dr. Burkley rode in the front to Bethesda, with a police escort. The body was immediately taken to the morgue and the family was assigned rooms in the Towers ~~at~~

of the Center. Hill and Landis remained with Mrs. Kennedy in her quarters and William Greer and I remained in the morgue and viewed the autopsy examinations which were performed by Vice Admiral Galloway, Commanding Officer, NNMC, Chief Pathologist Cdr. James Humes, Lt. Col. Pierre A. Finck who is Chief, Military Environmental Pathology Division and Chief of Wound Ballistics, Pathology Branch, and J. Thornton Boswell, Cdr. Medical Corps, USN, together with the Naval Medical Staff. SA O'Leary was also in the morgue briefly. Agents O'Neill and Siebert were present.

During the night Joseph Gawlers Sons, Inc., funeral directors, were notified by Robert Kennedy and Sargent Shriver and a new coffin was obtained. After the completion of the autopsy and before the embalming I summoned SA Hill down to the morgue to view the body and to witness the damage of the gunshot wounds. The embalming was performed after the autopsy by the staff of Joseph Gawlers.

Prior to our departure from the Naval Hospital I received all film, x-rays, that were used during this autopsy, and upon arrival at the White House I turned them over to SAIC Bouck.

We left the hospital at 3:56 a.m. in the Navy ambulance and with police escort motored to the White House. Mrs. Kennedy and Robert Kennedy rode in the hearse, SA Greer drove, Kellerman in the front seat, SAs Hill and Landis with members of the family rode in cars following the ambulance. We arrived at the White House at 4:24 a.m. The body was placed in the East Room.

On Wednesday, November 27, 1963, FBI Agents O'Neill and Siebert were given an oral statement along the lines of this report.

Memorandum

TO : Chief

DATE: November 30, 1963

RAK

SUBJECT: Security measures taken for the late President Kennedy, and President Johnson, from Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, to the US Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland and to The White House on November 22 and 23, 1963.

When the late President Kennedy and the official motorcade departed Love Field, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963, SA's Lawton (8-4) and Rybka (Garage) remained at the airport, to effect security at the plane during our absence.

On arrival at the emergency room at the Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, the agents who worked the Secret Service follow-up car (ATSAIC Roberts shift) were utilized to cover the entrances and corridors leading to the emergency room. Shortly thereafter ATSAIC Stout (4P-12P) and his shift reported to me at the emergency room for instructions.

I then conferred with ASAIC Rufus Youngblood (who was in charge of security for the then Vice President Johnson), and told him to take ATSAIC Roberts and his shift to supplement his agents, and that I would take ATSAIC Stout and his agents with me until we returned to Washington, D. C. This change of shifts was immediately made at the hospital.

Vice President Johnson departed the Parkland Memorial Hospital prior to the departure of the body of President Kennedy, with ATSAIC Roberts shift working the Secret Service follow-up car. On their arrival at Love Field, ATSAIC Roberts and his shift completely secured the area where the President's plane was spotted.

Enroute to Washington, D. C., aboard AF #1 (USAF 26000) another conference was held with ASAIC Youngblood, where he was informed that he would have ATSAIC Stout and his shift with him on their arrival at Andrews AFB, Washington, D.C. I also informed him that I was accompanying the body of the late President Kennedy to the US Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, and would have with me Special Agents Hill, Landis, Greer and O'Leary.

When we arrived at Andrews AFB, Washington, D.C., the body of the late President Kennedy was placed in a US Navy ambulance, which was driven by SA Greer to the US Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland with SA Landis and Dr. George Burkley and myself in the front seat. Mrs. Kennedy along with Mr. Robert Kennedy and General McHugh rode in the rear of the ambulance. SA's Hill and O'Leary rode in an accompanying vehicle.

At the US Naval Hospital, SA's Hill and Landis remained with Mrs. Kennedy near her quarters, located in the Towers of the Center. SA's Greer and O'Leary and myself accompanied the body to the morgue. SA O'Leary remained in the morgue only briefly.

SA Greer and myself remained with the body in the US Naval Hospital along with Agents Francis O'Neill, Jr., and James Siebert of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, witnessing the autopsy performed by members of the US Navy Medical Corps, and the embalming services done by the staff of Joseph Gawlers, Funeral Directors, Washington, D. C.

At 3:56 a.m., on Saturday, November 23, the body of the late President Kennedy was transported in a US Navy ambulance from the US Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, to the White House, with SA Greer driving the ambulance and myself riding in the front seat. Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Robert Kennedy rode in the rear of the ambulance. SA's Hill and Landis rode in accompanying vehicles.

We arrived at the White House at 4:24 a.m., and the body was placed in the East Room.

NOVEMBER 21, 1963:

I, Special Agent Kinney and Special Agent Hickey arrived Love Field in Dallas, Texas at 6:05 pm. We were on a Air Force plane C-130, #12373. Capt. Roland H. Thomason AG, USAF. On board this cargo craft was the President's Limousine, 100-X and Secret Service car 679-X. Upon arrival, I was met by SAIC Forrest V. Sorrels, (Dallas Field Office) and Special Agent Winston G. Lawson, (White House Detail), that was doing the Dallas advance of the President's visit. I and SA Hickey proceeded to unload the two cars and were escorted to the garage that was located under the main terminal of the airport. The arrangements were made for over night security of cars and policemen from Dallas force were put on duty thru the night. SAIC Sorrels, SA Lawson, SA Hickey and myself then proceeded to the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Dallas where reservations had been by SA Lawson. After checking in the hotel, we had changed cloths and at approx. 8:30 pm, I met with SA Lawson, SA Hickey, Mr. Jack Futerbaugh and Arrent Officer Bales USA WMC. We then proceeded to dinner. On the way to dinner we stopped enroute at the place where President Kennedy was to luncheon on Nov. 22, 1963. We spent approx. 30 min. checking the seating and speaking stands. After securing the Mart, we proceeded to have dinner. After dinner approx. 2 hours, we then returned to the Sheraton Hotel and made our arrangements for the following day, Nov. 22, as to the time and place to meet for transportation to Love Field for the following days activities and turned to our rooms for the night.

NOVEMBER 22, 1963:

SA Hickey and I arose from our beds about 7:00 am. We dressed and packed our bags, then went down to the lobby and checked out of the hotel. We went to the coffee shop for our breakfast. At approx. 8:00 am we went into the lobby to wait transportation to Love Field. At approx. 8:30 am SAIC Sorrels picked SA Hickey and I up in front of the Sheraton hotel and we went to Love Field. We arrived there approx. 9:00 am. SA Sorrels took us directly to the two cars with the understanding that he would be back at 11:00 am to escort the cars to their location for the President's arrival at 11:35 am.

SA Hickey and I proceeded with our duties getting the two cars ready for the day, which consisted of cleaning, checking oil, water and batteries. Then a security check. We had the tops down on both cars. It had rained all night and was raining when we arrived at the airport. I had on two occasions gone outside to check the weather. The last check at approx. 10:30 am, the sky had cleared and that meant to us that the bubble-top would stay off.

At approx. 11:00 am SA Sorrels came to the garage to escort SA Hickey and me to the location. At this time SA Hickey stayed with the two cars and I was helping SA Lawson and SA Sorrels line up the motorcade, placing the some ten cars that were to be used.

When the President arrived at approx. 11:40 am I took My place behind the driver wheel in the follow-up car 679-X. After a few greetings by the President we proceeded on with the motorcade thru downtown Dallas and on to the Shopping Mart where the President was to have lunch. We had gone about 30 to 40 min. and had just made a right turn off Main St. and on block , a left turn onto Elm St. A five min signal had been given to agents waiting at the Mart.

THE TRIP AND ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY IN DALLAS, TEXAS, NOV. 22, 1963

Confidential

As we completed the left turn and on a short distance, there was a shot. At this time I glanced from the trailblights of the President's car, that I use for gauging distances for driving. I saw the President lean toward the left and appeared to have grabbed his chest with his right hand. There was a second of pause and then two more shots were heard. Agent Clinton Hill jumped from the follow-up car and dashed to the aid of the President and First Lady in the President's car. I saw one shot strike the President in the right side of the head. The President then fell to the seat to the left toward Mrs. Kennedy. At this time I stepped on the siren and gas peddle at the same time. Agent Breer driving the President's car did the same. The lead car (ahead of the Pres. car) and motorcycles were told to go to the nearest hospital. The President's car and 679-X then proceeded to the hospital at a high rate of speed, taking approx. 6 min. Upon arrival I jumped from my car and ran to the right rear of the President's car, where I assisted in removing Gov. Connally and the President.

After all had been removed from the President's car I opened the trunk of the car and put on the bubble-top and a canvas cover. This took approx. 20 to 30 min. I asked for a motorcycle to escort the President's car and 679-X back to Love Field. We left promptly not stopping enroute to Love Field. On the way to the airport I called by radio to Maj. Nedbaugh, USAF, to have C-130 crew at the plane with ramp down for loading of the two cars. This was carried and the cars were loaded and the plane secured, awaiting our orders to depart Love Field enroute to Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. The plane departed Love Field at 3:35 pm. We arrived AAFB, Md at 8:05 pm. We were met at AAFB by 4 or 5 agents from the Washington, Field Office and some 6 motorcycles. We were then escorted non-stop to the White House garage. After reaching the garage the cars were secured by an all night watch by White House Police and Secret Service agents, pending an investigation.

I was driving SS 679-X, follow-up. As we turned off Main Street (left) about 4 minutes from our destination of Trade Mart. The first shot was fired as we were going into an underpass. The first shot was fired, I glanced <sup>from</sup> the taillight of SS-100-X, glanced at the President and it appeared that he had been shot because he slumped to the left. Immediately he sat up again.* At this time the second shot was fired and I observed hair flying from the right side of his head. With this, simultaneously with the President's car, we stepped on the gas. I released the siren at that time. I did hear three shots but do not recall which shots ~~was~~ were those that hit the President.

*At this time Clint Hill jumped off and ran to the President's car, jumped on the back, and laid out across the trunk in a prone position where he rode the entire trip to the hospital. *

Pulling up parallel to the lead car, <sup>sign were</sup> notified ~~them we~~ were heading for the hospital, whereupon the motorcycle escort, the lead car, President's car and follow-up proceeded to the hospital at a high rate of speed. We pulled into the emergency entrance of the hospital whereupon Gov. Connally was removed and then the President, and taken inside.

After this, maybe 15 or 20 minutes later, I put the bubble and canvas cover on the car, assisted by SA Hickey. Then under motorcycle escort, both cars proceeded to Love Field, whereupon I notified the crew to get the ramp down and we drove the cars onto the plane and secured them, awaiting departure.

SUBJECT: Schedule of events prior to and after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Texas on Friday November 22, 1963.

11:25 a.m. The President and Mrs. Kennedy with members of the Presidential Party departed Carswell A.F.B., Texas via USAF 26,000 (Jet, also known as AF 1) enroute to Love Field, Dallas, Texas.

The following members of the United States Secret Service were aboard this aircraft. ASAIC Roy T. Kellerman, in charge of White House Detail for the Texas trip, SA Clinton Hill in charge of Mrs. Kennedy's security, SA William Greer, Presidential driver, ATSAIC Emory P. Roberts, in charge of 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. shift, with SA's John Ready, Donald Lawton and William McIntyre. SA John O'Leary was also aboard AF 1. Special Agent Glen Bennett of the 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. shift arrived Dallas, Texas aboard USAF 6970.

11:40 a.m. Presidential Plane arrived Love Field, Dallas, Texas, which was five minutes late according to schedule, as we were due there at 11:35 a.m.

After the usual greeting of approximately 20 people, upon deplaning, the President and Mrs. Kennedy walked to roped off area and shook hands with a number of the assembled persons gathered there, and autographed a few papers and pamphlets. I accompanied the President, as well as other Special Agents while he greeted the people. The President and Mrs. Kennedy returned to their car.

SA Donald Lawton of 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. shift remained at Love Field with SA Warner and Rybka to set up security for the President's departure for Bergstrom AFB, Austin, Texas. The Presidential aircraft was due to depart Dallas at 2:35 p.m.

The following persons departed Love Field in Secret Service Follow-up car, 679-X and were located in and on running boards of car as follows:

ATSMIC Emory P. Roberts - front seat - operating radio.
 SA Samuel Kinney - driving (did an excellent job)
 Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell, Appointment Secretary to the President, left jump seat.
 Mr. David Powers, Presidential Aide, right jump seat.
 SA Glen Bennett, left rear seat.
 SA George Hickey, right rear seat (manning AR-15 (rifle))
 SA William McIntyre, left running board, behind Hill.
 SA John D. Ready, right running board, front.
 SA Paul Landis, right running board behind Ready.

Note: On shift report for Nov. 22, 1963, I listed SA Rybka as riding in center of rear seat, which was in error, as he was not in car. As mentioned above, he remained at Love Field.

The Presidential motorcade toured downtown Dallas, through huge crowds, that were sometimes so close, that motorcycles of the Dallas Police Department had to drop back from flanking the Presidential and Secret Service cars, so the two cars could get through. On several occasions the Special Agent working the running boards of the Follow-up car "hit" the ground and ran along side of the President's car; and SA Hill climbed on rear step of the President's car (left rear) where he remained until the crowd thinned and motorcycles had returned to their positions, flanking the rear of the President's car.

The Presidential motorcade was enroute to Trade Mart to attend Luncheon, sponsored by the Dallas Citizens Council, The Dallas Assembly and the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest.

12:29 p.m. SA Winston Lawson (Advance Agent for Dallas stop) riding in lead car, gave "five minutes away," signal via radio, meaning five minutes away from Trade Mart. I immediately wrote 12:35 p.m. on Itinerary, as the time of arrival at Trade Mart.

12:30 p.m. First of three shots fired, at which time I saw the President lean toward Mrs. Kennedy. I do not know if it was the next shot or third shot that hit the President in the head, but I saw what appeared to be a small explosion on the right side of the President's head, saw blood, at which time the President fell further to his left. Mrs. Kennedy was leaning toward the President, however, she immediately raised up in the seat and appeared to be getting up on back of same. About this time I saw SA Clinton Hill trying to get on left rear step of the President's car. He got aboard and climbed up over the back of the car and placed himself over the President and Mrs. Kennedy. After SA Hill got on rear step of the President's car, it appeared that SA John Ready was about to follow and go for the right rear step, however, I told him not to jump, as we had picked up speed, and I was afraid he could not make it.

It is estimated that we were traveling approximately 15-20 miles per hour at the time of the shooting and it is believed that the follow-up car was approximately 20 - 25 feet behind the President's car.

The crowd was very sparse, in fact only a few people were along the motorcade route at the time of the shooting.

Just after the third shot was fired, I picked up the car radio and said "Halfback (code name for SS. Follow-up car) to Lawson, the President has been hit, escort us to the nearest hospital, fast but at a safe speed." I repeated the message, requesting to be cautious, meaning the speed. I had in mind Vice President Johnson's safety, as well as the President's, if he was not already dead.

The Vice President's car was approximately one-half block behind the Secret Service car, at the time of the shooting, and some of us waved for it to close in closer to the Secret Service car. The Vice President's car quickly closed the gap.

When I turned around to wave the Vice President's car to come closer, at same time, trying to determine where shots had come from, I said, pointing to SA McIntyre, "They got him, they got him," continuing I said "You (meaning McIntyre) and Bennett take over Johnson as soon as we stop." (meaning the hospital)

I turned around a couple times, just after the shooting and saw that some of the Special Agents had their guns drawn, I know I drew mine, and saw SA Hickey in rear seat with the AR-15, and asked him to be careful with it.

12:34 p.m. Presidential motorcade arrived at Parkland hospital. (I did not look at my watch, however, I overheard someone at the hospital say that it took four minutes to get there.

Upon arrival at Parkland Hospital, I immediately ran to President Kennedy. Mrs. Kennedy was lying over him. I said to Mrs. Kennedy to let us get the President. She said in effect that she was not going to move. I got one look at the President's head and remarked to SAIC Kellerman, "You stay with the President, I'm taking some of my men for Johnson." SA's McIntyre and Bennett were already with Vice President Johnson, having joined SAIC Rufus Youngblood and other Special Agents assigned to the Vice President, as the Vice President arrived at the hospital.

The first thing we did, was request a room for the Vice President. After getting the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson in a room, at the hospital, I said in effect to the Vice President, in the presence of Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Cliff Carter, Executive Assistant to the Vice President and SAIC Youngblood, as well as others, that I did not think the President could make it and suggested that we get out of Dallas as soon as possible.

We (SAIC Youngblood and myself) suggested that he (Vice President) think it over, as he would have to be sworn in. I suggested that we leave Dallas via AF 1, and SAIC Youngblood agreed and suggested that we return to the White House. Cont.

SAIC Youngblood can give more details, as I left the Vice President from time to time, once to get Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell, as the Vice President did not want to leave Dallas, without permission or suggestion from someone on the President's Staff. I located Mr. O'Donnell in hallway, near room where President Kennedy was.

While trying to locate Mr. O'Donnell for the Vice President, I came across ASAIC Roy Kellerman, who was assisting someone to fill in the President's blood type on a card. I remarked, that it was the same as mine Blood Group O, Rh Positive. Kellerman had card in his hand which he got from his wallet with the President's blood type.

At this time, I explained to Mr. Kellerman that the Vice President would probably leave for Washington very soon aboard AF 1.

I returned with Mr. O'Donnell to the Vice President, and while Mr. O'Donnell and the Vice President were talking, I mentioned to ASAIC Johns to check if the car (President's) was impounded. (I know that the word "evidence" was used. SAIC Johns left immediately.

Shortly after arrival at the Parkland Hospital, I asked C.W.O. Ira Gearhart, White House Communication Agency, (Courier for President) to step into room next to Vice President Johnson, and stay with him.

One of the Special Agents assigned to Vice President Johnson called the airport and requested the Presidential plane to stand by to take Vice President Johnson to Washington, D.C.

I contacted the White House Signal Board and advised them to cancel all the other stops that had been planned for the President. I saw SA Richard Johnson (4-12 shift) in hallway and asked him to augment V.P. Detail, which he did.

I had made arrangements with the Dallas Police, in front of the Parkland Hospital to have an unmarked police car for the Vice President and two other cars for other passengers and Secret Service, to take the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson to the airport. SA Lem Johns double checked this.

I left the Vice President a second time upon the request of Mrs. Johnson, as she had stated that she would like to see Mrs. Kennedy. After Inquiry of an agent in hallway, I located Mrs. Kennedy and asked her, if it would be alright if Mrs. Johnson came to see her, to which she replied "yes." I returned to the room where the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson were and told Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson followed me, with two Special Agents accompanying her.

Mrs. Johnson spent a very short time with Mrs. Kennedy, who was sitting in a chair outside of room where the President was. I returned to room where the Vice President was, with Mrs. Johnson.

I left again, this time upon request of the Vice President to double check with Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell, if it would be O.K. for the Vice President to take AF 1 and return to Washington, D.C. I located Mr. O'Donnell in hallway and he said "yes".

The Vice President was informed that Mr. O'Donnell stated that he could leave. The Vice President said in effect, that he didn't want to leave without the approval of a staff member or the Secret Service.

At 1:15 p.m. (according to my watch) the Vice President, in the presence of Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Cliff Carter, SAIC Youngblood and others, was informed by me, that the President was dead. Vice President Johnson said to Mr. Carter to make a note of it and someone mentioned the time as 1:13 p.m. Mr. Malcolm Milcuff, Assistant Press Secretary to President Kennedy came into the room about that time and it was decided that he would not release the death of the President, until the now President Johnson had left the hospital.

1:35 p.m. The now President Johnson, and I believe Mr. Cliff Carter departed Parkland Hospital in an unmarked police car, accompanied by SAIC Youngblood. As far as I know, SAIC Youngblood never left Vice President's side, from time of shooting to arrival at USAF 1, which was spotted at Love Field, awaiting for Vice President Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson rode in police car, directly behind President Johnson accompanied by Congressman Brooks, and SA's Warren Taylor, Jerry Kivett and Glen Bennett.

Follow-up car was driven by a Dallas Policeman, accompanied by another policeman and SA John Ready in front seat; rear seat ATSAIC Roberts, SA McIntyre and C.W.O. Gearhart, WHCA Courier.

SA Johns followed in another police car.

1:40 p.m. President and Mrs. Johnson arrived at Love Field and immediately boarded AF 1. Special agents were posted strategically in and around the aircraft. SA's Lawton and Rybka joined us upon arrival at airport, in effecting security. All blinds on aircraft were immediately drawn. I do not know who requested that this be done, however, I assisted in closing them.

We learned that Mrs. Kennedy was enroute to AF 1, however, we could not confirm same, then we heard that President Kennedy's body was also being brought to the aircraft. I informed Colonel Swindel (Aircraft Commander) and other members of AF 1, that we would not leave or do anything, until we cleared same with SAIC Youngblood. As we had a few too many people aboard USAF 1, I did ask a couple to get off.

After the arrival of Mrs. Kennedy and President Kennedy's body, I was informed by Col. James Swindel that a Federal Judge Hughes (woman) was enroute to AF 1, to swear in President Johnson. I immediately informed the police present and requested SA Ready to go to gate, to make sure that the Judge got in. When I saw Judge Hughes coming toward the aircraft, I went to meet her and escorted her to the front ramp and cleared her to go aboard, as no one was allowed to get aboard the aircraft, unless they were known personally or cleared by Secret Service. I did not go aboard and waited at bottom on ramp.

Upon arrival of ASAC Kellerman with Mrs. Kennedy and President Kennedy's body, he advised me that the 4-12 shift (ATSAIC Stout's) would return to Washington, D.C. aboard AF 1. It is to be noted that SA Bennett of my shift (8 am - 4p.m.) also returned to Washington, D.C. via A.F. 1.

2:40 p.m. Approximately, SAIC Gerald A. Behn, in Charge of the White House Detail called Love Field, from Washington, D.C. and requested that I give him the time that A.F. 1 departed for Washington, D.C. I advised Mr. Behn that Judge Hughes was aboard swearing in President Johnson, and advised Mr. Behn when Judge Hughes departed A.F. 1.

2:47 p.m. A.F. 1 departed for Washington, D.C. with President and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kennedy and President Kennedy's body.

I might mention that I assigned the Special Agents to the follow-up car, and each knew his assignment. For instance, SA Hill was assigned to work left rear of President's car (where Mrs. Kennedy was sitting), SA Ready was assigned to work the right rear of the President's car, then SA Landis was to work right front and SA McIntyre was to work the left front. As far as I can remember, SA Hill was the only one that had to jump on rear step of the President's car, while touring downtown Dallas, however, SA Ready would have done the same thing, if motorcycle was not at the President's corner of car.

3:15 p.m. ATSAIC Roberts, SA's Ready, Lawton, and McIntyre departed Love Field, Dallas, Texas via USAF 6970, and arrived Washington, D.C. (Andrews AFB) at 6:35 p.m.

We had received a 5 minute away signal (radio) from Lawson (in lead car) meaning 5 minutes from Trade Mart - ~~were~~ the President was going.

About 1 minute later at 12:30 p.m. two or three shots were fired, at which time I saw the President lean over on Mrs. Kennedy. I knew he was hit. Just as the first or second shot was fired Hill ran from follow-up car to President's car - jumped aboard and placed himself over Mrs. Kennedy and the President.

Upon seeing the President shot, I radioed Lawson to escort us to the nearest hospital fast but at a safe speed.

During the downtown motorcade the streets were lined with people, however, in the area where the shots rang out. the crowd was very sparse, in fact only a few people.

It is estimated that we were traveling about 20 - 25 miles an hour at the time of the shooting, and it is believed that the follow-up car was approx. 25 feet behind the President's car.

I could not determine from what direction the shots came, but felt they had come from the right side.

I immediately asked everyone on car to look to see if they could determine where the shots came from, - no one seemed to know.

Statement of Special Agent Clinton J. Hill, United States Secret Service, concerning his activities and official duties on November 22, 1963. Statement dated November 30, 1963.

I, Clinton J. Hill, Special Agent, United States Secret Service, arrived at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, at 11:40 a.m. on November 22, 1963, from Fort Worth, Texas, aboard Air Force No. One (USAF #26000) with President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy. President and Mrs. Kennedy debarked the aircraft first from the rear ramp followed by Governor and Mrs. John Connally and by three or four Congressmen and Senators, and then myself and ASAIC Roy H. Kellerman.

Upon alighting, President and Mrs. Kennedy were greeted by a small reception committee and Mrs. Kennedy was presented a bouquet of red roses. I ran over to the Secret Service Follow-up car immediately upon my arrival and placed my topcoat and a small folder containing information on this Dallas stop of the Texas trip on the floor of the car. I then went back to where the President and Mrs. Kennedy were greeting an elderly lady in a wheel chair.

The general public was restricted from the ramp area of Love Field by a permanent chain-link fence. There were a number of photographers and correspondents on the ramp area covering the arrival.

The President noticed the large number of people being restrained by the fence and walked over to the crowd and began shaking hands. He moved from his right to his left down the fence. Mrs. Kennedy accompanied him. I remained very close to Mrs. Kennedy observing the outstretched hands of well-wishers to make sure no weapons were extended toward Mrs. Kennedy and that nothing was handed to her. I accompanied Mrs. Kennedy behind the President along the fence and then to the Presidential automobile which was waiting to take President and Mrs. Kennedy and Governor and Mrs. John Connally to the Trade Mart for a luncheon, after a 45-minute motorcade through downtown Dallas.

President and Mrs. Kennedy entered the automobile with the President getting into the right rear seat and Mrs. Kennedy into the left rear seat. Mrs. Connally got into the left jump seat and Governor Connally into the right jump seat. SA William Greer was driving the automobile with ASAIC Roy H. Kellerman in the right front seat. I went to the left rear side of the Presidential automobile and stood on the airport ramp along side where Mrs. Kennedy was sitting.

As the Presidential automobile began to move forward at 11:55 a.m. I walked along side of the left rear of the automobile for about 150 feet, and since there were no people at all on the airport ramp I went back to the automobile immediately behind the Presidential Automobile and mounted the forward portion of the left running board.

SA Sam Kinney was driving this Secret Service Follow-up car which was a 1955 Cadillac 9-passenger convertible specifically outfitted for use by the Secret Service. ATSAIC Emory Roberts was sitting in the right front seat and operating the two-way radio. SA John Ready was on the forward portion of the right hand running board; SA William McIntyre on the rear portion of the left hand running board; SA Paul E. Landis on the rear portion of the right hand running board; Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell, Presidential Appointment Secretary, was seated on the left side of the second seat; Mr. Dave Powers, Presidential Receptionist, was seated on the right side of the second seat; SA George Hickey was seated on the left side of the third seat; and SA Glen Bennett was seated on the right side of the third seat.

The Presidential Follow-up car was followed by a 1964 Lincoln 4-door convertible occupied by Vice-President and Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, Senator Ralph Yarborough, with ASAIC Rufus Youngblood in the right front seat. This automobile was followed by a Secret Service follow-up car for the Vice President, and then came automobiles occupied by photographers, correspondents, Senators and Congressmen.

Preceding the Presidential automobile was a Dallas Police Department Lead car in which SA Winston Lawson of the Secret Service was riding. Police motorcycles preceded and flanked the motorcade. There were two police motorcycles on the left side of the President's Secret Service follow-up car running abreast of one another between the automobile and the crowd of people.

My instructions for Dallas were to work the left rear of the Presidential automobile and remain in close proximity to Mrs. John F. Kennedy at all times. The agent assigned to work the left rear of the Presidential automobile rides on the forward portion of the left hand running board of the Secret Service follow-up car and only moves forward to walk alongside the Presidential automobile when it slows to such a pace that people can readily approach the auto on foot. If the crowd is very heavy, but the automobile is running at a rather rapid speed, the agent rides on the left rear of the Presidential automobile on a step specifically designed for that purpose.

As the motorcade moved from Love Field through downtown Dallas toward the Trade Mart, there were four (4) occasions before we reached the end of Main Street where I moved from the forward portion of the left running board of the follow-up car to the rear step of the Presidential automobile. I did this because the motorcycles that were along the left hand side of the follow-up car were unable to move up alongside the President's car due to the crowd surging into the street. The motorcycles were forced to drop back and so I jumped from the Follow-up car and mounted the President's car. I remained in this position until the crowd thinned and was away from the President's automobile, allowing the motorcycles to once again move up alongside of the automobile. When we approached the end of Main Street the crowd was noticeably less dense than had been the case prior to that point.

The motorcade made a right hand turn onto Elm Street. I was on the forward portion of the left running board of the follow-up car. The motorcade made a left hand turn from Elm Street toward an underpass. We were traveling about 12 to 15 miles per hour. On the left hand side was a grass area with a few people scattered along it observing the motorcade passing, and I was visually scanning these people when I heard a noise similar to a firecracker. The sound came from my right rear and I immediately moved my head in that direction. In so doing, my eyes had to cross the Presidential automobile and I saw the President hunch forward and then slump to his left. I jumped from the Follow-up car and ran toward the Presidential automobile. I heard a second firecracker type noise but it had a different sound—like the sound of shooting a revolver into something hard. I saw the President slump more toward his left.

I jumped onto the left rear step of the Presidential automobile. Mrs. Kennedy shouted, "They've shot his head off;" then turned and raised out of her seat as if she were reaching to her right rear toward the back of the car for something that had blown out. I forced her back into her seat and placed my body above President and Mrs. Kennedy. SA Greer had, as I jumped onto the Presidential automobile, accelerated the Presidential automobile forward. I heard ASAIC Kellerman call SA Lawson on the two-way radio and say, "To the nearest hospital, quick." I shouted as loud as I could at the Lead car, "To the hospital, to the hospital."

As I lay over the top of the back seat I noticed a portion of the President's head on the right rear side was missing and he was bleeding profusely. Part of his brain was gone. I saw a part of his skull with hair on it lying in the seat. The time of the shooting was approximately 12:30 p.m., Dallas time. I looked forward to the jump seats and noticed Governor Connally's chest was covered with blood and he was slumped to his left and partially covered up by his wife. I had not realized until this point that the Governor had been shot.

When we arrived at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, I jumped off the Presidential automobile, removed my suit coat and covered the President's head and upper chest with it. I assisted in lifting the President from the rear seat of the automobile onto a wheel type stretcher and accompanied the President and Mrs. Kennedy into the Emergency Room. Governor Connally had been placed in an Emergency Room across the hall.

I exited the Emergency Room almost immediately because of the large number of doctors and nurses in the room, which was quite small. I asked a nurse standing outside of the Emergency Room in which the President was lying to please have everyone except those Medical Staff members necessary leave the emergency ward. She immediately began screening medical staff members.

I asked for the nearest telephone. ASAIC Kellerman exited the Emergency Room and told me to contact the White House in Washington and to keep the line open continually. I asked SA Lawson for the telephone number of the Dallas White House switchboard and he gave it to me. I dialed the Dallas White House operator and told him to connect me with the White House in Washington and to keep this line open continuously. He did so.

ASAIC Kellerman came out of the Emergency Room again and took the telephone and asked for SAIC Gerald A. Behn, Secret Service, The White House, Washington. This was approximately 12:39 p.m. Kellerman told Behn that there had been a double tragedy; that the President and Governor Connally had both been shot and that I would keep him advised. I took over the telephone and told Mr. Behn that the situation was extremely critical. The operator cut into the line and said The Attorney General wanted to talk to me. He asked me what the situation was and I advised him that the President had been injured very seriously and that I would keep him advised as to his condition.

Mr. Kellerman came back out of the Emergency Room and said, "Clint, tell Gerry that this is not for release and not official, but the man is dead." I told that to Mr. Behn and then requested that he immediately contact the Attorney General and other members of the President's family so that he could advise them of the situation rather than having them hear it over some news media.

I then received a request from Mr. O'Donnell to obtain a casket immediately so that we could transport the body back to Washington, D. C., as quickly as possible. I contacted the Hospital Administrator and asked for the name of the nearest mortuary. He said it would be O'Neil, Inc. I telephoned them and identified myself and requested that they bring the best casket immediately available at the mortuary to the Parkland Memorial Hospital Emergency Entrance and deliver it to me. The casket arrived in about twenty minutes at approximately 1:40 p.m. We wheeled it immediately into the Emergency Room where the President's body lay.

I advised the Air Force Aide that we wanted Air Force No. One moved to a different location at Love Field and to have it secured completely away from the view of the General Public. I requested that no press be admitted to the area in which Air Force One was to be placed. I requested SA David Grant to notify the Dallas Police that we did not want to use the same entrance to Love Field that previously had been planned. I then went with the Hospital Administrator and checked the shortest and most direct route from the Emergency Room to the emergency platform where the O'Neil hearse was waiting. I advised ATSAIC Stuart Stout of the route and requested that it be cleared of personnel.

The President's body, accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy, exited the Emergency Room at approximately 1:58 p.m. and proceeded to the emergency entrance platform. The casket was placed in the back of the O'Neil, Inc., hearse and Mrs. Kennedy, Admiral George Burkley (the President's Physician), and I entered the back of the hearse with the casket. SA Andrew Berger drove the hearse; ATSAIC Stuart Stout rode in the center front seat and ASAIC Kellerman rode in the right front seat.

We departed Parkland Memorial Hospital at 2:04 p.m. SA Lawson rode in the Dallas Police Department Lead Car. A Secret Service follow-up car followed immediately behind the hearse. The motorcade arrived at Air Force One, Love Field, at 2:14 p.m.

At 2:18 p.m. the casket was placed aboard Air Force One with Mrs. Kennedy accompanying it. The casket was situated in the left rear corner of the aircraft where four seats had been removed. Mrs. Kennedy sat in one of the two seats immediately across the aisle from the casket.

The aircraft could not immediately depart because Vice-President Johnson had to be sworn in as the 36th President of the United States and it was necessary to wait for a Judge to arrive to do this. All personnel on Air Force One including Mrs. Kennedy were requested to witness the swearing in ceremony which took place in the Presidential Compartment of Air Force One at 2:38 p.m. I also attended.

I departed Love Field, Dallas, aboard Air Force One at 2:47 p.m. en route to Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland. I arrived at Andrews Air Force Base at 5:58 p.m. I assisted in moving the casket bearing the President's body from Air Force One to a U. S. Navy ambulance. Mrs. Kennedy got in the back of the ambulance with the casket as did Attorney General Robert Kennedy, who had joined Mrs. Kennedy aboard Air Force One upon arrival at Andrews Air Force Base. General Godfrey McHugh also rode in the back of the ambulance. The ambulance was driven by SA Greer with ASAIC Kellerman, SA Landis, and Admiral Burkley riding in the front seat. I followed in the car immediately behind the ambulance with Dr. John W. Walsh, Dave Powers, Kenneth O'Donnell and Larry O'Brien.

The motorcade departed Andrews Air Force Base for Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, at 6:10 p.m. We were escorted by motorcycle police officers. The motorcade arrived Bethesda Naval Hospital at 6:55 p.m. Mrs. Kennedy, the Attorney General, SA Landis and I went immediately inside and via elevator to the 17th Floor of the hospital, the location of the Presidential Suite. Members of the immediate family and close friends were waiting in the suite.

The President's body was taken to the morgue at the hospital, accompanied by ASAIC Kellerman, SA Greer, and Admiral Burkley, for an autopsy. SA Landis and I secured the 17th Floor of the hospital and remained there with Mrs. Kennedy. We established a communications system with the White House and handled all telephone calls both incoming and outgoing, screening each and every call. Any person attempting to reach the 17th Floor was also screened.

At approximately 2:45 a.m., November 23, I was requested by ASAIC Kellerman to come to the morgue to once again view the body. When I arrived the autopsy had been completed and ASAIC Kellerman, SA Greer, General McHugh and I viewed the wounds. I observed a wound about six inches down from the neckline on the back just to the right of the spinal column. I observed another wound on the right rear portion of the skull. Attendants of the Joseph Gawler Mortuary were at this time preparing the body for placement in the casket. A new casket had been obtained from Gawler Mortuary in which the body was to be placed.

I went back to the 17th Floor of the hospital at approximately 3:10 a.m. The President's body was taken from the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, at 3:56 a.m., accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy and Attorney General Kennedy, in the rear of a U. S. Navy ambulance driven by SA Greer. ASAIC Kellerman rode in the right front seat. I rode in the right front seat of a White House limousine immediately behind the ambulance. The motorcade was accompanied by motorcycle police and arrived at the White House at 4:24 a.m. The casket was taken immediately to the East Room and placed in the center of the room on a cataphalt.

THE WHITE HOUSE DETAIL
November 29, 1963

The following events regarding the assassination of the late President Kennedy, are outlined to the best of my knowledge. No statement is based upon information released by any form of news media.

On Friday, Nov. 22, 1963, I was working on the 8 am to 4 pm shift of the Secret Service White House Detail, and was under the supervision of ATSAIC Emory Roberts. Other agents working that day were Jack Ready, Don Lawton, Glen Bennett, and two agents assigned to Mrs. Kennedy, Clint Hill and Paul Landis.

The Presidential aircraft, AF 1, arrived at Dallas Love Field, Dallas, Texas, at approximately 11:40 am on Nov. 22, 1963. The above-mentioned agents departed the front of the aircraft and assumed protective positions around the President when he departed the rear exit of AF 1. The President walked close to a large crowd and shook hands with the people for approximately 5 or 10 minutes. He then stepped into the Presidential limousine, an open car, and was seated to the right of Mrs. Kennedy, in the rear seat. Governor Connally and his wife were seated in the jump seats of the car, directly in front of the President and Mrs. Kennedy. The Governor was seated to the right of his wife. ASAIC Roy Kellerman was seated in the right front seat of the limousine.

As the motorcade departed Love Field, the President's car was closely followed by the Secret Service follow-up car, which maintained its position throughout the events of the day. Agent Roberts was seated in the front seat of the follow-up car, next to the driver. Kenneth O'Donnell was seated to the left of David Powers, in the jump seats of the car. Agents George Hickey, a driver, and Glen Bennett, were in the rear seat, with Bennett on Hickey's right. Agents Ready and Landis rode the right running board, with Landis behind Ready, and agent Clint Hill and I rode the left running board, Hill being in front of me.

The motorcade was scheduled to last approximately 45 minutes. As we passed through downtown Dallas, crowds were quite heavy, and two motorcycles, on either flank of the Presidential vehicle, were of considerable assistance in keeping the motorcade clear.

As the motorcade cleared the main downtown area, it made a right turn, went approximately one block, and then executed a left turn. After this turn, there was essentially no crowd, and green expanses of lawn stretched to the right and left of the motorcade.

Directly in front of us was an underpass with a green sign with white lettering, stating "Entering Thornton Freeway".

The Presidential vehicle was approximately 200 feet from the underpass when the first shot was fired, followed in quick succession by two more. I would estimate that all three shots were fired within 5 seconds. After the second shot, I looked at the President and witnessed his being struck in the head by the third and last shot. By that time, Mr. Roberts had used the radio in our car to direct the vehicles to a hospital. Most, if not all the agents in the follow-up car had drawn their weapons, and agent Hickey was handling the AR-15. None of us could determine the origin of the shots, and no shots were fired by any agent.

Upon arrival at the hospital, agent Bennett and I escorted then Vice-President Johnson into a vacant treatment room. Agents Youngblood and Kivett stayed with him while agent Taylor and I stood nearby. Agent Bennett established security outside the door to the room.

The shooting occurred at approximately 12:25 pm, and we had reached the hospital at approximately 12:30 pm.

Shortly after 1:30 pm, the Vice-President and Mrs. Johnson were taken to Love Field and placed aboard AF 1. Agents Lawton, Ready, and I established security around the aircraft. Within a short time, Mrs. Kennedy, accompanying the body of President Kennedy, arrived at Love Field, and boarded AF 1. AF 1 then departed Dallas, Texas, at what I think was about 2:15 pm.

At 3:15 pm, agents Roberts, Lawton, Ready, and I departed Dallas, Texas via AF 6970, the back-up plane, and arrived at Andrews Air Force Base at 6:30 pm. We all then returned to the White House, and submitted summarized reports of the day's events to Mr. Roberts.

On this date, at approximately 12:30 pm, at Dallas, Texas, I was assigned the post of the left rear area on the running board of the Secret Service Follow-up car. At this time, the President and Mrs. Kennedy were riding in the Presidential limousine, about 30 feet in front of my position.

As we approached the underpass leading to the Thornton Freeway, there was little, if any crowd present. I heard three shots fired and observing the President, noticed that he had been struck by at least one bullet, I thought in the head.

I recall a rolling lawn to the right of the area where the President was shot, and seem to also recall an expanse of lawn to the left of the Presidential vehicle.

I attempted to locate the origin of the shots, but was unable to do so. Both the Presidential vehicle and the Secret Service follow-up car immediately sped to the hospital.

I, John D. Ready, Special Agent, United States Secret Service Washington, D.C. arrived at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, at approximately 11:40 a.m., Friday, November 22, 1963 onboard the Presidential Aircraft (USAF#1). Upon arrival, I left the aircraft and went to the Press Area (photographers and newsmen) located near the Presidential ramp at the rear of the plane. Here President John F. Kennedy greeted a group of persons and then walked to the fenced off spectator area. I followed the President and Mrs. Kennedy. After 10-15 minutes, the President, Mrs. Kennedy, Governor Connally (State of Texas) and Mrs. Connally entered the Presidential limousine, the motorcade departed Love Field and proceeded on its scheduled route. During this motorcade I held a post on the right front door running-board of the U.S. Secret Service follow-up car.

Several times enroute the President's car stopped and the President shook hands with the crowds. In the downtown, heavily congested, area of Dallas, a teen-age male came forth from the crowds on my right side. I left the follow-up car, chased the youth several yards before running him into the crowds on the right side. We departed the downtown area and the crowds diminished noticeably.

At about 12:30 p.m. we began the approach to the Thornton Freeway traveling about 20-25 MPH in a slight incline. I was about 25-30 feet from President Kennedy who was located in the right rear seat. I heard what appeared to be fire-crackers going off from my position. I immediately turned to my right rear trying to locate the source but was not able to determine the exact location.

At this time the U.S. Secret Service follow-up car seemed to slow and I heard someone from inside this car say: "he's shot". I left the follow-up car in the direction of the President's car but was recalled by ATSAIC Emory Roberts (Secret Service) as the cars increased their speeds. I got back on the car and seated myself beside Mr. Roberts in the right front seat. The cars proceeded to the hospital several miles distance.

On my arrival at the Parkland Hospital, Dallas, hospital personnel were awaiting the arrival of President Kennedy. After the President was taken to the emergency room, I was posted by ASAIC Kellerman (Secret Service), at the door entrance. I remained on this post until notified by ATSAIC Roberts that we were leaving for Love Field with President Johnson. I departed the hospital in a Dallas Police Cruiser to the rear of President Johnson.

Upon my arrival at Love Field I boarded the Presidential Aircraft (USAF#1), expecting to depart immediately. It was at this time that I was notified that Mrs. Kennedy and the late President were returning to Washington, D.C. on this plane.

ATSAIC Roberts asked me to set-up the airport security which I did. Mrs. Kennedy arrived and we were relieved by the 4-12 shift who then boarded the Presidential aircraft.

At 3:15 p.m. I departed Love Field, Dallas, Texas for Washington, D.C. on the Vice-Presidential aircraft (USAF#2)

On Friday, November 22, 1963 in Dallas, Texas, I was working the US Secret Service follow-up car about 25-30 feet to the rear of President and Mrs. Kennedy, Gov. and Mrs. Connolly of Texas. At about 12:30 p.m. I heard what sounded like fire crackers going off from my post on the right front running board. The President's car slowed, someone in the follow-up car stated he was shot, and I left to run to the President's car. At that time I was recalled to the follow-up car and took the right front seat aside of ATSAIC Roberts, and proceeded to a hospital several miles distant.

The shooting occurred as we were approaching the Thronton Freeway, traveling about 20-25 miles per hour in a slight incline. There appeared to be no spectators on the right side of the road-way.

After the initial shot I attempted to locate the area from where they had come from but was not able to. It appeared that the shots came from my right-rear side.

THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY
ON NOVEMBER 22, 1963, AT DALLAS, TEXAS

Statement of Special Agent Paul E. Landis, Jr., United States Secret Service, concerning his activities and official duties on November 22, 1963.

On November 22, 1963, I arrived at Love Field Airport, Dallas, Texas, at 11:35 a.m., having traveled from Ft. Worth, Texas, to Dallas, Texas, on board U. S. Air Force Flight #6970. Upon my arrival I disembarked from the aircraft and immediately walked to where the motorcade vehicles were parked. Special Agent Sam Kinney was the first person that I recognized, and I remember speaking to him and standing by the Follow-up car and jokingly asking him if he could tell me where the Follow-up car was.

After speaking to Sam, I walked over to Special Agent Win Lawson just to double check to see if I was still assigned to working the Follow-up car as had previously been arranged. He was standing by the front right fender of the car in which the President would be riding, and he told me that I was still to ride in the Follow-up car.

Only a very few moments later the President's Aircraft was pulling up to its mooring spot and I moved up to where I would be near the President and First Lady when they disembarked from the aircraft.

There appeared to be a very large crowd at the airport and most of the people were restrained behind a chain-link fence which was about four or five feet high. On the opposite side of the fence from the crowd there was a very narrow sidewalk and curbing which ran along the fence-line.

There were several people on the same side of the fence as the President but most of them were photographers.

As soon as the President and First Lady disembarked from the Aircraft, Mrs. Kennedy was presented a bouquet of roses. The President was also presented what appeared to be two hand-drawn charcoal portraits of himself and Mrs. Kennedy in a black leather and glass folding frame. I believe that this was given to him by a lady wearing a red coat.

Just after the President received the black leather frame I held out my hand and he handed it to me. I had been standing just off to Mrs. Kennedy's left, slightly in front of her. She was on the left side of the President.

At this time the President and First Lady started walking towards the crowd which was restrained behind the fence. On the way, they did stop for a few seconds to talk to an elderly lady in a wheel chair who was on the field area about thirty feet from where the above presentations were made.

They then walked over to the crowd and walked along the fence from their right to their left. At first I was in front of the President, clearing a pathway through the photographers and observing the crowd reaching over the fence; but I noticed that Mrs. Kennedy was moving along slower and becoming separated from the President so I asked another agent, I don't recall who, to move up where I was and I dropped back to assist Special Agent Clinton Hill who was next to Mrs. Kennedy. I continued to keep a pathway clear for Mrs. Kennedy, removing small hand signs that had been dropped in her pathway on the sidewalk and occasionally cautioning to watch out for the curbing. At one point, where the direction of the fence made a right angle turn to the left of the way we were moving, I do remember reaching up and holding a fairly large flag away that someone was waving over the fence. Only a few feet further and the fence and sidewalk made another 90 degree turn in the direction in which we were originally moving.

At this point we stopped momentarily and started in the direction of the cars which were slightly behind us and had been moving along towards us. Mrs. Kennedy asked where the President was and SA Hill noticed him continuing along the fence shaking hands with the crowd; so Mrs. Kennedy returned to the fence and did the same.

Only a short distance later the President and First Lady stopped shaking hands and entered their automobile. I stood by the right rear side until the car started moving and then hopped on the right rear portion of the right running board of the Follow-up car. I was standing with my right leg on the running board and my left leg up over and inside the Follow-up car. I stayed in this position until we were leaving the Airport area and remarked that, "I might as well get all the way in, " and I did so. I glanced at my watch but I don't recall the time.

Special Agents Glen Bennett and George Hickey were seated to my left respectively in the rear of the Follow-up car. Mr. David Powers was seated directly in front of me in the center portion of the Follow-up car and Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell was seated on Mr. Power's left. Special Agent Sam Kinney was driving and ATSAIC Roberts was seated in the right front seat. Special Agents John Ready, Clinton Hill, and Tim McIntyre were standing on the right front, left front, and left rear portions of the running board, respectively.

The motorcade had not proceeded far when ATSAIC Roberts asked me to get back on the outside running board, "Just in case," which I immediately did. The crowd was about two deep along each side of the road and I would guess that we were traveling about twenty miles per hour.

As the motorcade proceeded towards the main business section of downtown Dallas I watched the crowd for anyone trying to run towards the President's car or any person who might be holding anything harmful in his hands. I observed the rooftops and windows of the buildings along the route. On the outskirts of town most of the buildings were of a one or two story type structure and very few people were on the rooftops. The crowd was three or more deep along the street as we proceeded towards downtown Dallas with most intersections more heavily crowded. The outskirts seemed to consist mostly of used car lots, junk dealers, auto parts stores, and this typical type of neighborhood. At one intersection there were some Cuban Pickets but I don't recall exactly what their signs said except that they did have "Cuba" on them.

A little further towards town some people had a sign asking the President to please stop and shake hands, which he saw as he passed and stopped. I immediately ran up to his car as it stopped and assumed a position next to him and observed the crowd as it merged on the car, especially watching the hands. Most of the people were children but I do remember one of the adult ladies who was holding the sign, remarking, "It worked, our sign worked!"

At various places along the route I remember Mr. Dave Powers standing up and taking movies of the President's car and the crowd.

The closer we came to downtown Dallas the larger the crowds became. At several places they were forcing their way into the street and there was just barely enough room for the cars to get through. There were two motorcycle escorts on each side of the President's and the Follow-up car and in several instances the crowd was so close that the motorcycles could not get through and had to drop completely behind the Follow-up car. During these instances SA Clint Hill would run up and jump on the left rear bumper of the President's car and he would ride there until the crowd was further back away from the President's car.

Just before we reached the heart of downtown Dallas, I remember noticing some new looking, very high, multi-storied skyscrapers and I remarked to Jack Ready that there were even people way up on the roof of one. I think the motorcade made a right turn onto Main Street, as that is the only street sign I saw and remembered. I remember thinking to myself that about every town I know of has a Main Street.

I'm not sure how far we traveled on Main Street, but I do know that this is where the crowd seemed heaviest. The buildings were tall on both sides of the street but I didn't notice many people in the windows. I continued to scan the crowds on the street and the buildings along the route. I glanced at the President's car somewhere along Main Street and saw Clint Hill again standing on the left rear bumper behind Mrs. Kennedy who was seated to the President's left. Governor Connally was seated in front of the President and Mrs. Connally was in front of Mrs. Kennedy.

The crowd lined both sides of the street and in several places was right out into the street leaving barely enough room to get through.

Not long after we turned onto Main Street there was one boy who, I would say, was in his early teens who ran out from the crowd after the President's and Follow-up cars had passed and tried to overtake the President's car. I saw him coming and tapped SA Ready on the shoulder and pointed towards him. He was carrying a camera. SA Ready jumped off the running board, overtook the boy and pushed him back into the crowd.

When we reached the end of Main Street we turned right and approached a gradual left turn. As we approached the intersection and while we were turning left, the crowd seemed to thin and almost disappear around the turn. I then made a quick surveillance of a building which was to be on the President's right once the left turn was completed. It appeared to be the last one in sight. It was a modernistic type building, approximately eight stories high, and it had large glass windows. I also seem to recollect orange paneling or siding. None of the windows were open, and I did not see anyone standing by them. I surmised that the building was closed or that all its employees were out on the street corner.

As the President's car continued around the corner, I continued to survey the crowd along the righthand side of the road and noticed that it was fairly scattered, with hardly enough people to form a single line. I continued to look ahead to an overpass over the route we were traveling. At approximately this point, I would say, the President's car and the Follow-up car had just completed their turns and both were straightening out.

At this moment I heard what sounded like the report of a high-powered rifle from behind me, over my right shoulder. When I heard the sound there was no question in my mind what it was. My first glance was at the President, as I was practically looking in his direction anyway. I saw him moving in a manner which I thought was to look in the direction of the sound. I did not realize that President Kennedy had been shot at this point.

I immediately returned my gaze, over my right shoulder, toward the modernistic building I had observed before. With a quick glance I saw nothing and immediately started scanning the crowd at the intersection from my right to my left. I observed nothing unusual and began to think that the sound had been that of a fire cracker but I hadn't seen any smoke. In fact, I recall Special Agent Jack Ready saying, "What was it? A Fire Cracker?" I remarked, "I don't know; I don't see any smoke." So far the lapsed period of time could not have been over two or three seconds.

All during this time I continued to scan the crowd, returning my gaze towards the President's car. It must have been another second or two before the next shot was fired because, as I recall having seen nothing out of the ordinary, I then thought that maybe one of the cars in the motorcade had had a blowout that had echoed off the buildings. I looked at the right front tire of the President's car and saw it was all right. I then glanced to see the right rear tire, but could not because the Follow-up car was too close.

I also thought of trying to run and jump on the President's car but did not think I could make it because of the speed at which we were traveling. I decided I had better stay where I was so that I would at least be near the First Lady, to whom I am assigned. I think that it was at this point that I thought, "Faster, Faster, Faster," thinking that we could not get out of the area soon enough. However, I don't have any idea as to how fast we were then moving.

I had drawn my gun, but I am not sure exactly when I did this. I did leave my suit coat unbuttoned all during the motorcade movement, thinking at the time that I could get to my gun faster this way, if I had to.

I glanced towards the President and he still appeared to be fairly upright in his seat, leaning slightly toward Mrs. Kennedy with his head tilted slightly back. I think Mrs. Kennedy had her right arm around the President's shoulders at this time. I also remember Special Agent Clinton Hill attempting to climb onto the back of the President's car.

It was at this moment that I heard a second report and it appeared that the President's head split open with a muffled exploding sound. I can best describe the sound as I heard it, as the sound you would get by shooting a high powered bullet into a five gallon can of water or shooting into a melon. I saw pieces of flesh and blood flying through the air and the President slumped out of sight towards Mrs. Kennedy.

The time lapse between the first and second report must have been about four or five seconds.

My immediate thought was that the President could not possibly be alive after being hit like he was. I still was not certain from which direction the second shot came, but my reaction at this time was that the shot came from somewhere towards the front, right-hand side of the road.

I did not notice anyone on the overpass, and I scanned the area to the right of and below the overpass where the terrain sloped towards the road on which we were traveling. The only person I recall seeing clearly was a Negro male in light green slacks and a beige colored shirt running from my left to right, up the slope, across a grassy section, along a sidewalk, towards some steps and what appeared to be a low stone wall. He was bent over while running and I started to point towards him, but I didn't notice anything in his hands and by this time we were going under the overpass at a very high rate of speed. I was looking back and saw a motorcycle policeman stopping along the curb approximately adjacent to where I saw the Negro running.

After we rode under the overpass I again looked at the President's car and saw Special Agent Clint Hill lying across the trunk. He was looking back towards the Follow-up car shaking his head back and forth and gave a thumbs-down sign with his hand.

ATSAIC Roberts asked if anyone got the exact time of the shooting and someone said "about 12:30 p.m.;" then someone told me to get inside the car and pulled me by the arm. My sun glasses fell off and Special Agent Bennett handed them to me. By now we were on an Expressway and a few people were standing in spots along the way waving as we went by.

ATSAIC Roberts was telling the other agents in the Follow-up car to cover Vice-President Johnson as soon as we stopped.

Sometime around 12:37 p.m. we arrived at Parkland Memorial Hospital. I immediately ran to the left rear side of the President's car, reached over and tried to help Mrs. Kennedy up by taking hold of her shoulders. She did not want to let go of President Kennedy whose head she held in her lap and she was berding over him. She said something like, "No, I want to stay with him!"

Agent Hill had in the meantime opened the left rear door of the Presidential Convertible, stepped inside and took Mrs. Kennedy by the arm. She released the President and someone said, "Cover up his head." Agent Hill took off his suit coat and covered up the President's head. I also remember Mr. Powers leaning in the car and saying, "Oh, No!, Mr. President! Mr. President!"

By this time someone was lifting the President's body out of the right side of the car. Agent Hill helped Mrs. Kennedy out of the car, and I followed. Mrs. Kennedy's purse and hat and a cigarette lighter were on the back seat. I picked these three items up as I walked through the car and followed Mrs. Kennedy into the hospital.

The President's body was taken directly to an Emergency Room, and I think I remember Mrs. Kennedy following the people in but coming out almost immediately. The door to the Emergency Room was closed and I stayed by Mrs. Kennedy's side. Someone, in the meantime, had brought a chair for Mrs. Kennedy to sit in and she sat just outside of the Emergency Room. There were several people milling around and with the help of a nurse we cleared all unauthorized personnel out of the immediate area.

Someone came out of the room that the President was in and asked if anyone knew his Blood Type. ASAIK Kellerman and SA Hill immediately reached for their wallets. ASAIK Kellerman gave the man the information first.

At one point someone else came out of the President's Room again and said he was still breathing. Mrs. Kennedy stood up and said, "Do you mean he may live?" No one answered.

Most of the time while in the hospital I stayed right next to Mrs. Kennedy. Twice, I believe, she went into the room where the President was; however, I remained outside by the door. A short time later I still remember several people standing around, and I asked a doctor for help in clearing the area.

At approximately 2:00 p.m. the President's body was wheeled from the hospital in a coffin into an ambulance. Special Agent Andrew Berger drove the ambulance; ASAIK Kellerman and ATSAIC Stout were in the front seat. Mrs. Kennedy, Admiral Burkley, and Agent Hill rode in the rear of the ambulance with the President's body.

I rode in the Follow-up car behind the ambulance which departed the hospital at 2:04 p.m.

At 2:14 p.m., the President's body arrived at Love Field Airport and several Secret Service agents immediately carried it on board U. S. Air Force No. One via the rear door. I followed on board behind Mrs. Kennedy and then moved to the forward section of the plane. I witnessed the swearing in of President Johnson at 2:39 p.m. in the center compartment on board Air Force #1, and at 2:47 p.m. departed Love Field Airport, Dallas, Texas, via Air Force No. One, with Mrs. Kennedy and the body of the late President Kennedy.

Upon our arrival at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., at 5:58 p.m. I helped carry the late President Kennedy's coffin from Air Force #1. The body was placed in an ambulance which departed Andrews Air Force Base at approximately 6:10 p.m., driven by Special Agent William Greer. ASAIC Kellerman, Admiral Burkley, and I rode in the front seat of the ambulance. Mrs. Kennedy and Attorney General Robert Kennedy rode in the rear of the ambulance with President Kennedy's body.

The above party arrived at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., at approximately 6:55 p.m. Special Agent Hill and I escorted Mrs. Kennedy to the 17th Floor where we immediately secured the area. Only hospital personnel assigned to the area, Kennedy family members and friends, and authorized personnel were allowed in the area.

I only left the 17th Floor twice while Mrs. Kennedy was there. Once, to find ASAIC Kellerman in the hospital morgue and give him a telephone message from Chief Rowley. The other time was to find a white House driver.

At 3:56 a.m., on November 23, 1963, Mrs. Kennedy and Attorney General Robert Kennedy departed Bethesda Naval Hospital via ambulance, accompanying the late President John F. Kennedy's body to the White House. Special Agent William Greer was driving and ASAIC Kellerman accompanied. Special Agent Clinton Hill rode in the first limousine behind the ambulance and I rode in the second limousine.

The above Party arrived at the White House at 4:24 a.m.

The Assassination of President John F. Kennedy as it appeared to Paul E. Dandis, Jr., Special Agent, U. S. Secret Service.

Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell and Dave Powers were in the middle seats, and ATWAIC Roberts was in the front seat, and Sam Kinney was driving.

I remember the motorcade reaching the end of Main Street, in downtown Dallas, Texas, turning right and approaching a gradual left turn. As the President's car approached the intersection to make the left turn, the crowd appeared to thin down and almost end. PROTECTIVE ASSIGNMENT OF S/A BENNETT ON 11/22/63
AT DALLAS, TEXAS

Air Force Two landed at Love Field, Dallas, Texas at 11:35 A.M. Upon deplaning, I covered the fence and press areas. The President's plane arrived at approximately 11:39 A.M. I stayed with the President and First Lady during the time they greeted the crowd on the apron and along the fence. The greeting lasted for about 10 minutes and the President/First Lady entered their car and the motorcade planned to depart. I asked while moving towards the follow-up car what position I should take; Mr. Roberts informed me that I should take the right rear seat of the follow-up. I took this position and held it during the entire motorcade. I left this rear seat position at one point in the trip to assist in getting well-wishers away from the President's auto. About thirty minutes after leaving Love Field, about 12:25 P.M., the Motorcade entered an intersection and then proceeded down a grade. At this point the well-wishers numbered but a few; the motorcade continued down this grade enroute to the Trade Mart. At this point I heard what sounded like a fire-cracker. I immediately looked from the right/crowd/physical area and looked towards the President who was seated in the right rear seat of his limosine open convertible. At the moment I looked at the back of the President I heard another fire-cracker noise and saw the shot hit the President about four inches down from the right shoulder. A second shot followed immediately and hit the right rear hip of the President's head. I immediately hollered "he's hit" and reached for the AR-15 located on the floor of the rear seat. Special Agent Mickey had already picked-up the AR-15. We peered towards the rear and particularly the right side of the area. I had drawn my revolver when I saw S/A Hickery had the AR-15. I was unable to see anything or one that could have fired the shoots. The President's car immediately kicked into high gear and the follow-up car followed. The President's auto and the follow-up proceeded to the Parkland Hospital. Upon arriving at the hospital's parking lot, I was instructed by ASATC Roberts to stay with the Vice-President who had followed us into the parking lot. I immediately went to the Vice-President's auto and accompanied him to a room on the ground floor of the hospital. I then continued with the Vice-President back to Washington, D.C. where I was relieved.

Report: Thursday, November 21, 1963

I arrived at Love Airfield, Dallas, Texas at 6:05 p.m. via U.S.A.F. C 130 plane #12373. U.S.A.F. flight order number 597, dated November 15, 1963 giving the names and rank of the crew of the above plane is attached to this report and initialed by me this date. S.A. Samuel Kinney was the senior agent aboard this plane which was being used in Presidential support to transport Secret Service Cars 100X and 679X. We were met at the airport by S.A.I.C. Forest V. Sorrels of the Dallas Field Office and S.A. Winston G. Lawson, the advance agent for the White House Secret Service Detail. S.A. Kinney unloaded 679X and I unloaded 100X from the plane. The drivers of the above cars accompanied by agents Sorrels and Lawson then drove to the garage beneath the airport's main terminal building where security was placed on the cars by the Dallas Police Department as arranged by S.A.I.C. Sorrels.

Agents Kinney, Hickey, Lawson and Sorrels then drove in a Dallas field office car to the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas where reservations had been made for us. Agent Kinney and I then went to our room to wash and change clothes before dinner.

We met with Agent Lawson, Warrant Officer Arthur Bales of the White House Signal Agency and Jack Puterbaugh, a Democratic National Committee man for that area at about 8:30 p.m. at the hotel, and drove to the Dallas Trade Mart where the President was to speak the next day. The premises were checked by Agent Lawson for final security details. At about 9:15 p.m. we departed and went to dinner. Finished about 11:00 p.m. and proceeded back to the Sheraton Hotel where we parted company and went to our respective rooms.

and me outside the hotel and drove to the airport arriving about 9:00 a.m. We went directly to the garage and relieved the police of the security of the cars. Washed and cleaned both cars and checked outside, inside and underneath for security violations - none found. We drove the cars to the area where the President was to be met about 11:00 a.m. Cars were kept under close observation until the arrival of the President, when Agent William Greer of the White House Detail took over control of 100X and Agent Kinney 679X.

The President and his party then ~~he~~<sup>they</sup> proceeded up to the fence holding the crowd back and greeted and shook hands with them. I assisted Agents on the detail to make a path for them and helped Agent Greer keep the cars abreast of the President as he moved along the length of the fence.

After the President and his party entered and were seated in 100X I entered 679X as I had been instructed to do by Agent Lawson. I was seated in the rear left side seat. The shift leader, Emory Roberts, had instructed me to take control of the AR15 rifle whenever I was riding in 679X as an extra man. I did this and had the ammunition clip ~~xxx~~ inserted in the rifle and placed the rifle within easy reach of me. <sup>7:24</sup>

The motorcycle then left the airport and proceeded along the parade route. Just prior to the shooting ~~xxx~~ the Presidential car turned left at the intersection and started down an incline toward an underpass followed by 679X. After a very short distance I heard a loud report which sounded like a firecracker. It appeared to come from the right and rear and seemed to me to be at ground level. I stood up and looked to my right and rear in an attempt to identify it. Nothing caught my attention except people shouting and sheering. A disturbance in 679X caused me to look forward toward the President's car. Perhaps 2 or 3 seconds elapsed from the time I looked to the rear and then looked at the President. He was slumped forward and to his left, and was straightening up to an almost erect sitting position as I turned and looked. At the moment he was almost sitting erect I heard two reports which I thought were shots and that appeared to me completely different in sound than the first report and were in such rapid succession that there seemed to be practically no time element between them. It looked to me as if the President was struck in the right upper rear of his head. The first shot of the second two seemed as if it missed because the hair on the right side of his head flew forward and there didn't seem to be any impact against his head. The last shot seemed to hit his head and cause a noise at the point of impact which made him fall forward and to his left again. ~~xxx~~ <sup>7:24</sup>

~~XXXXXXXX~~ Possibly four or five seconds elapsed from the <sup>100X400</sup> the first report and the last.

At the end of the last report I reached to the bottom of the car and picked up the AR 15 rifle, cocked and loaded it, and turned to the rear. At this point the cars were passing under the over-pass and as a result we had left the scene of the shooting. I kept the AR 15 rifle ready as we proceeded at a high rate of speed to the hospital.

Agent Clint Hill was riding across the rear and the top of 100X in a horizontal position. He looked into the rear of 100X and turned toward 679X and shook his head several times. I received the impression that the President at the least was very seriously injured. A few moments later shift leader Emory Roberts turned to the rest of us in the car and said words to the effect that when we arrive at the hospital some of us would have to give additional protection to the Vice President and take him to a place of safety. He assigned two of the agents in the car to this duty. I was told to have the AR 15 ready for use if needed.

When we arrived at the hospital the President and Governor Connally were taken inside and about the same time the Vice President had arrived. I requested him to come into the hospital to a place of safety and he was surrounded by his detail and the other assigned agents, and myself and led into the hospital. When he entered I returned the gun to 679X as ordered by Agents Roberts.

By this time a great number of police had arrived with newsmen and others in the motorcade, and Agent Kinney and I stood by the cars. Agent Kinney requested that I go and see if I could find out what was to be done with the cars. As I was on my way into the hospital to do this, Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell asked me to take him to where the President was as he could not get by the police. I did this and he joined Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Dave Powers outside the President's operating room.

Agent John D. Ready was stationed outside this room and he requested that I take his place for a few moments and to allow no unauthorized persons to enter or linger outside the door and to care for Mrs. Kennedy if necessary. I did this until Agent Ready returned and relieved me.

As I was leaving to go back to the area where Agent Roberts was, Mr. Dave Powers asked me to get a priest which I did. Agent Roberts informed me to wait until later when a decision might be made about the cars. Upon returning to the vehicles, I assisted Agent Kinney to put the tops on the cars.

gwt

A short time later Agent Roy Kellerman told Agent Kinney and me to take the cars to the plane and stand by for orders. Agent Kinney drove 679X and I 100X to the plane and loaded them and secured the plane, allowing no one to enter except the regular crew.

After Airforce #1 left, we received orders to depart for Washington, D.C. and return the cars to the garage and preserve any evidence that might be in them. Departed Love Airfield, Dallas, Texas via U.S.A.F. plane #12373 at 3:35 p.m.

The above report has been initialed by the below signed on each of its four pages, including the attached flight sheet.

Just prior to the shooting I was seated in the rear of SS-679-X on the left side. As 100-X made the turn and proceeded a short distance I heard what seemed to me that a firecracker exploded to the right and rear. I stood partially up and turned to the rear to see if I could observe anything. Nothing was observed and I ~~looked back~~ turned around and looked at the President's car. The President was slumped to the left in the car and I observed him come up. I heard what appeared to be two shots and it seemed as if the right side of his head was hit and his ~~hair~~ hair flew forward. I then reached down, picked up the AR 15, cocked and loaded it and stood part way up in the car and looked about. By this time, 100-X and 679-X had passed under the overpass and was proceeding at a high rate of speed towards the hospital.

Clint Hill who was lying on the trunk of the President's car looked into the car and then looked back at us and shook his head. Emory Roberts then turned around and said to words of this effect that we had to take care of the Vice President. He assigned two agents to go to him the minute we arrived at the hospital. He told me to stand by with the AR 15 in case there was any danger to the Vice President when we arrived at the hospital.

I did this, and after the Vice President was escorted into the hospital, I returned the gun to the car. Kenneth O'Donnell asked me to take him into the hospital. He couldn't get by the local police. I took him into the area where the President was and assisted the agent outside the door to keep the people away who didn't belong there. I was then relieved and went back to the cars where I assisted Agent Kinney to put the plastic top on 100-X. We were then told by Roy Kellerman to take the cars to the plane and stand by. I drove 100-X to the plane, loaded it in company with Agent Kinney. We stood by until the plane took off.

U.S. Secret Service

TO : Chief

DATE: November 29, 1963

FROM : SAIC Youngblood - Vice Presidential Detail

SUBJECT: Statement of SAIC Rufus W. Youngblood, Vice Presidential Detail (office 1-22), concerning details of events occurring in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

At 11:35 a.m., AF-2 plane arrived at Love Field airport, Dallas, Texas. The Vice President, Mrs. Johnson, and others were aboard this plane including ATSAIC Thomas L. Johns, SA Warren W. Taylor, and myself of the Vice Presidential Detail (office 1-22). SA Jerry D. Kivett of the Vice Presidential Detail was on the ground in Dallas ahead of us.

We arrived before the Presidential aircraft, and the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson were met by numerous dignitaries when they disembarked from the plane. ATSAIC Johns, SA Taylor and myself were staying in the immediate vicinity of Vice President and Mrs. Johnson. SA Kivett was working intermittently with us and also keeping up with location of cars, the other airplane, etc.

Prior to the arrival of the Presidential aircraft, I led the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson to the reception line, and when AF-1 was in position and the ramp was in place, led them to the foot of the ramp. They greeted the President and the First Lady upon their arrival. We later followed the Presidential couple and when the Presidential couple went along the fence to greet the public, we did likewise but in a separate group. During this time, I was always in close proximity to the Vice President; Warren Taylor was in close proximity to Mrs. Johnson; and we were both being assisted by Johns and Kivett. When the President took his position in the Presidential vehicle, we did likewise in the Vice Presidential vehicle. The following persons were in the Vice Presidential vehicle when the motorcade departed from the airport at approximately 11:50 a.m., CST,

In the front seat: The driver, Herschel Jacks, Texas Highway Patrol
Other side front seat: ASAIC Youngblood
Rear seat, behind driver: Senator Ralph W. Yarborough
Rear seat, middle: Mrs. Johnson
Rear seat, behind ASAIC Youngblood: The Vice President

The above vehicle was a 4-door Lincoln convertible with the top down. I had a shoulder strap (DCN) portable 2-way radio with me on "Baker" frequency.

The following persons loaded into the Vice Presidential follow-up car:

The driver
ATSAIC Johns
SA Warren W. Taylor
SA Kivett
Mr. Cliff Carter, member of the Vice President's staff

ATSAIC Johns had a portable radio which was the companion of the one I had--also on "Baker" frequency. This Vice Presidential follow-up car also had a portable, 2-way radio set on "Charlie" frequency.

When we departed from the airport, the motorcade order was:

Lead car
Presidential car
Presidential follow-up car
Vice Presidential car
Vice Presidential follow-up car
Other cars--press, dignitaries, busses, etc.

During the motorcade, the order listed above was not changed and remained so until we arrived at the hospital.

Upon leaving the airport, we were proceeding to the Trade Mart and were due to arrive there at 12:30 p.m. We were proceeding at a slow pace to this destination, which was entirely normal due to the large crowds of people along both sides of the motorcade route. During our motorcade, the Presidential vehicle made some stops to greet well-wishers. Our speed and the stops were naturally controlled by the Presidential car. I was working both in and out of the Vice Presidential car on these stops. To my recollection, the Vice President did not leave the vehicle during the motorcade. Several times during the motorcade, I was in radio contact with the Vice Presidential follow-up car concerning times, distances, etc.

During the motorcade, I instructed our driver to keep some distance (about two or three car lengths) behind the Presidential follow-up car while we were going at slow speeds.

The motorcade had just cleared the congested downtown area and made a right turn. I recall observing an illuminated clock sign on a building--the time was 12:30 p.m., which was the time we were due to be at the Trade Mart. The motorcade then made a left turn, and the sidewalk crowds were beginning to diminish in size. I observed a grassy plot to my right in back of the small crowd of bystanders on the sidewalk; some tall buildings; a downhill grade ahead where the street went under what appeared to be a railroad overpass. We were about two car lengths behind the Presidential follow-up car at this time.

I heard an explosion--I was not sure whether it was a firecracker, bomb, bullet, or other explosion. I looked at whatever I could quickly survey, and could not see anything which would indicate the origin of this noise. I noticed that the movements in the Presidential car were very abnormal and, at practically the same time, the movements in the Presidential follow-up car were abnormal. I turned in my seat and with my left arm grasped and shoved the Vice President, at his right shoulder, down and toward Mrs. Johnson and Senator Yarborough. At the same time, I shouted "get down!" I believe I said this more than once and directed it to the Vice President and the other occupants of the rear seat. They all responded very rapidly. I quickly looked all around again and could see nothing to shoot at, so I stepped over into the back seat and sat on top of the Vice President. I sat in a crouched position and issued orders to the driver. During this time, I heard two more explosion noises and observed SA Hickey in the Presidential follow-up car poised on the car with the AR-15 rifle looking toward the buildings. The second and third explosions made the same type of sound that the first one did as far as I could tell, but by this time I was of the belief that they definitely were shots--not bombs or firecrackers. I am not sure that I was on top of the Vice President before the second shot--he says I was. All of the above related events, from the beginning at the sound of the first shot to the sound of the third shot, happened within a few seconds.

In my crouched position, I observed the people on the streets to scatter; heard some shouts; saw the motorcade increase speed, and I knew we were making a rapid evacuation. I shouted to the driver to stick with them and stay close. We then began moving very fast. I then called on my portable radio, which I had with me, to the Vice Presidential follow-up car and ordered them to switch to "Charlie" frequency. As I switched to "Charlie," I heard some transmission from the Presidential follow-up car. From fragments of what I heard and what I saw, I knew that the President had suffered injury. I could see an agent (who had previously run from the Presidential follow-up car, although I did not observe this when it happened) lying across the trunk turtle of the Presidential car above the President and Mrs. Kennedy. I heard enough radio transmission to know we were headed for a hospital. I could also see the agents in the Presidential follow-up car waving our car to come up close, and I told our driver to stay as close and go as fast as he could without having a wreck.

This driver wasn't talkative and he wasn't excitable. He responded to everything I said. He did an excellent job.

During this ride to the hospital, I had some brief conversations with the Vice President and Senator Yarborough in response to their questions. I told the Vice President that the President must have been shot or wounded, but I did not know his condition. I told the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson to follow me and the agents as closely and quickly as possible when we got to our destination. They agreed to do this.

When we got to the hospital, my agents (SA's Kivett and W. Taylor) from the Vice Presidential follow-up car were on the ground by the time we stopped. Also, some agents from the Presidential follow-up car were coming back to assist us. We left the car immediately (Vice President and Mrs. Johnson and myself) and, surrounded by agents, went into the hospital and quickly into a corner of a large room with partitions. We did not stop to look at or for the Presidential car occupants. Senator Yarborough did not go with us. I told one agent (Glen Bennett, Protective Research Section) to stop any traffic into the room unless he knew the person to be a member of our party. Vice President and Mrs. Johnson and myself were in the corner of the room while SA's Kivett and W. Taylor were securing the room by evacuating a couple of occupants and closing blinds, shades, etc. They remained in our immediate proximity. We were shortly joined by ATSAIC Johns, Congressman Thornberry, Congressman Brooks, and Cliff Carter. ATSAIC Roberts, White House Detail, came in and told us that the President was badly wounded and probably would not live. I advised the Vice President that we should evacuate the hospital and go to the airplane and return to Washington, D.C., and the White House.

At this time I had no knowledge of whether the actions that caused the President to be shot were the work of one man, a small group, or what. I felt that the safest place for him, and in the best interests of all concerned, was in the White House. Others who were present also concurred. We were later joined by ASAIC Kellerman who reported the President's condition was very critical. Ken O'Donnell came to the room and told us the same thing, and said we should return to Washington.

During all of this time, many things occurred and I don't recall now the exact order. I talked to Mrs. Johnson and obtained information about Lynda and Lucy, and told SA Kivett to make the necessary calls to have them placed under Secret Service protection. Mrs. Johnson left the room briefly on two occasions, accompanied by SA's Kivett and W. Taylor. I had several conversations with the Vice President about moving the airplane, and at one time he considered moving it to Carswell Air Force Base and driving this distance. We also considered just moving it to another location at Love Field, and this is what I told SA Kivett to have them do, and to have enough fuel for cross-country flight. I told the Vice President that we would drive to the airport with he and Mrs. Johnson in separate cars; that I wanted him to stay down below window level; and that Mrs. Johnson would be accompanied by agents.

I had previously told ATSAIC Johns in the presence of the Vice President that he should go out of the hospital and get two cars on a stand-by, preferably unmarked police cars with police drivers who were familiar with Love Field, etc. I told him we would not return to the motorcade cars. I also told him that we would take an unknown route, and to make sure the drivers were thoroughly familiar with the area. ATSAIC Johns reported back that he had this set up.

The Vice President and I were both questioning the feasibility of leaving the hospital by the same way in which we had entered it. I told ATSAIC Johns to check on the various exits from which we might enter the cars and make a hasty evacuation, and to get cars at other exits if this could be worked out. While he was gone, ASAIC Kellerman and Mr. Ken O'Donnell came into the room. We learned that the President had died.

The Vice President was concerned about wanting to leave quickly as he had been advised to do, and which he now felt that he should, but he was also very much concerned about leaving without Mrs. Kennedy. It was finally agreed, at the advice of Mr. O'Donnell and others of us, that we would leave the hospital and go to AF-1 (President Kennedy's former airplane), with Mr. O'Donnell and others bringing Mrs. Kennedy as soon as they could remove the body. We were told that Mrs. Kennedy would not leave without President Kennedy's body.

While we were in this room, we were visited by Malcolm Kilduff of the White House Press Secretary's office. I also recall other White House staff people coming in, among whom I think were Mr. Larry O'Brien and, I believe, Mr. Dave Powers. I remained in the room with the Vice President at all times. Mrs. Johnson made some notes regarding the situation.

We started to leave the room and to evacuate the hospital, and since ATSAIC Johns had not returned, I grabbed one of the agents and told him to run ahead and get the cars ready, and we started out.

As soon as we got outside, we loaded into an unmarked police car--the driver of which was Jesse Curry, Chief of Police, Dallas. The Vice President and I got into the back seat. He got in first and slumped below window-level, and I got in after him. Congressman Homer Thornberry got in the front seat. I was seated behind Congressman Thornberry.

Mrs. Johnson was in the company of SA's Kivett and W. Taylor, and also Congressman Brooks. SA Glen Bennett had also been working very closely with our group since our arrival at the hospital, and he got in the car with Mrs. Johnson.

I ordered the driver (Chief Curry) to drive out and head for Love Field. Congressman Albert Thomas was walking, and seeing Congressman Thornberry, he called out for us to stop and pick him up. I don't believe he saw the Vice President. I told the driver to continue but by this time Congressman Thomas was by the side of the car. The Vice President ordered the driver to stop, whereupon we immediately took the Congressman aboard and proceeded again. Congressman Thomas got in the front seat with Congressman Thornberry being moved over closer to the driver. The Vice President then requested that Congressman Thornberry climb over into the back seat, which he did. Congressman Thornberry took a position on the window side behind the driver. We then had the Vice President in the middle of the back seat.

We were momentarily blocked by traffic which was coming onto the hospital access road--a delivery truck, I believe. Rapid police assistance got us through this obstacle, and we continued to the airport. We had motorcycle escort which began using sirens. We asked Chief Curry to stop them from using sirens, which he did by use of his radio.

When we approached the apron at Love Field, I called on my portable radio that we would board AF-1 rapidly and to be ready to receive us aboard. They replied that the plane was ready.

The Vice President and I practically ran up the ramp, followed by the others. I gave several orders to agents and Air Force crewmen about checkpoints at front and rear of plane, and pulling down all shades.

The Vice President went to the stateroom area, and Mrs. Johnson joined us there. Congressmen Thornberry, Brooks, and Thomas were also there. The Vice President told me to observe all of the events that I could, and to tell my agents to make notes, and also to tell any of his staff to do likewise. I passed these instructions on to my agents. I went everywhere the Vice President did, and was present when he called Attorney General Kennedy. He asked the Attorney General about the legal aspects of taking the oath of the President, such as when, where, and who should administer it. The Vice President placed calls to the office of Federal Judge Hughes, and he received a call from the Justice Department. He instructed Marie Fehmer to take down the wording of the oath. The Vice President had another phone conversation with the Attorney General. The Vice President advised me and others that Judge Sara Hughes would be coming to the plane, and I advised other agents and had them pass the word to local security officials. He also asked me to check on the status and location of Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body, and inform him of their estimated time of arrival.

Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body arrived at the plane ahead of Judge Hughes. The Vice President and Mrs. Johnson went to Mrs. Kennedy's bedroom to comfort her.

When Judge Hughes arrived, the oath was administered, and Cecil Stoughton, White House photographer, took photos of this event. His photos show most of those who witnessed this event within the stateroom and thru the passageway door leading to the front of the plane. There were some other witnesses who were not in the pictures since we were on the side of the stateroom where the photographer was. These persons included myself, an Air Force steward, and an agent who was stationed at the rear of the plane with the President's body.

The oath of office was administered at approximately 2:40 p.m., CST. Judge Hughes and Chief Curry disembarked from the plane, and the plane was airborne from Love Field, Dallas, at 2:47 p.m., CST, enroute to Andrews Air Force Base.

The foregoing account of events is true and accurate to the best of my recollections.

TO : Chief

DATE: November 29, 1963

FROM : ASAIC Thomas L. Johns - Vice Presidential Detail

SUBJECT: Statement regarding events in Dallas, Texas, on Friday,
November 22, 1963.

This personal statement is being submitted at the direction of SAIC Rufus W. Youngblood, Vice Presidential Detail, office 1-22.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, I was assigned to the Vice Presidential Detail, office 1-22, and was working the movements of Vice President Johnson during his travels on this date with ASAIC Youngblood. ASAIC Youngblood was riding the Vice President's car on all movements and I worked the Vice Presidential follow-up car. Special Agent Warren W. Taylor was also working all Vice Presidential movements on this date, and was assigned to Mrs. Johnson. SA Taylor rode the Vice Presidential follow-up car when Mrs. Johnson rode in the car with the Vice President.

On this same date, the Vice President and party arrived Love Field, Dallas, Texas, at 11:35 a.m., CST. President Kennedy and party arrived Love Field at 11:38 a.m., CST, and at 11:50 a.m., CST, the Presidential and Vice Presidential motorcades departed Love Field en route to the Trade Mart where the President was to speak.

The motorcade and security personnel were as follows:

- President's car
- Secret Service follow-up car
- Vice President's car: ASAIC Youngblood
- Vice Presidential security car: ATSAIC Johns, and SA's Taylor and Kivett

The Vice Presidential security car was a 1963 or 1964 Mercury 4-door sedan driven by a man whom I believe to be an employee of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Mr. Cliff Carter, Aide to Vice President Johnson, was seated in the middle front seat; SA Kivett, who was the Vice Presidential Detail's advance man for Fort Worth-Dallas, was seated in the right front seat; SA Taylor was seated in the left rear seat; and I was seated in the right rear seat of this car.

The motorcade had passed through the downtown section of Dallas, and at approximately 12:35 p.m., CST, I heard two "shots," not knowing whether they were firecrackers, backfire, or gun shots. These two shots were approximately two or three seconds apart, and at this time we were on a slight downhill curve to the right. On the right-hand side of the motorcade from the street, a grassy area sloped upward to a small 2 or 3-foot concrete wall with sidewalk area. When the shots sounded, I was looking to the right and saw a man standing and then being thrown or hit to the ground, and this together with the shots made the situation appear dangerous to me. I estimate that the motorcade was going approximately 12 to 14 miles per hour at this time, and I jumped from the security car and started running for the Vice President's car. I felt that if there was danger due to the slow speed of the motorcade, I would be of more assistance and in a more proper location with the Vice President's car. Before I reached the Vice President's car, a third shot had sounded and the entire motorcade then picked up speed and I was left on the street at this point. I obtained a ride with White House movie men and joined the Vice President and ASAIC Youngblood at the Parkland Hospital.

I did not have any trouble keeping my balance when getting out of the security car, and it is on this that I base the estimated speed of the motorcade. Also, as the door of the security car opened to the rear, I lost some time in getting out and starting to run for the Vice President's car.

At no time did I see any details concerning persons in President Kennedy's car, as his security car was a large one with agents standing on the running boards and this obscured my view of the President's car.

I arrived at Parkland Hospital at approximately 12:45-12:50 p.m. and immediately joined ASAIC Youngblood with Vice President Johnson. In a few minutes I was directed by ASAIC Youngblood (at the request of Vice President Johnson) to go to ASAIC Kellerman and ask him to give a report on the condition of President Kennedy to Vice President Johnson. I found ASAIC Kellerman and conveyed this message to him, and then I returned to close proximity of Vice President Johnson. Mr. Ken O'Donnell came to the Vice President and advised that President Kennedy was in a "bad way" and advised Vice President Johnson to return to Washington, D.C. Those present with Vice President Johnson were Mrs. Johnson, Congressman Homer Thornberry, ASAIC Youngblood and, most of the time, Congressman Jack Brooks and Special Agents Jerry Kivett and Warren Taylor.

ASAIC Youngblood then requested that I obtain transportation (cars) for the Vice President, and to have drivers who were thoroughly familiar with any and all routes from the hospital to Love Field, and to have added police protection placed at Love Field. I went outside the hospital and spoke to an inspector--highest ranking police officer. We discussed cars for use of the Vice President, and possibly other members of his party, and he offered the use of several unmarked police cars. Chief Curry, Dallas Police, then joined us, and in further discussion they stated that they would send a large police detail to Love Field and "completely secure it." The Police Inspector himself then stated that he would drive Vice President Johnson to the airport.

I returned to the Vice President and ASAIC Youngblood and heard Ken O'Donnell inform Vice President Johnson that President Kennedy had died. To the best of my knowledge I believe that the Vice President learned from Mr. O'Donnell that Mrs. Kennedy was getting a casket, and would proceed as soon as she could to AF-1 for return to Washington, D.C., with President Johnson on the same plane.

At the request of ASAIC Youngblood, I then went and got the hospital building superintendent, and with him started looking and checking out another exit to use from the hospital. I was gone about ten minutes, and when I returned to last location in the hospital of the Vice President and ASAIC Youngblood, I learned that they had just departed the hospital en route to AF-1.

I went outside the hospital, and with Mr. Cliff Carter and Mr. Jack Valenti, staff member and friend of Vice President Johnson, respectively, and Captain Cecil Stoughton, I obtained a police car and driver, and all of us drove to Love Field, and I went aboard AF-1 and rejoined the Vice President and ASAIC Youngblood.

I then conferred with Col. James Swindal, pilot of AF-1, and a decision was made to remove seats from small rear compartment of AF-1 for use of Mrs. Kennedy and the casket containing President Kennedy's body. Also, passengers on board were identified and a manifest started at front entrance to AF-1, the rear entrance being reserved for Mrs. Kennedy.

Via radio-telephone, I then talked with SAIC Behn, White House Detail, Washington, D.C., and informed him that Mrs. Kennedy and the body of President Kennedy would accompany the Vice President back to Washington, D.C.

At approximately 2:30 p.m., Federal Judge Sarah Hughes came aboard AF-1, and gave the Presidential Oath of Office to Vice President Johnson, witnessed by all at the request of the Vice President.

AF-1 then departed Love Field, Dallas, Texas, immediately following the above, at 2:50 p.m., CST, en route for Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland, and I was aboard the plane.

SUBJECT: Statement regarding events in Dallas, Texas, on Friday,
November 22, 1963.

I arrived Love Field, Dallas, Texas, at approximately 10:30 a.m., CST, from Fort Worth, Texas. I was driven from Fort Worth by SA Warner, Dallas Field Office, and SA Shannon was also in the car. SA Shannon had worked the previous midnight at Fort Worth and was catching a commercial flight from Dallas to Austin in order to work the following midnight at the LBJ Ranch.

Upon arrival at Love Field, I immediately contacted SA Lawson, and assisted him in advance arrangements prior to the arrival of the President and the Vice President. I assisted him in arranging motorcade cars and various other duties as he directed. I contacted the local representative of Continental Airlines and obtained four pillows to be used in case the President and his party wanted to sit on the back of the convertible. I was in constant contact with Art Bales as to the exact location and time of arrival of the Vice President and Presidential aircraft. I also conferred with Mr. Jack Peuterball (phonetic), political advance officer, on who was going to greet the Vice President when he arrived.

AF-2, with the Vice President and party aboard, arrived at 11:35 a.m., CST. I was at the foot of the ramp when Vice President and Mrs. Johnson and party disembarked. Vice Presidential Detail agents accompanying the Vice President were ASAIC Youngblood, ATSAIC Johns, and SA Taylor. Other White House Detail agents were also on board. The Vice President was greeted by the local committee consisting of 15 persons. ASAIC Youngblood and ATSAIC Johns remained in close proximity to the Vice President; SA Taylor remained in close proximity to Mrs. Johnson; and I was making sure that the Vice President and others moved to the proper area to greet the President, and also was keeping an eye on the Presidential plane so as to advise ASAIC Youngblood of its location.

AF-1, with the President and party aboard, arrived at 11:40 a.m., CST. The Vice President was at the foot of the ramp to greet President and Mrs. Kennedy when they descended the steps of the plane. After the President was greeted by the reception committee (same committee that greeted the Vice President), he walked past his automobile and up to the crowd which was behind a waist-high cyclone fence. He and Mrs. Kennedy began to shake hands with those assembled there. The Vice President and Mrs. Johnson also went past their cars to the fence and also started shaking hands. ASAIC Youngblood and ATSAIC Johns remained in close proximity to the Vice President, with SA Taylor in close proximity to Mrs. Johnson. I was alternating between remaining in close proximity to the Vice President and seeing that the Vice President's car and follow-up car were staying right behind the Presidential car and follow-up car as President and Mrs. Kennedy and Vice President and Mrs. Johnson moved down the fence to their left shaking hands.

When President and Mrs. Kennedy took their positions in their car, I assisted ASAlC Youngblood and ATSAIC Johns in getting Vice President and Mrs. Johnson in their car. The Vice Presidential car was a 1964 Lincoln convertible with the top down. The driver was Herschel Jacks, Department of Public Safety, and ASAlC Youngblood rode in the right front seat. In the back seat were Senator Yarborough, Mrs. Johnson, and the Vice President-- left to right. As the motorcade started moving out, I ran alongside the Vice President's car for approximately 15 to 25 yards and then jumped into the Vice Presidential follow-up car, a 1963 Mercury 4-door sedan. This vehicle was driven by Joe Rich, Department of Public Safety, with Cliff Carter, Executive Assistant to the Vice President, in the middle front seat, and I was in the right front seat. SA Taylor and ATSAIC Johns were in the back seat, left and right sides respectively. The motorcade proceeded out of the airport and along the motorcade route.

The entire route was well lined with people, and on several occasions when the crowds were large, I opened the door of the vehicle to be prepared to get out if necessary.

During the entire parade route, I could not see the Presidential car well, but I could see the Presidential follow-up car and observed the agents standing on the running board.

On one occasion (exact location unknown), the Presidential car stopped and a few well-wishers went over to the car to shake his hand. The stop was very brief and none of the crowd made an attempt to shake the Vice President's hand. During this time I had the door open and was standing halfway out of the car, prepared to go up to the Vice President's car if necessary. During the motorcade, as we moved further downtown, the crowd became increasingly heavy and I noticed numerous persons watching the motorcade from windows of the various buildings we passed. All agents in the Vice Presidential follow-up car were closely observing the crowd both along the streets and watching from the windows.

Approximately three minutes before the assassination, in the very downtown part of Dallas, I observed a young white male approximately 21 years old, running toward the Presidential car. As he got alongside the Presidential follow-up car, SA Ready, who was working the right front running board, jumped down from the follow-up car and forcibly shoved this individual back into the crowd. We continued along the motorcade route and turned off Main Street. At this point, SA Lawson in the lead car gave a "5-minutes to Trade Mark signal"--moments later the first shot was heard.

See additional statement for actions during and after assassination.

SA Jerry D. Kivett

November 29, 1963

I was riding in the Vice Presidential follow-up car immediately behind the Vice President's car and the third car behind the President's car. The Vice President's car was a 1964 steel gray Lincoln convertible, borrowed from Ford Motor Company, Dallas, Texas and was driven by Herschel D. Jacks, Texas Department, Public Safety. ASAIC Youngblood was riding in the right front seat of this vehicle. In the back seat were Senator Yarborough, Mrs. Johnson, and the Vice President, left to right. The Vice Presidential follow up car was a 1963 yellow 4-door Mercury Sedan, also borrowed from Ford Motor Company, driven by Joe H. Rich, Texas Department, Public Safety. Cliff Carter, Executive Assistant to the Vice President was seated in the middle of the front seat and I was seated in the right front seat. In the rear seat was SA Taylor and ATSAIC Johns, left to right respectively. The motorcade had just made a right turn from Main Street and then made an immediate left turn on to Elm Street. The motorcade was heading slightly downhill toward an underpass. As the motorcade was approximately 1/3 of the way to the underpass, traveling between 10 and 15 miles per hour, I heard a loud noise - - someone hollared "What was that?" It sounded more like an extremely large fire-cracker, in that it did not seem to have the sharp report of a rifle. As I was looking in the direction of the noise, which was to my right rear, I heard another report - - then there was no doubt in my mind what was happening - - I looked toward the Vice Presidential car, and as I did so, I could see the spectators, approximately 25-50, scattering - - some were falling to the ground, some were running up a small hill, and some were just standing there stunned - - here I heard the third shot. I could see the President's car, and observed Mrs. Kennedy, who seemed to be standing up in the car and trying to get out. I was getting out of the car to get to the Vice President's car and assist Youngblood; I had reached for my gun but did not draw it for I could not tell where the shots were coming from; when I saw the Presidential car speed down the street, since I could not get to the Vice Presidential car, I fell back into the follow-up car and hollared to the driver to go-go, and the car lurched forward behind the Vice President's car. During this time, I don't know exactly what happened, but it seems that the Vice Presidential follow-up car was moving quite slow. ATSAIC Johns was out of the car (I have no knowledge of what actions he took), and as we moved out, ATSAIC Johns was left. SA Taylor was seated to my left rear, and since all the actions took place on my right, I do not know what action he took. Cliff Carter, to the best of my knowledge remained still in the middle front seat.

Once we left the area, I could see all three cars - - the President's car (I could not see any principal party and could only see Clint Hill on the back of the car) - - The follow-up car, with some agent holding the AR-15 pointed in the air - - The Vice President's car (I could not see the Vice President, but could see ASAIC Youngblood lying over the area where he had been sitting - - I don't recall seeing Mrs. Johnson or Senator Yarborough). We were traveling at a high rate of speed. ATSAIC Roberts said over the radio, and this is not a direct quote but to the best of my recollection - - To the hospital - to the hospital, as fast as possible - Lawson, are we going to the hospital? - Hurry, he's hit - - Then Roberts called to Youngblood, I answered since Youngblood was using Baker frequency with our follow-up car; however, I had a Charlie set in the follow-up car also. Roberts said to cover our man good, I replied that Youngblood had him covered - - at this point Youngblood, who had switched his radio to Charlie answered and stated that he had him covered and to take of, we were right behind them. It took approximately 4 minutes from the time the first shot was fired until we reached the hospital. As soon as we reached the hospital, ASAIC Youngblood and myself ran the Vice President into the Hospital and continued running with him until we reached an isolated room. SA Taylor immediately followed with Mrs. Johnson. As we were taking the Vice President into the hospital, Roberts informed him that the President had been shot and was critically injured and probably would die. Once inside the hospital, we had the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson in an isolated room. We pulled all window shades so as no one would know our exact location. At first it was the Vice President, Mrs. Johnson, Youngblood and myself. Moments later, Emory Roberts came in and said the President would not make it. A discussion followed as to what action would be taken and all agents were in agreement that we should leave the hospital as soon as possible, fly to Washington and go to the White House, which was the safest location for the Vice President to go. The Vice President asked for Congressman Homer Thornberry and Congressman Jack Brooks to join him in the isolated room, he also asked that someone go to get coffee for he and Mrs. Johnson. Cliff Carter who also had come into the room went to get the coffee. Roy Kellerman came into the room and discussed the President's condition with the Vice President. The Vice President did not want to leave the hospital immediately and fly to the White House because he said it would appear presumptuous on his part. ASAIC Youngblood told me to get in touch with Austin, Texas and Washington, D. C. and have agents assigned to the Vice President's daughters immediately. I located a phone which was being manned by a member of a telephone company, who had accompanied the Presidential party and who had an open line to the Signal Board in Washington. I asked first for Chief Rowley, then Chief Paterni and ended up talking to Chief Wildy. I told him to call Austin and have an agent assigned immediately to Lynda Bird Johnson and as she could probably be located at Kinsolving Dormitory, University of Texas. That an agent should also be assigned immediately to Lucy Baines Johnson, who could best be located at National Cathedral for Girls, Washington, D. C. Since I was talking to the Signal Board I asked for Austin, Texas. I talked to SA Paine, advised him to get an agent with Lynda as soon as possible. He put SA Lockwood on the phone and I told him to find Lynda and stay with her until he heard further word and that she was probably at Kinsolving Dormitory, University of Texas. Upon completing these calls, I went back to the room where the Vice President was.

Mrs. Johnson stated that she would like to visit Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Connally. Someone, I don't remember who, I think it was a member of the hospital staff, showed Mrs. Johnson to Mrs. Kennedy's location and to Mrs. Connally's location where she visited briefly with each. She was accompanied at all times by SA Taylor and myself. Upon returning to the isolated room where the Vice President was located, I overheard Ken O'Donald tell the Vice President that the President was dead. It was then decided to leave the hospital immediately. ASAIC Youngblood told me to get in touch with Air Force One to advise them to fuel for a cross country flight and to move to another part of the airport. I located a phone which was opened to the Dallas Signal Board and contacted Air Force One, cannot recall who I talked to. I advised them to refuel the plane for a cross country flight, and to move it to another location. I was advised that the plane was refueled and ready to go and that they were in the process of trying to locate another location. I told him to call me back as soon as they moved to a new location. I returned to the room where the Vice President was and Youngblood told me we are leaving right now. We exited from the hospital by the same room we had entered. SA Taylor and myself accompanied Mrs. Johnson, placed her in an unmarked police Sedan and drove immediately behind the car carrying the Vice President to the airport. A car of Secret Service agents followed directly behind us. This vehicle (the one Mrs. Johnson was in) was driven by an uniform police officer, name unknown, with SA Taylor, SA Bennett, in the front seat; in the rear seat were Congressman Brooks, Mrs. Johnson, and myself, left to right. I requested Mrs. Johnson to crouch down in the seat so that she could not be seen from the outside, she did so immediately. Upon arrival to the airport (Love Field) SA Taylor and myself ran Mrs. Johnson up the ramp into the airplane. Upon instructions from ASAIC Youngblood, all window shades in the airplane were pulled down and check points were established at both doors leading to the Vice President's area of the airplane, (Air Force One). At first the Vice President was put in the State Room, i. e. where the beds were; however he said this was in bad taste and he moved up to the sitting room, i. e. where the table and television set are located. At first inside this area where the Vice President, Mrs. Johnson, Cliff Carter, Marie Fehmer, Jack Valenti, members of the Vice President's staff, Paul Glynn, Vice President's Air Force Valet, ASAIC Youngblood and myself. SA Taylor manned the check point at the front door leading to the State Room and SA Bennett manned the check point at the rear door leading to the State Room. There followed a series of conferences between the Vice President, Congressman Horner Thornberry, Congressman Jack Brooks, and Albert Thomas. The Vice President and the others in the State Room were also watching television accounts of the President's Assassination. I do not recall what necessarily was discussed and at one time or another various members of the White House staff came back to the State Room to talk to the Vice President. It was decided that the plane would remain and wait for Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body. Malcolm Kilduff asked me to inquire of the Vice President if he wanted any press to go back on the plane with him. I inquired of the Vice President wishes in this matter and he said yes, let me talk to Kilduff I then asked Kilduff to come in and talk to the Vice President. About this time we received word that Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body were on the way. During the discussions that took place in the State Room, the Vice President stated that he had talked with the Attorney General and they agreed that the Vice President should take the oath of office of President of the United States as soon as possible. The Vice President added that he had been able to contact Judge Sarah T. Hughes and she would be at the plane in 10 minutes to administer the oath of office. About this time Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body arrived at the airplane. The Vice President and Mrs. Johnson attempted to console Mrs. Kennedy in the State Room where she was. It was cleared of all personnel exception of Vice President, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kennedy, ASAIC Youngblood, and a member or two of the White House staff, exactly who I cannot recall. Judge Hughes soon arrived and prepared to administer the oath of office. The Vice President invited all who wished to observe the proceedings into the State Room. I do not know exactly who was there, but to the best of my knowledge the following persons were there: Vice President, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kennedy, Ken O'Donald, Dave Powers, Congressmen Brooks, Thomas, and Thornberry, Marie Fehmer, Elizabeth Carpenter, Cliff Carter, Jack Valenti, Paul Glynn, ASAIC Youngblood, ATSAIC Johns, myself, Mariam Smith of the United Press International and Captain Stoughton, White House photographer. The Vice President took the oath of office at approximately 2:40 PM in the airplane and it was airborne enroute to Washington, D. C., at 2:47 PM.

The foregoing account of events is to the best of my knowledge.

SUBJECT: Statement regarding events in Dallas, Texas, on Friday,
November 22, 1963.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, I was working as a Special Agent with the Vice Presidential Detail, U.S. Secret Service, on a special assignment with Mrs. Johnson in Dallas, Texas, for the President's visit there.

At 11:35 a.m., CST, I arrived at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, aboard AF-2 with Vice President and Mrs. Johnson. Vice President and Mrs. Johnson disembarked from the plane and I remained in close proximity to Mrs. Johnson while she and the Vice President went over to a crowd awaiting the President's arrival behind a fence surrounding the field. Vice President and Mrs. Johnson were at the foot of the ramp upon which the President and Mrs. Kennedy disembarked from AF-1 at 11:38 a.m., CST. Again, I was in close proximity to Mrs. Johnson. President and Mrs. Kennedy and Vice President and Mrs. Johnson all went back to the area of the general public and again shook hands for a short period of time. At 11:50 a.m., CST, the Presidential and Vice Presidential motorcades departed Love Field, and at that time I was working the Vice Presidential follow-up car.

The automobile in which I was riding was a late model Ford 4-door sedan driven by an unknown man whom I was later told is an officer with the Texas Department of Public Safety. Special Agent Kivett was riding in the front right seat, and ATSAIC Johns was in the right rear seat. Mr. Cliff Carter, a member of the Vice President's staff, was riding in the middle front seat, and I was in the rear left seat.

On the way to the Trade Mart where the President was to speak, large crowds of people were along the side of the road, and as we entered the downtown area, I observed extremely large crowds along the streets and in all of the windows of large buildings on the route.

Our automobile had just turned a corner (the names of the streets are unknown to me) when I heard a bang which sounded to me like a possible firecracker--the sound coming from my right rear. Out of the corner of my eye and off slightly to the right rear of our car, I noticed what now seems to me might have been a short piece of streamer flying in the air close to the ground, but due to the confusion of the moment, I thought that it was a firecracker going off.

As a matter of course, I opened the door and prepared to get out of the car. In the instant that my left foot touched the ground, I heard two more bangs and realized that they must be gun shots. Also at that instant, the car paused slightly and I heard something over the radio to the effect that something or someone had been shot. At that moment, the car picked up speed and I pulled myself back into the car. During the aforementioned I also noticed that ATSAIC Johns had completely jumped out of our car, and as we sped away, I believe he was knocked to the ground and left in the street. I recall hearing SA Kivett telling the driver to "go, go, stay right behind the car." During all of the aforementioned, I could see ASAIC Youngblood, in the Vice President's car immediately in front of us, jump to the back seat and cover the Vice President.

I was not looking at the President's car at the time and did not notice his car until we were well on our way to Parkland Hospital. When I did point my attention to the President's car, I could only notice SA Hill, White House Detail, lying across the trunk lid of the President's car. At no time subsequent to the first shot did I ever see the President or what had happened to him.

In approximately three minutes from the time of the last shot, we arrived at Parkland Hospital, Dallas. When we arrived at the hospital, I jumped out of the follow-up car, grabbed Mrs. Johnson from her car, and took her as quickly as possible into the hospital, following the Vice President. We went immediately to what I believe was a room in the emergency section of the hospital--a large room divided into sections by curtains hanging from the ceiling to the floor.

Vice President and Mrs. Johnson, accompanied by ASAIC Youngblood and SA Kivett, went immediately to one corner of the room, and I proceeded to move a secretary and an unknown negro male, whom I believe was a patient, out into the hall. I drew all the blinds and checked the entrances to the room. Finding SA Glen Bennett, Protective Research Section, who was temporarily assigned to the White House Detail, stationed at the doors to the above-mentioned room, I stood by inside the room awaiting instructions. During our short stay in the hospital, SA Kivett and myself accompanied Mrs. Johnson to and from a third floor room where she spoke briefly to Mrs. John Connally, wife of the Governor of Texas. Also during our brief stay at the hospital, I was told by ATSAIC Roberts, White House Detail, to call the Dallas White House switchboard and have them notify AF-1 to prepare for an immediate takeoff. I complied with his order and approximately one-half hour later the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson departed the hospital.

SA Kivett and myself stayed with Mrs. Johnson as we left the hospital and we jumped into an unmarked police car which happened to be standing by. The Vice President, accompanied by ASAIC Youngblood, jumped into another car, and we proceeded to the Dallas airport and AF-1. Also riding in the car with Mrs. Johnson, SA Kivett and myself were SA Glen Bennett and Congressman Jack Brooks. An unknown police officer was driving our car.

An escort of two motorcycles accompanied the above two vehicles to Love Field without incident. When we arrived at Love Field, we immediately boarded AF-1 and I maintained a checkpoint in the forward compartment of the aircraft until the aircraft was airborne at approximately 2:50 p.m., CST. Between the time we boarded AF-1 and the time of takeoff, the Vice President was sworn in as President in his cabin. There were no unusual incidents during that period of time.

SUBJECT: Report of activities of reporting agent at Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963.

The reporting agent in company with Special Agents of this section, Sulliman, Johnson, Olsson and Berger, departed Fort Worth, Texas at 11:20am on Friday, November 22, 1963 via U.S. Air Force Plane # 6970 and arrived at Dallas Airport at 11:40am.

Upon arrival there, we were met at the plane ramp by SA Lawson, our Advance Agent, who instructed us to take two Dallas Police Cars, which he pointed out to us and proceed to the Dallas Trade Mart, and there to report to SA Grant for Post assignments. The Police cars transported the above agents to the Trade Mart where SA Grant did post the agents on their respective posts prior to the arrival of President Kennedy. The reporting agent effected security at a table directly in front of the Presidents position at the Head Table.

At about 12:35pm. SA Grant came to the reporting agents table and called me aside and informed me that something had happened to the President, that he understood the President had been hit with a object while going through an underpass. The reporting agent with SA Grant went to the White House telephone where we met Doctor Burkley who was asking if we could find out where the President had been taken. I called the switchboard operator who informed me that the President had been hurt, and had been taken to the hospital nearest the Trade Mart. SA Berger left the Trade Mart with Dr. Burkley in a Police car. SA Grant, the reporting agent and SAs Sulliman, Johnson, Olsson also left the Trade Mart in Police cars and proceeded to the Parkland Hospital.

Upon arrival at Parkland Hospital, SAs Berger, Sulliman, Johnson and Olsson effected security at the doors in the main corridors leading into the Emergency Room where the President was being treated. The reporting agent went inside the Emergency Room .

After the death of the President the reporting agent rode in the front seat of the ambulance carrying his body to the airport, together with ASAIC Kellerman and SA Berger who drove the ambulance. On arrival at the airport I assisted in carrying the coffin from ambulance to the Presidential aircraft.

AF#1 departed Dallas, Texas at 2:50pm. and Arrived at Andrews AFB. Washington, D.C. 6:00pm.

The Assassination of President John F.
Kennedy on November 22, 1963, at Dallas, Texas

Statement of Special Agent David B. Grant, United States Secret Service, concerning his activities and official duties on November 22, 1963. Statement dated December 1, 1963.

Shortly before 9 am on Friday, November 22, 1963, SA Lawson and I arrived at the Dallas Trade Mart. SA Lawson and I checked the final preparations for the President's visit. SA Lawson remained at the Trade Mart for a short while and then departed for Love Field, Dallas, Texas, to set up security arrangements prior to the President's arrival.

After SA Lawson departed I discussed the luncheon arrangements with representatives of the Trade Mart and assisted them with the seating of the President and guests at the head table, and any other problems that came up before the President arrived.

With SA's Stueart and Howlett, Dallas Field Office, I rechecked the police security both inside the Trade Mart and outside at the parking lot area where the motorcade would arrive.

At approximately 12 Noon I met ATSAIC Stout, SA's Johnsen, Sulliman, Olsson and Berger who had arrived in Dallas prior to the President, and they were transported to the Trade Mart by police car. I gave them a briefing on the arrangements and assigned them to their respective posts.

A short time prior to the scheduled arrival of the President, I located Mr. Crow and Mr. Stemmons, co-owners of the Trade Mart, and we went to the entrance where the President would arrive and we discussed the procedure they should use when greeting the President and escorting him to the head table.

While waiting at the entrance where the motorcade would arrive, at approximately 12:25 pm I called the White House switchboard and requested the board to contact the motorcade and have them give me a five minute signal before their arrival. This telephone was located just inside the entrance. I then continued my discussions with Mr. Crow and Mr. Stemmons outside the entrance where the President's car would stop. In a few minutes the White House telephone rang and I was told that the motorcade had given the five minute signal.

I went back outside with Mr. Crow and Mr. Stemmons to await the arrival. In a short while I heard sirens approaching along the motorcade route. The motorcade went by the Trade Mart at a great rate of speed and I noticed that there was no one seated upright in the back seat of the Presidential limousine and that there was a person lying across the trunk of the car.

After observing this I immediately called the White House switchboard for information as to what had happened. The operator on the board informed me that he had no information other than he had heard on the base radio that the President had been "hit" and that the motorcade had been instructed to proceed to the nearest hospital. I then instructed the switchboard to find out what hospital the President had been taken to, and the extent of his injury. At this time I did not know that the President had been shot. I thought that some one had thrown a rock or a stick which had hit him. After receiving this information I went into the Trade Mart and informed ATSAIC Stout that something had happened to the President.

ATSAIC Stout and I discussed the incident and decided that we and the other agents should remain at the Trade Mart in the event the injury to the President had not been serious, and that he would after treatment at the hospital return to the Trade Mart for the luncheon as scheduled.

While awaiting further information, people arrived at the Trade Mart who had been part of the motorcade. These individuals had been in cars that had been unable to keep up with the front part of the motorcade as it sped to the hospital. They indicated to me and to others that there had been some shooting and that the President had been wounded. Upon hearing this, all agents that were assigned to the Trade Mart building proceeded by Police car to the Parkland Hospital and assumed posts in the area of the emergency room where the President had been taken.

I remained on duty at the Parkland Hospital. While at the hospital ATSAIC Stout informed me of the death of the President. I remained at the hospital until the hearse carrying the body of the President, with Mrs. Kennedy riding in the back, departed the hospital for the airport. I rode in the front seat of a Lincoln convertible which was used as a follow-up car directly behind the hearse from Parkland Hospital to Love Field, Dallas, Texas. I assisted in getting the coffin out of the hearse and carrying it aboard Air Force I.

I remained at Love Field from that time until Air Force I departed for Washington, D. C.

After the departure of Air Force I, SA Lawson, Chief of Police Curry, and I proceeded to Dallas Police Headquarters. There had been a radio report that an individual had just been apprehended for the murder of a Dallas police officer. The thought was that the assassination of the President and the murder of the Dallas Police officer could be related.

Upon arriving at Police Headquarters we located SAIC Sorrels who was in conference with Captain Fritz, Homicide Supervisor, Dallas Police Department. From this time until approximately 4 am the morning of November 23, when I departed Police Headquarters with Inspector Kelley, who had arrived late that evening, I, along with SAIC Sorrels, SA Lawson, and other agents from the Dallas Field office, assisted the Dallas Police and Captain Fritz with the homicide investigation.

I returned to Dallas Police Headquarters at 8 am this same morning with Inspector Kelley. I remained at Police Headquarters providing what assistance I could until approximately 8:30 pm. I departed Dallas, Texas, aboard American Airlines, flight No. 628, at approximately 12 Midnight carrying a blowup of the photograph showing Oswald holding a rifle similar to the one used in the assassination which I was to deliver to our agents at the White House.

I arrived in Washington, D. C., at approximately 7 am the morning of November 24, 1963, and delivered the photograph to the White House.

Statement of Special Agent David B. Grant, White House Detail, concerning advance arrangements made at Dallas, Texas, November 19-22, 1963, for the visit of President Kennedy to Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963. Statement made on December 1, 1963.

I arrived in Dallas, Texas, aboard Delta Air Lines flight No. 821 at approximately 7:30 pm the night of Monday, November 18, 1963, from Palm Beach, Florida, to assist SA Lawson in the arrangements for the President's visit. I was met upon my arrival by SA Lawson who transported me to my hotel.

The next morning, Tuesday, November 19, 1963, SA Lawson and I went to the Dallas Field Office where I met SAIC Sorrels and the other field office agents. SA Lawson and SAIC Sorrels briefed me on the arrangements that had been made for the visit. After this briefing we proceeded to the Dallas Trade Mart and met with representatives of the Trade Mart and Dallas Police Department. We discussed again with these individuals the Committee's program and the President's activity while he was attending the luncheon. We then surveyed the building extensively with senior Dallas Police Department officers locating security post assignments throughout the building.

On Wednesday, November 20, 1963, I accompanied SAIC Sorrels and SA Lawson to Love Field where the spotting of Air Force I was discussed, the forming of the motorcade, the route of the motorcade, off the ramp, and general security arrangements were agreed upon. When we departed Love Field we returned to the Dallas Trade Mart for more discussions with the representatives there.

On Thursday, November 21, 1963, SAIC Sorrels and I met SA Lawson at Mr. Sam Bloom's office in Dallas. Mr. Bloom was one of SA Lawson's contacts for the visit. Following the meeting there, we proceeded to Love Field and finalized the security arrangements at the airport with Dallas Police officers.

After departing the airport we returned to the Trade Mart again and had discussions with their representatives.

SAIC Sorrels, SA Lawson, and I then went to the Continental Bus Company where SA Lawson briefed the supervisors on the requirements and duties of the buses and drivers in the motorcade.

When we departed the bus company we proceeded to Police Headquarters where Chief of Police Curry and his senior officers responsible for the various areas involved were gathered for a final meeting.

At this meeting the entire security arrangements for the visit were discussed. SA Lawson went over the entire visit, from the time of the President's arrival at Love Field until his departure. Security at Love Field, the Trade Mart, the motorcade and identifications were the subject of discussion.

Each senior police officer concerned with the visit was present and was provided with all information regarding the President's visit to pass down to their commands.

SUBJECT: Activities of this Special Agent in Dallas, Texas, on Friday, November 22, 1963.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, this Special Agent was a member of the 4:00 P.M. - 12:00 P.M. shift under ATSAIC Stout which departed Fort Worth, Texas via U.S.A.F. # 6970 at 11:20 A.M., arriving at Dallas, Texas, Love Field, at 11:40 A.M. Upon deplaning, we were met by SA Lawson, the White House Detail Advance Agent, who instructed us to depart for the Dallas Trade Mart in waiting unmarked Dallas Police cars. Upon arriving at the Trade Mart, I reported to SA Grant, another White House Detail Advance Agent, who assigned me to my post which was the left front of the Head Table.

When word came to ATSAIC Stout at the Trade Mart that the President had been shot, he asked us to return to our awaiting police cars, and proceed to the Parkland Memorial Hospital. Arriving at the Hospital, we helped set-up security in the area around the emergency ward. Shortly after 2:00 P.M., SA Hill asked SAs Grant, Olsson, and myself to clear the hallway outside of the emergency room, and do the same outside the emergency entrance to the hospital, so that the President's body could be taken out of the hospital, and into the awaiting hearse. As the hearse left the hospital under police escort, I along with other agents of the 4:00 P.M.-12:00 P.M. shift jumped into a 4-door Lincoln which was in the motorcade, and followed the hearse to Love Field. I then helped remove the casket from the hearse, and into U.S.A.F. # 26000. U.S.A.F. # 26000 departed Love Field at 2:00 P.M. arriving in Washington D.C. (Andrews AFB) at 6:00 P.M.

FIELD OFFICE - Dallas, Texas
AGENT - John Joe Howlett
DATE - November 22, 1963

On November 22, 1963, I was assigned to assist in the security at the Trade Mart, 2100 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas, for the President's Visit

At 7 A.M. on November 22, 1963, I met SA Robert A. Steuart at the Secret Service Office, Dallas. SA Steuart and I proceeded to the Trade Mart in SS Car No. 361. I immediately took post at the entrance and briefed the Trade Mart People on entrance identification. At about 8:30 A.M. I met with a representative of the Dallas Power and Light Company and we went down to the tunnel under the entrance where President Kennedy was to enter. We completely inspected both tunnels and equipment and one was locked and one was left unlocked. Dallas police officers at the tunnel entrances were instructed to let no one in the tunnels unless a Secret Service Agent was present.

I returned to my post of duty and checked on the entrance procedures in process. I then went to the head table and assisted SA Robert A. Steuart by crawling under the head table and making an inspection for any dangerous objects and stability of the head table platform.

I then returned to my post of duty to check on entrance procedures and remained at this point except when it was necessary to leave in order to talk with SA Robert A. Steuart, SA Winn Lawson, and SA Dave Grant, or one of the committee members.

I was informed of the five minute arrival time and a few minutes later was advised by SA Dave Grant that the President had been hit with something and to remain at my post of duty. A short time later, it was confirmed that the President had been shot, and I was advised by one of the Special Agents of the White House Detail to get SA Robert A. Steuart and proceed to Parkland Hospital.

I located SA Robert A. Steuart in vicinity of head table and informed him we were to proceed to Parkland Hospital. I then drove SA Steuart's car to Parkland Hospital with SA Steuart.

I was advised upon arrival at Parkland Hospital to take security in the hallway leading to the emergency room. A few minutes later, I was advised by a Special Agent of the White House Detail to assist them in taking the President's car to Love Field. I then left my post and went to the President's car at the emergency entrance of Parkland Hospital.

DATE - November 22, 1963

About five minutes later, we departed Parkland Hospital with the President's car (I was riding in the right front seat) and the Secret Service follow-up car, with a police motorcycle escort.

We drove the cars into the vicinity of the Continental Hangar at Love Field and secured the cars and kept the people at a distance of about 100 feet. The police motorcycle officer radioed the police at Love Field that we needed assistance to get the cars across the runways to where the Air Force cargo plane was parked. About five minutes later, the Love Field Police Car arrived and determined the parking area where the Air Force cargo plane was located. They then received clearance from the Love Field Tower and they escorted us to the cargo plane.

Several crew members of the cargo plane were present upon our arrival and they immediately handcranked the cargo plane's doors open. The President's car was then placed in the aircraft.

About ten minutes later, I received a ride in the Love Field Police car to the area where Air Force I was parked. I then set up my post at the left rear about 60 feet from Air Force I. I remained at this post until Air Force I departed Love Field.

SUBJECT: Activities of this Special Agent in Dallas, Texas, on Friday,
November 22, 1963.

On Friday, November 22, 1963, this Special Agent was a member of the 4:00PM - 12:00AM shift under ATSAIC Stout which departed Fort Worth, Texas via USAF # 6970 at 11:20 A.M. arriving at Dallas, Texas, Love Field, at 11:40 A.M. Upon deplaning we were met by SA Lawson, the White House Detail Advance Agent, who instructed us to depart for the Dallas Trade Mart in waiting unmarked Dallas Police cars. Upon arriving at the Trade Mart, I reported to SA Grant, another White House Detail Advance Agent, who assigned me my designated post which was the press area in the second balcony.

When I received word from a newspaper man that the President had been shot I immediately went downstairs to tell ATSAIC Stout, who at this time was confirming the incident. At this time I saw Doctor Burkley and Chief Hendricks and asked them to accompany me to Parkland Hospital in a Police car which they did. Upon arriving at the hospital I assumed a post in the entrance of the emergency room. The remainder of the 4:00PM - 12:00AM shift then arrived with SA Johnsen being posted with me. Soon after Mr. Dave Powers asked where the priest was. With SA Johnsen holding our post the reporting agent went to the outside of the hospital where I saw two Catholic priests who I asked to accompany me to the emergency room.

Shortly thereafter FBI agent Vincent E. Drain, commission book # 5067, Dallas office arrived at the room entrance. He showed me his credentials & said he had received a telephone call from Director Hoover telling him to make himself available to us. This information was conveyed to ASAIC Kellerman. When I inquired of Agent Drain who the unidentified male was who accompanied him, he replied that he was a doctor friend of his. The agent & unidentified male then proceeded to the end of the hall. Approximately 5 minutes subsequent to the visit of agent Drain a unidentified CIA agent, after showing his credentials said that he would be available.

At approximately 1:30 PM, the Chief Supervising nurse, a Mrs Nelson started to enter the emergency room with an unidentified male (WM, 45yrs, 6'2", 185-190lbs, grey hair). As the reporting agent and SA Johnsen started to ask his identity he shouted that he was a FBI. Just as we began to ask for his credentials he abruptly attempted to enter the emergency room and had to be forcibly restrained by us. ASAIC Kellerman then appeared and asked this individual to go to the end of the hall.

Congressman Olin E. Nurse Nelson was also interviewed by this agent in the presence of SA Johnson and Congressman Teague and stated that the unidentified FBI agent had not shown us any credentials nor any to her.

At approximately 2:00PM the President's body was taken from the hospital to an awaiting hearse. At this time ASAC Kellerman instructed me to drive the hearse which I did accompanied by ASAC Kellerman, ATSAIC Stout, SA Hill and Mrs Kennedy. Shortly thereafter we arrived at Love Field under police escort. I then helped remove the casket from the hearse and into USAF # 26000. # 26000 departed Love Field at 2:47 PM arriving in Washington D.C. (Andrews AFB) at 6:00PM. FIELD OFFICE - Dallas, Texas
 AGENT - Robert A. Stewart
 DATE - November 22, 1963

On November 22, 1963, about 7 A. M., met Special Agent John Joe Howlett at the Dallas office. We proceeded together to the Trade Mart Building, 2100 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas, to take up our posts of duty, in connection with the President's visit to Dallas. We traveled in government owned auto SS-361.

My post of duty was the area of the building, immediately back of the Speaker's table and platform. Was assisted by SA Howlett in securing the platform itself. He crawled under entire platform with a flashlight and I held up bunting sides of platform to give him light and to receive a few shreds of bunting that had been left there apparently by the decorating committee.

My area to hold secure was a space about 80' x 40' in size. There was a small kidney-shaped pool back of the speaker's platform, about 8' x 25' in size. There was also a small gazebo (Japanese summer-house) built adjoining the pool. During the morning I was contacted from time to time by Special Agent David B. Grant, who was introduced to me by Special Agent Winston G. Lawson. Also during the morning I was joined by Captain J. W. Fritz and other officers under his command, to assist in security at this post.

I was informed of the five minute arrival time of expected arrival. A few moments later Special Agent Grant informed Special Agent Howlett and myself that he just learned the President had been hit with something; that we should remain at our duty post. A few minutes later Special Agent Howlett rushed to me saying he had instructions from a White House Agent that both of us should proceed immediately to Parkland Memorial Hospital. We drove there, SA Howlett driving, in SS-361.

At the Parkland Memorial Hospital, 5201 Harry Hines Blvd., Dallas, Tex., I took up temporary post of duty at a door to a room at the Emergency section. After the President's death was announced I returned to the Dallas District office and took over duties at the telephone, to correlate activities of other agents.

SUBJECT: Activities of Reporting Agent on November 22, 1963

I arrived at Dallas International Airport aboard "SAF #6970 at 11:40 AM. I, together with ATSAIC Stout and SAs Sullimon, Berger and Olsson, was met upon deplaning by SA Lawson. SA Lawson directed us to two awaiting Dallas Police Department Detective cars. We were driven directly to the Dallas Trade Mart by two Dallas Police Department detectives.

Upon our arrival at the Trade Mart we were met by SA Grant who directed the two cars to a reserved parking area. The detectives were instructed by SA Grant to remain with their cars until the conclusion of the ceremonies at the Trade Mart and then to drive those agents who rode with them back to the airport.

We were then posted in the Trade Mart by SA Grant. As I remember ATSAIC Stout was seated directly in front of the podium of the speakers stand; SAs Olsson and Sullivan on either side of the speakers stand; and SA Berger in the 1st Balcony with the movie cameras. I was assigned to the ground floor press area. Upon being posted I was informed by SA Grant that the President should arrive in approximately 50 minutes. Being that there were no press in the area I was assigned I walked onto the speakers stand and made an additional safety and security check.

After having checked the speakers stand I walked to where SA Sullivan was posted. Shortly thereafter I was informed by the press that the President had been shot. I went to the Presidential Entrance of the Trade Fair and notified SA Grant. He instructed me to notify the others on my shift and go directly to the hospital the President had been taken to. ATSAIC Stout and the others on his shift rode to the hospital in our assigned detective cars.

Upon arriving at Parkland Hospital I positioned myself with SA Berger at the door leading to the President Kennedy's room. At various times I was taken from this post and positioned outside the Vice President's room with SA Pennett.

At approximately 1:30 P.M. I was outside of the President's room with SA Berger when Chief Nurse Nelson entered the President's room. She was followed by an unidentified man (WM, 40-45 yrs, 6'2", 185 lbs, grey hair). When SA Berger and I stopped him he said, "F.B.I.", and made a determined effort to enter the President's room. We stopped him and asked for his credentials. He again tried to forcibly enter the President's room and had to be restrained. After he had been subdued he produced his F.B.I. credentials. At this time ASAIC Kellerman appeared and asked the F.B.I. agent to go to the end of the hall.

Congressman Olin E. Teague (D-Texas) witnessed this incident. SA Berger was assured by the Congressman that the F.B.I. man had not attempted to produce any identification and appeared to be determined to enter the President's room. He stated that if there were any inquiries that he would be more than glad to give a statement in our Service's behalf.

Nurse Nelson was interviewed by SA Berger in my presence. She stated that the F.B.I. agent had showed her no identification.

Approximately 5 minutes prior to leaving the hospital with the casket and Mrs. Kennedy I was instructed to remain at the Presidential door and wait to be advised that the casket was leaving the hospital and then to ride the follow-up car to the airport. During this period a Mr. Wright from the security staff came to me with an expended bullet and wished to turn it over to a Secret Service Agent. The only information I was able to get from him prior to the departure of Mrs. Kennedy and the casket was that the bullet had been found on a stretcher which President Kennedy may have been placed on. He also stated that he found rubber gloves, a stethoscope, and other doctors' paraphernalia on this same stretcher.

On the drive from the hospital to AF #1 I rode the follow-up car. Upon our arrival at AF #1 I assisted in placing the casket upon USAF #26000. While awaiting for the departure of AF #1 I was instructed by STSAIC Stout to ride in the rear of the plane with the casket. This had been a request of President Johnson.

Upon our arrival at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., I positioned myself near the press area. After the statement to the press by President Johnson I rode helicopter #2 to the White House.

STATEMENT OF JOE HENRY RICH, TEXAS HIGHWAY PATROLMAN, MADE ON NOVEMBER 28, 1963.

My name is Joe Henry Rich, employed by the Texas Highway Patrol, and I was assigned to drive the Vice President's security car November 22, 1963. As we came into the downtown area where the crowd was extra heavy, I was instructed by the Secret Service man to stay as close to the Vice President's cars as possible and so that actually about the only thing I was watching was the car ahead of me. I was staying right on his bumper. We turned off of Houston Street onto Elm Street and that was when I heard the first shot. I noticed a lot of confusion up ahead of me, motorcycle policemen and in the President's car and the President's security car. This Secret Service man in the front seat with me made the remark, "What the hell was that" and about that time I heard two more shots. There could have been more shots, but I could not say. The cars ahead of me started up then at a fast pace and the Secret Service man advised me to get the hell out of there, so I stayed as close as I could to the Vice President's car on the way to the hospital and as we pulled into the hospital at Parkland, the Secret Service man in my car got out as soon as we stopped. I stayed back with my car, but I did see them get Governor Connally out of the car and also take the President out of the car.

After that I was more or less doing security and keeping people back, etc. That is about all I have. Actually I did not see too much.

My name is Milton T. Wright, Texas Highway Patrolman, Badge No. 790. On November 22 I was assigned to drive a 63 Mercury Comet convertible that contained the Mayor and his wife and a U. S. Congressman. We turned onto Houston Street, the parade was going real well and speed was beginning to pick up and the crowd was beginning to thin right at this point. The car I was driving had just turned onto Elm Street and approximately 30 feet from the intersection when I heard the first shot. When the second shot was fired I noticed a number of people running away from the Motorcade and I saw several Dallas motorcycle policemen had their guns drawn. Then the motorcade speeded up and we went toward the hospital at a high rate of speed. I could see the President's car but I could not see anyone in the back seat. The only people I could see were the Agents. At the hospital we unloaded the Governor first and then the President. Then we were instructed to keep the news media away from the car.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1025

Statement of Gerald A. Behn, Special Agent in Charge,
White House Detail

The policy of special agents covering the presidential vehicle is flexible and is based on the speed of the motorcade; the amount and type of accompanying escort; the number, enthusiasm, and character of the people watching the motorcade and how well-controlled they are by the police; and finally, but certainly not least but perhaps the dominant factor, the desire or instructions of the President.

There is always an experienced agent riding in the front seat of the presidential vehicle and there is an experienced agent either riding in the front seat of our follow-up car or standing on the front right running board. Either one or both of these agents have the authority, if it becomes necessary, to either motion or tell the agents in the follow-up car to take their positions around the presidential car at any time.

As stated in the first paragraph the desires and instructions of the President were a major factor in this policy. On numerous occasions during motorcades where the pace was slow and crowds were fairly well-controlled by the police, but the agents were none the less in position around the presidential car, the President would either tell me to tell the agents, or he would attempt to tell the agents on his side of the car, to get back.

In Mexico City in June, 1962, an individual who had the appearance of a typical beatnik worked his way out into the middle of the street during the welcoming motorcade and attempted to stop the President's car. When he found out the driver would not stop, he came around the car on the President's side and I hit him and knocked him down. The President immediately told me I should not have done this. This individual was arrested by the Mexican police, questioned and it was discovered he was an American citizen who had overstayed his visa and who had a police record in this country.

In West Berlin last June the pace of the motorcade was, for the most of the route, between 10 and 12 miles per hour and the West Berlin police did a remarkable job of controlling the huge crowds. However, there were occasions when individuals would break away from the police lines, evade the motorcycle escort and stand out near the middle of the street waiting for the President's car to reach them.

On these occasions the agents on the running boards of the follow-up car would leap off, run forward and push the West Berliners away from the car. Practically every time this happened, the President would either tell me to tell the agents or would attempt to tell the agents themselves not to do this. His feeling was that these people only wanted to shake his hand and should not be pushed away from him.

Shortly after I was promoted to Special Agent in Charge of the White House Detail, and I believe this occurred during the late President's trip in November, 1961, to Seattle, Phoenix, Bonham, Texas, and other stops, he told me that he did not want agents riding on the back of his car. As late as November 18, of last year, he told ASAIC Boring the same thing. He gave me no reason for this.

Statement of Floyd M. Boring, Assistant Special Agent in Charge,
White House Detail

I was on duty in Tampa, Florida, November 18, 1963, and was riding in the right front seat of the presidential limousine. The presidential party departed Lopez Field and was motorcading through downtown Tampa towards the Armory. Special Agents Lawton and Zboril were working, on the ground on either side of the limousine, as the crowds were heavy. As the crowds thinned out and the motorcade increased in speed, the agents jumped onto the rear steps of the limousine. Shortly thereafter the President requested the agents return to the follow-up car. I transmitted this information by radio to ATSAIC Roberts in the follow-up car. The agents dismounted about three minutes later or as soon as our speed allowed.

A similar request was made by President Kennedy to me on July 2, 1963, when the presidential party was returning to the U. S. Embassy residence from the Vatican in Rome, Italy.

It was the understanding among the agents on the White House Detail assigned to the President that they should not jump onto the rear steps of the presidential limousine when the crowds along the route were sparse unless it was absolutely necessary.

On November 18, 1963 during Presidential motorcade in Tampa, Florida, ASAIC Boring, who was riding in right front seat of the Presidential car, contacted me by radio, to get the men off the back of the President's car.

I was in charge of the Special Agents working the Secret Service follow-up car, which was immediately behind the Presidential car.

Special Agent Donald Lawton was on the right rear step and Special Agent Charles Zboril was on the left rear step of the President's car.

As the motorcade was going too fast at the time ASAIC Floyd Boring radioed me, for the men to get off, I had them crouch on the steps and they got off the President's car, when it slowed down enough for them to jump off.

Statement of John D. Ready, Special Agent, U.S. Secret Service,
White House Detail.

It was common knowledge among the majority of the White House Detail agents that President John F. Kennedy, on several occasions, had asked that agents not ride on the rear steps of the presidential limousine.

Although I was not in Tampa, Florida, Monday, November 18, 1963, it was known to me that President Kennedy requested, through Assistant Special Agent in Charge Floyd M. Boring, that two agents be removed from the rear steps of the presidential vehicle during a motorcade in that city.

STATEMENT OF SPECIAL AGENT CLINTON J. HILL, UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE, PERTAINING TO REQUESTS BY THE LATE PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY THAT SPECIAL AGENTS NOT RIDE ON THE REAR OF THE PRESIDENTIAL AUTOMOBILE.

; Special Agent Clinton J. Hill, never personally was requested by resident John F. Kennedy not to ride on the rear of the Presidential utomobile. I did receive information passed verbally from the administrative offices of the White House Detail of the Secret Service o Agents assigned to that Detail that President Kennedy had made such equests. I do not know from whom I received this information. It was eneral knowledge on the White House Detail, however, that President ennedy had asked Special Agent in Charge Gerald A. Behn, not to have pecial Agents ride on the rear of the Presidential Automobile. No ritten instructions regarding this were ever distributed.

was informed that on November 18, 1963, in Tampa, Florida, President ennedy had requested through Assistant Special Agent in Charge Floyd M. oring, that Special Agents remove themselves from the rear of the residential automobile. I was not on this specific trip with the White ouse Detail and received this information after the President's return o Washington, D. C. This would have been between November 19, 1963 and ovember 21, 1963. I do not know specifically who advised me of this equest by the President.

n November 22, 1963, during the Presidential motorcade in Dallas, Texas, rior to the assassination of President Kennedy, I did ride on the rear
f the Presidential automobile on approximately four (4) separate instances. his was necessitated by the fact that motorcycles which were flanking the residential automobile on the left side were forced to drop back from their ormal positions because of the closeness of the crowd on this side which id not allow sufficient room for the motorcycles to continue moving. I id on these specific instances, move from my position on the front portion f the left running board to the left rear step of the Presidential automobile.
I was not requested by anyone to do so, and there was not sufficient time nvolved for such a request to be made, but rather did so at my own discretion.
I considered this action necessary because of the proximity of the general ublic to the left side of the Presidential automobile.

U. S. Secret Service

General Counsel

DATE: March 19, 1964

SUBJECT: Secret Service Report on the Assassination of President Kennedy

In response to the request made in the first paragraph of a letter to the Secretary from the General Counsel of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, dated February 28, 1964, there follows a narrative summary of the protective activities of the Secret Service at Parkland Hospital and the return to the White House on November 22, 1963.

The motorcade, under police escort, consisting of:

1. The Lead Car, driven by the Dallas Chief of Police, occupied by Sheriff Decker, SAIC Forrest Sorrels, and SA Winston Lawson;
2. The President's Car, driven by SA William Greer, occupied by ASAC Roy Kellerman, President Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy, Governor Connally, and Mrs. Connally;
3. The President's Follow-Up Car, driven by SA Samuel Kinney, occupied by ATSAIC Emory Roberts, SA Clinton Hill, SA William McIntyre, SA John Ready, SA Paul Landis, SA Glen Bennett, SA George Hickey, and Mr. Dave Powers and Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell;
4. The Vice President's Car, driven by Hurchel Jacks of the Texas Department of Public Safety, occupied by ASAC Rufus Youngblood, Vice President Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, and Senator Ralph Yarborough;
5. Vice President's Follow-Up Car, driven by Joe Henry Rich of the Texas Department of Public Safety, occupied by ATSAIC Thomas Johns, SA Jerry Kivett, SA Warren Taylor, and Mr. Cliff Carter of the Vice President's Staff arrived at the Parkland Hospital at approximately 12:34 p.m., Central Standard Time.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1026

Special Agent Lawson entered the hospital and obtained two stretchers on wheels. Special Agents Hill, Roberts, Greer, Kellerman and Lawson assisted in removing the President and Governor Connally from the car. Governor Connally was placed on one stretcher, President Kennedy was placed on the other, and each was taken to a separate emergency room. Mrs. Kennedy remained in close proximity to the President within the emergency area at all times. Special Agents Hill and Landis were with Mrs. Kennedy throughout her ordeal at the hospital. SA Landis kept unauthorized persons from the area in which Mrs. Kennedy waited for word of the President's condition. SA Lawson remained at the entrance to the emergency room where the President was being cared for, and requested a nurse to identify all hospital personnel who should be admitted. ASAIC Kellerman, from a nearby doctor's room, placed a call to SAIC Behn at the White House. ASAIC Kellerman informed SAIC Behn that the President and Governor Connally had been shot and were in emergency rooms at the Parkland Memorial Hospital. The line was then kept open until Mrs. Kennedy departed from the hospital, and SAIC Behn was kept advised of developments as they occurred. The blood type of the President was furnished to the medical staff by ASAIC Kellerman. A security cordon was formed around the emergency area by ASAIC Kellerman and Special Agents Greer, Ready, Kinney, Hickey and Howlett, of the Secret Service, and an undetermined number of the Dallas Police. Press and unauthorized persons were refused admittance to the area.

Vice President and Mrs. Johnson were placed in a separate hospital room in the vicinity of the emergency rooms within the secured area. They were accompanied by ASAIC Youngblood and Special Agents Kivett, Bennett, McIntyre and Taylor. SA Bennett assumed a post at the door of the Vice President's suite. Special Agents Kivett and Taylor had cleared other occupants from the room and had drawn the blinds. Mrs. Johnson, accompanied by Special Agents Kivett and Taylor, left the area briefly to visit Mrs. Connally on another floor of the hospital.

Shortly after his arrival, the Vice President sent SA Taylor for ASAIC Kellerman and inquired of the condition of the President and the Governor. He was told that the Governor was in surgery and that the doctors were still working on the President. He asked to be kept informed of the President's condition.

SA Kivett called Headquarters and arranged for security to be placed upon Miss Lynda Johnson at the University of Texas, and Miss Lucy Johnson at the National Cathedral School in Washington.

ASAIC Kellerman authorized the return of the President's car to the airport for loading aboard a C-130 for the return to Washington, D. C. The purpose was to preserve its condition unchanged for the earliest possible examination. The car was driven to Love Field by SA Hickey, accompanied by SA Kinney; both accompanied it in the aircraft on the return flight.

ATSAIC Stout and Special Agents Grant, Sulliman, Olsson, Berger and Johnson, of the 4 to 12 shift of the White House Detail, who had been awaiting the President's arrival at the Trade Mart, joined the security group at the hospital and replaced ATSAIC Roberts' shift on the secured emergency area. The Secret Service shift, consisting of ATSAIC Roberts, and Special Agents McIntyre, Bennett and Ready, who had been riding in the follow-up car at the time of the shooting, supplemented the Vice Presidential Detail, consisting of ASAIC Youngblood, ATSAIC Johns and Special Agents Taylor and Kivett, in assuming responsibility for the protection of the Vice President and Mrs. Johnson in the hospital.

ATSAIC Roberts, upon request of the Vice President, discussed with Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell the necessity and practicability of the Vice President returning to Washington on Air Force 1. Mr. O'Donnell indicated to the Vice President that he could leave Dallas.

ATSAIC Emory Roberts made arrangements with the Dallas Police to have unmarked police cars for the Vice President, the Presidential party and a group of Secret Service agents to return to Love Field.

SA Lawson notified Secret Service Special Agents from the White House Detail, who were in Austin, Texas, to return to Washington immediately. He then assisted in preparing the motorcade for the return to Love Field.

At 1 p.m., ASAIC Kellerman was advised of the death of the President by Doctor Burkley, and Vice President Johnson was notified of the death of the President by members of the President's Staff in the presence of Secret Service Agents Kellerman, Youngblood and Kivett.

While SAIC Behn was being informed of the situation in the hospital, SA Hill had advised the Attorney General that the President had been seriously injured by gunfire. Upon being told of the death of the President, SA Hill contacted the Attorney General and advised him of the President's death.

Arrangements were made through the Air Force Aide by ASAIC Youngblood and SA Kivett for the President's plane (Air Force 1) to be made ready for the return to Washington. SA Lawton, at Love Field, had issued orders that no press would be admitted to the vicinity of Air Force 1. Security on the plane had been completed by Air Force sentries and Secret Service Agents Lawton, Rybka, Patterson and Warner, who had remained at Love Field awaiting the return of the Presidential party.

All persons, except security and maintenance personnel, had been cleared from the area and the buildings overlooking the plane site. A large detail of Dallas police arrived, dispatched by Chief Curry, to assist in the security.

After the Vice President had been notified of the death of the President, Mr. Malcolm Kilduff, Assistant Press Secretary, entered President Johnson's room about 1:13 p.m., and it was decided that the notification of the death of President Kennedy would not be released to the Press until President Johnson had left the hospital. A decision had been made by Mrs. Kennedy and the White House Staff to return the body of President Kennedy to Washington in Air Force 1.

President Johnson, accompanied by Mr. Cliff Carter and ASAIC Youngblood, left Parkland Hospital in an unmarked police car, driven by Police Chief Curry, under escort for Love Field, where they boarded Air Force 1. During the ride, President Johnson was shielded by Youngblood. Mrs. Johnson rode in a police car directly behind President Johnson. She was accompanied by Congressman Brooks and Special Agents Warren Taylor, Jerry Kivett and Glen Bennett of the Secret Service. In the car immediately behind her, driven by a Dallas policeman, was ATSAIC Roberts, Special Agents Ready and McIntyre, and Chief Warrant Officer Gearhart, a White House Communication Courier. Special Agent Johns followed in another police car.

President and Mrs. Johnson arrived at Love Field and boarded Air Force 1 at approximately 1:40 p.m. Special Agents present at Love Field and those who had arrived with President Johnson were posted in and around the aircraft. Aboard the aircraft President and Mrs. Johnson remained in the stateroom area. They were joined by Congressmen Thornberry, Brooks, and Thomas. ASAIC Youngblood remained with President Johnson at all times. The President called the Attorney General concerning the legal aspects of taking the oath of the Presidency. President Johnson then called Federal Judge Sarah Hughes and requested her to come to the plane. The President also requested that he be kept advised of the location of Mrs. Kennedy and the body of the late President and to inform him when the President's body would arrive. Mrs. Kennedy and the body of the late President arrived at the plane before Judge Hughes. Upon arrival of Judge Hughes the oath was administered at approximately 2:40 p.m. Photographs of the ceremony were taken by Cecil Stoughton, a United States Army photographer assigned to the White House. At the invitation of the President, the following persons witnessed the swearing-in ceremony, which took place in the Presidential compartment:

Mrs. Johnson	Mrs. Evelyn Lincoln	Rufus Youngblood
Mrs. Kennedy	Miss Marie Fehmer	Roy H. Kellerman
Jack Valenti	Miss Pamela Turnure	Thomas L. Johns
Cong. Homer Thornberry	Police Chief Curry	Paul E. Landis
Cong. Albert Thomas	William Moyers	Richard Johnsen
Cong. Jack Brooks	Malcolm Kilduff	Capt. Cecil Stoughton (Photographer)

After the death of President Kennedy, SA Hill was directed by Mr. Kenneth O'Donnell to obtain a casket so that the body of the President could be transported back to Washington as quickly as possible. The casket arrived at approximately 1:40 p.m., and was wheeled directly into the emergency room. The President's body was removed from the stretcher, upon which it had remained since his arrival at the hospital, and placed in the casket.

Special Agent Lawson, through Doctor Burkley, arranged with Sheriff William Decker for the release of President Kennedy's body.

A route was selected from the hospital to Love Field by ATSAIC Johns and police. A request was made by SA Grant to the police to have the route cleared. An ambulance of the O'Neal Mortuary Company stood by, and at approximately 1:58 p.m., Mrs. Kennedy and the President's body, accompanied by Secret Service Agents Kellerman, Stout, and Hill, left the hospital. A Secret Service car, driven by SA Greer, occupied by SA Landis, followed the hearse, which was driven by SA Berger and arrived at Love Field at 2:14 p.m. A Dallas police car, with SA Lawson, led the motorcade. The casket was placed in the left rear corner of Air Force 1 where four seats had been removed to provide the necessary space. One Special Agent was with the casket during the flight.

Air Force 1 arrived at Andrews Air Force Base at 5:58 p.m., at which time Attorney General Robert Kennedy joined Mrs. Kennedy aboard Air Force 1.

Security arrangements had been placed in effect at Andrews Air Force Base by Secret Service personnel from Headquarters, White House Detail, and the Washington Field Office, supplemented by a detail of Air Police, members of the Metropolitan and U. S. Park Police; the latter were used for escort duty. The public had been excluded from Andrews Air Force Base and only Government officials and Press were allowed in the vicinity of the air strip.

Upon alighting from the plane, the President was surrounded by the agents who accompanied him from Dallas and by a detail of Special Agents from the Washington Field Office and Headquarters, under the personal direction of Chief Rowley. This security cordon conducted the President to a press area where he spoke to the press, radio, and television correspondents, and then walked to his helicopter.

The President and Mrs. Johnson traveled by helicopter to the White House grounds, accompanied by Chief Rowley and ASAIC Youngblood. The President walked to his office in the Executive Office Building and appropriate post assignments were assumed by ASAIC Youngblood, ATSAIC Stout, and Special Agents Sulliman, Olsson, Berger, Johnsen, Kivett, Johns, and Taylor, who had accompanied the President from Dallas and who, except for ASAIC Youngblood, were in an accompanying helicopter from Andrews Air Force Base to the White House. Mrs. Johnson was driven to her residence, under escort, by SAIC Knight and ATSAIC Rundle, from Washington.

Special Agents Roberts, Ready, Lawton, and McIntyre returned on the back-up plane and remained on duty at the White House.

President Kennedy's body, Mrs. Kennedy, the Attorney General, General Godfrey McHugh, and Doctor Burkley, accompanied by ASAIC Kellerman and SA Landis, were driven in an ambulance by SA Greer to Bethesda Naval Hospital. Special Agents Hill and O'Leary followed in another vehicle.

ASAIC Kellerman and SA Greer remained at the Bethesda Hospital Morgue during the autopsy. SA Landis remained at the hospital at all times in the vicinity of Mrs. Kennedy's quarters on the 17th floor, where he and SA Hill secured the area and allowed into the suite only hospital personnel assigned to the area, the Kennedy family, and close personal friends. SA O'Leary assisted in this security. SA Hill was also present at the completion of the autopsy and the preparation of President Kennedy's body after the autopsy. ASAIC Kellerman and SA Greer assumed responsibility for President Kennedy's personal effects and the photographic records made of the autopsy.

The casket containing President Kennedy's body was taken from the U. S. Naval Hospital at 3:56 a.m., accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy, the Attorney General, and ASAIC Kellerman, in an ambulance driven by SA Greer, under police escort. SA Hill rode in a car immediately behind the ambulance. SA Landis followed in another car. The motorcade arrived at the White House at 4:24 a.m., and the casket was placed in the East Room of the White House.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1027

Question No. 1:

Does the Secret Service draw on other Treasury law enforcement activities for personnel and other assistance in protecting the President?

Answer:

The Secret Service is now experimenting with the use of other Treasury law enforcement agents on building and route surveys over areas frequently travelled by a President. Prior to Dallas other Treasury law enforcement agencies were used infrequently since these agencies receive no appropriations for such work, and the administrative problems involved in removing them from their regularly assigned work to that of Presidential protection are detrimental to fulfilling their own responsibilities. The Secret Service has traditionally taken the position, that since authority to protect the President was given by Congress to the Secret Service, it should not ask other enforcement agencies to assign personnel to this task. However, some of the new techniques with which the Secret Service is now experimenting require the use of large numbers of personnel for relatively short periods. We may, therefore, wish to change the present procedures in this area, but a final decision must await an evaluation of the new techniques now being tested.

Question No. 2:

Could the Secret Service be assisted in its Presidential protection operations by other Federal law enforcement agencies when the President is visiting cities in which they have agents? For example, it has been suggested that agents of all the Treasury Department enforcement units should be given a basic course in Presidential protection and assigned temporarily to this work when the President visits a city within their territory.

Answer:

The Secret Service can envision occasions when the assistance of other Federal law enforcement agencies to the Secret Service in its protection operations would be beneficial. For instance, during campaign trips an incumbent President travels widely and swiftly and may visit cities and towns where police facilities are limited and sufficient Secret Service personnel cannot be made available. In those situations we could make limited use of other Federal law enforcement agents to augment the Secret Service, but we would prefer to have Secret Service personnel available for these assignments.

There appears to be a misconception that an appropriation for additional Secret Service personnel would not be justified since they would not be engaged full time on Presidential protection activities; and, further, that the other Treasury agencies can spare the manpower for such protective assignments when needed. The Secret Service, too, has field installations which would, if additional personnel were made available, be able to conduct more effectively the investigation of counterfeiting and other crimes over which it has jurisdiction. We believe that the additional manpower required for protective surveys and assignments should be secured at least in the first instance from our own trained and experienced field forces rather than from the field forces of other Treasury enforcement or other Federal law enforcement agencies which are already hard pressed.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has received small appropriations for Presidential protection, and in addition to providing information and supplying a liaison officer, they have supplied agents, at the request of the Secret Service, in connection with a number of Presidential trips since November 22, 1963. We are working with the FBI to arrive at a practical relationship involving appropriate use of their personnel.

The suggestion that agents of the Treasury Department be given a basic course in Presidential protection is in large measure accomplished by our present procedure. In the basic Treasury Department Enforcement School an orientation course on Secret Service activities is provided in addition to lectures concerning the treatment of mentally deranged people and the handling of bombs. This gives each Treasury law enforcement agent basic information concerning the problems of protection, many of which are similar to other problems encountered by enforcement agencies.

Question No. 3:

Is too great a risk represented by having both the President and Vice President participate in a public function, such as the Dallas motorcade?

Answer:

The participation by both the President and the Vice President at any single public function obviously increases the risk of an assassination attempt because it may be assumed that at least certain categories of potential assassins would want to eliminate both the President and Vice President, thereby doing greater damage to our country. The Secret Service has no basis on which to evaluate the seriousness of this added risk, and obviously such added risk must be weighed against the political considerations which might lead the President and the Vice President to desire to appear together. Accordingly, we do not feel that it would be proper for us to express an opinion as to whether such a joint appearance is "too great a risk."

Question No. 4:

Describe what steps, if any, the Secret Service has taken since November 22, 1963, or which it intends to take, to revise its procedures in the following areas:

- (a) Liaison with other Federal, State and local law enforcement and intelligence agencies.
- (b) The activities of the Protective Research Section in identifying and maintaining timely information concerning individuals who are risks or potential risks to the life of the President.
- (c) Activities of the Protective Research Section in the development of devices for protecting the President.
- (d) Checks or inspections of buildings that are possible hazards along the route of the motorcade or other activities to add to protection.

Answer:

After the assassination of President Kennedy, the Secret Service initiated a broad review of its procedures in the field of Presidential protection. This review was put on a formal basis in response to a memorandum of Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, dated December 20, 1963, a copy of which was supplied to the Commission on February 4, 1964, by the Secretary of the Treasury. In the four months during which this study of procedures has been in progress, a number of changes have been instituted; additional changes are expected.

(a) and (b). The fact that the name of Lee H. Oswald was not furnished to the Protective Research Section prior to the time of the assassination made it clear that PRS criteria required re-examination. In particular, we have been re-examining the liaison procedures of the Secret Service with other law enforcement and intelligence agencies and the criteria employed by the Secret Service in identifying individuals who might be dangerous to the President. These two areas -- liaison with other agencies and identification of high risk individuals -- are closely connected because effective liaison and exchange of information is impractical unless we can identify -- and all of our intelligence agencies can agree on -- the types of individuals who constitute a risk to the President.

The Secret Service has been working with a panel set up in cooperation with the Scientific Advisor to the President and with the Rand Corporation to develop acceptable criteria. Whatever criteria are eventually adopted, we face a very difficult problem of keeping the numbers small enough so that effective protective action is possible. If the names in the PRS files were expanded to include the 3,000,000 or more individuals in the United States who are mentally ill and/or who are members of subversive groups, they would swamp the combined capabilities of our intelligence and law enforcement agencies, no matter how effective our liaison system. On the other hand, if the criteria are so restrictive that a future Lee H. Oswald were excluded, the utility of the files would be questionable. Our studies and those of the groups who are working with us are designed to produce an effective judgment as to where the proper line should be drawn.

Since the assassination, the Secret Service has received considerably more material from other Government agencies than theretofore. Additional contacts have been set up in Washington and an informal local law enforcement liaison committee is now established in any city which the President proposes to visit. A member of the PRS coordinates the activities of each such local committee in the intelligence area and travels with the advance agent to each city. We anticipate that the liaison procedures will be put on a more formal basis as we work out the criteria for high risk individuals and develop the mechanical or electronic devices and procedures necessary to handle a considerably larger input of information.

(c). The Secret Service has no funds for research and very limited funds for the acquisition of protective devices. In the fiscal year 1964 budget the Service requested $23,057 for two positions for technical specialists. The Congress did not make any appropriation covering this request and it was repeated in the 1965 budget request and has been included in the appropriation passed by the House several weeks ago. Over the years it has worked with other Government agencies to adapt their research to Service's requirements. It has intensified these contacts since the assassination. The Defense Department Office of Advanced Weapons Projects has been working with the Service, automobile manufacturers, and others, to develop secure Presidential automobiles and certain other protective facilities. The Office of the President's Scientific Advisor has assisted the Service in establishing contacts with several commercial firms and working out plans for an automatic data processing card file system for PRS and certain other projects. We are hopeful that it will be possible soon to place the research and development activities of the Service on a more formal basis.

(d). Since November 22, 1963, the Secret Service has made inspections of buildings along the route of a motorcade to further evaluate the practicability and the usefulness of these checks. It is our opinion that anything we do in this area would furnish some degree of additional protection to the President. However, there are a number of practical limitations to the utility of inspecting buildings prior to a Presidential visit. There are many opportunities for persons to enter buildings after inspection; buildings may be fully occupied during the motorcade and windows may be opened by occupants. We are continuing to evaluate our inspection techniques in the light of the known limitations.

Question No. 5:

In view of such changes that the Secret Service has made or intends to make in its procedures in effect on November 22, 1963, does it require additional funds, equipment or personnel? If so, how much?

Answer:

The Secret Service believes that it will require additional funds; however, until the present studies are completed, it is not possible to state what additional funds, equipment and personnel will be required. In the fiscal year 1965 the Secret Service has requested funds for an additional 25 positions. The House of Representatives has included the requested funds in the Treasury-Post Office Appropriations Bill which it passed several weeks ago. These funds will not be sufficient to take the additional measures which we believe are required. However, since the 1965 budget figures had to be submitted in November, 1963, it was not possible to make specific and properly justified requests at that time. We should be in a position to do so in the fiscal year 1966 budget submission.

Question No. 6:

(a) Would it assist the Secret Service in its Presidential protection functions if murder of or assault upon the President, Vice President, and perhaps other high Government officials, should be made a federal crime?

(b) If assassination or attempted assassination were made a federal crime, which federal law enforcement agencies should be responsible for handling the investigative work?

(c) Would the Secret Service be assisted by a clear statutory expression of its authority in security matters, particularly with respect to the binding effect of its security advice upon the person under its protection?

(d) Is there any other legislative change that might be of assistance to the Secret Service in its Presidential protection functions?

Answer:

We are clearing answers to this question with the Bureau of the Budget and other federal agencies, and will supply a detailed answer when that process is completed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20220

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

June 8, 1964

Mr. J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C. 20002

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In response to your letter of June 1, we find that many of the old records which might have revealed reliable information about the complement of agents in the past years have been destroyed in accordance with the Retirement and Disposition of Records Program of the Federal Government.

Based on recollections of older members of the Secret Service, we estimate that the first White House Detail, protecting President Theodore Roosevelt, consisted of two or three agents. Apparently they did not work on regularly scheduled shifts, but remained close to the President until he retired for the night. When the President traveled, the number of agents was increased to five or six.

The number of agents of the Detail increased to about ten during World War I.

It cannot be definitely determined when regularly scheduled shifts were established for the Detail, but they were in effect during the administration of President Calvin Coolidge. At that time there were twelve agents on the Detail, one of whom was assigned to Mrs. Coolidge and another to one of the President's sons.

The Detail gradually grew in size through the administrations of President Hoover and President Franklin D. Roosevelt. In 1939, for example, there were sixteen agents and two supervisors, working seven days a week with no days off. In 1940 arrangements were made to provide days off, and the Detail was increased to about twenty-two.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1029

When the United States entered World War II it was considered advisable to assign extra men to the protection of the President, and the Detail operated with ten men on each of three shifts, with three supervisors and four drivers, for a total of 37 men.

In October of 1950, thirty-three special agents were assigned to the White House Detail, plus two drivers (Special Employees).

The force level of the White House Detail since 1950 is classified information which we will supply in a separate communication.

There is listed below the legislation which brought about the growth of the White House Police from thirty-three men at the time of its inception in 1922 to a present ceiling of 250 authorized positions.

Public Law	Congress	Date Approved	Authorized Ceilings

693	81st	8-15-50	133
418	82nd	6-28-52	170
481	87th	6-8-62	250

The number of positions established by the authorized ceilings imposed by the Congress does not necessarily reflect the number of positions for which Congress grants appropriations each year. For instance, the present authorized ceiling for the White House Police is 250 men. The increase in the ceiling provided by Public Law 481 was requested and authorized by Congress to extend protection to the Executive Office Building and permit protection for future buildings as such need is required. The Congress appropriated funds for 213 officers for fiscal year 1964.

There follows a list of the number of positions for which appropriations were granted from the year 1940 through 1964 (prior to 1940 appropriations generally were granted for the authorized ceilings).

Public Law 221, passed in May 1930, placed the White House Police under the direct supervision of the Chief of the Secret Service.

Public Law 87-481, passed in June 1962, placed the White House Police under the control and supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury then delegated the authority for the control and supervision of the White House Police to the Chief of the Secret Service.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1030

6. Possible Legislative Changes

- A. Whether it would assist the Secret Service in its Presidential protection functions if murder of, or assault upon the President, Vice President, and perhaps other high Government officials should be made a Federal crime?

It is our understanding that murder is a capital offense in all the States and that severe penalties are provided by the States for assault. Thus, the question involves in part the effect of Federal versus State statutes as a deterrent to the commission of a crime. Apart from the deterrent effect, however, existing Federal statutes make it an offense to kill or assault certain Federal officials who hold positions of much less importance than the President, Vice President or other possible successors to the Presidency. It is our view that the reasons which dictated the enactment of the existing provisions as to lesser officials are even more forcefully applicable to the President and his possible successors.

The enactment of Federal legislation would bring the investigation of the crime and the apprehension of the criminals under better Federal control. Such control would appear desirable since the protection of the President, Vice President, or other person next in the order of succession to the Presidency is already a Federal and not a State responsibility. Moreover, any assault against or attempt to take the life of the President may, for example, involve a conspiracy by several persons. The responsibility for Presidential protection requires an investigation of any such assault or attempt in order to assure that all aspects of the assault or attempt have been thoroughly explored and any further possible threat to the President eliminated by the identification and apprehension of the offenders. In these circumstances, Federal officials should have an unquestioned right to question the individual who made the assault or committed the murder to obtain any possible information as to co-conspirators. Also, Federal officials should have the authority to take other steps they consider necessary to assure the acquisition of satisfactory evidence to bring the culprit to justice. While we do not mean to imply that State or local officials would necessarily be uncooperative, the possibility nevertheless does exist that Federal officials could be hampered by State or local officials from making a complete and thorough investigation as long as the murder or assault of the President remained solely a State offense. This possibility would be ameliorated if murder or assault were made a Federal offense. In addition, the Federal resources that would be available for a complete and thorough investigation could be greater than the resources that may be available to State or local law enforcement agencies.

B. If an assassination or attempted assassination were made a Federal crime, which Federal Law Enforcement agency should be responsible for handling the investigative work?

Annual appropriation acts appropriate funds to the FBI for the "detection and prosecution of crimes against the United States". The FBI thus has general overall jurisdiction to investigate Federal crimes. On the other hand, 18 U.S.C. 3056 charges the Secret Service with the responsibility for the protection of the President, the Vice President, President-elect, Vice President-elect, or other officer next in the order of succession to the office of the President.

In this connection, 18 U.S.C. 871 presently makes it a Federal offense to deposit in the mails any letter or other document containing a threat, or to otherwise make any threat, against the President, President-elect, the Vice President or other officer next in the order of succession to the Presidency, or the Vice President-elect. As a necessary adjunct of its responsibility to protect the President and the persons next in line to the Presidency under section 3056, supra, the Secret Service conducts investigations of violations of 18 U.S.C. 871 at the present time and has conducted such investigations in the past. If assassination or attempted assassination were made a Federal crime, the position of the Secret Service would be that it had the right similarly to conduct investigations of the new offenses because of its protective responsibility, i.e., adequate protection of the President and any attempts to do him bodily harm are inextricably related. As previously stated, the responsibility for Presidential protection requires such investigation to assure that all aspects of any assault or attempt to take the President's life have been thoroughly explored and the threat eliminated.

Consequently, the FBI would have the authority to investigate such offenses if it so desired because of its overall jurisdiction to investigate Federal crimes. The Secret Service on the other hand, would conduct an investigation because of its responsibility for Presidential protection whether or not one was conducted by the FBI. It is believed that a dual arrangement of this nature is in the public interest in situations where bodily harm has been inflicted or attempted on the President.

C. Would the Secret Service be assisted by a clear statutory expression of its authority on security matters? Particularly with respect to the binding effect of its security advice upon the persons under its protection?

The Secret Service is of the view that a grant of authority to it to give binding security advice to the President would not be practicable. We feel on the basis of past experience and because of the nature of things that the President should, in the last analysis, have the final choice as to whether he should follow Secret Service security advice.

D. Is there any other legislative change that might be of assistance to the Secret Service in its protective functions?

Under 18 U.S.C. 3056, the Secret Service is specifically authorized to arrest without warrant persons committing offenses against the counterfeiting laws and certain other Federal offenses. However, Secret Service agents do not have the general power possessed by FBI agents and U. S. Marshals under 18 U.S.C. 3052 and 3053 to make arrests without a warrant on reasonable grounds for commission of felonies under U. S. law. Under present law Secret Service agents have no specific authority to make arrests without a warrant for violations of section 871, the present statute relating to threats against the President. If murder of, or assault upon, the President were made a Federal offense, they similarly would have no authority to make arrests without a warrant. Thus, authority of Secret Service agents to make arrests without a warrant as to offenses against the President is limited to the authority an ordinary citizen has to make an arrest. This situation is undesirable, and it is recommended that Secret Service agents be given the same authority to make arrests without a warrant as is possessed by FBI agents and marshals under 18 U.S.C. 3052 and 3053.

Problems also arise in the case of threats made by persons who may be mentally ill but who have not committed an overt act in a public place and whose commitment is doubtful for other reasons in the judgment of the local authorities. In such cases it would be helpful for the Secret Service to have legal authority to bring commitment proceedings for observation purposes, based upon probable cause. Treasury counsel have been asked to investigate the feasibility of such legislation.

WELCOME MR. KENNEDY TO DALLAS...

- ... A CITY so disgraced by a recent Liberal smear attempt that its citizens have just elected two more Conservative Americans to public office.
- ... A CITY that is an economic "boom town," not because of Federal handouts, but through conservative economic and business practices.
- ... A CITY that will continue to grow and prosper despite efforts by you and your administration to penalize it for its non-conformity to "New Frontierism."
- ... A CITY that rejected your philosophy and policies in 1960 and will do so again in 1964—even more emphatically than before.

MR. KENNEDY, despite contentions on the part of your administration, the State Department, the Mayor of Dallas, the Dallas City Council, and members of your party, we free-thinking and America-thinking citizens of Dallas still have, through a Constitution largely ignored by you, the right to address our grievances, to question you, to disagree with you, and to criticize you.

In asserting this constitutional right, we wish to ask you publicly the following questions—indeed, questions of paramount importance and interest to all free peoples everywhere—which we trust you will answer . . . in public, without sophistry. These questions are:

WHY is Latin America turning either anti-American or Communistic, or both, despite increased U.S. foreign aid, State Department policy, and your own Ivy-Tower pronouncements?

WHY do you say we have built a "wall of freedom" around Cuba when there is no freedom in Cuba today? Because of your policy, thousands of Cubans have been imprisoned, are starving and being persecuted—with thousands already murdered and thousands more awaiting execution and, in addition, the entire population of almost 7,000,000 Cubans are living in slavery.

WHY have you approved the sale of wheat and corn to our enemies when you know the Communist soldiers "travel on their stomachs" just as ours do? Communist soldiers are daily wounding and or killing American soldiers in South Viet Nam.

WHY did you host, salute and entertain Tito — Moscow's Trojan Horse — just a short time after our sworn enemy, Khrushchev, embraced the Yugoslav dictator as a great hero and leader of Communism?

WHY have you urged greater aid, comfort, recognition, and understanding for Yugoslavia, Poland, Hungary, and other Communist countries, while turning your back on the pleas of Hungarian, East German, Cuban and other anti-Communist freedom fighters?

WHY did Cambodia kick the U.S. out of its country after we poured nearly 400 Million Dollars of aid into its ultra-leftist government?

WHY has Gus Hall, head of the U.S. Communist Party praised almost every one of your policies and announced that the party will endorse and support your re-election in 1964?

WHY have you banned the showing at U.S. military bases of the film "Operation Abolition"—the movie by the House Committee on Un-American Activities exposing Communism in America?

WHY have you ordered or permitted your brother Bobby, the Attorney General, to go soft on Communists, fellow-travelers, and ultra-leftists in America, while permitting him to persecute loyal Americans who criticize you, your administration, and your leadership?

WHY are you in favor of the U.S. continuing to give economic aid to Argentina, in spite of the fact that Argentina has just seized almost 400 Million Dollars of American private property?

WHY has the Foreign Policy of the United States degenerated to the point that the C.I.A. is arranging coups and having staunch Anti-Communist Allies of the U.S. bloodily exterminated.

WHY have you scrapped the Monroe Doctrine in favor of the "Spirit of Moscow"?

MR. KENNEDY, as citizens of these United States of America, we DEMAND answers to these questions, and we want them NOW.

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1031

"Dallas, Texas
Oct. 29, 1963

Dear BERNIE & BILL:

To much has happened in the past few days. I don't know where to begin. First of all, what appeared at first to have been a great blunder of ours has rapidly turned into a great victory. I refer to STEVENSON incident.

You must understand, that I personally had nothing to do with the sign-hitting and spitting incidents. Secondly, the press reports were so outrageously exaggerated it is unbelievable. This, plus the fact our mayor and City Council have issued an official apology on behalf of Dallas, has aroused the scorn and anger of all Dallasites, the overwhelming majority of whom are right wingers.

The ultra liberals of Dallas, led by STANLEY MARCUS of Neiman-Marcus went to far in pressuring for denunciation of "extremists" and "Fascists" in Dallas. As a result, a bomb has exploded everywhere here against them. This town is a battleground and that is no joke. Never before have Dallas conservatives from the GOP to the John Birch Society ever been so strongly united.

And, in the middle of it is myself. Thus far, I am the only organizer of the demonstration to have publicly identified himself. I have been interviewed by UPI, AP, the two local daily newspapers, TV stations, CBS, and local radio. I am a hero to the right -- a stormtrooper to the left.

I have been beseiged by calls, some threatening my life. It is both hell and fun, but not at the same time.

All details when you arrive. In any event, due to this international incident, I have become, overnight, a "fearless spokesman" and "leader" of the right wing in Dallas. What I worked so hard for in one year -- and nearly failed -- finally came through one incident, in one night!

Politically, CUSA is set. It is now up to you two to get Ambus going. We need Ambus financing bad. Have arranged for you to meet and talk with many people. Job opportunities set up -- so are business opportunities, such as DuCharme Club. Again, I promise nothing. What you achieve is up to you. All I can do is pave the way.

You shall find it all interesting!

Your friend,

LARRIE"

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1032

Dallas, Texas
Oct. 1, 1963

Dear Bernie:

I enjoyed our conversation on the telephone today immensely. However, I think it is often overlooked that Cusa was founded for patriotic reasons rather than for personal gain -- even though, as a side effect, Ambus was to have brought great return, as any business endeavor should. We also took an oath: Not for the purpose of becoming wealthy, but for "duty, honor and country". We owe nothing to each other, but we do owe something to ourselves and to our personal, private oaths to our country. That is, assuming our oaths have meaning, which they should to men of character who give them. Therefore, I can only speak for myself: I am here, carrying out my oath. Of the five men who took the oath, I am still the only one here.

No one came to Dallas before me to prepare the way. No one was here to have a job secured, to have an apartment ready, to help out, etc. This, with a brand new wife, was indeed a challenge and a sacrifice on my part -- as I feel that personally and non-politically, I could have done better for myself elsewhere. This past year has really been a tough one for Barbara and I. We have gone without economically and without each other, we have been insulted and threatened, and almost seen our marriage collapse. All because of my oath to Cusa and America. My point is that if I am willing to go through all this, so should yourself, Ken, any other. Ken, apparently, is willing to take that same challenge and sacrifice. Which, for a bachelor, is nothing compared to mine. There are no guarantees, no absolutes. You must look into yourself for your decision. It is not a decision of whether you can do better financially here or elsewhere, it is not a decision of whether you will be rewarded here -- it is a decision of whether to honor your oath, to sacrifice for your country. Without the willingness to do this, there is nothing anyway.

Cusa and Ambus were never envisioned to be overnight successes. We recognized way back then that the road would be long and hard, but could be travelled by unselfishly dedicated men. This still holds true. In taking a long hard look back over the past year, I can honestly say that I have lived up to the letter of my oath, to my Cusa commitment, to my partners, and to our plans. I have done exactly what I was supposed to do here. What more can be expected of me? On the other hand, Jones was to be here in May, Moseley in June, Baker and you in July, Sheila in August, et al. Again, I stand alone in Dallas. All of my past year's work, all our work in Munich, everything.... Cusa cannot succeed without bodies, without dedicated workers. We can have success with able men -- but we cannot put the horse before the cart -- we cannot have success first, and then the men. Yet, this seems to be what is expected.

When we planned in Munich, there was to be no question of "other" jobs, or guaranteeing security, etc. We all realized then that we would have to come to Dallas and rough it until we got Ambus and Cusa going. We realized then that we would have to find jobs on our own and carry out Cusa's infiltration plans in our spare time (remember the timetable and the strategy?). I was to come first, infiltrate, learn, become trusted Lieutenant, bring the others in as they returned, etc. Well, this is accomplished -- but where are my cohorts? What good is all the above without the bodies? We cannot operate from remote control!

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1033

The thing is I need you NOW -- not two months or six months from now. Since it is obvious that everyone else is thinking about themselves first, then I must reserve that same right for myself. I do have opportunities elsewhere. And, if it turns out that you and Ken, who are the last of the group, cannot make it for sometime, or at all, we may as well forget about it. You ask a great deal of Barbara and I: Stay on at your own personal sacrifice, work hard to earn an income, to live, to get by, and at the same time keep active in politics, pave the way for us -- all the time while we remain back East or on the West Coast and enrichen ourselves. This is most unfair and unjust.

As for Cusa: I have worked out a deal with the chairman of the YAF Adult Chapter in Dallas. His name is Dale Davenport and I put him into the position when I was still YAF Southwest Executive Secretary. He is a good friend. He knows just a little about Cusa. He has not yet given me his decision to join Cusa but he will allow us to use his YAF chapter for Cusa purposes. The Adult Chapter is just one of several YAF chapters in Dallas, the other are high school and college chapters. Whoever controls the adult chapter can control all the others. Whoever controls the combined Dallas YAF chapters controls YAF Texas, and whoever controls YAF Texas controls YAF Southwest. So there it is. The thing is wide open for us, waiting -- but it won't wait forever. Hell, politics are weird. Dale might change his mind a month from now. He will go along with Cusa now because his chapter is faltering through lack of leadership, organizers, planners and workers. You, Ken and I are just the lifeblood he so desperately needs. Once we are in, it doesn't matter if he changes his mind. But, remember, in politics, people are always changing their goddam mind. It has driven me nuts personally in furthering Cusa. These arrangements are always delicate. Very delicate. If I don't produce the bodies, Dale is just liable to think me a phony and say "forget it". He needs our help today -- right now. Adlai Stevenson is scheduled here on the 24th on UN Day. Kennedy is scheduled in Dallas on Nov. 24th. There are to be protests. All the big things are happening now -- if we don't get in right now we may as well forget it. Cusa was to be a pacesetter -- not someone to jump on someone else's bandwagon. Each day that we wait -- Cusa dies a little and I am not exaggerating. If you doubt me read your newspapers a little more closely each day.

So, Bernie, Cusa, politically, is set. The opening is here. All we need to do is pick up the ball and run like hell. That leaves only the job situation. Enclosed is today's want ads. I have a lot of contacts, both professionally and in business and politics. I know bankers, insurance men, realtors, etc. No trouble getting a decent job -- but no promises of starting at 10 to 15,000 annually either. If Ken and I are willing to run the risk -- why not you. You have more guts than either of us...don't you? Just remember, in the long run, Ambus and Cusa will pay off far more handsomely than Encyclopedia Britannica. But even at EB you have to work....and so it is with Ambus and Cusa. The decision is yours.

Wholly yours.

Gratefully,

Larrie

p.s. my brother has begun ~~work~~ working as an aide to general walker. he is being paid full time, etc. watch your newspaper for news of huge demonstrations here in dallas on oct. 23 and 24 in connection with UN Day and Adlai Stevenson's speech here. plans already made, strategy being carried out.

AN AMBUS BUSINESS IDEA

1. Ambus would be a holding corporation for the following four sub-corporations:
a) Images, Inc. b) Services, Inc. c) Investment, Inc. d) Timesaver, Inc.
2. Images, Inc., would entail public relations, advertising, promotion, publishers and agents.
3. Services, Inc., would entail personal counseling, catering, personal services, where to go, what to do, etc.
4. Investment, Inc., would entail counseling on insurance, financing, investments, etc.,
5. Timesaver, Inc., would entail apartment finding, job finding, car buying, etc.
6. All would be housed in the same office. To start, only one full time manager and a secretary/receptionist would be needed. All else would be voluntary work by Ambus/Cusa members working full time elsewhere. For example, if someone came in who wanted some insurance counseling, Schmidt would be called on the telephone at MOMY and an appointment made with the prospect in the Ambus office. If Promotion or PR were concerned, Art Franzwald would be called at Bedford Wynne PR Agency. In other words, we would operate similar to a broker but on a larger, more diversified basis. The secretary could handle the apartment finding, job finding, etc., on the telephone. The full-time manager, Weissman, could handle all the rest. Much could be done right over the telephone.
7. We would charge for our services on the same basis as a doctor or surgeon does -- depending on the job. With Timesaver, Inc., we could find an apartment for a person free of charge to the person -- but charging the apartment owner for our service of bringing him business. This is done in Dallas. In finding jobs, we can charge a percentage of the first monthly income.
8. Images, Inc., could build individual images or corporate images. Concentrate on the little guy and little business that can't afford the big-time PR people.
9. Working the Ambus deal would be Bernie Weissman, Larrie Schmidt, Ken Glazbrook, Dale Davenport and Art Franzwald. As Ambus succeeded, we could hire all of us full time. My wife could be the secretary/receptionist. We could rent a good office space for $100 a month. Furniture can be bought inexpensively -- on time. Utilities would NOT be more than $25 a month. Supplies perhaps $50.00. ~~Six~~ Salaries for manager $125 a week to start, $60 a week to secretary/receptionist.
10. The above is just a brief sketch. I am too lazy to go into full detail in a letter. I'll do that when you get here. This sort of thing can work.

Munich, Germany
January 7th, 1963

Dear Larrie,

It's truly amazing that you called me when you did, mainly because more has happened in the past few days to focus the attention of all of us here in Munich on the importance and seriousness of the job at hand. I will explain this at greater length later in this letter. First I will answer of your very pertinent questions. 1. Do you have an organization in Munich? The answer is yes, but not as you knew it. What you had was a group of men who (I'm speaking of the ECC) were attracted by a lot of "Pie in the sky" promises, men who were not willing to contribute any more than was convenient for them in the way of time and effort. These men, you know who they are, are basically cowards, who were attracted not so much because of their personal politics, but more because of your personal persuasion. You momentarily convinced them, and yourself, that they were some sort of "Supermen". Fortunately, I feel that I was able to see through the masquerade that they were trying to put over, before they had a chance to convince me as they had you. I feel that events have proven my original estimates to be right. I had tried to explain this to you in many of our conversations before you rotated to the states, and only let you win the arguments in order to avoid dissention in the ECC, though my opinion of these men had not and has not changed. A good example of the CUSA spirit, or I should say, the lack of it, is evident in the type of cooperation received relative to the forming of the Toastmasters. I held meetings faithfully for over two months each and every week, the only CUSA members that showed up regularly was myself, Larry and Bill Burley. Norman Baker, Herb Starr and Bob Weiss, etc., showed up at only one of these meetings, and thereafter managed to put their social life ahead of the advancement of CUSA. Without their support I was unable to direct the energies of the Toastmasters into favorable channels. I managed to get myself elected Chairman without their help, but, as a result of their "cooperation"??? Toastmasters is a thing of the past.

2. As regards the recruiting of new member into CUSA, I have attempted this and the only result had and has been disappointing to say the least. There must be many Conservatives in the military, but unfortunately those I have approached seem to be cut from the same mold as N. Baker and the rest of his worthless clique. What I mean is that they are only too willing to get on the gravy train, but very unwilling to accept any of the responsibility that goes along with the task. The other ACTIVE members of CUSA refuse along with myself to associate with this type of parasite. As a very good example: Norman Baker is a liar, he not only lies to his friends when it is to his advantage, even worse, he also lies to himself. This kind of man cannot be trusted, the best he could do for any organization is to destroy it by sowing the seeds of mistrust and dissention. As for Larry Jones, I will leave you to draw your own final conclusions.

To speak for a moment in a positive vein, I have very recently been talking with Boda Boyce. In our conversations he revealed to me his true reasons for not actively participating in CUSA endeavors. I do not have to go into detail with you on this matter because I am sure you are well aware of Boda's feeling toward several of our (former) members, and quite rightly so.

Let me add, I have explained the true situation to Doda and as a result we can be assured of his help and cooperation, not only now, but in the not too far distant future. I am sure Doda has informed you of his intention to Re-up for two more years. It means only that a very valuable and capable man will be left to carry on in Munich after July. He is the type of "individual" that we need to recruit, not the weak sisters.

Larric, as relates to the political goals of CUSA and the methods of achieving them. I (not alone) do not wholly support your ideas as concerns the NIG and related or affiliated organizations. It seems to us that this type of organization smacks of HYPOCRACY, I feel that any type of organization that we choose to support or begin to take support from, should be free from the racism, and prejudice in general that is rampant among the high officers of the NIG. It should be obvious to you that ~~if~~ once we associate ourselves with these people we may acquire a personal reputation that can never be lived down. I am sure you have considered this yourself, because I remember we had talked of it several times. Larric let me remind you that my zeal has not ~~slacked~~ but that I do not want to compromise myself, or my ideals, for the sake of accomplishing our goals a year ahead of time. I know and you know, that we can do a fantastic job once we get together again, with or without these organizations. We have, collectively, the brains and the political and business acumen to accomplish the toughest of tasks.

An unfortunate incident happened very recently, one of our female friends has very recently been refused a security clearance because of her association with several men of questionable political views. We are, or so it seems, to be the only people who could have caused this. Doda has been able to come up with nothing so far, though he is still digging for information over at 66th. This is the type of hurt that can happen to us, if we are too openly extreme or associate openly with extremists.

Now I have a reprimand of my own to administer. As regards the letters you have sent (I read the first seven). I don't know who you are trying to con, for you certainly have tried to do this in the first few letters we received here in Munich. For example, you stated in your first letter that you were on the payroll of the NIG, a little later you stated you were working for them on a voluntary basis. This bit of con I can see no reason for and, frankly, it left some doubt in my mind as to the complete truth of your subsequent letters. Realize that you may feel a need to put a little "window dressing" on your activities in Dallas, but Larric, please, don't try to "con the con man".

So Larric, as a final note, don't give up hope. The best laid plans of mice and men oft times go astray, (for just a little while) There is still a good deal of hope and confidence for all of us actively engaged in our work. All we need in order to move in essentially to original direction is that coming discharge. So my friend, I remain,

Confidently yours,

Bernie Weissman

Mendota, Ill.
7 Nov. 62

Dear Larry:

Much has happened:

1) Barbara and I are being married tomorrow morning. We are not taking a honeymoon but returning straight to our apartment in Dallas.

2) I finally met Frank McFabe at his home last night in Dallas. We conferred privately for 4 hours. CVSA + VIC are to merge in the fall of 1963, as soon as Bernie + Arman are in Dallas.

3) Frank is to be the president & I the vice-president. You, Arman + Bernie, and three other VIC boys will be the head of directors.

4) This is a top-secret merger & is not to be discussed outside the Movement.

5) I have been hired by the VIC at $500 a month. Each of you will be employed by the VIC as you return (to include Masely).

6) We shall help the VIC until the merger is effected.

7) VIC rallies are to be conducted by CVSA in Munich. We shall ship material, films, lecture material, etc, to you. Also, there will be live telephonic arrangements made so that you + CVSA in Munich can listen into rallies in Dallas as they are held.

8) In the event the Army arrests you, McKelee has assumed me the right-wing movement, particularly the VIC & the John Birch Society will step to your aid with political & legal backing.

9) Conservative politicians visiting Munich will personally confer with you to add prestige to your movement.

10) You are to act as a continuity center of the VIC in Munich.

11) McKelee and I expect to get to Munich ourselves for some rallies.

12) Our immediate task (Frank's + mine) is to organize the VIC & collect memberships dues.

13) I shall be responsible here, now, for fund solicitation, press relations, PR & writing

Gentlemen, we got everything we wanted. Frank bought our gold & plans 100 per cent. Actually, also coincided with his anyway.

I trust you see the thinking behind my bad move. It saved us the trouble of infiltration, got us everything we had intended to get, 18 months ahead of schedule! McSedie is our type of man: a big thinker! But, still, I do not completely trust him. Yet, I feel he is lending with us. Naturally, he expects to use us.

Funny, you should have been there. Never was I in better form! Things came out of my mouth like never before. What old lady luck remains...

One bad thing, though, Frank gives me the impression of being rather anti-Semitic. He's Catholic. Suggest Bernie "convert" to Christianity — and I mean it. We must all return to Church. These people here are religious big. Also, no liberal talk whatsoever. Go.

We shall have to get rid of Klaybrook, maybe even Weiss. These people are dumb, they would see through you in 30 seconds. Weiss can stay if he shuts up on liberal thoughts. If one liberal word comes from the mouth of any one of us, we'll be all finished. That is no joke.

Also, down here a Negro is nigger.
No one - and I mean no one - is ever to say one kind word about Niggers.
Only liberals do that. Liberals are our enemies. Never forget that! Let Bernie straighten up that. On the other hand, the KKK is poor. Don't praise it. Don't preach race hatred. Don't say anything good about niggers - but don't talk about harming them either. The Conservative isn't "agin the Niggers, he just wants to keep them in his place for his own good".

Posley will return in December.
He is expected already. He will be completely nersed in the conservative philosophy.

All of you will be. Believe me, if not,
- just one slip-up - these people will cashier you fast.

Get Massey not to get shook because he's not knowl of direct's list. He's still our partner.

I did not mention Amibus at all.
Keeping it a secret for now.

Frank wants to send you projects to test you - see what you can do.
I've really built you boys up high. Don't let me down. I think I'm doing a damn fine job over here - you keep up your end.

Continue your planning - increase activity, especially self-education or Conservatism. Much material soon to be sent. After planning new an. basis of our new Coalition. In other words, from Sep. 63 on, think in terms of 300,000 members, $3,000,000. Add an "Education & Information Division" to organization.
It will be run by WPC people.

Here's another slicker: John Buck Faculty now has million members. Look for us to merge with them by 1964.
You can see the power that will give us!

Arrangements are being made for me to sit at the head of the Dallas J. B. L., also Gen. Walker, and C. L. Hunt, the Texas oil millionaire. I have already met the top editors of the Dallas Morning News, the Country's most conservative newspaper.

Now, I want you guys to send me $25 a month expense money, Dairing a lot of these things for Crest to Cresting and a lot of money personally. In other words, I want an expense account:
newspaper subscriptions, private mailing of literature & info, tapes, etc, etc
Don't bitch, I have a wife to support.

There are a lot more things I need to pass on in detail but right now I'm helping Barbara pack all her belongings.
In 12 hours we'll be man & wife.

Everything is going beautiful.

Do not do anything about Klag-brook or Weiss before we discuss it further. Do not take any daring steps, really action until I give the word.
As I said before, the good times are gone. Forget social lives Monday through Friday, if these boys don't want to work - get rid of them
But clear through me first.

Oh, yes, Don't worry about my associating with radicals - all these people are all radical - but there's a method to their madness.
You see, they're all after exactly what we're after!

Schuss.

Commission Exhibit No. 1037

Dear Bernie:

As you know, I had given up on all of you. I assumed none of you believed what I was writing so I figured to hell with you. I was doing very well on my own -- thanks to Cusa. When Larry Jones called me from Cleveland after his discharge, I was genuinely shocked. He expressed curiosity as to how Cusa and I were doing. I told him flatly to come to Dallas and find out for himself -- I was tired of trying to convince others on my own.

Well, he and Betty arrived here Thursday. An associate of mine and I filled Larry in, then took him around, introduced him around, et c., to verify what we told him. As a result, Larry has finally accepted the truth and is quite excited by what he has learned. He learned... 1) Cusa very much exists and is well on its way of fulfilling its goal and is, in fact, way ahead of our original timetable. 2) He learned that there is much money to be made here, both privately and through politics.

I pointed out to Larry that while I needed none of my former associates in Munich to carry out my plans -- they would certainly be desirable in that they could make matters easier to accomplish and speed those accomplishments up. I took Larry up to my office at Mutual of New York where he met several young men like myself making a mint. He saw where I was averaging $342 a week in commissions. And, that, Bernie, is a lot of money. He also saw figures on YAF's political treasury and $1,000 donations to it. Of course, there is much I cannot put on paper -- you understand.

I had Larry call you because I thought it would prove certain things to you. This, since my telephone call apparently did no good. We are no longer interested in keeping Cusa/Munich alive. But we do want to see you, Norman, Jim, and Bill Burley back here in Dallas. We will give all of you partner status if you like. The more men we can get back here from the old group the better off we are simply because each of you knows the score and is prepared for the job back here. Recruiting new people from scratch is tough, especially for the "Inner Circle". We need a certain breed, as you can appreciate. We are not associated with any radicals or extremist organizations.

By the time you get here we shall already have taken our moves to gain control of the Southwestern YAF. We shall be able to find employment for you with excellent economic opportunities. There are all kinds of possibilities. It is not that we want you to be a salesman like myself -- it is just that if I can make $342 a week selling insurance -- why, my god, think of how much you could make! But, there are many other things. We have powerful contacts and allies down here.

All we want from you is a commitment to come to Dallas to find out for yourself. We'll do the rest, and are confident you'll stick with us. Please contact Norman, Bill, and Jim. I think Jones' testimonial is sufficient.

Larrie

p.s. Sheila and my brother will be here in August. Ken Hogbrook in September. One by one, we are getting the old group back here.

THE SHANNON STATEMENT

*Adopted in Conference at Sharon, Connecticut, September 9-11, 1960.*

IN THIS TIME of moral and political crisis, it is the responsibility of the youth of America to affirm certain eternal truths:

That as young conservatives, we believe: the individual's right to be free from the restraints of arbitrary force;

That liberty is indivisible, and that political freedom cannot long exist without economic freedom;

That the purposes of government are to protect these freedoms through the preservation of internal order, the provision of national defense, and the administration of justice;

That the government ventures beyond these original functions only when necessary, and tends to diminish order and liberty;

That the Constitution of the United States is the best arrangement yet devised for empowering government to fulfill its proper role, while retaining it from the concentration and abuse of power;

That the genius of the Constitution—the division of powers—is summed up in the clause which reserves primary to the several states, or to the people, in those spheres not specifically delegated to the Federal Government;

That the market economy, although restricted by the economic system compatible with the requirements of personal freedom and constitutional government, and that it is at the same time the most productive supplier of human goods;

That when government interferes with the work of the market economy, it tends to reduce the moral and physical strength of the nation; that when it takes from one man to bestow on another, it diminishes the incentive of the first, and increases the idleness of the second, and the moral autonomy of both;

That we will be free only so long as the national sovereignty of the United States is secure; that history shows periods of freedom are rare, and can exist only when free citizens concernedly defend their rights against all enemies;

That the greatest danger to the continuation of these liberties; that the greatest single threat to these liberties;

That the United States should stress victory over, rather than coexistence with, this enemy; and

That American foreign policy must be judged by the extent to which it serves the just interests of the United States.

Y.A.F.

YOUNG AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM was founded at Sharon, Conn. Sept. 11 by 100 conservative student leaders. It has more than 320 college, high school and university chapters with over 20,000 members in every State.

IN 1962 on the night of March 7th the most significant gathering of conservatives in the history of the United States took place in Madison Square Garden in New York City. More than 100,000 young Americans heard Senators Goldwater, Thurmond and Barry Goldwater, and President Nixon predict a "wave of conservatism" would sweep across the country. It was a triumph in America. YAF gathered its attention by being the U.S. State Dept. spokesman for the occasion. In recognition of its refusal to grant a visa for President Khrushchev who had been invited to visit the United States, more than 100,000 young Americans attended rallies in Indianapolis, Ind., Columbus, Ohio, County, N.Y., and Phoenix, Ariz. . . . Yale staged a 55-mile hike to Groton, Conn. . . . In the 1962 elections local chapters went all out in support of conservative candidates in both parties. . . . In New York City, more than 100,000 young Americans worked in 17 races and in 7 YAF member campaigns. . . . Indianapolis YAF members staged a 55-mile hike to Groton, Conn. . . . Montana YAFers ranged over the miles backing Rep. Jim Batlin. . . . Florida YAFers staged a 55-mile hike to Groton, Tex. YAF fought hard for Jack C. Danforth. . . . This YAF political action program repeated all over the nation. . . . Cuban crisis YAF staged a mass protest in Washington. . . . White House in support of the President. . . . Dear Bernie:

Here is the latest: Our only other Cusa member in Dallas, Warren Carroll, has replaced another fellow as the vice chairman of the Southwest YAF. This was according to our strategy as the other fellow was an enemy of mine. This puts Warren in the number 2 spot. I am in the number 3 slot. Only the chairman remains and we shall topple him this fall, leaving us in full control. We have not yet introduced Larry into YAF. He is busy running our Ambus operation -- our first one. We have gained an interest in a private club. For promoting the place, bringing in hostesses, etc., we get 20 per cent of the gross. We expect to be taking $1,200 out of it by the end of this summer. We are also eyeing another place to buy. It closed its doors last Saturday and we may be able to get it cheap. We need the Ambus money for our activities. With Larry running Ambus, Warren and I are busy politically. Of course, we need more help. A lot has happened just since Larry returned and believe me, he is a godsend. Warren and Larry get along beautifully. Warren, who already has a PhD from Columbia and 2 masters from Colorado, is now going to law school to get that degree. Already, he is doing much legal work for us. He is the personal writer for H. L. Hunt, the oil millionaire and richest man in Texas -- and an ardent conservative. Hunt's son-in-law contributed $1,000 to YAF thanks to Warren.

Larry, Betty, my brother and my wife and I all live in the same apartment building. We tried to get Larry in as manager but it fell through. Larry at first went to work selling cars but now he is employed by Ambus full time. Ken is in Yugoslavia and will be in the middle east all next month. We are urging him to return to Dallas ASAP.

We are all trusting you will bring Bill and Norman back with you. We need all of you. But, we aren't sweating Moseley one way or the other. Please let us know what luck you are having with Bill and Norman and let us know where they stand to the best of your knowledge.

One thing is certain: There is much to be done and we are all completely wrapped up around the clock. There are just not enough of us to do all that must be done and not enough hours in the day. Each of us is putting in an 18-hour day and that is no exaggeration. You can rest assured you won't have a leisurely life here with us. We have a job to do -- a big one -- and we are making progress. There is just too much to go into detail. You will get what Larry got when he arrived here -- a week-long briefing.

Best regards,

Larrie

Dear Larrie,

Sorry that I have not written sooner or more often, though you will find that I have not been completely idle. I received your last letter two days ago and was glad to hear that everything is still going along well. As for myself I just returned from two and a half weeks in Paris and I might add that every thing also went well over there. I have cultivated a lasting friendship with a young woman of about 30 yrs who happens to be the export manager for Satta, one of the largest importers of several types of business machines from America, with distribution and contacts throughout Europe and Africa.

This may be the chance we need in order to gain friends and do business internationally. She and I discussed the possibility of setting up our own Import-Export business in the U.S. and I am glad to say that she is willing to leave her present employ and come to America (under my sponsorship) to help set up a new business in which, due to her experience, she will hold a key position. For the moment Larrie just consider this food for thought.

I have discussed Dallas with Bill and unfortunately he cannot come right away due to the fact that we are on a financial see-saw and he has his family to support in the immediate future, though as soon as we have developed to the point where we can offer him a little security and a lot of promise he will come with bells on. Further, I have spoken with Norman on this subject and he gives no answer at all and in fact tries to convey the impression that he is disinterested. I don't buy it. Norman left here yesterday to return to the states, and he claims to a job in San-Juan Puerto Rico, I am inclined to think that he may go to Dallas and try to shoot me down, if he does drop by to "say hello" be on guard because he appears to be as untrustworthy and undependable as ever, except of course where Norman F Baker is concerned.

I am leaving Munich on Friday, 26 July and expect to arrive in the States on or about August 4th or 5th. It will probably take me about 2-3 weeks to clear up my business around New York including my marital problems so I probably will not arrive in Dallas until late August. I may be asking for a lot at the moment but here is what I want you to try and do; Try to make room ~~for~~ for me Full time in AMBUS or in YAF because I feel that if I have to start selling cars and the like it will do nothing but take away from whatever contributions I can make to CUSA in an organizational or promotional sense. I want to put my talent where they will do the most good, either in expanding AMBUS or as a political "Rabble-Rouser" so to speak. This is all for now, write soon and let me know where I fit in. Best regards to Larry, Betty and Barbara.

Dear Bernie:

It was a great relief to talk to you on the telephone. You have no idea how worried I was about all of your safety. Bernie, I am most bitter about the state of affairs in Munich. I would never have believed that you and Larry would ever allow things to fall as they have. I should not have to tell you this sad situation would never exist were in Munich. I feel so utterly powerless 6,000 miles away. But, it has happened and it is a problem. However, I am not willing to give up and I am sure you are not either. All great movements have had their periods of discouragement, disillusionment, difficulties, etc. The truly great movements were those which had the leadership who never gave up, who saw things through, who fought on against seemingly overwhelming odds. I feel that Cusa is my destiny. I must see it through. I trust you feel the same way. I do not feel, however, that Cusa's success depends upon whether all of the boys in Munich belong or not. I feel we can do without most of them. I want them, but I do not feel the need is that great. As you know, I want big men -- men big in thought, action and belief. Give me half a dozen such men and I can conquer the world. Small men, Bernie, have never done a damn thing in this world. The men who ~~changed~~ changed our world -- good or evil -- were not small men. Whether it was Caesar, Hannibal, Attila, Charlemagne, Bismarck, Washington, Lincoln, Roosevelt, Lenin, Stalin, Mao Tse Tung, Hitler, Mussolini, Castro, Nasser or Kennedy, each had a single goal which they pursued to their deaths. Each succeeded because all else was secondary to their goal. DeGaulle has said "a great man is he who wants to be great". It is the same with all things, including movements. Cusa is as strong or as weak, Bernie, as you and I, Larry, Norman or others make it. But a great movement, in terms of fantastic energy and force, such as democracy founded by our forefathers, or communism founded by dedicated men in another light, is far stronger and greater -- and ~~it~~ outlives personalities that serve it. Such is the case with democracy, it has survived the deaths of Washington and Franklin and Jefferson and Lincoln and Roosevelt, et al. the same with communism, it survived the deaths of Marx, Lenin, Stalin....So I believe it is with Cusa. Cusa will survive -- if we found it strongly, Bernie -- it will survive the absence of Jones, Moseley, Baker, Weissman, Schmidt.... Only Schmidt is not leaving or deserting Cusa. I trust neither is Weissman. For that matter I trust no one who has shared the incipient greatness and glory that is Cusa ever deserts it.

However, facts speak for themselves, and truth conquers all. And the truth is that not Cusa, but its supporters are withering on the vine. Cusa itself is not dying over there in Germany. Cusa lives on in Dallas, and shall always live as long as I live and can make it great till someday it is all powerful, all reigning. No...it is those men in Munich who wither and die on the vine. I have come to the conclusion that there are those in Cusa's ranks in Munich who are not worthy of Cusa. At least, this applies to the would-be leaders. Let me say that the world is a mighty big place still regardless of the space age...let me say that mankind is an endless rank and file...let me say that time -- and man's place in it -- is an endless transient, and each of our lives are but a brief speck of sand on time's endless horizon. There has always been time and man and world...and there always shall be...there was time and man and world before Bernie Weissman, Norman Baker, Larry Jones, and Larry Schmidt...and there shall be time and man and world long, long after we are gone. Our life span is but a flicker of light in a world that has known sunshine for millions of years. Now, we can, each of us, be born anonymous and die anonymous, a name and a space and a body among billion of other spaces and bodies and names in our world...during our life times. Or, on the other hand, we can aspire to greatness...to immortality...to a rich, full life. I, for one, despise anonymity, nothingness. I choose greatness...immortality...wealth...power, and influence. And, Bernie, so help me god, I am going to have these things. Whether I go down in history books as a great and noble man...or a tyrant...I am determined to at least be recorded in the history of our times. Yes, I choose to make my attempt at greatness....where do you stand sir?

I know that I can lead this movement. I am well aware of my talents of persuasion. I was not able to get two-dozen followers for being a man of small stature. No man... not Larry Jones, not Jimmy Moseley, not Norman Baker, not Bernie Weissman, not Ken Glazbrooks, not Bob Weiss, not Charlie Altman, not Herb Starr, not Bill Burley, not Hank Tanaro, not Richard Harsch, not Sheila McDonald, not even my own brother and wife could resist my power of persuasion. I sold an idea, a dream, a hope, a plan for the future, a goal endless. So long as I was in Munich to stand watch over them, to lead, there was an organization...things were being done. Now that I am gone...well, the facts speak for themselves. If only I had the money to return to Munich for a week. I would have Cusa's house in order and functioning once again. But I cannot come. I do not have the money. So, I must turn to you Bernie. I thought Larry could do the job. Obviously, he cannot for he has not. This is a source of great disillusionment to me. But then I should have known better than to entrust such a big job with him. Larry is a great man in many ways, a man of great strength and determination. But he is no leader. Neither are Norman or Jim. That leaves only you, Bernie. You, and you alone, can bring Cusa back together. You must, Bernie! I have written Larry and relieved him of command of the Munich Branch of Cusa and informed him you were taking over. I kicked Larry upstairs to executive vice president of Cusa working directly under me, but with no direct management of the OB. I told him he should support you on everything and attend meetings. But I made it clear you are now the boss of the Munich branch -- responsible for organization, management and recruiting. Larry is to turn command over to you on 1 Feb. I am in the process of writing each of our members in Munich to light a fire underneath them. Bernie, we cannot allow Cusa to die over there. Oh, sure we can start from scratch again -- and we will if we must. But I hate to lose anyone, anything, once we have them or it and I am sure you feel the same way. To have gathered these men around us..and then to lose them...is so wasteful. Bernie, Cusa must hang on in Munich! But, if it cannot, it cannot. I want you to try with all you have. I want you to give it everything. But, if you cannot, do not become discouraged. I still expect to see you back here in Dallas. I should also like to see all of you. Especially, Norman and Larry. Nonetheless, we can succeed without them.

As for Jim Moseley, if he is not back here in Dallas by Feb. 15, he is finished. First it was November, then December, then by Jan. 15....I am tired of his games. He offers nothing, contributes nothing. His father's illness interests me none whatsoever. That is his problem...not Cusa's. You may tell Jim: Feb. 15 or nothing. He may remain in Cusa if he likes but not as a partner. I should like to replace him with Bill Burley as a partner. From what you said on the phone it sounds as if Bill is sincerely interested and dedicated. I feel certain he will be of far more value than Jim. You may take the matter up with Larry and Norman. But my decision on Feb. 15 is final, whether they like it or not. Their equal voices as partners is valid only insofar as they contribute toward their partnership which they have not. Those who cooperate and work are those who have a right to a voice in the management and policy in Cusa. Those who do not...are entitled to nothing as far as I am concerned.

By now you have all received my letters of ultimatum. A reply from you is not necessary since you gave yours on the telephone. But I do expect replies from Jones, Moseley and Baker. If they choose not to remain with Cusa then I shall appoint Burley to replace Moseley, Glazbrook to replace Jones and Harsch to replace Baker. If they choose to remain with Cusa then they will make meetings and work. If they fail to do so, I shall boot them out. That goes for everyone. Glazbrook has remained faithful as has Harsch. I receive more correspondence from the two of them than I do from everyone in Munich put together. Their interest and dedications is truly inspirational and refreshing. There are thousands of young men in this country who can easily replace anyone who drops out. The world is full of bright, aggressive, ambitious and unscrupulous young men. But one

But one thing had best be understood: I am not playing ~~xxx~~ games here in Dallas and expect you not to play games in Munich. I am not here in Dallas for my health or because I think Dallas is a wonderful place.

Now, as soon as I give you the word, I want you to call an urgent meeting of everyone. This shall be as soon as I get Larry's, Norman's and Jim's answer's to my ultimatum. Providing they are still with us, we will have this important meeting to lay down the law once and for all. Meantime, continue calling for regular meetings and try and get things back in order in preparation for the big meeting. I shall have some timely and important papers for you, plus a tape recording pep talk, etc. I shall ship these things to you very shortly and you can sit on them until the big meeting. At that meeting, Jones will announce that you taking over. There will be a new organizational chart, etc, which I shall prepare here.

Another thing: I want you to get together with Boda Boyce and make him the following offer. Tell him Cusa will make him a vice president in charge of all public relations. explain Cusa/Ambus to him and also Images, Inc., and Services, Inc. Tell him we want him in addition to the PR position to completely run Images, Inc. That we will pay him a commission of 10 per cent of the net profit of Images as his salary in addition to his salary for being a VP with Cusa. But bring him in. Tell him you are acting on instructions from me. Get his address for me and ask him if we got my last letter. Tell him, as bait, there is a good chance he may become a ~~xxx~~ partner. Give him the whole pitch. We are starting now to rebuild Cusa, Bernie. Here are the names of two other men you can bring into Cusa: Don Osbrink, and a boy in Hq's company whose last name is Bruce, but I cannot remember his last name. Jones knows him, he attended a couple of G-A parties with us. He is tall and skinny and wears glasses. A real hardcore conservative. He will join with the drop of a hat. Play Cusa up bigger than it is, follow. You get some new blood in the organization and watch the interest of the others pop up. What about the members of the Toastmasters? I have written some "new membership aids" which will help you attract new men, explain Cusa, etc. Also, bring John Scheiner back in. Get me his address. Whatever happened to Chuck McLain? How about Hank Tanaro? I am going to write Charlie Atman and get him back. There should be lots of new men in McGraw now. Seek them out! Let's roll, Bernie!

Bernie, Larry has at least 16 official pieces of correspondence from me which he was supposed to show each partner, some of them very important and timely. You tell him you want to see each of them. I know there are 16 because I logged each of them.

I am awaiting the letter you said you were writing. Write at least one letter a week and keep me informed. I shall keep you fully informed.

Bernie, let us not lose Cusa.....

Larry

AN INTRODUCTION

Commission Exhibit No. 1041

Welcome to Conservatism, USA! You have just become a member of a highly select group of young American men and women. Although I haven't met you personally I already know that you are a man of high character and great values -- otherwise you would not have been asked to join.

You have by your own volition joined an organization that is far more than an organization. Conservatism, USA, is a way of life for those of us who joined before you. It is also destined to play a great role in the future of our country. By becoming a member of Conservatism, USA, you have become a part of that great future, and shall play an important role in it.

You will find, too, that you have joined a brotherhood of men. Conservatism, USA members look out for each other and take good care of each other. You will always know that you are among trusted and loyal friends who will come to your aid anytime you need help on any matter. Your problem is our problem and what is good for us is good for you, just as what is good for you goes the same for us. On the other hand, what is bad for you is bad for us too. Conservatism is effective, and becomes increasingly more effective, because of the loyalty and dedication of its members not only to the organization but towards each other in their day to day professional and social lives.

In essence, your being invited into Conservatism, USA, marks you as particular breed of men, a particular breed of American. There is a new breed of American appearing on the forefront of America -- on the political, business, professional and social fronts. You are the vanguard of the "new America, a revitalized, regenerated and revolutionary United States that promises to fulfill our country's historical mission toward all men, everywhere. By your own will you have chosen to become one of a group of young Americans who "think like men of action, act like men of thought".

Your associates in Conservatism, USA, as you will soon learn, belong to that generation of Americans who fear no one, no thing, and who understand the problems and needs of our great nation, and are determined to do all they can to ensure that America shall always be the "land of the free, land of the brave, land of the noble".

On this occasion of your joining, I salute you and wish you well. Meantime, please read the attached. I look forward to seeing you in Dallas.

Sincerely,

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1041

AN INTRODUCTION TO CONSERVATISM, USA

Especially prepared for new members!

WHAT IS CONSERVATISM, USA?

Conservatism, USA (CUSA) is a non-profit, non-partisan political institute dedicated to the principles of the conservative political philosophy in the U.S.A., and the election of conservative politicians to office on the local, state and national levels.

WHO FOUNDED CUSA?

Cusa was founded in September, 1961, in Munich, Germany by Larrie Schmidt, of Lincoln, Nebr., with the assistance of first Larry Jones, of Morehead, W.C., and later James Moseley, of New York. Later, Norman Baker of Miami, Fla., and Bernie Weissman of New York, were added as partners. These gentlemen are now the board of directors of Cusa and Larrie Schmidt is chairman of the board. Cusa's present Headquarters is in Dallas, Tex.

WHO BELONGS TO CUSA?

Cusa at present boasts 32 active members and 23 inactive members. Cusa, at present, is not interested in recruiting a rank and file following. Rather, it has, to date, concentrated on enlisting high calibre men and women for training as top future executives in the Cusa organization. All but four members have been to college and the majority of the members have degrees in professional fields. To give you an example, Cusa boasts alumni of Harvard, California, SMU, Miami, Brown, Hobart, Columbia, William & Mary, Florida, UCLA, Maryland, NYU, and others. Their professions range from journalism to law to business to political science to chemistry. The average member ranges in age from 25 to 30 years old. All are widely read and widely travelled. All are conservatives. The out and out drive for rank and file members will begin in the fall of 1963. Now, members are being prepared for leadership roles in guiding the rank and file members to come.

WHAT KIND OF MEN IS CUSA SEEKING?

Cusa requires very high standards for membership in the elite corps now being recruited and trained. Since all present members are being prepared for leadership roles, personal standards, qualifications and behavior is set very high. To become eligible for an executive membership role, the candidate is thoroughly checked out to ensure that he meets the necessary standards. It is not easy to qualify for Cusa membership. Following is what Cusa demands from its executive, but not rank and file, members:

- 1) dedication to "country...honor...freedom"
- 2) personal integrity
- 3) honesty
- 4) courage
- 5) individualism
- 6) self-disciplined
- 7) belief in conservative political philosophy
- 8) belief in private enterprise and capitalism
- 9) power and strength of convictions
- 10) intelligent
- 11) educated
- 12) ambitious

- 13) energetic

- 14) fair and just
- 15) charitable

If an interest person can meet all of these qualifications to the satisfaction of Cusa's "Executive Inner Circle" -- comprised of the partners -- then he is welcome to Cusa. Once a person is granted executive membership he must agree to live in Dallas, Cusa's headquarters, unless exception is granted by the EIC. All executive members will have to live and work in Dallas at one time or another because of his position and the executive role he will be playing in the organization. However, since Cusa is a national organization that needs top personnel in every part of the country, many key persons will be reassigned to a city other than Dallas. Every effort is made to assign the individual to his home town or desired city since that is where he will be most effective.

HOW IS CUSA ORGANIZED?

Cusa, with its headquarters in Dallas (5417 Lewis St.), is broken down into two branches: The Stateside Branch (SB) and the Overseas Branch (OB). Although both presently function separately from each other, they both have the same organizations, etc. On 1 August 1963, the OB will discontinue being a separate branch and will become completely subsidiary to the main SB. Cusa is set up similar to the Ford Motor Company and its dependent "Ford Foundation". The Ford Motor Company of Cusa is "American Businesses, Incorporated (Ambus). Ambus is a private, profit-making corporation which finances its own "Ford Foundation" -- which is Conservatism, USA, a non-profit, non-partisan conservative political foundation with the goals outlined above. The owners of Ambus are the same as the five partners who are the board chairmen of Cusa. Some of the present members of Cusa will actually be assigned to executive positions in Ambus. A member may have his choice providing it is in the best interests of Cusa. All positions in Ambus and Cusa are appointed by the EIC. Every member of Cusa and Ambus who works for either or both of Ambus and Cusa full time shall be paid at a salary at least equivalent to that paid a man in a similar position in industry or politics. In most cases, Ambus and Cusa will pay its people higher salaries.

Cusa is broken down into three divisions: the Political Analysis Division, the Recruitment and Fund Solicitation Division and the Foreign Affairs Division. Ambus is divided into two divisions: The Business Management Division and the Public Relations Division. Ambus' two divisions fully support the activities of Cusa. Each division has its own organizational setup and subsidiary sections and offices necessary to carry out its functions. For a copy of this "TO&E" ask the Chief of your particular branch. He will be happy to show it to you. For detailed information on the operations of any particular division ask the chief of the division in question. Geographically, Cusa is broken down into six regions. These are the Eastern, Northern, Southern, Southwestern, Midwestern, and Western Regions. Each region has several states under its jurisdiction. The headquarters of each region are as follows: Eastern - New York City; Northern - Chicago; Southern - Atlanta; Southwestern - Dallas; Midwestern - Wichita; Western - Los Angeles.

These regional headquarters come directly under Cusa's Dallas home headquarters. Each state within the region also has its Cusa hq's. In this case, Cusa Hq's is located in the capitol of each state. The state hq's come directly under the region hq's in which they are located. Each state, in turn, is broken down into districts, with several counties comprising a district. Most states are broken down into four or five districts. These district hq's come directly under the state hq's. The districts, in turn, are broken down into local hq's, i.e., city level hq's. The cities are then broken down into zones -- except when the cities are too small for this and is one complete unit in itself. Each zone is broken down into wards, which cover streets themselves. Both Ambus and Cusa will have staffs in each of the regional, state, district and city hq's. These will be full-time salaried employees.

HOW DOES CUSA EXPECT TO GAIN ITS GOALS?

Cusa is convinced it can induce all other conservative organizations to join it, especially after Cusa has induced a large number, then more and more will want to jump on its bandwagon. For those organizations that refuse to join, Cusa will bring pressures to bear to end their resistance. Cusa will also work closely with conservatives in the Republican and Democratic parties. Among Cusa's members are some of the finest salesmen around, men who know how to convince, how to sell, how to persuade. Cusa intends to work toward monopolization of the money available to right-wing organizations, thus forcing many organizations to come into Cusa's fold. Cusa will use any method, so long as it is legal and honorable, to attain its goal. A timetable has been set up to guide Cusa's actions — when each project has to be completed and places these projects in proper timetable sequence. The Chief of your branch has a copy of this timetable. Ask him to see it. He can also fill you in by detail what Cusa is doing and shall do to accomplish its ends.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO CUSA AFTER IT REACHES ITS GOALS?

Cusa shall continue to aid the conservative cause and to keep our government conservative. So long as there is a USA there shall be a Cusa.

CAN I MAKE A CAREER OF CUSA?

Most definitely. Cusa and Ambus are big business. Think of Ambus in the same terms as you would General Electric -- for one day Ambus shall be as big. Think of Cusa as being the same as a political party like the Democratic or Republican, even if it isn't actually a third party. It shall function like one, however. If you desire, and if you have the necessary qualifications, Cusa will even run you for political office if it feels you can win. Ambus needs good business minds and Cusa needs aggressive political minds. Above all, Cusa/Ambus need salesmen, public speakers, writers, debaters, analysts — men who think like men of action, and act like men of thought. But Cusa also needs background men, men willing to stay out of the public eye and work quietly to do planning, thinking, creating, formulating, and all the other things which support any great cause. Cusa/Ambus have established regular wage scales along the lines of the civil service (GS 4-18). A top executive with Cusa/Ambus can make as much as $50,000 a year.

JUST WHAT IS A CONSERVATIVE, ANYWAY?

A conservative is a person who looks at a man or a woman as an individual and respects him or her as a unique human being rather than just a face in the crowd, a member of the mass...who believes in individual initiative above collective charity, yet accepts charity where the individual cannot provide for himself...who believes the government should be supported by the people -- not the people supported by the government...who believes government should be restricted to those areas of concern outlined in the Constitution of the United States of America, leaving the citizen free to pursue life, liberty and happiness without the overburden of excessive taxation that restricts such pursuits...who believes that every effort should be made by individuals to provide for themselves first, and when that cannot be done, helped by local, state or private charitable organizations — rather than by federal government aid comprised of general taxation...who believes that the federal government should not compete with private enterprise or interfere with the rights of the states as outlined in the Constitution...who believes that the best government is that government which governs least...who believes that the best interests of the American people should be served by its government first before the peoples of other countries, yet believes we Americans must help the needy peoples of other countries...who believes the best interests of the USA should first be served by our federal government before the needs of other nations are looked into, yet that we should aid needy nations where aid is justified and deserved and in the best interests of our country...

who believes that the American form of Republican government, a government of the people, for the people, by the people, with rule by law and constitution, is the only way of government and way of life for Americans...who believes that all though our government and system of law and rule and economics is not perfect...is the best one ever attempted by mankind in its long history...who believes that private enterprise and capitalism is the whole basis of our way of life and the reason our way of life is so richly endowed...who believes that communism is the greatest threat to the existence and freedom of America and must be completely defeated...who believes there can be no peace without victory over communism...who believes that the truly revolutionary political system and the true revolution of mankind is the American democracy and democratic economic and political system...that the enslavement of man, as embodied in communism, is as old as mankind itself and therefore there is nothing revolutionary about it even though it has a modern name and foundation...and certainly no good -- indeed fatal -- to mankind.

IS CUSA IDENTIFIED WITH ANY OTHER ORGANIZATION OR SOCIETY?

Cusa is associated with no organization or group, be it political, economic, social, fraternal or religious. Cusa is committed to none, either.

JUST WHO DOES CUSA HOPE TO ELECT PRESIDENT?

Cusa considers Senator Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) as Mr. Conservative, USA, and wholeheartedly endorses him for the presidency although Cusa is not committed to Mr. Goldwater in any way. However, it is felt that he is by far the most outstanding conservative politician and spokesman in the country.

HOW DOES CUSA FEEL ABOUT THE SO-CALLED RADICAL RIGHT WING?

Cusa has proof that many so-called radical organizations are not really radical, or at least as radical as the enemies or opposition of these organizations would have the public believe. Cusa loathes extremism of the right, typified by the American Nazi Party, as much as it does the extremism of the left, exemplified by the Communist Party in the USA. Cusa does not believe, however, that an American can be too radical or extreme in his love and patriotism for his country. Cusa endorses Americanism, love of country and patriotism even if it does not always agree with what some citizens believe is wrong with our country, who is to blame for our faults, and the solutions to our problem must be. Cusa has faith in and believes in many right-wing organizations and their endeavors although it does not always agree with everything they say and do, the words and actions of their leaders. On the other hand, Cusa does not condemn a patriot, who in the heat of anger or frustration, says things which are irresponsible and not honestly meant. On the other hand, Cusa cannot subscribe to continued irresponsibility on the part of organizations, its leaders or membership.

HOW DOES CUSA FEEL ABOUT COMMUNISM?

Cusa intends to do everything it can to destroy communism. Cusa is against any philosophy, any organization, any group, any individual which threatens the freedom, way of life, or constitutional government of the United States. Cusa is against any tyranny whatever its skin or title, against anything indecent, unlawful or harmful to man.

CAN ANYONE JOIN CUSA?

Any citizen of the USA who believes in what Cusa is trying to do and who is not a demagogue or dishonest may join Cusa regardless of race, religion, creed or ethnic origin. Cusa does not believe that patriotism is contingent upon one's skin color or religion or familial background.

for members of

Commission Exhibit No. 1042

CONSERVATISM, USA

Introduction:

You are members of a great and noble political movement. Also, as members of the Executive Outer Circle (EOC) you are being prepared to play major, decisive roles in the movement. Some of you will constantly be before the public eye, at one time or another all of you will be before the public eye in some capacity or another. However, as men, as private American citizens, you are all constantly before the public eye and always have been, whether it was at home in your own neighborhood, at school, in your place of worship, on your job, at the neighborhood tavern. Now, that you are leading members of our great movement, the image you present becomes of far greater importance because what you say, what you do, and how you say and do what you do, reflects upon the character of Conservatism, USA. Unnoble men cannot belong to a noble movement. With this in mind, I have prepared the following code of conduct and guideline on what sort of behaviour is expected of you because of your position in the movement.

LARRIE H. SCHMIDT,
President

THE CODE:

1. Dedication to "country...honor...freedom": Wherever you go, whatever you do, you must always carry this credo. Do not be ashamed to "wave the flag". Some people would have us believe it is unsophisticated and emotional to exhibit our patriotism. But Cusa members value patriotism and love of country above sophistry and cold-bloodness. We doubt that the emotion behind Patrick Henry's "give me liberty or give me death" or Henry Allen's "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country" or Gen. Douglas MacArthur's "as for me, I would rather be dead than red" can be assailed by true Americans. A citizen who loves and is proud of his country ought always to carry the banner of his country. We should take every opportunity to express our devotion to our United States and our faith in it. Let us at every opportunity exhibit our Americanism and encourage others to follow suit. When we make a toast at a party or among ourselves or acquaintances let us not be so shallow and toast to ourselves; Let us toast to America, land of the free and brave and noble.....
2. Personal integrity: If a young man must sow wild oats, let him do it discreetly, and not brag of his conquests or of his lust in public or to friends. Let him respect his body and its desires, keeping them private, for surely you would not expose yourself in public. Let us be known as decent men, moral men of high character. Let us disassociate ourselves from the animal instincts that are so often displayed around us. Let us be gentlemen at all times. Let us be moderate in our social lives. People do not respect a man who drinks too much, too often, and who makes a fool of himself. Such a man not only loses other's respect but his own self-respect and is not trusted in responsible positions. If at times, our burdens seem great and we have a desire to "throw a good one" and get plastered, do it in private, not in public. Let us speak softly and walk softly. Loudness and exhibitionism marks one as being "boorish" and unacceptable socially. Let us not indulge of profanity in public or in any actions that cast aspersions upon our personal integrity. Let us not indulge in gossiping and rumor-mongering and name-calling. Let us be charitable in our public utterances of others, fair and just in our public assessments of others. Let us hold our heads high, far above the crassness of others. Let us not indulge in things petty and small. Let us be kind to those who deserve kindness, understanding of those who need understanding, charitable to those who deserve charity, patient of those who need and deserve patience -- and civil to all at all times. If we do these things we shall be known as men of great personal integrity. And that is precisely what we want -- and ought to be!

Honesty: We all know what honesty is. We are all intelligent enough, mature enough, and well-enough educated to know precisely what is right and what is wrong, what is legal and what is illegal. Let us always be honest with everyone -- but especially with ourselves. Dishonesty begets dishonesty. Acts of illegality beget trouble, and plenty of it. I have always believed that honesty is absolutely the best policy -- and it most assuredly is the policy of Cusa. Any dishonest person, or any person who commits a dishonest act, within his Cusa capacity or without if it affects Cusa's standards and reputation, regardless of that person's position, will be expelled from Cusa immediately!

Courage: These are indeed "times that try men's souls". Don't doubt for a moment that this isn't more true today than ever before in our country's history. And as President Kennedy so accurately forecasts: Things are going to get a lot worse before they get better. We are in a struggle for our very future existence, not only individually but as a nation and all free peoples of the world as well. Very often, things happen to us individually and as a nation that bring much discouragement and pessimism. Even, sometimes, disillusionment. However, this is the very best sign that we must face up to our grave responsibilities as never before. The world, indeed our very own nation, is filled with "little-boys grown tall" -- men who do not have the courage to face up to their own personal day-to-day responsibilities leave alone their great responsibilities to their nation and their people, as well as all free people, and enslaved people, everywhere. This is not a time for those cowards -- and they are myriad -- who say "better red than dead". Our forefathers have given us something unmatched in world history by giving us these United States of America and our way of free life. We must not now betray our heritage, and our own children yet to come, or all other future generations of our heirs. Cusa wants men who are willing to sacrifice to save their country and themselves; men who are willing to die for their country and their freedom. Men who ask not "what can my country do for me, but what can I do for my country". Cusa will not accept or tolerate cowards in its ranks. Remember, American will remain to be the "land of the free" only so long as it remains the "land of the brave".

Individualism: Cusa does not want blind, abject fanatics. Dedicated men, yes, but not men who follow blindly and without question. We want individualists who think for themselves, who question and analyze. These are the kind of men who are true assets to a great movement. Cusa has no dogma in its political philosophy, no hard, party-line. We have beliefs and we have principles as well as an official policy. Yet, we do not consider ourselves perfect or absolutely right in all of our thinking and subsequent policy. We can be wrong, indeed often are. But we seek to discover our errors and correct them. We can better do this and will do this if we have an alert, aggressive, open-minded and individualistic thinking membership. Cusa's leaders encourage its members to be frank and outspoken, critical and suggestive. Think for yourselves and let your actions speak for your thoughts. Value your own self and your manhood and personal freedom above all else. If you do, and still firmly believe in Cusa, then you are an extremely valuable man. You may not find everything the way you like it but don't try and buck the organization just to suit your own ego. Work quietly and honorably and honestly to change things. Yet, once a decision is made on any controversial matter, and that decision is against your own personal thinking, be mature about it and be a good soldier: uphold the decision and carry out your part in it. We want to know that you have a mind of your own -- that you can't be bought or sold, or talked into things against your will. Exhibit your individualism but do it in the best interest of Cusa, not against it. The conservative political philosophy is the philosophy of rugged, pioneer individualism. No one is more despised by conservatives than a flunko. Again, our motto: Think like a man of action, act like a man of thought.

6. Self-discipline: Men who are self-disciplined need not be disciplined by others. It is not only an insult but tragic when a real man, an individualist has to be disciplined. It shows that he is not the man he would have others believe he is. It shows he is not strong enough to police himself. A great measure of self-discipline is letting your mind rule your heart in business and professional matters. Let your heart rule supreme in social and romantic matters, but never in your business or professional life. Let reason and logic be your guiding light. We want rational thinkers as Cusa executives.
7. Power and Strength of convictions: If you choose to believe in something then believe in it with all your heart and with all the power and strength of your soul. But don't become a bigot or narrow-minded. Don't be afraid to listen to the opposing argument. Another man's argument why you are wrong in your beliefs will be a good test of your beliefs. But don't be fooled by sophistry. Don't let a fellow who is a superior debater or conversationalist confuse or disillusion you. If you believe in something, such as the conservative political philosophy, then learn all you can about it so that you can hold your own -- even win over your opponent -- in any intellectual intercourse. Some Americans became victims of communist brainwashing tactics in Korea because they were not prepared or educated in their own American way of life and all its advantages to them. The very power and strength of your convictions will be fortified with your preparation and intimate knowledge of the basic tenets of that in which you believe. Once you are prepared you will find yourself winning arguments easily while remaining "calm, cool and collected. Don't base your faith in something on hearsay, rumors, false assertions, half-truths, or generalities. Get facts and arm yourself with them. Know what you believe in and why you believe in it -- why you hold your belief dear and precious. Good can destroy evil only if good is prepared to destroy evil. It won't on its own merit of goodness. Knowledge is the greatest power there is, and always shall be. But, on the other side of the coin, knowledge is of little effect if you do not have faith in your very knowledge. And, before you can have faith in anything else, you must have faith in yourself. Your ability to withstand temptations and glittering generalities and slogans and pseudo-truths. Be a man of strong -- but not bigoted -- convictions.
8. Personal appearance: A man ought to be judged by his personal worth and not his dress. Nonetheless, society being what it is, and standards having been set as they have, and eyes being as sharp as they are, a man's personal appearance, particularly his dress, is the basis on which first impressions are often based. Remember, people first see you at a distance as you approach them, they have time to look you over. They look to see if you are clean and neat and dressed in good taste. This gives them an insight into your personality, the kind of man you are even before they meet you. Dress flashy and you'll get a reputation as a "sporty type" and believe me, people won't take you serious. Dress conservatively, and in fashion, and they'll know you are a man on the ball, reserved and intelligent, abreast of the times and discerning in your personal tastes. When of official Cusa business always wear a conservative business suit (subdued browns, blues, blacks, greys) with shirt and tie. Of course, when the weather or circumstance calls for more informal attire, be sure that your informal dress is not sloppy. Make sure your hair is always neatly combed and your fingernails clean. Your shoes should always be shined. People who are important to you -- and all intelligent and educated people -- will notice these things. Indeed, will be looking for them. Make sure your tie is appropriate, stay away from loud or non-matching ties. Don't wear loud socks or flashy jewelry. Cusa's EIC made a remendous effort to build the proper image, Don't you destr oy it. Proper dress is an absolute must. If you don't have a couple of good suits go out and buy them. They will be among the best investments you ever made. If you are in doubt about what kind of clothes to wear see a member of the EIC, you can rest assured that they are always dressed in the most proper and discreet manner. If you are in the Overseas Branch (OB) I recommend you see Norman Baker or Larry Jones. They can give you some fine tips. For those of you in the Stateside Branch (SB) see Richard Harsch, his dress is impeccable.

Here are some other fine points to remember:

A) When you walk, imagine that everyone is watching you — they probably are. Walk with your body erect and your head up, shoulders squared away. Make your stride a purposeful one, like a man with a great cause. Look straight ahead, control the swing of your arms. Walk in a straight manner and step deliberately. Don't walk like a farm boy surveying the big city for the first time. Act like a man of the world, a man of sophistication and good breeding.

B) When you enter a public establishment and you see acquaintances or friends: don't wave your arms at them, shout at them, blow a kiss, or rush to them and embrace them. You are no longer an over-enthusiased teen-ager. Simply smile and nod at them. Nod to them at leisure and in confidence. It is a symbol of Cusa that members of Cusa shake hands when meeting each other — no matter if you just saw the person a half hour ago in another place. This gentlemanly and gracious act is a sign of recognition and friendship. Don't be bashful about doing it. Although the hand-shake is required between Cusa members, this doesn't mean you shouldn't apply the same rule to others you know. It presents a good impression, one of friendliness and appreciation and acceptance.

C) When you are introduced to someone, say "how do you do". Don't say "howareya", "pleased to meet ya" or "hiya" or "its a pleasure" or "glad to make your acquaintance" or "its a pleasure, i'm sure". It should be pointed out, however, that this rule, for the most part, applies to males. It is not out of order to say "hi, anne," or "anne, how do you do" to young female in an informal situation. But in formal situations, the "how do you do" applies to everyone. In a situation where you are being introduced to several people, handle it like this: "how do you do, Mr. Brown....Mrs. Brown ....Mr. Jones....Mrs. Jones. In other words don't repeat "how do you do" to each of them, you'll sound like a robot or a nut. Just say "how do you do" to their first one, then nod to the others and repeat their names without the "how do you do".

D) When you make someone's acquaintance, measure them so that you can gather an opinion of them. Make a point of studying their hairdo, their eyes, their face, the way they talk, the words they use, hand-mannerisms, the way they sit — you'll learn a lot about that person, believe me. Look a person in the eye when you talk to them. Don't be afraid of people, they won't bite. If they do, bite back and they won't do it again. Always try and find out in conversation what their political thinking is, what kind of a man or woman they are: They may be possible recruits for Cusa.

E) Attendance at Cusa meetings: You are required to attend all official meetings ordered by your superiors. Social reasons are not sufficient cause for missing a meeting. However, the director of your branch (OB or SB) can excuse you at his discretion. No one else can. Obviously, meetings are important or they would not be called. Miss a meeting, and you may miss out on valuable information. Excessive tardiness or absentions indicate only that you do not have sufficient interest in the Cusa and therefore should be dropped from the organization. Remember, you joined Cusa on your own free will so you should want to attend all meetings.

10. Obedience to your superiors: No organization can function if subordinates do not obey their superiors. Being intelligent men in responsible positions, you will realize that even the guy you take orders from takes orders from someone higher up. His orders to you may not be his own, but came to him from higher up. Don't question his authority to give orders although you may question the order if you like. Cusa's leaders are men of tolerance and fairness, they will listen to your objections. But once a decision is made, abide by it. Let me add, that no Cusa leader should assign a task to a subordinate that he himself would not do. At the same time, I do not expect any Cusa member to carry out an assignment that violates his own principles or beliefs. Of course, this sort of assignment should never be made since our beliefs and principles are all the same under Cusa. If you are given an assignment you know you cannot carry out then make this known to your superior and he will reassign it to someone else. However, remember too, that you have just admitted to him that you have shortcomings, and therefore you take the risk of being passed over on some other important assignment, the completion of which would be a feather in your cap and set you up for possible promotion. Cusa demands a highly disciplined membership. We cannot function without tight discipline -- no organization can. If you don't like taking orders and would like to be a person giving them, then it is up to you to assert yourself and work yourself up to an executive position. Remember, a man cannot learn to lead until he first learns to follow. The highest ranking general was once a lieutenant!

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1043

Dear Bernie:

Received your letter today and was most encouraged, especially the bonus news that we can count on Bill Burley. We need Norman, too. Moseley makes no difference -- he's not in our class anyway.

Much has happened even since we last talked. First, Warren Carroll, who is our only local Cusa recruit, has pulled off the first of our latest political strategies. He has replaced another fellow as vice chairman of the southwest region of Young Americans for Freedom. I am the executive secretary -- the number 3 man in the headquarters. Warren is now the number 2 man. The man he replaces is -- or was -- an arch enemy of mine and was blocking progress. The number 1 man, or chairman, approved the change -- however, he did not know that Warren and I are close friends and political allies. And, of course, know nothing of Cusa. Warren, Larry and I held a strategy conference last Sunday and plotted our political course. The above was step number 1. We have two others that we must make: They are the chairman and a friend of his. We also brought in another fellow (into YAF not Cusa) whom we want to take over the adult chapter of YAF here in Dallas. He might be future Cusa material. He is a 38-year-old salesman and arch conservative. Warren and I pointed out that there were two factions splitting YAF -- one of which believed that YAF should be strictly a college and high school organization -- another which believed that YAF should be the unifying organization for all conservatives in the Southwest. We were the latter faction. We impressed upon this fellow -- Dale Davenport -- that our faction believed "conservatism to be a way of life" -- not just a political philosophy where men sit around over scotch and participate in a debating society. He is with us 100 per cent.

Once we get rid of the Chairman, YAF Southwest is ours -- with an independent treasury. We have already formulated our strategy for getting rid of the chairman -- time: This fall. You will be in on that one. Politically, no one knows Larry is in Dallas.

Business: Larry took a job selling Chrysler-Plymouth's, his 4th day here. I got Betty a job in a 1st class lounge bar. They are living right above Barbara and I. No sooner had they arrived and the manager of our luxurious, 75-unit apartment building got fired. I moved fast and went into see the guy who fired them. I recommended Larry and Betty as the new managers. He interviewed them and gave them his approval. He then had them re-interviewed by his boss for final approval. This guy said he would give them a final decision tomorrow. He said Betty and Larry were at the top of the list for the job but that he had some others to interview. You can imagine the possibilities if they get the job. Actually, Betty will do the managing, leaving Larry to continue working.

Larry and I also are about to gain 20 per cent interest in a private club across the street from the apartment building. Only in private clubs in Dallas is liquor served across the bar. The guy is doing no business and is desperate. We have made contact with some unemployed Arthur Murray instructors (girls). We have made an arrangement with the girls whereby they will go to work in the Du Charme Lounge as "hostesses". After making the deal with the girls we then went to the owner of the club and offered him a package deal. The girls get a commission of all they hustle -- Larry and I get 20 per cent gross off the top for setting up the deal, bringing the girls in and promoting the club. Warren Carroll, (who already has a PhD and 2 MA's) is also a law student and is drawing up the necessary papers. We are having our final conference this Sunday to clinch the deal. There is a lot more to it but it would take too much time to go into details here.

The point is we are making progress both politically and business-wise. Things are moving much faster since Larry got here. Simply because he is someone I can trust and rely upon. Things will move even faster after you and Bill and Norman arrive. We are only three persons and there is a physical limit to what we can do. We need help. We must also support ourselves. It is just as we anticipated in our original thinking and planning. Except, things are moving faster and better than we ever dreamed of. With the money we make from the present bar deal we will lease our own bar and bring in girls. This will give us an independent income. Only when we have independent and reliable incomes can we afford to give full time to politics.

you question why -- if we have such powerful and influential friends and backers -- why they aren't putting money behind us. Well, my friend, remember that we are not the only politically ambitious people in the world. And, remember, these wealthy and powerful friends are constantly besieged by political parties, etc., for their money. Remember, too, we are newcomers to Dallas. If we move to fast we will become suspect real fast. There are no greater suspicious than political suspicious and Dallas is a political city filled with bribing with intrigue. We cannot come on too strong too soon. We must ride our time, get known, make favorable impressions, become trusted -- then, when I don't want to overplay our hands -- especially since we have but six here to play with. We need reinforcements -- you, Bill and Norman. Please understand.

the three of you will be getting here at a most opportune time, believe me. We will have things ready for you, just as they were for Larry. Larry and Warren are getting along beautifully. All of us are. No bickering, no intrigues between us. Just a simple, amicable, honest working relationship. Warren is a scriptwriter for Lifeline, H. L. Hunt's television and radio series. H. L. Hunt is a multi-millionaire oilman. Warren makes about $700 a month. He is all politics. He is 32 and a former CIA man (don't worry). He has been checked out. Hunt checked him out.

don't worry about a thing, all is going as well as can be expected -- indeed, right down Cusa lines and plans. What did you think of the G YAF brochure? Is there any reason why Bill and Norman can't get here before you? The sooner the better. As I said, Sheila will be here in August and Ken in September. That will give us a fine team and working force. I shall have Larry write you. Indeed, we can send a tape. Have you approached Norman? We want to get him into the Republic National Bank where we are building our credit like crazy for the day when we need some ready cash. We are also storing up on insurance for collateral for that day. We expect to net $400 to $500 a month from the bar deal. Just extra cash. We will put Ambush operation as soon as you all get back here to sign an agreement. The old one is no good since it includes Jim and excludes Bill and Warren.

can you salvage anyone else from the old group? Who else can you bring in? Please answer ASAP.

Best,

Larrie

8. what do you mean volatile enthusiasm. I think you used the wrong word. I was never volatile in my belief in Cusa. I never gave up or became discouraged. That's why Larry and Betty are here.

Panel Reports Birch Society Dedicated But Not Dangerous

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The John Birch Society was described Wednesday as dedicated but not dangerous by a California legislative committee in a report that warned of "a fresh new crop" of hate groups in California.

It reiterated that "the largest hate group the world has ever seen" — the Communist party — still is hard at work in the state and must be watched, despite the relatively small number of party members, perhaps 2,000 here and 10,000 to 15,000 in the nation.

The Senate fact-finding subcommittee on un-American activities also charged Communists infiltrated some peace groups. And it had a good word for the Negro supremacist Black Muslim sect.

It rebuked attempts to lower the University of California bar on Communist speakers, complaining that:

"Under the guise of academic freedom, apostles of the class struggle unite in a chorus of indignation at any attempt to hold an anti-Communist school, and at the same time participate in the activities of a score of Communist front organizations."

Sixty-one of the report's 202 pages were devoted to the Birch Society.

The committee found the society "a right, anti-Communist, fundamentalist organization."

"We have not found the society to be either a secret or a fascist organization, nor have we found the great majority of its members in California to be mentally unstable, crackpots, or hysterical about the threat of Communist subversion."

Peace movements came in for criticism of their "naivete" and subversion by Communists.

It tabbed the Women's International Strike for Peace, student peace union — with chapters at Southern California high schools, junior colleges and colleges — and the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy as groups serving Red purposes and guided by long-time Communist-front organizers.

The new hate groups, the committee said, normally are small but in close contact with similar groups around the country.

It called the national States Rights party, with headquarters at Birmingham, Ala., "more potentially dangerous than any of the American Nazi groups."

Touching briefly on the Black Muslim Negro supremacy group, the committee commented:

"While it is true that the Black Muslim movement has preached a hatred of white people, there is no question about its accomplishing much good for many of its own members."

Dear Larry;

Well gentlemen, we have arrived! Remember, when I said my first correspondence from Dallas would be on NIC letterhead? Here is the score to date:

I arrived in Dallas late Sunday night. At 9 a.m. Monday I was in their office in the Carrigan Towers Bldg (17th floor - the top floor). Frank McKehee was out of town. However, I learned that the NIC was run by three partners, one of whom James Byers (age 27) would be in shortly. I waited for Jim and held a 7 hour conference with him. I told Jim I controlled and was leader of the powerful "Conservatism, USA," and laid out our goals & plans (abbreviated version we give outsiders, of course). I told Jim that CUSA wanted to merge with NIC effective 1 Aug 68. The name of our combined organization would be "Conservatism, USA" of course. Frank McKehee would be Chairman of the Board & the five partners of CUSA & the three partners of NIC members of the Board of Directors.

In the interim of now and 1 Aug 68, I would be made a partner of NIC & paid $125 a week - and each returning partner of mine would be added to the NIC payroll as soon as they returned.

Now, Larry, you must understand,

I am making this offer with tongue in cheek - we've got rid of our new "partners" at the time comes. But you see I am doing things the easy way.
 We'll have control of the NIC long before our original deadline this way.

Anyway, Jim Byers was deeply impressed & set up a meeting for me with Frank McSpade for tomorrow at 3 p.m. Although there are 3 partners in the NIC, Mr. McSpade is obviously the boss. His decision will determine my proposition. At this point, I'd say we are in. The third partner of NIC is a "Don" someone who is an Arkansas pilot.

Here are some facts on the NIC:

- 1) We were right: the NIC is absolutely unorganized. A chaotic situation.
- 2) There are no dues-paying memberships although NIC boasts 300,000 members followed ers.
- 3) Continuity Centers are completely on their own. Receive little or no direction from Dallas and are very weak. Situation here is all fucked up.
- 4) NIC is ripe for take-over exactly as we planned.
- 5) NIC is completely an educational outfit.
 Lectures, films, etc.

About Dallas: a pretty and a big town - but a fine town. There's a kind of bars: straight beer joints; bars with beer + liquor (but no mixed drinks, you have to buy a whole bottle + they mix); private clubs. See bars close 'at midnight, 11 a.m. on Saturdays. No great night life.

I have a big, lovely apartment (furnished) for $120 a month in real nice neighborhood. Address: 5417 B. Lewis St. I have already moved in. Barbara + I are getting married this weekend. Don't tell Carolyn - I want to tell her myself. All so well with me. I have thought black raincoat, black fifth Avenue high crown Fedora + briefcase: best dressed young man on streets of Dallas, believe me.

Dallas, Texas

February 2, 1963

TO: All Members Commission Exhibit No. 1049

We have succeeded. The mission with which I was charged in Dallas has been accomplished. We are in -- all the way. Here is the story:

Friday night I attended a gathering of the top young (and some old) conservatives in Dallas. The gathering was at the home of Dr. Robert Morris, president of the Defenders of American Liberty. Present were:

Dr. Morris, political
Dr. John Kubek, professor of philosophy, Dallas University.
Professor Robert Woods, political science department, Dallas U.
Mr. George Ward, detective, Dallas City Police.
Mr. Ken Thompson, editorial writer, Dallas Morning News.
Mr. Clyde Moore, newscaster for radio station KRID, former PR man for T. L. Hunt, multi-millionaire oilman, former UPI news writer.
Mr. James Ellis, insurance agent, leading republican.
Mr. Fred Eckert, leader of young conservatives at Dallas U.
Mr. Kevin Canwell, members Dallas U. conservatives.

Also, the wives of some of these men.

The group got together at 9 p.m. Up until midnite it appeared it was going to nothing more than a social gathering, lots of political talk, no business. Finally, Bob Morris approached me. "Enjoying yourself, Larrie?" He asked.

"No, sir, I am not to be honest with you. I thought we were getting together for business not to socialize. I am terribly disappointed."

With this, Bob Morris asked for quiet in the room. "It is time to get down to business," he said. He then introduced me very flatteringly and told the group the get together was called because of me. He then gave me the floor.

I immediately ripped into the group and conservatives as a whole. I criticized and complained. There were protests. I overcame them. It was ~~asked~~ asked just what I expected and wanted.

My friends, I told them exactly what I was after. I got immediate backing from Bob Morris, Dr. Kubek, Prof. Woods and Mr. Ellis. I threw in a few damns and hells and gave the old "hellfire and brimstone" baptist bit. It worked like a charm. To make a long story short, fellow Cusa, we did not get everything I wanted but we got 90 per cent of it.

I wanted to start a new movement, a new organization. I had to compromise. Others of more influence than I suggested we use an already existing movement and organization -- namely YAF or Young Americans for Freedom, which already has 50,000 members or so. And, quite to my surprise, some people spoke quite frankly:

"Let us use the basic structure of YAF, etc., but let us start a Southwest chapter. Then we'll move out. Eventually, we'll take over YAF. We can use YAF to get us off the ground, then maneuver to take it over."

Cusa, I was flabbergasted that this came from a mouth not my own. It came from

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1049

Clyde Moore.

(ah, Clyde, baby, I thought, you are a man after my own heart).

And, with this, I compromised and the Dallas chapter of YAF was born. Ken Thompson had already been approached to be YAF's Southwest Director so we had that sown up. You probably can't imagine why I moved to make Clyde Moore the president of our little young YAF.

Again, to make a short story, YAF was born last night and before we broke up we agreed to meet again this afternoon. That is, the young among us met this afternoon. We met at Ken's and Clyde's apartment for 4 hours. We drew up an organization. You members of Cusa might be amazed to learn that the organization is strictly the same as our own Cusa's. All officers are to be paid full time as money permits. Clyde will be paid immediately, two more within 60 days and three more in 120 days. We have three offices still open. No one in Dallas knows it but I am reserving them for Mr. Bernie Weissman, Mr. James Moseley, et al, when they get to Dallas. Salary for all officers will be $100 a week to start.

You, fellow Cusa members, might be amazed to learn that the goals, plans, strategy and tactics of the Southwest YAF is surprisingly similar to Cusa. To be quite explicit, Cusa is now an established fact in Dallas -- only we are calling it YAF. I think you catch on.

In addition, we are starting a YAF chapter in Munich. We expect to spread them to Stuttgart, Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Berlin, Kaiserslautern, etc. YAF/Europe will be wholly supported by YAF/Dallas. We are going to be moving real fast.

We are getting every top name in business, education, politics, religion, etc., who is conservative to endorse YAF. The YAF national advisory board includes 37 congressmen including Rep. Glenn Cunningham, Sen. Barry Goldwater, Sen. Spessard Holland, Rep. Thomas M. Pelly, Rep. John H. Roussetot, Sen. Strom Thurmond, Sen. John Tower.

Also on the YAF national advisory board are Warren R. Austin, Wm. F. Buckley, Jr., Taylor Caldwell, Igor Cassini, Gen. Mark Clark, Ted Dealey, Dr. Bella V. Dodd, John Dos Passos, Charles Edison, Edgar Eisenhower, M. Stanton Evans, Henry Hazlitt, Edward Hunter, William F. Knowland, J. Bracken Lee, Adolph J. Menjou, Admiral Ben Moreel, Ronald Reagan, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, William A. Rusher, George E. Soko losky, Admiral Lewis Strauss, Archbishop Theodotus, John Wayne, Gen. C. A. Willoughby, and Gen. Robert Wood.

We of the Dallas/YAF expect to get similar top names from the Southwest. Among these will be ex-texas governors Allen Shivers and Coke Stevenson, state congressmen, civic leaders, etc. With their names on our advisory board we shall have no trouble getting donations. YAF is non-partisan, non-sectarian, etc. It is strictly conservative and counts both democrats and republicans.

Our dues shall be $4 a year for students, $12 a year for non-students. Also, to raise immediate cash, we are establishing a "Founding Fifty" composed of 50 people who will pay $5 a month membership or $60 a year to act as the top "outer circle" for YAF/Southwest.

All those present at the Morris meeting will be included. I have also included the names of Bernie Weissman, Bill Burley, Ken Glazbrook, Boda Boyce, Robert Schmidt, Richard Harsch and Sheila McDonald. We are expecting the founding 50 to pay their $60 yearly dues in three installments of $20 each. Each of you must raise this money. Don't complain, I am poor too but I have to pay it. After all, you will get many times that amount back -- plus your futures. It is the finest investment of your lives. I must have your 1st payment here in Dallas by 1 March, the 2nd by 1 April and the 3rd by 1 May. You will know how to raise the money. Don't let me or yourselves down now.

This money rescinds and supersedes Cusa dues.

From here on in we are known as YAF. Forget Cusa for now because YAF is Cusa. I have also suggested that after we become powerful we change our name to "Conservatism USA" and the idea has been approved. Change all your records, etc., to read "YAF" instead of Cusa. You will also be surprised to learn that YAF's emblem is a powerful arm holding the flaming torch of liberty aloft. I will send you all the YAF literature, etc., you need in one week when we get it from New York. Our Cusa organizational setup still stands.

Now, Cusa, we are moving. Overnight, I have become an important person in the young conservative camp of Dallas. Bob Morris paid tribute to me with a toast. He said that thanks to Larrie Schmidt action was being taken, that YAF was founded, that all the progress made was because I stood up and spoke out. I now have a big voice. This is what I have worked for these past three months in Dallas. This is the end of one road for Cusa, the beginning of a new one. All those months in Munich were not wasted. I have kept my end of our "bargain", accomplished my task in Dallas. Now it is up to the rest of you to carry out yours. I am in. Whether each of you are also "in" depends upon what you do now. Also, whether you get to Dallas. I need you here soonest. But, above all else, you must pay your "Founding Fifty" dues. I sold these people on each of you and they are expecting you to come to Dallas and play an important role. If you fail us, you fail really only yourselves. I have broken the ground for each of you, I have laid the cornerstone for each of your political futures. There is little more I can do for you. It is now solely up to you.

Oh, yes, YAF has no connection with the radical right element and shuns it wherever it can.

One more thing: All of you have been negligent in corresponding with me. This must cease. I expect at least one letter a week from Bernie, Sheila and Richard. And, more frequent correspondence from Ken. If you don't want to stay in touch with me, fine, you are hurting only yourselves. The days of leisure are over. We are established. I am telling you now, get with it -- or get out. My future is now secure in conservatism -- how about yours? The question to this can only be answered by each of you.

Sincerely,

Larrie

BERNARD WILLIAM WEISSMAN, 439 South Columbus Avenue, Mount Vernon, New York, was advised of the identities of the interviewing Special Agents, that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney. WEISSMAN indicated he understood this and stated he desired to cooperate fully.

WEISSMAN advised that he first met LARRIE SCHMIDT while both were serving in the United States Army in Germany in August, 1962. SCHMIDT had formed an organization called Conservatism U.S.A. (CUSA). The membership of this organization consisted of individuals at that time in the Armed Services.

After WEISSMAN's discharge from the United States Army, he maintained contact with SCHMIDT and WILLIAM BURLEY, another individual whom he had met while in the United States Army.

According to WEISSMAN, SCHMIDT, BURLEY, and himself had made long range plans to utilize their conservative political convictions to further their chances in the business world. SCHMIDT called WEISSMAN from Dallas, Texas, in the early morning of the day after ADLAI STEVENSON, United States Ambassador to the United Nations, had been assaulted by pickets in Dallas, Texas. At that time, SCHMIDT urged WEISSMAN to come to Dallas for business purposes. SCHMIDT also commented concerning the assault of Ambassador STEVENSON, stating that he had organized some of the picketing, but that he was not responsible for the assault.

WEISSMAN furnished the following handwritten letter, which was received by WEISSMAN from LARRIE SCHMIDT on November 1, 1963:

Oct. 29, 1963

Dear BERNIE &amp; BILL:

To much has happened in the past few days. I don't know where to begin. First of all, what appeared at first to have been a great blunder of ours has rapidly turned into a great victory. I refer to STEVENSON incident.

You must understand, that I personally had nothing to do with the sign-hitting and spitting incidents. Secondly, the press reports were so outrageously exaggerated it is unbelievable. This, plus the fact our mayor and City Council have issued an official apology on behalf of Dallas, has aroused the scorn and anger of all Dallasites, the overwhelming majority of whom are right wingers.

The ultra liberals of Dallas, led by STANLEY MARCUS of Neiman-Marcus went to far in pressuring for denunciation of "extremists" and "Fascists" in Dallas. As a result, a bomb has exploded everywhere here against them. This town is a battleground and that is no joke. Never before have Dallas conservatives from the GOP to the John Birch Society ever been so strongly united.

And, in the middle of it is myself. Thus far, I am the only organizer of the demonstration to have publicly identified himself. I have been interviewed by UPI, AP, the two local daily newspapers, TV stations, CBS, and local radio. I am a hero to the right -- a stormtrooper to the left.

I have been beseiged by calls, some threatening my life. It is both hell and fun, but not at the same time.

All details when you arrive. In any event, due to this international incident, I have become, overnight, a "fearless spokesman" and "leader" of the right wing in Dallas. What I worked so hard for in one year -- and nearly failed -- finally came through one incident, in one night!

Politically, CUSA is set. It is now up to you two to get Ambus going. We need Ambus financing bad. Have arranged for you to meet and talk with many people. Job opportunities set up -- so are business opportunities, such as DuCharme Club. Again, I promise nothing. What you achieve is up to you. All I can do is pave the way.

You shall find it all interesting!

Your friend,

LARRIE"

In answer to this letter, WEISSMAN and BURLEY left in WEISSMAN's automobile from Mount Vernon, New York, on November 2, 1963, and arrived in Dallas, Texas, on November 4, 1963. WEISSMAN stated that the main purpose of his trip to Dallas was to participate with BURLEY and SCHMIDT in a business enterprise entitled "Ambus", which WEISSMAN described as a holding company to oversee business interests that these three individuals intended to operate. The first business operation that they intended to operate was the DuCharme Club located on Haskell Avenue, Dallas, Texas. However, according to WEISSMAN, when they first personally inspected the DuCharme Club they felt that it was not worth their efforts to go into the operation further.

WEISSMAN also stated that his secondary purpose for going to Dallas, Texas, was political, that is, he decided that this would be the proper area for him to get started in Conservative politics. WEISSMAN described himself as a Conservative on international issues, but a Liberal on national issues. By this, he explained that he was very much in favor of integration and civil rights and other programs which he associated with the Liberal groups in the United States, but that with regard

Date _____

DL 89-43
NY 89-75

to international dealings of the United States, he considered himself more closely associated with the Conservative outlook.

WEISSMAN freely admitted that he had sought to use his political connections to further his business opportunities.

Upon his arrival in Dallas, WEISSMAN and BURLEY met with SCHMIDT, and SCHMIDT again informed them that he, SCHMIDT, had organized twelve Dallas college students in a protest against Ambassador STEVENSON, but again denied any responsibility for the assault on Ambassador STEVENSON.

Upon the decision not to go any further with the DuCharme Club, WEISSMAN obtained a job as a salesman with Carpet Engineers of Dallas. He stated that he received no salary or commission for the time he was employed by the Carpet Engineers. His sole means of subsistence was $200 that he brought with him to Dallas, and the occasional use of a credit card of SCHMIDT's to buy necessary items for his apartment at 4618 Reiger Street, Dallas, Texas.

WEISSMAN stated that SCHMIDT discussed the Conservative group activity in Dallas, Texas, and stated that they should do something for the then pending arrival of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. SCHMIDT decided that a demonstration against President KENNEDY would not be in order, and therefore the only thing that they could do would be to place an ad in one of the Dallas newspapers indicating disapproval of President KENNEDY's policies. SCHMIDT was the individual who drew up the format of the advertisement which appeared in the Dallas Morning News, Friday, November 22, 1963. WEISSMAN identified an autostat of this article as the article in question.

~~WEISSMAN stated that the one quarter inch black border which appeared on this advertisement was his, WEISSMAN's, idea and was merely done for the purpose of~~ attracting attention to the ad and for no other purpose. He stated in view of the subsequent events, he very deeply regretted this decision concerning the black border. He also stated that the American Fact-Finding Committee does not actually exist, and that it was a name made up by LARRIE SCHMIDT and JOSEPH GRINNAN, whom he described as an independent oil man.

The decision to use WEISSMAN's name was made by WEISSMAN and by SCHMIDT in order to offset anti-Semetic charges made by several people against the Conservative movement in Dallas, Texas.

WEISSMAN stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and to his knowledge never met OSWALD. He also stated he never met nor did he know JACK RUBY. With respect to OSWALD, he advised that his mother, Mrs. LILLIAN WEISSMAN, has advised him that OSWALD at one time resided at 1061 Sheridan Avenue, Bronx, New York. WEISSMAN pointed out that he, at one time, resided at 1063 Grant Avenue, Bronx, New York, which WEISSMAN described as being only a few blocks from the Sheridan Avenue address. He again stated he had never met OSWALD. WEISSMAN advised that he left Dallas, Texas, on November 27, 1963, by automobile and arrived in New York City the night of November 29, 1963.

WEISSMAN advised that he would be available for recontact at any time, and would be most desirous of cooperating fully.

U. S. SECRET SERVICE

COMMISSION EXHIBIT 1053-A

PLANNING DOCUMENTUNITED STATES SECRET SERVICEPlan to Meet Requirements for Expanded Protection of the President and the Vice President of the United States

Subsequent to the assassination of President Kennedy, the Secret Service initiated a number of studies to develop improvements in the protection provided the President and the Vice President. The President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy also carried on similar studies and has received voluminous material from the Secret Service and other agencies. In turn, the Commission and its staff has made a number of informal comments and suggestions to the Service. In addition, the Secret Service has also had the advice and assistance of the office of the President's Scientific Advisor, the RAND Corporation, the Research Analysis Corporation, and a number of officials from other Government agencies.

As a result of this activity, the Secret Service has made a number of changes in its procedures and has reorganized some of its internal operations. However, the Service believes that this is not enough and that it is vital that immediate action also be taken to improve its capabilities and performance in a number of areas. In particular, we believe that:

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

- (1) The Protective Research Section should be automated and expanded so that it may more effectively identify those who may wish to harm the President or the Vice President;
- (2) the number of agents in the field that are assigned to protective work should be substantially increased so that better coverage can be given to potential risks and more thorough preparations made for Presidential visits;
- (3) training for Secret Service agents should be substantially increased and placed on a more systematic basis;
- (4) additional agents should be provided for protection of the Vice President;
- (5) the technical capabilities of the Service should be substantially increased through additional trained personnel and equipment; and
- (6) a number of devices should be acquired that will provide physical protection for the President in various situations.

In order to implement these requirements, the Service has developed this plan which states in detail the manpower, equipment, and other related support which is needed and the justification therefor. The implementation of the plan will take approximately 20 months from the time that it is approved and funds may be expended.

PERSONNEL REQUIREMENTS

EXPANDED FACILITIES IN THE PROTECTIVE RESEARCH

SECTION . . . . . 17 Special Agents
5 ADP Employees

Research and Countermeasures Unit. The present complement of this Unit consists of one Assistant Special Agent in Charge, one Special Agent and one Security Specialist, in addition to the Special Agent in Charge. Two additional Security Specialists have been authorized in the 1965 appropriation and are now being recruited. One additional Special Agent is needed to staff three teams, each consisting of one Special Agent and one Security Specialist. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge will be a member of one team.

The basic duties of this Unit are to check and ensure the technical security of various locations used by the President, the Vice President, and others in the White House. The details are classified, but this has become an increasingly difficult and important task. Three teams are essential to the conduct of the countermeasures operation commitments of this Unit, both on a regular basis in Washington and during travels of the President and to assist the Special Agent in Charge in research and development work.

Protective Security Unit. Six additional Special Agents are needed as Advance Special Agents to travel with the White House Detail Advance Agents. One of the most important functions of the PRS is to work with the intelligence units and records and files units of local enforcement agencies in order to identify possible assassins who may have come to the attention of local agencies. Prior to the assassination of President Kennedy, on each Presidential trip, a single advance man worked with local agencies to develop plans for the President's physical protection, the route he would follow, etc., and also carried out liaison duties with local agencies to try to identify individuals potentially dangerous to the President. Since the assassination these duties have been split between two or more agents, and on the basis of our experience in the past eight months we believe it is essential that, for each Presidential trip, at least one agent spend his full time working directly with local law enforcement agencies, mental hospitals, detention and work camps and similar institutions. However, it has been possible to use two or more agents, rather than one, for this advance work only by pulling field agents off their regular assignments. This has been detrimental to the operations of the field offices, and we believe permanent arrangements should be made. Based on Presidential travel patterns of the last few years, six agents are required.

24 Hour Coverage for PR3. Five additional special agents are needed to provide for 24 hour coverage and operation of the Protective-Security and Research-Countermeasures Units. At present PR3 does not maintain a 24 hour duty watch because sufficient personnel are not available. We believe this creates an undesirable risk. Emergencies happen 24 hours a day, but without a duty officer the reaction time of PRS is slower than it should be because qualified agents must be summoned from home. In the event of a rapid Presidential movement or of reports of a communications compromise or of a serious risk to the President, unfortunate consequences could flow from a delay of a few hours in carrying out the duties assigned to PRS. We therefore believe a 24 hour duty agent should be provided for. This will require five additional agents.

ADP Technical Specialists. After preliminary study we have reached the conclusion that it is essential that the present PRS file system covering potential risks to the President must be automated. Rapid retrieval of information and evaluation of risks is presently handicapped by manually indexed file cards and reports covering hundreds of thousands of subjects and incidents. The equipment needed and the procedures which we propose to follow are more fully discussed in the section under ADP Feasibility Study. In general, our pressing need is for qualified personnel to plan and develop a workable and efficient automated file and retrieval system.

The minimum number of personnel needed to make a thorough feasibility study of such a program, to refine it and to develop by trial and error, is five employees. Two of these must be expert programmers, in Grades GS-13 or GS-14, and the remaining three to support their efforts would be Technicians and Operators with grades GS-7 to GS-9.

This number of qualified persons, to make a thorough and competent study and develop a workable plan, is the essential first step to revision of our present system, and it is also in the long run the least costly way to solve our present problem. It is clear that development of this file system will take a number of years. A nucleus of technically competent ADP specialists is essential to this project, and we are advised by experts in this field that this number of specialists will probably meet only our minimum requirements.

Liaison Officers. The establishment of personal liaison with all law enforcement and intelligence agencies and others at the seat of Government is essential to insure that we receive information on all organizations and individuals who pose a threat to the security of the President and others whom we protect, and further that we receive the proper information needed to make our evaluations. On the basis of eight months of experimentation we are convinced that this can be accomplished only through personal contact by liaison agents.

The aftermath of the assassination of President Kennedy demonstrated beyond any doubt that the exchange of information among the intelligence community concerning persons potentially dangerous to the President was inadequate. Since that time we have tried to improve the situation through use of a number of different systems. We have circulated a formal request for information; we have made and maintained personal contacts with all the other agencies and we have revised our system for processing information. But we are convinced that liaison officers are required. This is so not only because we are doubtful that the present flow of information is complete but also because it is the only way we can hope to get information or follow-up material quickly. Quick results are absolutely essential for information required with respect to Presidential trips. The use of liaison officers is the system generally followed in the intelligence community by other agencies. We believe five such officers are the minimum that we will require.

DATA PROCESSING

For ADP Feasibility Study . . . . . $ 100,000.00

The expanded receipt of information in PRS from the White House Mail Room, from other law enforcement and intelligence agencies, and other sources requires that our present hand-operated file system be completely overhauled and that an automated system be installed for the handling of the information. The IBM Corporation has been consulted, and they have analyzed our basic problems. They proposed a pilot program which falls short of our needs. The program requires further study and consideration, particularly in view of the great expansion of information received in recent months with more expected in the future.

It is necessary to conduct a detailed feasibility study and to experiment with many variations because we have problems which have not been encountered by any other law-enforcement or intelligence agency of the Government now using ADP equipment.

These funds would be required to compensate experts whom we would employ as consultants and for lease time on standard equipment or for the purchase of specially designed pilot equipment.

At this time we are not requesting funds for the purchase of functional equipment because we first have to design a practical system. These funds are solely to initiate and hopefully complete a design program on a crash basis and to conduct tests of certain equipment and systems.

SPECIAL AGENTS NEEDED FOR FIELD OFFICES . . . . . 145

These special agents (which include 25 requested in the 1966 preliminary budget) will be assigned to various field offices throughout the country to:

- (1) Handle security investigations at an estimated annual rate of 12,500 which should be referred to the field from the 50,000 information items which are expected to be received in Fiscal Year 1965 by the PRS for evaluation and analysis as a result of revised PRS activities and liaison activities. Evaluation of the material received since November 22 indicates that we can expect to receive a greatly expanded volume of reports requiring investigation. In the last six months we have received approximately 32,500 reports as opposed to 12,500 in the previous six months. It seems clear that this number will reach 55,000 during Fiscal Year 1966. Experience has indicated that we should refer to the field approximately one out of every four information items for further investigation. Thus by 1966 we can expect to have 14,000 items going to the field for investigation.
- (2) Be available when the President is in travel status to keep track of and/or locate an estimated minimum of 25 known dangerous persons. They would assist in coordinating the surveillance on persons considered to be dangerous risks as well as taking other means to neutralize these risks during trips of the President.

- 10 -

- (3) Assist the White House Detail Special Agents on advance assignments and surveys prior to Presidential and Vice Presidential visits.
- (4) Conduct periodic check-ups on known PRS risks. Such activities require a considerable part of special agents' time and, because of limited personnel, have necessarily been curtailed.
- (5) Keep current pending investigations on extremist organizations and to keep the Protective Research Section and the White House Detail aware of the activities of these organizations as they relate to the security of the President. This would be done by maintaining a close working relationship with all Federal, State, and local law enforcement and intelligence agencies within the territory covered by their field offices to insure prompt and complete reporting by those agencies on matters involving security of the President and the Vice President.
- (6) Be used during expanded building canvasses and route surveys recommended by the Research Analysis Corporation which involves the development and use of a library of both films and maps of city streets and the analysis thereof to identify high risk areas and locations.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

- (7) Lower the ratio of pending cases per special agent from approximately 110 to a more workable figure, though it would be relatively little to bring this ratio down to the ideal of approximately 25 cases to a man.
- (8) Prevent the present stripping of offices for special details and assignments relating to Presidential security.
- (9) Assure more prompt and thorough reports on all our investigative and protective assignments.
- (10) Allow the necessary constant in-service training program in protection techniques and developments as recommended by the Research Analysis Corporation and the Rand Corporation.

Subsequent to the assassination, the Secret Service has developed new procedures designed to provide additional protection to the President while he is travelling. These procedures include surveys of buildings on the route of a Presidential motorcade and the posting of agents along the route. Because the Service has relatively few agents available, it has called on other Federal law enforcement agencies for help in connection with these new procedures. From February 11, 1964 through June 30, 1964, the Service has received 9,515 man hours of assistance from 670 personnel of other Federal agencies. The Service believes that calls on other agencies should be kept to a minimum both because it puts a strain on their resources and because its own trained agents are better qualified to perform protective duties. The new field agents requested should permit the Service to take care of most of this work with its own personnel and restrict its call on other agencies to emergency situations.

CLERICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT . . . . . 50 Clerks
(This number includes 15 clerks requested in our 1966 budget.)

Additional clerical assistance would furnish the required clerical support to the expanded program relative to the investigation and the control of the additional Protective Research activities in the field and at Headquarters. On an average we need 1 clerk for every 2.5 special agents. Fifty clerks would provide the required support for the new special agents recommended. Most of this clerical force would be assigned to the larger offices of the Secret Service which receive the large volume of referrals to insure the prompt submission of the necessary investigative and protective reports and to free special agent personnel for investigative duties.

HEADQUARTERS DETAIL . . . . . 18 Special Agents

Eighteen additional special agents are requested for permanent assignment to Headquarters for intensive training and for assignment as required to the White House Detail.

Developments in transportation have revolutionized Presidential travel, and the development of various devices in the field of Presidential protection has greatly increased the training requirements for each agent. Whereas Presidents formerly travelled by secure trains, they now travel by air and motorcade which require the employment of many more agents. Whereas an agent formerly needed only to know how to use a pistol, he now must be able to employ many other types of weapons and technical devices. The sum of these developments is that we need more agents available when the President travels, and we need a better way to provide systematic on-the-job training for agents.

To meet this need we believe we should establish a headquarters pool of approximately 18 special agents. The primary duty of the pool would be to supplement the White House Detail at the time of Presidential travel movements. But when not so employed, special agents assigned to the pool would receive training in firearms use, use of special weapons, crowd control, handling of mobs, handling of psychotic persons, use of tear gas, high-pitch sound devices, and other similar techniques. Such training would be continuous, and assignments to the pool would be rotated on a regular plan to provide for training of all special agents.

This pool would also provide manpower for advance surveys, sick and annual leave, and special assignments. Experienced agents would be rotated into the pool from time to time, but it would also consist in part of newly recruited agents. Through the pool it would be possible to give a much better indoctrination in Presidential protection to all field agents. In times of emergency this would be an indispensable reservoir that we would be able to call on.

We believe that a systematic and flexible pool as described is long overdue.

EXPANDED AND IMPROVED TRAINING FACILITIES

Expanded and improved training facilities will be required for the training of all Service personnel and also for the proposed Headquarters Detail.

The limitations of the present facility have long been recognized, and in 1961 definite plans were laid and an active program started to develop a new training facility to meet the particular needs of the Service. The present facility is inadequate in that it does not provide necessary class room accommodations and is too small to be expanded for new and vitally needed training. In addition, its operations constitute a hazard to visitors to the National Arboretum where it is located.

A site was found at the Agricultural Research Center at Beltsville, Md. Through cooperation of the Department of Agriculture, the site will be available when needed.

The General Services Administration has been most cooperative in assisting in the development of the new facility and is now completing a detailed prospectus. It has included a request for funds in its budget.

This new training center will provide not only for all phases of Secret Service operations but for White House Police Force and Treasury Guard Force. It will be particularly helpful in new programs for expanded training in connection with our protective responsibilities. These include training in the use of many types of weapons where safety is a factor. They also include specialized training regarding techniques to be used with the Presidential automobile and follow-up vehicles. Adequate space will be available at the new center for simulated conditions using vehicles and other items under favorable conditions for training.

PROTECTION OF THE VICE PRESIDENT . . . . . 25 Special Agents

The U. S. Secret Service was authorized to provide protection for the Vice President by Public Law 87-829, signed October 15, 1962. A protective detail was established on that same date to carry out the responsibility. A request for supplemental funds was submitted to the Congress to provide for 19 agents and 1 clerk to carry out the protective assignments through Fiscal Year 1963. This supplemental request was approved. In the 1964 budget, a request was made for funds to provide 35 agents and 1 clerk, representing an increase of 16 agents over the number requested in the Supplemental of 1963. In House Report No. 179, the House denied 26 positions and reduced the budget request to provide for only 10 agents for the Vice Presidential Detail. The recommendation of the House further stated that the entire resources of the field should be drawn upon as needed to augment such security. Therefore, an appeal for restoration of the 26 positions for Vice Presidential protection was not made to the Senate Appropriations Committee. The effect of the House reduction was to reduce the Vice Presidential Detail by 10 positions below the number provided for in the 1963 Supplemental Request.

At the present time, the Vice Presidential Detail consists of 10 protective positions. The need for additional special agents is obvious. Ten agents cannot provide full protection 24 hours a day in Washington and wherever the Vice President travels. Therefore, a request for 25 additional special agents is being made in order that the U. S. Secret Service may properly discharge its responsibilities under Public Law 87-829.

TECHNICAL AND PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT AND AIDS

Special Technical and Protective Equipment and Aids for Agents and Personnel Being Protected, and Related Research Equipment and Development . . . . . $ 323,500.00

Protective blankets . . . . .	$	1,000
Body armor and protection . . . . .		1,000
Speaking and Reviewing Stands Protection . .		45,000
Chairs and Seats . . . . .		21,000
Special Protective Equipment and Devices for a Second Automobile. . . . .		255,500
	$	323,500

Extensive research into use of nylon protective blankets shows that they afford a considerable degree of protection against all kinds of small explosives. Research on protection of the body of an individual has developed vests and other items which are light in weight but offer vital protection in situations which would require special agents to use their bodies to protect the President. Research has been done on protection of speaking stands and reviewing stands and it has been shown that it is possible to offer the President or other person protection at parades, athletic events, and similar places where it is necessary to face large crowds for extended periods. Much thought and activity has gone into having the protection adequate but unobtrusive and the stands of conventional appearance. The same is true of chairs and seats for use on such stands.

Based on recent Presidential travel patterns, the Service believes that a second protected vehicle is necessary. The total cost of such a vehicle is high because of the research and manufacturing costs required for the development and production of the protective features of the vehicle. Much has already been done and studies, research, and tests are continuing in order to offer the maximum protection, but to keep the vehicle in appearance much like a conventional automobile. The completion of the research and the actual production of the protective equipment will cost $255,500.

Limousine . . . . . $ 10,000.00

As stated above, the Service believes that a second protected vehicle for the President is required. This is the cost of such a vehicle without protective features.

Intrusion Detection for White House Fence
(Estimated Cost) . . . . . 30,000.00

Such a system has been under study for a number of years and one which appears to meet the requirements has been invented and a prototype is currently being tested. The above funds would equip the present fence with this feature. This feature is used extensively in industrial and security areas, and we feel it is essential.

Emergency Lighting of White House Fence
(Estimated Cost) . . . . . 25,000.00

This program would place emergency lights along the inside base of the fence and inside large areas of dense shrubbery. Again, this is a standard feature for security and industrial installations. We feel it is essential.

---0---

The following programs and devices are being researched, but no request is being made for funds at this time:

An invisible radar fence for use in perimeter protection has been under development for several years. A prototype unit is scheduled for delivery to the Secret Service within the near future.

Intensive research in means for detecting concealed weapons on people has been in progress for a number of months. This need was researched a few years ago with negative results; however, new knowledge on the measuring phenomenon has been developed in recent years and it appears that the current study may lead to effective gun detection equipment.

The Bell Telephone laboratories have developed a procedure for making a comparative identification of human voices. The process is called "voice printing." Some test samples have been examined for us by the Bell Laboratory and plans are being completed for use of this aid in connection with threatening telephone calls. The "voice print" analysis equipment is not yet available for purchase.

An extensive study is well advanced on surveys of motorcade routes to determine if any improvements can be made in assessing the risk of an ambush attack as related to the vantage point and concealment aspects of the various building and terrain features along the route. Some trial runs of new approaches to this problem have been made and more are contemplated.

A number of research projects are in progress in an effort to find additional non-lethal deterrents or countermeasures that might be effective in neutralizing either individuals or crowds under threatening circumstances or during an attack. Some of the studies are encouraging but will need a considerable amount of further research study.

A system for detecting that a bullet has been fired is nearing completion of the research and development stage. Preliminary tests indicate the equipment to be quite reliable. Consideration is currently being given to use of this equipment on the Presidential automobiles, aircraft, speaking stands, etc.

Extensive studies have been made on the hazards and crash survivability situation relating to the Presidential helicopters. The results of these evaluations are currently under study by personnel responsible for these aircraft, with the view of adopting any feasible suggestions that would improve the security of the President.

One closed circuit TV system has been in test operation as an aid to security at the White House for over a year. Additional systems are being programmed for installation at other White House locations where they would contribute to the overall protective capability.

Designs have been completed and plans are ready to rebuild the White House fence gates to strengthen them against breakthrough by a vehicle crash.

An extensive long range program was initiated several years ago, and will continue for some years in the future, for the purpose of reducing fire hazards in the White House by modifying construction and eliminating inflammable materials.

A new lock system has been designed for the White House and implementation is continuing.

Additional studies and research projects of lesser magnitude are receiving attention and some of these should eventually result in the adoption to improve techniques or equipment.

Furniture and Office Equipment . . . . . $ 51,000.00

Additional personnel will require the expenditure of an average of $150 per person for desk, chair, and related items. In addition, 40 electric typewriters for stenographer-typists will be required at an estimated cost of $300 each, for a total amount of approximately $51,000.00.

Equipment for Special Agents . . . . . 20,500.00

Items of equipment necessary to outfit a special agent include a revolver, holster, cartridge case, badge, commission book, instructional Manual and handcuffs. The average cost of this equipment is $100 per man. To equip 205 additional special agents - $20,500.00.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

Automobiles . . . . . $ 101,800.00
(101 automobiles @ $1,800 each)

Investigators engaged on criminal investigative work and on protective assignments must have adequate automobile transportation available day and night. Our long experience has shown that approximately one car for each two special agents is the minimum number required. On this basis, 101 cars are required for an additional 205 special agents.

Two-way Radio Communications for 101 Cars . . . . . 85,850.00

Special agents engaged in criminal investigative work and on protective assignments must have adequate mobile communications. Two-way mobile radios in official automobiles are the most effective method of communication, and quickly repay their cost in better utilization of the time of the investigators. In those areas where the Secret Service does not maintain its own stations, the mobile sets are on the same frequency as local or state police. This not only enables this Service to keep in close contact with the investigator, but gives him an immediate source to contact in case of trouble.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

RELATED SUPPORT REQUIREMENTS

Travel Funds . . . . . $ 164,000.00

The nature of the duties of Secret Service Special Agents requires considerable travel. Our actual experience has shown that the annual travel cost per special agent is about $800. We expect this cost to be the same - or perhaps higher - for the new agents. This rate for 205 additional special agents makes the requirement total $164,000.00.

Additional Space . . . . . 80,000.00

This sum is requested to provide for the new personnel and activities requested. It is a non-recurring item because it will provide for moving and payment for the cost for the first year; thereafter the cost will be paid by General Services Administration and carried in that budget.

There is already a shortage of space in the Secret Service, especially in Washington, and some of the requirement would relieve that shortage. There is no expansion capability at this time.

Specifically, space would be needed for the following activities:

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

To provide additional space for expanded training by the Headquarters "Pool" Training Detail . . . . . 2,000 sq. ft.

To provide for increased clerical personnel at Headquarters, in Statistics, Files and Records, Payroll, Purchase and Supply, Accounts and Audit Sections, and Office of Assistant Chief. . . . . 5,000 sq. ft.

To provide for expanded activities of Protective Research Section. . . . . 2,000 sq. ft.

To provide space for ADP Programmers and related activities . . . . . 1,000 sq. ft.

To provide an average of 400 square feet of space in 15 field offices to accommodate increased work load of security cases. . . . . 6,000 sq. ft.

Total 16,000 sq. ft. at an average cost of $4.00 per square feet - $80,000.00.

Additional Cost of Printing. . . . . . $ 10,000.00

Based on the number of additional employees requested, and the present rate of printing cost, an additional $10,000 will be required. The added employee cost in this connection will cover many necessary circulars and instructional memoranda, the printing of additional instructional Manuals, on all subjects ranging from office administration to protective survey work and operations of protective details.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

Maintenance for 101 Automobiles . . . . . $ 80,000.00

Our experience in operating a fleet of automobiles in investigative and protective work shows that the annual cost for maintenance and repairs is about $800 per car. This rate for 101 additional automobiles makes a total need of $80,800.00.

Additional Cost of Telephone Communications . . . . . 10,000.00

Based on the present cost of telephone communications, the additional employees requested will create a need for at least $10,000 in additional telephone service and toll charges. Protective assignments, being of an urgent nature, and usually with very limited time allowances, make necessary the use of telephone to a greater extent than the usual investigative assignments.

Transfer of Employees . . . . . 120,000.00

Because of the urgent nature of the expanded protection program, it will be necessary to transfer experienced special agents from present locations

It would be desirable for purchase of automobile for this point of program accomplishment, which in turn would not require purchase of radios now.
 It would, also, probably include only a relatively small portion of the additional space. Other phases of the implementation of the program would go into fiscal year 1965 and the following is an estimate of the cost in that year to continue and complete the plan.

Cost to be included in 1965 budget request -

Salaries of . . . . .	2,000,000.00
Total number of additional employees requested . . .	230
Number that can be absorbed by June 30, 1965 (assuming starting date of August 1, 1964). . . . .	75
Salaries to be employed by June 30, 1965 . . .	125 200

---C---

Since the bulk of the assignments require experienced field agents, it is desired that all new recruit agents would be restricted to 1-7 and would replace experienced agents mostly in regular field work.

Because of the need for competent clerical staff, the unassigned clerical would be restricted to the 1-7 level.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

AUG 31 1964

Dear Kermit:

The Secret Service has completed studies of initial requirements necessary for an expanded program for protection of the President and the Vice President of the United States and their families. The program is set forth in the attached planning document which explains the need for expansion in manpower, equipment and research, and other support. The plan will take approximately 20 months to implement and will require expenditures of approximately $3,000,000 during that period.

In brief, the plan provides for:

- I. Manpower - 205 agents, 5 technicians, and 50 clerks . . . . . $1,708,350
- A. Expanded Facilities in Protective Research - 17 agents, 5 ADP specialists.
  - 1. Research and Countermeasures Unit to check and insure the technical security of various locations used by the President and Vice President and maintain 24 hour coverage for Protective Research Section (6 agents).
  - 2. Protective Security Unit for advance work with local agencies and institutions (6 agents).
  - 3. Technical specialists to study and implement ADP for protective research (5 employees).
  - 4. Employees to expand liaison with law enforcement and intelligence agencies (5 special agents).
- B. Special agents for field offices - 145 agents.
These agents will handle greatly increased volume of security investigations in the field, be available to protect President or Vice President when they travel, locate and keep track of suspects, make surveys of areas where President may travel, reduce backlog of cases on hand, etc.
- C. Headquarters Detail - 18 agents for a rotating pool which will go through an intensive training cycle and also be available to supplement the White House Detail in case of unexpected need.

- D. Protection of the Vice President - 25 agents to provide the Vice President full protection 24 hours a day.
- E. Clerical and Administrative Support - 50 clerks.
- II. Equipment and Research . . . . . $ 488,500
  - A. Automatic Data Processing Study - using consultants, lease or purchase prototype equipment ($100,000).
  - B. Various armored devices and equipment ($323,500).
  - C. Intrusion detection and lighting ($55,000).
  - D. Limousine ($10,000).
- III. Other Support. . . . . $ 803,150
  - A. Equipment related to increased staff - autos, radios, furniture ($339,150).
  - B. Travel and transportation ($284,000).
  - C. Auto maintenance, space, communications, etc. ($180,000).

In my opinion, approval and implementation of the measures described in this plan are vital to insure that the President, the Vice President and their families are provided the best protection possible. After you have had an opportunity to review the plan, I would like to discuss with you the most expeditious means by which it might be implemented, including the possibility of a reapportionment on a deficiency basis of up to $1,000,000 followed by a supplemental appropriation.

With best wishes,

Subject: Criteria for Local Law Enforcement Regarding Secret Service Protective Functions

Attached is a sample letter which is the criteria we have formulated for local law enforcement to insure that we receive certain vital information. You should address such a letter to all local, county, and state law enforcement agencies in your district. Those will include Chiefs of Police, Sheriffs, State Police, and any others you deem necessary.

While I realize that it will entail considerable clerical work the letters to these officials will not be duplicated and an original will be sent to each official.

It is imperative that this phase of our program be expedited, and you should advise this office not later than November 1, 1964, of its completion. At that time furnish Headquarters with the number of letters sent to law-enforcement officials in your district.

The United States Secret Service is charged by Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 3056, with the responsibility of protecting the President of the United States, the members of his immediate family, the President-elect, the Vice President, or other officer next in the order of succession to the office of President, and the Vice President-elect, together with a former President, at his request, for a reasonable period after he leaves office.

Effective liaison with all law enforcement and intelligence agencies is necessary to insure that we receive information on individuals or groups of individuals who pose a potential threat to the safety of the President and others for whose protection the Secret Service is responsible.

Basically, the Secret Service should be furnished with any information coming to your attention of a threat to physically harm the President, or others named above, or to cause him or them any embarrassment, whether it is by an individual or a group or organization.

We are further interested in receiving any information of any individual or group of individuals who physically harm or threatens to harm any of your local, state, or nationally elected or appointed officials. In connection with this type of information we would like to receive any detailed data your file might contain concerning any such individual, such as his background, mental condition, propensity for violence, possession of arms, etc.

Should any information of the above nature come to your attention, please forward same to the undersigned. Any matter of an urgent nature involving a threat to the life of the President or others named in the first paragraph should be communicated to this office by telephone (collect if long distance).

Your cooperation in these matters will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Thank you for your letter of August 31, 1964. You may be assured that my office will continue to provide assistance and advice to the Secret Service along the lines outlined in your letter. I concur with your judgement that the increasingly complex nature of Presidential protection requires that the Secret Service have access to the best scientific advice if it is to keep protection abreast of the latest developments from the scientific community.

Dear Dr. Hornig:

Since the assassination of President Kennedy, the Secret Service has initiated a number of studies with a view to improving the protection afforded to the President. Your office has been of great assistance in arranging for studies covering scientific and technical aspects of protection. In previous years, your office had also provided informal technical and scientific advice to the Secret Service on various aspects of Presidential protection.

In the view of this Department the assistance of your office has been of great value to the Secret Service, and it is my hope that this relationship can be continued over the years ahead. In particular, I hope that your office can:

1. Inform the Secret Service or arrange to have it kept informed of scientific developments of possible use in providing protection to the President, the Vice President and their families.
2. Advise, or arrange for scientific advice to, the Secret Service in connection with specific problems of Presidential protection as they may arise.
3. Review from time to time the technical aspects of the protection operations of the Secret Service and its development program and assist it in establishing priorities and schedules for introducing technical or scientific improvements.

The problems in the area of Presidential protection are likely to be increasingly complex, and the importance of adequate protection for the President is of course vital to our national interest. Your assistance to the Secret Service fills an important need and is deeply appreciated.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

SEP 3 1964

Dear Mr. Rankin:

I am returning herewith the transcript of Secretary Dillon's testimony before the Commission on September 2, 1964, with certain corrections in the text.

During the Secretary's testimony, the Commission requested information concerning the recruitment policy of the United States Secret Service. (Page 8129 of the Report of the Proceedings held at Washington, D. C., Wednesday, September 2, 1964.)

In the absence of the Secretary from the country, and in order to expedite the submission of this information to the Commission, I am submitting herewith the following information concerning the qualifications for selection to the Secret Service and also concerning recruitment and promotion.

Applicants for Special Agent positions, United States Secret Service, are required to meet qualification requirements approved by the United States Civil Service Commission for the position of Treasury Enforcement Agent (Criminal Investigator, GS-1811 Series) in order to establish eligibility for consideration. A prospective applicant is required to have a minimum of three years' major criminal investigative experience and one year general police experience, or may substitute four years of education on a college level and a degree received from an accredited college or university as a substitute for the experience requirements. Preferential consideration is given to applicants who have completed college and have majored in police administration science, criminology and law, as applicants in this category better meet the suitability requirements for a Special Agent position with the United States Secret Service.

In addition, the Secret Service has Civil Service authority to recruit some Special Agent applicants non-competitively who meet the same established competitive qualification requirements for the position. This authority is limited to a total of 70 positions and has been granted to allow the Secret Service to recruit and appoint qualified applicants for assignment to protective duties who are not available for selection from competitive Civil Service registers.

Applicants are required to be in excellent health and must undergo a rigid physical examination by a physician and a complete medical examination subject to review and approval by the United States Public Health Service. Applicants are also subject to a comprehensive full field character background investigation as prescribed by Executive Order 10450, and are required to meet the highest standards of character and integrity.

Applicants selected for appointment to Special Agent positions enter on duty at Grade GS-7 ($6,050 per annum). After satisfactory completion of the probationary period, which is one year from the date of appointment, the employee is promoted to Grade GS-9 ($7,220 per annum). After two years of satisfactory performance in Grade GS-9, a Special Agent is promoted to GS-11 ($8,650 per annum), and this is considered as the first full level of performance for a Special Agent, or what may be described as the journeyman level. On the basis of training, experience, and performance, Special Agents may qualify for promotion to the Grade GS-12 and Grade GS-13. Supervisory positions in the Secret Service or employees in the criminal investigator series positions are subject to a merit promotional program, and selection of eligible employees for promotion to supervisory positions is in accordance with the provisions of the promotional program.

Special Agents of the Secret Service are eligible for retirement after satisfactorily completing twenty years of service and reaching the minimum age of 50, in accordance with Section 6 (C) of the Civil Service Retirement Act applicable to Federal employees engaged in hazard duties.

If additional information is required by the Commission, I should be happy to supply it upon request.
